Candidacy for WCC Board

A. J. Procassini

A. J. Procassini, Director of Industrial Relations for Bendix Systems Division, has announced his candidacy for a two-year term on the Board of Trustees of the Washtenaw Community College.

Procassini was a candidate for the initial Board in 1964, when the proposal for the Community College was presented and approved. With six trustees being elected from a field of 38 candidates, Procassini ran seventh.

In announcing his candidacy, Procassini said: "Because of the tremendous technical growth of the area, the needs and desires of our citizens, and the changing requirements of our industries and businesses, the Board will be faced continuously with many varying and complex problems, such as building, costs, and curriculum. The trustees must, therefore, be knowledgeable in many areas and responsive to the needs of all peoples, of all geographic areas, of each segment of our community in order to set policy and guide lines. I believe that my professional experience in business and industry and my previous work on the community college, should qualify and provide me with the overall perspective essential to serve the community successfully in this capacity."

For the past four years, Procassini has served as an officer on the Ann Arbor City Council's Economic Development and Manpower Commission. He currently is chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Committee to study citizen's survey on the need for a Community College. Previously he had participated extensively in the Chamber of Commerce's original survey on the possible need for a Community College. Procassini has been active in the Chamber of Commerce for the past ten years, and is currently serving on the educational committee.

ISSUES ON NOV. 8th BALLOT

Washtenaw County voters will go to the polls on November 8 to cast their ballots on three bonding issues which will total $6,705,000.

Each of these proposals for the three-art capital improvement program may be voted on separately; the total package will cost $6,750,000. The County has stated that bonding for these three much needed facilities which will run for 20 years will cost not more than $.72 a year for $1,000 of assessed valuation of property as equalized, according to a report from Elaine Rice, chairman of Public Relations Committee, Washtenaw County Board of Supervisors.

These issues are:

- 1. To build an addition to the present County Building to house two new Circuit Courtrooms with their necessary offices and facilities for a total of $1,165,000.
2. To build a Juvenile Court Center at Washtenaw and Platt Roads, where all the needs of juveniles who are in trouble through neglect, or their own misdeeds, can be handled. This will house offices of the Juvenile Court workers and the Judge, contiguous to new Detention quarters for a cost of $1,490,000.

To build a medical facility of 176 beds for extending nursing and rehabilitative care as a replacement to the present County Hospital on Washtenaw Road, also to be on the County Farm property for a cost of $4,050,000.

Past records in the county show that the Board of Supervisors have been reluctant to request bonding power from the taxpayers unless they felt convinced of the need, according to Mrs. Rice.

The Board gives these reasons for the needed bond proposals. In 1940 the County population was 80,000; in 1966 it is approximately 200,000; by 1980 it is expected to be in excess of 300,000. The Board points out that the County Building is being outgrown. That the county will have to meet the growing need for juvenile services.

Ten years ago, when there was only one Circuit Court Judge, there were two courtrooms. Two years ago the second Circuit Court judge was elected. Not too long ago the state legislature made it mandatory for counties with population such as Washtenaw to provide a third Circuit Court Judge. This judge will also be voted in on Nov. 8, along with the proposals. In order to provide some room for this third judge, and the fourth judge who will follow, with the projected population growth, the county has proposed a $1,165,000 addition to the present County Building. This will extend the East wing northward along Fourth Avenue. This is Proposal # 1 on the ballot.

Providing temporary quarters for the third Circuit Judge has necessitated acquiring rental quarters in the Masonic Temple for the Juvenile Judge and his staff at a cost of about $19,000 annually. This is Proposal # 2 on the ballot. The present medical facility building, which cares for 81 patients was constructed in 1917. A trial run to put the need for a new County Medical facility before the public was made in 1960. At that time the nursing home operators and some members of the County Medical Society seemed opposed. Since that time the County, in cooperation with the County Planning Commission carried out a study which gave high priority on needed capital improvements. This study was brought up to date with regard to Social Security legislation of Titles 18 and 19 by John Griffith of the University of Michigan Bureau of Hospital Administration.

CIVIL SERVICE POSITIONS OPEN

Employment opportunities in some 30 categories under the Michigan State Civil Service competitive trainee examinations for college graduates was told today by Senator Gilbert E. Bursley, (R) Ann Arbor.

Any college graduate to age 50 may apply for the examinations, the first of which will be given November 19, 1966. The employment lists will be active until November 22, 1967.

"The positions are in areas ranging from Administrative Analyst through Urban Planning. This affords an opportunity for those who are currently employed to find greater avenues of contribution to Michigan's growth," Senator Bursley said.

The positions are in a major portion of Michigan's nineteen principle departments, with a total classified employment of 35,441 through December of 1965.

Complete information may be obtained from the Michigan State Civil Service Office, located in the Lewis Case Building, Lansing.

SITE FOR WCIB OFFICE BUILDING AGREED UPON

The Washtenaw County Intermediate Board of Education may have a new site for an office building according to Supt. Nicholas A. Ianni. He said that the Detroit Edison Co. has agreed to sell the board a 38-acre parcel on Wagner Road, in Scio Township.

This was the site that the Board had hoped to acquire but began to look as though it couldn't be obtained when the board learned that Edison had an option on the land. Ianni has been instructed to seek an option on a 18-acre parcel adjacent to the Edison property which it could hold until January 1.

A new state law gives the school board the opportunity to levy up to one mill on every dollar of the intermediate districts state equalized valuation simply by resolution.

If the site is selected then an office building for the intermediate district can be erected and would be financed by this bonding power which could mean about $725,000 in revenue. The size and cost and bonding procedure will be discussed at the November meeting of the board.

BOOK FAIR LAUDED AS SUCCESS!! T. H. Tapping Jr., Junior High Principal and Mrs. Maynard Blossom school librarian, reported that they were highly pleased with the response to the first project of its kind in six years. A ten percent saving was passed along to the buyers and total sales brought in more than $300. The year's first snow, Wednesday, which piled drifts along the highways didn't keep some brave souls from stopping off Wednesday to look over the books. "Another year we'll plan to have the sale last through a week instead of a couple of days. Then," school officials explained, "if we should encounter bad weather for a day it won't mean so much. The two-day sale which ended Wednesday night saw a bout 150 books sold."

Judge O'Brien States Qualifications

I view the position of probate judge as one of opportunity and challenge. This office carries with it a number of important responsibilities involving the settlement and distribution of estates of decedents, the determination and hospitalization of mentally disturbed persons, the care and welfare of neglected and dependent children, adoptions, and the hearing and determination of matters involving wardward minors and youthful offenders, and the appointment of guardians.

Upon the occupant of this office rests not only the obligation of making the judicial decisions in each of these areas but of voicing the needs in these areas to the community. I feel it would be my duty to actively participate in this community effort. I would unequivocally accept these responsibilities.

Problems, particularly in social and behavioral areas, have increased during the past years and will become more intense in the immediate future. For this reason I believe that we must place greater emphasis upon detection, prevention and rehabilitation. This is particularly true in the case of young offenders. I have practiced this philosophy in the municipal court for many years and have realized rewarding results.

I am convinced that many of the problems with youthful offenders addiction, and emotional disturbance must be approached by a total community effort using the many resources available such as social services, school counselors, teachers, religious and civic leaders. I believe that in many instances it is necessary to educate and assist the family as a unit in coping with their particular problems rather than treating the individual in isolation.

I am offering my experience as municipal judge of the city of Ann Arbor for over seventeen years, my training and practice in the teaching profession, and close association with rehabilitative efforts on a national, state, and local level. I intend to bring this experience to bear if elected to probate judge.

Donald R. Johnson, Washtenaw County Extension agricultural agent, will receive the Distinguished Service Award of the National County Agricultural Agents Association at the annual meeting in Honolulu, Hawaii the first week in November.

FAMILY

Lloyd Hendee and his wife June have three children—Jeffrey, 18 years; Lou Ann, 14 years; Michael, 12 years.

AGRICULTURE

Hendee knows the problems of the farmer and of residents in rural areas. He will work for practical and effective state legislation to aid in solving agricultural problems.

OTHER STATE PROBLEMS

Michigan desperately needs Fiscal Reform. Without Fiscal Reform, for example, we cannot expand state aid to education at all levels in the most meaningful ways.

We need a bigger share of revenues in our area to improve both primary and secondary roadways.

Michigan has an abundance of natural water resources. We must diligently work at the state level to conserve them for the greater needs of the future.

In fact, all our state problems will be greatly magnified if the new legislature does not act in a forceful and imaginative way.

MANCHESTER PUBLIC SCHOOLS - A REPORT TO THE PEOPLE - SCHOOL YEAR 1965-66

DEAR FELLOW CITIZENS:

The following report represents the financial condition of the Manchester Public Schools for the 1965-66 school year as certified by Paul V. Engstrom & Co., Certified Public Accountants.

Improvements were made in the teachers' salary schedule for the 1966-67 school year. Minimum salary was increased from $4,800 to $5,250 for an AB Degree.

Many curriculum improvements were made during the year. A number of text-books were updated in both the elementary and secondary areas.

A successful bonding election on December 16, 1965 provided additional facilities for the high school. However, elementary classrooms are still needed and it was necessary to contract for outside classrooms to accommodate approximately 100 youngsters during the 1966-67 school year.

The Manchester Public Schools continue to serve the youths and adults of the district to the best of their ability, striving to offer the most in learning opportunities which funds and facilities will allow.

HAYRIDE WAGON HIT, YOUTH KILLED

A Napoleon youth was killed and five of his companions were injured late Monday when the hay wagon they were using was struck from behind by an automobile on Austin Road.

James S. Brown, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brown of 8594 Glenwood Ct., Oak Point was killed. Death was caused by a skull fracture, according to Jackson County Coroner George S. Vinson.

The driver of the car, Albert F. Schmidt, 40, of 102 Sweezy Lake Road, Napoleon was held in the Jackson County jail Tuesday on a manslaughter charge.

The warrant was authorized by the Jackson County prosecutor's office. Schmidt was not hurt.

Three of the boys riding in the hay wagon were reported in fair condition in Foote Hospital, Jackson, as being in fair condition. They are:

James Flynn, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Flynn of Burlington, Mich., cuts on the face and head.

John Hein, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hein, 4995 Oak Point Rd., cuts of body and possible chest and back injuries.

Gary Maule, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Maule, 6700 Brooklyn Rd., broken nose, cuts, scrapes and possible back injuries.

Another passenger in the wagon was John Wing, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wing, 9353 Cady Rd., was treated at Foote Hospital and released.

Driver of the tractor that was pulling the wagon, John Wilkie, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Narvisi Wilkie, 8907 Rexford Rd., suffered bruises, but was not treated at the hospital.

Sheriff's deputies said the tractor and wagon were west-bound on Austin Road about a mile west of the Jackson-Washtenaw County line when the accident happened about 11:40 p.m.

Napoleon Deputy Chet Brown said he had seen the young people earlier in the evening and advised them to get lights for the wagon. They went to the Maule airport and picked up a red light, red flag and two large reflectors and put them on the wagon.

The tractor, owned by a neighbor of the Wilkie's, was borrowed because it was equipped with head and taillights for night driving, and the Wilkie tractor was not.

The Brown youth was taken to the Home-Vinson Funeral Home

re-elect your STATE SENATOR GIL BURSLEY

retain experienced leadership

I want to serve YOU again in the Michigan Senate. My fulltime, lifetime dedication is to public service. My 17 years of federal and foreign service and 6 years of state service demonstrate this.

I was born and educated in Washtenaw county with an MBA added at Harvard.

I have worked in 4 branches of the federal government and on 4 continents--as Army Lt. Colonel, American Consul, and United Nations Observer. Yet my voting residence has always been Ann Arbor where I was on the University staff from 1957 through 1964.

My Michigan experience includes two House terms and one as your State Senator. I was first Chairman of the House Economic Development Committee. I'm Chairman of the Senate International Commerce Committee and on the Appropriations Committee.

I developed and sponsored the major legislation on economic development which has become a cornerstone of the Romney program. Bills which I introduced led to the State Scholarship Fund, the State Research Fund, the Local River Management Act, the Uniform Securities Act, The Humane Slaughter Law, the Industrial Revenue Bonding Act and to the establishment of the Civil Rights Commission's state branch offices.

During my six years in the Legislature, Michigan finances have gone from deficit to surplus. Yet the University of Michigan appropriation has risen from $35 to $58 million. Eastern Michigan's has tripled. State support of public schools has risen 60%.

I want the opportunity, as your State Senator, to further our State's progress.

We need fiscally sound government responsive to people's needs; meaningful traffic safety legislation; measures to conserve and protect our natural resources; tax reform coupled with property tax relief; new building programs; more community colleges and vocational training; attractive teacher salaries; continued economic expansion with 100,000 new jobs annually; strengthened community health facilities; improved roads; more low-cost housing and equal educational and economic opportunity for all.

Gil Bursley State Senator

Bursley, a legislative leader in economic development, international trade and higher education, deserves to be returned.

Farmers Home Administration Helps 77% of Farmers

More than 400 Michigan families, some 77 percent more than that of the previous year, during 1966 used $4,180,000 of Farmers Home Administration credit for construction and improvement of homes, Nyle L. Katz, the agency's State Director, with offices in East Lansing reported.

Some $132,000 of this amount was advanced directly to Michigan senior citizens for improved housing facilities, a 140 percent increase over credit extended the previous period to rural residents of 62 years or over, Director Katz explained.

Rural Housing loans to Michigan individuals other than senior citizens totaled $4,147,000 during 1966—76 per cent more than that of the previous twelve months.

These loans ranged from small amounts to loans for building modest, but adequate homes. Some of the funds were used to improve or construct essential farm buildings.

"Farmers Home Administration rural housing program has resulted in untold benefits to scores of Michigan communities as well as to the hundreds of rural people involved," Director Katz emphasized. "That is only part of the story, for improvements made by borrowers to their homes have increased the tax base which makes it easier for local communities to finance schools, road improvements, and other needed community facilities."

More than 90,000 rural families throughout the 50 states, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico have borrowed more than $799.01 million since the program was expanded five years ago.

"It is important to note that many farmers Home Administration rural housing loans are repaid ahead of schedule to the extent that payments of principal and interest throughout the nation equal 104 per cent of the total amount due since the program started," Director Katz pointed out. "Losses on rural housing loans are less than two one-hundredths of one percent of the total loaned since the program started."

Farmers Home Administration housing loans are made to applicants unable to obtain credit from private lenders at reasonable rates and terms. They are tailored to individual needs and accompanied by assistance in farm and financial management.

Red Cross Plans
Gifts For GI
Servicemen

Next to being home for Christmas the highest items on the servicemen's Christmas lists are gifts suggestive of home, according to the Washtenaw County Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The local chapter is joining the national "Operation Shop Early" program to provide every GI in Viet Nam with a red or green ditty bag full of paper-back books, stationary, assorted small games and playing cards and such items.

A survey made by Red Cross volunteers stationed with servicemen in areas such as Viet Nam, Korea, Germany, Newfoundland and the Azores showed that home made items were more personal and meaningful to the men than luxury items they could often obtain at discount at the military base exchange.

Perishable items such as soft candy or cake are not practical in distant tropical areas like Southeast Asia, but if packaged properly will usually arrive safely at stateside bases, the Red Cross said.

Other popular family gifts mentioned included sweaters, socks, towels, metal mirrors, family photographs, school and hometown newspapers and recorded messages.

Recordings can be made at the Washtenaw Red Cross Headquarters beginning Nov. 21. Volunteers wishing to contribute or help fill the Operations Shop Early bags should contact the local chapter at 662-5546 before the November 4 deadline.

Commission Reports on Tree Removal

The Washtenaw County Road Commission has reported to the Supervisors that it has removed 1,247 trees from Jan. 1 to Oct. 31 this year for a total of $52,744.70 or an average of a cost of $27.09 a tree.

Since 1962, the commission has removed 18,191 dead trees at a cost total of $394,432.57, or $21.68 per-tree cost.

The Washtenaw Supervisors furnished $122,500 or 31 per cent of this total while the remaining $271,500 or 69 per cent was from the road commission funds.

The commission reported that 15,898 dead trees which are a hazard should be removed immediately. Total cost for this is estimated at $182,142.

George Romney says this about Stan Thayer

Dear Stan:

"Congratulations upon your nomination to the circuit bench of Washtenaw County in the recent primary election.

"It is a pleasure to see that your interest in giving continued public service to the citizens of your part of Michigan has not waned. As a member of the Michigan Senate where you were Majority Leader, and as a member of the Michigan Employment Security Appeals Board, you have exhibited qualities of leadership and conviction too rarely found in areas of public trust.

"These qualities and the many others that have marked your public service career certainly make you highly qualified for a circuit judgeship."

JOINT POWER CENTER TO HANDLE STATE'S RESOURCES

A Michigan Electric Power Pool Center will be established by Consumers Power Co. and the Detroit Edison Co. in another step forward in meeting the growing electric power needs of the more than eight million people who live in Mich's Lower Peninsula. The Control Center will be constructed on a site just west of Ann Arbor, in Scio Township. It is expected to be in service by mid 1969 and will centralize the generation and transmission of more than ten million kilowatts of power.

A. H. Aymond, Chairman of the Board of Consumers Power, and Walker L. Cislser, Chairman of the Board of Detroit Edison, said the Control Center is an extension of a long standing purpose on the part of both companies to achieve the lowest possible production and investment expense. Each company continues to be responsible for the electric service policy in the area it serves.

Specialized personnel will staff the Control Center. The most modern computer equipment will be used enabling almost instantaneous decision making. Communications with all major facilities in the Michigan Electric Power Pool will be maintained at all times. The electronic computer will respond to customer requirements by selecting the most economic generating source for varying load demands. It will monitor power line flows on interconnections between the systems and over transmission lines to assure maximum reliability and economy.

Charles R. Bilby, Manager of General Services at Consumers Power, has been appointed Manager of the Control Center. William K. Pence, Supervising Engineer, Relay Applications at Detroit Edison, will be assistant manager and will serve as project director in the construction of the center.

The building will contain, together with the computer room, office space for 25 people, conference and training rooms and other facilities.

The computer room will be in a specially protected area designed in accordance with civil defense requirements. On the walls will be floor to ceiling maps of the transmission network of both systems. Indicating and recording meters will show all essential electric power flow data.

The electric systems of the two companies were first interconnected in 1928. More interconnections were made at later dates and in December, 1962, the companies established the Consumers Edison Electric Power Pooling Agreement which provided for complete integration of generating and transmission facilities, joint reserve responsibility and joint scheduling of construction. Presently each company maintains its own system operating center.

Jaycee Turkey Shoot Set For Sunday

The annual Jaycee turkey shoot will be held beginning at 1 p. m. Sunday, Nov. 6 at the Schaffer Airport. This is the 8th annual turkey shoot.

It is expected that about 350 will attend to try their luck at winning a 12-pound butterball gobbler. Jaycee chairman, Stan Poet explains that 35 will be successful.

Since the program started in 1958 it has taken place just before the deer hunting season opens. The Jaycees have a few rules which must be followed. These are: Be sure and shoot from a standing position; no scopes are allowed; no slings are allowed; but hunters can use their own guns if they choose.

Profits will go to such things as the Halloween party, Christmas decorations for Main Street, Easter Egg Hunt and a part of the public library.

Church Group Sews For Island

—by Marie Schneider

The Iron Creek Missionary Society has completed sewing articles for their special missionaries the Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Blowers, formerly of Brooklyn.

The articles include aprons, shirts, crib quilts, Johnny coats and bathrobes. The Blowers returned to their native Brooklyn on September 23. They wanted to be here in plenty of time to help their daughter Joy prepare for her November 17 wedding at the Brooklyn Baptist Church on November 17.

Mrs. Blowers was a guest at the Iron Creek Missionary Society meeting last Thursday. Years ago Rev. Blowers parents used to attend the services there.

The Blowers have been stationed in the Bahamas for the past 19 years. During that time they have made several trips back to the states.

Mrs. Blowers told the group that the youngest daughter didn't care for living in the Bahamas. When Joy was 16 she returned to Brooklyn and lived with friends while attending high school. She is now employed in the office of Jackson Heat Controller.

The couple's only child, Mary, is married to a missionary. They, and their four children, live in the Bahamas.

"This creates a real problem for us. When we are here we are concerned about Mary and her family back in the Islands and when we are there we are lonely for Joy," their mother explained.

The couple has always lived in the bush, which is only about six miles from Nassau, capital of the Bahamas. Progress is very slow among the natives she said. But they have accepted the missionaries and always are sorry to see them leave.

"The people have a fear that we won't come back to them," Mrs. Blowers said.

"But there is something about their dependence on us that makes us want to try to help them. And we feel that we have come quite a ways. You people could never imagine just what it is like to live in this place. My husband, with the help of the natives built the cement block church. It is hard to teach them to change their ways. They used to wash their clothes in the stream. There was no hot water and no soap. And still, just six miles away there is the capital with plenty of stores—now you can't buy these articles either."

"We find that the people are willing to learn, once the missionary can establish a friendship with them. But there is much to be done. Now that people from the states are working in the area, we believe that the work will be much easier," she said hopefully.

There is an infirmary for the older people and much has been done to combat disease. The people are sensible and hard working. She mentioned that there are very hard rains which do much to undermine the work of the natives.

Mrs. Lawrence Paul of Brooklyn is chairman of the Iron Creek sewing circle and said that instead of having a gift exchange at their Christmas party each member will give that money to be added to the collection for the mission.

The couple plans to take their

MRS. EMMA LOGAN CELEBRATES 95th BIRTHDAY

—by Marie Schneider

Mrs. Emma Logan celebrated her 95th birthday Sunday, Nov. 13. She lives with a nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Uphaus of 202 Auburn Street here.

Mrs. Uphaus drew attention to the fact that while her husband's aunt, Mrs. Logan observed her birthday on Sunday so did her own aunt, Mrs. Louise Altenbernt Woodhurst of 610 Gilbert Street, Jackson.

"You wouldn't find that this type of thing happens very often—two aunts on both sides of the family having the same birthday and both 95 years old," Mrs. Uphaus pointed out.

Mrs. Logan was born in Adrian and was married at the home of her sister in Manchester. The minister, a part time politician spent most of the day in Ann Arbor attending a caucus meeting. He didn't arrive until 9 p. m. to perform the wedding service.

station wagon full of supplies back to Miami. They will fly back to the island and the station wagon will be sent by boat.

Mrs. Blowers said that they will be expected to pay duty on 25 per cent of the value of the articles and this she said is expensive.

They have a refrigerator and a washing machine. She said that the president of the missionary association lives in Palm Beach and they will stop off to see him before going back.

"I doubt if we will ever come back to live in the States," the missionary teacher said. "We know we are needed there and we are dedicated to our work."

DRIVE OVER THE TOP

Clarence Fielder surveys the big Red Feather in front of the Union Savings Bank. The Drive Chairman has expressed appreciation to the Bank for cooperating to keep the community posted on the progress of the drive.

A total of $15,240.97 or 120 per cent of the campaign goal was accounted for by Tuesday morning. This is the amount to date in gifts and pledges for the Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive this year.

The Industrial Division gave 66 per cent of this total with a few reports still to come in, according to Luther Klager, campaign coordinator.

This makes the average gift from individual donors in Industry about $18.00. Clarence Fielder, Industrial Division Chairman figured. Over $1700 of this gift is earmarked for other chests in the areas where the donors live.

Businessmen's Division, Industrial Division and Organizations all exceeded their individual quotas—taking good care of the losses felt in the other Divisions.

Once Again Manchester citizens can be proud of their record in giving once for ALL the United Agencies. Edward Galloway, president of the Community Fund Board, extends the Board's appreciation to the hundred volunteers who attained this record goal and to the three co-chairmen, Luther Klager, Robert Swartz and Mrs. James Baker.

VOICES FROM HOME

Do you have a son, grandson, husband, brother or sister in the military service, or know of someone who has? The Service to Military Families Department of your Red Cross extends an to send a wonderful surprise to the serviceman far away overseas or hospitalized in the U.S. who cannot be with his loved ones at Christmas.

VOICES FROM HOME is the label on each 15 minute plastic disc which travels like an airmail letter. Families or individuals record in private, much like talking on the telephone—just chatting about whatever they please. Children, or even adults can sing, read or recite poems. A helpful hint—jot down reminders of what you want to say or go ahead of time to bring along.

A volunteer or staff member will assist you prior to recording. The record is furnished by Red Cross and sent without charge—

Christmas gift money could not buy and only families can give.

This is the 5th season for the project and the men overseas write Red Cross, "Record received in good condition—playback performed well—would like service continued—it was a wonderful surprise—it makes us feel closer together—it makes a person feel good—it was the best gift that we could ever receive from home—more servicemen's families should know of this Red Cross service."

The recording sessions are now underway at Red Cross Center on Packard Road between Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

Call 662-5546, Service to Military Families, for an appointment and further details. Send Smiles Across the Miles.

The end of the second marking period for the Manchester High School will take place on November 25 during the holiday vacation

Catherine Ann Bauer, 518 Evergreen, Inglewood, Calif. exchanged nuptial vows on Oct. 8 with John E. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivar K. Ljung (Swedish spelling of Young) of Inglewood. The bride's gown of white silk organza and tulle was fashioned with a bodice of Alencon lace applique with pearls and crystals and the sheath skirt had a detachable train of frosted organza. Alencon lace petals held her tiered veil of silk illusion. The bridal bouquet was formed of sweet peas circling an orchid.

Postmaster Defines Christmas Mailing

Postmaster Marvin Kirk of Manchester has announced that henceforth all first class mail, personal sound recordings (Voice Letters) and parcels weighing 5 pounds or less and measuring not more than 60 inches in length and girth combined, will be airlifted on a space available basis between the United States and all military post offices overseas.

Also, under Public Law 89-725 The Dulski Military Mail Act which was signed by President Johnson on November 2, 1966, second class publications such as newspapers and magazines published weekly or more often, and featuring current news of interest to the military, will be airlifted from San Francisco to the armed forces serving in Viet Nam.

Postmaster Kirk explained that parcels weighing 5 pounds or less and not exceeding 50 inches in length and girth combined, paid at surface rates, will be removed by surface transportation within the United States from the points of mailing to the port of embarkation.

To speed up separation and delivery of these smaller parcels falling within this category, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien directed that all parcels be clearly marked upon acceptance at the post office with the letters SAM (surface airtift mail).

This will eliminate the task of reweighing and measuring the parcels at the San Francisco Concentration Center prior to dispatch to Viet Nam or other overseas military post offices.

Postmaster Kirk also reminded mailers that Christmas parcels weighing 5 pounds and under, though they are given airtift priority from San Francisco to Viet Nam on a space available basis, should be mailed no later than December 1. Airmail, he said, should be sent no later than December 10.

The deadline for Christmas packages weighing more than 5 pounds going to Viet Nam and other overseas military post offices by surface means is early November.

Christmas Stamp Available At Post Office

Manchester Postmaster Marvin Kirk advises that the new Christmas 5-cent postage stamps are now on sale at the Manchester Post Office on a first come, first serve basis.

The new holiday design is printed on sheets of 100 stamps, and it is suggested the special stamps be used on envelopes in which Christmas cards are mailed. Cards mailed with 5-cent postage will receive first class handling. This includes forwarding as well as return to sender if the card is undeliverable and if the sender's return address appears on the envelope.

Moreover Postmaster Kirk pointed out that it would be greatly appreciated if patrons would "mail early!" and make use of ZIP Code on greeting cards, gift parcels and special delivery or special handling parcels.

The 260th semi-annual reunion honored K. T. Keller, former president and Board Chairman of the Chrysler Corporation. Mr. Keller, a 33 Degree Mason died suddenly while visiting London, England last January.

SERVICE NOTES

Some soldiers in Vietnam seldom fire a shot, but their efforts lend as much to victory as those of the front line infantryman.

Private First Class Kenneth D. Gable, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allison F. Gable, 727 Judd, Saline, is a mechanic and his job is to maintain equipment necessary for combat and civic operations.

Pvt. Gable and his unit, the Headquarters Company of the 18th Engineer Brigade's 39th Engineer Battalion teamed up last month with another unit to build a road through 1.3 miles of some of the densest jungle in Vietnam.

Steep granite slopes made movement difficult for the vehicles. Bulldozers and cranes were constantly breaking down and it took much overtime work to keep equipment in operation.

Pvt. Gable entered the Army in September 1965 and was last stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Brazeo Begins Freshman Year

Edward Brazeo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Brazeo of Rochester, New York, formerly of Tecumseh, has begun his freshman year of studies at State University College at Oswego, N. Y.

Edward is a graduate of Penfield High and is enrolled in Oswego's language arts program.

The new freshman is a member of the college's largest class and part of a record student body of 3,885.

He is the grandson of the Rev. and Mrs. Alvin Brazeo, formerly of the Iron Creek Church, now wintering in St. Cloud, Fla.

White Birch Needs Water

Trees and shrubs should have a good soaking before winter sets in. Many white birch, willow and poplar trees have been dying from neglect in Michigan the past two or three years because of the drought.

When white birch decline in vigor they are susceptible to an infestation of insects known as the bronze birch borer.

The pest can best be prevented rather than eliminated. Keeping birch trees in vigorous condition by frequent watering during low rainfall and by fertilization will keep the tree strong and prevent damage.

COMMITTEE TO MEET AT STATE HOSPITAL

The Volunteer Service Council of the Ypsilanti State Hospital will meet Monday, November 21 at 8 p. m. in the old Medical Library in the lobby of "A" Building.

Agenda for the evening includes the election of officers for the coming year and annual reports. Also, the newly formed Steering Committee will give a report.

There is a most urgent need for trading stamps so people are asked to continue to send them to the Public Relations Office at the hospital.

Hunters Blamed For Muck Fire

The Manchester fire department was called Monday shortly before noon to aid the Chelsea firemen by replenishing their dwindling water supply as they worked for about seven hours to extinguish a muck fire on the Ira Johnson farm at 9050 Waters Road, Chelsea. Chelsea Fire Chief Jim Gaken said his department used 8,000 gallons and the Manchester department contributed 1,750 gallons of water.

Firemen theorized that raccoon hunters started the fire on wooded area. Several acres were involved but no damage resulted.

The Chelsea department was summoned at 9 a. m.

Thanksgiving Gifts To Aid CROP

The list of modern day miracles of feeding the hungry is long. It is supported by gifts of Christians throughout the nation.

Manchester people are invited to bring their gifts to the altar at their local church or to the Thanksgiving Eve Service at the Sharon Evangelical United Brethren Church Thanksgiving Eve at 8 p. m. on November 23.

Headlines in the October CROP NEWS bring unpronounceable names, but also many stories of modern day miracles from all around the world!

"CROP Fights Kwashiorkor"; CROP Teat Of Calico Cow" for Children in Tamatave, Malagasy Republic"; "CROP Beans Diverted for Creek Victims"; and "Indian Ingenuity Extends Life of US Gifts."

Kwashiorkor, a protein deficiency disease, in East Congo, once affecting 30,000 children has been reduced to half that number through the shipment of aid by CROP. (CROP-Christian Rural Overseas Project).

Some 1,210 bags of nonfat dry milk powder was made available to relief agencies in the Congo for this project.

Chopped meat totaling 198 cases have been shipped to the Bukavu. The Children's Meals Society in Hong Kong will be distributing 620 cases of "pork and beans" soon.

CROP and CWS, Church World Service, are co-operating in shipping farm tools to Haiti at the present time. FFA groups in the states have been collecting and repairing small hand tools for this project. Turkey has been shipped some 90,000 pounds of clothing recently. This aid was available to the Turkish people within 24-72 hours after the disastrous earthquake. Thirty bags of seed corn have been requested of CROP for shipment to Eastern Algeria and will be sent soon.

These people all receive food because CROP has lent a hand where it was needed.

When you love your work, it shows.

And we love our work. So much so that we couldn't bear to stop with the slickest-looking split grille ever to grace a Wide-Track. (Or any other car, for that matter.) We went ahead and made the windshield wipers disappear. The car not only looks cleaner, but the wipers are less subject to icing and freezing, too. Then we got rid of the vent windows on all Grand Prix hardtops. We replaced them with nifty monograms and a flow-through ventilation system. We even designed a rather unique hood-mounted tachometer option that's available on all Pontiacs. As are our other bright new options like our eight-track stereo tape player and AM-FM Stereo-Multiplex radio. And, of course, our handsome interiors have to be seen to be believed. All Pontiacs have standard safety features that include a dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, outside rearview mirror, and GM's energy absorbing steering column. Isn't it time you decided to see your Pontiac dealer? If you love our work the way we do, it's the least you can do.

DOLLAR and FARMING. SENSE

FURTHER HOG PRICE WEAKNESS is expected this fall with the probable low in November a little above $20. November-December prices should average $21 to $22 compared to about $26 last year. After moderate December-January price recovery, prices may slip below this fall's low. Competitive means are currently plentiful and slaughter will remain heavy through spring. Projected slaughter is up 10% in November, 10% in December, and 11% in the first quarter of 1967.

BUY AND STORE HERBICIDES now for use next spring to make sure you have the kind and amount you want. Supplies of popular herbicides may be short next spring if acreage of corn and soybeans increases. Store herbicides where they won't freeze this winter. Freezing will cause some chemicals to crystallize or "salt out" which reduces their weed control ability. Store in a cool, dry place.

WATCH SOIL LIME NEEDS CLOSELY. As the chart at right shows, it takes several years to raise the pH of acid soils when they drop too low. Applying it this fall is not too soon if soils need it. When the correct pH level is reached, consider adding lime more frequently but at lower rates to maintain the right level. Heavy use of nitrogen fertilizers tends to make soils acid and increase the need to apply lime more often.

HEATED MILKING PARLORS. Cornell studies show that overhead quartz heat lamps are more practical for heating parlors than electric heat panels. Space the lamps 18 inches apart for best heat and shoulders heat. For insulated parlors 3,000 to 4,000 watts is adequate; uninsulated — 4,500 to 5,000.

OIL HEAT OR GAS?

6 questions to ask yourself before you spend hundreds of dollars.

1 Which is more modern—oil heat or gas? The answer may surprise you. Oil and gas are equally modern. Their equipment looks alike and performs alike. Their efficiency is rated equal by the Public Housing Administration. There's only one difference. You save the cost of converting to gas. Modernize with AMOCO* Sta-Warm oil equipment. It matches any made—gas or electric. And you don't have to pay for a "gas line".

2 Which costs more—oil heat or gas? Gas does, if you now have oil heat equipment. Consider these costs. You can pay hundreds of dollars to have a new gas heating system installed. Your pilot light can cost about $10 a year. You can be penalized for late payment of monthly gas bills. You have none of these with oil. Before you spend needlessly—compare.

3 Which offers better service—oil heat or gas? Standard Oil Hot Line Heating Service offers an insured budget plan to spread your payments. Sta-Ful automatic Delivery of oil. Exclusive Sta-Clean Additive to protect your equipment. Service so fast we can be on the way 60 seconds after you call. Modernization now, on easy terms, for less than gas conversion costs.

Don't buy the "Gas Line" until you call Hot Line.

In Manchester Dial 428-8366

You expect more from Standard and you get it!

STANDARD OIL DIVISION AMERICAN OIL COMPANY

4 Which heats water faster—oil or gas? Oil heaters do. 3 times faster. Our 30-gallon AMOCO Sta-Warm Water Heater has 3 times the recovery capacity of gas-fired heaters. And costs less to operate. You can run your faucet for 25 years, and never run out of hot water. Heats water as fast as it will flow.†

*Above estimate is based on a faucet rated not more than 1 1/2 gallons per minute. ††Our water heater will recover 90 GPH ... 100 degree rise.

5 Which is cleaner—oil heat or gas? Heard the old wives' tale that oil heat is dirtier than gas? It's totally untrue. Both are equally clean. Chemical analysis shows it's cooking fats, tobacco smoke and airborne dust that cause dirt—not heating.

6 Is it worth the expense to convert to gas? Put it this way. Why spend heavily for gas if you can't get any more than you get from oil right now? Aren't there other things you'd rather do with the money? Remember—there is no type of heat more modern than oil heat, with new Standard Oil Hot Line Service. It's the service that has revolutionized oil heating. So get the facts first. You risk nothing. You may save a lot.

New Mexico's Governor

David F. Cargo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Cargo of 1615 Cascade, Jackson and former Manchester residents, is governor of New Mexico. His victory Tuesday was one of the nation's major upsets, and he carried in many other GOP candidates. The Cargo family lived in Manchester from 1951 to 1958 where they owned and operated the Higgins Orchard. Cargo's bought from the Higgins family and then sold back to Norman Higgins. In the meantime they built the brick home. He defeated his Democratic opponent Gene Lusk. Incomplete vote total gave Cargo 129,105 to 120,722. He was the only Republican from his county to be elected to the state legislature in 1962 and was reelected in 1964. Gov. Cargo, 37, is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School. He has been in Albuquerque since 1958. He is a graduate of Jackson High School. It is only the second time since the 1920's that the state elected a Republican governor. Cargo's major strength was in the county in which Albuquerque is located. He lead by 20,000 in that area. His opponent was a heavy favorite. Cargo had not been supported by his party in the primary. His parents were in Albuquerque for the election and plan to stay until Christmas.

Christmas Bazaar

Christmas is in the air at St. Mary's as the Altar Society prepares for the annual holiday bazaar. The event slated for Wednesday, Nov. 16 will open its doors promptly at 9 a. m. and close at 9 p. m. at the McGuire Store on Main Street. This is a switch from previous years when the bazaar was held for several days. Mrs. Leonard Ahrens Mrs. Lehman Wahl and Mrs. Joseph Kastl are making the arrangements and planning the big sale. For months they have been working out details. Proceeds will be used to purchase an outdoor Nativity Scene. This is something St. Mary's has never had. The committee is working on unusual Christmas tree ornaments, such as foam plastic trees and other clever creations. In the fancy work department there are pillow cases, crocheted slippers, hand crocheted lace on handkerchiefs, and clever nicknacks.

DOUBLE A SETS ALL TIME HIGH

Thirty-nine members of an All Girl Team were responsible for bringing in the returns in the annual Community Chest Drive that totaled $5,560.87 employee donation. Eighty-two per cent of the employees contributed. Some of this is earmarked to be returned to other communities. The plant upped its contribution 10% over last year for a total of $2,500. The average contribution per employee is about $15 according to the team's report. Luther Klager, Community Chest Chairman, pointed out that it is the individual contributions that make the local drive the success it is each year.
