THREE TRUCKS DELIVER BOOKS

Books and more books! Mrs. Ted Tapping listened to the request for books for missions at the convention of the National Council of Catholic Women in Detroit. Miss Mary O'Hara of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County representative was asking for more books to be sent to missions in the United States, Africa and other foreign countries.

Mrs. Tapping has retired as president of St. Mary's Altar Society and decided that this was a project for her to try to collect the much needed books from this area. She talked with Miss O'Hara who promptly told the Manchester woman she would personally see that the books would reach the Detroit warehouse if they could be collected and taken to Ann Arbor. The representative didn't know exactly what she was bargaining for.

Books in the Junior and Elementary Schools here are furnished by the school and when the books are changed the outmoded ones are discarded. Mrs. Tapping checked with her husband, Junior High School Principal to see if anyone had asked for the old books which would not be used next year. A careful check revealed that no one wanted them no one but her.

There were over 3,000 text books, teachers manuals, mathematic books and novels which Mrs. Tapping managed to collect. Of course the school was the largest contributor, but many friends joined in and gave novels etc. Included too, were a number of maps which were most welcome. In all there were three truck loads of books which made their way to Ann Arbor.

Miss O'Hara said her nephew was borrowing a truck and transporting the books to Detroit to be used by the International Relations Department of the National Council of Catholic Women with Ruth Gerberg in charge. Besides books the committee is looking for cooking utensils to be sent to the missions. These utensils can be used ones, too, the representative said.

Among the articles including clothing which have been collected in this area recently are fur coats which still have years of wear. Some have been repaired by Ann Arbor furriers free of charge and sent to be used in some of the arctic missions where they will be most welcome.

Mrs. Tapping is still interested in collecting for the missions and people may contact her at her home. Other towns in the area sending books include the Milan and Whitaker schools.

BOY SCOUTS PLAN CAMPOUT AT CARR PARK

Boy Scouts of Troop 426 of Manchester will participate in the Strengthen America's Heritage program with special activities on American Heritage Day, July 18. Scouts all over the country in cooperation with Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge to preserve our Freedom Foundation through reverent, resolute and responsible patriotism.

Every troop in the nation is to have an American Heritage Camp fire which will coincide with the hundreds of troop fires at Valley Forge. Manchester's troop will set up camp at Carr Park Friday, July 17 and on Saturday there will be a special program at 8 P.M. There will be a Court of Honor and nearly every boy in the troop will be receiving an award. All scouts, families and friends of scouting in the community are invited and urged to attend the campfire and the program.

CHICKEN BROIL Thursday, July 16th

Manchester's eleventh annual charcoal chicken broil, the most popular event of its kind in the state, takes place next Thursday, July 16th, on the high school athletic field. On that day some two hundred citizens of the town will rival the legendary exploits of Paul Bunyon. Between the hours of 4:30 and 9:30 they will slowly broil and serve nearly four tons of plump Michigan bred chicken halves to over 6500 guests. Some sixty white hatted chefs will supervise the cooking on special turning grates resting on 150 feet of charcoal pits capable of cooking 180 chicken halves at one time.

The slow broil technique, which assures that the chicken will be done to a turn without blistering the skin, was developed by Howard Zindell, head of the Michigan State Poultry Science Department, who personally supervises the big Manchester event each year. The broil features Michigan chicken, generally plumper and better conditioned than imported varieties. Halves average 18 ounces. Crates of chicken are delivered to the pits from a refrigerated truck, from which they emerge lightly frosted but not frozen.

During the dinner, more than a ton of chilled cabbage will be fresh sliced on German sauerkraut slicers and converted into slaw with a vinegar and oil seasoning featuring plenty of celery seed. Buns, relishes, coffee and milk complete the menu. Although the broil is officially sponsored by the Optimist Club and the Jaycees, practically every organization in town takes part. High school classes supervise soft drinks and ice cream. Scouts, members of 4-H and FFA, church and Farm Bureau lend a hand. It's an all-male affair, the ladies take the day off.

The Manchester broil, which has become a model for similar mass picnics throughout the Midwest, depend for its smooth operations on the full cooperation of twenty-two committees. The largest committee presides over the pits, where sixty men do the broiling and basting. There are subcommittees to preheat a ton or more of charcoal and deliver it to the pits, take the chicken from truck to grid, turn and baste, test the chicken for finish, and deliver the cooked chicken to the serving lines.

There are two ticket lines and a special line for take-outs. There is a large host committee to show guests to tables seating two thousand people at one time, and to clean up places for newcomers. There are committees for coffee making, ice cream, soft drinks, and taking out potato chips, relishes and buns, for cutting slaw and bringing it to the serving tables. There is an audio committee to announce distinguished guests and advise the waiting diners of the chicken supply.

All these specialized committees, well trained in their jobs, assure a smooth running event. Many visitors come to Manchester not only to enjoy dinner, but to watch the spectacle. This year they will see the giant Paul Bunyan skillet, large enough to scramble eggs for 500 people. They will see an assortment of backyard charcoal broiling equipment. Two Class-A softball and speedball games will entertain guests before and after dinner. The sheriff's mounted detachment will direct traffic.

There has not been a serious threat of rain in the ten years the broil has been held. If there is rain on July 16, guests may take their dinners to nearby shelters, school rooms, and into their cars. Prices remain what they were in 1954: $1.50 for adults and $1.00 for children and $1.50 for take-outs. All profits go to the support of youth activities in the area.

Silver Anniversaries Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Burkhardt celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary June 27. The party was arranged by their children Patricia, Bonnie and Robert.

Guests were present from Charlotne, Bellevue, Clinton, Dexter, Ann Arbor, Whitmore Lake and Manchester. They received many lovely gifts. Their son Robert, who came from Thornton, Colorado for the occasion returned home Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Braum were pleasantly surprised Sunday at a party arranged at the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Smith. Helping Mrs. Smith with the arrangements were her sisters, Donna, Wanda and Mary Braum.

The nearly fifty guests were present from Ann Arbor, Clinton and Manchester. The couple was presented with lovely gifts by the group. Of special interest was the decorated anniversary cake made by Mrs. Smith and Donna Braum.

ICE CREAM SOCIAL

Zion Lutheran Church ice cream social will be held Tuesday, July 21 at the Rogers Corner Church at the corner of Fletcher and Waters Road north of Manchester. On the menu will be barbecues, baked beans, hot dogs, potato salad, ice cream, cake, bazaar and fish pond.

SUMMER SCHEDULE

The summer schedule of services are in effect at the Bethel Church with worship at 9 A.M. and Sunday school at 10 A.M.

HOUR OF SERVICE CHANGES

Sunday school and worship hour of the Manchester Methodist church have been changed and will be held one hour earlier through July and August to avoid the heat of the near noon hour.

Sunday school will be held at 8:50 a.m. and the worship hour and preaching service will be at 11 a.m. The choir is not having special music but individuals will be presented with special music during the summer months. The Methodist Youth Fellowship purchased and presented to the church on Sunday, July 5, two natural palms treated to hold their beauty. The presentation was made by Fred Randall, a member of the youth committee working on the program. Rev. J. Epps expressed thanks to the committee for the gift to the church.

FARMERETTES HOLD SUMMER MEET

Jolly Farmerettes held their fifth business meeting of the summer June 30 with Mrs. Lawrence Bowers giving a report on the Demonstration Clinic that was held June 29.

Members answered roll call by naming their hobby. Becky Feldkamp gave a report on the Detroit Edison picnic. Two members competed in the Skare-the-fun contest. Margaret Kemmer won in the small vocal group and will be going to District share-the-fun contest in July. Ten members and one leader represented the club in the Model Business Demonstration contest.

Those giving demonstrations were Carol Hone, Joyce Bowers, and Cindy Blossom. Carol Niehaus gave a talk about her trip to Washington. Refreshments were served and games played. The next meeting will be July 14.

4-H OFFERS SCHOLARSHIPS

College graduates with degrees in agricultural sciences are being sought by agri-business. One West Coast firm is launching a recruiting program to "entice young people into following agri-science careers". This company also encourages students to major in agronomy, entomology, plant pathology, horticulture and related courses by annually offering two scholarships of $800 each to college sophomores. They cover the areas of crop production and protection.

One of the qualifications for the grant is that the young man or woman must have been a 4-H Club member for at least three years. The scholarship donor is California Chemical Company, Ortho Division of San Francisco. "Talented young people will be needed in increasing numbers," said Dr. M. H. McVickar, California Chemical's Manager of agronomy, "so we may continue to enjoy the prosperity which starts with economic food production."

An East coast manufacturer is equally interested in attracting young people to agricultural careers. Homelite, a Division of Textron Inc., Port Chester, New York, offers four scholarships of $1,600 each to former 4-Hers who will major or minor in forestry. These scholarships are available to college freshmen.

In pointing up the need for continuing to develop agricultural sciences, Dr. D. G. Aldrich, internationally known agriculturist and educator at the University of California, said, "If this well-fed continent were called on to support its people with the tools of a century ago, we could very well rival India and China in poverty and human suffering."

He pointed out that Americans have the best food available at bargain prices. Russian and Japan spend about 50% of income on food compared to an average of about 23% in the United States. Population in this country is expected to double by the year 2,000. Education, science and industry will have to surpass its present efficiency to feed, cloth and house its people.

OBITUARY

MRS. KULENKAMP
 Mrs. Ruth L. Kulenkamp, 74, of 406 W. Main Street, died at her home Saturday, July 4.

She was born September 26, 1889 in Bridgewater township, the daughter of George and Ella King Rawson.

Mrs. Kulenkamp was graduated from Manchester High School in 1907. She was married to William Kulenkamp on December 29, 1909, in Bridgewater Township. Mr. Kulenkamp died April 24, 1960.

She was a member of the Manchester Methodist Church and the WSCS of the church. She was a life member of the Eastern Star and a member of the Ladies Arbiter Society. She was a member of the King's Daughters and an honorary member of the 20th Century Club.

Mrs. Kulenkamp is survived by a son, William of Ann Arbor; two daughters, Mrs. James (Ellen) Pratt of Manchester and Mrs. Wesley (Virginia) Proctor of Clinton; two brothers, Walter Rawson of Manchester and Frank Rawson of Clinton; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Teaboldt of Ann Arbor; 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 P.M. at the Methodist Church in Manchester with the Rev. Jesse Epps officiating and burial was in Oak Grove cemetery in Manchester. The body was in state at the Kulenkamp home at 407 W. Main Street until Tuesday morning when it was taken to the Methodist Church until time of the service.

County Clerk Seeks New Term In Office

Mrs. Luella M. Smith, county clerk for the past 25 years, announced today that she is a candidate for renomination by the Republican Party in the Sept. 1 primary.

Three other county office incumbents have announced their candidacies for county offices. They include Sheriff George A. Petersen, Drain Commissioner John Flook and Treasurer Sylvester A. Leonard. All are Republicans.

Mrs. Smith said today, "Assuming office in 1959, just before the county began its rapid industrialization and urbanization period. I have seen the volume of traffic, both human and paper, flowing through the office of the county clerk grow greatly. The clerk's office has taken on more duties, developed new techniques and installed new processes to keep in step with the increase in business.

"The confidence and support of Washtenaw County citizens have encouraged me in carrying out the numerous and complex duties of this office which touches the life of every person in the county."

Mrs. Smith has been the only woman to hold the clerk's office in Washtenaw and statewide has been recognized as the only woman president of the Michigan Association of County Clerks in its 56-year history.

She was a deputy county clerk and a deputy city clerk prior to her appointment as county clerk in 1939. She served as wartime price and rationing administrator for Washtenaw County and was in charge of the first draft for World War II.

The incumbent clerk has

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

CORN PRICES STRONG. On just about all markets, corn prices continue above last year. They are near last summer's peak prices on many markets. Exports have held strong, farmers have been tight holders and CCC sales have trailed well behind last season. It appears prices are about as high as they'll get for the rest of the season. It is unlikely any possible price gain during next 30 days will be enough to pay more than storage and shrink Plan to have all corn sold by mid-July.

BICARBONATE BOOSTS MILK FAT in high concentrate, low roughage dairy rations. Low butyrate tests associated with this type of ration can be corrected by adding bicarbonate to the ration at a rate of 1/2 to 1 pound per day, say University of Illinois dairy scientists. It appears that bicarbonate neutralizes excessive acids in the rumen. High amounts of propionic acid hinder butyrate synthesis.

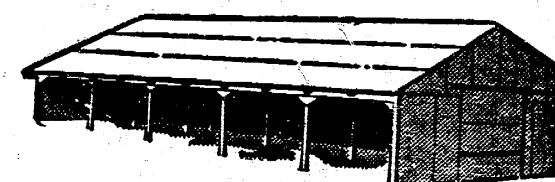

FLY CONTROL. Some areas such as pits, sheds, hog pens, loafing sheds and drainage ditches should be kept clean enough to eliminate fly breeding. Spread larvicide in these areas as granules, or a water emulsion mixture of malathion, diazinon or dieldrin to kill the hatchlings, maggots. Use a sprinker can or sprayer for water emulsion mixtures.

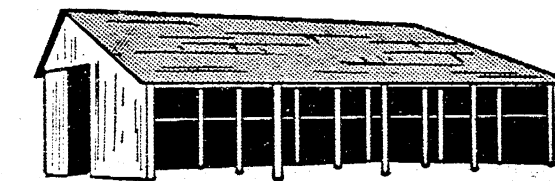

TRUCK TIRE BUYING. For high speeds and heavy loads, nylon cord plies are best. Drive wheels should have cross-lug tires while circular rib treads on front tires work well. Be careful not to overload your tires - a 10 percent overload cuts tire life by 18 percent.

$96.4 MILLIONS! That's what your telephone company plans to spend on construction this year, to keep pace with the telephone needs of Michigan businesses and families. "Construction" includes such things as laying cable, installing equipment, and putting up new buildings or building additions.

This year, and in the future, we expect to keep on building to meet Michigan's increasing needs for communications. And we'll be putting millions of dollars directly into our state's economy at the same time.

HALF THE FUN of a vacation is sharing it with the folks back home—by telephone. (Can't you just see the gang, as you describe the fish you caught, or the putt you sank?) And of course a considerate person always lets the folks know at once, when he reaches his destination safely. Make a note now to phone back often while you're away. It's almost as essential to happy vacationing—as phoning for reservations before you go!

EASY TO HOLD plus easy to talk into plus easy to listen to... equals your modern telephone! A lot of scientific research and engineering know-how went into making it so. Research, for instance, on the average distance between mouth and ear, the range of loudness of people's voices—even the width of their fingertips. (Those dial openings have to be big enough, you know!) It all contributed toward making your phone a pleasure to use.

BLOOD CLUB FRIDAY IN ANN ARBOR

Manchester residents and Double A Products employees and their families who were unable to attend the Bloodmobile in Manchester last month will have an opportunity again this Friday to donate to their Blood Club.

An open clinic at the American Red Cross Operations Center at 2729 Packard Road, Ann Arbor on July 10 from 2:00 to 7:30 P.M. will accept donors for the club and for out of town patients as well.

Please phone the Ann Arbor office for appointment time (662-5546).

The Manchester Blood Club added 93 pints to its account on June 10 but at that time it was also in debt over 20 pints. The next Bloodmobile will not be in Manchester until March 18, 1965.

Any resident of the Manchester School District or the southern portion of Washtenaw County covered by the Manchester Community Chest and Red Cross Drive, and employees of Double A Products and their immediate families are members of the Manchester Club. It is the responsibility of the family of the person needing blood to contact the Releasing Committee for their free service. This group includes Mrs. F. M. Reck, Mrs. Rolland Grossman, Mrs. Robert Huber and Richard Kintz of Double A Products.

SEEKING RE-ELECTION

State Representative Thomas G. Sharpe, Republican of Livingston County, announces that he is a candidate of re-election to the State Representative seat created by Michigan's new districting plan ruled on by State Supreme Court last week.

The fifty-first district is composed of all of Livingston and 12 townships in southwestern Washtenaw County. The townships are: Lyndon, Dexter, Sylvan, Lima, Scio, Sharon, Freedom, Lodi, Pittsfield, Manchester, Saline and Bridgewater and the township of Franklin in Lenawee County.

Mr. Sharpe is 47 years of age, married, and a father of four children. He and his family live on their farm on Argentine Road, Livingston County and he is associated with his uncle in the real estate business in Howell. Mr. Sharpe has served as a 4-H leader, various community affairs, former president of the Livingston County Farm Bureau and delegate to the Constitutional Convention. He was elected to House of Representatives in 1962 from Livingston and Shiawassee Counties and was appointed to committees on: Village Corporations, Conservation Social Aid and Welfare.

FARM NEWS

Hillmanlake ancarna, a six-year-old Registered Holstein cow owned by R. G. Dumar of Brooklyn, has produced a noteworthy record of 15,410 lbs. of milk and 535 lbs of butterfat in 305 days.

Michigan State University supervised the production, weighing, and testing operations, in cooperation with the official breed improvement programs of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

This level of production may be compared with the average U.S. dairy cow's annual output of 7,500 lbs of milk containing 275 lbs. of butterfat.

ESTES LEADS RED CROSS

At an overflow meeting of 300 persons at the annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross, Herbert Estes was elected Chairman of the Chapter. The largest meeting in the forty-seven year-old history of the Chapter spilled into the garage and included representatives from Detroit, Flint, Pontiac and Lenawee Red Cross Chapters, in addition to representatives from all of the county communities.

Outgoing Chairman James Beamer of Ann Arbor was elected vice chairman, with John Laird secretary and Roy E. Weber, treasurer.

This was the first annual meeting in the Red Cross Operations Center and the Chairman's report stated that $165,000 had been pledged to the Building Campaign. The report also pointed out the outstanding tribute to the International Red Cross given by the U of M Marching Band at the Michigan-Michigan State Game, and the training of Youth Volunteers for work in hospitals as two of the highlights in the past year. Beamer referred to the Fiftieth Anniversary of Water Safety.

George Coons, member of the Executive Committee, who was the speaker, using a "Maga-Zine" motif, reported on Red Cross activities, overseas, and at home, stating that 2,000 Red Cross Volunteers had assisted, trained, worked, helped, driven, collected and aided throughout the county to help our citizens.

PHOTOS ON DRIVERS' LICENSES POSE PROBLEM

Although it is now Michigan law to place the motorist's picture on his driver's license, it will be at least several months... perhaps a year... before the program goes into effect.

Secretary of State James Hare, whose department manufactures and distributes drivers' licenses, said he hoped Michigan residents did not get the impression that they would begin photo licenses just as soon as the bill was passed.

It will take a long time to decide on the kind of equipment that will do the job best, the type of process to use, and then see that equipment is installed and persons are trained to use it in nearly 250 stations throughout the state.

He said that the money needed for the equipment would be paid back when each applicant for a license would be assessed 50¢ for his license.

Hare said that this department had issued 1,800,000 driver's licenses in 1963, both originals and renewals. He said when photo license becomes operational, that close to 2-million licenses will be issued yearly.

"The department will be processing between 6,000 and 9,000 licenses per day with an average day geared for about 8,000," Hare said.

"We must also decide whether to set up our own processing plant here in Lansing or to contract the film processing work with the stipulation that the plant would have to meet our daily workload of about 8,000 licenses.

Since licenses come due on a person's birthday every three years, it might be several years before every Michigan resident has a license with his picture on it.

TOWNLINER WORKERS 4-H CLUB

Townline Workers 4-H Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Girbach with demonstrations given by Roger Weidmayer, James Burmeister, Gale Girbach and Philip Heimerdinger.

Refreshments followed the meeting and this concludes the meeting until September 1 when the club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Heimerdinger at 8 P.M.

INTERVIEWING CONTINUES FOR SUPERINTENDENT

The school board is busy interviewing candidates to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Harold Springsteen as superintendent of schools. A check with Luther Klager, president of the board, indicated that no decision has been reached at this time. There will be more interviews both Wednesday and Thursday of this week he said.

COUNCIL APPROVES LIGHTS, PUMP MAY BE REPAIRED

Manchester Council Monday approved new street lights for Spring Street area at the east end of town and also near the township library on West Main Street. Work is underway by the Layne Northern Company to correct the operation of Pump No. 1 for the supplying of the village water supply. According to village president, Eugene Bentschneider, the filter clogs with sand and plugs the pipes. It is believed that gravel can be used to eliminate the sand so that the well may be operating to capacity within three weeks.

Because of the numerous complaints concerning barking dogs, council is checking to determine the best action to take. There is an ordinance prohibiting dogs from running at large and council has decided that residents have just as much right to have it quiet at night.

HOSPITALIZED

Mrs. LeRoy Lamb is a patient at Herrick Memorial Hospital at Tecumseh where she was taken a week ago Monday with pneumonia.

SIDEWALK DAYS

Manchester merchants will stage their second SIDEWALK SALE this time to include $500 in prizes to be given away. The date of this gigantic sale is Wednesday, July 29. How's this for an eye opener - and a drawing card? Not only will there be real bargains hauled onto the sidewalks for everyone to gaze at and make their selections easy but merchants promise too, that there will be additional sales in their stores for this special event. There will be some terrific savings on all summer merchandise which merchants will be closing out at this time. This gives the purchaser a chance to buy at a real saving and still have plenty of time left to enjoy the merchandise this summer.

Last year everyone seemed to have such a good time during this first SIDEWALK SALE that the merchants believe it is well worth having and hasten to add that they are making plans for this one - having learned a lot from their first experience. They feel that they know better what the customer expects. The friendly atmosphere along Main Street was really contagious and everyone wanted to do something after the sale started. At first some didn't seem to know just how to start their sale, but one by one the merchants were seen bringing out their displays.

This year it will be different. Many have bought special merchandise for the sale - new merchandise. Last year some did bring out articles which must have made their first debut when the stores first opened. But everyone took the whole affair in the spirit in which it was intended and it turned out to be a very gala day for everyone. Some of the merchants who didn't have much to offer in the way of sidewalk merchandise used their ingenuity and made articles for sale and even peddled their wares along the street. One merchant said he didn't believe he made any money - he spent some - got a chance to visit with some of the other merchants - had a lot of fun and even if it was a lot of work - admitted that he enjoyed every minute of it.

Merchants are donating the prizes. Names of people and name of merchant giving it will be placed in sealed envelopes. There will be two drawings for the prizes which total value is $500 at 7:30 and at 9:30 p.m. Every participating merchant will be giving away tickets with each dollar of purchase beginning early Wednesday morning, July 29. The merchants' well known wire ticket barrel will be rolled out again and deposited in front of the Union Savings Bank, conveniently located for easy approach by everyone.

After the first drawing there will be a STREET DANCE in front of E. G. Mann's Mill featuring the lively music of Manchester's own DEL-TINO'S. This too, adds to the gay spirit of our second BIG SIDEWALK SALE. So make your plans now to include plenty of time to browse through the merchandise offered for sale, deposit your tickets in the barrel, eat pop corn, drink pop and coffee and dance to the music of the DEL-TINO'S! Yes, there is going to be plenty refreshments as the whole Sidewalk Sale takes on a bit of holiday spirit as the Senior Class takes over like peanut vendors selling pop, pop corn and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frode Maaseidvaag and Lise have returned to their home in Ann Arbor after a two-month's vacation in Stavanger, Norway where they visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Fredrik Maaseidvaag and other members of the family. When they arrived in New York they were met by Mr. Maaseidvaag's uncle, Louis Waag who had been attending the World's Fair.

He returned with them to Ann Arbor for a visit before returning to his home at Grand Forks, New North Dakota. They were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller on Tuesday and Thursday evenings. The Maaseidvaags made the trip non-stop from Oslo, Norway.

Mrs. Judith Reister Miller, received her diploma in office and stenographic studies at Cleary College which graduated 77 area students at recent commencement exercises.

GRADUATES FROM CLEARY COLLEGE

The U. S. Internal Revenue Service has announced that persons needing Social Security numbers for tax purposes should apply at any local office of the Social Security Administration or Internal Revenue Service.

The IRS says it has discontinued the special procedure, in effect for the past two years, of issuing such numbers centrally from Baltimore. The service says the volume of new requests has declined to the point where it is believed issuance can be handled at the local level more efficiently.

Washtenaw County residents may apply for Social Security numbers from Social Security Administration office at 1355 N. Main St. or at the Internal Revenue Service Office at 3430 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor.

COMING EVENT

POTLUCK PLANNED King's Daughters will meet at Carr Park at 12:30 p.m. Thursday July 23 for a potluck picnic. Coffee will be furnished by the committee.

APPLICANT'S SCREENED FOR SUPT'S POST

Applicants are still being interviewed by the Manchester School Board for the position of Superintendent of the Manchester School System. Eight have been interviewed as of Tuesday noon.

School Board members say they are very pleased by the excellent qualifications of those applying for the position and this is making the job of picking a suitable man more difficult.

"If only one person who applied would be qualified, our work would be much easier - but we are happy to be able to say that many of them have fine qualifications - making it necessary for us to personally interview a larger number of persons," one of the school board members said.

It is believed that in about a week they will be able to announce their decision.

TODAY IS CHICKEN BROIL DAY

FOUR TON OF CHICKEN READY TO SERVE TO 7000 GUESTS
200 MEN TO SERVE YOU SEATING 2000 AT ONE SETTING!!!

by Marie Schneider

Thursday, July 16, has arrived and with it the eleventh annual chicken broil. This is the day that men of this area set out to do their annual task of feeding charcoal broiled chicken to nearly four times the population of the town.

Slow-broiled chicken halves . . . 1,800 at a time . . . with 60 white hatted chefs supervising the cooking . . . Sound big? Well, then consider the 6,500 expected dinner guests and the Paul Bunyan skillet which can scramble eggs for 500 people at once.

They will all be present this afternoon when 2,000 guests can be served at a single setting to chicken broiled to a turn without blistering the skin.

Nearly four tons of plump Michigan chicken halves, averaging 18 ounces will be served from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the athletic field to a crowd which increases every year. It numbered over 6,000 last year and could go to 7,000 this year.

Tuesday morning Mr. Philip Mains and some of the high school boys started the first apparent work on the athletic field. For months before heads of committees were carefully napping out the plans for the big event. Tuesday the pits were built and since that time things have been humming.

It all began 11 years ago when Dr. Howard Zindel, head of the Michigan State University Poultry Science Department, believed that more chicken would be eaten and enjoyed by everyone if they knew how to prepare it.

He and his committee devised turning racks that would hold 20 halves of chicken, and cement block pits wide enough to hold the racks and high enough to save the chefs' backs.

Zindel's experiment was put to a severe test when an Indiana corporation heard about his technique and asked him to supervise the feeding of 10,000 guests at a gigantic corporation birthday party.

It was a success and Luther Klager of Manchester, a leading poultry man who was asked to help, brought the idea to Manchester with Dr. Zindel's aid.

They served 2,000 people the first year - nearly twice the size of Manchester at that time - and several hundred dollars was raised to improve the athletic field.

Men from the community and the surrounding areas make up the 22 committees at this time working on the broil. It records support youth activities. Plans are under way this year for new bleachers at Carr Park and the athletic field.

Optimist Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce are given a helping hand by members of 4-H, Future Farmers of America, Boy Scouts church groups and other organizations.

The hardest job belongs to the men working over the pits - 150' feet long.

Roland Grossman who heads this group, broke his ankle a few years ago while fighting a fire the night before the broil (he's a member of the volunteer fire department). But he was still on hand, working on crutches.

The lightly frosted chickens are brought in refrigerated trucks and are basted with country fresh butter as they broil. Sub committees preheat a ton or more of charcoal and deliver it to the pits, deliver the chickens from truck to grid, test the chicken for finish, and take it to the serving lines.

During the dinner more than a ton of chilled cabbage will be sliced on German sauerkraut cutters and with the vinegar, oil and sugar dressing accented with celery seed will become the much talked about cole slaw so well known as a part of the chicken broil. Then there's the buns, relishes, potato chips, coffee and milk on the menu.

Two Class A softball and speedball games will entertain guests before and after the dinner.

There are two ticket lines and a special line for take-outs. There is an audio committee announcing some of the guests and pertinent information concerning the dinner.

L. V. Kink, last year's president of the Optimist Club, was asked if there had ever been a serious threat of rain in the ten years of the broil. His answer was, "We have a special committee working on that too. Our ministers and priests are taking care of it." But if there should be rain, guests can take their dinners to nearby shelters, school rooms, or into their cars.
