REZONING APPROVED BY VILLAGE COUNCIL

Let's put out the red carpet for Hoover Ball & Bearing. That was the general opinion which by standers got when they attended Monday's Council meeting at the township hall. The council room was full and interested spectators spilled over into the hallway.

All this was good for it showed that a large number of people are more than mildly interested in seeing Manchester progress.

J. C. Hendley, acting for the company and presenting the facts to the council, did much to clarify some of the questions.

It was clearly brought out that the Manchester Township and Village Zoning Ordinances have a list of 47 types of manufacturing concerns which cannot be put into operation in Manchester. Hoover Ball & Bearing is not in any of these categories. Their plants in this area speak for themselves as to what they add to the communities in which they are located.

If the plant moves in it will face M-52 and not Sooten Road.

The council unanimously approved the rezoning of the 1.9 acres of the Lowell Farm farm, which is in the village, from agricultural to commercial.

Manchester township board last week approved the rezoning of about 18.5 acres of the farm from agricultural to commercial. The tract of land is slated as a plant site for Hoover Ball & Bearing Co. of Ann Arbor.

Luther Klager, on behalf of the public assembled asked that a motion be made for the village clerk to insert a note in the minutes, that the assembled people also go on record as approving the measure. His motion was supported by Ed. Galloway. There was no dissenting vote when the vote was taken by Village president, Eugene Bentschneider.

People took advantage of their right to express an opinion and to ask questions during the hour-long time which was open to the public for their views. All of this shows that folks in town are anxious to progress but at the same time they want to know all the facts concerning any change in policy.

The Council also named a committee to study a request by the company to set up a water supply system, sewage disposal, and a road to the plant site.

Three councilmen were named to the committee along with village president Eugene Bentschneider. They are: Public Works department head, Basil McGuire, finance committee head, Robert Clark, and Donald Dorff.

Let's put out the red carpet for Hoover Ball & Bearing. That was the general opinion which by standers got when they attended Monday's Council meeting at the township hall. The council room was full and interested spectators spilled over into the hallway.

All this was good for it showed that a large number of people are more than mildly interested in seeing Manchester progress.

J. C. Hendley, acting for the company and presenting the facts to the council, did much to clarify some of the questions.

It was clearly brought out that the Manchester Township and Village Zoning Ordinances have a list of 47 types of manufacturing concerns which cannot be put into operation in Manchester. Hoover Ball & Bearing is not in any of these categories. Their plants in this area speak for themselves as to what they add to the communities in which they are located.

If the plant moves in it will face M-52 and not Sooten Road.

The council unanimously approved the rezoning of the 1.9 acres of the Lowell Farm farm, which is in the village, from

GAINES WHEAT NOT RECOMMENDED

Michigan State University Crop Science Department and the Michigan Millers Association strongly recommend that Michigan wheat growers avoid planting Gaines wheat this fall. This new Pacific Coast variety has attracted the attention of wheat growers on account of the widely publicized short-strawed characteristic it possesses and the high yield record in Washington. Gaines is a semi-hard white wheat developed at the Washington Agricultural Experiment Station. It is 7-10 days later in maturity than Genesee or Avon. The soft wheat quality is satisfactory when grown in the Pacific Northwest where it is adapted.

However, when grown in Michigan the Gaines variety has undesirable characteristics that seriously damage the reputation of Michigan's soft white wheat. Gaines has been tested for several years in MSU trials and found to be poorly adapted to Michigan. In variety comparisons made this year by farmers in several Michigan counties, Gaines yielded 75 to 80 percent as much as Genesee or Avon, the recommended varieties in Michigan. The samples of Gaines collected from these areas had a high percentage of badly shrunk grain.

Limited milling tests made by Michigan millers of Michigan grown Gaines show a low yield of flour and poor bran clean-up. In laboratory and baking tests the flour had a higher protein content than that from Avon or Genesee and was deficient in the coolly-spread factor. In Michigan trials has proved to be very susceptible to mildew, stem and leaf rust.

BRIAN LAVAN IS CANDIDATE FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Brian Lavan of 624 Spencer Rd. Brighton announces that on July 14 he filed for the Democratic nomination for the State House of Representatives from the 51st District. The newly formed District contains all of Livingston County, the Western Tier of townships in Washtenaw County and Franklin Township in Lenawee County.

In announcing his candidacy Lavan said: "My decision to seek a office of State Representative from the 51st District is based upon a desire to serve all of the people of this new district. His major aims are in the fields of education where he believes the creation and expansion of research facilities at the University of Michigan. He also is in favor of legislation preventing dropouts of the use of trade schools for young people.

He believes that the State, through its Republican dominated legislature, has been derelict in its approach to the problems of mental illness; a problem of major significance to the late President Kennedy.

He would fight for tax relief for all senior citizens. Finally, he is in disagreement with a portion of his district that prides itself in paving the worst roads in the state. He would work diligently with all his ingenuity and intelligence to see that progress is made in this field.

Brian Lavan has been a life-long resident of Brighton. He has been a life-long Democrat. He knows the problems of the working man, the farmer, and the small businessman of the entire district.

He is a veteran of the Armed Services, He is doing post-graduate work at the University of Detroit College of Law where he is on the Dean's honor list. If Brian Lavan is elected he will represent all of the people and will also work in harmony with Neil Steabler, running for governor of the state.

COUNTY FAIR TIME IS HERE!

County Fair time is here again. While most Michigan citizens are having a good time at the fairs they attend, a few will be fleeced by sellers of merchandise who do not keep their word.

Each year sellers who do not have a sales tax license issued by Michigan Department of Revenue are active in selling goods at the various store sites at the fairs.

Complain are received every year that these out-of-state sellers do not even remit any sales tax to the State of Michigan.

This happens despite the fact that the buyer of such goods pays the tax to the seller and is assured it will be taken care of.

Michigan law requires the buyers of goods in such instances to pay a use tax equal to the sales tax. The only way to protect yourself in cases like this is to demand to see a copy of the seller's sales tax license. If he has one, you are protected. If he does not, beware.

HIGH MOISTURE EAR CORN can be stored safely in conventional concrete bins with storage losses of 3% or less. This is the result of Michigan research findings. To accomplish this corn needs to be stored at moisture contents of 25% to 30%. Corn needs to be ground in a hammer or roller mill and stored in a tightly sealed silo. High-moisture ear corn can easily be handled with a loader, auger and self-unloading wagon.

AN ON-FARM FEED PROCESSING SYSTEM can be installed on most farms for an annual feed cost of not more than $200, says R. J. Muth of the University of Illinois. Variable costs to cover power, repairs and labor usually won't run more than 25c per ton on the small automatic units. If 100 tons or more are processed, the cost should be reasonable.

LONGER HOGS ARE LEANER. A USDA study indicates that a carcass length of 31 inches is most desirable for lean meat production. They evaluated 473 carcasses of Duroc and Yorkshire breeds. As carcass length increased, they found a consistently lower backfat thickness, larger loin-eye muscle area and more pounds of lean cuts. Relationship held up to a carcass length of 31 inches.

DAIRYMEN, KEEP FIXED COSTS LOW. For top dairy farm managers in Ohio it took only 2% of their gross income to pay their fixed costs. Without skillful management and precise adjustments, overhead can absorb 4% or more of the gross income.

Crossbred Beef Cattle Promise Faster Gains

Will beef cattle raisers eventually switch from purebreds to crossbreds?

Comparisons at experiment stations show that cattle crosses outperform purebreds in the same way crossed pigs outperform their purebred ancestors. Farm Journal magazine reports:

Purebred cattle crosses produce more pounds of gain—resulting in heavier, stronger calves at weaning, faster gains and higher grades.

S. L. Crochet, who heads cattle operations for the B&K USSC Ranch in Florida, makes three-way crosses with great success. He first crosses a European breed of bull—either Angus, Hereford or Charolais—on Brahman cows, then breeds these half-and-halves back to a European bull of a different breed than used in the original cross.

Crochet says that three-breed hybrid calves will wean 22% to 34% heavier than straightbreds, compared with an average 18% increase in weight for two-breed crosses.

Two-year tests at the Ft. Robinson, Neb., Beef Research Station shows that Angus, Shorthorn and Hereford crosses have these advantages over purebreds:

Stronger calves — 7% more alive 10 days after birth, 6% more alive after weaning.

Rotating Parlor Helps Labor Efficiency

A rotating milking parlor has increased labor efficiency for a Washington State farmer.

The stalls circle around the pit, making a rotation every six minutes, leaving 1 1/2 minutes to prepare a cow and 4 1/2 minutes to milk her.

Steelhammer built the parlor at a cost of less than $2,000 for everything but the milking machines and milk tank. He uses a half-horsepower motor to wheel the cows around on a circular platform that moves on sealed-roller bearings over a circular I-beam track. He made the platform with diamond plate steel decking, 26 inches above the pit floor. The platform is 28 inches wide.

A feed box in each stall is filled from an overhead storage bin.

Heavier at weaning — 97 crosses bred outweighted 82 straightbreds by an average 22 pounds at 200 days the first year; by 17 pounds the second year.

Faster gains in feedlot — crossbred steers outweighted straightbreds by 43 pounds when marketed.

SPECIAL MEETING SET FOR SEPTEMBER 15th

The Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors decided to hold a special meeting September 15 for the purpose of putting the 18-mill proposal on the November general election ballot.

This proposal, arrived at after six hearings, would raise the amount of millage to be allocated from 15 mills ($15 per $1,000 of taxable equalized valuation) to 18 mills, and would provide for a fixed division of the total among the school districts, the county, townships, and the intermediate school district, for an indefinite period of time.

The county's proposed allocation under the new system would be 3.5 mills of the 18 mills, with the school districts getting 11.22 mills. The county had sought 5.649 mills, which would be nearly the same percentage of the total it now gets from the 15 mills. This year the county received 4.80 and the schools 9.59 mills.

According to Clayton Parr, Manchester Township supervisor, the supervisors pointed out at their meeting that it might be better to permit the people of the county to vote on the issue in the fall election by putting this proposal of the allocation board on the November ballot. Parr noted that this is not a proposal of the Board of Supervisors but of the allocation board.

The proposal could have been prevented from going to the voters if the board of supervisors had decided not to meet before its next regular session which is scheduled for September 21.

Under the old system in use this year the county gets 4.80 mills, the school 9.59 mills, Manchester Township .53 mills and the Washtenaw intermediate school district .08 mills.

It should be pointed out that there are three methods of placing this proposal on the ballot: the petition by the allocation board which is being done at this time; or, by a referendum petition by 4 per cent of the registered voters; or by a direct action by the board of supervisors by majority vote.

MARTIN FARM, NEARLY CENTURY OLD TO BE HOME OF FORMER GOVERNOR

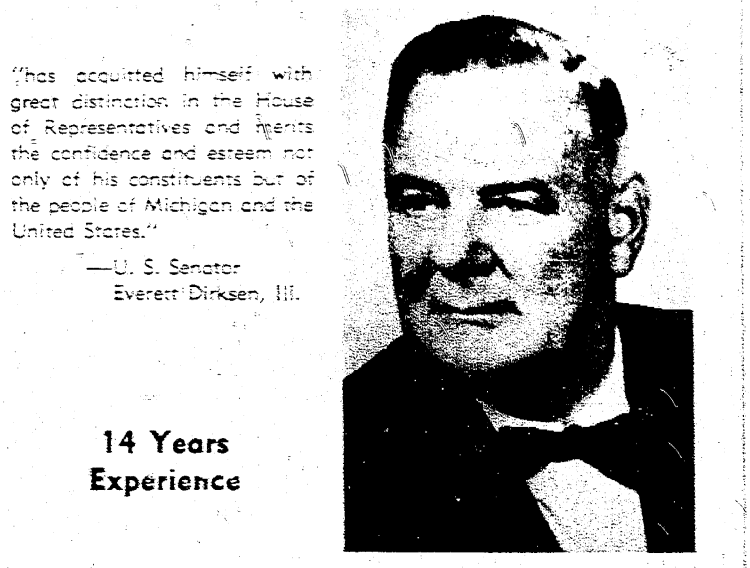

-by Marie Schneider

It will be hard for Manchester folks to refer to the farm at 10301 Hogan Road, two and a half miles southeast of town in Bridgewater township, as anything except the Martin Farm, even when the new owner is the distinguished former Gov. John B. Swainson. This is understandable for the farm has been in the Martin family for a long time—just a few months short of a hundred years.

QUESTION BOX

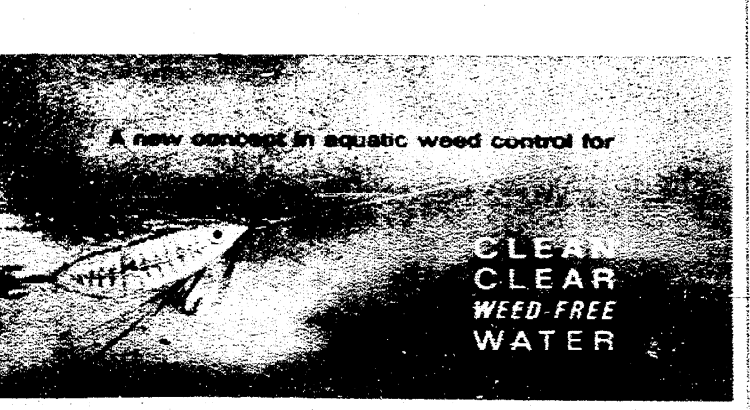

Q. During our visit to the World's Fair, we plan to stay at a midtown hotel on the West Side. Will it be easy to get to the Fair from that location?
A. Just a 30-minute subway ride (the Flushing IRT) takes you right to the Fair entrance. You also can get there by excursion boat leaving from the Hudson River pier at 40th Street, or by Long Island Railroad from Penn Station nearby.

COMMUNITY CHEST UPS GOAL FOR DRIVE

At a special meeting of the Manchester United Community Fund Board the following budget allocations were submitted by the budget committee and unanimously accepted by the Board members.

1965 Budget

Red Cross	$3000.00
Manchester Recreation	2600.00
United Fund	2377.00
Portage Trail Boy Scouts	500.00
Cystic Fibrosis	375.00
Salvation Army	300.00
Manchester Year Book	250.00
School Band	200.00
Student Council	200.00
The Clovers	150.00
Catholic Social Service	100.00
Pleasant Lake School	50.00
Huron Valley Child Service	50.00
Total Drive Goal	$10152.00

The 1965 goal has increased $769.00 over the 1964 Budget. This increase is due to the addition of one new agency, Cystic Fibrosis, which has been active individually in the area the past two years. A review of the needs and the work done by the group provided to the committee that it should be included in the Manchester Fund.

Members of the budget committee include Louis Vogel, chairman, Edward Galloway, Clayton Parr, Fred Leeman, Ted Tapping, and Mrs. Ray Tirib.

The goal increase this year was also caused by the increased needs of Catholic Social Service, Michigan United Fund and the American Red Cross.

The Drive dates will be October 12 through October 31. A Kick-Off Instruction Meeting will be held on October 8 for all volunteer workers.

SIDEWALK IMPROVEMENTS

Village Council has money earmarked for sidewalks improvement. According to village clerk, Lyle Widmayer, the council would be interested in finding out what property owners in Manchester really want new sidewalks. The sidewalks under discussion are not labeled "new" sidewalks. The council is concerned with rebuilding sidewalks which are already in place.

Widmayer pointed out that this is a fifty-fifty proposition with half the cost paid by the property owners and the other half by the village. This does not mean that residents who have never had a sidewalk can ask for one. This would have to be handled differently and the street consenting to the installation. What council wants to know is who wants their present sidewalk rebuilt?

Village president, Eugene Bentschneider says that council is accepting applications for the treatment plant operator's post here, which was vacated Friday when Allan Ernst resigned his position to accept a similar one at Vassar.

General Primary Election will be held from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 1 at the village hall.

IGA NEW PARKING LOT TO OPEN

Its good news for IGA customers! The new parking lot, just to the west of the store will be open for the use of customers in the very near future.

The project got underway about three months ago. It was prompted by an increasing need of more parking area east of the Main St. bridge.

Manchester Development Co., owner of the building which houses the A & B Market (IGA store) tore down the old Conklin Building and had the Memorial Stone moved to the park in front of the Manchester Township Library on West Main Street.

Then the work of filling in the area began and tons of fill dirt were used to bring the parking area site up to the street level. The village chipped in a small amount of land to aid the project. This past week the ground rails were put up and now and then a car ventures in to park. But the area isn't open for general store parking yet.

The area will be blacktopped by the Ann Arbor Asphalt Co. and there will be accommodations for about 18 cars.

Cars will enter the parking lot at Main street and leave on Ann Arbor Street. There is only a one way entrance and exit to the parking lot.

The store itself has undergone a remodeling program. A new furnace has been installed, along with a tile floor, new doors and a revamped store front. All this has been done to make shopping at the IGA store more pleasant and less crowded in the shopping area which has been increased in the remodeling spree.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH JOINS UNITED CHURCH

St. John's Evangelical and Reformed Church of Rogers Corners in Freedom Township has been received into the Ann Arbor-Jackson Association of the United Church of Christ during a special service at the church Sunday. Several months of negotiating took place prior to this time, after the church membership asked admittance to the Association, before acceptance was granted.

The church is located at the corner of Waters and Fletcher Rds. Freedom Township. The Rev. Richard E. Crusius of Ann Arbor, the Association Moderator had charge of the business meeting.

COMING EVENT

Women's Guild of Bethel Church will meet at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday September 2 with Mrs. Louis Vogel as the program chairman.

STEER CLUB LUNCHEON

A big part of the Manchester Community Fair is the Steer Club and the judging of the 31 steers Thursday night under the lights at 8 p. m. on the softball diamond.

According to Maynard Blossom, agricultural teacher at Manchester High School, who has directed the Steer Club, the animals will be judged by William MacLeod, District Marketing Agent.

The Steer Club is sponsored by the Optimist Club with William Hamilton, Chairman of the Steer Committee. Dr. H. F. Earnest, local veterinarian, gives the boys the advice and help they seek during the time they are fattening the steers. The steers were purchased from the Napoleon Livestock Sales. Twenty-three came from Gaylord and eight from the Napoleon area and were bought October 18, 1963 and insured by Sutton Agency with a Hartford Livestock Policy, which, Mr. Blossom points out, will expire two weeks from date of the sale.

The steers were allotted to the boys and girls by a drawing. The profits on the steer goes to the student who raised and trained it.

Animals are to be brought to the fair grounds Wednesday, Sept. 2. They are not to be fed or watered 12 hours before the sale and will be weighed Saturday morning by the Bus Coal Company, as part of their community service.

Dan Boutell, cashier at the Union Savings Bank, handles all of the paper work on the notes which the Optimist Club underwrites for the Steer Club members.

The Union Savings Bank of Manchester will be hosts to guests at a noon luncheon Saturday, Sept. 5 at 11:30 a. m. All Steer Club members and their fathers, the buyers at last year's sale, prospective buyers, commission company representatives and others who have assisted in the Steer Club activities will be guests of the bank at this luncheon.

There will be special awards to Steer Club members which will be donated by Grossman-Huber Service, L. V. Kink Electric and Tom Marshall, Inc.

Steer Club rules made several years ago limit the regular auction to the top 25 animals. The balance may either be sold in groups at auction or shipped or sold to private buyers. The decision will be made by a combined committee of Optimist Committee members and fathers of Steer Club members affected by the decision.
