IS THE FAMILY FARM DYING OUT?

No. Families still own and operate the vast majority of America's farms. But the family farm is changing. Modern methods, machinery and equipment have changed today's farms from an individual family operation to a multiple family "corporation". Fathers and their sons and even their grandsons operate a modern farm together as a family "corporation". The representative of this family "corporation" in the market place is the modern farm cooperative. The co-op gives today's farmers a strong voice in the marketing of their product. Co-ops also provide many special services and guarantees which an individual farmer could not provide alone. The result of this united effort is a more stable market for the dairy farmer and, for you, an uninterrupted supply of wholesome fresh milk. One of America's leading dairy cooperatives is Michigan Milk Producers Association.

Bridgman Public School District, Bridgman, Michigan, has been appointed superintendent of the Manchester Public School Distric Manchester, Michigan, Mr. Swartz received his AB and MA degrees from Western Michigan University and is working on an advanced degree program at Michigan State University. Prior to his appointment as super superintendent of the Bridgman Public Schools, Mr. Swartz was assistant superintendent and business manager of the Brandy wine Public Schools in Niles Township. He has taught rural schools in Cass and Berrien Counties and has been an ele mentary and secondary principal in the Niles Township System prior to his appointment as assistant superintendent dent. Mr. Swartz is a past president of the Berrien Couty Educational Association and a past president of the Bergien County Superintendent's Association. He is currently listed in "Who's Who in American Education". Mr. and Mrs. Swartz are the parents of two children, Kim 17, and Susan Ellan, 13.

Mr. Swartz replaces Harold Springsteen who has served as superintendent of the Manchester Schools this past year. Mr. Springsteen is taking a similar position with the Central Montcalm Public Schools, Stanton, Michigan. In selecting a replacement, Mr. Klager stated that many well qualified people were interviewed, but that Mr. Swartz, in every instance, met the criteria established by the Board in areas of curriculum, finance, public relations, and previous experiences. Mr. Klager further commented that Manchester is fortunate to have employed a man with Mr. Swartz's varied background in working on school studies and with citizen's groups and that programs now being under taken by the school may continue with no delay.

it work but with experts like Howard Zindell and some of our local men heading this one big event there is little doubt that they will be able to serve more in less time next year. 'Course serving 1380 an hour isn't what we'd call slow. But the crowds get bigger every year! Where do all the people come from? This year there were guests from as far away as Bombay, India, Uraguay and Sweden. Don't misunderstand-they didn't come that distance for the Broil and said that although they had been told about it, the broil far exceeded their wildest dreams as to the size of it.

This is the time of year when friends and relatives plan to be in Manchester to meet friends they would never have a ch What could be nicer than to see people you haven't seen in months or years and have a chance to visit with them while you munch away on butter basted broiled chicken, potato chips and cole slaw. Can you imagine a ton of cabbage for slaw!

From the man who keeps the books he says that some 7279 pounds of chicken were brought in. There were 170 pounds of butter used-Of this amount 120 pounds of it were melted and brushed on the chicken. The local bakery ovens must have been sizzling hot to produce all the buns necessary for the dinner. If you are wondering how much coffee you'd need-you better plan on two cases less 3 pounds. Lakeside Dairy had to make an extra trip back to Jackson for additional milk-this too, set a record with 3470 half pints consumed. Local Red Cross nurses treated burns and any minor injury at a Red Cross emergency tent which had been set up. These were the only women working on the broil. They were Mrs. Willard Mann, Mrs. Laurel Breitenwischer, Mrs. Floyd Parr and Mrs. Floyd Peder-

Of special interest was a new way to fix chicken wings. Luther Manchester, the son of Ernest and Commandery #13 Knights Templar Klager passed out 150 pounds of wings-there are 12 to 13 to a pound. They too, were broiled after they had been marinated for a day in a special sauce. Mr. Klager said they'll have three times as many wings to pass out next year. This too broke the time that people

> All in all it was a very successful event. No one receives any money for their day's work and the profits will go for bleachers for Carr Park and the Athletic Field. The money will all be used for youth projects-to help the youth of Manchester!

camp at 13450 Jerusalem Rd. beyond the Chrysler Proving und will present a play, sysician in Spite of Himself to the public at their barn theatre Thursday and Friday week at 8 P.M.

Mrs. George Frisinger is the r-manager of the farm ch invites children aged 10 to years to join in either six or week sessions each summer study from experienced peranel about the theatre. Busses ack up the children from the Ann Arbor, Jackson and Chelsea as at about 9 a.m. and the comp classes conclude at 4 P.M.

This year there is a new attracttim for a day camp for children six through ten years is includedwith emphasis on showing children the operation of a farm and giving Eugene O'Brien of Detroit; 20 them a first hand opportunity to see farm animals in their own environment on the farm. There is a large woods on the 160 acre arm and a swimming pool (artificial lake) so crafts and outdoor sports are on the program.

The camp has been in operation four years and stems from Mrs. Frisinger's desire to have her own teenage son continue work in creative dramatics without taking him to Ann Arbor for classes. Apeogram was worked out with University of Michigan people to have classes on the farm. That was the beginning-now there are about 25 children in the older age group and a few less in the classes of younger children.

Mortin Arhter, director of the theatre group is also working on his master's degree at the University of Michigan and for 13 years was on the staff at Interlochen He is assisted by three others from the University teaching at the theatre whorshop which includes very phase of theatre work from building of scenery to costuming and stage directing. Creative writing is also a part of the daily schedule

Wednesday, July 29 the students will present several original plays beginning at 3 P.M. and on Friday, July 31 the minor worksho p will present "Green Grows the Lilac" from Oklahoma.

Anyone interested in the threat theatre is invited to watch the performances in the barn setting. There is no admission. The farm was formerly owned by the late Mrs. Fredericka Widmayer of Manchester merchants will stage their second SIDEWALK SAIEthis time to include $500 in prizes to be given away. The date of > chandise this summer. Last year everyone seemed to have such a good time during this first SIDEWALK SALE that the merchants believe it is well worth having and hasten to add that they are making plans for this onehaving learned a lot from their first experience. They feel that they know better what the customer expects. The friendly atmosphere along Main Street was really contagious and everyone wanted to do something after the sale started. At first some didn't seem to know just how to start their sale, but one by one the merchants were seen bringing out their displays.

> This year it will be different. Many have bought special merchandise for the sale-new merchandise. Last year some did bring out articles which must have made their first debut when the stores first opened. But everyone took the whole affair in the spirit in which it was intended and it turned out to be a very galla day for everyone. Some of the merchants who didn't have much to offer in the way of sidewalk merchandise used their ingenuity and made articles for sale and even peddled their wares along the street. One merchant said he didn't believe he made any money-he spent some-got a chance to visit with some of the other merchants-had a lot of fun and even if it was a lot of work-admitted that he enjoyed every minute of it.

> Merchants are donating the prizes. Names of prizes and name of merchant giving it will be placed in sealed envelopes. There will be two drawings for the prizes which total value is $500 at 7:30 and at 9:30 p.m. Every participating merchant will be giving away tickets with each dollar of purchase beginning early Wednesday morning, July 29. The merchants' well known wire ticket barrel will be rolled out again and deposited in front of the Union Savings Bank, conveniently located for easy approach by everyone.

> After the first drawing there will be a STREET DANCE in front of E. G. Mann's Mill featuring the lively music of Manchester's own DEL-TINO'S. This too, adds to the gay spirit of our second BIG SIDEWALK SALE. So make your plans now to include plenty of time to browse through the merchandise offered for sale, deposit your tickets in the barrel, eat pop corn, drink pop and coffee and dance to the music of the DEL-TINO'S! Yes, there is going to be plenty refreshments as the whole Sidewalk Sale takes on a bit of holiday spirit as the Senior Class takes over like peanut venders selling pop, pop corn and coffee
