COUNTY SCHOOLS WILL CONSIDER BUYING PROPERTY

The Washtenaw County Intermediate School District Board of Education will hold a special meeting Monday, February 6, to discuss the feasibility of purchasing the Benz Building as an alternative to constructing a new office building and service center in Scio Township. The intermediate district currently rents office space in the Benz Building in Ann Arbor. The Intermediate School District Board has deferred action on a revised salary schedule for teachers and consultants. The new schedule, which calls for pay increases of about 10-per cent was not adopted because the trustees were unable to determine if the schedule should include provisions for merit pay. Intermediate School Supt. Nick Ianni has opposed a merit pay system because its administration would be "unwieldy." The superintendent said the biggest problem of a merit pay system is developing an equitable system of evaluation to determine who qualified for it. Ianni has proposed pay increase which he said would cost an additional $30,000. The changes would affect 34 employees and would cost a total of $302,220. He says this "will keep us in competition with the largest school districts in the area." He asks that the board take some action on the salary schedule at the February meeting so that teachers' contracts may be issued by March 1. Ianni said that the data processing center, designed to serve all local districts will be in full operation by the middle of February. The center is being operated by the intermediate school office, but local districts in the county are sharing its costs.

In Service

St. Gordon, Ga. -- Army Private Gayle M. Finkbeiner, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Finkbeiner of 206 Mills St., Saline, Mich., completed nine weeks of advanced infantry training Jan. 20 at Ft. Gordon, Ga. His last week of training was spent in guerrilla warfare exercises. During his guerrilla training, he lived under simulated Vietnam conditions for five days, fighting off night attacks and conducting raids on "enemy" villages. He was taught methods of removing enemy snipers. Other specialized training included small unit tactics, map reading, land mine warfare, communications, and firing the M-14 rifle, M-60 machine gun and 3.5-inch rocket launcher. FIRE DEPT. CALLED The Manchester fire department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Below of 511 Ann Arbor Street Monday evening when the chimney burned out. Smoke caused most of the damage Mrs. Below said.

SOCIAL SECURITY NEWS

Older people in the Washtenaw County area who have paid doctor bills but have not yet claimed their Medicare doctor bills insurance payments are invited to have their claims checked by the Ann Arbor Social Security office before mailing them to the Medicare carrier, according to Robert A. Kehoe, District manager. "In the first six months of the Medicare program some benefit payments were delayed because the applicants did not include all the necessary information with their claims," he said. Kehoe believes that most people will need this help only the first time they make a medical insurance claim. "The Medicare handbook, which is given to all beneficiaries explains how to make the claims," he said, "and the form is relatively simple, but most people can use some advice the first time they apply. We're glad to offer assistance and we believe we can help many people to avoid some delay in their payment." Kehoe noted that the Medicare claim may be made either by the patient or by the doctor if he accepts assignment of the insurance. If the doctor applies for the Medicare payment, he bills the patient only for any part of the $50 deductible that still remains to be paid and for the 20 percent of the bill over the $50 deductible. Under the other method of payment the doctor bills the patient, the patient pays the bill, and then the patient sends the completed request for payment form to the Medicare carrier. A statement from the doctor showing the treatment given and the charges already paid by the patient must be furnished either on the request for payment form or in a separate receipted bill. In the Washtenaw county area, Medicare doctor bill insurance is also handled by Blue Shield in Detroit. The same simple one-page request for payment form is mailed to the carrier no matter whether the payment is to go to the patient or to the doctor. Doctors' offices, accustomed to filling out insurance forms should have no difficulty providing the few items of information requested, Kehoe noted. But handling of forms received directly from Medicare beneficiaries is sometimes delayed because some essential item of information has been omitted. If the beneficiary leaves out his Medicare identification number, for example, it is impossible to verify that he is signed up for the doctor bill insurance, or how much of his deductible amount has been paid. Some elderly people with failing eyesight are unable to make legible entries. And some do not get adequately itemized receipts for their illness from their physicians, or forget to enclose the receipts with their claims. If the request for payment form is enclosed improperly filled out, the Medicare carrier has to write back to the beneficiary, thus delaying the payment. "The Social Security office does not make the decision or pay the claim," Kehoe said. "The law requires that the payments be handled through selected Medicare carriers. But we can answer general questions about Medicare and help people in the Washtenaw County area get their applications ready for review by the carrier."

Sch Encourages Training by Private Industry

Second District Congressman Marvin L. Esch has introduced legislation to encourage job training by private industry. The bill, titled "The Human Investment Act of 1967", would provide a 10 per cent tax credit to employers for expenses incurred in training their employees in certain job skills. Congressman Esch described the measure as "a step toward ending widespread unemployment through training incentives for private enterprise which is the nation's greatest job creator and trainer." "This is an approach which recognizes the need for participation of the private sector in solving social ills," he added. The Human Investment Act specifically gives employers incentive to broaden and expand various programs including apprenticeship training, on-the-job training, cooperative work-study projects tuition refunds and organized group and classroom instruction expenses. "Giving employers a tax credit for training and retaining," Esch said, "is the efficient and sensible approach. Unlike government run training programs, private training involves less red tape and, more importantly, is aimed at available jobs." Representative Esch predicted that passage of the bill "would go a long way in initiating and expanding programs like that about to get underway in Manchester." Earlier the Double Products Co. of Manchester in Washtenaw County received a $30,000 Department of Labor grant for training under the provisions of the Manpower Development and Training Act. The bill, which was also introduced by 119 other Republican House members, is slightly modified version of legislation proposed in 1965 when it received the support of 86 House members and 23 Republican Senators. It also has the support of the National Republican Coordinating Committee and was mentioned as a major step in redirecting the poverty war in the 1967 Republican State of the Union Message.

Progress at School on Schedule

Satisfactory progress is now being made on the Manchester High School addition despite the inclement weather of the past few weeks. The building is now complete with walls and roof deck and attention is being given to the interior sections. The building is being heated with portable heaters prior to pouring the remaining floors. Windows are scheduled to be installed within the next few days. Lockers for both the corridors and the gymnasium addition have been shipped and will be installed upon delivery. The ceramic tile for the shower and the locker addition will also be applied at this time. The general contractor is giving priority to the east entrance, the band room, the gymnasium, and the library in order that these facilities will be ready sooner than was previously anticipated. According to Mr. Dean Cunningham of the Cunningham Construction Company the completion date of June 1, 1967 will still be attained. To Meet The Women's Missionary Society will meet at the church on Thursday, Feb. 16 at 10 a. m. to sew. Mrs. Thomas Hicks will be the hostess chairman at the potluck luncheon and Mrs. Lawrence Paul will be the devotional leader.

'Red' Lamb Leaves Hospital

Melvin "Red" Lamb, 31, of 20533 Logan Road, Manchester has left the Cleveland Clinic where he underwent a kidney transplant December 27. He and his wife are staying at an apartment across from the clinic. According to his sister, Mrs. Victor Wurster, it is necessary for him to go back to the clinic every Monday, Wednesday and Friday for a check-up. Mrs. Wurster accompanied their uncle, Sammy Brown to Cleveland to take the Lamb children, Jackie Ann 5 years and William John to spend the weekend with their parents. Friday, Feb. 3 was William John's third birthday. His mother had promised to bake him a cake. The children were delighted with the birthday celebration. They returned home Sunday with their uncle, Eldon Lamb and family who went down for the day, along with his parents, the Roy Lambs. "Red" told the family he is feeling the best he has in 14 months. It has been three weeks since he has been on the kidney machine and has gained about 10 pounds, Mrs. Wurster said. He is restricted to 50 grams of protein a day but other than that he can have whatever foods he wants. If he continues to improve it could be possible that he might be able to return home in a couple of months. Lamb entered the hospital last April 22. His kidneys were removed in an operation on May 27. Most important of all is that he is in very good spirits and is anxiously waiting for the time he can return home.

Snow Removal Causes Problems

Snow removal operations in the village has been hampered by parked cars. Unusually heavy snow fall in recent weeks has added to the problems. Councilman, Basil McGuire, suggested that council work out a resolution and council has passed a resolution relative to snow removal operations. President Gale Koebbe, says that the resolution states that cars are not to be parked on streets during snow removal operations. He says that signs will be posted at the village limits to this effect. Supt. of Public Works, Bruce Daniels, and his crew find that all too often people are leaving their cars parked on the streets. If the snow plow has to go around all of these parked vehicles and then come back later to clear those areas another half day's time could be involved. Council also asks that people show some consideration for the people who clear the streets, "because with this heavy accumulation of snow their job already has enough headaches." Council also asks that people clear the sidewalks so that children will not be traveling to and from school in the roadway. In a few areas, they point out, the sidewalks are not cleared from one snow fall to the next. Walking in the streets can be a real hazard--especially where children are concerned.

POSTAL SERVICE IMPLEMENTING 'CUSTOMER BILL OF RIGHTS'

Postmaster Marvin Kirk is calling attention to the new "Postal Customer's Bill of Rights" to help meet President Johnson's government-wide goal of improving the quality of federal services to the public. Directed at post office window services, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien has ordered the Customer's Bill of Rights implemented by two immediate steps at Manchester. 1. Posters will be displayed in the post office lobby and service counters containing 10 points which specify the kind of treatment customers have a right to expect. 2. Instructions from O'Brien call for careful observation of all points in the "Postal Customer's Bill of Rights." The instruction also provide directions for the most efficient management of window services. The posters tell customers they are entitled to: 1. A neat, clean counter on which to transact business. 2. Service by a well-groomed neat window employee. 3. A friendly greeting that expresses a desire to assist. 4. Knowledgeable, well-informed, interested window personnel to help with postal needs. 5. Prompt, alert and efficient service. 6. Competent and correct information on inquiries. 7. An attitude that reflects helpfulness, patience and congeniality. He urged that Manchester residents assist in this effort, by stating their needs clearly, and having money and any necessary filled out forms ready for transactions. The Postmaster explained that demands on window personnel, who must deal with a wide variety of information, forms and varying services are usually very heavy, and postal customers can assist them in meeting the new service goals by being as brief and business-like as possible.

Scholarship Foundation to Have Public Meeting

A public meeting of the Citizens Scholarship Foundation will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday, Feb. 21 at the Methodist Church hall. This is also known as "Dollars for Scholars" Foundation and, according to Mrs. William Purfield, president of the association, was undertaken as a community project by the Business and Professional Women's Club of Manchester. A meeting of the officers of the Citizens Scholarship Foundation of Manchester was held Jan. 4 at the home of Mrs. Otto Timmerman. A review of the financial audit and a general progress report of the Scholarship Awards was given by Mrs. Purfield. After four years the project has proven to be of tremendous value to young people of the Manchester area. Approximately $4000 in loans have been given to students. The members of the Business and Professional Women's Club have recognized the worthiness of the project and yet realize that the potential of this endeavor would be more nearly realized with broader community involvement. This is the reason for the public meeting. All citizens of the Manchester area who are interested in giving a "helping hand" to young people in furthering their education are cordially invited to attend.

Burglars Hit Four Stores Here

Officers are investigating burglaries in several Manchester Main Street business places. It is believed that the stores were broken into sometime between 1 a. m. and 4 a. m. Tuesday morning. Manchester's new police chief Billie Wilson said that $379 was taken from Walt Schable's men's clothing store at 104 E. Main; $156 in cash from Lamoni's Variety Store at 108 E. Main; about $40 or $50 from the Manchester Bakery and $10 in cash from the Widmayer Hardware Store at 103 E. Main. All of the break-ins were made through windows in the buildings. It was also reported that several cars were looted at the Double A Parking lot. Store owners reported that they did not believe that merchandise was taken and that the robbers were interested only in cash that they could take.

TAXPAYERS GET ADDITIONAL TIME

Michael Wolfe, Manchester Township treasurer, with the approval of the Manchester Township Board, is waiving the three per cent additional penalty on lagging tax returns. The deadline for township tax payments was set for Feb. 15 and the deadline now has been extended to Feb. 28. Wolfe says that heavy snows and clogged roads are being blamed for the slow tax returns. Total township taxes for the township amounts to $246,000 and at this time $138,000 has been collected. This, Wolfe said, is far below the usual returns at this time of year. Taxes will carry a 4 per cent penalty after Feb. 28 when tax payers will be traveling to Ann Arbor to make payment.

Plate Sales Lag Badly

The only trouble with early license plate buyers in the opinion of Secretary of State James M. Hare is "there just are not enough of them."

Hare pointed to the "slow" pace of 1967 plate sales which were running nearly 200,000 below comparable dates last year during mid-January.

"Unless we pick up the sales tempo by the middle of February, I'm afraid buyers will be faced with monumental lines of pushing people and flaring tempers," Hare predicted.

Hare pointed to several factors which he said were "contributing to the snail's-pace license sales campaign."

1. "Lag in new car sales. This has seriously affected sale of plates during the tag-end of 1966 and seems to be extending into the new year. Used cars sales seem to be down, too.

2. "Persons who obtained plates early last year because they were leerie of the new Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund have a year's experience to call upon and don't seem overly concerned about being later this year.

3. "License plate sales were stimulated last year by the gigantic state-wide educational and publicity campaign on the Accident Fund which stimulated persons to buy plates early."

Hare pointed out another problem, caused when the Legislature extended the commercial plate buying deadline back to the original February 28 date. Lawmakers earlier in last year's session had passed a bill which had moved up commercial plate sales one month with the deadline of January 31.

"This is a problem we did not anticipate, figuring commercials would be out of the way by the end of January."

Hare again reminded vehicle owners that they would have to provide proof of insurance to qualify for the $1.00 insured fee under the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund law.

In Manchester beginning Feb. 15 members of the Legion Auxiliary will be at the Sutton Agency to assist in filling out license applications.

"If adequate proof is not furnished, these drivers will have to pay the $35 uninsured fee under the Fund."

Adequate proof of insurance, according to Hare, can consist of any of the following:

Certificate of insurance but only when a policy number and expiration date appear on the certificate. Terms such as "applied for" or "continuous" are not acceptable.

A statement with the same information as the certificate on the letterhead of any company or agent.

A copy of a policy declaration or an insurance ID card.

which contains the same information as the certificate.

A certificate of insurance binder or any document containing the same information as a binder showing the binder period or expiration date.

Hare said binders must be given to branch personnel when plates are purchased and would be checked at the expiration period to see if the person followed through on the purchase of liability insurance. Persons who do not show in-effect liability insurance will be asked to pay the $35 uninsured fee.

Final Sign-up Dates for Grain Program

The Wheat and Feed Grain Program sign-up period has been extended for Michigan, according to Earl Doletsky, Chairman of the Washtenaw ASC County Committee. The previous closing date was March 3. The final date for Michigan is now March 17, 1967.

The State Committee has determined a sign-up period which will insure that all farmers have an opportunity to discuss the programs with ASC county office people and make up their minds about taking part. In some counties where there are large numbers of farmers, there were not enough hours available in the original sign-up period to accommodate all farmers in the county offices. Also, bad weather in some areas made a revision necessary.

Sign-up is the essential first step toward participation in a farm program. No further extension is anticipated; therefore, a farmer should not wait until the last minute to enroll. The final date of March 3 to sign up in a Cropland Adjustment Program was not changed in view of the fact that present requests under this program generally have already exceeded available funds.

Farm program officials point out that the United States has more cropland than is currently needed to meet demand for crops. However, the national wheat acreage allotment for 1967 is nearly a third larger than for 1966, and the feed grain program aims to divert only about half as many acres as in 1966. The wheat program offers no diversion payments, and the feed grain program offers diversion payments only to small farmers. Even though acreage diversion goals vary from one program to another, farm program officials emphasize that the law makes the programs available to all farmers, and the sign-up period has been changed to assure them of the opportunity to participate.

FOOD & FUEL CAN BE A PROBLEM!

Howard Minier, engineer-director of the Washtenaw County Road Commission, is a little gloomy as he looks ahead to the next two months and says that he believes "we are due for some real problems."

"If you want to pass along a bit of advice to people in the rural area of the county it would be this--keep up the supply of fuel and keep the pantry shelves well stocked with food in the event the roads become impassible for a time, snow, ice or mud," Minier said.

Washtenaw already has clamped on the weight restrictions on the highways. He pointed out that they cannot be lifted at this time because there is little frost in the ground even if there is a crusty snow covering.

"We are almost two months ahead in putting on the weight restrictions, but it can't be helped. We can't afford not to. The last heavy snow this past week has cost about $75,000 to the county in snow removal. This amount can be divided three ways--for labor in clearing the snow from the county roads, $25,000 for materials and another $25,000 for equipment," Minier said.

"We've used better than 1,000 tons of sand-chloride and 2,000 tons of salt and have at least one lane opened on all roads. But then there are some complaints that both lanes are not open."

"Our men have been going top speed and we are clearing the secondary roads as fast as we can. But this is pretty heavy snow and hard to move. Never fear, we are going to keep the wheels turning," the director said.

He noted that there are 500 miles of state truck lines, 900 miles of local roads and 200 miles of county roads to make a total of 1,600 miles of roads for the county to clear.

Minier looks for this to be a tough spring and hopes that he is wrong.

If the weather gets warm and the snow melts fast, many of the roads will be flooded. Workmen can't get to all the roads at once. People will have to be content to take their turn and the best way to overcome possible inconvenience is for everyone to be prepared for an emergency. This may be a time that the rural roads may be impassible--maybe because of ice, snow or mud.

The engineer said the prospects are not good.

Here's what owners have to say about White Sale Fords bought in previous years:

Michael Trupiano, Detroit, Mich. Price paid for my '66 Custom 500 was a good buy. You can tell the car is solidly built by the way it feels.

George Jagodzinski, Toledo, Ohio. I had the appearance of the car, the way it was equipped, and the price. It's a '66 Custom 500. Very reliable.

Ruth Nichols, Farmington, Mich. I like the economy of my '66. All the extras too. White Sale Fords, you know you're getting value.

Jack F. Carr, Marion, Ohio. When you drive 30,000 miles a year, you appreciate a quiet ride. My '66 is air conditioned and it's a great road car.

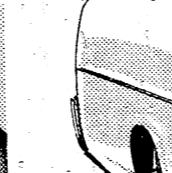

H. George Reiter, Southfield, Mich. Everybody likes a bargain and my '66 looks like a much more expensive car. The extra "chrome" is a plus.

John F. McPherson, Findley, Ohio. My '66 was an excellent buy. Special trim gives it a different look. Vinyl seats are made for travel with kids.

Harold Wagner, Delphos, Ohio. Nothing like the '67 V-8 in my '66 for getting a 19-hr. travel trailer. And with kids, you need vinyl seats.

Edna M. Beck, Chelsea, Mich. My last two cars were Fords but the '66 has the best ride. The vinyl interior drives--rides the road even in a prairie crosswind.

Larry Moore, Defiance, Ohio. It was a buy '66. I've saved on gas and tire ride is smooth, even on rough back roads.

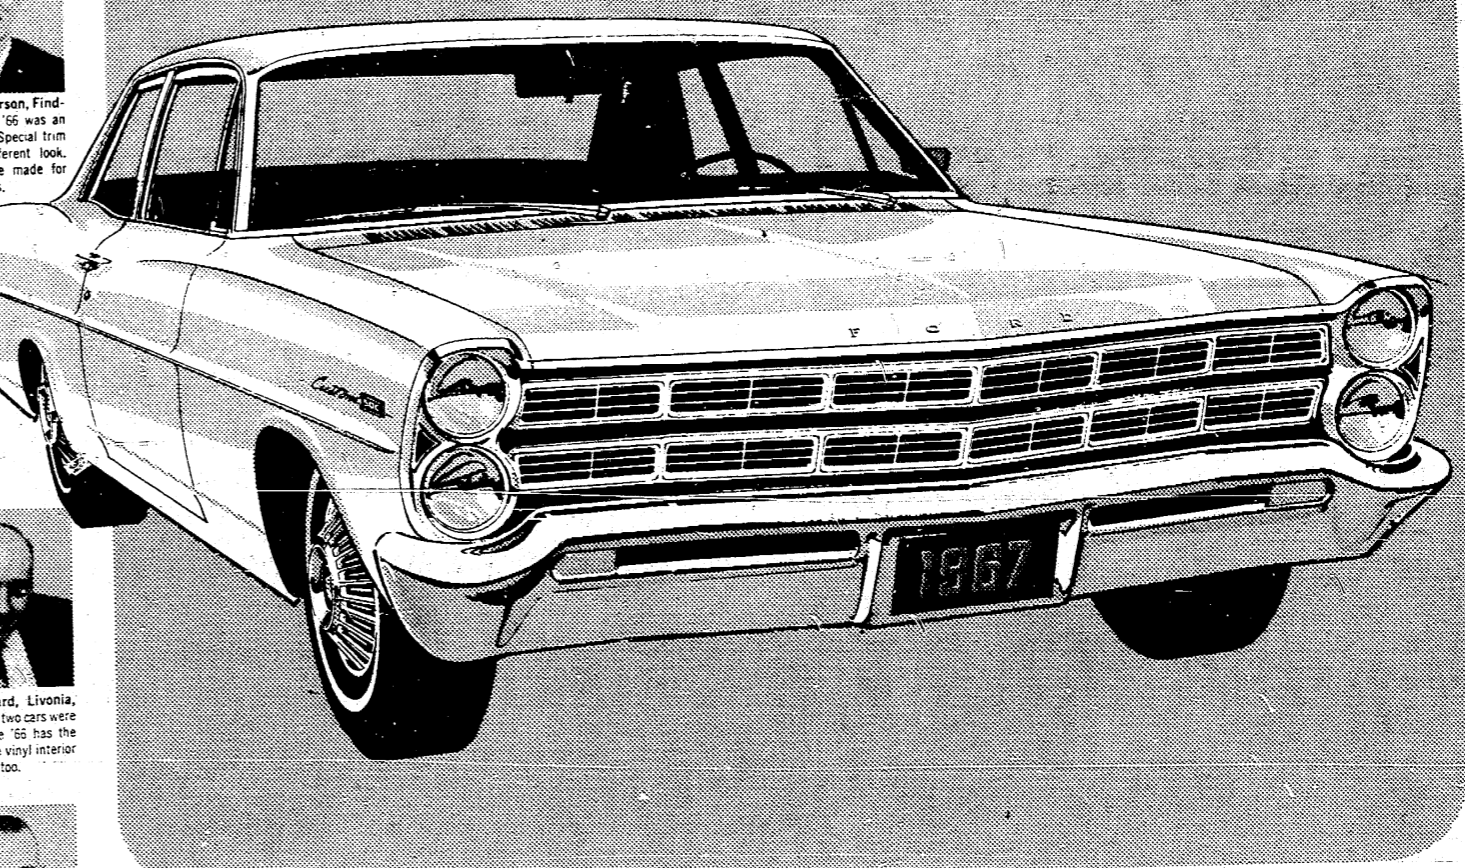

Robert C. Arrick, Jr., Ypsilanti, Mich. It's a lot of car for the money. I've got 51,000 miles on my '66. It always starts and it's easy on gas.

Individual club programs will also include discussions, demonstrations, movies and tours. Members will prepare action exhibits showing the skills and information learned and, along with their families, will visit veterinary clinics.

A "kickoff" Veterinary Science 4-H Leaders' Workshop will be conducted in March at Camp Kett, Michigan's 4-H leadership training center near Tustin.

The program is cooperatively sponsored by the Michigan and American Veterinary Medical Associations, the Cooperative Extension Service, and the National 4-H Service Committee.

The program was introduced at the annual meeting of the Michigan Veterinary Medical Association held at Michigan State University.

The 4-H Veterinary Science program is suitable to all youth with an interest in animals, medicine, or public health. A member in an urban area will find it just as satisfying and as valuable as his rural counterpart.

Members will learn about animal anatomy, physiology, sanitation, causes of disease, and immunology.

Additional information is available through the office of the Cooperative Extension Service in the County Building, Ann Arbor.

Snow Must Be Cleared Postmaster Marvin Kirk and his staff of rural mail carriers want to thank the people living on the rural routes for clearing the approaches to the mail boxes as efficiently as they have.

Kirk noted that the snow removal to the mail box approaches is the sole responsibility of rural patrons. In cases where the rural carrier cannot reach the box delivery will be withheld until the approach is cleared, he said.

Patrons may pick up their mail at the post office, however after 4 p. m.

ROSS CAMPBELL CAMPAIGNS HERE

Ross Campbell, candidate for Probate Judge, campaigned door-to-door in Manchester last Thursday, Feb. 3.

Campbell is seeking the probate court seat recently vacated by former Probate Judge John Conlin. The primary election is Monday, Feb. 20th.

Campbell, a practicing attorney, is a West Pointer and University of Michigan Law School graduate, has taught business law at Eastern Michigan University and Cleary College, and is an author of several articles on probate court law which have appeared in the Michigan State Bar Journal.

He is a member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the State of Michigan and of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. Campbell has served as a member of the Juvenile Court Committee and as chairman of the Legal Aid Committee of the Washtenaw County Bar Association. He has been appointed to the Special Committee on Mental Health and the Special Committee on Juvenile Problems of the State Bar of Michigan, and served for nearly three years as a Referee in the Juvenile Division of the Probate Court.

Vacationers Urged to Check Driver Licenses

Lansing-Michigan drivers planning winter vacations or moves to warm climates during the winter, and who have celebrated or are having birthdays while they are away, are urged to check their driver licenses to make sure they don't expire when they are gone.

Secretary of State James M. Hare said, "I would urge every Michigan citizen who plans to be out of Michigan and who has an expiring driver license to go to the nearest driver license exam bureau to get a renewal of the license before leaving."

Licenses may be renewed any time 90 days prior to the date of expiration at local driver license bureaus," said Hare. He urged persons who were leaving the state for even longer periods to come in and discuss the situation with examining bureau managers.

"Many persons have found renewal of their licenses tricky, laborious, and rife with red-tape as well as very time consuming when they suddenly realized they are out of Michigan and have an expired driver license," Hare said. "Many states have more expensive licenses than does Michigan, and that's a consideration also."

Doctors Outline Points for Safety on Roads

To a skier, snow is a blessing. To a driver, it is slippery, slushy roads. The physicians of Michigan offer five prescriptions for safe driving this winter.

"Many Michigan doctors of medicine," according to C. Allen Payne, M. D., President of the Michigan State Medical Society, "will be treating people who have suffered accidents this winter. They know first-hand the needless pain and anxiety auto injuries will cause in families throughout the state."

The five prescriptions Dr. Payne recommends for safe winter driving are:

- 1. Always keep at least one window in your car slightly open. If you don't you will fill with carbon monoxide, a colorless, odorless gas which is deadly in enclosed space.
2. Be sure your exhaust, muffler and manifold are free of leaks.
3. Keep front air vents closed in bumper-to-bumper traffic to avoid sucking in fumes from the car ahead.
4. If you begin to feel sleepy or ill while driving, pull to the side of the road and roll down the window.
5. Always drive slowly enough to be able to stop quickly.

Vaccination Clinics Continue in County

Measles vaccination clinics sponsored by the Washtenaw County Medical Society and the County Health Department, are being held at various places in the county. To date some 1,048 children have been vaccinated. This includes children from one to 13 years who have not had measles or the vaccine. To date six clinics have been held. Health authorities point out that measles usually attack children from late winter to early spring. Parents are urged to take advantage of the clinics. One dose protects the child. There is no charge to the parents. Children are welcome at any of the clinics. If they miss the one in their community it will be fine for them to go to another location. The nearest one to Manchester still to be held will be in Saline at the Saline High School on the Saline-Ann Arbor Road. This clinic is slated for Saturday, Feb. 25th. There were 102 children who received the vaccine at the Manchester clinic held last Saturday and 134 at the clinic at Whitmore Lake.

Parking in Village to be Checked

Beginning March 1 the two-hour parking in the business area and off-street parking regulations will be strictly enforced, according to the police chief, Billy Wilson. Failure of motorists to comply with the village regulations has hampered snow removal during recent weeks. Village officials say that they hope that snow removal will not continue to plague Bruce Daniels, Supt. of Public Works and his crew but in the event of more snow they want to support the workmen in the clean-up effort. Violators will be fined.
