

VISITS HERE

Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Epps have been entertaining his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. Purl Epps of Tulsa, Oklahoma for the past week, both at their home in Manchester and at their cabin at Thumb Lake near Gaylord.

Mr. E. Purl Epps has been associated with the Oklahoma Tire & Supply Co. For the past several years he has been supervisor of the Department of Service over all of the services for the nearly 500 stores the company owns throughout the states of Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma. Mr. Epps retired in February and devotes all his time to supervising a number of apartment houses which he owns.

While at the cabin they visited other points of interest including Boyne Mountain Ski Lodge near Boyne Falls, the Tahquamenon Falls State Park, Sault Ste. Marie Locks and the Catholic Shrine near Indian River. At the locks they took the excursion boat through the locks to St. Marys River and were informed by the captain of various points of interest along the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Epps left for their home Tuesday morning after having visited Greenfield Village during the day on Monday. On Monday evening they were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Szabo in Detroit. Mrs. Szabo is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Epps.

COUNCIL APPROVES LIGHTS, PUMP MAY BE REPAIRED

Manchester Council Monday approved new street lights for Spring Street area at the east end of town and also near the township library on West Main Street.

Work is underway by the Layne Northern Company to correct the operation of Pump No. 1 for the supplying of the village water supply. According to village president, Eugene Bentschneider, the filter clogs with sand and plugs the pipes. It is believed that gravel can be used to eliminate the sand so that the well may be operating to capacity within three weeks.

Because of the numerous complaints concerning barking dogs, council is checking to determine the best action to take. There is an ordinance prohibiting dogs from running at large and council has decided that residents have just as much right to have it quiet at night.

SIDEWALK DAYS

Manchester merchants will stage their second SIDEWALK SALE this time to include $500 in prizes to be given away. The date of this gigantic sale is Wednesday, July 29. How's this for an eye opener - and a drawing card? Not only will there be real bargains hauled onto the sidewalks for everyone to gaze at and make their selections easy but merchants promise too, that there will be additional sales in their stores for this special event. There will be some terrific savings on all summer merchandise which merchants will be closing out at this time. This gives the purchaser a chance to buy at a real saving and still have plenty of time left to enjoy the merchandise this summer.

Last year everyone seemed to have such a good time during this first SIDEWALK SALE that the merchants believe it is well worth having and hasten to add that they are making plans for this one - having learned a lot from their first experience. They feel that they know better what the customer expects. The friendly atmosphere along Main Street was really contagious and everyone wanted to do something after the sale started. At first some didn't seem to know just how to start their sale, but one by one the merchants were seen bringing out their displays.

This year it will be different. Many have bought special merchandise for the sale - new merchandise. Last year some did bring out articles which must have made their first debut when the stores first opened. But everyone took the whole affair in the spirit in which it was intended and it turned out to be a very gala day for everyone. Some of the merchants who didn't have much to offer in the way of sidewalk merchandise used their ingenuity and made articles for sale and even peddled their wares along the street. One merchant said he didn't believe he made any money - he spent some - got a chance to visit with some of the other merchants - had a lot of fun and even if it was a lot of work - admitted that he enjoyed every minute of it.

Merchants are donating the prizes. Names of people and name of merchant giving it will be placed in sealed envelopes. There will be two drawings for the prizes which total value is $500 at 7:30 and at 9:30 p.m. Every participating merchant will be giving away tickets with each dollar of purchase beginning early Wednesday morning, July 29. The merchants' well known wire ticket barrel will be rolled out again and deposited in front of the Union Savings Bank, conveniently located for easy approach by everyone.

After the first drawing there will be a STREET DANCE in front of E. G. Mann's Mill featuring the lively music of Manchester's own DEL-TINO'S. This too, adds to the gay spirit of our second BIG SIDEWALK SALE. So make your plans now to include plenty of time to browse through the merchandise offered for sale, deposit your tickets in the barrel, eat pop corn, drink pop and coffee and dance to the music of the DEL-TINO'S! Yes, there is going to be plenty refreshments as the whole Sidewalk Sale takes on a bit of holiday spirit as the Senior Class takes over like peanut vendors selling pop, pop corn and coffee.

APPLICANT'S SCREENED FOR SUPT'S POST

Applicants are still being interviewed by the Manchester School Board for the position of Superintendent of the Manchester School System. Eight have been interviewed as of Tuesday noon.

School Board members say they are very pleased by the excellent qualifications of those applying for the position and this is making the job of picking a suitable man more difficult.

"If only one person who applied would be qualified, our work would be much easier - but we are happy to be able to say that many of them have fine qualifications - making it necessary for us to personally interview a larger number of persons," one of the school board members said.

It is believed that in about a week they will be able to announce their decision.

IRS ALTERS TAX NUMBER PROCEDURE

The U. S. Internal Revenue Service has announced that persons needing Social Security numbers for tax purposes should apply at any local office of the Social Security Administration or Internal Revenue Service.

The IRS says it has discontinued the special procedure, in effect for the past two years, of issuing such numbers centrally from Baltimore. The service says the volume of new requests has declined to the point where it is believed issuance can be handled at the local level more efficiently.

Washtenaw County residents may apply for Social Security numbers from Social Security Administration office at 1355 N. Main St. or at the Internal Revenue Service Office at 3430 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor.

TODAY IS CHICKEN BROIL DAY

FOUR TON OF CHICKEN READY TO SERVE TO 7000 GUESTS 200 MEN TO SERVE YOU SEATING 2000 AT ONE SETTING!!!

by Marie Schneider

Thursday, July 16, has arrived and with it the eleventh annual chicken broil. This is the day that men of this area set out to do their annual task of feeding charcoal broiled chicken to nearly four times the population of the town.

Slow-broiled chicken halves . . . 1,800 at a time . . . with 60 white hatted chefs supervising the cooking . . . Sound big? Well, then consider the 6,500 expected dinner guests and the Paul Bunyan skillet which can scramble eggs for 500 people at once.

They will all be present this afternoon when 2,000 guests can be served at a single setting to chicken broiled to a turn without blistering the skin.

Nearly four tons of plump Michigan chicken halves, averaging 18 ounces will be served from 4:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the athletic field to a crowd which increases every year. It numbered over 6,000 last year and could go to 7,000 this year.

Tuesday morning Mr. Philip Mains and some of the high school boys started the first apparent work on the athletic field. For months before heads of committees were carefully napping out the plans for the big event. Tuesday the pits were built and since that time things have been humming.

It all began 11 years ago when Dr. Howard Zindel, head of the Michigan State University Poultry Science Department, believed that more chicken would be eaten and enjoyed by everyone if they knew how to prepare it.

He and his committee devised turning racks that would hold 20 halves of chicken, and cement block pits wide enough to hold the racks and high enough to save the chefs' backs. Zindel's experiment was put to a severe test when an Indiana corporation heard about his technique and asked him to supervise the feeding of 10,000 guests at a gigantic corporation birthday party.

It was a success and Luther Klager of Manchester, a leading poultry man who was asked to help, brought the idea to Manchester with Dr. Zindel's aid.

They served 2,000 people the first year - nearly twice the size of Manchester at that time - and several hundred dollars was raised to improve the athletic field.

Men from the community and the surrounding areas make up the 22 committees at this time working on the broil. Records support youth activities. Plans are under way this year for new bleachers at Carr Park and the athletic field.

Optimist Club and Junior Chamber of Commerce are given a helping hand by members of 4-H, Future Farmers of America, Boy Scouts church groups and other organizations.

The hardest job belongs to the men working over the pits - 150' feet long. Rolland Grossman who heads this group, broke his ankle a few years ago while fighting a fire the night before the broil (he's a member of the volunteer fire department). But he was still on hand, working on crutches.

The lightly frosted chickens are brought in refrigerated trucks and are basted with country fresh butter as they broil. Sub committees preheat a ton or more of charcoal and deliver it to the pits, deliver the chickens from truck to grid, test the chicken for finish, and take it to the serving lines.

During the dinner more than a ton of chilled cabbage will be sliced on German sauerkraut cutters and with the vinegar, oil and sugar dressing accented with celery seed will become the much talked about cole slaw so well known as a part of the chicken broil. Then there's the buns, relishes, potato chips, coffee and milk on the menu.

Two Class A softball and speedball games will entertain guests before and after the dinner.

There are two ticket lines and a special line for take-outs. There is an audio committee announcing some of the guests and pertinent information concerning the dinner.

L. V. Kink, last year's president of the Optimist Club, was asked if there had ever been a serious threat of rain in the ten years of the broil. His answer was, "We have a special committee working on that too. Our ministers and priests are taking care of it." But if there should be rain, guests can take their dinners to nearby shelters, school rooms, or into their cars.

TROUT FISHING FAVORED BY RECKS

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin M. Reck and 16-year-old Ray Doss of Flint spent six days at Bill Phillips Camp on Basswood Lake, north of Thessalon, Ontario, fishing for trout in some of their favorite streams north of the camp. They reported fairly good luck. The trout bit with satisfying frequency, and so did the black flies, deer flies and mosquitoes.

Two of the streams had been discovered by Reck and James B. Hendryx some fifteen years ago, and on these rivers the Recks had their best luck this year. Other parties have fished both rivers in the years since 1950, but the going is just rough enough, what with pulling the canoe over fallen logs and beaver dams, to discourage all but the most ardent fly fishermen. And the Recks admit that when it comes to stream fishing they are both slightly "tetched".

INSECTICIDES NEED CARE WARNS HEALTH DIRECTOR

Dr. Otto K. Engelke, director of the Washtenaw County Health Department, has issued a warning about the improper or careless use of highly toxic organic phosphate insecticides.

This warning is a result of several accidents that emphasize the extreme toxicity of organic phosphates. Because organic phosphate insecticides are highly toxic when absorbed into the system through the mouth, lungs or the skin, it is impossible to say just what method caused the death recently of a member of a farm supply company in southern state when he lifted a sack of parathion crop insecticide onto a shelf above his head. The sack broke, spilling the insecticide on his face and hands.

This incident involving a broken container was reminiscent of a case in Fresno, Calif. where blue jeans were saturated with an organic phosphate which had spilled from a punctured container while in transit. Dr. Engelke said that this illustrates how necessary it is to handle organic phosphate insecticides with the greatest of precautions, regardless of the container being a sack, bag, can or drum.

The problem of destroying insecticide containers is a real one. The burning of flammable containers may cause inhalation of the insecticides in the smoke. Yet, because of potential danger the containers must be destroyed properly.

The Washtenaw Health Department recommends that metal drums be rinsed twice, destroyed by crushing and buried. Dr. Engelke urges that anyone exposed to these highly toxic insecticides should seek medical attention immediately.

Protective clothing, including goggles and respirators should be worn at all times when handling or using insecticides. Extreme care should be taken to avoid inhalation or skin contact with it. Users should avoid eating, smoking, or chewing while working. Work clothes, including underclothes should be changed completely every day and replaced with clean clothes. Operators should be sure and take special care to use plenty of soap and water on arms, hands, face and other exposed skin areas.

PATRICIA HARDY SEEKS RE-NOMINATION

Mrs. Patricia Newkirk Hardy, Washtenaw County Register of Deeds, announced that she would seek re-nomination to her office on the Republican ticket in September primary election.

Mrs. Hardy has served in the Register of Deeds office since 1946 as a clerk-typist, then as deputy register and as Register of Deeds since January 1955.

In announcing her candidacy, Mrs. Hardy said, "I have endeavored to conduct the business of this office as prescribed by Michigan Law without special favor and with determination that we shall give courteous, efficient service at the least possible cost to the tax payers.

The operational budget of this office has been kept at the minimum, and the net profit has been turned in to the county general fund each year. In 1963, this amount was over $24,000."

"To be a part of county government is a great honor, and it is my sincere wish to continue to serve the people of Washtenaw County as Register of Deeds," Mrs. Hardy stated.

She is a member of the VFW Auxiliary, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Republican Committee, the Michigan Register of Deeds Association, and the National Association of County Officers. She is a life-long resident of Washtenaw County, attended school in Dexter Township, Dexter Ann Arbor.

LEGION AUXILIARY CONVENES

There will be no August meeting for the American Legion Auxiliary but there will be installation of officers in September.

Their annual picnic was held at the cottage of Virginia Sutton at Wampers Lake on July 9.

Mara Smith gave a very interesting report on her trip to Girls State which she attended as a delegate.

Junior Auxiliary members went to Saline June 20 for a second district meeting and Karen Jenter was elected secretary of the second district at the election of officers.

In Michigan... after a swim, beer is a natural

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer. Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Michigan... beer goes with fun, with relaxation UNITED STATES BREWERS ASSOCIATION, INC.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

EXPECTED PROFITS from purchasing feeder pigs for sale as fat hogs in October and November appear fairly slim. However, prospects for 70-pound feeders look a little better than for the 40-pound ones, largely because they'll be marketed earlier before prices experience much weakness this fall. Prospects are based on feed costs of about $18.30 for a 40-pound pig and $15.10 for the 70-pounders finished to a market weight of 225 pounds.

AUTOMATIC FEEDING VS. SELF-FED STEERS. Where concentrate was fed six times daily, feed efficiency was increased 7 percent over self-fed steers in Nebraska studies. Feed savings totaled $1.24 per day. In Illinois studies, steers fed six times daily ate 6.4 percent less feed, gained 3.3 percent faster and gained a pound on 9.3 percent less feed than self-fed steers.

CHECK COMBINE LOSSES. As illustrated, one can easily see that grain losses increase with faster harvest rates. Combine adjustment, therefore, becomes more critical with increased combine speeds. To check small grain losses mark off 1 square foot of area on the ground and count the kernels of grain. It takes from 18 to 20 to make a bushel of wheat; to the acre, 10 to 12 oat kernels, and 13 to 15 barley kernels.

WATCH MOTOR OIL quality. Although most manufacturers recommend an SAE (severe service) oil for general use in tractors, trucks, and autos, extensive tests show they don't all stand up in today's high compression engines. For quality assurance, cans should state that the oil has passed engine sequence tests or some similar statement.

You'd never forget where you left a car that looks this good.

You simply can't lose a looker like the Catalina, especially in a crowd. It's too distinctively Pontiac. So's its ride (Wide-Track smooth) and the way it moves (Trophy V-8 quick). Only thing you can forget is your notion about how much all this Pontiac should cost. You will, when you price a Catalina.

QUARANTINE EXTENDED ON BEETLE

Discovery by survey crews of the presence of the harmful pest has resulted in the addition of 13 more counties and parts of two others to the list of 17 southern Michigan counties under quarantine for cent leaf beetle.

The quarantine order was signed June 22 by Director G. S. McInoyne for the Michigan Department of Agriculture which has the responsibility of preventing spread of plant pests and plant diseases within the state.

The purpose of the quarantine is to prevent spread of this tiny destroyer of such growing grains as oats, wheat, rye, barley, and other crops. Indiana has 30 infested counties, and there are nine in Ohio and parts of two others. Three of these infested Ohio counties border on Michigan.

The new Michigan counties placed under quarantine and regulation on June 22 are Clinton, Genesee, Gratiot, Isabella, Lenawee, Livingston, Mecosta, Monroe, Montcalm, Nawaygo, Oceano, Saginaw and Shiawassee. Also included are townships of Freedom, Heidgewater, Linton, Manchester, Saline, Sharon, Sylvan and York in Washtenaw County and Lyon Township in Oakland County.

A. J. SAMBORN TO RUN FOR OFFICE

A new political map of Michigan has been drawn. Next November this will be a most important election and citizens will select a state legislature on the basis of the new political map. "I am entering the Republican primary and will campaign to become the representative to Lansing from the new 51st district, which includes an area served by this newspaper." With this statement, Albert J. Samborn, a resident of Scio Township, near Dexter, announced his entry into partisan politics. Samborn is program manager and news director of an Ann Arbor radio station. The 51st district includes a team of townships in western Washtenaw County and Pittsfield Township at the Southeast of Ann Arbor; all of Livingston County; and one township, Franklin, in Lenawee county. It is formed of parts of three former representative districts. The Washtenaw area was formerly a part of Representative James Warner's district. Livingston County was a part of Shawassee-Livingston District; and Franklin Township was in a district served by Representative Rollo Conlin. In accordance with the new districting based on population, the 51st district has a population of slightly more than 70,000. The population is about equally divided between Livingston County and townships in Washtenaw along with the Lenawee County township. "For the past 17 years I have been doing business with and communicating with the people living and working in the area bounded by the new district line. I think I have an understanding of the common interests and problems such that I can work with the citizens of this district as the interests and problems relate to government at the state level." While it is not the most common route to a political career, Samborn, as a broadcaster and journalist, is not setting a precedent. A member of Michigan's present legislature, Representative John Toepp, a Republican representing the Wexford District, is employed with a radio station in Cadillac. Also, the late Blair Moody was appointed U. S. Senator by Gov. Williams, while Moody was a Detroit newspaperman. Samborn is 41 years old. He graduated from the University of Michigan in 1949 after serving nearly five years with the U. S. Navy. He was born on a farm in Isabella County. The family, including Samborn's four brothers and three sisters, later moved to Clare. He graduated from Clare High School and in 1946, after his service in the Navy, while attending the University of Michigan, Samborn married a former schoolmate, Marguerite "Mick" McFall. They have one son and one daughter, attending Dexter Public Schools.

Low Superintendent Announced

Mr. Luther Klager, President of the Manchester Board of Education, has announced that Robert D. Swartz, Superintendent of the Bridgman Public School District, Bridgman, Michigan, has been appointed superintendent of the Manchester Public School District, Manchester, Michigan. Mr. Swartz received his AB and MA degrees from Western Michigan University and is working on an advanced degree program at Michigan State University. Prior to his appointment as superintendent of the Bridgman Public Schools, Mr. Swartz was assistant superintendent and business manager of the Brandywine Public Schools in Niles Township. He has taught rural schools in Cass and Berrien Counties and has been an elementary and secondary principal in the Niles Township System prior to his appointment as assistant superintendent. Mr. Swartz is a past president of the Berrien County Educational Association and a past president of the Berrien County Superintendent's Association. He is currently listed in "Who's Who in American Education". Mr. and Mrs. Swartz are the parents of two children, Kim 17, and Susan Ellen, 13.

Mr. Swartz replaces Harold Springsteen who has served as superintendent of the Manchester Schools this past year. Mr. Springsteen is taking a similar position with the Central Montcalm Public Schools, Stanton, Michigan. In selecting a replacement, Mr. Klager stated that many well qualified people were interviewed, but that Mr. Swartz, in every instance, met the criteria established by the Board in areas of curriculum, finance, public relations, and previous experiences. Mr. Klager further commented that Manchester is fortunate to have employed a man with Mr. Swartz's varied background in working on school studies and with citizen's groups and that programs now being under taken by the school may continue with no delay.

Chicken Broil Sets Record

Arthur E. Jenter Funeral Director Dies

Arthur E. Jenter, aged 69 years, a lifelong resident and Funeral Director in Manchester died suddenly Saturday evening as a result of a heart attack suffered shortly after being admitted to Herrick Memorial Hospital in Tecumseh. He was born August 4, 1894 in Manchester, the son of Ernest and Anna Schauble Jenter. He was married to Cora Grossman on Jan. 20, 1916. She survives. Mr. Jenter was a graduate of Manchester High School and the University of Michigan. He spent 53 years of his life in the funeral business in Manchester, having joined his father in 1910. He re-joined from the business on Dec. 31, 1953 when he sold it to his son Ronald. He was a member of Emanuel United Church of Christ in Manchester, the Michigan Funeral Directors Association and the

Another Chicken Broil is chalked up a success with about 6800 chicken halves served by 230 workers from the Manchester area who team up with cooperation nowhere equalled in these parts. Last Thursday, July 16 was a bright warm day with temperatures in the high eighties. Ideal weather for the Broil and due credit should be given to the weather committee which must have worked overtime to get such excellent results. It is the belief of everyone that this committee should be the same next year. Yes, the "Weather Committee" really works. Much credit is given to the men who man the pits but little is said about the fellows—the firemen who work directly with the hot charcoal. This is no small job. The Boy Scouts in their uniforms who helped with the "take-outs" did an excellent job of helping people load up and even help carry the take-outs to the cars. Everyone appreciated their quick, willing help. Serving began at 4:15 P.M. and the last person was served at 9:45 P.M. That figures to about 1380 people an hour. Think you could better it? The committee in charge of arrangements believe it can be done and plans are already underway to iron out the few bottlenecks by adding another pit next year and another serving line. When asked if there would be enough man-power to take over another pit the answer was that there sure are plenty more who would be glad to pitch in and help. The whole serving plan will have to be revised in order to make it work but with experts like Howard Zindell and some of our local men heading this one big event there is little doubt that they will be able to serve more in less time next year. 'Course serving 1380 a hour isn't what we'd call slow. But the crowds get bigger every year! Where do all the people come from? This year there were guests from as far away as Bombay, India, Uruguay and Sweden. Don't misunderstand—they didn't come that distance for the Broil and said that although they had been told about it, the broil far exceeded their wildest dreams as to the size of it. This is the time of year when friends and relatives plan to be in Manchester to meet friends they would never have a chance to see. What could be nicer than to see people you haven't seen in months or years and have a chance to visit with them while you munch away on butter basted broiled chicken, potato chips and cole slaw. Can you imagine a ton of cabbage for slaw! From the man who keeps the books he says that some 7279 pounds of chicken were brought in. There were 170 pounds of butter used. Of this amount 120 pounds of it were melted and brushed on the chicken. The local bakery ovens must have been sizzling hot to produce all the buns necessary for the dinner. If you are wondering how much coffee you'd need—you better plan on two cases less 3 pounds. Lakeside Dairy had to make an extra trip back to Jackson for additional milk—this too, set a record with 3470 half pints consumed. Local Red Cross nurses treated burns and any minor injury at a Red Cross emergency tent which had been set up. These were the only women working on the broil. They were Mrs. Willard Mann, Mrs. Laurel Breitenwischer, Mrs. Floyd Parr and Mrs. Floyd Pederson. Of special interest was a new way to fix chicken wings. Luther Klager passed out 150 pounds of wings—there are 12 to 13 to a pound. They too, were broiled after they had been marinated for a day in a special sauce. Mr. Klager said they'll have three times as many wings to pass out next year. This too broke the time that people stood in line for their dinners. All in all it was a very successful event. No one receives any money for their day's work and the profits will go for bleachers for Carr Park and the Athletic Field. The money will all be used for youth projects—to help the youth of Manchester!

IS THE FAMILY FARM DYING OUT?

No. Families still own and operate the vast majority of America's farms. But the family farm is changing. Modern methods, machinery and equipment have changed today's farms from an individual family operation to a multiple family "corporation". Fathers and their sons and even their grandsons operate a modern farm together as a family "corporation". The representative of this family "corporation" in the market place is the modern farm cooperative. The co-op gives today's farmers a strong voice in the marketing of their product. Co-ops also provide many special services and guarantees which an individual farmer could not provide alone. The result of this united effort is a more stable market for the dairy farmer and, for you, an uninterrupted supply of wholesome fresh milk. One of America's leading dairy cooperatives is Michigan Milk Producers Association.
