

CARD OF THANKS

We want to express our sincere thanks to the Manchester Fire Department for their quick response to our call for help last week. It is hard to believe that these men do such an excellent job on a volunteer basis. Please accept our appreciation to everyone who has helped us to get on our feet again. Unless you have had an experience of this kind it would be almost impossible to imagine what it is like -- to have everything swept away. We certainly are grateful to everyone who has helped in so many ways. The Joseph Ginter Family.

SHEEP SHEARER OF THE YEAR

A Manchester man has been elected as "Sheep Shearer of the Year". Announcement that Robert Kirk has received the citation and plaque was made by Grayden Blank, Sheep Specialist from Michigan State University. Mr. Kirk was to have received the award at the annual Michigan State Sheep Shearers meeting at the home of Al Faulhaber in January. Illness prevented Mr. Kirk from attending the meeting at which time he was re-elected for a sixth time as president of the association.

Other officers are Al Faulhaber, vice president; and Lowell Roehm of Route 4, Ann Arbor, is secretary-treasurer.

Mr. Blank said that the Sheep Shearers Association was sorry that Mr. Kirk was unable to be present to receive the award "which he so richly deserved for his tireless efforts in promoting sheep shearing in Michigan. Bob was the State Sheep Shearing Champion in 1946. We had hoped that he might be well enough to accept the plaque and citation."

Since the annual meeting Mr. Kirk entered St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where he is gravely ill. Ed Warner of Sunbeam Corporation, Chicago, Livestock Specialist on sheep told the more than thirty sheepsman at the meeting something about the new methods of shearing in Spain and South America.

He told about the importance of the alpaca, a variety of llama with long soft silky wool and how some of the farmers are putting in their own generator plants and have electrical shearing equipment.

There seemed to be some concern at the meeting that young men are not being particularly interested in learning the art of sheep shearing.

M. LEACHES TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Leach will observe their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, February 13th when they hold open house at the Iron Creek Community Church from 2 to 5 p.m. The party is being planned by their four children.

The anniversary date of the couple is February 15.

Mrs. Rolland Grossman has returned from the National Volunteer Meeting for Education and Crusade of the American Cancer Society in St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bishop of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Rolland Grossman of Manchester, who represented the Washtenaw Unit, participated with William Gargan of Bob Considine, 1966 National Crusade Chairman of the Society.

More than 500 volunteers met January 13 and 14 in preparation for the Society's 1966 April fund-raising and educational Crusade. April is Cancer Control Month by Presidential proclamation.

Mr. Gregory Peck presided, and speakers included Dr. Charles Heidelberger, American Cancer Society Research Professor at the McArdle Memorial Laboratory for Cancer Research, University of Wisconsin;

Steve Allen, TV star and National Chairman of Celebrities Against Cancer of the American Cancer Society; Dr. Wendell G. Scott, Past President of the Society and Professor of Clinical Radiology, Washington University School of Medicine, St. Louis; Bob Considine, newspaper columnist; V. J. Skutt, Chairman of the Board of Mutual of Omaha; Richard H. Amberg, publisher of the "St. Louis Globe-Democrat" and a member of the Society's Board of Directors; William Gargan, former TV and movie star; Dr. Joseph Schaeffer, Public Education Chairman of the Texas Division of the Society; and Nancy Wynne, singer.

Emphasis was on greater hope, pointed up by the 1,400,000 Americans now alive who have been cured of cancer.

FRANKLIN M. RECK LIBRARY PROPOSED BY SCHOOL BOARD

CARD PARTY PROFITS WILL BEAUTIFY STREETS

The Twentieth Century Club will undertake its first efforts to raise funds in the club's first "Village Beautifying Project" when members hold a card party at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 9 at St. Mary's Church hall. A couple of months ago the club asked the council if they objected to having hanging baskets on the utility poles along Main Street. The plans call for plastic flowers in these baskets in keeping with the four seasons.

Consumers Power officials were consulted and they endorsed the project saying that the hanging flower baskets will not interfere with their service. The committee Mrs. Tom Marshall, Mrs. Maynard Blossom and Mrs. Fred Leeman say that their big problem now "is money to finance the idea."

The first big drive for funds is the benefit card party to which they hope all card players in the community will respond. Mrs. Leeman says there will be refreshments and prizes for the winners in the various games.

MAMIE E. HOFFER DIES IN HARRISBURG, PA.

Mamie E. Hoffer age 66 years died suddenly Monday in a Harrisburg, Pa. hospital.

She was born June 8, 1899 in Grand Lodge, Michigan the daughter of William and Caroline Ludwig Hoffer.

She was a member of the Manchester Methodist Church. She is survived by several cousins.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Jenter Funeral Home with the Rev. Oscar W. Cooper officiating, and burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery.

The Manchester Board of Education, at a special meeting Monday night, proposed that the new high school library be named The Franklin M. Reck Library in honor of Mr. Reck who recently passed away. Reck, a writer known nationally and throughout the world, was president of the Manchester Board of Education when the present high school building was built in 1954.

Long recognized as a writer of children's books, Mr. Reck was also known as a contributor to major publications both here and abroad. In a resolution honoring Mr. Reck the Board indicated that an appropriate space will be set aside in the new library for the purpose of displaying Mr. Reck's collection of books, his portrait and an appropriate plaque.

The Board of Education also appointed a site committee to investigate possible sites for a new elementary school which will be needed in two years. Letters are being sent to people selected by the board to work on this important committee. When they have agreed to work on the site committee, the list of members will be made public. In creating this committee the Board believes that this kind of planning is necessary at an early date if a prudent and sound decision is to be made relative to future planning.

In other business the Board spent considerable time discussing the salary improvements for the certificated personnel. Under the new Michigan law, public school teachers can enter into professional negotiations with boards of education relative to wages, hours and working conditions. The local teacher's club is in the process of negotiating local issues with the Board of Education.

One of the major items of concern to both groups is the matter of all teachers being placed on schedule. Salary bases and yearly increments; have, through necessity and pressure from other districts, gone up each year faster than the district's ability to meet them. As a result of this action the teachers with the most tenure in the system have consistently been off schedule. In other words, they have never reached that point on the salary schedule which their years of experience would fully warrant.

The Board will consider some recommendations submitted at the Monday meeting and will arrive at a major decision at a later meeting.

The February Board meeting regularly held the second Monday of the month will be moved up one week and will be held February 7.

This is done to allow the superintendent of Schools and a board member to attend the National Association of School Administrators meeting in Atlantic City, New Jersey February 12 through the 16. Attending the convention this year will be Supt. of Schools Robert Swartz and Laurin Leeson, secretary of the board.

Superintendent Swartz reported on the progress of the building program. He indicated that the Municipal Finance Commission has received the district's application for bonding and is reviewing it at this time, and the State Department of Public Instruction has the application for bond qualification.

In other action, the architects have been reviewing the educational specifications with faculty members and are in the process of starting the working drawings. The architects will meet with the Board of Education at the next regular meeting to discuss building details.

Luther C. Klager, Board President, said that because of important matters confronting the Board relative to the building program and professional negotiations, the Board will be meeting in special sessions from now through June.

WARNING ISSUED ON DOG LICENSES

County Treasurer Sylvester Leonard urges all dog owners to buy 1966 licenses for their pets before long lines begin to form.

Leonard said if dog owners wait another two weeks, it will take them much longer to get licenses than if they buy them now. If dog owners wait a month they will be paying a $2 penalty for buying licenses late, Leonard pointed out.

He said that only 700 licenses have been sold through his office, compared with the 3,742 the office sold last year.

Until March 1 deadline licenses are $3 for male and unsexed dogs and $5 for females. After March 1 the cost of the licenses will be $6 and $8 respectively.

Up until the March 1 deadline licenses also can be obtained from all township treasurers.

Valid certificates of vaccination must be presented by dog owners.

POLICE CHIEF SINGER GIVES SAFE DRIVING ADVICE

With winter weather blowing in, preparedness-minded Manchester drivers have been wondering about the merits of special winter tires as compared with regular rubber, and the quality of stop-and-go traction provided by tire chains as compared with that of a more recently developed device-tungsten carbide studs imbedded in auto tires.

Understandably, some drivers have turned to Police Chief Dan Singer for an informed opinion. Disclaiming any personal expertise in the field of winter traction devices, the chief gave out the following information based on National Safety Council research findings:

Cars equipped with snow tires with metal studs are safer on ice than cars with regular snow tires, but some reports indicate that their stopping efficiency on wet or dry pavements may be somewhat less than that of cars using regular tires without studs.

Unstuded snow tires provide better traction in snow, and somewhat better traction in icy weather. Still unmatched in providing traction for both starting and stopping in severe winter weather conditions is the time-honored remedy for winter worry employed by generations of drivers-reinforced tire chains, readily applied when needed and easily removed when the need has passed. Published research results showed the following average performance, based on tests conducted on ice at temperatures ranging from 15 degrees below to 32 degrees above zero:

Stopping distance for a car traveling at 20 mph—with reinforced tire chains, 70 feet; with studded snow tires, 110 feet; with snow tires, 167 feet; with regular tires, 180 feet.

With respect to pulling ability on ice, studded tires held the same relative position in efficiency—that is, between regular snow tires and tire chains, according to Prof. A. H. Easton, University of Wisconsin, chairman of the Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards.

Easton summarized traction test results by reporting that snow tires give 36 per cent improvement over regular tires on ice, studded snow tires provide 136 per cent improvement, and reinforced tire chains offer 465 per cent improvement.

The chief warned that drivers seeking traction devices that provide complete summertime traction and permit full summertime driving speed in winter are doomed to disappointment.

Even when using recommended traction aids, he warned that increased caution, reduced speed, and much greater following distances in traffic are the essential ingredients of safe winter driving.

WASHTENAW COUNTY PURCHASES E BONDS

Washtenaw County purchases of Series E and H United States savings bonds amounted to $4,062,578 in 1965. It was announced by John Meadows, the county's U. S. Savings bonds chairman.

The total represented 102.6 per cent of the county's Treasury-assigned 1965 goal and compared with $3,400,619 the year before. The county bond chairman said that purchasing for the state as a whole amounted to $290 million in 1965.

President Johnson again emphasized the strategic importance of the savings bonds program in his recent announcement that the interest rate would be increased, that the increase would apply to all E and H bonds outstanding, and that the bonds now being purchased would earn the higher rate.
