PARCEL POST HINTS

"Please pack parcels solidly," was the plea of Clerk in Charge of the Manchester Post Office, Mrs. Russell Smith.

The head of the Manchester Post Office also reminded her patrons that the use of free "local" and "out-of-town" separation bands will help move the mails faster.

The bands are available at the post office or from most letter carriers. She suggested that this weekend be the deadline for mailing out-of-town packages.

"When packing a gift, remember that the package you send may be shipped on the bottom of a mail sack and there may be heavier packages on top.

Our postal clerk points out that this year the volume of mail during the season will reach an all time high. This is an easy prediction because for the past several years the mail has been raising at a rate of three per cent a year and is clearly reflected during the holiday season.

In order to take care of the mail here in Manchester the post office will be open all day on Saturday, Dec. 12 and again on Saturday, Dec. 19 to help speed up the mail both coming and leaving the local post office.

ENGAGEMENT REVEALED

Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Weber of Walker Road, Manchester are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Ann to James D. Heydlauff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Heydlauff of Kalmbach Road, Chelsea.

The future bride is a member of the Senior Class of Manchester High School and her fiancé is a graduate of Chelsea High School. He is employed by the Massey-Ferguson experimental farm project in Ann Arbor.

No date has been set for the wedding.

WOOL GROWERS TO KEEP RECORDS

Wool growers, particularly those who market their lambs in the fall were reminded about the importance of keeping adequate records of sales so they will be able to make applications for payments under the wool incentive program.

Max M. Kalmbach, chairman of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee said the sales record for lambs sold should include name of buyer, his signature, and the number and liveweight of lambs sold, plus description of "unshorn".

Current marketings of wool and lambs through Dec. 31 will qualify for incentive payments under the wool program for the 1964 marketing year.

Growers are urged to file applications for payments with the ASCS County Office as soon as possible after fall sales are completed.

WASHTENAW COUNTY HOSPITAL PREPARES FOR CHRISTMAS

Washtenaw County Hospital Auxiliary is preparing for Christmas at the hospital and plans for giving each of the 75 patients at the hospital and the 56 in boarding homes, each a gift from the Auxiliary.

There will be decorations, entertainment, a party, and refreshments.

Everyone can join in the happy enterprise and through the help of everyone the party will be one big success.

There will be package wrapping at the hospital on Friday, Dec. 18 and those interested in helping are asked to call Mrs. Neil Van Dyke at N05-5618 to tell her you can help.

The list below may give you some idea of gifts for the patients to be distributed at the party. These should be wrapped and marked whether for a man or woman.

The Auxiliary is announcing that they are going to supply the volunteers with smocks or coveralls. A call to Mrs. Perry at N0 2-6566 and you can sew one up or help cut some out.

Some of the things needed for the cart distribution at the hospital includes homemade cookies, candy, Kleenex, talcum powder and cigars and cigarettes.

For the Christmas party candy, fruit and cookies will be needed. Bobby pins, combs, brushes, capes, hair nets, cream for dry hair are among some of the things most needed.

In the crafts there is always a real need for magazines, plastic bags, yarn, scraps of materials, sequins and pins.

Also needed for the patients (and these need not be new) are men's shirts, ladies cotton dresses, cotton socks for men, coat hangers and cotton women's hose.

Anyone having any of these needed articles can bring them to Mrs. Don Mackintosh or Marie Schneider, local hospital Board of Trustee members and they will see that they are delivered at the hospital.

Count Down!

"It's the season to be jolly!" But for figure-conscious women. 'tis also the season to count those calories!

With holiday feasts sending our calorie count soaring, the hostess clever enough to serve appetizing yet "slimming" food scores a double victory. Here are some hints for winning your bout with that pre-dinner tempter, the hors d'oeuvre:

1. Watch out for "snacks" which require cream sauces or mayonnaise! Select foods which are tasty and low in calories when served plain. Shrimp and lobster are especially good. Other possibilities which require neither sauce nor bread are chunks of cheese and cooked meat.

2. Substitute low calorie products for high ones whenever possible. Cottage cheese has less than half the calories of cream cheese and can often be used without detection. Roquefort cheese is lower in calories than most people realize, and is delicious when mixed with a little cottage cheese and stuffed in celery stalks. For fish, lemon juice or a sauce of catsup and horseradish is a good substitute for russian dressing.

3. Count heavily on decorative and tasty vegetable hors d'oeuvres. After all, at this point you're only whetting appetites, not satisfying hunger! Select vegetables which are fresh and firm. Since the skins add flavor and color, don't peel - scrub or sponge! "Scotch-brite" scrubbing sponges with an abrasive nylon mesh on one side and a pure cellulose sponge on the other are handy two-in-one helpers for this and other kitchen tasks.

The attractive holiday hors d'oeuvres platter shown here combines a number of low calorie snacks with a festive appearance. A styrofoam cone (available at dime stores) makes a pretty and practical centerpiece. Strips of red bias tape pinned around the cone add a holiday feeling.

Top your tree with a radish rose; add more roses around the bottom circumference. The roses are prettiest if a half inch of green stem is left on. Since the red color is important, this is one of the vegetables you'll want to clean gently with the scrubbing sponge.

Other taste treats decorating the tree on toothpicks include shrimp, mushrooms, cheese cubes, and celery "fans."

On the platter are carrot curls stuffed with olives and

While the youngsters are home during the holidays, prepare Spicy Apple Dumplings for a novel lunch dessert. Drain syrup from 14-ounce jar of spiced red apple rings into 2-cup measure. Add water to make 2 cups liquid. Place apple rings and liquid in bottom of deep 10-inch skillet which has tight-fitting lid. Bring to boil. Reduce heat and simmer, uncovered, about 5 minutes. Meanwhile, sift together 1 cup sifted enriched flour, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder and dash salt. Cut in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Combine 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract and 1/2 cup milk. Add to flour mixture; stir only until flour is moistened. Drop by tablespoonsful onto simmering dumplings. Simmer, uncovered, 5 minutes. Cover tightly and steam 15 minutes. Serve warm.

ASC COMMITTEE ELECTION THURSDAY

Farmers are given a "last-minute" reminder about important elections which will be held in the County on Dec. 10. The elections are to choose ASC farm-committeemen who will serve for the next year at local administrators of national farm-action programs.

According to Max Kalmbach, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, "These ASC Committeemen have broad important program responsibilities, which makes it all the more urgent that representative farmers be elected to the job."

He urged all qualified voters to be sure to cast their ballots. Each year, the Chairman explained, such qualified voters-farmers who are taking part or are eligible to take part in one or more of the farm programs which the committees administer-elect a community committee from among their own number. The chairman, vice chairman, and regular member of this committee also serve respectively as delegates alternate delegate and second alternate to a county convention, where the ASC county committee is elected.

Programs administered by the committeemen include the Agricultural Conserv ation Program, acreage allotments, marketing quotas, commodity loans, the feed grain program, the voluntary wheat program, the Sugar Act program, the National Wool Program and farm storage facility loans. Other duties are assigned to the committees by the Secretary of Agriculture as the need arises.

In Washtenaw County, eligible voters will cast ballots for the community committeemen at a meeting held for that purpose, at a polling place set up for that purpose.

Elections will be held in the following Township Halls at 8 p. m. with the following present chairmen heading their township committees:

LoRen Trolz, Manchester; Don Irwin, Sharon; Andrew Luckhardt, Freedom; Orville Bohentz, Bridgewater; Norman Bohmet, Saline; Reuben Lesser, Sylvan Township.

At 10 a. m. on Thursday, Dec. 17 the Township committees will meet at the County Building and elect delegates to the County Convention.

kitchen is level with the ground and saves carrying marble slabs up and down stairs. These candy makers study the weather carefully. Many times the original plans have had to be changed because of a sudden warming of temperature.

If the slabs are very thick, the experts say they can use the marble for three batches before setting it out to get cold again. That is, they can "if" they work fast.

Oh, yes! a good thermometer is a must for heating this delectable mixture to exactly 300 degrees. The thermometer should be steel, an all glass one would break too quickly. They know. They have had experience with both and they break them too.

This well guarded recipe came to town from a friend of one of the band boosters in Ohio. She told the Manchester top band booster president how her group made money in this unique way.

This week the local candy makers did away with about a hundred pounds of sugar, about five pails of white Karo syrup and a sizable amount of pure oil of cinnamon, cloves, lemon, orange and one very favorite powdered charcoal and annis, which makes a delectable licorice candy. There is a wintergreen flavor too. Each batch is carefully colored. Mrs. Robert Armentrout, who has worked making candy every year says that her only sad experience was burning a single batch. That was the time that the thermometer broke.

These elves in their workshop must work fast, that is a trick of the trade. When the candy is poured on the cold marble it cools around the edges very fast and this must be turned in quickly and other portions allowed to cool. At exactly the right consistency the sweet mass is cut with a shears into strips and powdered with confectioner's sugar and later snipped into bite sized pieces.

They plan making about 50 batches a day, one crew of women, and when they are finished they have between 115 and 130 pounds of candy.

This candy making project is truly, "sugar, spice and everything nice".

Sometimes the ladies are lucky and can engage a few of the fathers of band members to join in and help with the heavy work of carrying the marble slabs around for them. It all depends on who has the time when the weather is right to work.

The Band Boosters need a lot of candy made this year. They have an extra need for the money. This year there are more students in the band than at any time in the history of the school. The Band Boosters and the school split the cost of the uniforms.

The membership in band jumped from 55 last year to 70 this year. Four students are sent for two weeks to Camp at Interlochen and two are sent to a drum majors' camp in Indiana. The band awards are purchased by the Band Boosters' Club.

The Christmas candy is sold in conjunction with the annual Christmas Concert Tuesday, December 15 and again in February at the Variety Show.

The candy makers will tell you that there is something fascinating about making the candy and that they really enjoy doing it. As for the ordinary person wanting the recipe, we doubt it. Most of us do not have that first requirement—that marble slab, and secondly, we aren't interested in taking a chance on having it land on our toes! Then too, who wants to stock up on a lot of oil flavoring we would have little use for?

Mrs. Bernard Kemner and Mrs. Leon Heimendinger head the publicity committee for the candy project. It is packaged out at the home of the president, Mrs. Al Vogel and orders can be left with these people, by people who find it impossible to pick it up the night of the concert.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB MEETS AT VOGTS

The Twentieth Century Club met at the home of Mrs. Walter Vogt with Mrs. Ted Tapping the co-hostess. Sixteen members and two guests, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson were present.

Program arrangements were made by Mrs. Tom Walton. The club was fortunate in procuring Mr. Johnson to talk on "Progress in Geriatrics and Drugs". Mr. Johnson is the director of the Whitehall Convalescent Home and president of the Michigan State Nursing Home Association. He also serves on the Governor's Commission on aging and was well qualified for his very interesting talk.

On December 15 the 20th Century Club will have a Christmas party at Lauthausser's Restaurant in Saline.

LEAVES FOR CALIF.

Mrs. Arthur Jenter left by plane for Los Angeles, California where she will spend the holidays with her son, Russell.

NO ONE INJURED

Manchester police chief, Dan Singer was called to investigate an accident Monday at 3:45 p. m. at the corner of Austin and Sharon Hollow Road.

The officer said a car (pick-up) driven by Arthur McElheney of Rt. 1, Tipton was stopped on Austin Road about 70 yards west of Sharon Hollow Road, half off the road.

A car, driven by Vernon Winkler, 19 years, of Michigan Center was traveling west on Austin Road and was unable to stop because of slippery road and struck the pick-up in the rear.

COMING EVENT

The Beacon Light Study Group will meet at the Sharon Town hall Saturday, Dec. 12

MAIN STREET

The Christmas lights are glittering along Main Street and you wouldn't have asked for a nicer day than this Wednesday with the temperature around 40 degrees. No need to go to Florida—with weather like this.

There are people who complain that Christmas isn't like it used to be. They will tell you that stacks of Christmas cards, all this minute shopping and "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" just don't make Christmas. But according to CHANGING TIMES we wouldn't go back too far because the Puritans were sort of against Christmas and spent their first Christmas on these shores rejecting boys and doing carpentry.

"We in America have received many, if not most, of our Christmas customs from 'merrie England'; but in England Christmas is no longer the day of games and fine old traditional ceremonies it once was. It is rarely that the yule log is burned and the Christmas game which used to last a month, lasts only a week in England."

Do you suppose that this perennial dissatisfaction with present customs and longing for the "old fashioned Christmas" merely shows the power of this happy season to evoke the nostalgic memories of a happy childhood, bygone pleasures, and the joys of the Christmases past . . . the exchange of greetings, the singing of carols, the Christmas tree, mistletoe, the festive meal, and the outdoor fun? Dipping into the old files of the Enterprises which are yellowed and worn shows that everyone was busy at this time of year and there was still time to wish our fellow man a 'Merry Christmas'.

Some of the Christmas entertainments taking place include the very lovely Christmas Concert Tuesday at the high school gym, which surely proved to be a better place to hold it than in the Civic gym. Bob Sortor and Roger Marriam deserve much credit for a job well done. We believe it was one of the finest.

Band Boosters were selling that delicious hard candy before the concert but were sold out long before the opening number of the band. When the Booster members looked at the disappointed faces on patrons who intended to buy some on their way home, they made a quick decision to make some more. You just couldn't stand there and tell people they could buy some next February. These people wanted to buy it for Christmas. So the committee will be making more candy on Friday morning. If you want some call Mrs. Louis Vogel or Mrs. Robert Armentrout and place your order. They will probably have it right up to Christmas. You will be able to pick it up at the Armentrout home.

This made us feel good. It shows the power of the press when it comes to letting the public know about a commodity. They usually sell about 40 pounds. This year they sold 153 pounds and have orders for some 25 more. So don't forget! If you want candy order it early and don't be disappointed at a second time.

Another event set for Friday, one over which we have no control, is a total eclipse of the moon. Starting time is 8 p. m. and the moon will be totally covered by 9 p. m.

Although many will tell you that winter started here early this year, it really hasn't arrived yet. Officially, winter will arrive at exactly 2:50 p. m. Monday. Already there has been enough snow to put everyone in the spirit of Christmas.

Up at Rolly's station (Gulf-Grossman-Huber) Santa has been adding at people for several weeks but come Saturday and he will be competing with a live Santa. For Saturday at 2 p. m. Old Saint Nick will be escorted into town by the local police car and no subt a car from the Sheriff's Department.

Several small ones were skipping past the office yesterday singing at we thought would be a Christmas carol. Listening closely we covered we were wrong. They were singing, "Don't be a Litter Bug, Don't be a Litter Bug!" Well, that made good sense, too. To it seemed a bit more logical that the teenagers who, on a cold day with the temperature hovering at 12 degrees, hurried by eating-guessed it-an ice cream cone!

Methodist Youth Fellowship members have been doing their bit, they made a trip to Ann Arbor and sang carols at St. Joseph's hospital and took cookies to some of the patients. They are giving a similar trip to the Washtenaw County Hospital next Sunday.

Boysville Chorus did an excellent rendition of Christmas carols and other songs at the annual parish party at St. Mary's last Sunday evening. It did a lot to liven the program which followed the potluck supper. This was a decided improvement over other performances of the group in past years.

Two Manchester residents, Betty Cummings and Richard Spafard will be taking part in a rooftop concert in Jackson on December 22. They are members of the Jackson Civic Band.

Carl Wuehler called in Monday to say he was on his way to Detroit to conduct an important meeting of the Maccabees on Wednesday. Guess that is what keeps him young. Because of the death of Great Commander of Michigan, Wuerthner is next in line for office which he is declining. He says he is too old for the job! Surely hope we get all this important information to you. There many things going on and so little time to compile them, that I probably goof again.

from the Village Council comes the good word that the outdoor lights will be judged next week—before Christmas. We are not sure the date. It will be either Dec. 21, 22, 23, or 24th. So have displays lighted on these dates. President Bentschneider assures that those who received prizes last year will not be eligible again this year. It seems only fair to pass these prizes around, for in a town of this size there are surely more than a half a dozen lovely displays.

We received a call late this afternoon from Ann Arbor saying 38 candidates have filed for the office of trustees for the Washtenaw Community College. The deadline was today, and Gale Koebbe of 317 W. Territorial Street is another employee of Koebbe Welding and is a past member of the board of directors of the Jaycees. His wife's name is Sue.

In a Know Your Jaycees Series the Manchester Enterprise will be printing pictures of the members and a brief sketch about each of them.

Jaycees do many community projects throughout the year for which they receive little or no credit, such as their work on the annual Halloween party which is looked forward to by some 500 of the small fry.

COMING EVENT

Thursday, Dec. 24 at 8 p. m. the Christmas program at the Sharon EUB church. A skit will be presented "What Happened to Christmas" by the youth of the church. Mrs. Earl Huehl and Mrs. Willis Uphaus are in charge of the program.

SANTA TO VISIT HERE SATURDAY

Santa plans to take time out from his busy schedule Saturday and has sent word ahead that he would like to have a police escort into town. With weather like it is there might not be snow and of course the reindeer couldn't possibly draw the sleigh over the bare streets.

Apparently he has talked with the Optimist Club and men from this club seem to be making all the arrangements to have the red coated children's idol stop in front of the E. G. Mann Mill at 2 p. m.

So from the Optimist Club president, Ed Kirk, we learn that plans call for Santa to distribute candy and oranges to all children of the elementary schools in the Manchester School District, of course this includes the children in the Pleasant Lake School.

Working out the details with Santa and Mr. Kirk are Chester Kocinski, Erwin Huber, Don Limpert, and Charles Eisenhauer.

Then too, L. V. Kirk, from the Kirk Electric talked the project over with Howard Heath of Radio Station WPAG and Howard will be here to make a tape recording of the 2:00 o'clock Saturday program and for those who will want to hear it, plans call for it to be broadcast on Christmas Day at 12:45 p. m. on Howard's regular program.
