A WEALTH OF ENRICHMENT BOOKS ON DISPLAY

A well-organized and comprehensive book exhibit is one of the best means of supporting a strong reading program which reflects and enhances the wide variety and depth of the school curriculum. Such an exhibit, where the relevant new library books of the year for pre-school children through young adults can be seen and evaluated, will be open to teachers, librarians, administrators, parents and young people at the Klager School - Elementary Books (Pre-School to Grade 3), at the Middle School - Grades 4-9, and the High School - Young Adults (Grades 10-12).

The curriculum-related collection contains close to 800 titles from the lists of some 65 publishers. Here are books that help develop understanding of the world or the community or the self, and that help to satisfy the curiosity of youth, and books that provide pure entertainment.

The dates and hours of the exhibit are Thursday, 10-23-69, through Tuesday, 11-4-69. Annotated, curriculum-related, indexed catalogues of the exhibit are available to school personnel.

This important event is sponsored locally by the Manchester School Librarians in cooperation with Books on Exhibit, a national exhibiting enterprise.

OPTIMIST OUTSTANDING CITIZEN FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER, 1969 - 1970

Mark Lentz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Lentz of 9415 Grossman Road, Manchester and a member of the junior class at Manchester High School is the October recipient of the Optimist Club Outstanding Citizen Award.

Mark is a quiet leader. You don't know if he is around, but he gets the job done. He was the top magazine salesman last year selling $310.00 worth of magazines. Also last year he was captain of our very successful J.V. Football team.

This year Mark is a member of the Varsity Club and sports editor of the school newspaper. The junior class has held him in such great esteem that they have elected him to the presidency of their class.

RESPOND GENEROUSLY TO UNICEF TRICK OR TREATERS

Hundreds of "trick or treaters" in Washtenaw County will again this year be seeking more than candy and other good things to eat. During the week beginning October 26 and culminating on Halloween, October 31, children and youth will be going door-to-door to collect money for the United Nations' Childrens Emergency Fund (UNICEF). Persons ranging in age from elementary school pupils to University students will be participating in behalf of sick and hungry children all over the world.

All residents are asked by the sponsors of this effort to respond as generously as they are able to this appeal. Authorized canvassers will be carrying official UNICEF collection cartons.

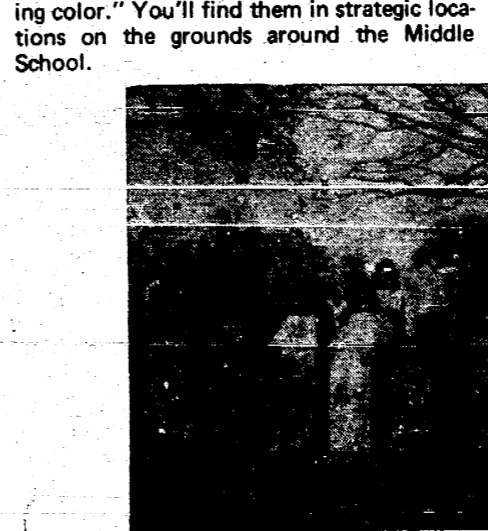

Serving as chairman for the campaign in Manchester this year is Don Gibson of Emanuel Church.

ART STUDENTS SUBMIT TRASH CAN DESIGNS

During the past month members of Mrs. Mary George's 7th and 8th grade art classes at the Manchester Middle School have been busy putting some life in the appearance of the outdoor trash barrels. Each of the students submitted designs which were then voted on by all students taking art. The students whose design was picked then chose someone to help duplicate their design on the trash can. Those in the picture are from left to right: Dennis Keizer, Bill Scott, John Roberts, Jim Miller, Connie Fletcher, Patty Kastanis, Debbie Lantis, Mike Grothe, Tom Guenther, Doug Herman, Leann Mahony, Kathy Marshall, Tim Tyskiewicz, Ron Wire and David Miller.

To really appreciate the fine job these students did, take time to see them in "living color." You'll find them in strategic locations on the grounds around the Middle School.

SKETCHES OF HOW UNITED FUND HELPS THE PEOPLE IN MANCHESTER

Continuing the thumbnail sketches of the United Fund Agencies and how they help people in Manchester:

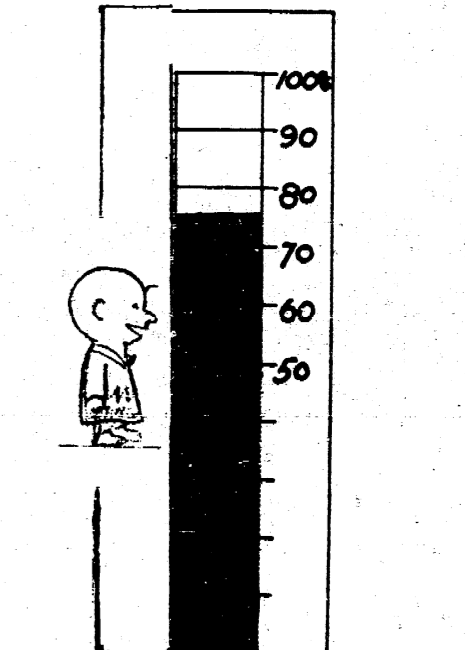

Michigan Kidney Foundation is probably one of the best known to the Manchester area of the 36 United Fund agencies. There are very few people here who do not remember "Red" Melvin Lamb and the tremendous aid that this organization was to that family.

Many people in the area are helping this agency to buy kidney machines through "Coupons for Kindness." Two machines have been purchased and progress is being made toward a third through the painless effort of thousands of citizens who save Betty Crocker coupons. If you are not saving all General Mills coupons for this project, you are invited and urged to do so at once. Mail all Betty Crocker (General Mills) coupons to Michigan Kidney Foundation, 3378 Washtenaw, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48104.

Catholic Social Service is the only agency that brings professional social service case workers to Manchester on a regular basis. Mrs. Otto is at her office in the basement of the St. Mary's Catholic Church every Monday afternoon. She may be seen or called by anyone in the area in need of assistance. It is unfortunate that many people still believe this agency serves only Catholic families. Its creed is "To help people regardless of race, religion or age." At least half of the 13 families that have been assisted in the past year are non-Catholic. Catholic Social Service has placed seven adoptions in the area and is working on the eighth. There are two foster homes near Manchester and four local families have used the foster home service.

Not all cases from the area are handled by Mrs. Otto at the local office. Three families are at present being cared for at the main office in Ann Arbor.

Washtenaw County Association for Retarded Children and the Michigan Association for Retarded Children, one of the 36 United Fund agencies are both in the budget. Anyone who has driven in Ann Arbor is familiar with the WARC buses carrying children and adults to and from Training Centers and Special Education Schools. The organizations are cooperating with the educational facilities of the county and state and are within call to aid families that need understanding and help with this special problem. The County Health Department nurse for the area can give individual referrals.

CONSUMER POWER NEW RATES NOW IN EFFECT

New rates for electric and natural gas customers of Consumers Power Company went into effect October 22. The electric rates were authorized by an Ingham County Circuit Court and the gas rates were authorized by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

The Public Service Commission's order of September 29 authorized the utility to increase its rates for electric service by $16.5 million annually, and its rates for natural gas by $21.3 million annually.

The new rates distribute a 6.2 percent increase in electric rates and a 10 percent increase in natural gas rates across several classifications of customers.

UNITED FUND REACHES $12,000 MARK

About $12,000 has been reported at press time, Monday, leaving the hardest part of the drive for the last week, if the United Community Chest and Red Cross Drive reaches its goal by the end of October, according to Jerry Cooch, executive chairman. It's no time to relax, he stated.

WATCH OUT FOR THOSE TRICK OR TREATERS HALLOWEEN NIGHT

The contest for the Oscar trophies at the various schools are completed except for the Middle School. Mrs. Vernon Dresshouse's second grade won at Pleasant Lake and Mrs. Kenneth Koube's second grade and Mrs. Maynard Blossom's third grade tied for the little statue at the Luther Klager Elementary School. They will share the trophy on alternate weeks. The Sophomore Class in high school had been declared winner in that area last week.

Mrs. Blossom reported that the school had now reached 100 per cent of their quota and it is hoped they will reach 115. The student collections have been responsible for the increase in this division.

Clarence Fielder announced 90 per cent of the Industrial quota pledged and reported. He expects to complete the division's work in the allotted time.

Harry Kraus, chairman of Businessmen's Division, has 85 per cent of his quota recorded. There should be no problem for his solicitors to meet the deadline as they started a week ahead of the others and each businessman had received a letter early in October giving the goal for the campaign.

Village house-to-house has only recorded 20 per cent of their quota. One captain has completed returns for four out of five of her solicitors.

Rural house-to-house reported 25 per cent with final collections due the thirty-first of October.

Special Gifts and Organizations have gone 100 per cent but are still working as their quotas were both very low in dollars and cents.

Good Grief GIVE your fair share now.

GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS APPROVED FOR MANCHESTER

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, Chairman of the Municipal Finance Commission, announced that the Commission approved $125,000 of General Obligation Bonds for the Village of Manchester.

Attorney General Kelley said, "The proceeds from the sale of these bonds will be used to pay the cost of acquiring and constructing bridge improvements consisting of a new bridge on East Duncan Street over the Raisin River and repairing the existing bridge on East Duncan Street over the Raisin River, in the Village of Manchester. The Village is authorized to levy whatever taxes are necessary to pay principal and interest."

Who, What, When, Where & Why

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PEOPLE OF MANCHESTER:

My heart aches as I look back on this last week's disgraceful display of anti-Americanism called the "Vietnam Moratorium." It seems incredible to me that people living in our free, wonderful country could openly act to give aid and comfort to our enemy in wartime. It is even more incredible that they could so act and arouse virtually no outrage from the majority of the good citizens of our country.

I assure you that my fellow soldiers and I in Vietnam are outraged and disillusioned by this disgusting demonstration of disloyalty on one side and apathy on the other.

Senator Goldwater, one of this country's true patriots, has called for all loyal citizens to demonstrate their love for their country and support of their fellow citizens who are fighting for their country in Vietnam on November 11, Veteran's Day.

It would restore my faith to read in the pages of the Enterprise that at least the people of Manchester cared enough to spend a few moments this November 11 in some appropriate display of their love and loyalty to this wonderful country.

MANCHESTER STUDENTS ATTEND MSU NEWSPAPER DAY

Five students from Manchester High School heard Paul A. Poorman, Managing Editor of the "Detroit News", speak at Michigan State University on Thursday, October 16.

Becky Feldkamp, Debbie LaRock, Linda Luckhardt, Marcia Steele and Valorie Vogel attended Poorman's speech as part of the activities of MSU's High School Newspaper Day. The Manchester area students, along with other high school students from throughout the state, also participated in "Working Journalist Sessions," led by University professors, in which they discussed topics concerning the many phases of journalism.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB MEETING NOTES

The Shakespeare Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Don Limpert. During the business meeting a donation was made to the United Fund.

For the program topic, Mrs. Philip Kern gave a resume on "The Calvin Coolidge Village", a cluster of farmhouses, a church, general store and cheese factory located in Plymouth Notch, Vermont. Mrs. Kern read a narrative on "A Legacy for all Americans." Located on thirteen acres, near the birthplace of Dwight Eisenhower is "The Eisenhower Museum," with over 4,000 items, "The Eisenhower Center" and "The Eisenhower Chapel."

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Ralph Kuether on Tuesday, Nov. 4 at which time Mrs. Kuether will have as her topic, "Rocks and Minerals."

ASCS PROVIDES POTENTIAL HUNTING AREAS

Throughout the 1969 hunting season, there again will be 2,100 farms in Michigan open to public hunting. Nick Smith, Chairman of the Michigan State ASC Committee, states that these hunting areas are made available through the Cropland Adjustment Program under which farmers retire cropland from production of surplus crops and divert the land to conservation and recreational uses. The farms that are enrolled in the public access program receive a small additional payment which is based on the hunting potential of the areas they offer.

Hunter density is limited to no more than 1 hunter per 10 acres.

The public access farms are identified by a large green and white sign usually posted at the farm headquarters and reads, in part, "Hunting permitted without charge." It is still the responsibility of the hunter to identify himself at the farm headquarters and learn the boundaries of the area available. The Horton trespass law applies to public access farms as well as any other private land.

A list of the public access farms in any county, which gives the name, address, township and section, may be obtained from the county ASCS office.

LIBRARY NEWS

A heavy frost has stripped many of the trees, those remaining are dry and brittle. The rustling underfoot and the sparkling clear air give us our last lovely view of a gorgeous fall, and we know winter is coming. We would like to give you a view from a library window, of a small town and of the world.

Peaceful, and usually quiet, the restfulness is valuable, noise intrudes occasionally, but then it is a merry, interested sound, one made by people inquiring of a subject and often being fascinated by the answer.

The enormous number of history books give us access to periods in history when the world seemed in such appalling condition, a single peaceful man could bow his head and cry.

Biographies of famous people can be compelling and inspiring as well as interesting and we know immediately that great people are not only in books, but are indeed living now. Classical Greek tragedies are being enacted in our own special years.

Ferment in religious attitudes is yeasty and if the authors are to be believed, healthy and a sign of growth - interesting new depths and directions have come out of these fermentations in the past.

Attendance at college seems to be necessary but what has a graduate actually done? Read an enormous number of books - Biology - Mathematics - Zoology - Witchcraft - all available for the time invested in reading. Socrates complained of youth going to the dogs, and we have been complaining ever since - the youth attending the library are certainly going beautifully, with bright, alert, intelligent minds.

COUPLE SPEAKS VOWS

Europe was the wedding trip destination of Susan Jane Thompson and Douglas Michael Schaffer. They spoke their marriage vows Saturday, October 11 before Dr. Robert C. Smith in First United Methodist Church in Jackson, Michigan and received reception guests in the Country Club of Jackson.

The daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Tom B. Thompson, 761 Park Road, Jackson, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen W. Schaffer, plan to live at 308 Van Buren, Jackson, Michigan.

Peau de soie and Alencon lace in a cream color were fashioned in the bride's Victorian-style gown which was accented with a nosegay of cream roses, stephanotis and babies'-breath. She borrowed a lace mantilla which her sister, Mrs. Robert L.

O'Neil, Jr. of Chicago, had worn for her marriage.

Another sister, Gail H. Thompson was maid of honor and Tom S. Thompson, a brother, was best man. Ushers and bridesmaids were Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. David G. Bibbins, William J. Carey of Ann Arbor, Jeffrey K. Schaffer, a cousin of the bridegroom, Gale H. Koebe, Mrs. Richard D. Schubert of East Lansing, Mrs. Douglas N. Higgins of Ann Arbor, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Richard K. Kenney of East Lansing.

Not Cheap
"In times like these, it is best to live only one day at a time," asserts an editor. Yes, indeed. And some of us can hardly afford that.

COMPULSORY UNIONISM NEW SLAVERY

Agriculture in Action
It's an old story, but never boring, about the little guy who beats the giant. Like the tale of David and Goliath, a small group of only 350 school teachers in Detroit are opposing the giant union. It's a miss-match, as if Little Orphan Annie were fighting Jack Dempsey. Honey, pack that sling shot real well!

It's a match of freedom of choice versus compulsory unionism. Miss Christine Warczak, President of the newly formed "Detroit Teachers Opposed to Compulsory Unionism" and a school teacher for seven years, is dedicated to voluntary unionism for Detroit teachers, not compulsory unionism.

The friction began when it was announced that Detroit Teachers' new contract, effective in early 1970, requires that teachers either join the Detroit Federation of Teachers (DFT) or pay a fee equal to union dues to the union for negotiation services.

"The right to a job should not be conditioned upon paying a union," Miss Warczak said. In fact this poorly financed upstart organization that dares to defy the rich clutching octopus arms of the union is taking steps to challenge the union hierarchy in the local courts -- and in the federal courts if necessary.

Farmers everywhere will be observing these events with much more than a passing interest. Threatened with farm labor unionization on a compulsory basis (not voluntary), their cause is closely aligned with these school teachers.

"Compulsory unionism is often called the new slavery and essentially this type of unionism adopts the communist theory that there should be only one party to which everyone should give allegiance and support. Inside the party there may be disagreements, but no one is permitted to go outside and support any opposition movement," says Donald R. Richberg, author of "Labor Union Monopoly, A Clear and Present Danger" and a lifetime fighter for the legitimate rights of labor.

As President Christine Warczak has said, "They want to destroy the freedom of choice. It is contrary to everything Democratic, everything we stand for in this country."

"There is nothing wrong with American that the faith, love of freedom, intelligence, and energy of her citizens cannot cure."

Dwight D. Eisenhower

102nd Year No. 3

November 6, 1969

Donald A. Roach, Vice President and General Manager, Hydraulics Division, Brown & Sharpe Manufacturing Company, presents the Hydraulics Division's (better known as Double A Products Company) contribution to the Manchester United Fund 1970 Drive in the amount of $2,750 to Jerry L. Creech, Chairman of the Manchester United Fund Drive. Jerry is accepting the check on behalf of Clarence Fielder, Industrial Division Chairman. The company increased its gift 10% this year.

Final figures show a 10% increase in contributions and pledges over 1969 totals. This amounts to approximately 50% of the Manchester United Fund goal and is the largest total ever contributed by Double A Products Company and its employees.

THE CHARM OF MANCHESTER

The following article is taken from the Fremont Times Indicator, a weekly newspaper in Fremont, Michigan. It was written by Nancy Johnson.

"As the assiduous reader of the 'I See By The Indicator' column may have noted, one or another of our family occasionally goes to Manchester. The purpose of the trip is to visit an aunt, but the village itself has a charm which adds much to the pleasure of the time spent there.

Manchester is a small village, quite near Ann Arbor, situated in a lovely valley of the River Raisin. It's business district is one block long, extending from the Main Street bridge which crosses the river at the dam and the mill, to a perfectly restored Greek-Revival house.

There are many delightful old houses in Manchester and in the surrounding countryside, for it is in a part of the state settled early in the last century.

A pleasant green lies in front of the Manchester Library-Historical Museum (in another lovely old house) and is bordered by the three village churches. The churches take turns holding old-fashioned ice cream socials on the green during the summer.

Every July, the whole town works together to put on a giant Chicken Broil. The chicken is absolutely scrumptious, and this year 12,000 dinners were served.

The cemetery is west of the village, behind a tall ornamental iron fence, on the side of a steep hill. There are some quaint old tombstones there and some bizarre stories about people buried there long ago.

As the attendance at the annual Chicken Broil indicates, many people have discovered Manchester's village charm. Fortunately, most of them seemed determined to preserve it, and real estate values have skyrocketed.

A few years ago, a man from Detroit bought a block of store buildings and restored them to the way they looked in 1850. He put an antique shop in one, rented office space in others, and opened the Black Sheep Tavern -- a good place for lunch.

Of the several antique shops in the area (one, in the old mill at Sharon Hollow, is worth a visit just for the site), the best is "The Henery" in a barn behind a house on Ann Arbor hill. Open only on summer Saturdays, primitives are on the lower level (hens' nests still there), finer pieces on the main floor and in the hayloft.

Anyone who goes to that part of the state, and who enjoys a bit of early American charm, might find Manchester worth a side trip.

James Wilson, Vehicle Technician and UAW Representative for the United Foundation Torch Drive on the right hands a check in the amount of $750.00 to Clarence Fielder, chairman of the Industrial Division of the United Fund. On the left is Leonard C. Nawrocki, Personnel Manager of Chelsea Proving Grounds, Chrysler Product Planning and Development. Chrysler's contribution was a 22% increase over last year.

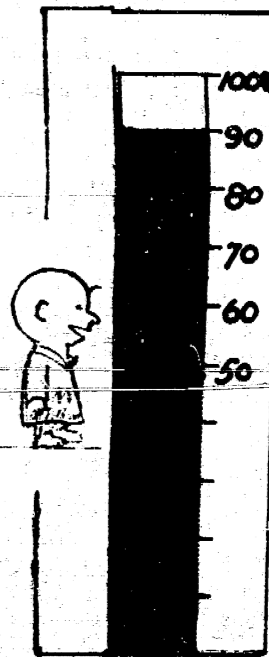

UNITED FUND REACHES 90% OF GOAL

90% of the United Fund goal is reported at press time. The Division Chairman with teams do not have complete records as approximately a dozen solicitors have been unable to "make connections" with all of their prospective donors.

Mrs. Lynn Voegeding, chairman of Rural House-to-House, reports $1,127.80 from her solicitors to date, plus $310 from the Special Gifts Division towards her quota. With six solicitors still to report, she expects to exceed her division goal of $1,450 by the first week in November.

Clarence Fielder, Chairman of Industrial Division, is giving individual reports for exceptional records at the various plans. These reports will continue into November.

Hopefully the drive report will be final next week, according to Jerry Creech, campaign chairman.

When you gave to the Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive, you gave to the USO, which is a division of the Michigan United Fund. Every service man or woman in the area at sometime or another has had the benefits of the USO, either overseas or state-side. It is still doing all it can to make the lives of service personnel a bit more pleasant, for about 40 in this area.

Manchester Recreation which is supported by the Village Council as well as the Community Chest is governed by a board of five local citizens who employ trained personnel and help plan the yearly program. Children from the whole area are welcome to the playground activities -- 205 were registered last year and an average of 88 participated in the swimming program. An average of 10 were brought in daily for swimming from the Pleasant Lake area by bus connection. One of the farm teams was made up of Pleasant Lake boys in the baseball program. Suggestions are welcome for activities by Maynard Blossom, chairman of the board.

Pictured above are the people who participated in the first Chamber of Commerce Informal discussion. The general topic was store fronts and a theme for Manchester. Don Limpert expressed his ideas and some of those present thought they might like to follow Don's theme on his four stores. Also discussed was parking behind the stores. An informal meeting will be held each month on the last Tuesday from 8:30 to 9:00 a.m. Everyone is welcome to join in. This is not intended to trap someone into the Chamber, but rather a free expression of ideas which the Chamber can work on. The regular meetings will also be held each month on the second Thursday from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m.
