sive part of the Red Cross budget.

National emergencies, hurricanes, tornadoes, etc., are the duty of the Red Cross whenever a disaster area is proclaimed by the government. Funds for disaster are part of the regular budget. If the disaster is too great the extra money from the Community Chest Drives assists with extra calls for relief funds.

Huron Valley Child Guidance gives service to local school children and their families. It works closely with teachers and families, emphasizing individual counseling and extended care if needed. Parents are urged to take advantage of this service when help is needed.

Michigan Children's Aid is a well-known state-wide agency that has been assisting families in the area for many years. It is focused on prevention of difficulties and rehabilitation of children. Its service covers every aspect of the child in trouble.

Catholic Social Services is an agency that goes out where the people are. It assists all creeds with family counseling, psychiatric help, adoptions, child guidance and many other services. Counseling is given in Manchester at St. Mary's Church basement one day each week.

Washtenaw Association for Retarded Children is supported by the county as well as by voluntary gifts in order to be of help to families with retarded children. They are meeting a special need of the community.

Michigan United Fund consists of 36 health, welfare and recreational agencies. Each solicitor for the drive will have specific information about each of these agencies. Many agencies who still conduct individual drives could become a member of this group.

GOOD GRIEF GIVE!
POSTER WINNERS

Poster Contest winners in the school Arts Class contest for the Manchester area United Fund and Red Cross Campaign are: Craig Little from Luther Klager School first grade; Danny Burch from Luther Klager School second grade; George Hinderer from Pleasant Lake fourth grade and Gail Ray from Middle School sixth grade.

There are two winners from the Luther Klager School, where the participation was almost one hundred per cent, because there were no entries from the High School. The winning posters are on display in the Union Savings Bank windows during the month of October, while Honorable Mention winners will find their posters distributed among the village stores. Mr. Howell Poucher and Mrs. Robert Armentrout comprised the judging team. Mr. Poucher will report on their project at the Kickoff Dinner, October 15 at the Emanuel Church Hall where the winners and their mothers will also be the guests of the Campaign Committee.

There were so many posters and such good ones that the Honorable Mention lists are very long. We are happy to announce the following:

Kindergarten - Colleen Burch and Jimmie Feldkamp.
First Grade - Scott Ahrens, Carol Bus, Holly Carpenter, Lee DeClaire, Brenda Green, Jeff Pratt, Rick Scott, Colleen Scully, Steve Spensley, Fred Townsend, James Walkowe and Patty Walkowe.

Second Grade - Susan Ahrens, Debbie Bauer, Brenda Benedict, Sherry Green, Diana Johnson, Pam Knickerbocker, Debbie Kramer, Barbara Paul, Craig Rhoades, Jon Rowe, Laurie Watson and Alana Wolf.

Third Grade - Brett Calloway, Bernadette Fielder, Barry Hicks, Jim McEwan, Karen Randall, Terry Rowe and Beth Widmayer.
Fourth Grade - Kathy Arnett, Teresa Brokaw, Barbie Finrock, Susan John, Julie Johnson, Bev Ludwick, Leah Morrison, Terry Ann Shinabery, Joyce Schwab and Jacqueline Schneek.

Fifth Grade - Laurie Aluto, Mike Fisk, Mike Forner, Mark Gonyer, Kristianne Kuntz, Judy Luckhardt, Jane Schaible, Dianne Sadt, Sharon Voegeding and Sandy Yocum.

Sixth Grade - Linda Bertke, Wendy Downey, Mary Fillyaw, Kim Gill, Jamie Morley, David Rieneck, Kathy Schlosser and Pam Van Sickle.

Seventh and Eighth Grades - Frank Brown, Debby Lantis and Mike Schlosser. Some excellent posters were made at home and Honorable Mention among those are: Pleasant Lake School - Scott Barber, Richard Jannish, Jerry Landwehr, Keith Moore, Jon Munson, Bonnie Pyle and Sherry Wolf.

Luther Klager School - Sherry Culp, Dani England, Patty Kidd, Nicky Krzyzaniak, Joe Roberts and Linda Simmons.

Poster art is a special technique - if it makes you stop and read and remember, it is successful. Manchester school children want you to do just that - especially, remember! Good, Grief, GIVE!

CAMPAIGN KICKOFF INFORMATION

Wednesday night, October 15, at Emanuel Church Hall is the date and place for the Manchester United Fund and Red Cross Drive Kickoff dinner. The hour is 5:30 with dinner served at 7:00 sharp. Chairmen and team captains should gather together in the preliminary half hour at their designated places to distribute kits and discuss questions that need to be answered.

Kickoff may not be the term for a meeting in the middle of a campaign, but it does begin the House-to-House solicitation in the village and rural areas and the student drive at school. It also gives the Businessmen's, Industrial, Organizations and Out-of-Town Business Divisions an opportunity to report and ask questions about any knotty problems.

General Campaign Chairman, Jerry Creech comments, "With only one large meeting for solicitors in our schedule, this timing is more meaningful to all. The divisions that have been working can take an inventory of their efforts and the ones just beginning can go over every detail in a constructive frame of mind, assisted by those who have been working. This voluntary contribution of time, money and effort is what makes our Manchester Drive click. It's another year and another job to be done well."

The dinner which is sponsored by Manchester Tool and Die, Manchester Stamping Corporation and anonymous donors does not use a penny of campaign collected funds. It is a necessary workshop for solicitors where variations in this year's drive from those in the past are discussed. Reservations must be made to the chairmen by October 10 so that they can be reported to Jerry Creech on that date. It is most important that every solicitor be present but the campaign committee does not wish to pay for reservations not kept.

CHAMBER ELECTS OFFICERS: CHANGES IN POLICY PLANNED

At a recent meeting, the Manchester Chamber's newly elected and second year board members elected their officers for the coming year. Elected to the post of President was Ken Wolf; Al Gaige, Vice-President; Harry Macomber, Secretary; Harry Krauss, Treasurer. The other board members are L.V. Kirk, past president, and Walt Schaible.

Harry Macomber presented some ideas for revitalizing the Chamber in the coming year. Some of the ideas were:

1. An informal meeting every month at the Kopper Kettle. This would be a morning meeting where everyone could join in discussion about town problems over coffee. Also every month a formal meeting would be held presided over by the president where definite action would be taken, much of it from the informal discussion periods. These would mean a chamber meeting every 2 weeks for about an hour to two hours in the morning, one informal and one formal.

2. Lower the dues to $25.00 per year. Less money would be needed by eliminating the noon dinners.

3. Make regular written reports to the Village Council on how the Chamber feels about plans or action needed for the future of Manchester.

4. Invite everyone, member or not, to join in the informal discussion periods. Get the whole town involved in solving some of its problems.

5. Get occasional speakers to talk on definite problem areas in the village and how to solve them.

Ken Wolf stated that he would have some definite goals for the Chamber which he will present to the entire membership at next Thursday's meeting. The suggestions by Macomber will also be discussed and the Chamber will decide if they wish to adopt them.

The meeting will be held at the Methodist Church at 12:30 on Thursday, Oct. 16.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK A TRIBUTE TO HARD WORKING YOUTH

by Carolyn Ahrens

"I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, and my health to better living, for my club, my community, and my country."

A pledge written and adopted in 1927 by the Extension Service, later to become the 4-H Club, and the motto "To make the best better" represents the goals and achievements of millions of young people the world over.

This week, October 5 through 11 is National 4-H Week in recognition of a world-wide organization and the personal goals of boys and girls across the United States, Europe, South America and the Orient, reaching to every corner of the world where self-respect and personal pride are a way of life.

To tell the story of the 4-H Club would require a book. Such a book of the history and early beginning of this club was written by the late and internationally-known author and friend and neighbor of many Manchesterites, Franklin M. Reck. His book, The 4-H Story, was written over a 2-year span requiring months of travel and research. To pinpoint one given area, one man or woman, Mr. Reck discovered, to be credited with the early development of today's club would be impossible. Across the nation the idea ignited simultaneously with the enthusiasm of the young people.

The story began as early as the mid-1850's but not until the turn of the century did the actual groundwork for teaching and encouraging rural young people the importance and challenge of the life around them get under way. President Theodore Roosevelt saw this need, as did many others, when he encouraged, "a drive to life rural cultural standards." By then however, that drive had long been underway, Mr. Reck pointed out in his book, "whenever a public spirited man or woman did something to give rural boys and girls respect for themselves and their way of life."

With little or no encouragement or school education in agriculture in the early 1900's, these early pioneers in agriculture science, used the tools at hand. The first club, the corn club, inspired many young boys often working under extreme handicaps to achieve their goal. The first girls club was a canning club, their project tomatoes.

By 1903, a Girls' Home Culture came into being. O.J. Kern's Among Country Schools spread enthusiasm and ideas across the country; W.B. Otwell's corn exhibition displayed as a youth project drew nationwide attention at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and many more examples and details tediously gathered in Mr. Reck's book illustrates the immense program slowly sweeping the nation in the early 1900's.

It was this early period of growth also that the phrase head, heart and hand became popular as well as the appearance of a 3-leaf clover emblem to represent all the youth programs. "To bring home and school into closer relation; to prepare young people for the fullest enjoyment of their environment; to dignify the farm life of the Twentieth Century; to educate the youth of the country, town and city to a knowledge of the dependence upon nature's resources and to the value of the fullest development of hand, head and heart."

By 1910 there were over 46,000 members, an agricultural camp, recognition trips to Washington, D.C. and a Boys' and Girls' Institute, today known as the 4-H Achievement Institute, was held in North Dakota, to mention a few. Two years later there were 73,000 boys and 23,000 girls in the club, the Smith-Lever Act and federal aid and with WW I an even greater period

Who, What, When, Where & WHY

GUEST EDITORIAL

Involvement is a term heard a lot these days. Also demonstration. Many of today's headlines involve youths who demonstrate. Well, this week - October 5 - 11, more headlines will be highlighting stories of youths who are involved and who do demonstrate for what they believe in: 4-H.

This is National 4-H Week. It is observed by more than 3 million boys and girls from 9 to 19 years of age, and some 26 million men and women who once were 4-H members.

These 3 million youth represent every state and county in the United States. They are red, yellow, black and white. They are from Indian reservations, ghettos, big cities, sprawling ranches, suburbs, hills and valleys, farms and small towns. When they "joined" 4-H they agreed to learn-by-doing the 4-H way. And they have.

Backstopping these future citizens and leaders of our country are several million parents, aunts, uncles, grandparents, volunteer leaders and thousands of men and women employed by the Cooperative Extension Service who supervise and guide 4-H youth work. Also scores of private business enterprises have supported 4-H for half a century.

And that's a sizable number of men, women and children to be "involved" in a group "demonstrating" the merits of 4-H. To them and to the boys and girls who have pledged:

"My Head to clearer thinking,
 My Heart to greater loyalty,
 My Hands to larger service, and
 My Health to better living, for My club, my community, and my country".

We extend our congratulations and sincere good wishes for their success in "learning by doing." We look to their continuing demonstration to show others how to prepare a better meal, grow better crops, raise better livestock, practice greater safety to build a better way of life.

ATTENTION CAMPERS

There will be a camp out at Harrison State Park on October 17, 18 and 19. Anyone interested in more information, please call 428-8218 or 423-4761.

LIBRARY NEWS

We shall today elucidate a few facts for your education and edification.

Did you know - Kate Douglas Wiggin founded the first free kindergarten on the Pacific Coast and loved to tell her children stories among which are "The Birds Christmas Carol" and her famous, "Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm," published in 1903.

Louisa May Alcott wrote about her life as a child in "Little Women" and later went on to write its sequel, "Little Men" all about her nephews.

Joel Chandler Harris' first job was on a newspaper published at Turmworld Plantation in rural Georgia, where he first heard the folk tales of Uncle Remus.

Rudyard Kipling lived in India and anyone who has forgotten "How the Elephants Child Got His Trunk," need only wander to the banks of the grey-green, greasy Limpopo River, all set about with fever trees to remember.

Carl Sandburg wrote his Rootabaga stories because - "Children asked me questions and I had to answer them."

The Grimm Brothers, Jacob and Wilhelm, listened well to German peasants spinning tales of make-believe. They later set them down in three collections, the first of which was published in 1812.

Jules Verne "discovered" science fiction in 1863. Around the World in Eighty Days, originally entitled Five Weeks in a Balloon, was a huge success and encouraged him to write over 50 other books, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea" among them.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's inspiration for the "Children's Hour" came from his six children. Fur trading Indians in Longfellow's native Portland, Maine told stories the author used in "The Song of Hiawatha."

Washington Irving wrote "Rip Van Winkle" and "The Legend of Sleepy Hollow" in 1820 as part of the Sketch Book of Geoffrey Crayon, Gent. He became so great a success with that book that he called himself Geoffrey Crayon, but only for a short time.

BARBERS SELLING CANDY AS MEMORIAL TO RED LAMB

Barber Shops in Washtenaw County, members of the Washtenaw County Barber's Union, Local Number 689, are selling Trick or Treat candy as a memorial to the late Melvin "Red" Lamb of Manchester. Proceeds from the candy will go to the Kidney Foundation of Michigan to provide life-saving drugs to kidney patients.

Lamb, a former member of the Union, had both kidneys removed in May, 1966 and underwent a kidney transplant in December of that year. During his long illness, he also made use of the artificial kidney machine, which removes waste products from the body when the kidneys fail. His illness dated back to childhood and became acute in late 1965. He was employed at Sam's Barber Shop in Chelsea prior to his illness, and died in May, 1969.

As a memorial to him, barbers in the area will sell hand-puppets filled with candy for Halloween. Each puppet is $1.00 and included in it are twenty Trick or Treat candy bags, in addition to the candy to fill the bags.

Stop in at Riverview Barber Shop or Keith's Barber Shop and help this memorial fund to Red Lamb grow.

JOLLY FARMERETTES BEGIN A NEW YEAR

The Jolly Farmerettes 4-H Club met Monday evening, October 6 at the Sharon Town Hall to organize for the 1969-1970 season.

Newly elected officers are: Sr. Officers - President, Margaret Kemner; Vice-President, Beverly Feldkamp; Secretary, Vicki Eisele; Treasurer, Monica Curtis; Song Leader, Nancy Simmons; Recreational Leader, Beth Merriman; and Senior Reporter, Laura Sutton.

Jr. Officers include President, Martha Sutton; Vice-President, JoAnne Brustle; Secretary, Mary Simmons; Treasurer, Lois Kemner; Song Leader, Sue Vogel; Recreational Leader, Elizabeth McAteer and Junior Reporter, Jill Brustle.

A meeting of Teen Leaders will be held October 8 from 3:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bernard Kemner to discuss further plans for the coming year.

DOUBLE A PRODUCTS UNITED FUND DRIVE

Jerry Langowski, Double A Products campaign chairman for the Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive, announced the kickoff for his campaign Monday at 2:30 p.m. The concentrated drive in the plant runs from October 6 to October 10 with follow-ups as necessary until the drive is finished.

Twenty eight volunteer solicitors will work in the plant to help Manchester meet the goal of $16,240 in the annual fall drive. This team includes: Florence Horan, Olive Hazen, Elizabeth Bishop, Joan Glover, Nancy Creech, Mable McLean, Irene Wurster, Elaine Steele, Mary Ann Kappler, Ann Pniowski, Melva Strang, Bonnie Hertler, Phyllis Baker, Marilyn Samonek, Myrtle Roberts, Olive Feldkamp, Anna Waterman, Olive Kappler, Sophia Paul, Amanda Schaible, Bessie Osborne, Ardis Scheid, Elta Clark, Jodine Hansen, June Walkow, Nancy Lamarand, Jean Morrison and Susan Rajotte.

The work of these solicitors and Double A management make up a major portion of the total Manchester effort to meet the needs of this unique American method of sharing.

PUNT, PASS & KICK TO BE HELD SATURDAY

STEPHANIE STEVENS LARRY GOODELL UNITED IN MARRIAGE

A candlelight ceremony united in marriage Stephanie Ann Stevens and Larry R. Goodell in the Emanuel United Church of Christ at Manchester, Michigan on Saturday evening.

The Rev. Ralph L. Kuether performed the ceremony before the altar flanked by candelabras and gladiolus and chrysanthemums. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Johnson and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Goodell of Manchester.

As she approached the altar with her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of angel skin peau and lace, princess line, bouffant style, with attached chapel train, scalloped neckline, camelot sleeves, accented with seed pearls on front bodice and neck. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a matching headpiece of lace petals and pearls. She carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Pamela Stevens was her sister's Matron of Honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Candie Stevens, sister of the bride and Mrs. Linda Hartmann, sister of the groom. The bride's attendants wore identical gowns of pale yellow chiffon over satin with long bishop sleeves. They carried cascade bouquets of spider mums and ivy. Miss Lisa Caid of Bay City was her cousin's flower girl.

David Goodell served as his brother's best man and the ushers were Dennis Moore and James Hartmann, brother-in-law of the groom. Seating the guests were Michael Johnson and Jeffrey Stevens, brothers of the bride and Bill Kemner and Harvey Stoll of Manchester.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson chose a silk coatside of champagne gold with matching accessories, and wore a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Goodell, mother of the groom, chose a beige knit dress with matching accessories and also wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hazel Davidter was the organist, and Mr. Roger Morrison was soloist.

A reception at the church hall was attended by the wedding guests following the ceremony. Those who assisted at the reception were Mrs. William Gorton, Mrs. Robert Winans, Mrs. Robert Dupre, Misses Gloria Grossman, Darlene Cole, Linda Hoelt, Eileen Evisizer and Ethel Kellogg. Guests included Mrs. Susan Caid and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stevens, grandparents of the bride; Mr. George Grossman, grandfather of the groom and Mrs. Mary Sherbona great-grandmother of the bride.

The newlyweds will travel to Augusta, Georgia where the groom is stationed at Fort Gordon. On termination of his duty, they will return to make their home in Manchester.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents on Friday evening.

NATIONAL 4-H WEEK

of growth as the youth "rose to the needs of the country and those abroad."

By 1918 standards for a regular club were in process and in September, 1921, the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work was held in Chicago. The first National Camp was held in Washington, D.C. in 1927 and it was then that the official pledge was introduced. On February 14, 1951 the Chevy Chase Junior College was dedicated as the National 4-H Club Center and in November, 1949, the National 4-H Club Foundation of America was incorporated.

Today the 4-H Club brings unity and understanding, recognition and self-pride to young people the world over. Clubs such as those in the Manchester area create and stir interest in future careers, better homemaking and a better way of life. The Jolly Farmerettes under the leadership of Mrs. Bernard Kemner, Mrs. Reno Feldkamp and Mrs. Paul Eisele have contributed a countless number of hours to community projects such as the March of Dimes Balloon Sale.

The Sharon-Manchester Livestock Club is another important 4-H Club in the area led by Lowell Spike, Ron Kuhl and Arthur Feldkamp. The Western Riders, directed by Jim Hone and Neil Baggett; the Sharon Leathercrafters and the Sharon Valley Saddle Club led by Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Fisk; and in the Pleasant Lake area, Mrs. Simon Girbach and Mrs. Dale Weidmayer spend a great deal of time with the girls in the Learn and Save Club.

Without the dedicated men and women interested in the youth, the youth interested in themselves and the world around them, the 4-H Club would not be. It's a club for all generations, all color and creed, nation with nation. Seaman A. Knapp, the father of demonstration said, "The purpose was not so much to show the members, but to get him to show himself."

Franklin M. Reck felt the "brave dream of club work" might be this: "To provide the arena and the means by which each rural boy and girl can develop to the utmost his special talents and abilities to the end that he may be faithful to himself, the soil on which he lives, and the society in which he moves."

For information on forming 4-H Clubs or donating some time toward a club, a club leader or Mrs. Carolyn Little at the Washtenaw County Building, Cooperative Extension Service of which the Michigan 4-H Club is a part, call 663-7511.

FAMILY TRADITION
MAKING APPLEBUTTER

by Carolyn Ahrens

"It's a thing of the past," is how Mary Blossom described the old-time process of making applebutter, "and I wanted my children to see how it was done." Thus the Maynard Blossoms, with several of the 80 invited guests arriving Saturday afternoon, prepared the big copper kettle, cross-bar frame, five-foot rotating stir-spoon and open fire.

At 3 a.m. last Sunday morning the fire was lit and 50 gallons of cider poured into the kettle to simmer down to 25 gallons. By 7:30 a.m. more guests had arrived to peel, pare and core six bushel of apples.

By mid-morning the apples were slowly added to the simmering cider. "Then the real work began," Mrs. Blossom said. Constant stirring is important now until the apples and cider are thoroughly cooked together and there is no separation, a process that takes at least six hours she pointed out. Finally 20 pounds of sugar is slowly added to the bubbling mixture. The results -- eighteen gallons of thick dark brown homemade applebutter to be eaten warm or canned directly from the kettle.

A family tradition from Germany many years ago, Mrs. Blossom's family at one time made applebutter every fall. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tuckerman of Cement City particularly remember the all-night, all-day gatherings with young and old enjoying the delicious applesauce-like results.

The 60 to 70 guests who braved last Sunday's rainstorm traveled from Fremont, Ohio, Jackson, Brooklyn, Clinton, Tecumseh, Tipton, Cement City as well as several area residents, some with memories of days gone by and others "just plain curious" and the youngest guest, 1 1/2 year old Elizabeth Schultz of Adrian simply enjoying the excitement.

"It took a little longer than usual," Mrs. Blossom said. "Because of the weather the cider and apples cooked much slower than usual so we didn't enjoy the results until 5:30 Sunday afternoon. But then..."

Plans for another applebutter-making day? The entire family seems to think it might be a good idea.

Luther C. Klager, president of the Manchester School Board, welcomes visitors to the open house held Sunday at the new Luther C. Klager Elementary School. Mr. Klager has the added distinction of having the new school named for him. Visitors came to view the school despite the rainy weather. Dr. Harold Sponberg, President of Eastern Michigan University gave the dedication address. A special broadcast of the dedication ceremonies including Mr. Sponberg's speech will be aired on WPAG this Sunday from 2:05 to 3:00 p.m. The ceremony was taped by Howard Heith who attended last Sunday. Flags for each of the rooms were donated by the Manchester American Legion. More pictures on page 12.

WASHTENAW COUNTY
4-Hers TO HOLD AUCTION,
RUMMAGE & BAKE SALE

The National 4-H Center in Washington, D.C. plans to build an addition that will increase its facilities to handle 800 youth at a time. The project requires 8 million dollars in funds with Michigan's quota standing at $75,000. The 4-Hers of Washtenaw County are responsible for $1,473.

To raise this quota an auction, rummage sale and bake sale will be held on October 18 at 10 a.m. at the Rural Activity Center on Salina - Ann Arbor Road.

THE GOAL IS $16,240

Ninety of the 116 workers for the Manchester Area United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive met Wednesday night at Emanuel Church Hall as guests of Manchester Tool & Die and Manchester Stamping Corporation. Reports on pre-kickoff solicitation by the Businessmen's and Industrial Divisions and pertinent information regarding the house-to-house drive were the highlights of the gathering.

Jerry Creech, campaign chairman, outlined the aims of the fund gathering effort to meet the needs of fifty-two agencies through the fair share contributions of all. Giving to the united drive gives where help is needed and means the building of a better community.

The honor roll of volunteers this week includes thirty-eight rural and thirty village women who will seek the fair share gifts of all residents of the Manchester School District through house-to-house canvassing, to help meet the goal of $16,240.
