to do the operation but last year she decided it was the time for turning. A smaller tree was the answer. But there is still room for Grandmother Knorr's Christmas tree.

In 1956, Miss Knorr went to Germany to visit the old home of her parents. Both are still standing. Her father came from Marbach on-Necker River and her mother from Württemberg. While visiting her relatives, they gave her another spruce mold which some of them had picked up in the rubble after World War I, and she also bought another wooden mold while there.

These aren't room on the new tree for the antique tree ornaments which have been a part of the Knorr Christmas for so many years but some of them may be brought out in some type of arrangement for the former teacher is talented in artistic arrangement.

"We used to tease mother to make the cookies in the evening so we could be home from school to watch her," Miss Knorr said. She still does substituting in the Manchester schools and wonders if many children today would be as delighted as they were at Christmas baking time.

Miss Knorr has a part of a loaf of scitimid which her mother baked in the early 1930's. It seems to be petrified. Just how these Christmas goodies have been preserved is very interesting. But they look good enough to eat!

Thieves entered Henry Vera's apartment in Miami City by taking the door from its hinges. They stole $2,000 and also took the door.

Because girls are not allowed to wash in dormitories of Columbia College a majority of the students live off campus, a recent survey showed.

MAIN STREET

Christmas decorations won't be complete without the big party for the children of the community. Again this year the Optimist Club will sponsor the party Saturday afternoon with Ed Kirk the general chairman. He will be assisted by Dr. J. R. Jones and James Post.

From the festive reports available Ed and his committee and all the volunteers who could muster were scheduled to pack candy boxes at the high school band room on Thursday evening at 7:30 p.m. We've been told that some 100 gift certificates for $2.00 will be included in every box. These certificates are given away by the merchants in a Chamber of Commerce program.

As usual there will be the judging of the outdoor lights of the villagers by a special committee appointed by village president Eugene Demuth. There will be prizes of $15, $10 and $5 given to the top judged homes. Residents who received prizes last year won't be competing. Outdoor lights should be on Nov. 22 and 23 when the judging will be likely to take place.

Most of the churches are planning special Christmas programs during next week. At the Methodist church there will be practice for the church school Christmas program. This practice will be on Saturday at 12:30 p.m. The program will be Sunday, Dec. 19 at 7:00 p.m. in the sanctuary. Treats for the children and refreshments for adults will be served after the program.

Monday the MYV will go Christmas caroling at 6:00 p.m. The Junior Choir will start caroling at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday and on Wednesday the adults will meet at 7:00 p.m. at the church. When they return to the Fellowship Hall there will be refreshments if the adults don't forget to bring cookies or sandwiches. Then on Friday, Christmas Eve a candlelight service will be held at 8:00 p.m.

St. Mary's will have midnight Mass with special Christmas music starting at 11:45 p.m. Christmas Eve. Fr. Raymond Schlinker will celebrate the Mass. There will be two Masses on Christmas morning at 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m.

At Emanuel United Church of Christ there will be a Church School Program for the Youth Division at 9:15 a.m. and one for the children at 9:30 p.m. A choir concert will be held at 8:00 p.m. under the direction of Roger Morrison with Mrs. Davister at the organ.

A candlelight service will be held at 11:00 p.m. Christmas Eve and Christmas Communion at the 10:00 a.m. Christmas morning service. On Sunday the regular worship service will be at 9:15 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

From Postmaster Kirk we learn that the Manchester Post Office will be open regular hours on Saturday to take care of the Christmas mail.

BRIDGE PARTY OPENS HOLIDAY SEASON

Four Manchester ladies held a holiday bridge party on Wednesday afternoon at the Knights of Columbus hall for sixty women of the community.

As Mrs. Ted Tapping, Mrs. Tom Marshall, Mrs. Herbert Berzuder and Mrs. Maynard Blossom met their guests they were wearing corsages of holly. Red and green centerpieces were placed on each card table and the hall was pretty in a holiday motif.

Dessert was served by candlelight.

Balance Big 'Dutch' Aid

It was like taking candy from a baby in Friday night basketball because University High scored a 52 per cent of its shots. Manchester countered with 37 per cent of its own shooting and defeated the Cubi, 80-69.

The difference was not in the percentages but in the number of shots. Manchester fired 27 shots at the hoop than University High. Dutchmen Rich Phillips, Bill Kammer and Art Feldman (all 6-2) got second and third chances throughout the game.

It looked as if Manchester might not win as U High clicked off a 7-1 lead.

Pat Wallace and Dick Fielder of Manchester had other ideas. They rattled the U High zone with shots from the 25-30 foot range. When the first quarter ended, Manchester was on top 19-14 and never lost the lead.

Manchester, on the basis of offensive rebounding opened up a 36-23 lead midway through the second quarter.

The Dutchmen made use of the full court, pressing man-to-man defense, through the entire game and it forced the Cubi into 15 turnovers as well as distorting the U High pattern.

Guard Larry Fielder led the Manchester scoring with 19 points and his cousin, Dick Fielder followed with 14 points. Jim Fielder, another cousin, did not play in the game due to a leg injury.

Ken Killish led a balanced U High attack with 16 points. Herb Cramer, in his first starting assignment, contributed 11 points to the Cub total.

The Manchester Junior Varsity beat U High Junior varsity by a score of 56-38.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Ann Arbor Civic Ballet will present the annual Christmas program at the Ann Arbor High School December 18 at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Susan Woods Shemore and Tod Armentrout will appear on the program.

VISITING IN TEXAS

Mr. and Mrs. George Covell left a week ago to spend the winter in Texas with their daughter and husband, Capt. and Mrs. Floyd Hoover and son. They will be living at Universal City. Capt. Hoover is stationed at the Randolph Air Force Base.

A practical joker started a petition in the Punjab State Legislature, India, to oust his friend Chief Minister Ram Kishen. The petition got away from him and before he retrieved it two-thirds of Mr. Kishen's supporters had signed their names without bothering to read it.

In Beverly Hills, California, Mary Elizabeth King recently was married to Jack Queen.

Pistol Pete, famous Oklahoma gunman, died in 1958 at the age of 97. His six-gun with 11 notches, cowboy hat and boots, have now been given to the State University for preservation. His real name was Frank Eaton.

The Greatest Story

They came wearily from Nazareth to the town in Judea that was the city of David or Bethlehem, to register according to a decree that had gone forth from Caesar Augustus that a census should be taken. They were Joseph, a humble carpenter, and his espoused wife, Mary, who was with child. The journey was long and tiresome, yet Mary uttered not a single word of complaint for her faith was great and her purpose to be fulfilled.

There were shepherds watching their flocks on the hillsides near Bethlehem. At first it was for them no more than a beautiful, starlit night. But it turned into a night of wonder and these simple men were to be given as witnesses to the greatest single event in the history of life upon this earth.

Three wise men from the East, each a king in his own domain, were travelers into the night. They had long followed the light of a brilliant star, seeking the fulfillment of a prophecy. These kings of men were strong of purpose and they carried with them gifts of value. At journey's end, they hoped to kneel down and pay homage to an infant—a newborn child—the "king of kings."

When the angels appeared as messengers of great joy, the shepherds on the hillsides were frightened. They were, however, men of simple faith and when the angels advised them to leave their flocks and go into Bethlehem in search of the newborn king, they left their watch and went forth into Bethlehem.

And so they came to the stable where Mary and Joseph had taken refuge because there was no room at the inn. The Wise Men who had followed the star, the shepherds who had left their sleep on the hillsides, these men were witnesses to the Holy Scene—that Jesus, the son of God was born that night in a stable at Bethlehem. For generations, the story of the Holy Birth is told and re-told and it remains forever unchanged.

For 33 years, Jesus lived upon earth, setting forth the highest example of a life of humility, faith, obedience and dedication. He gave not only these years, but as well life itself and this great gift is the foundation upon which men today build eternal happiness. Christmas is the time for all Christians to recognize and remember this greatest of all stories.

Mrs. Russel A. Buss

REV. PRICE OFFICIATES AT DAUGHTER'S WEDDING. MOTHER MAKES GOWN

Bridesmaids wearing red velvet preceded Carol Ann Price down the aisle at the Sharon Evangelical United Brethren Church Saturday when she became the bride of Russel A. Buss in a double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are the Rev. and Mrs. John Price and Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Buss, all of Manchester.

The bride was wearing a gown of peau de soie fashioned with long sleeves and chapel points at the wrist. The full skirt accented with Alençon lace and seed pearls fell into a chapel train. The cumbersome had a bow at the back. A tiara of seed pearls held her veil of illusion and she carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and orchids. The gown was made by the mother of the bride assisted by the bridegroom's mother. Her single strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Rev. Price who was assisted by the Rev. Charles Fox at the ceremonies. Rev. Fox is pastor of the Carlton EUB church.

John Neuderfer sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the two o'clock ceremony and was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Pratt at the organ. Acolytes were Robert Pratt and Lyndon Uphaus.

Maid of honor was Sally Soyster of Benton Harbor and bridesmaids were Ruth Ann Perkins of Indianapolis, Ind., a cousin of the bride, Joan Price, sister of the bride and Karen Dorff, both of Manchester. Their floor length sheaths of dark red velvet were accented with empire waistlines, round necklines and long sleeves. They carried colonial arrangements of white carnations and miniature red rose buds.

White poinsettias and white carnations decorated the church for the candlelight wedding.

Lee Below of Manchester served as best man and guests were seated by Stanley Buss of Flint, Glen and Carl Buss of Manchester. The three are brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Price chose blue metallic for her dress. Her accessories were white and a pink cymbidium orchid corsage completed her costume. Mrs. Erwin Buss wore aquamarine and gold brocade, yellow cymbidium orchids and white accessories.

Mrs. Roy Finch of Lebanon, Indiana, grandmother of the bride wore navy blue with matching accessories and a white cymbidium orchid corsage.

A reception followed at three o'clock at the Emanuel Church Hall at 324 West Main Street. Mrs. Raymond Ferguson of Sodus, Michigan aunt of the bride had made and decorated the six-tiered cake which she cut at the wedding. Mrs. Donald Soyster of Benton Harbor had the guest book. Serving were Miss Diane Seegert of Petersburg and Marlene Uphaus of Manchester. Susan Perkins of Lebanon, Indiana was at the gift table.

When the couple return from a trip in northern Michigan they will be at home at 9500 Kaiser Road, Saline after January 1. Both are graduates of Manchester High School. The new Mrs. Buss is attending Eastern Michigan where she is a senior majoring in English. Her husband is a student at the University of Michigan, School of Chemical Engineering.

GIVES BOOKS TO HONOR MRS. WM. RENO

The Shakespeare Club has given two books to the Manchester Township Library in memory of the late Mrs. Wm. Reno, a lifetime member of the group.

The titles of the books are: Twentieth Century Authors by Kunitz and Haycraft and John F. Kennedy as We Remember Him, written by members of the Kennedy family.

Luther C. Klager, campaign chairman of the Manchester Community Chest, was among the campaign leaders honored at the Campaign Achievement Celebration of the Michigan United Fund held in East Lansing.

Shown congratulating Mr. Klager (center) are Hugh "Duffy" Daugherty, coach of Michigan State University Spartans and Miss Esther Lynne Smith, Miss Michigan of 1966. Daugherty and Miss Smith helped 750 volunteers at the meeting pay tribute to the outstanding efforts of the campaign leaders of more than 150 local United Funds and Community Chests.

The meeting was sponsored by the Ford Motor Company Fund as a tribute to Michigan's United Fund Volunteers.

REPUBLICAN AGRICULTURE

Michigan's Republican Party has taken a nation-wide lead in a new political endeavor, the creation of a state Agricultural Council as an arm of the Republican organization. The Council's stated purpose is to help Michigan farmers by promoting the general welfare of Michigan Agriculture and by improving the general prosperity of rural Michigan within the framework of our American free choice economy. At its first organizational meeting in Lansing recently, the Council elected an Executive Committee and outlined a program for the coming campaign year. Members of the Executive Committee are shown here with Gov. George Romney, who addressed the meeting.

A special thanks to the Manchester Chamber of Commerce, the Optimist Club, the Short Hills Farm Bureau, the Manchester P.T.A. and the Manchester Education Association for their endorsement and public support prior to the election. Also, to all the P.T.A. ladies who so willingly gave of their time to bring about a successful telephone alert, we give a very special thank you. CHRISTMAS HYMN
The first Christmas hymns with the traditional light tone were born in Italy among the early Franciscan monks. A more solemn work, "Jesus Refugit Omnia," Jesus, Light of All the Nations, is the earliest known Christmas hymn. It was written by Saint Hilary of Poitiers in the 4th Century.

THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS
by Candy Stevens
It's the night before Christmas,
Everything was quiet
Not even the mice
Are having a riot.

Then like an angel
Sweeping down on the roof,
They heard the soft clatter
Of each reindeer's hoof.

The littlest mouse
Ran out in the hall,
He was determined to see Santa
Once and for all.

Then down came Santa
With his big bag of toys,
One toy for every
Good girl and boy.

And this little mouse
Ran up to him and said,
"What you come so early for,
I'm not in bed."

OUR CHRISTMAS TREE

Into our house one day,
"Merry Christmas" is what
It seemed to smile and say.

We set the tree
In our living room near,
Knowing that Christmas
Would soon be here.

We decorated the tree
With ornaments bright,
Put a star on the top,
Oh! what a sight.

At the foot of the tree
Was a manger scene,
With shepherd admiring
The new born King.

On Christmas morning
It said to me,
"There's presents for you
Under the tree."

When Christmas was over
And the tree had to go,
I remembered how it was
With ornaments aglow.

ST. FRANCIS
St. Francis of Assisi is generally credited with popularizing Christmas carols. St. Francis is responsible for staging the first manger scene with real people and animals. Legend has it that the onlookers were so delighted with the pageant that they burst into spontaneous song. Caroling then became as important to St. Francis' Christmas celebration as Christmas music is to us in these modern times.

IT'S CHRISTMAS
The French say "Noel". The Spanish refer to "Navidad". The Italians say "Natale" and the Germans say "Weihnachten". But Christmas in our part of the world is derived from an old English term Cristes masse (Christ's mass), a term first used in the 11th century.

MAIN STREET

Now that the hustle and bustle of this happy season is drawing to a close there is just time to wish every one of our readers a Very Happy New Year!

Looking up and down Main Street we are wondering if young Bobby Trent had a lot of fun showing off the big Santa Claus he won in the guessing game sponsored by the merchants. He did a good job of guessing for he thought there were 331 beans in the bottle and there were 330. How is that for a guess?

Nearly every business place was gayly decorated for the season and the Jaycees did their customary excellent job of decorating the streets. The new roping across intersection of Main and Maccomb adds to the appearance of the village. We missed the music from the loud speakers at the bakery this year.

The judges had no small job judging the lovely outdoor decorations this year but finally settled for -

- 1st place - Chas. Knorpp
- 2nd " - Spike (Allen) Benedict
- 3rd " - Robert Armentrout

Everyone wanted to have a white Christmas! Just a little snow-but a little nevertheless. Well, we had rain on the 24th! Not just an ordinary rain but buckets of rain. It was a good thing that all that moisture fell in rain and not in snow or we wouldn't be shoeled out yet! But it turned cold on Christmas Day and there was snow!

And we ask you - where but in Manchester do merchants take such a real and personal interest in serving their customers? We thought of this so many, many times this year. Usually when you go into a store and ask for an article, the clerk waiting on you just couldn't care less whether you get what you ask for or not. Somehow this doesn't apply in a small village, anyway not in Manchester.

As is our custom, we always wait and give everyone else a chance to shop first. There are a number of possible reasons. First, it takes a lot of time to decide what we want to buy. Second, we don't want to rush the issue. We have to be in the Christmas spirit. Third, we haven't the time to get started and there is plenty of time--like the day or two before Christmas.

This gives you some idea of the background for the shopping trip. Where but in Manchester would the busy merchant tell you to take three or four dresses out and measure them to see if they would be the right size. Where but in Manchester would a merchant offer to let you take out three or four articles so that someone who wasn't able to shop might have a selection? And after you had carefully looked over all of the clever bird feeders offered in one of the local stores you tell the merchant what you really want is one that will fasten to the window sill. Even though it is Christmas week he says that these articles are made for him locally and he will see if he can get one for you. Maybe they could still get one for Christmas.

Where but in Manchester would the merchant call you back and say that such a bird feeder would be ready for you the day before Christmas. And when you went to Widmayer's Hardware to pick it up, it was ready! And gift wrapped. This type of service doesn't exist today, except in a small town--like Main Street Manchester.

Don't forget this year there will be no caucus for village election. We hear that there are two tickets with petitions out for Gale Koebbe running for village president; Lyle Widmayer, clerk; Ed Kirk, treasurer; Russell Widmayer, assessor. On this same ticket those running for councilmen are Robert Clark, Basil McGuire and Al A Gage. Herman Kuebler is the committee chairman for Progressives.

On the citizens ticket we understand that at this time there is a vacancy for office of president. Keith Doelker is running for clerk, Hugh Sutton for assessor and for councilmen are Jim Bauer, and William Bunney. Petitions must be filed with Clerk Widmayer by January 3rd. Joe Fitzgerald is committee chairman.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

THIS IS OUR NEW YEAR WISH FOR OUR FRIENDS

"Give us, Lord, a bit o' sun,
A bit o' work and a bit o' fun.
Give us in all the struggle and sputter
Our daily bread and a bit o' butter;
Give us health, our keep to awake,
An' a bit to spare for others' sake;
Give us, too, a bit of song
And a tale and a book to help us along.
Give us, Lord, a chance to be
Our goodly best, brave, wise and free.
Our goodly best for ourself, and others,
Till all men learn to live as brothers."

INDIA FAMILY ENJOYING HOLIDAY SEASON

-by Marie Schneider

The Natarajan family is enjoying the holiday season in the States. Although the couple came here in 1963 it was not until last summer that Mrs. Natarajan returned by plane to Chidambaram, India to get their two children, Krishna six and Suba three years.

The children had been staying with their grandparents since their parents left to come to the States after Dr. John B. Burch had asked for someone to be sent over to help in the study of types of snails which might carry parasites. Mr. Natarajan is one of three invited to do the study by the University of Michigan's Museum of Zoology.

She says her children just can't get used to the cold weather and snow. It is a wonderful experience for them she says. Then, too, the idea of Christmas and Santa Claus is new. Although they are of the Hindu religion they are joining in the celebrations here. They have a similar celebration in their own religion which can vary from October to November. This is called Deepavali and is a religious holiday. At that time they place lighted clay oil lamps in the windows and have them for several days. They give gifts to members of the family and prepare a family feast. It is the time that all Hindu women look forward to as a time to go out and buy new dresses. This is a "must" and everyone looks to the time when they can get new finery.

The holiday season is not new to Mrs. Natarajan for she was educated in a Catholic Convent in Madras and through her associations there had learned much about the Christian religion.

"Of course, here in Ann Arbor, we have a Christmas tree and we had a gift exchange. I'm afraid it would be very difficult to explain to our six-year-old boy that there is no gift exchange for us --no tree. All his little friends at the Thurston School are wrapped up in holiday parties, etc. But you can see that we have our problems. Our calendar year isn't the same. So here at New Year we are celebrating another country's feast day--which we don't have. But then again we have a similar one. While we are here we celebrate and do things like the rest of our friends and associates--and that is as it should be. We shall never forget the hospitality of your people," Mrs. Natarajan emphasized.

She said that living here in the United States gives a person an altogether different picture of American women. She had the false impression that here women do very little work. She thought most of them spend much time in the beauty shop, buying expensive clothes and driving around in cars. She blames the movies for these impressions.

"I am surprised to see how much the American woman really works. She has to plan her time efficiently and although she has all the conveniences in her home it takes both time and money to keep them operating. I don't believe that women have any more--or as much free time as we do back home," she said.

"The cost of a permanent is much more expensive here. Back home a good one costs between $1.50 and $2.00," she said.

The Natarajans' visa will expire in May and they are not sure just what their plans will be. The local church group here was intrigued by the beautiful diamond which the Hindu woman wore in the side of her nose. One thing was obvious, whether the women are Americans or Hindu they all love beautiful jewelry and know the value of a fine cut stone when they see one.
