LUTHER KLAGER WILL HEAD 966 UNITED CHEST DRIVE

Luther Klager

Campaign chairman for the 966 Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive is Luther Klager. President Ed Gallowsky made the announcement at an August meeting.

Klager has been president of Manchester School Board since 1953 and is widely known for his devotion to all forms of service to the community and the city.

The fund goal for this fall drive will be $11,444.00 for the city. Klager has been president of Manchester School Board since 1953 and is widely known for his devotion to all forms of service to the community and the city.

Three of these are new groups which have local impact and are accepted by the Manchester Chest this year. They are Manchester Family Service - a coordinating board of local citizens who will try to meet all sorts of family emergencies and assist families in locating the property which can handle their problems more fully.

Michigan Children's Aid is a well known statewide organization which has been assisting children and families in the Manchester area for many years, but has never been in the fund. Washtenaw Association for Retarded Children is now giving assistance to families in this area and meets special need of the community.

Dates for the drive this fall are October 11 through October 23, with the Kick-off Workshop scheduled for 7:30 p.m. October 7 at Nellie Ackerson School Multipurpose Room.

Industrial employees are reminded that they have a choice of places to send their Community payroll deduction. If they are in the Manchester area it is hoped that they will earmark their gifts for the Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive.

For example, a Manchesterite who works at Rawsonville, or Tecumseh Products or any other neighboring plant can designate his gift to the Manchester Fund. This is a method endorsed by the local chest as well as neighboring ones.

COUNCIL & PLANNING COMMISSION MEET SAME NIGHT

Council met Monday with a number of residents present at the meeting. Byle Widmayer, clerk, was absent and council notes were taken by village attorney Stanton Roesch.

The following bills were approved for payment: Bridgewater Lumber 16.80 Widmayer Hdw. 22.14 Par-A-Cea-Water 9.50 McNamee, Porter, and Seeley 359.88 McNamee, Porter and Seeley 239.92 Ronde Brick & Supply 39.00 Mich. There was some discussion concerning the proposed sewer line on Sunset Drive.

One of the property owners involved asked council on what they based the width of the drive? It was reported that Sunset is only 33 feet wide, about half the width of a street. They also asked, "Is Sunset, really a street?"

It was pointed out that until last year the area in question was not shoveled out in the winter. Snow was taken away by a private concern and not by the village. It was pointed out that the village during the past years, until last year, assumed little obligation to upkeep of the drive.

There cannot be a special assessment to property owners in the Sunset Drive area for sewer line, president Bentschneider told the property owners because an existing law prohibits sufficient assessment to make it worthwhile.

Basil McGuire told council that a sewer replacement problem on the Charles King property is being solved.

Another visiting property owner questioned council's right to ask that all property improvements totaling more than $200 should be reported to council. He said that he could see where the project should be reported when it concerned a public utility such as water and plumbing. He continued and said that type of action on the part of council does little to promote or encourage property owners to improve their property.

It was pointed out further that the main reason for reporting and asking council to approve any improvements over $200 is to make the job of the assessor easy. A property owner along Grove Street had asked the cost of putting a sewer line in that area and the approximate cost he was told would be about $13,230 for the job to run from Adrian-Vernon to Grove and on to Fumace with the following break-down: Vernon-Adrian $4680; 300 feet on Grove $2350 and Grove to Fumace about $6200.

H. C. Ayres reported water pressure down at the Frozen Food Locker.

FIREWORKS EXPERT WILL SET OFF DISPLAY

Lawrence Scheid

Next week is the Manchester Community Fair. Among the events scheduled as drawing cards is the big fireworks display. This has been set for 10:00 p.m. Thursday, August 19.

Long before this date Lawrence Scheid started to make plans for the fireworks. It is all a part of Scheid's community service. He has, for many years, worked to pick out the very best fireworks--this in itself requires a small amount of effort.

Putting together fireworks displays for fairs and exhibitions used to be a hobby--one that he has followed for well over twenty years.

For 17 years Lawrence Scheid was the Manchester Fire Chief, but he gave up that post because he is out of town so much. But he hasn't abandoned the idea of setting up fireworks displays.

Scheid became interested in fireworks 24 years ago. He was visiting in an Ohio town. The man who was supposed to engineer the fireworks failed to appear. Scheid offered to help. It was a simple task.

He'll tell you that there is more to setting off the display than lighting the match. It is a tricky business.

There is always the problem of fireworks getting wet before they are shot off. The Manchester Athletic Field is very low and the fireworks gather dampness.

An eagle eye also has to be kept on the weather. An unexpected rain could ruin many hundreds of dollars worth in short order.

An average display takes four or five hours to set up. One of his best helpers through the years has been his daughter, Susan, who began to help her dad when she was 14 years old. She still gives her father a helping hand whenever she can. Like her father she enjoys the work.

"It is pretty hard to make any fast rules or decide just how long anything takes," Scheid said. "For ground sets you have to build a scaffold."

Aerial displays are set off with a mortar--a short cannon for shooting shells at high angles.

The veteran set-up man said that fireworks are "nothing to fool with."

"The explosive powder is much faster than dynamite. Operators have to be on their toes and know what they are doing. The action is almost instantaneous. It isn't slow like a fuse of dynamite."

Scheid said he has had only one close call. It happened in Detroit. He had touched off an aerial rocket and a spark fell down and ignited other fireworks on the ground, among which he was standing.

He always has been lucky. No one has ever been hurt when he was fireworks "set-up" man.

The largest display he ever set up took the entire day at a centennial and July 4th celebration at Defiance, Ohio. And the show lasted only an hour and 15 minutes.

OPTIMIST STEER CLUB IMPORTANT PART OF FAIR

The Optimist Steer Club is now in its fifteenth year. The club, sponsored by the local Optimist Club, plays a big part in the annual Community Fair which opens Tuesday, August 17 and concludes on Friday, August 20.

The showing of these 25 steers, is one of the big drawing cards at our fair," Ted Stautz said. Ted is the president of the Manchester Community Fair Board. He explained that there is an Optimist Steer Committee headed by William Hamilton.

Working with him are Dan Bouwell, Norman Buchholz and Tom Walton, all members of the club who work during the year to help the boys and girls with their projects. There are four girls in the Club this year.

Most of the steers are financed by notes endorsed by Optimist Club members. They were purchased on December 19, 1964 from the Michigan Livestock Exchange and were insured by a Hartford Livestock policy through the Sutton Agency. Working with the Optimist Committee were fathers of the club members.

"You can't have all the steer calves weighing in at exactly the same weight. They ranged from 500 to 720 pounds. In order to keep everything fair we have a drawing to determine who gets which steer," Hamilton said.

All profits on the steer goes to the boy or girl who raised and trained the steer. Dr. H. P. Eames, local veterinarian, Maynard Blossom, agricultural teacher Allen Alber and Willard Blumensauer, who trucked the steers, all deserve credit for their assistance. The Optimist Club depends on their help," Hamilton continued.

In March the club members and their fathers were guests of the Optimist Club at a dinner meeting. Part of the program was the showing of a film on meat processing and marketing. The Optimist Club sponsors this activity in keeping with its creed to be of aid to the youth of the community.

The Union Savings Bank will be host at a luncheon at the Emanuel Church Hall at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, August 19th. The steer Club members and their fathers will be present.

PLANNING CHIEF IN WASHTEENAW RETIRES

Robert D. Carpenier, director of the Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission has submitted his resignation to the commission. He has been the director for the past seven years.

He leaves the post to become associate professor in the University's College of Architecture and Design.

Carpenier will leave the county job on Sept. 1. Richard Maltby, Senior Planner with the Commission said that Carpenier will devote full-time to teaching city planning at the U-M. The commission will meet in two weeks to consider applications for the position which is open to all qualified persons.

Chairman of the Commission, William Hayes said that Carpenier has done a great deal to add prestige to the Washtenaw County Metropolitan Planning Commission and accepted his resignation "with regrets".

Carpenier said that he believes that planning "is more favorably received in Washtenaw County than ever before. The services of this commission and its excellent staff are in greater demand than at any time previous and I believe that the commission will rise to ever greater heights of excellence."

Metropolitan Commission decided to join the Detroit Metropolitan Commission for a transportation study at a cost of $5,000 to the county rather than have a county study alone, which would have cost around $250,000.

The six county Regional Planning Commission study was more urgent. However, Maltby, Sr. Planner said that "sometimes it is better to join the Washtenaw County Commission in an overall study of roads in the county."

Before coming to Washtenaw County Carpenier had been with the County Planning Commission in Akron, Ohio and the Detroit Regional Planning Commission.

He was a graduate of the Lansing schools and received a bachelor's degree in landscaping architecture from the University of Massachusetts and received his master's degree from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology City Planning.

VISITORS FROM ENGLAND FIND AMERICA SPACIOUS

by Marie Schneider

These are days which Mrs. Erwin Kenler of 804 E. Duncan St. will long remember. She and her husband and other members of the Kenler family are busy entertaining her niece, Miss Doris Roberts and a friend, Miss Maureen Hunter of Liverpool, England. The girls are spending a month's vacation visiting Doris's Manchester relatives. While in the country they plan to take in some of the main attractions, such as a trip to the World's Fair.

Mrs. Kenler said she has been awaiting for years, 45 years to be exact, hoping that some of her family would be able to visit this country. She left England at the close of World War I to come to America. During that time, the years from 1919 until the present time she has never seen any of her own relatives.

(l to r) Maureen Hunter, Mrs. Erwin Kenler and her niece, Doris Roberts. Doris is the first relative Mrs. Kenler has seen in 45 years. This would be lonely because she was one of the ten children of Robert and Louise Craig. Although it has been impossible for her to return to England or for her relatives to come here the family has always kept in contact. Doris is the daughter of her youngest sister, Mrs. Mary Francis Roberts. She was only nine years old when Mrs. Kenler. Of the family of ten there are only four girls left. The two English visitors say they have been planning the trip for more than a year. Doris is a stenographer for H. Hunt & Son, Liverpool, manufacturers of play ground equipment. She has been employed by the same company for five years. Miss Hunter is a stenographer for W. J. Jruar & Co. Ltd. of Liverpool. This company imports and exports from West Africa.

The girls flew to Kennedy airport and came by bus to Detroit where they were met by Peter Kenler, Doris's cousin. He brought them to Manchester. They boarded the plane at Manchester, England for the first part of their trip here. They see no comparison between the two Manchesters. They were impressed by so much vacant land in this country. They said that the bus trip gave them a chance to see more of the country here.

"Really, I can't see why the people of the United States are so concerned about a population explosion. With all this unoccupied land and so much open space it doesn't seem possible there could be any problems," Doris said.

She marvels at all of the large lawns around her aunt's home and big garden area at the back. She explained that in Liverpool, where she lives the houses are built tight together. No one could even walk between them. There is a small area in front of the house to the street for a flower garden and the area to the rear is often used for vegetables.

Mrs. Kenler remembers that it was exactly the same when she lived there 45 years ago. She

Woman's Work

A woman's work is never done particularly if she thinks she must still hand-wash her best woens. Fact is, there is now a special H<sub>2</sub>O process which makes all-wool and wool-blend fabrics automatic machine-washable. The technique was perfected by P. Stevens & Co., Inc. and applied to a wide range of textiles including an 85% wool-15% nylon fabric known as Stevens Waterville—used in the young lady's blouson sailor-jac and bleated skirt, by Catalina, and her companion's Eton suit, by Elegant Heir. Both garments available at retail in time for back-to-school fall '65.

A Wild Ride

The ultimate in car luxury is the custom upholstery job. It gives a car a completely one-of-a-kind look that sets it apart from all the others.

On the wilder side are some of the new deep pile fabrics with rakish animal looks made with Dynel modacrylic.

Pictured here is a white Plymouth Fury convertible completely upholstered in a tiger-like soft, deep pile. The car is an exact duplicate of the pace car (except for the Dynel upholstery) at the Indianapolis 500 race held May 31, and was given as first prize in an Enco "Tiger-at-Indy" service station contest preceding the race. The lucky winners were Mr. and Mrs. Welden L. Wuensch of Indianapolis.

Trying out the driver's seat is a lucky member of the Indianapolis Festival Queen's court. She loves tigers.

FUN FILLED DAYS FOR NEXT WEEKS FAIR

The Manchester Community Fair will open Tuesday, August 17, one day earlier than usual with all entries to be placed by noon on that date except pets, according to Ted Stautz, fair board president.

All business places, organizations and high school classes are reminded to be sure and have their floats ready for the parade which will form at 9:45 p.m. on Pioneer Street, side of the Athletic Field.

Decorated bikes will be judged too. According to parade marshals, Clarence Fielder and Eugene Bentschneider, judging will be in front of Victoria Villa after the parade with prizes ranging from $4.00 to $1.00.

Big event following the opening parade will be crowning of the fair queen. Each class selected three candidates for the coronation. All will ride in the parade and the new queen will be crowned by last year's queen, Shirley Pines.

Who Said Council Meetings Are For The Birds BIRDS RIGHTS DENIED BY COUNCIL

We all know that in recent weeks there has been a lot of controversy about some of the things that have been a part of the council meetings. There have been times when local citizens have set out the meetings and later inferred that the meeting was for the birds.

On Monday evening, as is the custom, we went to the council meeting. It was raining. Hasn't it rained every day this week? By the way, this is no fabricated story. It really happened. Just head of a reporter, hopping up the long flight of stairs of the Manchester township hall, was one soaked half-grown starling.

Now, it would seem to us that the bird was within its legal rights. It didn't just about everyone been saying that the council meetings were for the birds? Well, the chief didn't share these views. After short time he personally escorted the little fellow down the stairs.

A short time later we were sure we heard the hopping up the stairs again. But no bird appeared. Then there was the bounding up the stairs of the local publisher. There was scurrying in the hallway and into the room just ahead of the newspaper man, hopped the bird. Surely the bird would have a right to come in with him.

This time there was a ripple of laughter from the councilmen. He didn't really know why. The city fathers must have thought the bird was out of line. Not one of them made a motion to let him stay although the bird made a couple of valiant attempts to stay within his rights.

Whether he had been reading the local paper or just listening to conversations on the street we don't know. It was obvious that his poorly informed little fellow took the information at its face value and tried to crash the meeting. At any rate he found out first hand—that meeting was definitely not for the birds!

Speaking of meetings and such there is to be a meeting of the Manchester School Board Monday, August 23 at 7:00 in the Nellie Anderson All-Purpose Room for reviewing the school budget for next year. Then too, the Legion Auxiliary will install new officers at their meeting Wednesday, Sept. 8th with the Brooklyn Drill team attending.

This week just hasn't been what a fair board member would consider "ideal community fair weather". There is no question that every farmer in the area is highly pleased with the quantity of rain this week. There is no doubt but what every deep soaker in and this includes the athletic field area, where the fair is being held. Workers have been busy every day hauling in sand and gravel to make it easier for people to walk through the mud.

But the show goes on and dedicated patrons still support the fair, send the kids on the rides—and view the exhibits! Wonder if the fair board ever thought of including a weather committee—like at the chicken coop?

Hereford Sweeps Fair

A white-faced Hereford owned by Larry Fielder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fielder, was awarded the grand championship at the Manchester Community Fair Wednesday night. Larry raised the reserve champion last year. This is his second year in the club which is sponsored by the local Optimist Club.

First place showmanship award went to Bill Kemmer, son of the Lawrence Kemmers and a senior at Manchester High. The award is held by L. V. Kirk Electric. Douglas Parr, son of the Floyd Parrs took second place for showmanship. He is a tenth grader. Third place for showmanship was Homer Walter, Jr. All three awards were donated by L. V. Kirk Electric.

David Pratt's fifth place steer showed the best daily gain with 2.25 pound per day gain. Bill Kemmer's first place showmanship steer placed third. Steers were judged by Willard McLeod, Extension Specialist in Livestock Marketing, Michigan State University. Auction was by Willard McLeod, Extension Specialist in Livestock Marketing, Michigan State University. Auction was by Willard McLeod, Extension Specialist in Livestock Marketing, Michigan State University.

COUNCIL NOTES

At the Monday council meeting a request from D. E. Limpert was read requesting rezoning a strip of property which he recently purchased. The land is in the area north and east of Union-Macomb Street. The council is submitting the request to the Planning Commission for further study.

Council denied a request to the Johnson Tavern which requested council to give the tavern permission to remain open until 2:00 a.m. instead of midnight. All taverns in the village are requested to close by midnight. It was pointed out that if the request is granted the same would have to apply to all taverns.

A letter from local Civil Defense director, Ben Cresson was read at which he resigned the post which he has held for many years. No replacement was named.

Basil McGuire and his committee were told to meet with Steve Heschard to discuss problems created when heavy rains cause overflow of his artificial lake. The Michigan State Health Department is suggesting that this problem be corrected.

There was discussion on putting in a sewer on Sooten Road, the cost of which would be in the neighborhood of $6000.

Robert Clark and his committee was instructed to give further study to a possible dump site for the village.

Neil Baggett was present to discuss trash burning in his area. This council promised would be given immediate attention.

Changing the speed limits in some of the areas of the village also came under consideration. The traffic signs will be changed for a trial period and if they prove effective they will be permanently changed. This will apply primarily in the Territorial-Macomb street section.

Bringing council up to date on the business of the Planning Commission, Eugene Bentschneider, village president and also a member of the Planners told the council that the members of the Planning Commission went on record to say that all of their business will be transacted from the floor. He also said that the new commission will find that "it will be necessary they will find to put some of their business in committees to get the leg work done. They won't be able to get everything worked out during their meetings."

Planners agreed that by a two-third majority of the membership they could act on pertinent business, rather than wait for longer periods, when time is an element in the dispatching of their business for the betterment of the community.

MANCHESTER SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPT. 7

The Manchester Public Schools will open for the 1965-66 school year on September 7th. All students will attend school a full day on that date. On Friday, September 10th the students will go in the morning only.

A Pre-School Conference for faculty members will be held on September 1 and 2. This is for faculty members and school personnel.

Starting time will be published at a later date and information relative to the bus schedule will appear in the Manchester Enterprise and also in the "Report Card".

Fair Still A Success In Spite Of Weather

Although rain fell most of Tuesday afternoon the Fair Board president, Ted Stautz stuck to his original plans of starting the mile-long parade about 7:00 p.m. His parade marshals, Clarence Fielder and Eugene Bentschneider followed the instructions to the letter.

Although some of the eight floats might have looked a bit bogged down by the drizzle, they added a festive note to the general atmosphere and no one seemed to have his spirits dampened by the weather.

The float judged best by the judges was "What Makes 4-H Tick" made by the Learn and Save 4-Hers under the able direction of Mrs. Elton Heiber and other mothers of members. In second place was the float "A Fair to Crow About" made by Jolly Farmerettes. The 3rd place float was "Dollars for Scholars" by the 9th graders; and coming into 4th place was "Mary Poppins—pop into the fair" by the sophomore class.

Bicycles played a colorful part in the parade. A judged first was Tom Blossom's Jolly Green Giant and peddling in a close second was the clever "Bicycle Built For Two" complete with a baby doll riding in its basket. Also picking up prize money third through sixth (in that order) were Dawna Steele, Marty Fielder, Julie Troitz and Lee Paukins.

A bird's eye view of the rest of the parade included another float, Wheels of Progress, drawn by two ponies. There were school buses, trucks from Hoover Ball, Double A, and Max Sellers trucks loaded with lumber. All kinds of farm implements were in the motorized cavalcade. There were village trucks, Hoot & Holler Ranch riding horses, Klager's trucks of all kinds, Spike's Mobil, Grossman-Huber, Tom Marshall and E. G. Mann. Monica Kirk was scrubbing clothes on a board in a tub in L. V. Kirk's truck and another girl read a magazine as the automatic washed her clothes. Then there was the "BIG" pioneer ear of seed corn and about 5 Standard Oil trucks. Tool & Die trucks were decorated and there were Brum Implements from Bridgewater. The Case dealer and Allis Chalmers had a space and so did the K & W. Yes, there were Van Sickle milk trucks, too. Leading this whole parade of businesses in the area was the High School Band, the convertibles with reigning queen, Shirley Pfau and the hopeful 15 candidates for this year's queen and the fair board members.

Playing their rock and roll type music were the Del-Tinos and just ahead of the parade marshal were Al's Service trucks and Brown's TV. Local police and Washtenaw Sheriff's Department were at trouble spots in the traffic jams.

Mary Lou Leeman, a 1965 graduate of Manchester High School was crowned queen of the fair later Tuesday. First runner-up was Linda Blanchard, also a 1965 graduate of MHS. Second runner-up was Pamela Stevens, a high school junior. The queen was selected from 15 candidates chosen last spring.

At the Cooking School Tuesday Consumers Power Co.'s Bob Davis and L. V. Kirk were assisted by Harriet Cookson, Mrs. Una Iort and Sarah Schreiber of Jackson in showing the cooks of this area a little about dressing up every day dishes for "Party Fair and Flare". These tasty dishes went to the registered women as follows: orange coffee cake to Mrs. Ted Stautz; fish casserole, Mrs. Earl Albert; deviled almonds, Mrs. Claren Knauss; relish tray, Mrs. Harry Sutton; molded salad, Grace Day; green party pie, Opal Moore; chicken breasts, Mrs. Don Uphaus; peas, Mrs. Maynard Blossom; lemon party pie, Pearl Lammon; lamb roast, Mrs. Dick Knauss; table decoration, Merlene Mattis; steam iron, Mrs. Art Wacker and service spoons went to Ethel Brown, Joyce Blumenauer and Mrs. Emerson Haeussler. One of the cooking authorities from Jackson said she had been coming to Manchester for eight years on the invitation of L. V. Kirk who sponsors the school.

While the cooks were preparing the lamb roast the fat lambs were being judged by Willard McLeod, District Marketing Agent of MSU. This is the first time for a Fat Lamb Show and it was sponsored by the Jaycees. The grand champion lamb was raised by Bruce Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pratt. Bruce is a sophomore. Reserve champion award went to Randy Fielder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fielder. In showmanship in the senior division the first place award went to Peter Haeussler, son of the Armin Haeusslers and an 8th grader. Linda Hoefft, a ninth grader was in second place. In the Junior Division, Karen Kopka, daughter of the Elmer Kopkas and a 7th grader placed first. A fifth grader, Monica Curtis, daughter of the Norman Curtis placed second with her fat lamb.

There were 40 lambs in the show and the Jaycees hope to make this a yearly event.

This will give you some idea of how jolly and "fair" minded folks around this area are at Fair Time. As everyone knows it rained almost constantly a large part of Wednesday afternoon. But come evening—and time for the steer judging, one optimistic Fair supporter was overheard to say, "Well, we've had a real heavy dew, but (looking up at the sky) it hasn't rained yet."
