In the report about the "single district" plan is, "Although some trends indicate that such a district may be the only ultimate solution, it is not viewed as the best solution at this time."

- 1. There is little favorable sentiment among school board members and superintendents for a county-wide system at this time. 2. The potential "deadening" effect of bureaucracy which is considered inherent in large districts. 3. The combination of a large geographic area (about 720 square miles) and an approximate enrollment of 47,500 students would create problems which would make a "single county district" difficult to manage.

The existing organization of districts is much more satisfactory for elementary school instruction than for junior and senior high school programs. All districts in the Washtenaw County Intermediate School District (WCISD) have a sufficient number of elementary pupils to be organized on a two or three section basis.

Two major community centers would be located in the proposed West Washtenaw district - Chelsea with a population of 3,650 and Manchester with a population of 1,660. The two communities are connected by M-52, a paved, two-lane highway.

The report said that Chelsea has a good industrial base and indications are that the growth of small industry will continue. I-94 Expressway near the south boundary line of the town will encourage further industrial growth.

idea that a school which has too small an enrollment will not be able to provide a quality education for its students. Grinstead's study:

"Proponents for small schools and small school districts are numerous and many of their claims may be well-founded. A small school may provide benefits to pupils which cannot be measured or evaluated. But the issue of pupil achievement, graduates of small schools, on the average achieve significantly below the graduates of large schools. If there are advantages of attendance at a small school, they are brought at the price of poor quality in the academic aspects of the school program."

Enrollment at Manchester High School total was 231 from 10-12 and Chelsea was 421. By combining the two districts, a high school can be created which would have a potential enrollment of 1,000 students in about 10 years. In addition, one junior high school of about the same size or two junior high schools of about 500 students each would be possible.

Combining Manchester and Chelsea would really create the smallest of the four proposed districts. The estimated enrollment by 1978-79 would be 4,043. The largest district proposed is the North Central Washtenaw to include Ann Arbor with about 21,000 students.

County Assigns Tax Load

Tax payers in Washtenaw County will be paying a total of $5,017,623.78 this winter for county operations. The full amount was apportioned by the County Board of Supervisors among the county's three cities and twenty townships according to the amount of property valuation contained in each unit.

The tax will be collected at a rate of 5.78921 mills ($5,789 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation). This includes 5.42 mills for operating expenses, and two voted taxes for bonded projects. The County Building bond retirement is .25383 of a mill and another .11338 of a mill for Juvenile Court Center bond retirement.

Total state equalized valuation of the county is $866,720,254. Ypsilanti Township will collect 19.8 per cent of the total, Ypsilanti city, 8.7 per cent, and other governmental units will collect lesser amounts.

The money collected will be used to cover a 1968 county budget of $5,973,919 of which some $4,693,819 will come from the 5.42 mill general tax levy. The remainder of the budget will be supported by the estimated year-end balance of $650,000 and non-tax revenue of $630,000.

The county board agreed to absorb any reductions in taxes which may later be granted on appeal by the State Tax Commission.

Education taxes totaling $661,316 for intermediate school districts, $22,091,657 for local and intermediate school districts, including the preceding amount, and $1,429,289 for Washtenaw Community College were also apportioned, as were $62,035 in drain taxes.

Cities account for $729,198 of the total and townships account for $700,891. The amount of taxes to be collected from each unit including the following townships: Manchester, $73,266.62; Bridgewater, $28,073.64; Dexter, $52,103.73; Freedom, $44,403.10; Lodi, $49,115; Saline, $27,645.45; Sharon, $22,692; and York, $28,280.

Fund Drive Reaches 90%

Division Chairmen of the Manchester United Community and Red Cross Drive held a telephonic conference Monday afternoon where the last 10% of the $3,304 quota for the campaign was coming from.

Comments go to division chairmen who have finished or most finished with bang-up sports. School system chairman, John Korican, brought in a final of $98,711, slightly less than last year's report, Mrs. Irvin Gill reported $2,149.50 for the Businessmen's Division and was the earliest to report a final.

The rural house-to-house solicitation, which was revamped by Mrs. Norman Fielder according to roads instead of the old school district lines, came alive and brought in $1,466.40 - a hundred dollars over last year's.

Many new families have come to the rural area and each township captain found the mapping system easier for her solicitors.

The Village house-to-house division has become the smaller of the two. A few embarrassing mix-ups were made by each division simultaneously, for which the chairman apologized.

The bugs will be worked out of the zoning next year when the village will be confined to village limits and according to the former old school districting. Mrs. D. D. King has $1009.15 but has not been able to get her area completed until vacationers return and everyone has had an opportunity to give.

Mrs. William Schaffer found response from Organizations even more than last year with some $5 reported.

Robert Swartz, Out-of-town business chairman, ran into the biggest road block with the Ford he hitting the drive period and on. When this problem cleared, this division should be the cap on the quota.

Watch that thermometer at the Union Savings Bank window of these days soon, it will be the top. It's a Manchester hit!

Mrs. Emma Logan Celebrates 96th Birthday

It is unusual when two aunts on both sides of the family have the same birthday and quite unusual that they are both 96 years, on November 13. That is the way that Mrs. Bert Uphaus of 202 Auburn Street explained the family birthdays.

Mrs. Emma Logan was 96 yrs. on Monday. She lives with a nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Uphaus at the Manchester address. An aunt of Mrs. Uphaus, Mrs. Louise Altenbernt Woodhurst of 610 Gilbert Street, Jackson also was 96 on Monday.

Despite her advanced age Mrs. Logan is able to be up and dressed every day. She came to make her home with the Uphaus in 1950 after selling her farm home near Clinton.

She is a member of the WSCS of the Methodist Church and of the King's Daughters.

The former Emma Koeffberger of Adrian was married at the home of her sister in Manchester. The minister, a part time politician was attending a caucus in Ann Arbor and didn't arrive until 9 p.m. to perform the wedding service.

By that time the couple wondered if there would be a wedding gift, day at all. As a wedding gift, Mr. Logan's father gave them a 20-acre piece of land which they soon increased to 100 acres. Their seven room house cost $600 plus the finishing work and painting which they did themselves.

Best Loved Teacher Nellie Ackerson Dies

In 1965 she was made an honorary member of the Manchester Township Library Board, the second person in the 126-year history of the library to be so honored.

Miss Ackerson received the honorary appointment because of her long years of service to the children of the community. She was named the first honorary member of the Manchester Chapter of the Michigan Education Association.

Miss Ackerson retired in 1959 after teaching 51 years. She had taught four years in rural schools before joining the Manchester school system in 1912. She always taught the third and fourth grades and was principal of the elementary school for many years.

She was graduated from Manchester High School and earned a bachelor of science degree from Eastern Michigan University.

In 1949 the new Manchester elementary school building was officially named, Nellie Ackerson School. Miss Ackerson will always be remembered for her art work and beautiful chalk drawings on the blackboards.

Successful Blood Clinic Nets 68 Pints. Double A Products was the main stay of the clinic, sending 80 people to St. Mary's Church hall by company car on company time to maintain their official interest in their club. The blood needs of Double A personnel and their families are protected anywhere in the United States by the Manchester Red Cross Blood Club which they support so generously. A two gallon donor, Tadeusz Ryback, was started on the honor roll and four new one gallon donors were named: Mrs. H. L. (Betty) Osborne, Donald (Lefty) Ross, Alfred Sannes, Ron McNally and Robert Padley. This brings the number on the roll to 47. Nine of these donors are credited with two gallon records. The local volunteers who assisted the regional professional unit with Mrs. Roland Grossman, chairman-of-the-day included three nurses: Mrs. Willard Mann, Mrs. Theodore H. Tapping, Jr., and Mrs. Stenton Roesch. Also included were five nurses: Miss Mrs. James Pratt, Mrs. Fred Loeman, Mrs. Ralph England, Mrs. William Schaffer and Mrs. Eugene Benschneider, and four staff aides: Mrs. Douglas Higgins, Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Mrs. Allen Schaffer and Mrs. Ray Titb. St. Mary's Church furnished the facilities for the clinic and Mrs. William Schwab, president of St. Mary's Altar Society, staffed the canteen with 3 units of 4 workers each in order to train new members in Canteen Service: Mrs. Herbert Bernader, Mrs. Donald Walter, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. Duffield Ball, Mrs. Ronald Fielder, Mrs. Ray Gonyer Mrs. Harold Burch, Mrs. Richard Hlavka, Mrs. Harry Krauss, Mrs. Charles Hough, Mrs. Russell Braun and Mrs. Allen Benedict. The American Legion Auxiliary supplied the orange juice for the donors. The Red Cross volunteer doctor's service sent Dr. W. J. Laird from Plymouth, who called the clinic outstanding in that it was the first that he had attended where no one needed to use the recovery room. Manchester is prepared for a healthy winter.

Freddie's Island

Manchester Jaycees during their last river clean-up erected a sign on the small island directly behind E. C. Mann's mill. Flowers are planted there each year by Freddie Graboski. The sign reads Freddie's Island.

JAYCEES CONCERNED ABOUT APPEARANCE OF RIVER

At the annual river cleanup held this fall by the Jaycees, concern was expressed about people using the river bank as a dumping ground. Especially noticeable were the banks which can be seen from Main Street.

On checking with Village officials, the Jaycees found there is an ordinance against such dumping which reads in part as follows:

Ordinance No. 40, Section 2

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, company, or corporation, its officers, or agents, to place, dump, or cause to be placed in any of the streets, lanes, alleys or public places, or private property within the limits of the Village of Manchester; any tin cans, rubbish, garbage, offal, or other waste material or products except upon the premises provided by the Village of Manchester.

Penalties include imprisonment of not more than 90 days or both fine and jail.

The feeling among the Jaycees seemed to be that there wasn't much use in cleaning away the dead trees and debris that floats in, when they can't do anything about the trash dumped in by Manchester residents.

At a general meeting of the Jaycees, a discussion was held on what could be done to make the river more attractive. It was decided that perhaps two river cleanups could be held. One in the spring and again in the fall. Also approved by the group was the suggestion that Ordinance No. 40 be more strictly enforced.

SECOND ANNUAL AWARDS MEETING HELD

The Sharon Valley Saddle Club held its second annual awards and family style potluck supper at the Sharon town hall Saturday evening. There were 36 in attendance, including parents, 4-Hers and guests.

Anna Tobias made a surprise presentation of a hand made club flag to seamstress who received plenty of help from many other members and parents in this surprise secret plot. The Fisks also received other gifts. Entertainment by several of the club members followed. Jane Spangler played a flute solo. There was a piano duet by Ruth and Monica Curtis and piano solos were played by Debby Lantz, Jennifer Carlson, Dawn Lantz, Anna Tobias and Mr. Fisk. A few of the selections were unhearsed and an on-the-spot performance but thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

The Ruehle family, now known as Reilly migrated from the town of Enderback near Stuttgart, Germany in 1844. They lived in a log cabin until they could build the new brick home in 1854. Dr. Beckwith showed slides depicting the restoration of the farm home and building into the beautiful museum today.

Having captured so adroitly the flight of motion in this splendid GTO, our engineers could well have quit while far ahead. But that would have been decidedly un-Pontiac. So under that cheeky hood, and behind that revolutionary new bumper, they put the soul of a car born to the road. The suspension, with its Wide-Track stance and

The option list is as grand as it is long, and includes Rally II wheels, hood-mounted tach, even a stereo tape player. You might be lucky enough to find The Great One at your Pontiac dealer's. PRICE SUPPORT LOAN ELIGIBILITY EASED ON CROP CORN

With the 1967-crop corn harvest in full swing, several counties in Michigan have reported low test weight corn, according to Frank Light, Chairman of the Michigan ASC State Committee.

He hastened to say that farmers with low test weight corn will be happy to hear that the grade No. 3 test weight requirement for warehouse-stored price support loans has been relaxed.

Effective immediately, he added, 1967-crop corn which grades No. 4 on the factor of test weight only, but otherwise grades No. 3 or better, except for moisture, will be eligible for loan.

Light explained that this includes the 1967-crop corn delivered to CCC or eligible corn purchased under the Price Support Program next fall.

The discounts for low test weight, he added, range from 3 cents for 51 to 51.9 pounds, 4 cents for 50 to 50.9 pounds, and 5 cents for 49 to 49.9 pounds test weight.

The grade requirement for 1967-68 crop corn warehouse stored loans was originally No. 3 or better, except for moisture, Light explained. He also added that this is a continuation of the effort by the U. S. Department of Agriculture to assist farmers as much as possible in the orderly marketing of their 1967-crop corn. The relaxed grade requirement, he pointed out will permit producers with low test weight corn to obtain warehouse-stored loans if the corn is otherwise eligible. IN this way it will slow down the movement of corn to market and thereby ease the pressure which has been depressing market prices.

ALL ABOUT SNOW

Next time you admire a delicate snowflake, give a thought to how it was formed. Snow results when water vapor in the atmosphere freezes and forms crystals around a central core, such as a particle of dust. A snowflake can be composed of one or a cluster of hundreds of crystals. The designs are branched and usually six-sided, although some with three sides have been recorded.

"White as snow" is a misstatement, explain researchers at Allied Chemical Company. For snow is never really white. It's usually colorless or off-white; the reflection of light makes the crystals seem white.

Red, green and even black snow has been known to fall—a phenomenon caused by fungi or dust particles around which the snowflakes have formed.

Snowflakes may seem light as they float in the air, but a tightly packed ball of snow can weigh as much as 50 pounds. And while you may agree that snow can be a poetic inspiring sight, it often creates a nuisance in choking driveway and

CRITICAL SHORTAGE OF REGISTERED NURSES

To alleviate the critical shortage of registered nurses, an agreement to conduct a Registered Nurse Refresher Training Course has been entered into by the Veterans Hospital, Washtenaw Community College, the Michigan Nurses Association, the Michigan Employment Security Commission and the Michigan Division of Vocational Education.

The training will be conducted at the Veterans Hospital starting November 13 and will last for six weeks. There will be two classes; one meeting from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and the other session will start at 6 p.m. and last until 11 p.m. Both classes will meet four days a week, Monday through Thursday. There are no tuition fees and books and supplies will be furnished.

To be eligible for refresher training, a nurse must have a current license from any state and be willing to work when training is completed.

If you are interested in receiving Registered Nurse Refresher Training, contact Mrs. O'Connor or Mr. Clark at the Michigan Employment Security Commission office at 301 Maple Village, Ann Arbor, Michigan phone-761-9050.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES REPORT - Thomas G. Sharpe

I want to preface this news-letter with a discussion of a trend in our American way of life that I find particularly distressing.

Recently, in a daily newspaper, I read an article by the noted writer and broadcaster, Paul Harvey. Mr. Harvey discussed a new concept in Unions that is hard to believe could exist in these United States.

members. The whole purpose of this union idea is to find ways to get more money from you and I, the taxpaying public.

I find this distasteful. But I am also at a loss as to how a situation like this can come about. Listen to the professed goals of these freeloaders of society. "Free rent, free food, free medicine, and a guaranteed annual income for everybody."

poverty efforts, this welfare category is growing by more than 200,000 per year. Total welfare spending in the United States is now more than 15 billion per year.

Mr. Harvey also told the story of a missionary priest in India who offered free food to anyone who would want it. He found, according to Harvey, that the program was not as effective as a "work for food" program.

Look at the production figures of Communist countries. When they took away the incentives of privately owned lands, they also lost production. As a matter of fact, I have read recently that they are now going back to the idea of giving an individual his own property and letting him make out of it what he can.

Then, just as I was feeling extremely downhearted about this situation, I read in the Lansing State Journal of an 87 year old man living near Leslie, Michigan who refuses any governmental help - this gives me new strength.

It is encouraging to learn that this man, Champion Down still refuses to accept help from the "Big Brother" in Washington. Champion Down was quoted by the State Journal as saying he has never applied for government benefits to keep his land out of production.

Now many people in this day and age would call the man crazy, but Mr. Down said, "I worked hard when I could, and saved a little money so I could take care of myself. So he could take care of himself. If only we could instill this in the thinking of our country again. In my opinion this concept is what made this nation the greatest nation in the world."

How do we reverse this trend of "let Lyndon do it" and change it to "let me do it?" Well, I'm afraid that all of us are to blame. If blame can be placed, I think it must be placed on an apathetic public, you and me. I am calling on each and every member of my district to take a more active role in all phases of government: local, state, and National.

And it goes deeper. Are we apathetic when it comes to involvement in school affairs, in precinct affairs, in local club projects that are so beneficial to the well-being of every community? Could we be responsible for this terrifying trend to the socialist state? Only each of us as an individual can answer that question.

I think it is time we all search our hearts for the answers to the deterioration of our society and then set about to see that the trend is changed.

Thomas G. Sharpe STATE REPRESENTATIVE 51st District.

50TH ANNIVERSARY FOR PORTAGE TRAILS COUNCIL

Fifty years of scouting was celebrated by 400 leaders at a banquet Tuesday evening, Nov. 7 in the Howell National Guard Armory.

Seven troops with a total of 90 scouts were organized into a local council in 1917. Expansion of the council to include all of Washtenaw and Livingston counties took place in later years. Membership of the council has been increasing steadily and now totals 7200 scouts and leaders.

Featured during the evening was a skit entitled "50th Anniversary Recollections". The skit was put on by William Bishop, Jr. of Ann Arbor and Norris Wiltse of Ypsilanti who were Scouts and leaders in the Council during the 1930's.

Mrs. Fielding Yost was present. It will be recalled that Fielding Yost was Council Scout commissioner in those early days. He was the first scout leader in this area to be given the Silver Beaver Award for distinguished service to boyhood.

Three Silver Beaver awards were presented at this dinner to these leaders: Marvin S. Smith of Ann Arbor; Russell F. Smith, M. D. of Whitmore Lake; J. Frank Youngs of Hartland. The speaker of the evening was a world famous Scout leader and National Boy Scout Council member, the Rev. Frans Victorson from Saron Lutheran Church, St. Joseph Michigan. He praised the council for the fine job it is doing by involving more than 7000 boys and leaders in the 5 scouting program according to Clarence Doud, Scout Executive.

ENLIST NOW AND STILL SPEND HOLIDAYS AT HOME

Under a recently announced program, men may enlist in the U. S. Army and spend up to 120 days at their homes, SFC Elmer R. Hulise of the U. S. Army Recruiting Station located at 223 E. Ann Street, Ann Arbor, stated.

The plan would assure enlistees they would be able to spend the Christmas and New Year holidays with their families.

SFC Hulise said that men who are expecting to be drafted before Christmas may take advantage of what is called "the 120-day delay option" in order to be at home for the holidays.

The recruiter said the plan allows young men to enlist now and be placed on reserve status before they are called up for basic training and active duty assignments.

Further information may be obtained by calling the recruiting station. The phone number is 665-7357, after 5 p.m. call 483-2283.

WPAG WINS AWARD

WPAG's Farm Shows have been awarded "Best Local Regularly scheduled farm show" by the Michigan Associated Press. "WPAG has accomplished with a farm program what many others never achieve—the ability to provide a variety of information and encase it in an attractive frame for enjoyable listening. An authoritative note is added by what appears to be great cooperation from all areas of local agriculture. "The fact that WPAG has set aside prime time for this daily feature is also to be considered in making this award. Its quality justifies its position on the schedule."

wanted to be a school teacher. But they managed and after three years of high school she began a teaching career with a starting salary of $18 for the fall and spring terms. For the winter term she received $24 but had to pay her own board and room.

The only part of teaching she didn't like was being alone at the end of the day after the children went home. When she could afford it she bought a bicycle for transportation.

One winter day there was a heavy snow storm and she dismissed school early. She feared that she might be mowed in before she could get away. Before she was ready to leave someone was pounding on the door and one of the neighbors was offering to take her home.

That was the nearest she came to being snowed in.

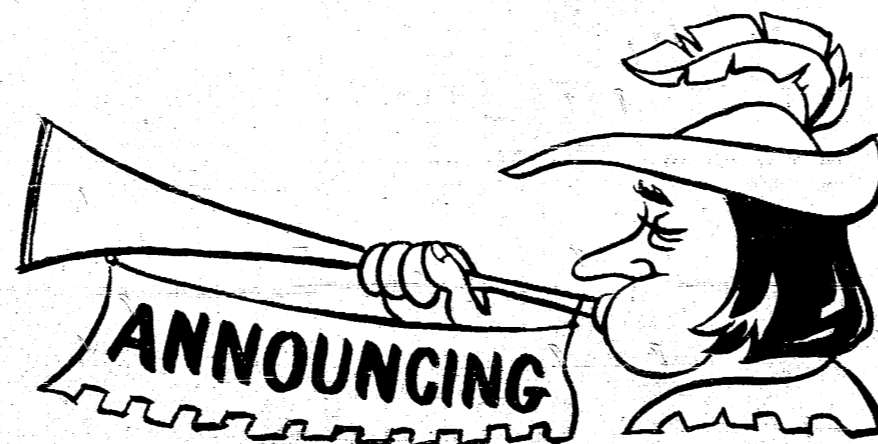

The Logans had no children and after her husband's death she came to Manchester to live with Mr. and Mrs. Uphaus. She often remarked that she would like to live her life over for she enjoyed it so much. At this time her hearing is her major problem but she is thankful to be up and dressed every day.

Time To Give Thanks

Give Thanks

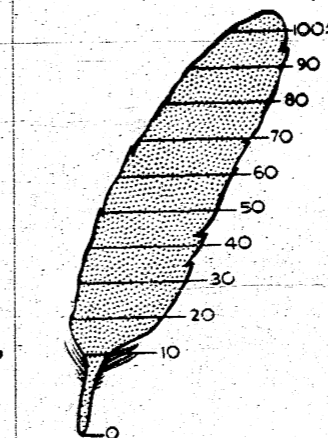

"Unearned"
Frank Carleton Nelson

While meditating o'er the past
There comes to me the thought-
Of all the blessings that are mine,
How few I've really bought,
How weak my efforts for them all,
How little have I paid,
How small, compared with actual worth,
The sacrifice I've made.

The gift of sight that I may see
The grass and flowers and trees,
The ear to hear the songs of birds
And humming of the bees,
The sense of smell that I may know
The sweetness of the rose,
The strength to walk and mingle
With everything that grows.

The gift of friends of sterling worth
Whose hearts are open wide,
Who keep their trust and faith in me,
Whatever may betide,
For helping hands in times of need
And cheers to meet the test,
And kindly words that spur me on
To do my level best.

For pleasures here and pleasures there,
Wherever I may roam,
But most of all and sweetest, too,
The blessings of a home!
The greatest gift of all to me,
Of gifts I can't repay,
And so, the least that I can do,
Is thank the Lord today.

Community Fund-Red Cross Drive Exceeds Goal

Manchester's United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive has made its goal again by Nov. 15 with a total of $15,553.71. Neighboring chests will receive $1050 of this, as requested by the donors.

Hoover Ball Bearing Company assisted with the Kickoff Dinner for solicitors as one of the three hosts and then added a generous contribution of $500 to the Manchester Fund. This was one of the many fine reports given at the Community Chest Board meeting, Wednesday night by Joseph Fitzgerald, campaign chairman and his division heads.

Every division made a magnificent record this year reflecting the Manchester spirit and ability to consistently beat its own record. The Community Chest Board extends its highest praise to the general chairman and his campaign personnel who were undaunted by the clouds of doubt that shrouded the early days of this year's drive and who, with the backing of the community, came through with a 115% record.

Manchester Businessman, Frank Tirb Dies Suddenly

Frank H. Tirb, 73, for many years operator of the Chevrolet agency here, died Saturday of a heart attack while deer hunting at a Hubbard Lake lodge, near Alpena.

Hunting companions said Mr. Tirb was talking to another hunter Saturday morning when he collapsed. Mr. Tirb had shot his buck in the opening hours of the hunting season, but he died moments later.

He had left Manchester Thursday with friends on the hunting trip for the lodge where he had gone for several years.

Mr. Tirb owned the Chevrolet dealership here for many years. At the time of his death he was associated in the business with his son Ray.

He was a member of the board of directors of the Union Savings Bank, president of the Oak Grove Cemetery Association, and a member of the Emanuel United Church of Christ. He was also a past Commander of Emil Jacob Post 117 of the American Legion. He was a life long Manchester area resident and was born Jan. 19 1894 in Freedom Township, the son of William and Wilhelmina Dresselhouse Tirb. On Sept. 18, 1924 he was married to Alma Wiedman. She survives.

Besides the son Ray, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth (Joyce) Kirkpatrick of Manchester; three grandchildren; 3 brothers, Fred and Clarence of Clinton and Alvin of Manchester; three sisters, Mrs. Frieda Weidman of Clinton, Mrs. Amanda Haussler of Manchester and Mrs. Julia Grossman of Jackson.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Nov. 21 at 1:30 p.m. at Emanuel Church with the Rev. Ralph Kuether officiating. The body was in state at the church from noon until time of the service. Burial was in Oak Grove Cemetery.

Village Pump to Have House

At the council meeting on Monday the public works committee asked council to approve the purchase of a steel building 8 x 8 x 18 to house the new pump. The recommendation was approved. When the building is no longer needed at the Ann Arbor Street location it will be moved to the treatment plant for a storage facility.

There was some discussion concerning the way that the multiple apartment water rates are spread. Council explained to interested citizens that the total usage is divided by the number of apartments. The minimum is 8,000 gallons per family and the amount is spread among the families in the unit.

Citizens also asked council to make it known that the village does have a dog ordinance and suggests that it be effectively enforced.

Seller's Sawmill Turns Out Quality Lumber

Marie Schneider

As you look at a lovely piece of veneer furniture or feel the smoothness of a wall finished without paneling, you will admire the exquisite grain. You can't imagine that it must have come from some far off place and might very well be wrong. Black walnut is Michigan's highly valued wood and its important nut. We can say that it is probably America's most precious wood at this time," said Max

Sellers of Manchester. He is a buyer of veneer logs and operates Seller's sawmill in Manchester. He's a veteran in the business having started to learn it back in 1922 when he went to work with Jesse Lackey, a buyer for Tawls Mahogany. This is the African Company which controlled the mahogany market in the United States. Its central office at that time was in Indianapolis, Ind. and they bought black walnut. Seller's logs of walnut, white oak, wild cherry, and maple go into the making of veneer and high grade furniture. The lumberman hailed from North Salem, Indiana and bought in the area around Manchester for sometime before he decided to make Manchester his headquarters. The determining factor was the good railroad siding accommodations. He used to ship entirely by rail and sold to the Thieving Veneer Company of Indianapolis exclusively. Now he ships entirely by truck.

Early settlers in this area found walnut made excellent rafters, beams, fence boards for barns, as well as fine furniture and gun-stocks. They ate the nuts and rested in the pleasant shade. Now black walnut fits into modern life and it is considered a "blue chip" tree. The value has increased more than ever for both beauty and shade, lumber, veneer and novelty wood.

It is estimated that the yearly crop of nuts may soon yield more dollar return than the logs and still new ways to use the nuts, shells and trees are being sought. Sellers says that when he first came to the area he was informed that the type of trees he needed weren't to be had. But since then he has been supplying the manufacturers with the type of trees they need without too much trouble. At the present time he is working the Lansing area.

At this time buying trees is highly competitive, Sellers said. The job calls for skill and experience in determining the proper trees from which veneer can be cut. After the trees are selected and marked they are sold at the peak of their maximum growth and value. Then the cutting team moves in and brings down the big fellows.

The buyer has to know his business or blind lions on the trees for first class lumber. Wind shakes, caused by bending from the wind while growing often opens the grain of the wood. Frost checks have the same effect. Sellers does not favor cutting trees which are less than 17 or 18 inches in diameter.

"It used to be that we wouldn't buy under 20 inches (diameter) trees. But 18" trees make good panelling. The price is figured by the board feet and quality. The largest amount I shipped in a year was 68 carloads—that was when we were using the stumps," Sellers said.

Since 1937 he has been hauling by truck. Sellers has been selling to Thieving Veneer since 1926 and still does when he sells the whole log for veneer.

Sellers put up the sawmill in Manchester in 1948 after being in Dexter for seven years. He employs 15 men. Much of the lumber processed here is inspected by Gerald Seese and sold to Budres Lumber Co. of Grand Rapids.

Black walnut can be planted on rough ground, small areas, odd-shaped areas, along roads and fences, in large lawns and around the farm yard. It grows best on rich soil with good drainage and along streams and at the base of
