

PLANNING COMMISSION TO BE FORMED HERE

A nine-man village planning commission will be formed here to study water, sewage, parking and other village problems.

The resolution creating the commission was adopted at Monday night's meeting of the Manchester Village Council.

The board will tentatively include Eugene Bentschneider, village president; the village attorney, another city employe, and six members appointed by Bentschneider.

Plans call for the hiring of a consultant to work with the village planning commission when necessary.

Floyd Wauhi, of the State Highway Department was present to check with the council on the use of state funds for streets-local and major.

Manchester receives upwards of $16,000 to be used for upkeep of the streets from the state highway department. This money is obtained from the state based on gasoline tax and evaluated by the miles of streets and population of the community.

Manchester more than matches the tax dollar refund by the state.

FREEDOM IDEAL HOME-MAKERS MEET

The Freedom Ideal Home-makers met at the home of Mrs. Chas. Koenigster of Fletcher Rd. with the lesson on salads and new package products.

The luncheon was prepared from some of these products, as well as others.

After the meeting a silent auction was held to add to the treasury. A large choice of baked goods and other items were brought by the members.

MAIN STREET

Wednesday was the day for "wearing of the Green" but it looked more like Christmas-even though our shamrock plant never looked lovelier. Just know it wanted to show off for St. Patrick. Now they tell us that the shamrock seed for the emerald green plant originated in Czechoslovakia!

The snow began to swirl around shortly before 9 a.m. and by noon two and a half inches of snow covered the ground. The hazardous driving warnings were issued for the whole area and in the afternoon it started to rain. Later it turned to snow again. But Manchester was lucky, some states had tornadoes and much more snow.

According to the Farmer's Almanac (so they say, we haven't seen one) we are supposed to have the heaviest snow of the winter this third week in March. It seems that the little book hit the nail on the head when it predicted our "big snow."

Anyway you look at it spring will officially arrive on Saturday at 3:05 p.m. according to University astronomer, Hazel M. Losh. She says that it will be nearly six hours late this year. Then she adds that in reality spring will most likely arrive much later than that.

Blustery winds reached 45 miles an hour Wednesday and the five day forecast is for temperatures to average about 10 degrees below normal, which, for this time of year is 41 to 45 degrees with a low of 23 to 28.

Regardless of the weather, Albert Frey saw a flock of wild geese winging its way northward last week Thursday. That is a sure sign of spring. Of course they might have heard about the spring fashion show and luncheon in town on Saturday. Milady will be all agog to see the new spring fashions which are being displayed through the courtesy of our two dress shops. Of interest will be a pink coat with a pink fur collar.

So if you want to see the latest fashions displayed by our own Manchester models, don't forget - the date is Saturday, March 20. It is not necessary to have tickets in advance. So says our editor, and she should know. She is working on the publicity angle and selling tickets at the door for the Business and Professional Women, who sponsor the annual event. The luncheon starts at 1 p.m. in the Civic Auditorium on City Road.

Since about Christmas time the Sutton Agency has been passing out fine new windshield scrapers to their patrons. These pieces of automobile equipment have been coming in very handy with all the snow and ice. It may interest you to know that Wednesday Don Sutton's car was parked out on Main Street. When he went to get in the windshield needed to be cleaned off. You guessed it. He didn't have a scraper in his own car. Borrowed one from the car parked next to his. Oh! yes! it was one of those new scrapers-clearly marked "Sutton Agency".

Al Gagè took time out Tuesday from his plumbing shop to go to Lansing to attend the Lennox school for dealers. All this to give his customers the best in service and latest in furnace equipment.

The Junior High Operetta will be staged next week Friday and Saturday at the Civic Auditorium. Don't forget the dates.

Some people just fail to have a sense of humor, that is, when someone else is dishing out the humor. They can't take a joke when it is played on them.

It seems that our publisher, George Koda, wants to apologize. He played a joke on someone, who, we feel was encroaching on George's private property. Well, anyway, George is sorry-if this person's feelings were hurt. Ever stop to wonder if maybe George was hurt a little too? It could be-especially because someone failed to respect another person's property!

The Learn and Save 4-H Club had a preview of their sewing projects. They modeled their garments for their parents at the Pleasant Lake School last Sunday. Besides giving their parents a chance to see their work a little ahead of time, it also gave the girls an opportunity to acquire more poise and assurance necessary for the big county achievement program next week.

Out at the Richard Carlson farm at 18500 Burtless Road, the family is busy watching their new Arabian colts. The Carlsons are introducing the Arabian horses to this area. In fact they are planning to start a riding club if they can find enough interested people. So if you want to join-or have your children-call Mrs. Carlson. She'll be glad to hear from you.

The other day we heard a bit of news. Seems that one of the local families enjoyed a weekend up north. They took along their electric blanket. When they came back the blanket was put on the bed and somehow the switches were mixed.

The lady of the house kept turning up the control-but she kept getting colder. Her spouse was too warm. He kept turning down the control. Finally, about 4 a.m. he thought he would suffocate. He was sure he was running a fever and promptly went to take some cold pills. He must be coming down with the flu. A check revealed that the switches on that electric blanket were mixed.

RAYNOR HAEUSSLER RETIRED BUSINESSMAN BURIED MONDAY

Funeral services were held Monday for Raynor B. Haeussler, 82, a retired druggist, lifelong Manchester resident and civic leader, who died Friday afternoon in Whitehall Convalescent Home after a long illness. His home was at 110 N. Clinton Street, Manchester.

He was born July 16, 1882 in Manchester, the son of George J. and Mary Bassac Haeussler. He was graduated from Manchester High School in 1900 and from the University of Michigan in 1904.

In 1905 he joined his father in the drug store and remained in business for 47 years, retiring in 1953.

He was a member of the Manchester Village Council for six years, and served as village president for three years. He was a member of the Manchester Board of Education for six years.

He was elected to the board of the Union Savings Bank in 1937 and served until 1962, when failing health forced him to retire.

He was a life member of the Manchester Methodist Church and served on its official board for several years. He also was a life member of the Manchester Lodge No. 148, F & A M.

He is survived by his wife, the former Marjorie Kingsley, whom he married on June 26, 1912.

Other survivors are a nephew, Harry Reber of Fremont; two nieces, Mrs. Ted Johnson of Fremont and Mrs. Ogden Moe of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Funeral services were held Monday at 1:30 p.m. at the Jenter Funeral Home with the Rev. Jesse Epps officiating and burial was made in Oak Grove Cemetery.

GARDENING CONTEST ANNOUNCED

Youngsters interested in gardening will have a chance to compete for a varied list of 100 cash and other prizes, in the 1965 Young America Gardens contest just announced here by Flower and Garden Foundations. This year the top awards are a free trip to Disneyland for older contestants, since they were started. Flower and Garden Foundation, sponsor of the annual event, is a non-profit organization set up to promote greater public and private interest in gardening. It has concentrated its efforts on young people.

This year's contest will require those who enter to plant eight packets of seeds furnished to them in the contest kit, and later in various ways report on the results obtained. Zinnias, marigolds, alyssum, cosmos, tomatoes, and radishes are among the seeds to be distributed. The youngsters are to work out their own planting plan in a 200 square foot area. Those from age 6 to 19 may enter.

To enter it is necessary to send 25 cents in coin (postage and handling for the seeds and kit), name and address and age to: Flower and Garden Foundation, Box 357, Rosedale Station, Kansas City, Kansas 66103. The name and address of an adult who will sponsor the entry should also be given.

As usual, the contest will be divided into three regional sections (East, Mid-America, and West) and ten-ager will be judged separately from the younger group.

OPERATION CLEAN-UP - Just a one way path shoveled along Main Street following the "big snow" of Feb. 25. These are more of the pictures taken by publisher, Geo. Koda, which he believes every one would like to see. Due to lack of space they could not be published earlier.

WHERE TO BEGIN? Road maintenance crew gave the Main Street a cool look, decided it was a job for bigger equipment and concentrated their efforts on the side streets.

WHERE TO DUMP TONS OF SNOW? End loader in the distance works toward one end-of-the-river. Dr. H. P. Eames, whose car is ready to meet most emergencies, found going pretty rough that day. Can you back it out, Doc?

KODA'S KORNER

As we peek from our korner and look up Main Street we are glad that the technical error we made in our editorial last week didn't trouble you. Glad you picked out the meat and didn't consider the information untrue.

Technicalities can be applied to others. If we choose to bring out all of the technicalities in the operation of village, we'd be running a daily instead of just a weekly.

We only wanted to point out that any body of governors can not go on forever with their attitude of "Well, we know it isn't right, but who really cares."

This type of thinking will only lead them up a path of confusion and misunderstanding. We'd like it known NOW that we are not all sleeping in our korners.

After last week we are sure that most everyone is awake!

Let's take into consideration these factors: First-we are not the conscience of the village council. We believe it is their duty to inform the public when and where meetings (pertinent to the well being of everyone) takes place. If they don't like us nagging for this information, let them come forth with good intentions and inform us.

They seem to feel that we must beg and nag before we get results. Well, my friends, we are getting a little tired of that old line "everyone in town knows about it anyway so why make an issue of it". Maybe someone's image in town might be hurt.

Now we ask you, "Should citizen be denied facts simply because he didn't attend council meeting?"

We say "NO". Such a blatant request to suppress the news is almost too ridiculous to bother answering.

What we are trying to point out is that everyone didn't know what was going on. We would like to point out that the council is chosen by the people of the community---- the public, and that public has the right to know what is getting for its tax dollar.

Whether this governing body received only a few votes and was unopposed in the village election or whether they were seated in a stiff competition is unimportant. They are the choice chosen. So we say to these well meaning individuals and progress-prompting people, all we want to do is report the truth... that is all, nothing but the truth. It can keep a guy awake at night. And from phone calls... letters... and visits here we are sure of something else-- John Doe wants to know what is going on, too. Don't forget - he put you where you are!

* LETTERS TO THE PUBLISHER

TO THE PUBLISHER

March 30, 1965

We are in whole-hearted agreement with your editorial of March 25th. And we are keenly disappointed that the D. E. Limpert Apartment Project was not approved by Council.

We believe Mr. Limpert has improved the appearance of Main Street and feel that any additional project by him would be an asset to our Community.

We are certain there are many others in our Village who feel as we do-and would like to know the Council's reasons for voting down the issue.

Perhaps it would be pertinent to publish the building and zoning codes at this time.

CO-OP NURSERY

Thirteen wide-eyed children recently welcomed Deputy Britton of the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department, to the Manchester Co-op Nursery.

The children were participating his visit and had been learning basic safety rules with their teacher, Mrs. Delores Wolff. They also had made stop and go signs which they discussed with Deputy Britton.

The chief aim of the educational division of the Sheriff's office says Britton in working with preschool and early elementary youngsters is to convince them that law enforcement officers are their friends.

The mothers of the Co-op Nursery will be holding the monthly meeting at the nursery room on Tuesday, April 6 with Mrs. Gerald Jacob serving as hostess.

TOWNSHIP ASSESSMENT

The assessment roll of Manchester Township includes real estate and personal property tax assessment in Manchester Township to be $3,556,205 this year, according to Clayton Parr, Township Supervisor.

This compares to $3,442,005 last year. This is an increase of $114,200 over last year or approximately three percent. This increase consists mostly of new property construction, both industrial and residential, in the township, Mr. Parr said.

In a breakdown Manchester school district valuation is real estate, $2,493,180 and personal, $517,095 for a total of $3,010,275; in Clinton real estate is $313,475 and personal is $28,450 for a total of $341,925; and in Brooklyn school district the valuation is real estate $199,305 and personal $4,700 for a total of $204,005.

This means that over half a million dollars of valuation is in the Clinton and Brooklyn school districts.

Freedom Ideal Homemakers met with Mrs. Wilbert Koenigter for the March meeting with the lesson on "Salads" and new packaged products presented. Luncheon was served from these items along with a green salad in observance of St. Patrick's day. Following the meeting a silent auction was held. Approaching months of April and May welcome as they are, also bring high winds and possible tornadoes. Training courses and classes on tornado characteristics and safety rules and plans can save lives and reduce property damage should the community ever be in the path of a tornado. Time spent in preparation will not be time wasted.

It is necessary to use the information available and attend classes in preparation. If only one life in the county can be saved it will be well worth all the effort.

Local Civil Defense directors are encouraged to organize tornado classes, briefings or seminars in schools, churches, industries, businesses and civil organizations.

Organizations, augmented by local agencies can respond to a disaster, after it has occurred. Safety comes first—protection is a "do-it-yourself" job for the family and the individual.

Get your copy of Tornado Safety Rules from your local Civil Defense Director. During a natural disaster the civil government is responsible for all community services and public utilities. Government will exercise full co-operation and support to the American Red Cross, Salvation Army, public utility companies and other bonafide agencies.

The chief executive of the political subdivision is in charge. The county Defense director responsible for all county operations. Zone directors are deputies of the County Civil Defense Director. County Civil Defense equipment is specifically organized to provide assistance throughout Washtenaw County.

IMMUNIZATION CLINICS SLATED FOR COUNTY

Washtenaw County Medical Society and the Washtenaw County Health Department will conduct booster immunization clinics for county school students in the junior high schools during April, according to Dr. Gerhardt H. Bauer, President of the local Medical Society. The local clinics will be conducted for 9th and 10th grades in areas where there is no separate junior high school. Students will be offered a booster injection which protect against diphtheria, tetanus and polio (Salk Vaccine) and a small pox vaccination.

There is no charge for the immunizations. The physicians who serve the clinics donate their time and the Health Department furnishes the necessary administrative and nursing services as well as materials. Every junior high student will bring home a letter and two request slips this week. Parents are reminded that if they wish their children to participate in the immunization clinics they must sign the request slips. Immunization on provided to children in physicians offices, junior high booster program has been a factor in reducing diphtheria, polio and tetanus in Washtenaw County.

There have been no reported cases of polio or small pox in Washtenaw County for more than five years. Since 1955 there has been one reported case of diphtheria. The booster immunization offered to junior students are important to ensure that the child is protected against polio, diphtheria, tetanus and smallpox. The protection that children receive from the original series of immunizations gradually decreases by the time a child reaches junior high school. The booster immunization renews the child's immunity to the maximum point again.

THE RAISIN RIVER

These verses were written by Mrs. Augusta Mulvaney. They were written by her at the age of 87 years and printed in the Manchester Enterprise Sept. 15, 1932. Mrs. Mulvaney was a daughter of the late Morey Pierce, once a prominent farmer in Sharon.

The Raisin River took its name from grapes along its shore. The river bordered the Old Pierce farm, A full mile or more.

I used to love the flowers That grew along the stream, It was many years ago— It now seems like a dream.

I also loved the quiet spring, 'Twas like a looking glass; Bordered round with maiden ferns, And striped, wildwood grass.

I loved the birds, also the flowers; I loved the towering trees, But people living now—a days, Don't care for things like these.

God's little dainty flowers Are worth a million more Than all the flowers planted To cover mansions o'er.

There was singing in the woods, That no church choir could beat; So many different colored birds, And songs so wondrous sweet.

There were sermons in the woods, But you'd not stop to listen, You prefer the vaudevilles And bauble things that glisten.

I do not care to live now When all is but sham goods; I'd rather lived years ago When the country was all woods.

For now they've cut the forests down, The flowers too are gone; Naught but the old river left Which flows the same along.

But we will love the river, The same as years ago; And we will not forget the source Nor likewise where it flows.

Its source in Jackson County— As every one should know; It empties into Lake Erie, You'll notice at Monroe.

These days they are changing Lakes and rivers o'er, I hope they'll leave the Raisin Running as before.

Zing into spring! Corvair by Chevrolet

The steering's crisper, the ride's flatter, the style's racier—even the grass looks a shade greener from behind the wheel of this new Corvair

For all its finely calibrated instrumentation—tachometer, manifold pressure gauge, even an electric clock with a sweep second hand for rally buffs—the most important thing that happens when you get a Corvair Corsa out on the road doesn't register on the dash. It registers on you. You feel it in the steering—crisp and precise—as you double back on a curve. In the flat riveted-to-the-road stability of the new fully independent suspension. In the response of the rear engine (up to 180 hp available now in Corsa's Turbo-Charged version). Drop down to your dealer's now—while the trading's extra good—and see for yourself.

DOLLAR and SENSE FARMING.

SHIPPING TO NARROW ROWS can boost yields 5 per cent in corn and 10 per cent to 15 per cent in soybeans. But your soil and fertilizer program should support 20,000 plants per acre on corn. You also need to be producing 120 bushels of corn per acre to justify the shift. If equipment needs replacing, now is a good time to consider 30-inch rows. Or, if planter and cultivator are fairly new, many models can be adjusted for narrow rows. In such cases, just a narrow row corn head is needed. FEEDING FINELY GROUND CORN can reduce the cost of producing 100 pounds of pork by $1 compared with coarse ground corn. For fine grind use a 1/16-inch hammermill screen; medium, 1/2 inch; and coarse, 1 inch screen. Savings result from a higher rate of feed conversion with finely ground corn.

LARGE COWS PRODUCE MORE MILK, according to South Dakota studies. During a 305-day lactation period, let. cows weighing 800 to 1,000 pounds produced 8 1/2 times their body weight. For cows weighing 1,000 to 1,300 pounds it amounted to 8.5 times their body weight, and for cows weighing 1,300 to 1,600 pounds production totaled 8.5 times their body weight. It's still wise to select for size.

TO CLEAN MACHINERY use non-flammable liquid cleaner available from most motor oil companies. Flammable fluids such as gasoline or kerosene such as carbon-let are dangerous. Carbon-let fumes in an enclosed building like a machine shed can be fatal.

SCHOOL NOTES

FROM THE DESK OF THE SUPERINTENDENT

The following article, taken from the book PLANNING AMERICAN SCHOOL BUILDINGS by the American Association of School Administrators, is presented in this column for your consideration. THE SCHOOL is for learning-not just for teaching. And the physical environment is a powerful force in this learning process. The school environment may be likened to conditions conducive to growth of a flowering plant in a garden. If the soil is mellow and fertile; if the seed bed is well prepared; if the sun is warm and penetrating; if the rains come at the right time; if the gardener has a "green thumb," really knows his business, derives a genuine satisfaction from his work, and takes pride in his accomplishments-the plant will be healthy, growth will be vigorous, and flowers and fruits will be abundant. But if the soil is thin and stony; if there is lack of essential plant food; if moisture and sunshine are insufficient; if the gardener is clumsy, careless, and indifferent-the plant will be scrawny and the flowers and fruit scanty and of poor quality. Similarly, the school environment influences teaching and learning. It envelops the child from the time he enters school in the morning until he leaves it at the end of the day. It is an encompassing atmosphere. Its quality is determined by each individual's sensitivity to the mellowness or harshness, the pleasantness of his physical surroundings and by his relationship with classmates, teachers and principal. The child is a part of his environment and cannot readily or easily separate himself from it. He takes it as it is-he sees it, feels it, absorbs it and scarcely is conscious of it. If it is too hot or cold, too noisy or too dark, too bright or too crowded, he is restless, uneasy, frustrated, and disturbed. His learning is impeded and his mental growth is retarded. But if the environmental conditions are stimulated and satisfying, he is at ease and comfortable, and has the tools he needs for his work, learning will be as natural as the growth of a vigorous and healthy plant. The beauty, order, warmth and cheerfulness of the environment become a part of his attitudes, a part of his behavior-a part of him. To insure that the physical environment will be what it ought to be-that it will provide facilities and over-all conditions conducive to good teaching and learning-is a responsibility of the first order importance for those engaged in planning and constructing school buildings. Need for space and facilities must be determined in terms of educational specification. These educational specifications can and should be spelled out in terms of democratic values, in terms of the demands of living, and in terms of all that we know about how children learn and develop. The importance of these three factors cannot be too strongly stressed. Any school building that is planned without regard for these factors and that violates their underlying principles is grossly extravagant no matter how little it costs. To disregard them is to run the risk of building school houses which are inferior to our capabilities and unequal to the requirements for high-quality education.

YOUNG ARTIST EXHIBIT

Open house was held Sunday at the Manchester Township Library for art students of Mrs. Robert Kuhl. The retired teacher enjoys helping students in art work primarily because there are no classes in the local school system.

Mrs. Kuhl is a retired school teacher and has always managed to find a little time to do a little painting—even when her children were young.

In those early days the retired teacher used to take a group of children out-of-doors to a scenic spot and there they spend long hours on Saturday afternoon painting.

Now the students go to her home after school and on Saturdays for their classes.

Mrs. Kuhl says that she feels she needs something to occupy her time, now that her family is grown. She also is a substitute school teacher in the Manchester system.

She always enjoys painting china and making and painting ceramics. She has two kilns and often fires ceramics for her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Kemner and Mr. and Mrs. John Miller visited Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Buss of Tecumseh Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keasal and family spent Sunday with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Schroeder and family of Britton.

KIRK & BRADY DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

Two members of the Manchester Future Farmers of America local Chapter attended the 37th annual convention of the Michigan Association of FFA.

Kevin Kirk and James Brady were the local chapter delegates who met with a thousand other Michigan FFA boys for the two day session at East Lansing.

The meeting was on the Michigan State University Campus. A highlight of the convention was the conferring of State Farmer Degree on 215 boys and the naming of David Darish of Blissfield as Star State Farmer.

Governor George Romney was the main speaker at the banquet. Other convention speakers were famous radio personality, Ted Malone and Dean of Agriculture Dr. Thomas K. Cowden and National FFA President, Kenneth Kennedy of Kentucky.

NFO TO ORGANIZE IN WASHTENAW

Some thirty-five farmers and other interested people in the area met at the school here to listen to Ernie Knoch, Washtenaw Field Representative of the National Farm Organization explain the aims and achievements of this group.

At this time there are enough farmers signed up for membership to charter a group in this county. NFO is organized in most of the counties of Michigan, Mr. Knoch said.

He pointed out that marketing arrangements for farmers usually make it possible for NFO members to receive the highest possible dollar for their products while saving marketing costs; thus getting the farmer more net dollars.

NFO is primarily interested in three commodities Knoch said. They are: beef, milk and grain.

After NFO has a Chapter established in Washtenaw, three five-man committees will be appointed to work in the fields of beef, Milk and Grain.

Until now, Knoch said, every one in the county is organized except the farmer. Government is organized, manufacturers, businesses of every kind and the workers, all are represented by organizations who bargain and speak for them.

The farmer, who supplies the working force and the white collar workers with food, until this NFO was organized, had no one to bargain for him. There was no spokesman for the farmer -- no bargaining for him until NFO.

ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY

If a worker in your family dies, some member of the family should inquire at the nearest social security office to see if benefits may be payable, Robert A. Kehoe, Social Security District Manager, in Ann Arbor, advises.

The social security administration can help to partially replace income lost caused by the death of the head of the family.

Nine out of ten young American children ad their mothers can count on survivors benefits to keep the family together if the bread-winner dies. Survivors benefits may be payable to young children when a working mother dies, even though the father is the family's primary source of support.

The average benefit paid to a widowed mother with 2 children is about $93 per month. The benefit payable to a family ranges from $60 to $254 per month.

If you want to know more about social security for the families of deceased workers, visit, write, or telephone your social security office at 1355 N. Main Street in Ann Arbor; the people there will be glad to give you any information or assistance you need.

KODA'S KORNER

Well here we go again. Now after jumping into the frying-pan of observation we find ourselves in the fire of criticism. In the fight of the future we will extricate ourselves from fetters of criticism. But the press has come to stay. Indeed, our business has now assumed such proportion that we want it known that we intend to stay independent in all things.

We are impartial to all parties but we do confess that we are concerned with the growth of Manchester and still hold to all our convictions that are good for the growth of our community. Remembering then, that we are only a small part of this community, it is up to you, not the council or any other group regardless of size who really should govern the growth of the community.

ACTION IS NEEDED AT ONCE!

Communicate your views to the council. Let council know you are interested in what goes on in the community. It makes their job a bit easier knowing that people here are concerned -- that they too, can give up a few minutes to support council and maybe throw in a few constructive ideas. By writing these articles we, in a small way, want council to know that there is a strong feeling in the village about some of the issues within the business of our town.

If you decide to communicate with the council or the paper remember that they need not be lengthy. If they only emphasize your belief then you will be doing a public service. It will show you are interested. A truthful criticism, directed where it will do some good will not be thrown aside by us or by our council.

Similar communications from the outlying area -- our farmers and businesses can help to improve the community. Maybe the farmer is outside the village, but we hasten to say that without him and his support this village could not hope to exist long. Some times, as one of our good farmers often says, "You are too close to the forest to see the trees."

Looking ahead to future council meetings, it would be well to attend and present your own testimony or to submit a statement. You may want to make a personal visit to talk with president Gene Bentschneider and other council members.

Because issues are so easily embraced by someone who does not understand them, The major task before us is to stimulate that understanding within the community. George M. Koda

Just for your memo a list of officials are listed; letters to them should take them into account. Gene Bentschneider, pres. Lyle A. Widmayer, clerk Edward R. Mirk, trea.

LETTERS TO THE PUBLISHER

Dear Mr. Koda: We, as citizens of the Village of Manchester, respectfully thank you for opening the eyes of some others in bringing to light some things which are hidden facts.

Some of us would like to raise the question as to why more precaution is not taken before hiring village employees. It would seem to us that the backgrounds of all applicants should be carefully checked.

The importance of this cannot be over emphasized when the village employee is allowed to enter homes in the community. Doesn't the village assume some responsibility for the type of people they hire to come in and read water meters?

Soft spoken householders were pretty chagrined within the last couple of weeks -- in fact they were down right shocked to see the caliber of newly hired city employees. It seems like utter stupidity that this type of thing occurred here -- even for a week.

Maybe council can't keep an eye on everything, every minute someone did. We aren't up on the technicalities of this type of procedure. But what about the fellow who did the hiring? Was he up to his job?

Please, fellow citizens, think this over. Yours very truly, Worried Citizens

COUNCIL POSTPONES ACTION ON KNOUASE PROPERTY

Manchester Council has postponed action until April 19 on a petition of Richard and Mary Knouase for a variance in a zoning code concerning their property on Sunset Drive.

They are asking council to let them to continue to erect their new home, which, according to Knouase will be 55 feet in width on a 66 foot lot.

This will call for a side yard of four feet to the west. A village ordinance (#45) gives the minimum as eight feet from the house to the property line.

This action was taken after council listened to lawyers representing Mr. and Mrs. Knouase and also Mr. and Mrs. Donald Flory. The Florys, nearest neighbors, are objecting to the home being constructed four feet from their property line.

Knouase said Tuesday he had been given a building permit by Manchester Village Council, subject to the approval of Manchester Building Inspector, Claran Knauss. Knauss, reportedly OK'd the erection of the 55 foot wide house last December.

Basement walls and deck are completed for the house on which construction has been halted pending action of the council.

LETTER FOR THE RECORD

The following letter is printed so that our readers will have a complete report on our action taken at the last council meeting. This will let you know what we are asking council.

The following letter was submitted to Council by Publisher Koda: April 5, 1965

Manchester Village Council Manchester, Michigan

Gentlemen:

As publisher of the Manchester Enterprise, and being present at this meeting as a representative of the newspaper, I would like this letter written into the minutes of this meeting.

May I ask the Council the reason for not publishing the disbursement of tax monies with the council proceedings? Also, I would like council to go on record and give their legal interpretation of the stand they are now taking by withholding this part of the village minutes.

I would like to take this opportunity to ask the Council why they have not complied with the Publications Laws of the State of Michigan, and published an annual financial statement of council, which reads as follows:

Sec. 7 * * * Said Statement, signed by the president and clerk, shall be filed in the office of the clerk, and a copy thereof published in a newspaper of the village at least seven (7) days previous to the next annual election, if one is published, therein. CL 1948, 69.7

Your cooperation in answering the above questions will be of benefit to us all. Thanking you for your consideration to my request, I am,

Yours Truly, George Koda, Publisher

CITIZENS' SCHOLARSHIP FUND DRIVE

Citizens' Scholarship Fund of Manchester will have an intensive drive for membership during National Citizens' Scholarship Week, April 4 through 11 to obtain funds for scholarships for deserving local students in need of financial assistance for further education beyond high school.

The Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of Manchester was formed in January of 1963 by the local Business and Professional Women's Club which is desirous at this time of receiving moral as well as financial support from the entire community. (This is an affirmative type of community involvement vehicle which would tend to offset some of the negativism which is currently extant. It is generally more constructive to have people involved for something rather than simply protesting against something.)

The Citizens' Scholarship Foundation fosters pride among local citizenry in both the community and in the academic attainment of its students. It adds to community self-reliance and prestige. It can unite citizens of all religious and political and cultural backgrounds in a common cause and most of all it lends a helping hand to needy students.

"Dollars for Scholars" is the keynote of the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation Drive. The Manchester High School Student Council is assisting the BPW obtain memberships by asking each high school student to take home membership cards so their parents can join. BPW members will be in the Union Savings Bank again Friday afternoon and Saturday morning of this week to obtain memberships and for those not contacted in these ways who wish to join, may mail their contribution to CSF, Box 218, Manchester, Michigan. For one dollar or more you can become a member of CSF of Manchester and remember that your contribution is tax deductible.

In addition civic, fraternal business, religious and educational organizations are urged to take annual memberships of $100 or more to be used for scholarships which may at the donors request, be named and presented in honor of the donor. Memorial contributions are welcome at any time. Other organizations having scholarship programs may wish to join CSF. They can be assured that their money is going to students who have a valid need, thus eliminating overlapping and procedure which has been developed after consultation with nationally recognized financial aids officers of leading colleges.

The recipients of CSF scholarships are decided upon by awards committee working under the chairmanship of Philip Mains, high school counselor. Other members of the committee are Chester Kocsek, high school principal; Richard Kuntz, representing industry; Dr. William Purfield, Stanton Roesch and Franklin Reck representing the community at large.

It is important for residents of Manchester to understand payment procedure to be followed. Checks are made out to the student and his or her designated college jointly. It might be of interest to Manchester residents that South Lyon formed a CSF last year. The Chas. F. Kettering Foundation of Ohio made a grant of $75,000 this year to the Citizens' Scholarship Foundation of Ohio to aid in the formation of a chapter in that state.

It is a major purpose of the CSF of Manchester to help as many needy students as possible to obtain an education beyond high school. Any student needing financial assistance should contact Philip Mains.

It is considered a moral obligation for all students receiving scholarship to repay the foundation as soon as they can so that the money will become a revolving fund. It is interest free.

Officers of the Citizens' Scholarship Fund of Manchester include: Mrs. Wm. Purfield, president; Mrs. Otto Timmerman, vice president; Lee Creighton, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Kappler, secretary; and Mrs. George Koda, publicity.
