

STATE POLICE ISSUE WARNING TO CHILDREN

Because child molestation incidents increase heavily in spring and summer, parents should caution their youngsters now against going for walks or rides with any strangers, said State Police Sgt. Carl Anderson, commander of the Clinton State Police Post.

building or loitering in an alley can too easily become the prey of a molester. Any incident involving molestation of children should be promptly reported to police.

Children should be instructed not to loiter there. Youngsters should be advised to remember unusual features about suspected molester and about any car which may be involved.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gamble and family of Jackson were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ernst.

WORTH A CHUCKLE !!! Dad criticized the sermon. Mom said the organist made a lot of mistakes. Sis didn't like the choir's singing. But they all quieted down when little Bill remarked--"I thought it was a pretty good show for a nickel."

Now in a small town like Manchester we don't have to contend with outright graft and corruption like big cities do. But a more insidious attitude applies in Manchester.

People hate homilies and flag-waving. But we ought to periodically re-examine our jobs. We ought not to be ashamed of ethics and duty and responsibility.

We who deal with the public have a unique job with responsibilities. As long as we discharge our duties well and faithfully there is a still a fighting chance for decency dignity and progress.

We stand ready to be the communication center for all governing bodies and the people of this community.

George M. Koda

Below is a list of some of the bills OK'd at Tuesday's meeting:

Table with 2 columns: Bill Name, Amount. Includes Union Construction $1550.00, Schaffer Lumber 20.00, Sutton Agency $7.23, D. E. Limpert 125.00, Fisher & Porter 23.47, Dunbar Drilling, C. Johnson.

Limbert asked if council was using their best way of promoting good public relations, when they tacked up a sign rather than call him on the phone and explain that he was violating a ruling.

Councilman Robert Clark answered by saying council used "a way" in getting the message to Limpert. He was given an application for a permit which he was told would be granted when the application is returned.

George Koda, of the Manchester Enterprise was told that his request asking that council reconsider and print the disclosures along with council proceedings, will be tabled until June.

Advance registration is important for a smoothly operating clinic. Registrations will be taken at Double A through the arrangements of the committee, Fred Leeman, Irving Gill and Mrs. James Baker.

Donors may be between 18 and 60 years of age. Those between 18 and 21 must bring a parental release slip or they can not be accepted, unless they are married or in the armed services.

They planned to earn money in various ways. Lehman Wahl was a good cook and throughout the eight years he has engineered every dinner that the organization has put on.

The membership, eight years ago, put their heads together, before Mother's Day and decided this could be another affair for the K of C's. Instead of each one cooking dinner at home on mom's day off, they'd pool their efforts and put on a roast beef dinner. They'd invite the public!

MAIN STREET

Have you seen the May issue of McCall's magazine? We were pleased to receive a call from one of our subscribers who thought we might like to know that the Manchester Enterprise made the column "I Saw It in The Paper" comments and observations right from the heart of American—the small-town press. Thanks for drawing our attention. We might have missed it.

We've been considering what would be the best way to try to say we are sorry for the blunder of a friend. We know a little girl who has two little puppets and, because she has had them for four or her five years, they have become very real to her. She carries on lively conversations with them day in and day out. Their names are Hi and Hiram. Now when these little fellows do something wrong she has a favorite expression and can sound very convincing when she says, "I'm ashamed of you, Hiram!"

Maybe we should say to this friend, "I'm ashamed of you, Hiram! Last Friday a well known person in town asked to talk with our publisher. If we had known what the conversation would sound like we'd probably have said the publisher was out. That is what should have been done.

Going about our affairs, because there were several others in the office, we couldn't help but hear, without the aid of the phone. The voice carried across the room.

The publisher was accused of not writing articles to which he signs his name in the Enterprise. He was told he was too stupid and dumb to know what was going on. Articles in the Enterprise were not written by members of this staff. None here are bright enough! That was a left handed compliment if we ever heard one.

The disbelief on the faces of the people in the office as we gazed around strikes us funny as we think back. If we hadn't heard the voice so loud and clear, without the aid of a phone, we'd have thought someone misunderstood.

It was indeed too bad that the boss was subjected to this line of conversation—in front of the people he hires—and his friends and acquaintances! "Hiram, we're ashamed of you!" Right here and now we'd like to suggest. Think, sir, before you holler and blather. We were proud of the boss.

Mother's Day is for mothers. That is the way the local Knights of Columbus view the situation. "In order to give our wives a vacation on that day, many of us have found ourselves cooking Sunday dinner for the wife and children—and sometimes for company as well," Clarence Fielder, publicity chairman for the eighth annual roast beef dinner, explained.

Most of the membership of the Knights of Columbus are husbands and fathers. The Knights of Columbus Father Fisher Council was formed here about nine years ago and son after the Knights started to work on their building which houses the United States Post Office and their lodge hall.

All of their spare time was spent putting up the building, because each member could contribute something. Some were carpenters, others were masons, plumbers etc. The work was their donation. They went in debt for materials.

They planned to earn money in various ways. Lehman Wahl was a good cook and throughout the eight years he has engineered every dinner that the organization has put on.

The membership, eight years ago, put their heads together, before Mother's Day and decided this could be another affair for the K of C's. Instead of each one cooking dinner at home on mom's day off, they'd pool their efforts and put on a roast beef dinner. They'd invite the public!

For the first few years the dinners were held in the hall at St. Mary's church. It took two years to erect the K of C building.

Now ten cooks prepare the dinner. There will be roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, cole slaw, relishes and home made pies. The pie department is the only area in which the Knights solicit help. Fielder says that they ask the ladies to make the pies. The dinner is served family style.

Tickets are sold at the door. Working with Fielder on publicity is L. V. Kirk and Harold Burch, who Fielder says, "do a great job of working out details."

About forty other men pitch in to help the cooks. The Knights of Columbus of Manchester are known for their excellent food, and the speed and efficiency with which it is served. Above all, Lehman Wahl emphasizes the necessity to serve the food hot.

These boys are not inexperienced. Their chefs peel through bushels of potatoes every year while putting on at least 15 different dinners for various groups every year, from weddings to Mt. Exchange banquets.

WSU Officials Ponder Fate Of Lindbergh's Birthplace

Lindbergh's three-story, red brick birthplace became of interest to historians after the young aviator (right) completed his famous flight in 1927.

DETROIT The transition of the flight of Charles A. Lindbergh in his plane, "Spirit of St. Louis," to Paris in 1927, resulted in a present-day problem for Wayne State University.

Today, 38 years after the flight, university officials ponder what to do with the house in which the Lone Eagle was born. . . for the structure has become a part of the "University City" area adjacent to Wayne's central campus. . . Tearing the 60-year-old house down is advised by those who have studied its poor physical condition. But there are historical and sentimental reasons for letting it stand. It was in 1886 that the house became associated with the Lindberghs. In that year it was purchased by Charles H. Land, a Detroit dentist later to be the maternal grandfather of the famous aviator. Three years later, Land's daughter, Evangeline Lodge Land, was married to Lindbergh's father, Charles Augustus, a Minnesota attorney.

Although the couple went to live in Little Falls, Minn., after the marriage, Evangeline came back to Detroit a year later to help her first child, Charles, at her mother's house. She returned to Minnesota a shortly after the birth. . . After the young pilot's successful transatlantic flight, a bronze plaque was placed on the front of the house, by that date in the hands of a new owner. When she put a "room for rent" sign over the plaque some months later, public pressure forced the removal of the rental sign. . . After 28 years as a rooming house the "Eagle's Nest" was

METHODIST CHURCH BUYS PARSONAGE

Negotiations have been completed for the purchase of an 8-year-old home for a parsonage for the Manchester Methodist Church.

The Rev. Jesse Epps makes the following announcement: "At a special Quarterly Conference and Church Conference called for the purpose on January 31st, a vote was taken to purchase the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Nortley at 330 Ann Arbor Street. Negotiations were completed on April 29th when the Garland Nortleys signed with the trustees, Oscar Dillard, chairman, the necessary papers for the transaction.

"The purchasing of another home for a parsonage has been in the long planning of the Church since the building of the Fellowship Hall in 1958.

"It was planned at that time that the present parsonage would sometime in the future be needed for Sunday school classrooms," Rev. Epps said.

"At that time two double-burner gas furnaces to heat the new building were placed in the basement of the parsonage along with the parsonage heating system," the minister continued.

"Also, the stairway to the basement from the inside of the house was removed to make room for the furnaces and a door to the basement made from the outside. The new building was built up against the south side of the parsonage cutting off all light on that side to the living room, dining room and kitchen.

CREDIT IMPORTANT TO FARMERS

Credit is playing an increasingly important role in the growth and progress of Michigan Agriculture, according to Richard Peckens, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Ann Arbor.

Farmers continue to substitute capital for labor and to make adjustments which will enhance their income. To do this, they turn to borrowed money and use their farm land as a basis for borrowing, he explained.

"The reason for the increased use of borrowed money is quite obvious when you consider the trend in size of farm businesses and the substitution of capital for labor," Mr. Peckens commented.

Farms are much larger today in acreage and size of business than 25 years ago. Also, capital accounts for over 60 per cent of all inputs of agriculture today compared with about 32 per cent in 1940. At the same time labor has been reduced from 59 per cent to 30 per cent, he added.

Mr. Peckens noted that the Federal Land Bank of Saint Paul loaned $144,748,700 to farmers last year. This is the largest volume of money loaned by the Bank in its current history, he added. Farmers in Michigan borrowed $43 million of this total; Wisconsin, $25 million; Minnesota, $46 million; and North Dakota, $31 million.

The Federal Land Bank of Saint Paul had more than 55,000 loans totaling $481 million outstanding December 31, 1964, Mr. Peckens stated.

Farmers in Washtenaw, Livingston and Wayne counties which are served by the Federal Land Bank Association of Ann Arbor used borrowed money for a wide range of purposes last year to make their farm business more profitable. Manager Peckens said that, as of December 31, 1964, the association had 948 farmer-borrowers with loans totaling $16 million.

Directors of the Federal Land Bank Association of Ann Arbor are Andy Luchinski, Al Rilling, Floyd Cameronlain, Glenn Hanson, Edward Holmes, Lee Gaglian, and Ben Martin.

COMING EVENT

Method Church Sunday-School program will be held at 10:00 p.m. May 10.

CHUTIST BLOW IN ON NUDISTS

Washtenaw County prosecutor's office is checking into a complaint by the owner of nudist camp that parachutists are dropping into the camp. He believes that the "sky-divers" are using the camp as a target for the landings.

The "sky divers" reply that it is the air current, not curiosity which has carried them to the nudist camp.

Thomas Odell operates the camp known as "Shagbark Park" on his farm on Sheridan Road, southeast of Manchester and Bridgewater Townships, northwest of Clinton.

Odell reported to the Clinton State Police post that the "sky divers" have been dropping into his camp unannounced and uninvited. The chutists, questioned by troopers, said that their landings are supposed to be at the Tecumseh airport, a few miles away but that winds have swept them into the nudist colony.

The prosecutor's office is continuing to investigate the complaint.

The camp was opened several years ago when Odell fenced in a wooded section of his farm land for the camp. The land has a small lake on it, is bordered by a thick growth of trees and has picnic tables and badminton courts.

YOUTH ORDERED TO APPEAR

A 16-year-old Manchester Township youth who led village officers on a fast chase during which he forced other cars off the road and almost ran head-on into another vehicle was apprehended early Sunday by Village Officer Donald Payer and Russell Wright.

The chase, officers said began, at 2:30 a.m. Sunday after the youth's 1965 model car was seen swerving from one side of the road to the other as it sped through Manchester.

In a 25-mile-an-hour zone the teenager's car was reported clocked at 70 miles an hour. He was going 90 in a 55 mile zone on Austin Road and 65 on a curve regulated at 35 miles an hour, the officers said.

He forced one car into a ditch and almost crashed head-on into another, it was reported. He told officers he was late in getting his parents car home.

Sheriff's officers said Tuesday date has not been determined for him to appear to Sheriff's Department's Juvenile Officer for an interview, but it would probably be Saturday.

COMING EVENT

The Altar Society will meet Thursday, May 13 at St. Mary's church hall. Anyone interested is invited to attend the 8:15 p.m. meeting when Toni Spina, chief Free Press photographer will show slides of Rome.

The business session will follow the pictures. This promises to be a very interesting program which is open to the public.

On committee for the meeting are Mrs. L. V. Kirk, Miss Mildred Kirk, Mrs. Marvin Kirk and Mrs. Robert Kirk.

VOCATIONAL PROJECT IN FULL SWING REPORTS
DR. THEODORE BLAKE

The three-month vocational project of Manchester, Chelsea and Dexter and the swing with the groundwork for the project being engineered by Theodore Blake, program director.

Manchester Superintendent of Schools said that the program for a vocational education schedule was started before he came to Manchester.

Dr. Blake comes to work in this district from the 11th Grade Course School of Mt. Clemens where he was employed for ten years. He began as an industrial art teacher and then worked as director of co-operative education.

Since Blake began his new job with the three school systems of Manchester-Chelsea-Dexter in February he has sent questionnaires to three high school graduates regarding their vocational training.

Part of the evening's program was the Indian Dance team. Each lodge dance team. A very authentic Indian Dance of their choice in competition with the other lodges. The contest was made completely of benefits. One of the high lights of the week end was the very impressive Sunrise Church Service held on the edge of Horton Lake among the white birch and evergreen.

He plans to try to place students in office work in their own job training.

All students will be required to take the subjects needed for high school graduation including English, history and government.

Blake says that as far as he knows this is the first program of its type out of the Detroit area.

This is not a special aid program for students who are not doing good school work. It is an academic program. For a long time the general thinking of the public was that a vocational school diploma was something less than one from a high school. This may have been true once, but it is no longer the case. The general level of students is higher today, Blake said.

TWO SCOUTS ATTEND CONFERENCE AT HORTON LAKE

Scouts of Manchester, two of their members to attend the Area 7-1 Conference at Horton Lake north of Flint on May 3 and 4.

The two Manchester Scouts were among 100 scouts attending from the Forest Trails Council. Total attendance was nearly 500 boys and leaders from the area lodges that make Area 7-1.

'Leftover' Appliances Can Spoil New Kitchen

A new home deserves new kitchen appliances. Don't make the mistake of trying to economize by installing your old range, refrigerator, and dishwasher in your new house.

When you add the moving costs to the increasing service costs of aging appliances, you may find that the savings aren't great.

Most important, though, are the appearance and efficiency of your kitchen. The past few years have seen many improvements made in electric kitchen appliances. Because there are many more styles, colors and operating features available, it may take longer to make a choice, but you will be able to find just the right units for your individual taste and requirements.

The new electric ranges, for instance, come in several basic styles — free-standing, compact "drop-in," separate built-in range-top and wall ovens, and "console" with eye-level oven or double oven. Some have ovens at both eye-level and below the cook-top.

Various automatic features of the new electric ranges are designed to help you get better cooking results consistently with a minimum of fuss. Cleaning the new units is easy, too.

Today's electric refrigerator-freezers also come in a variety of styles including new console or "break-front" models much like the eye-level-oven ranges in appearance. Freezer sections may be at the top, the bottom, or beside the refrigerator section.

Thinner walls made possible by an efficient foam-type of insulation provide considerably more food storage space in a case that has the same exterior dimensions as an older unit. Shelf arrangements and special compartments make food storage easier and more efficient and the old problem of ice cubes has been taken care of by cleverly designed trays and bins on some units and automatic ice makers on others.

The most-wanted improvement of many current refrigerator-freezers is the frostless feature which completely eliminates the messy job of defrosting.

New automatic dishwashers have been improved inside and out. Portable and convertible models are popular with apartment dwellers and families who don't want to change their kitchens. A built-in dishwasher is preferable in a new home.

This all-electric kitchen features latest console style refrigerator-freezer and range.

Washing power has been increased to eliminate hand rinsing and more cycles have been added for special purposes such as scrubbing pots and pans, gently washing fine china and glassware, and rinsing and holding dishes for later washing. New rack designs make loading easier, and many models now can handle larger loads efficiently. If a dishwasher isn't to be installed in a new home until later, a 24-inch cabinet should be put in the space where it will eventually be located. By having the plumbing and wiring for a built-in dishwasher roughed in now, along with the other plumbing and wiring, the cost of installing the dishwasher later will be kept to a minimum.

VERSATILE MACHINE
Automatic dishwashers can be used for much more than just washing dishes. Hard-to-clean heavy cut glass, chandeliers, prisms, figurines, knickknacks, vases—even removable parts of the kitchen range—can be washed easily and safely in the dishwasher.

of C PREPARE FOR MOTHER'S DAY

They are punctual with their service and although they serve more than 600 a the annual roast beef dinner, there is no waiting line.

Dinner is served family style beginning at 12:00 noon to 4:30 p. m. Sunday, May 9.

Fielder says that their building, located on Madison Street, one block off Main Street is just about half paid for—and they know how the money was earned.

"If we do find that some of the fellows aren't gifted in the cooking department, it doesn't bother us. Not one of them has ever said that he couldn't wash dishes. You see we can't afford to miss an opportunity to put the membership to work. By this time we are pretty certain that we know where each one can help us most," Fielder concluded.

"This gives mothers a place to go for dinner on Mother's Day. At the same time they have a chance to meet some of their friends from away. And I honestly think the children get a real bang out of watching dad wait on table. I've never been able to figure it out, but they do," Fielder concluded.

The department was also called after grass started and burned out of control at the John Cole residence on Pleasant Lake Road. Property burned belonged to the Ellis Pratt farm.

Correction to last week's notes from council proceedings: President Bentschneider's appointment to the Manchester Planning Commission should have read-- Allen Schaffer, Fred Leeman, Millard Uphaus, Edward Galloway, L. KODA'S KORNER

We always wonder what makes the business of politics so touchy, especially in a small town. Any issues raised start people to thinking you have a personal axe to grind, or that the publisher is working toward some ulterior motive, this is noting but a lot of garbage! For we have only stood for our rights as any decent newspaper would have done. We have heard many comments, such as "Shake them up, they need it." or "When you get through there you can start on the", etc. Lets shake them all up, but give credit where credit is due. It has been ten years or more since any council has published a financial statement. A financial statement can be examined on page 3, and it is through the efforts of the council, after many long hours, and an audit that a complete financial statement can be printed. Hats off to our village council for their diligent work on this project.

We cannot speak for everyone, but we feel this is certainly a step in the right direction, for upon looking over the report the public will know how their tax dollars are being used. More negotiations are on the way to find a solution to the printing of the disbursements with the council proceedings, we hope in the near future to be able to answer this also. There are a few who say we have been approaching this problem in a off-beat manner but who can dispute the great amount of interest that has been generated, and made the Village Council just as IMPORTANT as a teenage driver and his license.

MAIN STREET

Where are you Hiram? That is the question that a number of people in Manchester are asking. Another one is, "Who is Hiram?" We too are wondering. We know who he is--and where he is but our big question is, "Where is that letter that he promised loud and clear to write to the Enterprise?" Hiram, we are anxious to hear from you. But at almost press time there was no more communication from our friend.

If you have decided that you don't want the space in the paper--which will be given to you (free of charge) why don't you tell us! We do wish that people would not confuse the issue that the news paper has with council. Our problem is this--we want the council to print the disbursements in the paper along with the council notes. That is the fault we are finding with council.

Some of you tell us you were glad to find them back in the Enterprise last week. Well, folks, they appeared because the Enterprise staff went to council to get them. They were not printed because they came from the council. The council notes which were given to the Enterprise are in this week's paper. They appear a week late as usual. It hasn't been the custom of council in the last months to give out the council notes the same week as the council meeting. Most of you are well aware of this because the Enterprise has been accused of holding them back. This isn't true. We print them when we receive them. That is all we can do.

We want to make this clear to our readers. We have no power to hire or fire anyone on the village payroll. We don't know who they hire or fire until someone calls our attention to this. We are sure that a check with the village council will confirm this. Some one told us that they were sure the Enterprise was responsible for this type of action. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Something which council probably knows by now is that the people of this community read their weekly paper. We want to take this time to thank every one of you for your loyal support--it would be impossible to write you all notes of thanks but we are glad that you approve of what we are doing.

There are so many things to do at this time of year and so little time to do them that we don't wonder that sometimes we forget. Something funny happened Monday night. The school board was meeting and called a short recess when the fire whistle blew while they raced outside to take a look around. The automatic lock was on and as the last member went out he pulled the door shut. Lucky someone had a key!

Also on Monday the Optimists voted to give their profits from the Athletic Booster's banquet to the Booster Club. Trust our George, he went off to the club meeting with out his camera and told us later the best picture of the evening went unnoticed. It seems that Ron Jenter was preoccupied and went to set down a salt shaker--without looking. He placed it carefully--in a glass of water. The publisher said he really ought to thank the friends who managed to see that he had a way from place to place Monday night, without walking. He was without a car, or even a bicycle for transportation. His wife had the car at the BPW meeting and his daughter had the bicycle.

PLANNING COMMISSION GETS UNDERWAY

The first Planning Commission in the history of Manchester held its regular meeting Monday May 10 at the village hall, with all members present. Guest were Donald Limpert, George Hurrell, director of the Jackson County Planning Commission and Robert Carpenter Washtenaw County Planning Commission. Mr. Hurrell explained there are no known short cuts to planning such as package deals. Every community is different in their aims, need and wants. To begin with, there must be participation from cross section of the community, such as businessmen, professional people, school and most of all - the people of the community.

Federal grants, such as a 701 grant, are available. The government will pay 2/3rds and the village will pay the remaining third. Surveying and an estimation of what is needed for a community such as Manchester, will be under the supervision of the Federal Commission.

Mr. Carpenter went on further to explain some of the action taken in the eastern part of Washtenaw County, and made some suggestions: have a good planning organization. Look at the standing resources in Man-

WHAT IS A MOTHER?

Today's mother is so many things. A sympathetic ear. A cool hand on a fevered brow. A forgiving nature. A wonderful aroma. A kiss to make it well. A stitch in time. A peanut butter and jelly sandwich and a glass of chocolate milk. A mender of broken dolls and broken hearts. An umpire. A taxi driver. A fashion coordinator. A diplomat. A 24-hour answering service. A walking computer. A national resource!
