

Manchester Red Cross Volunteers sent a corps of 24 workers to aid the Bloodmobile staff at Ypsilanti-Ford Motor Company Plant, Thursday, April 24. This was part of a 4-day clinic for the Ford Motor Company where approximately 500 units were added to their club. A special appeal for RH negative blood was given at this clinic and through the efforts of Mr. John Stirling, manager of Industrial Relations at the Ford Ypsilanti Plant the emergency at University hospital was met.

Local registered nurses who worked at the clinic were Mrs. Willard Mann, Mrs. Allan Faulhaber, Mrs. Stanton Roesch, Mrs. Alvin Kappler, Mrs. T. H. Tapping, Jr., and Mrs. Stephen Leeman.

Nurses Aids were Mrs. Norman Higgins, Mrs. James Pratt, Mrs. Ralph England, Mrs. Ronald Jenter, Mrs. Eugene Bentschneider, Mrs. Robert Swartz, Mrs. Duane Roller and Mrs. Millard Uphaus.

Staff Aids were Mrs. Finn Olsen, Mrs. Loren Troitz, Mrs. Allan Schaffer, Mrs. William Schaffer, Mrs. Tom Walton and Mrs. Dan Boutell.

Canteen members were Mrs. Basil Schwab, Mrs. Charles Knopp and Mrs. Franklin Reck. The chairman of the day was Mrs. Roland Grossman. One hundred and twenty-six pints were donated during the six hour period that the Manchester staff worked.

NEW ALFALFA FOR MICHIGAN

Saranac is the new alfalfa variety recommended for southern Michigan.

Don Johnson, Washtenaw County extension agent, says this variety, or another comparable "Flammande alfalfa" such as DuPuits, is one of the keys to production that permits three harvests in one season.

"Saranac is wilt-resistant and good for a four-year stand," says Mr. Johnson. "It can generally be cut about a week earlier than Vernal, an old Michigan standard variety."

The agent advises that farmers who plant alfalfa this year should try the new variety which has produced excellent yields in Michigan State University tests at East Lansing and in over-state trials. "As much as 5.5 tons of hay have been cut from a stand in its fourth year," he reports.

For long-term stands and in areas where winters are more severe, farmers may want to try limited plantings of Saranac and use Vernal as their first choice variety.

"Since Saranac can be cut a week earlier than other varieties it offers another advantage," notes Don Johnson. "It will likely be possible to treat fields for the alfalfa weevil between the first and second cutting. Treating stubble is less expensive than treating fields with full-grown alfalfa plants."

FARM NEWS

BEHIND THE SMOKESCREEN

Organized labor has its eyes fixed on the farms of our state and nation. Right now these intentions are somewhat hidden by the California grape boycott smokescreen, but they are becoming more obvious daily. They are visible in union attempts to use pulp and press to legitimize placing farmers under provisions of the National Labor Relations Act where they will be vulnerable to union organizational tactics.

Michigan farmers are amazed by the actions of a congressman of our state — Rep. James O'Hara as principal sponsor of a House bill to make the Labor Act apply to farmers. He has ignored the fact that the NLRA was designed to fit industrial conditions. His apparent unconcern for the future of a labor-dominated agriculture is only topped by his unconcern for the impact of the Act on consumer prices.

Under the Act, farmers would be uniquely vulnerable to labor disputes. Most other businessmen can close down to sit out a strike. Machinery or toy parts do not begin to rot the day they are left unprocessed in bins or baskets as do tomatoes. Even a short strike in agriculture at harvest-time can bring farmers to their knees. A farm strike can mean the loss of a complete year of income and total loss of investment—often including borrowed money. Unions understand this threat well.

But consumers may not understand how such strikes or threats of strikes must at once be reflected in higher prices for food of lesser quality as farmers suffer from labor or caused harvest delays or switch to machine harvest to bypass union blockade. Most repugnant to farmers is the idea of a closed-shop contract negotiated under harvest time threat and then used to compel all workers to join the union; to work limited hours, slow down individual production or stop it under penalty of union fines. This is an extraordinary and potent power—deadly when it involves a nation's food supply. In promoting this bill Rep. O'Hara says that it will "Give order where there is now disorder..."

But the public must understand what the farmer already knows: this order—or rather these orders, would come to agriculture direct from labor union headquarters.

Abortion Bill Pending

By Carolyn Ahrens

Senate Bills 287 and 288, both Easy Abortion bills, were recently introduced to the Michigan Legislature by Senators Gilbert Bursley (R-18th District which includes Washtenaw County) and John McCauley (D-11th District). Senator Bursley's Bill 287 would legalize abortion if performed by accredited physicians at an accredited hospital in cases where (a) the physical or mental health of the mother is seriously endangered (b) pregnancy results from rape or incest (c) where there is reasonable evidence that the child would be born defective.

Senator McCauley's Bill 288 would leave abortion to the discretion of the physician and mother, then only performed at an accredited hospital. This bill, acknowledged by both senators to be too liberal, was introduced as a "decoy" in the hope the Legislature and public would settle for Senator Bursley's less liberal bill 287.

Wayne County Prosecutor William L. Cahalan recently announced the Michigan Prosecuting Attorney Association's opposition to the proposed revisions of Michigan abortion law when he said "the law recognizes an unborn child as a person from the time of conception, and because of this, Michigan's abortion law should be left unchanged." Further he pointed out that during the past few years at least 15 states have passed on the rights of an unborn child and Michigan itself recognized these rights in 1968 when they passed a bill providing for guardianship for an unborn child in the event of death or injury of one of its parents. Cahalan continued, "The Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution provides that no person shall be deprived of life without 'due process of law'. We recommend that due process of law requires a judicial determination based upon sworn testimony as to the facts and the law as they might apply to a particular unborn person whose life is in question."

Dr. Edwin Weber, Chairman of the Michigan Committee of Social Legislation and President of the Michigan District of the Lutheran Church, also clearly stated the opposition of easy abortion when he said, "We are pleased the prosecuting Attorneys agree with us that it is the State's responsibility to protect and preserve human life and not to allow it to be destroyed at its inception."

The Board of Directors of the Michigan Catholic Conference also issued a statement concerning abortion law changes. It read in part that "Human life is a gift from God and is therefore most sacred... to lessen our regard for any phase of human life is to lessen our regard for human life itself... abortion and infanticide are unspeakable crimes... violates the integrity of the human person and is a supreme dishonor to the Creator." Also they ask, would easy abortion lead to legalized destruction of the unborn life such as the mentally ill, aged or incurably ill; would it lead to social and economic convenience and is there the assurance of fewer illegal abortions if the laws were changed?

Father Raymond R. Schlinkert, widely acclaimed for his TV program "With This Ring" has recently telecast two programs dealing with legalized abortion. During one segment he asks, "Who is ready to play God? God is the author of life—not man."

According to the response of abortion questionnaires sent out recently to 50 states by the National Catholic Welfare Conference and National Office of Catholic Charities, a number of states are involved in abortion law possible changes. The general outcome is yet to be seen although the greater percentage indicates these efforts have failed. In our three most populous states, however, proposed legislation is before the appropriate legislative committee which would permit abortion in cases of rape, incest, mother's physical or mental health and possible deformity of the fetus. To date there has been no decision made.

Also the final decision involving Michigan abortion law changes, if any are to be made, is yet to come. That outcome will be largely based on public opinion. As pointed out by Rev. Oscar Cooper it is our Christian duty to indicate our feelings to our legislators.

To inform your state representative of your feelings about easy abortion law changes, write to the promotor of SB 287, Senator Gilbert Bursley, State Capitol, Lansing, Michigan 48901. These letters should be mailed out within a few days as the proposals are now under committee consideration.

Finish judges were Irv Gill, Harry Krauss, Ray Thornton, Don Baley, Jerry Langowski, and Del Ludwig. Radio operators Wilma and Willie Frey and Lauren Bertke. LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Macomber:
 I would like to express my appreciation to you and the staff of the Enterprise for your cooperation with, and your contributions to Manchester's 1969 March of Dimes. The Enterprise helped to alert the people of our community to the problem of birth defects and to the impressive work being done by the National Foundation and its March of Dimes and the people responded as never before!
 The success of the campaign demonstrates what I believe to be a new spirit of unselfishness and cooperation in Manchester. I am convinced that there are great days ahead for our little village!
 When we forget how to say, "How is it for me?" and learn to say, "How can I help Manchester?" we will have begun to fulfill the destiny our forefathers envisioned way back in the 1830's.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Hugh R. Sutton

PROCLAMATION

Mayor John Althouse has designated May 23 and 24 as Poppy Days in the Village of Manchester.

The Proclamation reads as follows:

WHEREAS, The American Legion and its Auxiliary adopted as its memorial flower in 1919, the Poppy; and

WHEREAS, This Poppy has been the memorial to the war dead of World War I over the past 50 years; and

WHEREAS, 1969 commemorates the 50th year of the founding of this memorial; and

WHEREAS, These poppies are made by the hospitalized veterans of Veterans Hospitals throughout the State.

NOW THEREFORE, I, John Althouse, Mayor of the Village of Manchester do hereby proclaim May 23 and 24 as Poppy Days in the Village of Manchester and urge participation in this program by all citizens as we together pause to remember the heroic sacrifices of many in the defense of freedom.

Directing the Poppy Day activities here in Manchester will be Mrs. Conrad Gonyer, chairman for Unit 117 of The American Legion Auxiliary. The Unit President is Mrs. Elaine Steele.

Poppy Day originated nearly 50 years ago as a simple and sincere method of paying tribute to the war dead of the nation, Mrs. Gonyer said.

HEARINGS HELD ON SENIOR CITIZENS TAX BURDEN

The burden of paying increasing property taxes from a fixed income was a major issue in the minds of senior citizens at a legislative hearing Friday April 11 at Kalamazoo.

The session was sponsored by the Michigan Commission on Aging.

In addressing himself to the issue of taxes, one elderly man commented: "The average retired couple could live 12 or 13 weeks on the school tax."

State Representative DeForrest Strang (R-42nd District) and representatives from the Commission explained bills currently before the Legislature to lessen the property tax burden on the elderly.

Other persons testified on the decreasing value of Social Security due to inflation. "Food expenses are eating up what little savings we had," a witness commented.

The need for low-rent and moderate rent housing for the elderly was also cited. These and other issues raised at the hearing will be used by the Commission in compiling recommendations to the Legislature for possible action.

The Kalamazoo hearing was the fifth in a series being held around the state by the Commission. Other meetings have been held in Detroit, Traverse City, Grand Rapids and Lansing, and are also scheduled for Alpena and Marquette.

Chairman of the Kalamazoo hearing was Lloyd R. Johnson, vice-chairman of the Commission from Ann Arbor.

FROM CONGRESSMAN ESCH

The right of American citizens to vote to elect their representatives in the national government, and to govern themselves on a local basis has been a part of our heritage since the founding of the nation. We are justifiably proud of our democracy and of the opportunity for every citizen to be a part of the decision making process.

This democratic heritage is the birthright of every American citizen—except for the 850,000 residents of the nation's capital city. In the city which serves as a symbol of freedom to the world, there is no freedom to choose the leaders who will govern. Despite the fact that there are more American citizens in the District of Columbia than in 11 of the states, these citizens have no representation in the Congress or the Senate.

This is a basic deprivation of American rights which should no longer be tolerated. I introduced legislation shortly after I came to the Congress to provide for Congressional representation for the District of Columbia and was gratified when President Nixon endorsed my proposal in his recent message to the Congress.

One little understood function of the Congress is to serve as the city council for Washington. Congress must pay attention to the important national and international issues facing the nation, and all too often, concerns about the management of Washington, D. C. are ignored. The result has been confusion and a breakdown in responsible government.

I believe President Nixon put it well when he said, "Good government, in the case of a city, must be local government. The Federal Government has a special responsibility for the District of Columbia. But it also bears toward the District the same responsibility it bears toward all other cities: to help local government work better, and to attempt to supplement local resources for programs that city officials judge most urgent."

I heartily endorse the President's proposal for the establishment of a special commission to draw up a responsible local government for Washington, elected by the people and yet responsive to the special problems caused by large federal involvement.

READ WHAT YOUR REPRESENTATIVES ARE DOING

YOU MAY NOT AGREE!

The Presidential message to Congress on the District of Columbia included a recommendation for representation in Congress, a commission to establish a local elected government, added responsibility for city officials during the interim before the establishment of elective government, additional federal financial support to assure that the federal government pays its full share, and the construction of a mass transit system to unify the central city with the surrounding suburbs.

The rights of Washington residents may seem a remote thing to those of us from around the nation who take the right to vote for granted. However, until steps are taken to assure that these citizens have the right to vote, we cannot truly call this nation a democracy.

FROM SENATOR BURSLEY

In recent weeks I have conducted a poll of thousands of residents in Washtenaw and Lenawee Counties. Similar questions were also printed in the Huron Valley Advisor. Here are some findings.

Liberalization of Michigan's abortion law is overwhelmingly supported by from 92 to 95% of the respondents. A majority favored the more moderate approach in S B 287 sponsored Bursley-McCauley, but the most recent returns indicating growing support for the more liberal version in S B 288 sponsored McCauley-Bursley. Action on both bills is pending now in the Senate.

Aid to non-public schools—or parochialism—is opposed by 70 to 77% of the respondents to the two polls. About 15% favor H B 2424 introduced by Representative Traxler and now under consideration in the House Appropriation Committee.

A legislative committee to investigate or study causes of campus unrest is supported by about 40%. The majority prefer leaving university disciplinary problems in the hands of the boards of regents and university authorities. But of this latter number a big majority favor "much stricter action by the regents and authorities."

The $100,000,000 recreation bond issue was thought by voters last fall to call for a 70%-30% split of the funds with state projects getting the 70% and urban programs the 30%. More recently the Governor has suggested reducing the state 70% to 40% and increasing the urban portion from 30% to 60%.

Respondents to the poll indicate 54% favor the 70-30 division, 41% are for the 40-60 division and 5% had no opinion.

A constitutional amendment which I offered, SJR "C", calling for appointment by the Governor of the regents, trustees and governors of the University of Michigan,

Michigan State University and Wayne State University—in lieu of popular election—received 59% support, was opposed by 33% and 8% had no opinion.

A proposal to create a single Michigan State Medical Board for medical doctors and osteopaths—essentially a merging of training and licensing for M. D.s and D. O.s is supported by 60%, opposed by 24% and 16% expressed no opinion.

FROM SENATOR GRIFFIN

In a move designed to give towns and townships a voice in intergovernmental relations, U S Senator Robert P. Griffin (R-Michigan) introduced legislation today to add their representatives to a federal advisory board.

The Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations is responsible for improving coordination among the various levels of government and for assuring orderly participation by these governing bodies in federal programming.

Griffin's proposal would add two delegates for town and townships to the 26-member commission, which now represents the executive branch, the two houses of Congress, governors, state legislatures and city and county governments.

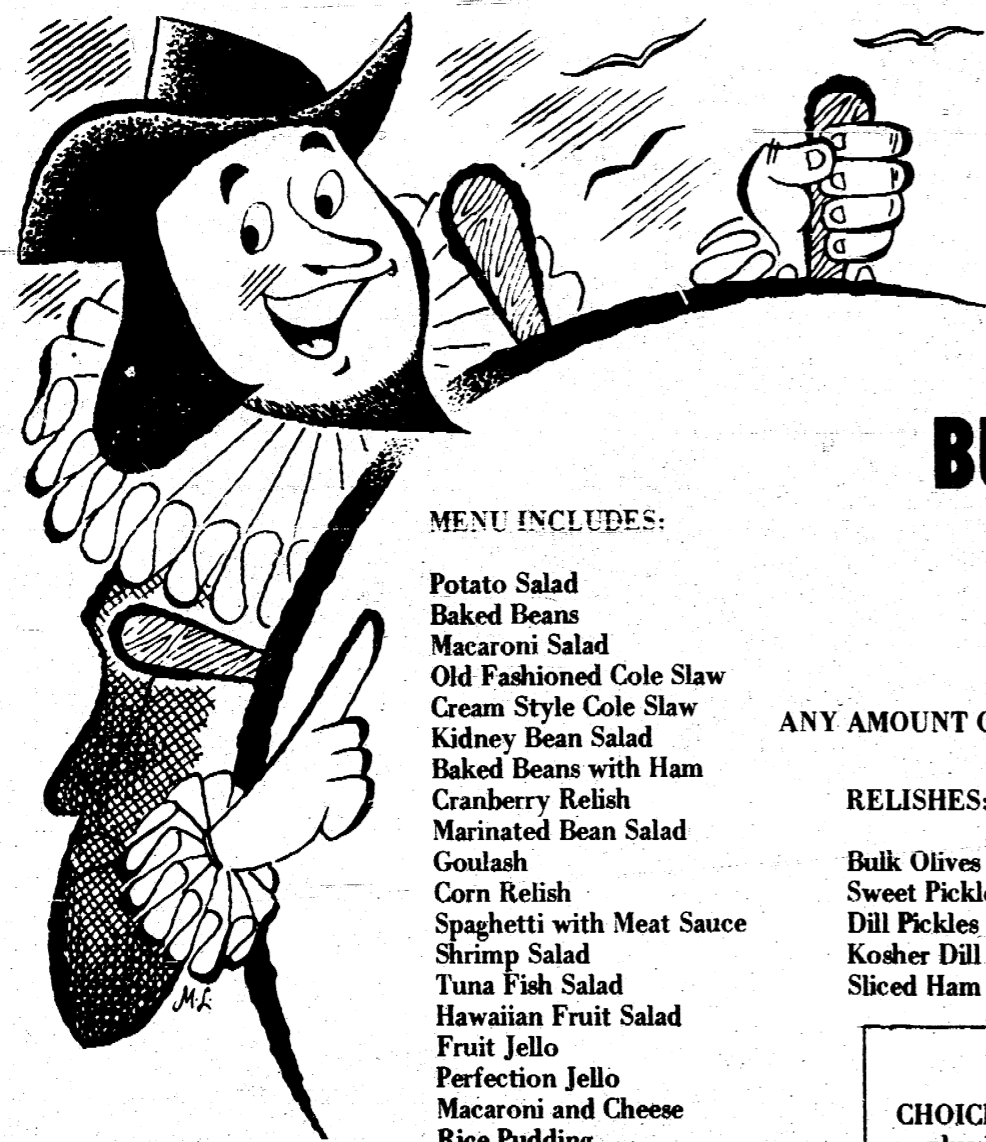

Similar legislation has been introduced in the House by Congressman Garry Brown (R-Kalamazoo).

"Twenty-two states have the township form of government," Griffin said. "Michigan, for instance, has 1,250 townships.

"More than 40 million people live in towns or townships in the United States. Township government still plays a significant role in the total government structure.

"If the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations is truly to reflect all political subdivisions, townships need to be represented."

Under Griffin's bill, the President would appoint two township representatives from among four names submitted by the National Association of Town and Township Officials. Members of the commission serve without pay.

CHURCH EDITORIAL

We may be absolutely certain that God dearly loves every child that is born. It is incompatible with the mercy of God to say that He takes pleasure in the birth of a child doomed to the built-in deformity brought on by the Mother's use of LSD or thalidomide.

The two bills on abortion will create a great deal of heat, but little light. Abortions will continue whether the bills are passed or defeated. Women are now going to many other states and other countries to terminate unwanted pregnancies. The authors of both bills concede that their legislation will not change the incidence of abortion. At best, the passage of these bills would take the practice of abortion out of some dirty garage, practiced by some unskilled quack and move it into the sanitary conditions of a medical facility and performed by trained, authorized personnel.

These bills and their opposition will fail because they are attacking the wrong problem in the wrong way. Most abortion cases are the result of a pregnancy conceived in adultery. Many abortions are performed because a family finds itself in a situation where they already have more children than they can properly support or feel that they can not be bothered caring for the anticipated child. These are the moral problems behind abortion. Morality is not the result of legislation, but of a proper relationship with Jesus Christ. It is also immoral to continue to allow quacks to cause the death of hundreds of married and unmarried women who are trying to terminate an unwanted pregnancy. To approve or defeat these bills will leave the problem intact.

Rev. O. Wm. Cooper

SALES AWARD WINNERS

Lyle Widmayer of Tom Marshall Inc. in Manchester was honored by Ford Division of Ford Motor Company at a banquet in Detroit recently. Mr. Widmayer has won the coveted sales award, one of the top honors any Ford salesman can earn.

Kenneth Morris, also a salesman at Tom Marshall Inc. in Manchester was also honored at the banquet. Mr. Morris' sales performance during 1968 made him eligible for this award.

The award winners are among more than 450 car and truck salesmen in Ford Division's Detroit sales district who are receiving Ford's 300-500 Club membership for "excellent retail sales performance." The Sales Award is given to 300-500 members who sold at least $700,000 worth of new cars and trucks during 1968.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held April 9, 1969, April being Child Welfare Month. Mrs. Claire Reck, chairman of Child Welfare, planned a special program for the meeting. Mrs. Harvey Volkner, a member of the Board of Directors for the American Legion Children's Home at Otter Lake was invited to show films of the home.

The Children's Home at Otter Lake has been in operation for more than 40 years, caring for children of veterans, who for many reasons need a home to live in. The children live in cottages with a housemother who takes care of all their needs. The children attend local schools. Just as in a natural home, the children enjoy hobby projects such as sewing, handicrafts, and art classes. Excursions are planned for the children. These include trips to Tiger ball games, trips to places of historical interest, overnight camping. The children's ages run from 4 to 14. The "Have a Heart" seals which were sent out to all Legion and Auxiliary Units help to support those veteran's children who come to live at the home. The film was very interesting and everyone enjoyed watching and learning about the home.

Following the film a short business meeting was held. Good Cheer for April will be taken care of by Elaine Steele. Refreshments for the May meeting will be Sharon Gonyer, Chairman; Mary Walter and Vivian Middlemas.

Our second district president will be with us at our May 14 regular meeting. The Annual Reports will be filled out on May 5 at the Legion Hall. All those members who have reports to fill out are requested to be at the hall at 7:30 p.m.

DDT ACTION TAKEN

The recent decision of the Michigan Department of Agriculture to withdraw DDT registration was both understandable and not surprising. That is the view of the board of directors of the Michigan Farm Bureau which reviewed events leading to the Department's action--during a regular session of the farm group in Lansing, April 29-30. The farm leaders noted that agricultural use of DDT had been steadily reduced for more than 20 years, starting in 1949. In recent years, they observe, farm use has been very small in keeping with recommendations from Michigan State University scientists.

In tracing events that led to the logical withdrawing of DDT registration, they cited the action by the Department of Entomology at MSU in eliminating the last recommendation for DDT use in farm-spray schedules--based on the recent clearance of a new, effective insecticide. "In line with this action the decision of the Michigan Department of Agriculture to withdraw registration was understandable," the Farm Bureau members said.

They added: "We are disturbed at the emotional pitch of the arguments and demands regarding DDT during the past weeks. A similar fear campaign a few years ago created the cranberry scare and ruined an industry with unfounded concerns.

"Decisions on the use of chemicals, sprays and dusts should be made on the basis of scientific knowledge--not on emotion."

FARM NEWS

In Washtenaw

"We congratulate Governor Milliken on his objection to the hasty action of FDA in setting interim tolerance levels. The Governor is also to be commended on his naming of a qualified commission to provide guidance in regulating the use of pesticides."

AREA PHOTOS ARE AVAILABLE

The Michigan Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation State Committee has provided farmers with photocopies of the aerial photographs covering their farm land. These photocopies are very valuable to the farmer. They clearly show the entire farm including farm boundaries and farm buildings. The farmer can indicate on the particular fields which crops were planted during the year and thereby keep an accurate record of the various crops grown on the fields in past years. He can also use this photocopy to keep a record of the amounts of lime and fertilizer he applies to each field. Most of the photocopies show official acreages for the fields of crop land, and the farmer can depend on these acreages when he participates in a Federal farm program.

This is very important since farmers that participate in Federal farm programs must accurately report their planted and diverted crop acreages. The official acreages on the photocopy help him to plan for farming operation and also help him to report his exact acreages in compliance with Federal program requirements.

If a farmer has changed any field boundaries or purchased or sold any farm land so that his photocopy is no longer accurate he should immediately notify the local ASCS County Office so that they can give him a correct photocopy and also correct their records.

ANN ARBOR HORSE SHOW

The 10th Annual Ann Arbor Horse Show for hunters and jumpers will take place May 17th and 18th at the Farm Council Grounds which is located about 4 miles southwest of Ann Arbor on Ann Arbor Saline Road. The two day event, consisting of 25 classes, is expected to draw an estimated 150 entrees from southeastern Michigan and northern Ohio.

Saturday's program begins at 12:00 p.m. with equitation classes on the flat and over fences. The 7:30 evening program consists of four all-jumping classes. The last class, for green and open jumpers, will feature a timed second jump-off in case of a tie. Sunday's starting time is 10 a.m. The entire day will be devoted to hunter classes, many of them to be run over the 8 acre outside course. Refreshments will be available on the grounds. Admission is $1.00. Children under 12 will be admitted free.

That depends a lot on your sense of humor. If making tracks across a clean carpet to get to a telephone leaves your wife a little less than happy, then perhaps there's nothing so funny about an extension telephone in the garage or workshop.

Extension telephones make sense. They save time by letting you use a telephone wherever you are. Call your Michigan Bell Business Office or ask your telephone man. For as little as ninety-five cents a month (plus tax) you can put an extension in any funny old place you'd like.

Les Richter, Vice-President and Director of Operations for MIS, President of Riverside International Raceway; and ex-Los Angeles Rams football star, announced today that, "following Trans-Am testing sessions at the Speedway, and last weekend's closed SCCA Regional "shakedown" event, we have made a decision to re-route the road racing cars around the north turn of the banked oval for the May 11 race.

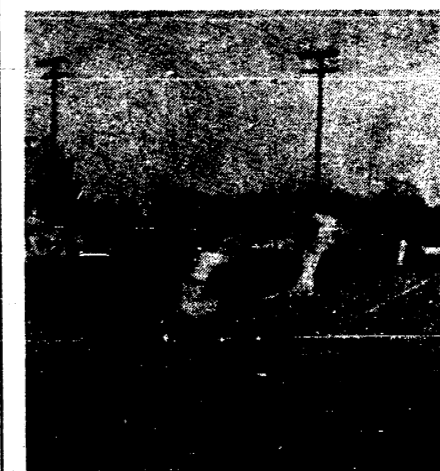

"This decision was made after it was found that a "bump" had formed where the road circuit leading out through the oval infield crosses the back straight of the oval. This bump was creating suspension problems for competing machinery, and although all the teams had agreed to run the race regardless of the existing problem we have decided to divert the race cars-utilizing more of the Speedway's 2-mile oval."

After negotiating the 3rd and 4th turns of the oval, competitors will now make a sharp left turn off of the oval onto the road circuit leading out of the oval infield.

An entry of 45 under and over two litre sedans is expected for the exciting season opener at Michigan International Speedway. Entries have already been received from the Penske Racing Team and the Camaros driven by current Trans-Am Champion, Mark Donohue, and Ronnie Bucknum; the Ford backed Bud Moore Shelby Mustangs to be driven by Parnelli Jones and George Follmer; and the Javelin Racing Team with drivers Ron Grable and John Martin. Additional entries have been received from as far afield as California in the west; New York in the East and Hamilton, Ontario, Canada.

Starting time for the gruelling 4-hour test of man and machines is 1 p.m. on Sunday, May 11. Pre race activities, including an hour practice session get underway at 10:30 a.m.

SCHOOL NEWS

At a special meeting held Monday, April 28, 1969, the Manchester Board of Education set the amount of extra voted operational millage for the 1969-70 school year at 9.50 mills. This is the same amount of extra millage requested by the Board of Education for the current year. The Board of Education has been studying needs and school finances for several months, and has met with members of the citizens' committee on these matters. Inasmuch as there is an indication that a favorable change might be forthcoming from the State Legislature relative to school financing, the consensus is that the Manchester School District should hold the line for the coming year with the millage agreed upon. This request will be voted upon at the annual election to be held on June 9, 1969. Subsequent stories relative to school needs for the 1969-70 school year will appear in the Manchester Enterprise and in the school district's newsletter, the Report Card.

PUBLIC MEETING

The Board of Education and the Manchester Public Schools Citizen's Committee will meet on Monday, May 12, 1969 at 8:30 p.m. in the high school library. A discussion of the millage needs for the 1969-70 school year will be held at this time. Members of the Board of Education and the administration will present information on school finances and programs. The general public is invited to attend this meeting.

MARCH OF DIMES MEETING

The annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Chapter of the National Foundation March of Dimes will be held on Tuesday, May 13, 1969, at Weber's, 3050 Jackson Road, Ann Arbor. This will be a dinner meeting convening in the Gaslight Room, lower level, at 6:30 p.m. with dinner served promptly at 7:15.

We are most pleased this year to have as our speaker Dr. Gordon C. Brown, M. A. Sc. D., Professor of Epidemiology, School of Public Health, The University of Michigan. His research efforts in the relationship between virus and birth defects have helped to bring about the long anticipated rubella vaccine.

Also on the program will be our annual business meeting with election of officers. Added attractions will be the presentation of our annual Scholarship and Merit Awards.

As has been our custom each volunteer attending will pay $2.75 and the Chapter will absorb the balance of the dinner cost.

Do come and hear the excellent results of our 1969 March of Dimes!

BLOODMOBILE MAY 13

One week later and Manchester's Red Cross Blood Club is three pints in debt to the Regional Red Cross Bank!

YOU can help rebuild the account by coming to the Bloodmobile at St. Mary's Church Hall next Tuesday, May 13, between the hours of 12 and 6 p.m.

Manchester Division of Hoover Ball and Bearing is joining the local blood club as an industrial unit along with Double A Products which has been a member for many years. Company employees will be shuttled back and forth from the plants to the clinic on a regular schedule by volunteer drivers.

Residents of the area not employed at either of these companies are advised to register at the Union Savings Bank (clip board by the Red Cross Poster) or by calling Mrs. Rolland Grossman, 428-2311, who is Chairman of the Day. Scheduling is an important factor in having a smoothly running clinic, but donors may come even though they have not registered in advance.

May 13, 1969 was Manchester's largest clinic to date. Make it a lucky day again this year!

CITIZEN OF THE MONTH

Jan Huber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huber of 351 Schaffer Court, is the recipient of the Manchester Optimist Club Outstanding Citizen Award for the month of March. Jan, a sophomore at Manchester High School, and his parents attended the March 24 meeting where they enjoyed dinner with the club members and participated in the award presentation.

Jan was chairman of the committee for the Homecoming float in the 9th grade in which the 9th grade won first place. He was chairman of the committee for the 10th grade homecoming float. Jan was chairman of the freshman car wash and was one of the chairmen of the sophomore magazine sale. As a freshman he participated in football but was forced to quit because of torn ligaments. This year Jan was a member of the wrestling squad. Jan is a good student with a B+ average. Being very much interested in reading, Jan pursues the history of the World War I Air Force and the history movie directors. He likes to swim and play tennis and his hobby is art, especially cartooning.

The Optimist Club is well acquainted with Jan since he has participated in several of their activities. Two years ago Jan came in first in the oratorical contest and this year Jan came in second. And like many civic minded boys in our community Jan has helped out with the chicken broil for the past three years.

Jan attends St. Mary's Catholic Church where he has volunteered to shovel snow from the walks.

Jan, with Rich Hosmer, hit the headlines not long ago when they came across a skeleton of an Indian woman which is now in a museum in Ann Arbor.

During one summer Jan worked for his uncle on rides for a carnival at the Illinois and Michigan State Fairs.

Jan has traveled to California where he visited Disneyland, San Francisco and Los Angeles. He visited Chicago and also the World's Fair in New York.

Jan plans on going to Interlochen this summer to study film making, if he comes up with the necessary amount of money.

Jan plans on majoring in journalism at the U of M, Michigan State or Syracuse, to become a film critic.

Jan likes Manchester and would like to do something for Manchester when he gets older.

China Painting

By Carolyn Ahrens

China painting, an art of expression, talent and rewarding results, is enjoyed by many area residents. One such talented person is Mrs. Selma Alber of Bethel Church Road who taught ceramics and some china painting in the Detroit area for a number of years prior to the family's return to the Manchester-Saline area. "I'd always wanted to just china paint but never got around to it. Then when we moved back here the time seemed right to do something about it," Mrs. Alber said. So she began and soon a number of ladies became interested enough to convince Mrs. Alber that she should share her talents. She now has two china painting classes with 4 students in each and which meets once each week in the basement workshop of her home.

Blanks, as an unpainted piece of china is called, can either be china blank or china bisque the latter which is hand-made and cannot be purchased. A sketch of the chosen pattern is then carefully outlined on the blank. As pointed out by Mrs. Alber who usually helps her students sketch this outline, rarely does even a china painting expert ever begin painting without first making an outline. Greeting cards, catalogs, home and garden magazines give china painters many ideas in design and color although the colors usually vary with individual taste as each develops their own technique.

After the special china paints are applied the piece is fired several times. Then the colors are retouched a number of times to bring out the intricate detail. After each retouching the china is refired until the desired results are completed. The firing is very important Mrs. Alber pointed out as overfiring will take out all the color whereas underfiring would not mature the delicate colors. Usually 2 to 3 hours is sufficient to fire most pieces she said.

Recently she has reproduced an antique salt and pepper set which "entails hours of work" to bring out the colors, raised paste which gives the textured effect and then outlined in gold. Also Mrs. Alber has a number of items for sale plus several on display for anyone interested in seeing or buying hand-painted china.

The students have a variety of items to select from when entering Mrs. Alber's classes including plates, sugar-creamer sets, tea pots, candle holders, salt-pepper sets plus a variety of vases. The beginning expenses would be approximately $15 for anyone interested in china painting and Mrs. Alber does have room for a few more ladies. For further information in china painting instruction she may be reached at 429-4681.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME

The Manchester and Napoleon Fire Departments were called to the home of Sam Stevens on W. Austin Road at 11:45 p.m. last Saturday night. Fire Chief Jim Kensler said the 3 bedroom brick home had been burning approximately 2 hours before the blaze was seen by a passing motorist and a neighbor. The Gerald Pierces called the Manchester Fire Department just as Eugene Heckaman called the Napoleon Fire Department.

"The firemen did a good job as the fire was under control within an hour after we got there," Chief Kensler said. Although the damage is estimated at $25,000 the house is repairable. The blaze is believed to have started in the kitchen but because of the extensive damage the cause remains unknown. Kensler said he did not believe it was caused by faulty wiring as the house is new and the family had only lived there 7 months. He said the family had been away for the evening.

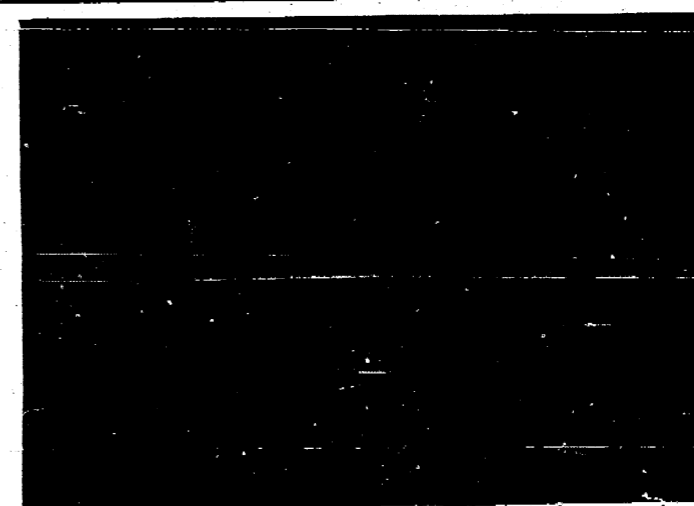

The fire department remained at the scene for approximately 3 1/2 hours.
