Memorial Day Plans Aired

Plans are now complete for the Memorial Day parade, according to Al Gaige, commander of Emil Jacob Post 117, American Legion.
Gaige said that there have been so many erroneous reports circulated concerning the plans that he wants "everyone to know right away just what we are going to do."
The Memorial Day parade will be the same this year as it has been in the past he explained.

The parade will form at 9:30 a. m. at the Main Street bridge where flowers will be thrown in the Raisin River in memory of those who gave their lives in the navy. Leading the parade will be the High School Band, Legion Members, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Cavers and Junior Auxiliary members.

There will be a short service at Wurster Park with a few words by Commander Gaige and a prayer by Rev. Stanley McKenzie of Lansing, who is pastor of the Norvell Baptist Church. The flag will be raised at Wurster Park.
The parade will continue to Oak Grove Cemetery where Rev. McKenzie will deliver the address. The firing squad will be under the direction of John Bivins, Sgt. at Arms.

James Kensler, custodian of the graves will have some 210 flags placed on the graves in the various area cemeteries prior to Memorial Day.
After the memorial service at Oak Grove the Legion members will go to Norvell Cemetery where they will decorate graves.
"Around noon, when the Legion returns to Manchester, an old-fashioned picnic will be held at Carr Park and the two Manchester Bands, under the direction of R. C. Sottor will play two concerts," Gaige said.
"By old-fashioned picnic we mean the kind that is packed at home by families. Where they will eat what they bring-but the families will join together for a picnic. There will not be any foods or beverages sold at the Park. People are invited to wear centennial costumes if they want to."
"Somewhere some people have been misinformed. There will not be any floats of any kind. We may have antique cars taking some of the Legion members who are unable to walk and there might be auxiliary police on horseback but this is all," Gaige related.

DRAIN COMMISSIONER GOES BACK TO HOSPITAL

John H. Flook, Washtenaw County Drain Commissioner, entered University of Michigan Hospital, Ann Arbor on May 11 for vascular surgery to restore the circulation in his right leg.

The operation is similar to the one he had in December, 1964, which resulted in amputation of his left foot.

Mr. Flook said the upcoming surgery is complicated by injuries to his right leg which occurred at the same time his right hand was amputated in an airplane accident while he was a Navy pilot in 1949.

Flook pointed out that during his absence his office will be operated so as not to delay the multi-million dollar drain construction programs in Washtenaw County.

Mrs. Agnes Turner, Deputy in Flook's office for 20 years, will be in regular communication with him in the hospital as the situation warrants. She will have Murray J. Knowles, consulting engineer, and former drain commissioner to supervise engineering and construction problems which may occur.

On legal matters, she will have Chester Pierce, foremost authority in Michigan on Drain Law, and legal consultant for the Association of Drain Commissioners as her advisor. No additional cost to the County is involved, Flook said. In addition, the Washtenaw County Prosecutor's Office will be available.

Most of the major drain projects are under the jurisdiction of the County Drainage Board, which consists of Flook as chairman, Bent Nielsen, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and J. Martin Rempel, chairman of the Board of Auditors.

Flook said that Mrs. Turner, with other members of the Drainage Board, will be able to carry on with the engineering and legal assistance which he has provided during his absence. At the present time there are ten major drain projects in engineering or construction, with an estimated total cost of three million dollars. Five engineering firms and six contractors are handling this work which has recently been requested by local municipalities.

YOUTHPOWER TO PROVIDE TEEN-AGERS WITH JOBS

Youthpower, a non-profit clearing house for teenage summer job opportunities, is starting its third summer in this area.

Sponsored by University Micro-filming, Conductron, Hoover Ball and Bearing Co. and Manpower, Inc., Youthpower is a summer project started to combat juvenile delinquency, reduce high school dropouts and develop the potential of teenagers.

Last year, 550 teen-agers filled 549 job openings which were offered through summer job placement service. Youthpower provides students the opportunity to develop, operate and administer their own clearing house of job opportunities.

Young people from 16 to 21 years may apply at the Youthpower office for jobs, mostly of an unskilled nature. The organization serves to bring teen-agers seeking employment together with prospective employers of young people. Prospective employers may place their job requests by contacting the local office.

This year the office of Youthpower will be in the new Kiwanis Activities Building at 200 S. First Street, Ann Arbor. The new quarters which is expected to materially help the summer project, were donated to Youthpower by the Ann Arbor Kiwanis.

Edmund Berchert, 31, of Ann Arbor has been appointed the adult advisor for the program this year. He intends to contact all civic organizations and larger employers in the area to ask them to refer their requirements to Youthpower.

Berchert, besides soliciting the help of the community in general for its support of the program, plans to contact all of the high schools in Washtenaw County in the next few weeks.

From May 22 to June 3, volunteers at Youthpower will be answering phones and linking up job requests for youngsters from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. daily. The Youthpower phone number is the same as last year, 761-5000.

Students, looking for a job, may register from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on June 3rd and 4th. Over 400 youngsters are expected to register for summer jobs during the two days.

Summer hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day.

TO MEET

The Iron Creek Missionary society will meet Thursday, May 18 at the Iron Creek Church.

MRS. GOTTIEB JACOB

Funeral services were held Monday at 1:30 p.m. for Mrs. Gottlieb Jacob at the Jenter Funeral Home. The Rev. Ralph Kuehler officiated. Burial was in the North Sharon Cemetery.

Mrs. Jacob, age 76 years, formerly of Manchester, died Friday night at the Roberts Rest Home in Parma. She was born Feb. 6, 1891 in Freedom township, the daughter of Jacob and Rosina Bristle Schauble.

She was married to Gottlieb Jacob on August 12, 1912. He preceded her in death in 1965.

Mrs. Jacob was a member of Emanuel United Church of Christ in Manchester.

She is survived by one son Robert of Parma and one daughter Mrs. Rose Northley of Sharon township; 13 grandchildren; two nephews, Oscar Schauble of Hamlet, Ohio and Theodore Schauble of Ann Arbor; and one sister, Anita Landwehr of Chelsea. She was preceded in death by one son, Walter.

WED IN DOUBLE RING CEREMONY

Mrs. George P. Johnson

Mary Kay Schaible and George P. Johnson exchanged their wedding vows at the Emanuel United Church of Christ at seven o'clock Saturday, May 6.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Ralph L. Kuehler before an altar decorated with bouquets of white glads and lighted candelabra. Roger Morrison sang accompanied by Mrs. Royal Davider at the organ. The selections were "Because" and "Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Adolph F. Schaible of Dexter, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and Alencon lace with a scalloped neckline and short sleeves. The empire bodice was of Alencon lace. The A line skirt was accented with wide inserts of lace down the front. The detachable court train was edged with Alencon-lace.

Her three tiered elbow length veil was of forward style and was held by organza roses and Alencon lace. She carried white roses and Stephanotis accented with yellow netting.

Sally L. Schaible of Manchester, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Earl Roehm of Clinton, Maryland, Mrs. Harold Kuzelman of Chelsea and Mrs. James Settle of Manchester. All of the attendants wore yellow and gold chiffon over taffeta. They were fashioned with empire waists and floor-length skirts accented with bows at the back which extended to trains. Their headpieces were pill boxes which matched their gowns and they carried cascade arrangements of purple asters.

Serving his brother as best man was Thomas P. Johnson. Guests were seated by Harry Johnson, brother of the bridegroom and Peter Minor and Frank Randall, all of Manchester.

Receptions were held at the church hall and at the Sportsman's Club. Mrs. Frank Randall, sister of the bridegroom and Mrs. Harry Johnson cut the wedding cake. Others assisting were Miss Amanda Schaible of Manchester, the bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert Kensler, sister of the bridegroom, of Manchester and Mrs. George Baughey of Tecumseh. Mrs. William Minor of Manchester had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Sue Gilloz of Manchester had charge of gifts.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Schaible wore aqua linen with beige accessories and Mrs. Johnson wore turquoise lace with black accessories. They both wore yellow orchids.

After a trip through the south the couple will live at 301 E. Main Street, Manchester.

A rehearsal dinner was held at Bill Cones in Jackson. Prior to the wedding Mrs. D. E. Limpert and Mrs. Charles Lund entertained at a linen shower; Mrs. Don Walter, Mrs. Settle and Mrs. Roehm at a kitchen shower and Mrs. Frank Randall, Mrs. Baughey entertained at a miscellaneous shower.

COUNTY LIBRARY TO HAVE NEW HOME

What to do with the Washtenaw County library has been a question for sometime. The library, scheduled for eviction July 1 from the Ann Arbor Public Library basement is to be housed in a rented building at 2232 S. Industrial Highway, Ann Arbor, according to Mrs. F. M. Reck of Manchester member of the county library board.

Rent for the 4,800 square foot will be $800 a month.

This is pointed out to be especially suited for housing the bookmobile and large quantities of shelved books and offices. The county is considering building a new library on the county farm property.

Problems arose last November when voters turned down a bond issue for a County Building Court addition even though the legislature had created two new courts which will be taking space in the county building. So an overflow office building is needed. This will be purchased from the County Road Commission for $102,000. Its remodeling cost has been estimated at $256,000. The building is on 2.6 acres of land on N. Main Street limits in Ann Arbor.

Although it is pointed out that the remodeling and developing of the building might bring the cost to compare with that of a new building, the amount of land available with the building for parking and the resale value make it a good investment, according to Supr. Robert Harrison, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

At least for the present the county library will have a "new" home and there will be added space for the offices from the County Building overflow.

ORATORICAL CONTEST WINNER

ORATOR - Jan Huber, 14, an eighth grader in the Manchester Schools, was honored recently by the Optimist Club for the best oration in a contest covering "Patriotic Citizenship Needs Optimism." He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huber.

When you look for the most room and the smoothest ride and the best value, you'll end up with a Chevrolet wagon everytime.

Chevrolet Impala roomiest in its class. If you want proof, look at the station wagon. Turn to the second page to see how people buy wagon alone. So see where it counts. Consider a station wagon. Chevrolet depends on dry rocker panels finish as business.

Chevelle Malibu, smoother, quieter ride.

A Malibu not only gives you a Full Coil suspension ride, but the body mountings are double-cushioned to insulate you against road noise and vibration. And it carries plenty - families or full-size cargoes. It opens wide. 54.6 inches, to be exact, 28.5 inches high. Flip the second seat down and you've got 86 cubic feet of cargo space for all your gear. And a tough vinyl covering on that big load floor to protect Chevelle and everything it carries.

Chevy II Nova, best equipped for the money.

On the Chevy II Nova Wagon, all-vinyl upholstery is standard. Flush-and-dry rocker panels that clean themselves are standard. Separate panels beneath each fender to inhibit rust are standard. An energizer-type battery with a magic-eye to tell when it needs water is standard. Mono-Plate rear suspension to smooth the ride is standard. Coated rubber mat to protect cargo floor is standard. Price? Below standard.

OPEN HOUSE AT POLICE POST

A reminder that open house will be held at the Clinton post of the State Police on Wednesday, May 24 has been given by Sgt. Carl Anderson, commander. This will be the eleventh annual open house and is of special significance because this year the State Police celebrate fifty years.

Visiting hours at the post will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and everyone is invited. We hope there will be a good turnout. Sergeant Anderson said, "This is a special opportunity to see how a post operates and the services performed. Officers will act as guides." The post is located at 322 E. Michigan Avenue. In addition to the reception there will be an exhibit. Similar programs are being held at all other posts.

SPEEDWAY OPENS FOR SEASON

The Manchester Speedway will open its sixth year Friday, May 12 with time trials at 7 p.m. and racing at 8:30 p.m. Races are scheduled for each Friday with Sunday as a rain date. According to Veryl Schill, owner-manager of the Speedway, in the event of Sunday races the schedule will be moved up an hour earlier.

The first races six years ago saw 15 cars on the 3/8 mile high bank leay track compared to the 80 which ran last year. It is expected that 100 cars will be racing this year. Schill said that it took 2,000 gallons of liquid chloride and some 3,500 gallons of oil from oil fields near Hanover to condition the track. More clay had to be hauled in—as much as a foot deep in places, Schill said. More retaining wall on the inside of the track has been added for safety of those in the pits. Pit stewards are Duane Kuebler of Bridgewater, Tom Mills of Jackson and Bill Minor of Manchester. Mrs. Tom Mills is the Speedway nurse. Timing is by the State Timing Service of Lansing and Donald Hunt of Battle Creek is the flag man. Cars will be checked by Paul Morley of Tekonsha and Manchester's Mike Wolfe will be in charge of the tickets.

Washtenaw County draft boards will order a total of 22 registrants to report for induction into the Army in June.

The June call for Ann Arbor Board No. 85 is 12 and the Ypsilanti Board No. 341 will provide 10 men.

The county quota is part of a total of 1,174 for the state—the largest draft call since last November when 2,923 registrants were ordered for induction.

In addition to those reporting for regular induction, 162 limited service registrants who are now acceptable under Defense Department standards will be called, said Col. Arthur A. Holmes, State Selective Service director.

Holmes said preinduction physical examinations will be resumed during May and June. The exams had not been held since January due to lack of funds.

Induction calls are being filled with volunteers and single registrants and those married after Aug. 26, 1965, ages 19 through 25, with the oldest available registrant selected first.

The May call totaled 1,009.

Open Letter to The People of Manchester

Dear Manchester District Dweller:

This is a progress report on the Manchester "Dollars for Scholars" program. The response to this date has been encouraging. But the amount received is not large enough to meet all anticipated loan requests. For the information of those who have already contributed and for the encouragement of those we hope will contribute within the next ten days, I would like to give you the following details.

Manchester High School seniors who have plans for after high school schooling but who need additional aid will be invited to present their applications to Dollars for Scholars sometime this month. Such application blanks are already in the hands of Mr. Chester Kocesk. Then during the first week of June a special Awards Committee will meet. This committee will not even know the names of the persons applying.

They will have before them applications which the students made but will judge the loans to be granted strictly on the merits of the application with no personalities involved.

Now, of course, this makes two things evident. First, we ought to have the funds on hand before the Awards Committee meets, that is before June 1st. Secondly, we need the support of all the citizens. Have you hesitated in sending your contribution because you thought it was past time? Your gift is still most welcome. It is needed now. Won't you enclose your gift in an envelope addressed to DOLLARS FOR SCHOLARS, 210 W. Main Street, Manchester and send it at least by Saturday, May 27th?

Thank you on behalf of the Manchester students whose cause you will be aiding.

Sincerely yours,
Fr. Raymond R. Schlinkert
Chairman Manchester Dollars for Scholars

School Needs Additional 5 Mills Operational

At a special election on Monday, May 29 voters in the Manchester School District will be asked to approve an additional five mills for operation of the school system for the 1967-68 school year.

For the past several years the voters have approved the extra millage for operation of the schools.

The State equalized valuation in the Manchester School District has increased from $17,041,399 to $21,694,651. The same amount of millage, both extra voted and allocated will bring in about a $75,000 increase. The proposed budget for the 1967-68 school year projects the additional need of $98,400 over the 66-67 budget.

School officials say that if the "state equalized valuation had remained at last year's level, it would have been necessary for the board to ask for a total of 9 1/4 mills of extra levy to provide the same amount of dollars.

A thousand dollars of assessed valuation in Manchester Township amounts to $2,500 on state

Leave it to Pontiac to take the mediocrity out of car deals. You see, Pontiac dealers aren't limiting you to a so-called "special" deal on a so-called "special" car.

Their specials carry names like Firebird, GTO, Le Mans, Grand Prix, Bonneville, 2+2, Executive and Catalina.

If all that sounds like your Pontiac dealer has great cars, you're getting the message. Now all you need is the great deal.

You can get that at your Pontiac dealer's today.

Only Pontiac dealers have both.
