CO-OP NURSERY POSSIBILITIES STUDIED

Mothers in the area have expressed some interest in promoting a co-op Nursery for children between the ages of three and five years. Manchester has never had such a nursery school and the possibilities of opening one are now being studied. The rural Rowes Corners school house at the corner of Pleasant Lake and the Manchester Chelsea road might prove to be adequate for such a school.

FIRE CAUSES DAMAGE HAYMO KNICHEL, GERMAN EXCHANGE STUDENT COMPARES SCHOOLS OF TWO COUNTRIES SET AT $25,000

Two separate fires on a Sylvan township farm last Friday caused damage estimated at more than $25,000. Sheriff's Department officers said the Chelsea Volunteer Fire Department was called at 5 p.m. Friday to the Irvin W. Steffens farm at 1674 Sylvan Rd. Chelsea firemen said the blaze was caused from sparks from a tractor exhaust set a fire which spread in the basement of the barn. Firemen worked for 2 hours to extinguish the blaze. Mr. Steffens said he checked the barn at 9:30 p.m. and everything apprently was alright. Shortly before llp.m. everything was ablaze in the barn.

The Manchester fire department was called to help the Chelsea department. According to Chelsea firemen the farmer processes dog food for a Detroit Company. A quantity of dried bread, lard etc. was burned in the fire which destroyed three small barns. Some 200 tons of feed was des-
