The foundation of your child's financial estate . . . low - cost protection for those growing up years.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR GEM?

Children — girls or boys — from 15 days to 15 years.

HOW DOES GEM WORK?

A one-karat GEM initially provides $1.250 of economical term coverage until your child reaches age 23.

The cost — for all these years of protection — is only one $60 payment!

At age 23, when the insured will probably be established in a selected field, the GEM automatically becomes $5,000 of permanent insurance at standard rates

... GEM not only covers your child today but later provides a lifetime setting of protection with ever-growing cash (and Another gleaming facet . . . allows the insured to purchase, at standard rates and without medical or other exam, four additional $5,000 amounts of permanent protection! ... At ages 25, 27, 29 and 31 - protection may be increased by as much as $5,000 at each age. Any level premium permanent plan best suited to needs at the time may be purchased . . . or, if desired, any option date may be bypassed without forfeiting the others.

NOTE: A GEM of one or two karats may purchased. Two karats provide $2,500 of term protection to age 23 for one single premium of $110. It then converts to $10,000 of permanent insurance and includes the option allowing the insured to purchase up to $10,000 of additional permanent protection at each of the four indicated ages.

LET FREEDOM RING . . .

LET FREEDOM RING DAY will be observed in Manchester on July 4th. Village president, Eugene Bentschneider says that the church bells in Manchester will join those of the other cities and villages in this combined effort to remind everyone of the rededication to our national unity and undying devotice to the United States.

At exactly one p.m. on July 4th a great chorus of church bells will begin ringing in every city, town village and county across the State of Michigan. The belis will ring for 4 minutes in solemn tribut to the country's founders, to remind us of the real meaning of this great national holiday, and as a rededication to our national uni and undying devotion to our count and for what it stands.

The dedication began in 1963 when two citizens from Connection who bewailed the fact that Independence Day was becoming more of a summer holiday than a time of remembering the rich heritage of freedom made possible by the Declaration of Independence. Go Romney proclaimed July 4th as LET FREEDOM RING DAY, and urged every citizen to organize and participate in a statewide "ringing of the bells" at 1:00 p.m. The liv ing faith of those who sacrifice their lives for democracy should never become the dead faith of the living.

All churches, ministers, and interested groups are encouraged to participate to delegate one or two persons to ring their church bells for four minutes beginning at one p.m. on the Fourth.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30th

Manchester Moms will stage the annual Tag Day Wednesday, June 30. This is the one big event which the MOMS hold every year to keep funds available for their many projects, the biggest of which is entertaining the 75 or 80 patients in a closed ward at the Veteran's Hospital at Battle Creek each month. Until this year the MOMs earned all of their money but for the first time the mmunity Chest was asked to make a contribution.

Mrs. Ed Schuman is Tag Day chairman and Mrs. Merle Cummings is the hospital chairman. For the past 20 years many of the same women have worked diligently on Tag Day.

"It takes a lot of cookies and ice cream to treat 80 patients every week," Mrs. Cumming said. She and Mrs. Schuman, Mrs. Chas. Wurster, Mrs. Roy Lowery and Mrs. Herman Weidman went to Battle Creek last week for the annual carnival for the patients-when every MOMs unit sets up some type of booth.

Pictured (I to r) are the Moms who were in the Manchester booth last year. They are: Mrs. Chas. Carlton Sr., Mrs. Merle Cummings, Mrs. Chas Wurster, Mrs. Herman Schultz, Mrs. Glen Snyder, Mrs. Ed Schuman and Mrs. LoRen Trolz. This year the driver was Mrs. Glen Bertke.

Small Panes Were a Pain To Tax Man

In Colonial days, it was practically unpatriotic to have small-paned windows in a house. It meant the homeowner was evading taxes levied on large panes of glass.

The reason is that taxes differed according to the size of the glass panes. Even shopswhich displayed their wares behind large bay windowsused grill or diamond panes. probably to keep taxes down

Watched Kettle Will Boil When a 'Genie' Watches

In the truly modern kitchen, pot-watching is a thing of the past. The job has been taken over by the thermostatic "genie" in electric ranges.

Housewives who used to spend extra time at the range -stirring, adjusting the heat, removing food before it could burn or boil over-now simply set a temperature control.

The precise, even heat needed to cook a particular food to its tastiest turn is assured by a sensor attached to the range's cooking units, By constantly measuring the temperature of the pot bottom. and adjusting the heat accordingly, the sensor keeps the food cooking at the preselected temperature. When the pot and the food in it stay evenly heated, the food cooks quickly and more thoroughly. If there are no food spills or burn spots, there is less clean-up afterwards. Manufacturers of electric ranges advise the use of flatbottomed pots and pans large enough to cover the entire surface of the cooking units to obtain the best results from the automatic temperature controls. Utensils made of good conductor metals like aluminum will assure more even distribution of heat and tastier meals

Before one answers the question of "How youth needs can best be met?" one must know long an adult's needs are best met. In our society we see long magazine articles on problems of the frustrated | COUNCIL ASKS housewife who is unable to cope with the life without recognition that she leads. Men performing un skilled tasks in large companies find no satisfaction in their work; they realize insignificance of their Ellen Buss had leased from the contribution. Adults in all levels of society seems to desire treatment as individuals, and the respect and recognition due to a decent human being.

Now consider the teenager. He is incessantly badgered by adults for simply being in a certain age group, regardless of whether he is guilty of any crime or not.

If he is a mediocre student or a "hood" his life is a struggle to find a corner to stand in. High honor students and athletes are set on one huge pedestal or glory and prestige. Their school lives are gay, and their friends are many. The community accepts them as leaders of tomorrow; they receive scholarships from companies and clubs they are not even associated said he was offered a new lease by

How do they either the railroad or Buss Coal feel as they watch the others receive awards and scholarships to aid their future? Do they feel that him could be terminated by either they are completely unnecessary and out of place at a school? Teenagers are frustrated and confused about their futures anyway. Often these poorer students come from homes that cannot or will not take the time to appear interested in their child. The community and our society are repulsed by these teenagers.
