

MANCHESTER'S NEW WELL IS IN; PUMPED 920 GALLONS

by Marie Schneider
Just what the test for the new village well might be isn't known at this time but engineers believe that it will be more than satisfactory.

hill, part of which has been leveled off. Stolen said that for three hours during the test the new pump was pulling 725 gallons per minute and this was plenty for the size of the well.

No. 1 well because the water treatment and filtering system centered around it. Dale Dunbar of Dunbar Drilling Co. of Toledo looked over the possible sites owned by Manchester. A test well was drilled on Macomb Street near the No. 1 well, but this did not prove satisfactory enough to continue.

$7.5 MILLION PLAN

The Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors has received a proposed $7.5 million 15-year capital improvement program. The County Planning Commission labeled the proposal a "preliminary draft." A final report based on this review is expected late in August according to Clayton Parr, Manchester Supervisor.

plans can be formulated and a tax election held.

A new 125-bed hospital facility is urgently needed as the present hospital with an 80-bed capacity is filled and a waiting list. A law requiring the county to add a second probate judge may lead to the location of juvenile divisions courtroom and judge's office in the new juvenile center.

PRIZES PRIZES TO BE GIVEN AWAY BY MANCHESTER MERCHANTS

Manchester Merchants will stage their third SIDEWALK SALE-Wednesday, July 21. For those who have never attended one of these sales it will be well worth your time to join the shoppers who will drive from far and near to avail themselves of some of the very worthwhile bargains which the merchants will be displaying both on the sidewalks in front of their business places and also in the stores.

KLAGER RE-ELECTED AS BOARD PRESIDENT

Luther Klager was re-elected as the Manchester School Board president at Monday's meeting. Since 1943 Klager has held the post. Just four years later, Laurin Leeson was elected to the school board and was named secretary.

12th ANNUAL CHICKEN BROIL TODAY

Wonder just how many hungry people will be fed today at the annual Charcoal Chicken Broil? How many foreign countries will be represented. The big affair has taken on an international flavor. Visitors will be drifting in from all over the state and from several others as well. This is the time of year that they purposely visit their friends and relatives in Manchester and it gives them an opportunity for a reunion with old friends and other visitors who have learned to plan well in advance to make it appoint to be in Manchester at the time of the Big Broil.

SIZZLING HOT DEALS MANCHESTER

Sidewalk Sale time is Creepin Up! In fact it is almost here. This event which proved to be lot of fun for everyone is being repeated this year on Wednesday, July 21 st.

This promises to be bigger and better than last year. The merchants are donating prizes will be merchandise, there will be cash certificates donated by Double A Products, Manchester Enterprise and the Union Savings Bank of Manchester.

This will be the day when they'll roll out the barrel - - the well known wire barrel. It will be deposited in front of the Union Savings Bank. For one week, beginning Wednesday, July 14 and continuing through July 21st - the day of the sale, all participating merchants will give away tickets with each dollar of purchase.

This will be a gala affair. Beginning at 7:00 p.m. and every half hour until 9:00 p.m. there will be a drawing.

Manchester's own Del-Tino's will play for the street dance during the evening. Fun For Everyone and Bargains Galore In our Stores could well be slogan for the Sidewalk Sales!

St. Mary's Altar Society will hold an ice cream social on Wednesday, July 21 starting at 5:00 p.m. on the church lawn with a plate lunch and also ice cream and cake.

From the Merchants who sponsor this annual event we are told that the big wire barrel will be rolled out in front of the Bank for depositors to stash away their tickets. What tickets? Why the tickets which the Manchester Merchants will be giving with each dollar purchased a week before the sale.

Beginning at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday night and continuing every half hour until 9:00 p.m. there will be drawings both for cash certificates and also for some very worthwhile prizes! To give you some idea of just how much the merchants value your patronage we will give you some idea of the prizes--of course we are unable to list them all at this time.

Going along with the Bank to give cash certificates will be the MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE with a $25 cash certificate; WILSON METAL CO. comes up with another $25; so does the DOUBLE A PRODUCTS for $25; and the K & W FARM SUPPLY is checking in with a $10 gift certificate. On these prizes we understand that the winner does not have to spend all of the money in one place. If you are the lucky $50 winner you can spend $10 in five places if that is your choice. Its up to you! You make the decision.

Just name us a woman in Manchester who wouldn't be tickled to find a way to get out of doing dishes. Or kids either, for that matter! Ask Chick Kirk, he knows. That is why he made the decision to give away an ELECTRIC DISHWASHER BY L. V. KIRK ELECTRIC! So its a free dishwasher for some lucky person in Manchester. We know of several places around here who would be jumping for joy if they were the winners.

If that isn't enough to make you travel miles to shop in Manchester maybe what you have been needing most (and we could use this one too) is a GARBAGE DISPOSAL! Oh! Happy Day! Non more trudging out with the garbage on the cold winter days, and don't forget folks, we do have cold and icy winter days. Kind of hard to believe when we are baking at nearly 90 degrees today. This hot humid weather also welcomes the garbage disposal. Who is going to give it away? Why, AL'S PLUMBING, right next door. Al Gaige knows what the housewife needs to make her job a bit more enjoyable.

Maybe this isn't TOP COAT weather, but look ahead. What man wouldn't welcome a new $50 TOP COAT from WALT SCHAIBLE. You can have your choice of size and color! Is there anything more? There surely is.

There's a HIS & HERS ELECTRIC RAZOR donated by UPHAUS DRUG. This, too, is a fine gift that anyone would welcome.

And did someone say they needed a new bedspread. How does a Bate's George Washington spread fill the bill? That is the gift-BEDSPREAD by MARX & MARX. This is not a run of the mill spread as you may well know.

There will be more prizes and many, many bargains. We can't list them all. But there will be a good time for everyone who plans to attend.

Along with a sidewalk sale--just to keep in the swing of things what could be better than music with Manchester's own Del-Tinos entertaining with their own rock and roll music for the STREET DANCE which is the climax to the whole affair. The dance will be held in front of the E.G. Mann Mill! This promises to be a Gala Affair with dancing between the drawings.

A science and mathematics teacher is needed at the secondary level and one special education teacher is needed to replace Mrs. Enid Huelserg who recently submitted her resignation.

The Board approved the hiring of two new faculty members. Mrs. Judy Higgins, a graduate of Baylor University of Waco, Texas will be the new German and English teacher. Mrs. Helen Bareis, a graduate of Western Michigan University will be the new girls' physical education teacher.

With the school board members remaining the same as last year, and with the group re-electing all of their officers, the general procedures of the operation of the Manchester School System should continue much the same as last year.

MANCHESTER TO HIRE VILLAGE PLANNERS

The Manchester Village Council will be asked next Monday to approve the selection of the firm of Bilican, Leaman and Associates of Southfield, as the village planners.

The Manchester Planning Commission decided to make the recommendation at a meeting on Monday night. Since the appointment of a Planning Commission last spring by the village president, the committee studying various firms, has been busy at work. Last week the committee on the commission visited several planners to see them at work in their own surroundings. They came back and reported to the rest of the commission members that they were most favorably impressed with the Southfield Firm. Village president, Eugene Bentschneider and Donald Dorff and Allen Schaffer visited the firms last week. Also under consideration for the post was the firm of Johnson and Johnson.

Now the decision of what to do with the suggestion is up to the Village Council. HONOR ROLL. Thomas Rolland Uphaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Uphaus, has been named to the Elmhurst College Dean's honor roll for the second semester of the 1964-65 academic year. The honor roll is comprised of students who carry a minimum of 15 semester hours of work and register average grades of 2.2 or above on the basis of a 3.0 system.

Looking out Wednesday on a hot humid day with too brief showers falling now and then, a person can't help but wonder how this committee feels so sure there would be no rain on Thursday. No one seemed unduly concerned. A rain would be good of course. It doesn't rain on the third Thursday of July. Someone said, "It doesn't dare to rain." We noticed that the plans were going ahead for the broil anyway. You just perish the thought of rain today. There is a small change in the menu this year. Did we say small. They were saying that they have added radishes to the menu. Sounds like a small item. Anyone want to clean them.--say about 15,000 radishes. Even this takes on gigantic proportions when you consider so many people. Next week's Enterprise will give a rundown on the Broil and how successful it was. With the "New Look" there will be no waiting line and we are all glad to hear this! This afternoon we'll see you at the BIG CHICKEN BROIL!

Letters

As Readers See It

To the Manchester Enterprise:
Dear Friends:
I wonder if you would like the following letter to the community as a newsletter?

Dear Friends:
As you well know, Mrs. Epps and I cannot write to each of the friends we have in the community of Manchester—not even to each in the Methodist Church.

We thought, perhaps, that the people of the Manchester area would like to know how a made it here with our travel trailer—the being a new experience for us.

As you may well know, we had to learn the speed we could travel with safety as well as the passing of slow traffic. We had to learn how to back into places in trailer courts; how to keep up the pressure in the water tank as well as a water supply. One evening, your mule got all scared up for a shower and discovered that we were out of water in the tank. One learns by experience. That particular night we were not hooked up to the water system as trailers usually are.

We soon discovered that it is just as important to know how to drive down hills as to climb them pulling about 5,000 pounds behind a Plymouth station wagon.

While we took the western route to keep out of the Cumberland Mountains, we did encounter some real hills in and around Montgomery, Alabama.

We discovered that holding the special brake lever for trailer brakes very firmly we could hold back the trailer from pushing the car down hill. We also found that this same process could aid us in keeping down away, or bringing back to normal from a wavy.

We have found Florida much as we experienced in the low 30s in the daytime and in the 70s at night. We manage to keep out of the sun during the heat of the day and sleep until we are ready to get up in the morning. There is nothing urgent since our retirement.

One of our pleasures will be rockin' in the rockers the Methodist Youth gave us for a going-away present, and reading Orchard Living or Wheels by Franklin Reed and Burgess Scoby, a copy of which was autographed for Mrs. Epps and myself as a going-away present by Mr. Reed.

Our household goods has not arrived. We are sure they will be stored until we find a suitable home. In the meantime we are learning to live in a trailer.

As we divide up the every day tasks, I find myself amid the bedding and making it away for the day. I am quite accomplished at setting table by now.

Today (Sunday) we attended the three-year-old St. Paul's Methodist Church. We had a feeling that the church might be air-conditioned. It was. With the temperature at 85 degrees it was very comfortable wearing a coat in the building.

It was a good feeling to sit in the pew and enjoy the service along with the other worshippers.

We are planning to join our son and his family in their 52 foot cabin trailer and see the fireworks from the boat in the evening. This is something different we look forward to in the line of recreation.

We appreciated our six years in Manchester. They went by ever so fast. We shall long cherish the many nice things which we made while in Manchester and shall also be ever grateful to the Manchester Methodist Church for the wonderful going-away party and gifts.

We'll long remember the many nice things which so many of you said to us and our last Sunday with you.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Jesse D. Epps

A recent recreation enjoyed by the club was attending the "Share the Fun Festival" and "Model Business Meeting Contest."

The Jolly Farmerettes entered both contests. The vocal group, entered in the "Share the Fun Festival" received honorable mention, and being placed in this group is a real honor because only 4 acts go to the District meeting. Ice Cream Socials Still Popular Today

Ice cream socials are just as popular in the Manchester area today as they were 50 years ago. It is one of the entertainments that people in a small village look forward to. And in summertime—when the temperature hits 80 or 90 degrees—is the best time.

Three Manchester area churches have scheduled socials during the next few weeks.

The Altar Society will be working on their ice cream social along with the men of St. Mary's at a social on Wednesday, July 21. This will start at 5:00 p. m. on the church lawn. In the event of rain the affair will be in the church hall Location is W. Main Street.

The Iron Creek Church social will be at 5:00 p. m. Thursday, July 22 at English and Sharon Hollow Roads.

The Methodist Church ice cream social will be August 4 in the park in front of the Township Library on West Main Street.

There was a time when the men of the church congregations used to turn the cranks on the old-time ice cream freezers. People in those days started to plan the ice cream socials in the winter. Huge chunks of ice were cut from the rivers and stored in ice houses, and packed in saw dust to help keep it for summer use.

Putting on ice cream socials in the "good old days" was no small chore, but those who remember doing some of the work will tell you that they enjoyed every minute of it-work and all.

There was custard to make for the ice cream, with country fresh eggs cooked to a creamy consistency. Then there was thick rich cream to add before the freezing process started.

This year the ice cream will be delivered in big refrigerated trucks from area ice cream manufacturers and probably the biggest job will be scooping it out.

But the atmosphere will be the same. People will be coming from far and near to meet their friends and talk over all the latest news and compare notes on farming—just as they used to do.

Most of the socials will feature hickory nut cakes and other light fluffy kinds. The lady of the house still prides herself on her ability to make cakes "like mothers used to bake."

The ice cream socials offer more than ice cream and cake. They also serve beef and pork barbecues, plate lunches with German potato salad, cole slaw, baked beans and hot dogs. Most of the socials have freshly popped corn and in the country store you will find home made candies, breads, rolls, eggs, fresh garden produce and berries in season.

Usually there will be fancy work for sale, aprons, embroidered pillow cases and stuffed toys.

Every child will want to try his luck "fishing" in the big fish pond, stocked well with all sorts of things to interest the small fisherman.

A few years ago everyone working on ice cream socials were more than mildly interested in the weather. These were outdoor events. They were not planned to be held inside.

But things have changed. Today, it really doesn't matter too much. If it rains the socials are held in church halls.

PURSE STOLEN FROM LOCAL WOMAN

A Manchester woman was knocked down by a thief who stole her purse and fled Saturday night, Manchester police reported.

Officers said Mrs. Della Place of 216 N. Union Street told them a young man stopped her on Madison Street about 8:20 p. m. Saturday in daylight and asked directions to a street in the village. As she was answering and telling him there was no street by that name he suddenly knocked her down with his shoulder and snatched her purse. He jumped into a waiting car and sped away.

Witnesses said the man got into an older car. A bystander took out after the car.

Mrs. Place said there was not much money in the purse but there were identification papers.

We are planning to join our son and his family in their 52 foot cabin trailer and see the fireworks from the boat in the evening. This is something different we look forward to in the line of recreation.

PRUDEN STEEL FRAMED CATTLE SHEDS PROVIDE CLEAR SPAN MANEUVERABILITY AND VERSATILITY

Ten foot cantilever roof overhang is useful to provide shelter when manger is located along the face of frame leg. It is also used along the open side of a cattle shed to keep rain and snow out of bedded area as well as to provide more shade in summer.

Pruden frame sheds are frequently used to shelter cattle in one end, and to store hay in the other. This building near Brussels, Wisconsin, uses the roll type of metal roofing on wall as well as roof.

This hay storage building may be converted to a dairy cattle shed when herd is expanded, and then the post-free interior will be much more important. This points out the importance of farm buildings being adaptable for alternate uses. Who knows for sure what the use will be ten or even five years ahead?

Antique Cars Visit Manchester!

There is no question about the fact that Car Park adds a lot to the community in offering a place for many reunions and family gatherings...

Then too, there are the swings, slides, and all types of playground equipment for children to play on.

Every Sunday the park seems to be bulging at the seams with people. It is to be expected!

But Sunday some people's eyes brows raised when they saw about a dozen cars park in front of the park. That might not sound unusual, but it was. You see, the cars were antiques.

For those who might be wondering, this was the Irish Hills Chapter of the Antique Car Club on one of the mystery rides which they hold every month during the summer.

President of the club, T. B. Dittmer of Adrian, said that when the club left Adrian even he didn't know the destination of the club.

The plans are made by the head of the Activities Committee. The cars must be kept off the main highways and these old time relics are driven about 1,000 miles a year.

The club president said that none of the cars have been involved in any type of accident in its more than 4 years of existence.

This Chapter is one of the Antique Car Clubs of America with a membership of 27 active members, most of which are in Lenawee County. Other officers of the club are Lawrence Birch of Clayton, secretary, Elwin Muck of Adrian, treasurer, Rex Johnson of Onsted and the Activity Chairman Allen Kern of Adrian.

FRIDAYS SPEEDWAY RACE RESULTS

Don Farris of Hillsdale took the 25-lap feature in Friday's race. Louis J. Stemon of Hillsdale was in second place and Dick Camp of Hudson placed third.

The same three drivers won in the same order in the 25 lap feature of the Friday night race. Their time was 3:34.04.

Bob Cash of Ann Arbor took the Distribution Derby. In the first heat the winner was Louis Stemon in 3:22.22 and Bob Bram took the second in 3:46.15.

Dick Carr of Tecumseh was the third heat winner in 3:52.22. Britton's Neil Grady took the 4th heat in exactly four minutes and Louise Stemon came back to take the pursuit in a race with ten cars.

In the 20-lap semi LeVame Eversole of Manchester was the winner. A week from this Friday there will be the mid-season championship race at the speedway.

ROAD COMM. WORKERS GET PAY HIKE

The 120-hourly rated employees of the Washtenaw County Road Commission will enjoy a 40-hour week and more liberal overtime pay for time beginning next week.

Personnel coordinator Patrick Clisham said that the switch from the 45-hour week will amount to the equivalent of a wage increase of about 31 cents an hour for most employees.

The new work week will be instituted starting July 17 with pay scales and employee grades adjusted so no employee receives less than he receives from the 45-hour week.

The Road Commission will begin paying time and one-half for overtime in excess of 45 hours on Nov. 6 and starting Nov. 6 will also pay time and one-half for hours worked on holidays, in addition to the regular eight hours pay for the holiday.

Overtime pay is of greater concern to the Road Commission crews which often must work around the clock in winter time to clear the roads following snowstorms.

The Road Commission will close down its operation at noon Good Friday, 1966 and the employees will be paid for the full work week.

Clisham estimated that the change from a 45 to a 40-hour week will cost approximately $4,000 per year and the new overtime regulations will cost about $18,000 per year.

He also said the new policies were included in a slightly different form, in a list of 8 demands presented to the Road Commission in recent months by the union.

The Road Commission is currently waiting a decision in Washtenaw Circuit Court on two cases involving the firing of two employees last year that have caused considerable friction with the union.

Howard Miner of the Road Commission said he doesn't know how many employees are members of the union and the new personnel policies cover all employees whether they are union members or not.

At this time there are some 12 people from the Manchester area employed at the Road Commission.

AT MUSIC CAMP

Brenda Eames is attending the Summer Music Camp at Western Michigan University at Kalamazoo from July 11 through the 24th.

Enrollment is limited to 200 students for study in choral, orchestral, theory and private instructions.

Sunday, July 18 is family day and at that time the student recital will be presented. The final concert will be presented on July 24.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Eames, son Bruce and June Kemmer and Eugene Huber Jr. plan to attend the student recital on July 18 at Bigelow Hall.

HEART AILMENTS TOP CAUSE FOR DEATHS

The Washtenaw County Health Department lists the main causes for death during 1964 were diseases of the heart.

The most common non-fatal diseases were measles and strep throat. The Health department has summarized its work for the year in a 17-page annual report, ranging from "well baby" clinics to meat inspection.

There were 465 deaths attributed to heart disease and cancer climbed to 219 victims. Diseases of the nervous system were listed with 170 deaths and came in third.

Diseases in early infancy claimed 56 children; automobile accidents, 50 persons and respiratory diseases 49 persons.

Measles topped the list of communicable diseases with 1,005 reported to the county compared to 1,120 in 1963.

The next greatest increase in cases reported was in mumps which jumped from 182 cases in 1963 to 494 in 1964. Chickenpox was down from 630 in 1963 to 256 in 1964.

In the tuberculosis control program, 25 new active cases were reported with 17 of them moderately or far advanced. Only three of these were in the minimal stages of the disease. Three tuberculosis deaths were reported during the year.

Public health nurses made 665 home visits to 94 tuberculosis patients and 1,364 visits to 580 contacts of active cases or persons suspected of having TB.

The local health department is also active in research projects concerned with tuberculosis control.

The school health program included hearing conservation testing, vision testing, fluoride clinics, immunization clinics and tuberculin testing.

Community sponsored clinics for application of sodium fluoride to children's teeth to reduce dental decay were held in Chelsea, Dexter, Ypsilanti and the Ann Arbor Stone School. In addition similar programs were conducted during the school year in Willow Run, Whitmore Lake, Saline and Manchester.

Nurses served the families of mentally retarded children by teaching children daily living activities and assisting parents, in addition to the usual child care and communicable diseases control.

The county public health veterinarian inspected carcasses of 48,531 animals butchered locally in 1964. Of these 53,999 pounds of meat were condemned and destroyed as unfit for human consumption. The meat inspection was carried out in restaurants, slaughterhouses and meat markets.

There were no rabid dogs reported in 1964. Members of the health department staff received training in emergency duties and 1,500 persons practiced mouth-to-mouth resuscitation under department supervision.

The county health agency provided field practice experience in public health nursing for 12 students from the University and experience in nursing supervision and administration for six graduate students.

KODA'S KORNER

Many people have been talking to us about Koda's Korner. Most people are in agreement with us. A few are not. We have found from sad experience that when we remain silent, many of our good friends accuse us being disparted and nothing could be farther from the truth. It takes a lot of time to attend meetings, write columns and the same time attend to our regular business. By regular business we have to mean PRINTING BUSINESS. Because it is this printing business that makes it possible to keep the Enterprise going. As you probably know the newspaper cannot support itself--so if we are to eat we have to do printing.

But now again we are taking council to task. On this page of the Enterprise we are printing the council proceedings. They are printed exactly as they were given to us for the paper. We attended the meeting and certainly feel that a great deal of pertinent facts were left out of the council notes. Maybe you disagree.

Now if it is your thinking that the rank and file of the community (by that we mean the tax payers) should not know that there is an increase in the proposed Sewer and Water Fund Budget for the next fiscal year, then these council notes will suit you. If you don't want to know that council has increased the budget by about $8,000, that is something different from our thinking. We feel that the taxpayer has every right to know about the money used in the community. We are not saying that this increase is not justified. That is not the question. But it is the right of the people involved. We maintain that it is the business of council to report to the people what the anticipated cost will be.

We have heard a long list of reasons why the council disbursements are not being printed. Does this mean that as citizens of Manchester we will have no reports on how much these larger expenses amount to also? We don't see eye to eye with council on some things, but is this business of keeping certain facts out of the council proceedings a means to an end?

On this question of printing disbursements, we know for a fact that council's time is limited. We have been waiting like four months for the answer. Now, how long would it take to write a letter to the Secretary of State office for a ruling? (this request may be done by council only!) We will abide by the recommendation of that office ONLY. They are the ones instrumental in making the Publication Laws of Michigan. They should interpret them--not our local governing body.

WATER & SEWERAGE PROBLEMS TO BE EYED AT PLANNERS PRELIMINARY REPORT

COUNCIL SELECTS VILLAGE PLANNERS

Manchester Council accepted the recommendation of the Planning Commission to hire Villican, Egan & Associates, planning consultants of Southfield for a two year period.
Prior to this time the newly appointed Planning Commission had made a study of a number of firms specializing in this type of work, believing that such an organization could do much in helping plan for the development of this community.

Village president Eugene Bentschneider said that it was the thinking of the council that having a commission organized and the proper steps taken in time, will help the village to grow in an orderly manner.
The cost of this service will amount to about $22,000. This will come under the Federal Planning Act #701 and 2/3's of the cost will be absorbed by the Federal Government.
In other action Council agreed to advertise for bids for curb and gutter for Duncan Street area for the block north of Double A from Torrey to Division Street. The council will also advertise for bids for one block of black top in the same area.

Citizens were also present at the council meeting to complain about speeding cars in their area. The complaint was referred to the Public Health and Safety Committee for further study. This committee is headed by Gale Koebbe working with John Althouse and Robert Clark.

Water and sewage problems which constantly pursue the people of this area will be discussed at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 26 at the Manchester Township Hall.
The meeting is being called by the Washtenaw County Planning Commission and is open to the public. County officials point out that anyone interested in hearing this preliminary report, as it affects Manchester, Sharon, Freedom and Bridgewater townships, is welcome.
A letter was sent to the Manchester Village Council, the Manchester Planning Commission and the Supervisors of the four townships involved, inviting them to attend.

Among those expected are representatives of the engineering firms which have been working on this report. They are: Robert Carpenter, Director of the Washtenaw County Planning Commission, Joe Price, Sanitary Engineer from the Washtenaw County Health Department. Professor Jack Borchart of the University of Michigan; John Holland of McNamara, Porter and Sealey; Ray Smith of Ayres, Lewis, Norris and Mae, law firm and Wm. Hayes, chairman of the Washtenaw County Planning Commission.
It is apropos that a meeting of this type is scheduled when the village of Manchester is vitally concerned with water and sewer facilities in the area.

SIDEWALK DAY IS A GALA SUCCESS

It seemed as if the last bits of charcoal from the Chicken Broil hadn't had a chance to cool, when the Manchester Merchants were busy as beavers this time with the Sidewalk Sales.

Mother Nature smiled again at this little community and gave one more bright and lovely day with the mercury hovering in the high seventies. That was good. As one merchant said, "It is a good thing it wasn't today (Thursday, July 22) or we'd be cleaning grease spots. For Thursday the thermometer climbed to 86 degrees.

Early in the morning, our man, Harry Macomber was out with his camera in time to catch this good shot of Lannoms and Walt Schabile's stores, ready for the big day. Anyone need a rake? How about a good suit?

Janet Reinhart and Andrea Koda were supposed to be selling scratch pads in front of the Manchester Enterprise. This is what happens when the sales girls' counter is on wheels.

To add to the gala atmosphere was the music of the Del-Tinos. They played for the street dance in front of the E. G. Mann Mill.

Merchants seemed pleased with the turn of events and we have a list of some of the prize winners. The redwood aluminum lawn chair went to Ted Curley; the $50 cash certificates from the Union Savings Bank went to Bob Brustle. Bob also won the Bates Spread at the Marx & Marx Store.
Sadie Stock of Blissfield won the charcoal grill complete with spit given by Widmayer Hardware. The sink-erator garbage disposal given by Al's Plumbing went to the Doc Knauss family.
