

DUTCHMEN UPSET MADISON BOW TO CONCORD

by Cal Poppink

The Dutch got their game together for the final regular season game to upset Adrian Madison 66-64. After building up a 13 point half-time lead, the Dutch went cold in the third quarter and hit on only 2 of 18 shots. Madison went to work behind their two all-league players Beach and Brown, and built up an eight point lead. Manchester fought back with a press and went ahead to stay when Mike Stockwell hit a basket with 25 seconds left. Mark Roberts hit all seven of his points in the final four minutes of play to help in the victory. Tapping was high point man with 18, followed by Ahrens and Schaible with 14 apiece. The win left the Dutch with a regular season record of 7 wins and 8 losses.

Manchester played only one tournament game this year, losing to Concord 81-68. The Dutch didn't play well and Concord was hot, hitting on 50% of their shots. The second and third quarters were the downfall for the Dutch after they were tied at the end of one period. Schaible led the scoring with 20 points, followed by Tapping with 15 and Minor with 10. Seniors playing their last game were Dallas Ahrens, Scott Stolt, Rich Schaible, Mike Stockwell and Dave Westfall.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

Monday night Council set a new record, for shortness. All business was concluded by 8:30 p.m.

Wendell Reinhart and Bruce Daniels announced that a Village-sponsored Clean-Up week would be held from March 28 to April 4. Every week day during this time, the Public Works Department will pick up any rubbish, etc. that people place beside the curb. On Saturdays in this week, they will pick up until noon. Bruce stated that the only requirement for pick-up is that it be near the curb and in a size of container that could be picked up by the men.

This will be a good opportunity for everyone to get rid of unsightly rubbish.

Police Chief Becktel reported that he would like to have a "pick-up stray dogs day." He receives numerous complaints, but the village has no facilities to handle these dogs so we depend on the county (which is worse than nothing). The day of the "dog drive" will be announced.

Council accepted with "regret" the resignation of Chuck Steele from the council. A replacement will be announced at the next meeting.

Council received three letters - from the Village Tap, Rumlur & Shannon and the Black Sheep requesting the license approved in last weeks election. Seems everyone wants it after Don went to the expense and trouble of getting it approved. Council tabled the matter for further study into the rules governing the awarding of the license.

Herb Mahony reported on Don Limpert's water bill. The unpaid balance on the multiple billings now amounts to over $700.00. If not paid, Council plans to add it to the tax roll.

"TEMPORARY JOB" LED TO 48 YEARS IN CLOTHING BUSINESS FOR WALT SCHAIBLE

by Carolyn Ahrens

Fashion it seems is the keynote of the world whether high button shoes and billowing skirts, the flapper of the roaring 20's, the ankle-length street dress or gradual hemline rise to today's mini. The high style of fashion appeared to be caught by the ladies alone. Today, it's a different story.

Although men's styles changed considerably over the years not until the past few years did it change so drastically. Today the young men don plaids, paisleys and psychedelic prints as never before. Mod fashions have brought a greater variety of style and color in everything from formal to beach wear. Walt Schaible of Schaible's Mens Wear said, "There's always been a continual change in men's styles. It's just that today their styles are going "way out." True they are similar to those of the 20's and 30's but are actually quite different and it wouldn't do much good to dig in the attic for dad's old suits and ties because they would be as outdated as the old wide-brim hat and long top coat." Schaible has seen the changes in men's fashions for many years and contends they've been as changeable as the ladies' although until now maybe not as noticeable a change.

In the clothing business since 1922, Mr. Schaible began his future career on a temporary basis. "I thought I'd stay six months when I hired in at Wuerthner Brothers Clothing Store but here I am 48 years later in the same business and the same building."

The building housing Schaible's Mens Wear was built in 1880 by John Wuerthner who owned a saloon next door. He leased the building and for several years it was the Robinson & Koebe Clothing Store. In 1891 Wuerthner decided to use the store himself and opened the Wuerthner Clothing Store. Then in September, 1922 Walter Schaible accepted a temporary job that led to his buying an interest in the store in 1927 and the complete business in 1941. "And we worked long hours in those days," he continued. "We opened early and stayed open until 11 p.m. on Wednesday and Saturday nights. My starting pay was $12.00 a week."

When Schaible bought out the Wuerthner Brothers in 1941 he kept the business under their name. "In those days we were rationed the number of pants, shoes, etc. that we could get. The quota for a new business was really limited so with Gus and Carl's permission I continued under their name for several years."

Today Schaible's Mens Wear carries the same complete line of men's clothing as it did many years ago. The styles have changed but the service remains the same. With a complete line of clothes from work clothes to formal wear, boots and shoes, Schaible's Mens Wear draws customers from several surrounding towns including fashion conscious Ann Arbor. "But I couldn't have made this business without my wife, Vera," Mr. Schaible said.

In addition to the Schaibles at present Mrs. Lyle Widmayer, John Pratt and David Westphal are employed at the store as have many high school students and area residents been employed throughout the past years.

A life-long resident of Manchester, Mr. Schaible and his wife have a daughter, Mrs. Arthur Fasoli of Cranbrook Village, Southfield and three grandchildren.

AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL

America The Beautiful?, just take a look around you. What do you see? Trash, garbage lying all over the ground. The air is so thick you can barely see and breathe. The waters with great oil slicks floating over them.

Come to America the free country where you do as you please as long as you follow the rules.

Millions and millions of job opportunities, if you can live on $.50 or $1.00 per hour, great opportunities and vast horizons for slums in our country.

What's being done about it? The money is being sent to other nations for the very same reason.

Free citizens? Yes, when you are made to fight in a war that has no concern on our lives and every day living, a war that belongs to the people who started it, but who can't support their beliefs.

The now generation, the people that are going to run the country in five to ten years being shut up and put down for expressing their beliefs, what is going to happen when they do run the country? Will they get revenge? This will be determined in the next few years treatment towards their ideas and beliefs.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Any comments?

Mine are -- Quit worrying about revenge and worry about the solutions to the problems you have presented. The best manner of avenging ourselves is by not resembling him who has injured us.

MANCHESTER FAMILY SERVICE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

The Manchester Family Service met at the Manchester Township Library on March 11 for their annual meeting. Several guests were present. Annual reports were submitted and filed.

Luther Klager will remain on the board filling the vacancy for the term 1969-1972.

Three directors were elected for three year terms. They are Ruth Sadt, Genevieve Lemon and LuVerne Armstrong.

Officers for the year 1970 are Claire Reck, Chairman; LeRoy Marx, Treasurer and LuVerne Armstrong, Secretary.

Mr. Michael Miller, Director of Protective Services led a discussion about Protective Services.

Protective Services is a specialized social services provided to families of neglected and abused children intended to improve the functioning of the family group through differential planning or to remove the children from the undesirable situation by petitioning the court.

Anyone having knowledge of an abused or neglected child under the age of 17 should be reported. They are usually reported by direct telephone contact. There is a 24-hour service.

Steps that follow for Washtenaw County are (1) Petition filed in Juvenile Court who work through the Catholic Family Services to provide an emergency temporary home for the child. (2) Report must be filed by Protective Services in 7 days and must contain a solution. (3) Prosecution then goes into Circuit Court.

In 1927 Sister gave up her business, her car and plane to enter the convent. She says "as you say today, I had found my thing and it is still my thing."

Sister just recently made headlines by her victory in the Wabash Cannonball case. She was successful in keeping the famous Wabash Cannonball of the Norfolk and Western Railroad running.

In addition to being a practicing attorney, Sister is a professor at Sienna Heights College in Adrian. Many in the Manchester area have had contact with Sister at the college.

Sister Ann Joachim and another Dominican were the first nuns in habit allowed behind the Iron Curtain in Russia. She has entertained many groups in Michigan with her slides which she secreted out of Russia in the many pockets of her habit.

WIG PARTY TO BE HELD SATURDAY TO BENEFIT SPAULDING FOR CHILDREN

The girls from Manchester High School and their mothers are being invited to a WIG PARTY in the Study Auditorium of the high school on Saturday, March 21. All proceeds will go to SPAULDING FOR CHILDREN, a relatively new agency with headquarters near Chelsea, that seeks to find adoptive homes for hard-to-place children. There are about 6000 of these children in Michigan that have been housed in foster homes or in institutions while other agencies have tried unsuccessfully to make a permanent placement.

These children have been tagged as hard-to-place because some have physical handicaps, some have mixed blood, and some are older children. Spaulding is meeting with real success as they attempt to match the child's need with the adoptive families' potential. Mrs. Elvira Vogel and other volunteers are anxious to make these needs known and will have information available about the work of the professional staff at Spaulding for Children.

The party will get underway at 2:30 p.m. A 50 cent donation is being solicited. The wigs will be available to try on and order upon request. Refreshments will be served.

Although he cannot receive visitors, cards and letters are greatly appreciated.

Mrs. LeRoy Knickerbocker was in charge of the potluck supper, assisted by Mrs. Armin Haeussler, Mrs. James Kress, Mrs. Ted Roberts, Mrs. Norman Bucholtz, Mrs. Ambrose Lentz and Mrs. Raymond Weidmayer.

Mrs. Poppink introduced the 9th, J. V. and Varsity cheerleaders and followed that by recognizing both the J. V. and Varsity girls basketball teams. The J. V.'s currently have a 7-1 record and the Varsity is 3-5.

Mr. Mains and Mr. Schick then said a few words about their teams, and introduced all of the players on the ninth grade and J. V. basketball teams.

Mr. Ted Gulliver presented the wrestling team and gave a brief summary of the season and of each boy's individual accomplishments for the year. He paid special tribute to Dan Roberts, Dan Spiess and Pete Haeussler who had been with the team since its start three years ago and had all been conference champs this year as well as winning a trip to the state finals. Annual awards went to Dan Ganzhorn, Most Improved, Tim Preston, Most Humorous, and Dan Roberts, Most Valuable. Dave Roberts and Bernard Roulo were announced as co-captains for next year's season.

The presentation of the Varsity basketball team was last on the program. Mr. Poppink announced the winners of three awards. He first explained that the boosters had given a new Most Valuable Player trophy to the basketball team. It will be Music for the style show was furnished by Miss Karen Sullivan of Chelsea on Saturday afternoon. Friday night and Sunday afternoon, Mr. Clinton Fisk of Manchester furnished organ music on the Lowery Organ, courtesy of Apollo Music Company of Ann Arbor.

Sixteen of the top clothing projects were selected to be exhibited at the Country Fair competition at Dearborn's Greenfield Village in May. Eight other projects were also chosen to be exhibited at the State 4-H Show and Youth Exploration Days scheduled for this coming August on the campus of Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Looking for the Easter Bunny? He's in the Middle School Kindergarten Room and by the looks of those happy faces, the youngsters are very pleased to have him there. The 8 foot bunny was built by the kindergarten. Last November the children made a snowman from the chicken-wire structure. According to kindergarten teacher Teddy Groeb, the children were so reluctant to part with the giant snowman that they decided to turn it into a big Easter Bunny. Who knows perhaps next month the very special bunny will be turned into a circus clown!

How a minority, reaching majority, seizing authority, hates a minority.

L. H. Robbins

102nd Year No. 23

March 26, 1970

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF YOUR TOWN?

by Carolyn Ahrens

Today it seems is the age of "expression" whether good or bad, constructive or the window-breaking, bottle-throwing, bombing destruction that has sadly become too frequent an expression across this nation. Our nation was built on ideas, opinions and personal expression and it shouldn't stop but today's "front page protest" isn't the way to build a nation. Opinions are a necessity in a democracy, a democracy that we ourselves know could be better in many ways but yet is far better than many other nations. Today we are faced with pollution, over-population and inner unrest, problems faced and eventually lost by many other countries. Will we let it happen to us? Have too many Americans working for the good of their neighbor become carried away with their version of "personal expression?"

We in Manchester have been little affected with the unbelievable problems facing so many of our fellow Americans. Compared to them, our problems are minute but as expressed by one village resident, we do have problems that we could improve upon and fortunately are more easily repaired. In Manchester we have been able to settle our problems peacefully even though not always to the satisfaction of everyone "but (we are) working together to build something better," William Schwab pointed out. Manchester is not a perfect village nor should we think it is. There are many ways of improving a village such as this in appearance, community projects, business and a number of other possibilities. Mr. Schwab's opinions are only the first of what hopefully will be followed by many Manchester area residents from farmer to businessman, young adult to senior citizen.

A life-long resident of Manchester, Mr. Schwab is active in community and church affairs. He is a Cost Accountant at Double A Products, a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus. He and his wife Diane have five children, Philip 12, Kenny 11, Laurie 10, Carolyn 8 and 3-year-old Mark.

What does Manchester mean to me by William Schwab

Manchester is a town of generally quiet people, organizations, churches and businesses. As in any community of our size, there are many things that could be better. We could have better roads, sidewalks, curbs and gutters, separate storm and sanitary sewers, more and better stores with articles or services that would be the desired size, style, color, or other specification including price that would fit our needs at the time we need them. We could have more industry so that there would be more jobs. We could have more recreational facilities, especially for our young people. The list of things that this town needs goes on and on but the thing that I wonder is whether there is any town anywhere that doesn't have a similar list. The cities certainly have the same problems but they are compounded many times over . . . traffic, air and water pollution, crowded living and working areas where your next-door-neighbor might be your acquaintance but only possibly your friend. Crime and lack of respect for any authority in the streets, schools, churches and even at home so far exceeds what is true of Manchester that we can be very thankful that we are here. Constructive discussion of problems can be what makes a town, a university, or any group of people strong, but I say constructive - not tearing down but working together to build something better. Most of the things I have mentioned require money and effort to fix but whose money and effort will it be? Mine and yours. The same people that complain about all these things and want them changed right now are also complaining about every increase in taxes or demand on their time and efforts. Let each person examine his own record and see whether he helped the community or his neighbor by cleaning up his property, cleaning the river, helping on some church committee, civic organization, did he contribute to the United Fund and other charities just as important and did he use their services.

My children enjoyed the ice rink at the athletic field pavilion this winter, they attended the summer recreation program and learned to swim and play ball. They participate in Scouting, attend school activities for their age group. For all this I'm thankful and very glad that I can send them out with reasonable confidence that they will get to their destination and back home in safety.

If anyone feels they have need to complain, let him be the first to join a group and make it a large group, so large a group that it encompasses every person in Manchester so that together we can strive to correct the wrongs.
