

Township Concerned With Mobile Homes

The Manchester Township Board has become concerned with the influx of mobile homes into the Township in recent months. At a recent meeting the Board asked their legal counsel to check the zoning ordinance pertaining to "special use permits". This zoning ordinance was adopted as a permanent ordinance in 1960 and is similar to what is used in several other townships. The Township Board was advised that certain minor changes in the wording would correct several clerical errors and it was recommended that the discretionary power pertaining to "special use permits" be made specific as to time limit. This suggested change is in keeping with the intent and purpose of the zoning ordinance re-

Proposed Elementary School is Election Issue

The big question for the annual school election is the $650,000 bond issue to obtain funds to construct an elementary school where there is an immediate need for six elementary classrooms. Children are currently attending classes in a local church.

Some of the questions asked the School Board are answered here.

What is the additional cost of the proposed building to the school district?

This bond issue, together with other financing for operational purposes and previous debt issues, will not require more than one mill increase in the school tax levy over last year (1966-67).

School officials point out that another question asked them is: Why is it necessary to acquire 53 acres of land for an elementary building?

The Manchester School District, by all standards is deficient in school acreage. All four buildings are set on a little over 27 acres. State requirements today would necessitate a minimum of 75 acres for these buildings.

The proposed acreage will not only take care of the immediate building needs, it will also accommodate future school requirements which could conceivably be other buildings, athletic areas or vocational educational projects.

Another question concerns the spending of money for the school site. Has the school district spent any money on this potential site?

Their answer is "Yes." In order to obtain an option it was necessary to spend $2,000. An additional $2,900 was spent to secure both a topographical and boundary survey in order to meet architect's requirements, according to Superintendent of Schools, Robert Swartz.

He explains that if the option is to be extended beyond a six month's period (and this will occur if the bond issue fails) then an additional $1,500 will be expended to renew the option. The Superintendent explained that the school district has spent about $4,900 on this project out of operational monies.

If the bond issue fails the district would lose about $4,900 and from an educational viewpoint it would lose much more because the elementary and junior high classrooms will be overcrowded. Classes will have to be held in make-shift areas instead of regular classrooms. If the bond issue should fail it might become necessary to hold double-sessions or other types of limited scheduling in order to house all students, the superintendent said.

If the election is successful the kindergarten through the fourth grade will be housed in this building. Grades five through eight will be in the Nellie Ackerson and Intermediate Buildings. Pleasant Lake schools will continue to accommodate the kindergarten through fourth grade from that area.

With the addition of the new facility school officials say that enrollment increases will be taken care of for the next five to ten years, with normal growth. The new building will be located toward the front of the site just back an appropriate distance from the dwellings and barn located on the site. This site was picked because it was more favorable to utilities, services and other items owned by the school district.

With the new building, the total school tax levy will be 21.50 or an increase of 1 mill over last year's 20.50.

In dollars and cents this one mill increase amounts to: Bridgewater $2.21 on $1,000 assessed valuation; Freedom $2.45 Manchester $2.50 and Sharon $3.15. These are the major townships involved. School officials point out that this one mill increase should not be confused with the 1.98 per $1,000 on State Equalized Valuation.

Only taxpaying electors may vote on this proposal, a property owner residing in the district, a person purchasing under a land contract residing in the district or the owner of assessed personal property residing in the district.

For additional information relative to the bond issue the superintendent's office will be more than glad to answer any questions. It is pointed out that the plans and design for the proposed building are tentative and not necessarily final.

Under terms of state legislation this must be a long-term issue scheduled for repayment in a period of at least 25 years.

Howell Racer in Serious Condition After Crash

Harold Schill, 27, of Howell, suffered serious injuries Friday night when his car rolled over on the third lap of the pursuit race at the Manchester Speedway.

He was taken to Herick Hospital in Tecumseh and transferred to the University of Michigan Medical Center at Ann Arbor where he is in the intensive care unit. Monday afternoon he was taken to surgery when the concussion failed to clear. He suffered internal injuries. Extent of the injuries could not be determined immediately.

His car went out of control as three were rounding a curve. No other car was involved as his car flipped.

Whitmore Lake's Duane Valentine led all drivers with three victories. He won the 25-lap feature, the first heat and was the victor in the pursuit.

Jackson drivers took four first places. Glen Stevens won the 25-lap Super Stock feature while Ed Todd captured the third heat, Bob McVay took the fifth heat and Bill Bremer annexed the SuperStock pursuit.

Miss Bonnie Burkhardt Tapped Into Honorary Circle at MSU

Miss Bonnie Burkhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Burkhardt, 14481 Pleasant Lake Road, was among the 50 coeds at Michigan State University who were recently tapped into Circle Honorary.

Circle Honorary is a society that honors coeds for service and leadership in residence halls at MSU. Among the many projects that Circle Honorary sponsors during the year are the handling of information booths during Welcome Week and a head advisor tea. Next year they will also be helping in the selection of head advisors for the residence halls.

Bonnie, who lives in Wilson Hall, was selected for Circle Honorary because of the many contributions she has made to the hall and the University during the two years she has been at MSU.

She will serve as the vice president of the organization next year.

This year Bonnie is the president of Spartan Roundtable and Women's Inter-residence Council. Tower Guard tapped Bonnie last spring and she has been active in it this year. Membership to Tower Guard is limited to 40.

The coeds are chosen from among the 100 freshmen who stand at the top of their class scholastically at the end of the spring term. Tower Guard promotes leadership, scholarship, service and character among sophomore women. Their services include reading to blind students, tutoring and assistance at registration.

Bonnie, who is a member of honors college, was initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta last year. A 3.5 grade point at the end of the first term of the freshman year is required for membership into this national scholastic honorary.

In addition to her other activities, Bonnie is serving on a committee to set up judicial processes in residence halls under the academic freedom report.

Next year Bonnie is going to be a resident assistant in Wilson Hall. Bonnie, a '65 graduate of Manchester High School, is majoring in social science at MSU.

BRIM-FULL AND BOUNTIFUL

Brim, or bream (depending upon where you happen to be wetting a line at the time) have an annoying habit that makes them tops for fishermen particularly at this time of year.

The numerous members of this panfish tribe seem predisposed toward breeding themselves out of existence.

With the bluegills bedding and the pumpkinseeds proliferating, the prudent angler can do a good turn for both himself and the brim, claim the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards.

To exploit the clannish ways of nesting sunfish, thoroughly explore the shallows. Seldom are beds found in water over eight to ten feet deep. These beds may consist of a colony of several dozen nests, yet they may not take up an area eight feet square or circular.

Since it's sometimes difficult to pinpoint them in larger bodies of water, drift slowly while casting a worm or small minnow methodically on each side of the boat's path.

At the first bubble, ease down the anchor and work the area with care. You may load a stringer at that very spot.

Best ammunition for brim on the beds is worms. Take plenty and fish them on the bottom.

Rarely is it possible to overfish brim populations, even when fishing the beds. The females see to that - they can lay more than 60,000 eggs and may spawn up to three times in a season. Since the male is responsible for guarding the nest, he's the one most likely to get caught.

So, do the fish a favor, urge the Mercury folks. Catch a mess of brim. A platterful on the table will convince you that you've done a favor for yourself, too.

Our man with the Armed Forces

Because beer is such a favorite with service men, we brewers like to do all we can to keep its surroundings right. So USBA representatives serve as adviser members of the Armed Forces Disciplinary Control Boards throughout the country.

These men from the USBA operate hand in hand with service and civilian police, with malt beverage licensees, public boards and committees: military, civil, professional. Object: to protect those who are underage, and to insure strict observance of the law.

We're proud of the work they do.

NOTICE

Dear Marvin:
I remember what happened last time I tried to meet you in BEN FRANKLIN'S stationery department! so I gave the kids a good talking to about not touching things on the counter and everything was fine until Davy began crying and I found the twins had got themselves and Davy and Debby all tangled up in scotch tape (they didn't take it off the counter - they found it on the floor!) well it took us quite a while to get all the pieces of tape off their clothes and out of their hair - and that apparently was how we missed you again. But please try to meet me next Saturday, Marvin. Ben Franklin has 8 x 10 inch Photo Frames Regularly 98 c-on sale for 66 c

BENEFIT SPEEDWAY RACE FOR SCHILL FRIDAY

A benefit Speedway Race is slated for Friday, June 16 at the Manchester Speedway with time trials at 7 and racing at 8:30 p. m. The entire purse will be donated to Harold Schill, 27 years, of Howell who was critically injured at a race at the Speedway in June 2.

Last Friday following the races, one of the drivers, Sheriff Douglas Harvey (Washtenaw County) was discussing with the drivers that they might do to aid the injured driver. He suggested that they might give a part of a percentage of the purse to him.

The Sheriff said, "The boys not only went along with the suggestion but they voted a hundred percent to donate the entire purse to Schill. They are a good-hearted bunch of drivers."

The Washtenaw Sheriff is promoting the benefit race and is inviting some of the top names in the racing field to race at the speedway Friday night. The Sheriff says that there will be drivers from Toledo, Ohio, Flat Rock, Angola, Ind. and many other places-donating their efforts to this charity race.

"Drivers who have never been to the Manchester Speedway will be there and it promises to be an outstanding race. Don't forget that there is a Sunday night program in the event of rain," Harvey said.

The Washtenaw Sheriff often drives at the local Speedway--if someone furnishes him with a car. He drove in the race which followed the one in which Schill was injured on June 2. But he doesn't race for personal gain.

Schill has been racing for the past eight or nine years and raced at Angola, Indiana and the Butler Speedway before his father opened the speedway here six years ago. He remains in a semi-conscious condition at University Hospital.

PUBLIC BREAKFAST FIT FOR A KING

Breakfast for dad! The second annual Father's Day breakfast will be held from 8 a. m. to noon at Carr Park, Sunday, June 18 sponsored by Emil Jacob Post with Don Sutton, chairman.

Under the watchful eye of Fritz Wurster eggs will be scrambled to a turn in king sized frying pans. John Bivins heads the sausage detail and there will be gallons of freshly brewed coffee.

Ice cold tomato juice & breakfast rolls round out the menu fit for a king. And kings will be served. The Legion hopes this will be a family affair. Last year some 600 attended.

The event will be in the big pavillion. Profits will be used to help purchase new Legion uniforms.

VOTERS APPROVE BOND ISSUE HERE: RE-ELECT BOARD MEMBERS

FLAGS AVAILABLE FOR JULY 4th

Anybody need a flag? Local Post has too many! Early this year Emil Jacob Post, American Legion decided to see if they could muster up enough interest to have the merchants, especially along the Main Street area display the Stars and Stripes 10 or 12 times a year.

Chairman Chuck Steele and his committee would be responsible for putting up, taking down and storing same on a contract basis. They received the cooperation of nearly one hundred per cent of the merchants. The bank ordered three!

Forty were ordered from a flag company in Fort Dodge, Iowa to be delivered before May 30.

The truck carrying the flags burned near Chicago. No flags! But this week not only forty that were ordered arrived but a duplicate shipment.

While awaiting orders from the company for disposition of the second order some of the membership wonders if residents might want to purchase one of the 4 x 6 foot flags, complete with 12 ft. pole and holder. Those interested might contact the committee, Charles Steele, Don Stockwell, Bob Popkey, George Koda and Ed Steele.

QUEEN JUDGING

Who's the fairest of them all? That will be the decision of the judges when they name the centennial queen in ceremonies at 7:30 p. m. in the Junior High Civic Auditorium Saturday, June 17.

Vieing for the post are Marcia Hieber, Donna Gilbert, Pat Roberts, Betty Cox, Marlene Hudkins, Francis Eckles, Sandy Trolz, Donna Braun, Vickie Roberts, Carol Way, Pam Lamb and Sally Schaible.

Candidates are asked to wear centennial costumes which will play a part in the decision of the judges as they select the queen and her court. These girls will reign over all centennial festivities.

A centennial dance will follow the crowning at the auditorium with Wackenhut's orchestra furnishing music from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m.

The voters also reelected two school board members, Luther Klager 338 and Lauren Leeson with 285 for four-year terms on the Board of Education.

Defeated were Mrs. Rita Limpert with 180 and Richard E. Way with 214.

Klager was first elected to the school board in 1945 and has been president since 1953.

Leeson, elected in 1948 served as treasurer for two years before holding the office of secretary for 17 years.

JAYCEE SCHOLARSHIP

Miss Carol Westfall has been selected by the Manchester Jaycees as the year's recipient of the Jaycee Scholarship. This year the scholarship is $200.

Carol was selected from 13 seniors of the Manchester High School graduating Class, who applied.

Carol has been accepted by Michigan State University where she plans to pursue the education required for the teaching field. She is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Stein and the late Mr. Wm. Westfall.
