THE WATER SITUATION AND SOME OF THE PROBLEMS.....

Last week it was indicated that we had three problems to correct before we would have an adequate water system. To review:

1. Inadequate well capacity - the Macomb Street well is approaching no flow.
2. Rusty water - the iron filter cannot be connected to the stand-by well.
3. Low water pressure - small mains in the street and a low stand pipe on Ann Arbor Hill.

Our engineering consultants and the Citizens Water Study Committee have recommended a plan which should solve the present problems and allow for future growth without substantial additional costs. The main points of this plan involve:

1. A new well which would produce in excess of 500 gallons per minute (GPM).
2. Moving the present iron removal filters to the new well sight and acquiring additional filters. Piping the stand-by well on East Main Street to the iron filters.
3. A new water main system to surround the outer edges of the present developed areas with frequent connections to existing mains. This perimeter system would provide an additional river crossing, reduce pressure losses in existing mains, and eliminate the dead ends that we now have on many streets.
4. Erecting a new elevated water storage tank with substantially more capacity and positioned much higher than the stand pipe on Ann Arbor Hill.

As of this time three major steps of this plan have been completed:

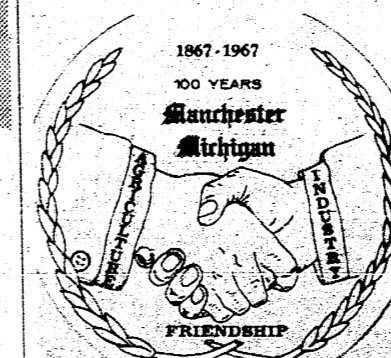

1. A new well was drilled on the old railroad property just east of Ann Arbor Hill. This well will produce at least 750 GPM when properly fitted with a pump. This is good water, with less mineral content than existing wells by actual tests.
2. Land was purchased from the County in the vicinity of this well so we would conform to State Health Department requirements for minimum land area necessary to isolate a public well site.
3. The old railroad right-of-way was bought which would permit low cost installation of a perimeter main, and allow convenient piping to connect the stand-by well to the iron filters.

COUNCIL APPROVES PROPOSED BUDGET

Centennial News

Seal Winner Announced

OFFICIAL SEAL

Robert Chapin, a senior at Manchester High School was proclaimed the winner for his original seal to be used on Manchester Centennial official communications.

His entry shows clasped hands - Agriculture and Industry and depicts how the two have worked together through a Century of Progress in the community.

There were 27 entries from the high school. Judges of the Centennial Committee said it was difficult to judge between the top ten.

Chapin received ten dollars for his efforts. The other nine in their order of merit rating are: Ray Meyer, Mike Randall, Michael Berry, Sandie Trolz, Myrtle Spaur, Richard Weir, Cindy Blossom, Carolyn Haab and David Westfall.

Village council approved the proposed budget at the regular meeting Monday. A good portion of the $118,975 was earmarked for maintenance and village operating, leaving little for any major improvements.

At the suggestion Herbert Mahony council moved to have the village engage William Brikle of Ann Arbor to audit the books. Prior to this time a Detroit firm has been doing the work which has necessitated taking the records out of town. Council agreed that it would be better to have the records kept in town for the convenience of the village clerk.

Irvin Gill, Centennial Committee Chairman, outlined the four major events which could highlight the Centennial year for the village to be: Memorial Day, 4th of July, Chicken Broil and Community Fair Week.

The kick-off will be the Burying of the Razor by the Broom of the Brush. Village president Gale Koebe suggested that it might be in keeping with the Centennial if the councilmen started to grow beards or mustaches to add flavor to the program.

There was also some discussion about a proposed police station and general village business office to be located on Main Street.

Police chief Bill Wilson said that if Manchester had such a place he believed that "it would be more than likely that the State would let Manchester have the driver licensing back." The Chief said that he believed that the money from this would more than likely absorb most of the cost.

LAND FILL PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN

A land fill for this area has been under consideration for some time for this area by the village council.

Various sites have been studied and a centrally located spot has been pin pointed. Borings have been taken. The best has been studied and the site has been offered to the four townships to solve their problems of a land fill site.

After due study the committee has reported to council that the share for the village is on a per capita basis and will amount to $1,300. In the townships Manchester, Freedom and Bridgewater will share equally at $830 and Sharon Township's share would be $630.

REGISTER FOR FAT LAMB CLUB

Applications for the Jaycee Lamb Club have to be in by March 23. These applications are available from High School principal, Chester Kocinski and students are urged to pick them up as soon as possible.

According to Jim Lyons, who is the Jaycee Club Chairman, the club is limited to 20 members. Students who have belonged in previous years will again have priority if they care to be in the club another year.

Lyons says that all the applications are put in a hat and the committee draws out enough to fill the vacancies.

The three applications that are left over from last year will have first consideration if the boys and girls wish to be in the lamb club.

Working with Lyons on the project is Stanley Poet of Bridgewater. The lambs are being raised on the Elmen Kopka farm and are a cross between Hampshire and Corriedale. The selection of the lambs are left to the governing board and are picked for uniformity. They will be ear-tagged and the club members will draw numbers sometime in April.

Cuddly, soft lambs are just waiting for new owners to claim them. They are on the Elmen Kopka farm. Jaycee Fat Lamb Club members are giving them the once over. Getting a preview are: (left to right) David Pratt and Leslie Kopka (9th graders), Luann Pratt (7th grade) and Karen Kopka (8th grade). Enjoying the anxious looks on the faces of the youngsters is James Lyon, Jaycee co-chairman of the Lamb Club.

On the Lamb Club Board are Ellis Pratt, Elmen Kopka, Maynard Blossom, Larry Kouba, Stanley Poet and Jim Lyon. The lambs will be sold at auction during the Community Fair in August.

BREAKFAST PLANNED

Last year's Father's Day breakfast at Carr Park was such a huge success that the Emil Jacob Post #117 American Legion will stage a repeat performance again this year.

The breakfast will get underway at 8 a. m. and serving will continue through the noon hour.

Don Sutton, committee chairman, says that the menu of scrambled eggs and ham was so much enjoyed that it will be repeated again. Plenty of hot coffee and rolls will be served. The date to remember is Sunday, June 18.

CITIZEN'S BAND MEETS HERE

The all-purpose room of the Nellie Ackerson School was the site Sunday of the first Manchester meeting of the Chelsea Citizens' Band Emergency Service.

This group is composed of Citizens Band Radio Operators from an area of about 20 miles' radius, centered around Chelsea.

Citizens' Band Radio is noted for its utility and extreme versatility in short range (up to 50 miles) communications, it being possible to saturate any area where other forms of communication have been interrupted with transmitters capable of handling messages on any of 23 available channels. This fills the gap between telephone service (non-existent in time of disaster) and ham radio service. This is also known as amateur radio service, which is better adapted to longer range, even transcontinental, or international message handling.

It is of interest that in the Palm Sunday tornadoes of recent memory, much initial local information was handled entirely by Citizens' Band radio operators manning mobile radios and "walkie-talkies", relaying information to base stations and then to Civil Defense and other emergency services.

In the event of disaster, this Chelsea Citizens' Band Emergency Service has communication capabilities with similar groups in Ann Arbor, Jackson, Lansing, State Police, Civil Defense and the Sheriff's Departments.

BANQUET AT EMANUEL CHURCH

Fathers and daughters of Emanuel Church ate well together and enjoyed a short-fellowship program on their banquet night.

Planning and work was done by the Women's Fellowship through the Circles.

The motif for decorations was a silhouette of a father and daughter which appeared on the front cover of the programs and in larger proportions on the centers of the tables along with red and white gum drop trees. A rose corsage was put at each place setting and everything came up roses as the guests were seated following grace by the Rev. Ralph Kuether.

After dinner a rousing song of thanks was sung to the "cooks" and program committee with Mrs. Kuether leading and Richard Knouase accompanying.

Toastmaster David Little welcomed the group and called on Max Walter for a toast to the daughters. Linda Walter responded with a tribute to fathers, after which fathers and daughters took turns singing to each other.

Mrs. Louis Vogel's two humorous readings, which revolved around young daughters, were the highlights of the program and were followed by recognitions by Tom Marshall.

Charles Wurster and Milton Grossman tied as fathers having the most daughters present. Each had four, however, Mr. Wurster had, in addition, five daughters-in-law and several granddaughters with him. Mr. Grossman had the youngest daughter, Rebecca 15 months.

The gift for the oldest daughter was put on the table to be picked up anonymously at the close of the program. There was a three-way tie for those daughters coming the greatest distance: Miss Kay Kuhl, Mrs. William Kulenkamp and Mrs. Russell Buss all came from Ann Arbor for the occasion.

The entire group joined in the Lord's Prayer as a fitting close for the evening. May 5 is the date for the Mothers and Sons Banquet.

SIGN-UP REQUIRED FOR WHEAT BENEFIT

Only those wheat growers who have signed up to participate in the 1967 wheat program will be eligible for price support loans and marketing certificates on their 1967 wheat crop. The sign-up deadline is March 17.

This further reminder was issued by Chairman Frank Light of the Michigan Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee, who said he is concerned for two reasons:

1. Sign-up so far would indicate that some farmers who said earlier they intended to participate have not yet signed up. ASCS county offices may not issue certificates under the program for accidental compliance. The farmer must declare his intention in advance by signing up in the program prior to the deadline date.

2. Farmers who wait until the last minute may find the ASCS county office crowded. This will cause farmers personal inconvenience because delays are inevitable if everyone tries to file program applications at the same time. Farmers who are interested in the wheat program should check with the county ASCS office as to how the program applies on their farm.

FARMERS NEED SMV EMBLEM BY MARCH 10

The red, triangular reflective emblem to designate slow-moving vehicles should be attached on all tractors and farm machinery used on highways by March 10. Richard Pfister, Michigan State University agricultural engineer, says the new Michigan law requiring such emblems becomes effective on that date.

He points to these rules: The emblem must be displayed, both day and night, when traveling on public roads.

It should be located on the rear of the equipment, centered if possible. The standard emblem should be mounted at a height of 3 to 5 feet to keep in the headlight beam range.

The emblem is only a supplement to adequate night lighting and side reflector requirements for slow-moving vehicles.

Use of the emblem is prohibited on trucks, cars, or any vehicle with a maximum speed potential of more than 25 miles per hour.

The emblem can be obtained from farm equipment dealers, and in many counties 4-H club members and vocational agriculture students have made them available to farmers.

Pfister said between 1963 and 1965 nearly 1,000 accidents involving farm tractors or equipment on public highways were reported in Michigan. In two out of three, the slow vehicle was hit from the rear. Nine of 10 took place in daylight hours and on open highways with good road, weather, and visibility conditions.

The motorists frequently failed to recognize a slow-moving vehicle in time to avoid a collision.

Pfister thinks the SMV emblem's unique color and shape will communicate "danger," as does a railroad "crossbuck."

Spring Adult Swim Classes Announced

The American Red Cross with the cooperation of the Ann Arbor Recreation Department will offer a Spring session of swimming instruction classes for adult residents of Washtenaw County.

Sanford Dombos, Chairman of the Water Safety Committee of the Washtenaw Chapter of Red Cross, announced that this co-educational program will be held at the Ann Arbor High School Pool under the direction of Joyce Ann Butcko, a veteran Water Safety Instructor. Miss Butcko will be aided by volunteer Water Safety Instructors: Jean Knutson; Sandford Carson; Donald Macaulay; Dennis Walcott and Constance Amick.

The American Red Cross developed this program seven years ago to enable adults to learn to swim without having to worry about the children. Classes are open to anyone 18-years and over no matter what their classification is as a swimmer. Those that are non-swimmers are especially urged to enroll for safety reasons, said Dombos.

The class will meet Wednesday night beginning March 22 from 7 to 8:30 p. m. and will run for eight weeks. There will be no charge for instruction but a $2.00 fee is requested by the Recreation Department to cover lockers. Participants should bring along their own suits, towels, caps for women and shower shoes.

The administrative costs of this Red Cross Service are provided through United Campaign contributions. To enroll in the course, call the American Red Cross at 662-5546 and register now for the class is limited.

NOTICE

Dear Pauline:
The BEN FRANKLIN store Toy Department is a very lively place! While I was waiting for you, one kid trying out a croquet mallet whacked me on the shin. Then two of them rushed up with those kid doctor and nurse outfits and before I knew it I had band-aids stuck all over me. While I was peeling them off, I found myself in the line of fire between two secret agents both of whom were armed with water pistols. I guess you must have come in while I was standing by the radiator to dry off. . . . PLEASE meet me in the BEN FRANKLIN store next Saturday. Did you know about the special they are having on Nylon sheer head SCARFS --- three for 90c Love, Marvin

CRAZY DAYS ARE COMING IN APRIL

Extensive Study Underway For Pool

Manchester Area Swimming Pool Committee, headed by David Little, is working with a view toward bringing Manchester and the surrounding area closer to a long-standing dream of a swimming facility available near at hand.

At this first meeting of the entire committee considerable progress was made toward gathering necessary information for study of the problems in development of a local swimming facility best suited to the community needs.

Major sub-chairmen were appointed to gather information and factual material, and to head subdivisions of the main committee in the investigation of different types of swimming facilities, their organizational, administrative and constructional requirements.

It is planned that in the near future that members of the committee's subdivision will visit established swimming facilities in this immediate area, and possibility of visits to more remote areas outside are under consideration.

Fitting it is that in our community's Centennial Year, signs of progress and thought for the future are becoming evident in this area, as well as in many promising fields of local endeavor.

Joe Fitzgerald was named to investigate the artificial lakes; Mrs. Floyd Parr the outdoor pools and Clarence Fielder the large enclosed pool.

Representatives named to the original committee are following representatives: Village-Joe Fitzgerald and Lauren Huber; Manchester township-Jim Lyon and Leo Lentz; Sharon township-Mrs. Reno Feldkamp and Robert Brunelle; Freedom township-Paul Boehler and Alger Clark Jr.; Bridgewater township-Mrs. Floyd Parr and Roger Hardenbergh.

Century Club's Gift Beautify's Main St.

The Centennial Celebration for Manchester will get underway with a parade Saturday, March 18.

This will be just ahead of Main Street decoration on Sunday.

The Twentieth Century Club here has purchased six "Baskets of Blossoms" after a year of fund raising projects.

Peonies and ferns are the choice for the spring arrangement. These baskets of blossoms will be hung from special holders along Main Street. It is the hope of the Club that the cheery flowers will beautify the down town area and bring pleasure to all who see them.

Periodically the flowers will be changed to coincide with the with the four seasons of the year.

MANCHESTER WILL EXCHANGE WITH FRANKLIN

Manchester has been paired with Franklin for Mayor Exchange Day during the Michigan Week Celebration, May 21 to 27.

Chelsea will exchange with Lathrup Village; Clinton with Grand Beach; Saline with Hudson and Tecumseh with St. Joseph.

This will be the 14th annual Michigan Week.

A note of interest is that Michigan stands alone in holding a celebration of this type.

THE WATER SITUATION AND SOME OF THE PROBLEMS

We have been asked to furnish more details on the slowly dying main well on Macomb street. Many know that when the pump on this well has been turned off for an hour, it is a free flowing well. Like many other wells in that area, it will free flow in excess of 5 GPM. More than enough to serve two or three families.

In fact the ground is saturated with water at the Macomb well area. The problem is how to get it out of the ground fast enough to satisfy the demand for water. Unfortunately, soil conditions defies even modern well equipment.

The Macomb soil at well depths is made up of fine particles which migrate towards the well as water is removed. These particles not only clog the well screen but pack the soil in the well area causing a great restriction to water flow. The density of this packed soil increases with use and covers an even broader area as water is removed at continuous high flow rates. Originally, this well produced in excess of 200 GPM; now only 35 GPM and dropping as soil packing increases.

Test borings in the Macomb area show identical soil problems as exist at the well sight, making it necessary to go elsewhere for water. Rejuvenating procedures, as stated in the first article, provide temporary improvement, but our demand for water is now so high that improvement would only last a few days at best.

The demand for water has more than doubled in the village during the last ten years. Industrial and commercial use has increased considerably, but the domestic increase has more than doubled. Automatic washers, garbage disposals, increased population are just a few reasons.

Had we not had this increased demand, the Macomb well would be more than adequate today. The small particles which pack the soil only migrate in volume at continuous high flow rates.

The main concern of the village council is in getting the new well on Ann Arbor hill into operation as soon as possible. Water use this winter has at times exceeded well capacity, and the stand-pipe water level dropped quite low. Summer water use is so high that severe water use restrictions will have to be imposed if this new well is not stream before warm weather arrives.
