OIL HEAT OR GAS?

6 questions to ask yourself before you spend hundreds of dollars.

1 Which is more modern—oil heat or gas?

The answer may surprise you. Oil and gas are equally modern. Their equipment looks alike and performs alike. Their efficiency is rated equal by the Public Housing Administration. There's only one difference. You save the cost of converting to gas. Modernize with AMOCO* Sta-Warm oil equipment. It matches any made—gas or electric. And you don't have to pay for a "gas line".

2 Which costs more—oil heat or gas?

Gas does, if you now have oil heat equipment. Consider these costs. You can pay hundreds of dollars to have a new gas heating system installed. Your pilot light can cost about $10 a year. You can be penalized for late payment of monthly gas bills. You have none of these with oil. Before you spend needlessly—compare.

3 Which offers better service—oil heat or gas?

Standard Oil Hot Line Heating Service offers an insured budget plan to spread your payments. Sta-Ful automatic Delivery of oil. Exclusive Sta-Clean Additive to protect your equipment. Service so fast we can be on the way 60 seconds after you call. Modernization now, on easy terms, for less than gas conversion costs.

Don't buy the "Gas Line" until you call Hot Line.

STANDARD OIL DIVISION AMERICAN OIL COMPANY

4 Which heats water faster—oil or gas?

Oil heaters do. 3 times faster. Our 30-gallon AMOCO Sta-Warm Water Heater has 3 times the recovery capacity of gas-fired heaters. And costs less to operate. You can run your faucet for 25 years, and never run out of hot water.† Heats water as fast as it will flow.††

*Above estimate is based on a faucet rated not more than 1 1/2 gallons per minute. ††Our water heater will recover 90 GPH ... 100 degree rise.

5 Which is cleaner—oil heat or gas?

Heard the old wives' tale that oil heat is dirtier than gas? It's totally untrue. Both are equally clean. Chemical analysis shows it's cooking fats, tobacco smoke and airborne dust that cause dirt—not heating.

6 Is it worth the expense to convert to gas?

Put it this way. Why spend heavily for gas if you can't get any more than you get from oil right now? Aren't there other things you'd rather do with the money? Remember—there is no type of heat more modern than oil heat, with new Standard Oil Hot Line Service. It's the service that has revolutionized oil heating. So get the facts first. You risk nothing. You may save a lot.

New Mexico's Governor

David F. Cargo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis C. Cargo of 1615 Cascade, Jackson and former Manchester residents, is governor of New Mexico. His victory Tuesday was one of the nation's major upsets, and he carried in many other GOP candidates. The Cargo family lived in Manchester from 1951 to 1958 where they owned and operated the Higgins Orchard. Cargo's bought from the Higgins family and then sold back to Norman Higgins. In the meantime they built the brick home. He defeated his Democratic opponent Gene Lusk. Incomplete vote total gave Cargo 129,105 to 120,722. He was the only Republican from his county to be elected to the state legislature in 1962 and was reelected in 1964. Gov. Cargo, 37, is a graduate of the University of Michigan Law School. He has been in Albuquerque since 1958. He is a graduate of Jackson High School. It is only the second time since the 1920's that the state elected a Republican governor. Cargo's major strength was in the county in which Albuquerque is located. He led by 20,000 in that area. His opponent was a heavy favorite. Cargo had not been supported by his party in the primary. His parents were in Albuquerque for the election and plan to stay until Christmas.

Christmas Bazaar

Christmas is in the air at St. Mary's as the Altar Society prepares for the annual holiday bazaar. The event slated for Wednesday, Nov. 16 will open its doors promptly at 9 a. m. and close at 9 p. m. at the McGuire Store on Main Street. This is a switch from previous years when the bazaar was held for several days. Mrs. Leonard Ahrens Mrs. Lehman Wahl and Mrs. Joseph Kastl are making the arrangements and planning the big sale. For months they have been working out details. Proceeds will be used to purchase an outdoor Nativity Scene. This is something St. Mary's has never had. The committee is working on unusual Christmas tree ornaments, such as foam plastic trees and other clever creations. In the fancy work department there are pillow cases, crocheted slippers, hand crocheted lace on handkerchiefs, and clever nicknacks.

Diabetes Week

Mr. and Mrs. William Schaffer are chairman of this year's detection drive, sponsored by the Ann Arbor Diabetic Association. Free Blood tests will be given to help detect new diabetics. The trailer will be at the Westgate Shopping Center November 14, 15, and 16 from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. and at Arborland Shopping Center November 17, 18, and 19 from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m.

DOUBLE A SETS ALL TIME HIGH

Thirty-nine members of an All Girl Team were responsible for bringing in the returns in the annual Community Chest Drive that totaled $5,560.87 employee donation. Eighty-two per cent of the employees contributed. Some of this is earmarked to be returned to other communities. The plant upped its contribution 10% over last year for a total of $2,500. The average contribution per employee is about $15 according to the team's report. Luther Klager, Community Chest Chairman, pointed out that it is the individual contributions that make the local drive the success it is each year. A more complete report will be given in the overall drive next week as several industries have not listed complete reports at this time. On the All Girl Team of solicitors are: Jeanne Marrison, Jane Kemmer, Jodine Ackley, Opal Clark, Gabrielle Beach, Florence Horan, Pauline Dowers, Donna Mox, Bonnie Hackman, Irene Wurster, Elaine Mann, Myrtle Kemmer, Mabel McLean, Helen Rigg, Ellen Todd, Elaine Staele, Margie Blumensauer, Trudy Kensler, Edith Hamis, Lenore Staele, Patricia Macomber, Ardis Scheid, Olive Kappler, Shirley Bower, Olive Hazen, Karen Fuller, Nancy Poucher, Cindy Wurster, Susan Scheid, Naomi Foster, Carol Spike, Phyllis Baker, Amanda Schaible, Olive Feldkamp, Anne Pniewski, Anna Waterman, Melva Strang, Donna England, Mildred Price, Sophia Paul.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

TO THE PUBLISHER AND EDITOR OF THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE

November 3, 1966

Hi Everyone,
We know this letter is way past due. Each week we think we will be writing to tell you wonderful folks back home about a kidney transplant for Red. We hope the saying "Good things come to those who wait" will come true for us. The cadaver kidneys are being checked very thoroughly and they are using only the very best ones. We want to thank everyone for the cards and letters and tell you how much we enjoy them. We try to keep in touch with the people who have written and some times we get a little behind. We look forward to the Manchester Enterprise and read all the news from home.

We really miss our town and hope we will be back soon. Red has been feeling pretty good except for the itching and the numbness in his feet. This is caused from not having kidneys. He was on the kidney machine Monday, Oct. 31 for his 47th treatment. We want to express our thanks again for the "Red Lamb Fund". We have had to use some of it for our daily living expenses.

We want to thank each and everyone who sold Halloween candy and bought the candy from the Kidney Foundation. The Kidney Foundation will help us to buy the medicine Red will need after the transplant. You have helped us again!
We want to thank everyone who has donated blood for Red. Special thanks for having the blood transferred goes to Mrs. F. M. Reck, who takes care of this through the Red Cross.
We will close for now in hopes that we will be home soon.

Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Melvin (Red) Lamb

Balloon Travels From Manchester To New York

Sunday school members have been gathering information on the whereabouts of their hundred helium filled balloons which they released about three weeks ago.

The balloons were tagged with addresses of the members and replies have been coming in. It seems probable that some might have met their Waterloo in the cold waters of Lake Erie--for that seems to be the general direction that a number of them traveled in.

One managed to land on North Bass Island in Lake Erie. That one was picked up the same Sunday at 3:30 p.m. and Dennis Huehl received a letter from the finder.
Susan Pratt's balloon came down in Ring Town, Pa. and Patty Miller's in Oregon, Ohio.
Brenda Smith got word from Put-In-Bay, Ohio that someone had picked up her balloon.
Jay Allen's balloon traveled the greatest distance--to Liberty, New York.

Others were found in Pennsylvania at Grampan, Centerville, Wyalusing and Mill Hall, and another came down at Petersburg, Michigan.

And one of the balloons didn't get too far from the Sharon EUB church where it started for it was picked up on the William Bross Sr. Farm. But Amy Bowers was glad to hear from her balloon anyway--it was almost certain that someone's would land near home. Why not hers?

GONYER IS NEW

Miss Dietle Retires After 38 Years At Goodyears

By Marie Schneider

Miss Edith Dietle, who recently retired from Goodyears in Ann Arbor is looking forward to doing some of the things for which she never seemed to have time, while she was working.

The American woman is just as royal conscious today as she was when she first went to work in Ann Arbor, she observed.

Now in Manchester, she is living with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harold Dietle, in the home of her late parents, the George Dietles.

Before going to Ann Arbor she was a clerk for Young and Mans, now the Marx and Marx Department Store. She studied in the local more for 15 years.

She thinks the current styles and designs are just as attractive as those of the past—fascinating 20's period.

The Ann Arbor store has moved three counties in the time she started as a buyer about a year after joining the company.

When you are working at something you enjoy the time passes very quickly, in fact, it is hard for me to comprehend that 38 years have slipped by," Miss Dietle said.

She experienced working through a fire sale thirty years ago. At that time the store was literally wiped out.

Miss Dietle said she never went to a black market—although she knew where they were. She mentioned the bank closing during the depression and how tight money was for a short time.

The American lady is just as style conscious about lingerie as she is about her other wearing apparel," Miss Dietle said.

Her last buying trip to New York is one she will never forget. That was three years ago. New York was in the grip of a terrific blizzard.

She mentioned working through a fire sale thirty years ago. At that time the store was literally wiped out.

Miss Dietle explained that going to the New York market on a buying trip, always seemed very educational to her.

She mentioned that there is very little pure silk now and what there is very expensive.

The retiree is planning to spend some of her time more actively in Emanuel United Church, of which she is a member.

"They'd rather switch to a Gas Incinerator than fight my smoke!"

"I can't believe it—replaced by a young upstart who doesn't even smoke! This incinerator fellow must not have any pride—he even consumes garbage! No self-respecting trash burner would attempt that. And who's going to keep the neighbors in their place by blowing smoke and soot in their yard? You'll see... replacing me with an automatic Gas Incinerator will make a big difference in their life!"

You, too, can end trash and garbage problems by switching to a new, smokeless, odorless Gas Incinerator

Hand Painted China to be Shown by Local Artists

Community China Painters will present their first show from 12:30 p. m. to 4 p. m. Wednesday, November 30 through Sunday, December 4.

This is the only club in the area devoted to hand painting fine china. The show will be at the Cracker Barrel on Main Street.

One member hails from Ann Arbor, another from Clinton and still another from Tecumseh. The other five are from Manchester.

All are pupils of Mrs. Marian Davis of Howell who comes once a week to conduct the classes.

For the most part these artists specialized in oil paintings and ceramics before working on china.

Some have been in the class for four years or longer. Mrs. Russell Wolff and Mrs. Lee Allan explain that this is the most rewarding of all their artistic efforts.

Mrs. Allan said, "When I plan to paint a new piece, I get so excited. All of our work is free hand, of course. We don't draw designs on the china first."

All of the members have kilns for firing. Many have to go through this process from four to eight and sometimes many more times.

When these people speak of "putting the china in the oven for heating" they are talking about a heat that would range from 1100 degrees to 1520 degrees Fahrenheit.

Most common kilns are about 15.5" by 15.5" --inside measurements. It takes three hours to fire a dish and then the oven must cool without opening.

A sudden draft would crack the dish. Colors hardest to work with are reds and oranges. These are somewhat "unpredictable."

Glass fires at a lower temperature than china. The artists are delighted that colonial decor is so in evidence again--including the well known plate rails.

Some of their work is displayed by Botsford Tile in Ann Arbor. Members of the class go to Detroit for supplies where they can buy plain German and Bavarian china.

Sometimes they use Japanese imports. It is interesting to note that the artists do not use English bone china.

Mrs. Wolff said that when the English china is fired, tiny black specks appear on the surface and mar its appearance. They use small glass pallets, brushes and pencils--all German imports.

60 Acre Tract Under Option by School Board

The Manchester Board of Education acting on the recommendation of a Site Committee has taken an option on 60 acres of land to be used for school purposes.

Pending the approval of district voters at an early election, a new elementary building will be situated on this site.

The site, located on Ann Arbor Street and known as the Marshall property, is presently owned by Tadeusz and Maria Rybak.

This property was the unanimous choice of the site committee. It was their choice after all suitable sites in the area were studied.

As the site committee was unanimous in their choice and recommendation, so was the Board of Education in accepting the recommendation.

The site committee was appointed last April by the Board of Education. Members of the committee are Allen Schaffer, chairman, Dr. H. P. Eames, L. Dean Solt, James Lyons, Eugene Bentschneider, Walter Grothe and Richard Kuntz.

In making their recommendation the committee indicated that this piece of property was ideal for school purposes for the following reasons:

- 1. Large enough to take care of school needs for next two decades.
2. Could ultimately accommodate additional buildings and a future athletic field.
3. Could easily be serviced with water and sewer services at a minimum of expense to district taxpayers.
4. Other sites considered would have incurred considerable expense for sewer and water.
5. Proposed site could possibly be connected to existing high school site by the future acquisition of a small amount of land.
6. Topographical features of site ideal for school needs and conducive to development of all future needs.

The site committee was appointed by the Board of Education late last spring when it became obvious to school officials that additional elementary rooms would be needed in the near future.

At that time a decision was made by the Board of Education to involve local citizens to help them determine where new facilities might be located.

At this time the committee was named. Studies of potential sites. Several were seriously considered and deemed suitable.

However, the many advantages of the Rybak property were so apparent that it was unanimously approved by all interested persons.

Throughout the discussions relative to land acquisition it was continually emphasized that the school district should acquire sufficient acreage to take care of both immediate and long range school needs.

Throughout the country and in this area particularly land value is continually increasing. As the population spills over from the metropolitan areas and residential and industrial sites become more valuable, it is both prudent and economically sound for a school district to purchase open land at a time when it is at a reasonable cost.

This was the thinking of both the site committee and the Board of Education when they decided on the size of this site. The 60 acres will cost $50,000 or $833 per acre. Sewer and water lines extend almost to this property and money will be saved in obtaining these services.

Completes Study

Thomas Marshall of Tom Marshall, Inc. Ford dealership in Manchester was graduated from a dealership management course at the Ford Marketing Institute in Detroit last week.

Thomas S. Masters, institute director, said the five-day course is designed to help dealers develop special plans for continual improvement of dealership operations in a growing automotive market.

Included in the course are modern methods of staffing and organization, personnel development, merchandising, facility modernization, and advertising and sales promotion.

The course is one of a number offered to benefit Ford and Lincoln Mercury customers by emphasizing after purchase service and better customer relations.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Robert Hamilton. The play was presented by Eastern Michigan University.
