103rd. Year No. 2

October 29, 1970

PROPOSAL "C" NO

"Vote 'no' on Proposal 'C', public officials, private citizens and organized groups throughout Michigan urge voters on the November 3 ballot. Proposal 'C', if accepted Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said, would bar the $22 million Parochial aid section that the Legislature included in a $969.3 million school aid appropriation; State aid in the form of specific tax benefits or payments to parents of children in parochial schools or their teachers; most auxiliary services such as speech correction, visiting teachers for delinquent and disturbed children, school diagnostic services, teacher counseling for physically, emotionally or mentally handicapped children, remedial reading and shared-time programs that some parochial and public schools have for teaching math, industrial arts or other vocational subjects such as drivers training.

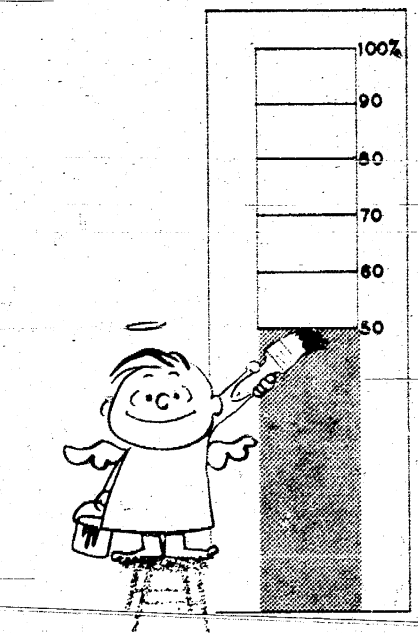

Thomas B. Adams, Chairman of the Board of Campbell-Ewald Co. and a member of the Citizens Against Proposal "C" (MCAC) said, "In addition to the effect Proposal "C" would have on thousands of school children in Michigan, it would have an equally strong impact on millions of Michigan taxpayers. There are 280,000 children enrolled in 800 non-public schools in Michigan. These schools each year in state and local taxes. This figure does not include $1.2 billion in building replacement costs. I don't think our citizens realize at the moment what a real tax-saver's bargain our 800 non-public schools are for the people of Michigan."

The State School Aid Bill, passed last July and which seems to have caused some confusion, did in no way effect public school monies. The State School Aid Bill allotted $22 million in State aid for Michigan's 280,000 non-public school students out of the $969.3 million approved in that State aid bill. The non-public school section of that bill allows the state to pay up to 50% of the salaries of non-public school lay teachers who teach secular subjects (those subjects not under religious control) and the bill also stipulates that state aid for non-public school children may not exceed 2% of the total expenditures for public education from state and local sources. About 85% of Michigan's 280,000 non-public school students attend Catholic schools, 14% attend Christian Reformed and Lutheran schools and the remaining students attend other non-public schools.

As pointed out by one area individual, "Parochial is not taking away from the public schools, but if help is not given the private and parochial schools, the taxpayers will find themselves with an even bigger tax burden." He added that under the State School Aid Bill, the state does have some control over non-public schools as it very well should have. "The state has a right to see that non-public schools keep a high standard of education with accredited teachers and subjects for both the protection of the state-allotted monies as well as the education standards of our children." He further pointed out that if anyone really wanted to get down to a priority basis, private schools were actually the first schools in this country and religious-oriented schools aren't new either. The University of Michigan was founded in Detroit by a Catholic priest and Brown University was founded under Baptist affiliation, both with the original intention of teaching theology students. He also pointed out the high scholastic standards evident in private and parochial schools.

Several individuals and groups are united in opposition to Proposal "C" including the State Board of Education, Gov. Wm. G. Milliken, Lenore Romney, Philip A. Hart, State Senator Sander M. Levin, Democratic candidate for governor and many others.

The outcome of Proposal "C" will indeed be one of the most important decisions ever made in Michigan.

SOCIAL SECURITY DAY TO BE HELD AT UNION SAVINGS

The Union Savings Bank and the Social Security Administration District Office in Ann Arbor are jointly sponsoring a Social Security Day at the bank on Wednesday, Nov. 4. An information exhibit will be set up in the main public area of the bank, and a representative from the Social Security Office will be on hand all day during banking hours, including evening hours, to answer questions for Manchester area residents.

The next monthly Social Security checks will be delivered on Tuesday, November 3; however, the bank will be closed that day due to the General Election. Over 650 Manchester residents receive Social Security checks, over 400 of these being retired people and their wives or widows, and the rest are younger people who are paid on the disability program or survivor benefits.

The sponsors of the event hope that not only will those people already drawing Social Security checks be assisted with any questions they might have, but also that younger people still employed and paying Social Security taxes will stop by and learn more about the four Social Security programs and ask for the simple postcard form to check their own earnings records.

the thermometer in the Union Savings Bank window. A year ago it was at 75%. In an election year things always go more slowly and this year is no exception even though there is no increase in the amount to be collected for 1970 and pledges are running as usual or better individually.

Ted Stautz, campaign chairman, reports that by this Saturday, Oct. 31, reports will have to be in so that the follow-ups can be done by captains and division chairmen as soon in November as possible. Solicitors in the house-to-house divisions had a deadline of the 29th for their reports. Remember the slogan, "Helping Is Happiness."

HALLOWEEN PARADE THIS SATURDAY

The Manchester Halloween Parade-Party will be held this Saturday night at the Athletic Field at 6:45 p.m. This event is sponsored by the Manchester Jaycees.

There will be prizes for best costumes apples, cider and donuts following the parade.

Hope to see you there even if you don't have a Spook or Goblin in the parade.

COMING - A NIGHT WEAR FASHION SHOW

This is it - our annual MANCHESTER MOONLIGHT SALE - with store personnel dressed ready for bed. The date is Friday, Nov. 27, the day following Thanksgiving.

This novel sales event has been a lot of fun for both customers and store people in past years, and merchants are making careful and extensive plans for this one to be the most interesting ever.

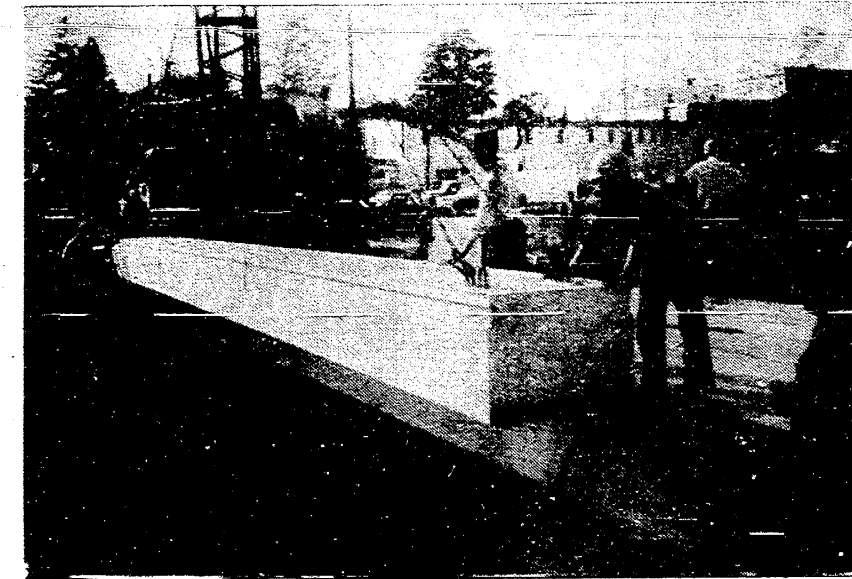

Stores are busy now getting night-shirts fashioned, and lining up a good stock of attractively priced merchandise for the sale. You will find substantial stocks of new goods ordered especially for this sale.

The event will be made more attractive by in-store prizes offered by some merchants and by the appearance of a "Mystery Shopper" with gifts to shoppers at random. Stores will close at 6:00 to make final adjustments and re-open at 8:00 to remain open until eleven.

Watch in future editions of the paper for a listing of goods offered by merchants for this sale.

Prizes will be awarded for best costumes, and customers are invited to compete for them.

This promotion is sponsored by the Manchester Chamber of Commerce.

Wendell Reinhart, Chairman of the Public Works Committee of Manchester, reports that the Duncan Street bridge is nearing completion. Approximately 165 tons of concrete was used in the footings and wing walls for the pre-cast beams which were laid across the bridge surface last Friday. There were eleven beams used each weighing over 14 tons. These beams will now be pinned to the foundation and the joints grouted. Sidewalks will then be poured on each side and the bridge surface and approach to the 2-lane bridge will be asphalted. Aluminum railings will then be placed on each side. Reinhart added that repair on the Main St. bridge will get underway early next spring. Duncan St. bridge is under contract of Union Construction Company.

PROPOSAL "C" YES

The Michigan Association of School Administrators has been an active member of the Council Against Parochial aid and has given its support to efforts to place the parochial issue on the ballot November 3, 1970. M.A.S.A. continues its support and recommends a "YES" vote on Proposal "C".

Rational evaluation of this proposal has been clouded by references that the amendment goes too far. Based upon the opinion of their attorneys, it is the contention of M.A.S.A. that the amendment does not go too far.

In answer to the allegation that the proposed amendment would outlaw property tax exemption, their attorneys point out that Article IX, Section 4, of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 specifically allows for the exemption and that the U.S. Supreme Court recently upheld the exemption of churches from property tax. Furthermore, their legal counsel states that the Michigan Court of Appeals held on September 2 that the proposed amendment will not abrogate or repeal any existing provisions of the Michigan Constitution.

Nonpublic school pupils would not be barred from attending public schools to receive instruction in certain secular courses. Article VIII, Section 2, of the Michigan Constitution obligates the legislature to maintain and support a system of free public elementary and secondary schools for pupils without discrimination as to religion, creed, race, color or national origin.

Likewise, the proposed amendment would not deprive nonpublic school students of any auxiliary services such as speech correction and remedial reading programs and health and nursing services. It would simply require that such services be rendered, as the M.A.S.A. believe was originally intended, at public expense under public auspices and at public institutions.

In response to the contention that the proposed amendment will keep nonpublic school students from football fields, cut off fire and police protection from non-public schools, and stop public services and sanitation services, M.A.S.A.'s legal counsel states, "In case after case, the U.S. Supreme Court has made it perfectly clear that the kind of aid to nonpublic schools which presents constitutional problems has nothing to do with nondiscriminatory furnishing of police and fire protection and other customary services available to all, every individual homeowner regardless of creed, or profit and nonprofit institutions, public and private, on a non-discriminatory basis." Last week the Attorney General indicated agreement with this interpretation.

M.A.S.A. attorneys point out that Federal funds would not be in jeopardy with passage of the proposed amendment. Several states have similar restrictive anti-parochial amendments in their constitutions, and in none of these states have federal funds become unavailable.

The basic issue is that of direct aid to nonpublic schools. It is the $22,000,000 appropriated in 1970-71, an estimate of $50,000,000 in 1971-72, and no doubt full funding in the future, according to M.A.S.A. It is the fact that one-half of the cost of teachers' salaries which non-public schools receive in 1970-71 and three-fourths of teachers' salaries in the future will provide more state aid for a nonpublic school than for many public schools.

Let's not be fooled by the threat of closing all nonpublic schools and the scare of taking services away, says M.A.S.A. All will not close; services will still be available at public schools. This may be the last opportunity to stop mushrooming aid to nonpublic schools and to preserve the heritage of separation of Church and State as it relates to education. The people must sneak out!

VOTE MANCHESTER'S
TOM ROBERTS
WASHTENAW COMMUNITY COLLEGE TRUSTEE

- YOU will elect:
- Experience in on-the-job related education
 - Understanding of educational financing
 - Experience in business and management
 - Ability to secure industry support for WCC programs
 - Effective relationships with government leaders

Tom Roberts is a practical man committed to practical education. He is nationally known for his work in management and business education, is a consultant to industry, holds a University of Michigan business degree and is an executive officer of an Ann Arbor publishing firm.

A STATEMENT ON WCC CANDIDATES

Do we want and need an Out County Trustee on the W.C.C. Board?

Let's look at the facts. Out county property owners pay 35% of the taxes that operate W.C.C. We represent 34% of the population. Therefore, on a one-man-one-vote basis we should expect to hold no less than two seats on this Board.

We fill NO Board seats at this time. No one speaks directly for us when our tax dollars are spent. Our practical spending policies are not represented. In other words, the Washtenaw Community College Board is unbalanced.

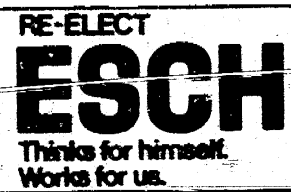

It will remain unbalanced unless we elect Out County Trustees to speak for our uniquely different needs and point of view.

We need a spokesman who cares about us because he lives among us... one who can speak for us first-hand. Lastly, we need someone to keep us informed of the evolving programs at W.C.C.

Our votes helped to start W.C.C. Now let's vote for a say in where it's going by electing Tom Roberts from Manchester and of the candidates running from the Ann Arbor area, we support Elmer White.

Senator Bursley,

I would like to see the legislature pass a law to do the following:

Signed, _____

address _____

Mail to: Senator Gil Bursley, State Capitol, Lansing, Michigan 48902

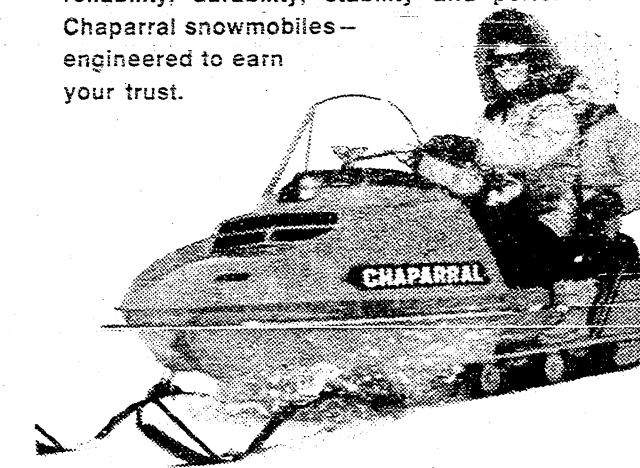

Senator Bursley has served in the Michigan legislature since 1960, and has been a recognized leader on some of the most important issues of the day: education reform, the environment, abortion law reform, urban transportation, housing, inter-governmental relations. The Senator says many of his best legislative ideas have come from constituents, and that there are many more where they came from. So he asks you to take this opportunity to tell him what's on your mind. In short, this is your chance to write your own law. Just jot down your ideas on the coupon and mail them to Senator Bursley—he'll put them into action.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Doreen M. Kuhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armin H. Kuhl of Chelsea, and Howard L. McCalla were united in marriage at Emanuel United Church of Christ in a double ring ceremony at 7:00 on October 17 by the Rev. Ralph Kuether. Howard McCalla is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCalla also of Chelsea.

The bride chose a flowing white gown with crystal bodice and "spider looking" lace accented with pearls, sheer sleeves and stand-up collar, inverted pleats and long mantilly veil of the "spider looking" lace. Miss Gail Lynn Kuhl was her sister's maid of honor, wearing an antique gold rayon blend gown with orange and rust color embossed floral pattern. She carried a flowing bouquet of lime green Fuji mums with fall color accents. The bridesmaids were Miss Kathy McCalla, sister of the groom, Miss Judy Sanderson and Miss Karen Lehmann all of Chelsea. Their gowns matched the maid of honor's. The flower girl was Wendy Fargher and the junior attendant was Vanita Scott both of Chelsea. They carried baskets of mums and wore long gowns of antique gold bodice, sleeves and collar with the skirt of the orange and rust floral pattern.

Mr. Kenneth McCalla was his brother's best man. Jerry Kuhl, brother of the bride, Richard McCalla, brother of the groom and Loren Heller all of Chelsea served as ushers. Junior attendant was John Scott. Ring bearer was Brian Fargher, Jr.

SOCIAL SECURITY DAY

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1970

at UNION SAVINGS BANK

A representative of the Social Security Administration will be on hand all day to answer questions and to offer assistance to any person having any question pertaining to any phase of Social Security. Hours will be the regular banking hours for Wednesday, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Mrs. Royal Davidter was the organist and soloist was Donald Gibson.

The reception was held at the Manchester Sportsman Club. Miss Eileen Macke of Manchester poured coffee and Miss Audrey Keppler poured punch, both are cousins of the bride. Mrs. Olivia Bell of Detroit, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Loren Koenigter headed and served the buffet supper. Miss Sharlene Rentschler handled the guest book.

The couple spent one week in the Midwest and now reside at 20625 Waldo Road, Chelsea.

CHRISTENING HELD

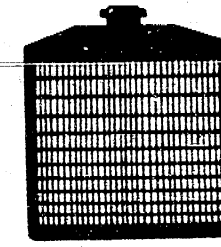

Marie Antoinette Ball, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Leon Ball was baptized Sunday, October 18, 1970 at St. Mary's Catholic Church, by the Rev. Fr. Raymond Schlinkert. The Godparents were Mr. & Mrs. John Ball of Manchester.

Also attending the christening were Marie's brothers and sister, Michael, Mark and Michelle, the paternal grandparents, Mr. & Mrs. Duffield Ball and Mr. & Mrs. James Curley.

A buffet dinner was served at the home of her parents.

COACHES CORNER

This week's opponent for the Dutch will be the Michigan School for the Deaf. The school is in Flint. They have not won a game this year, but had fine teams in the past. They have the Class "D" 100 yard State Champ in track in the backfield. Starting guard Rich Hosmer suffered his second injury of the season. Rich sat out the majority of the Hudson game with rib injuries. Rich should be ready to go Friday.

JAYCEES TO PERFORM AT HALF-TIME THIS FRIDAY

The Manchester Jaycees will present a half-time program this Friday at the Mich. School of Deaf home game.

The program will be a preview of the Snowmobile Race this year. Two drag races will be run plus other events.

This Friday is also Mom's Day and Dad's Night. Don't miss it!

DUTCH JVS BEAT HUDSON 8-6

The J.V.s played one of their best games last Thursday in beating Hudson. They played good hard football and it payed off with a victory. It was an exciting game to watch. They had the fans up and down all night.

Tom Popkey scored the T.D. and Dennis Keezer scored what proved to be the winning two points. The J.V.s are now 5-1 for the season.

They will play at Sand Creek this Thursday. Starting time is 7:00 p.m.

Note: We omitted the bowling news & Booster's story till next week so we could put in more pictures of the last game.

UNFILLABLE RX

There just isn't any such prescription. Even if a prescription should come in calling for some agent not on our shelves, we would almost certainly have the necessary material in our hands within an hour or two.

But this is the rare case, indeed. We maintain stocks of literally thousands of drug items, ranging from the newest to some that have been standard for 40 or 50 years.

Having the right drugs, when you need them, goes far beyond usual business considerations. It's part of our professional obligation as pharmacists. Nothing takes precedence over this.

DUTCH LOSE BIG ONE 24-8

The Dutchmen may have lost the big one, but let me tell you something, Hudson must have thought they were playing the No. 1 team in the State the way the Dutch played Friday night. The Dutchmen out-played Hudson the first half and was not far behind in the second half.

The score at half-time was 8-0 then Hudson scored again in the third quarter making the score 16-0. But the Dutch didn't give up. They came back with a T.D. from Phil Nickerson and Bucholtz scored the two points. The score stayed at 16-8 until the last minute of play with Hudson scoring their third T.D. and putting the game on ice. So you see, the Dutchmen were in the game all the way.

They may not be in the Top Ten this week, but in the eyes of the Dutch fans, they don't have to take a back seat to anyone in Class C.

Head Coach John Korican said in the 10 years he has been here he has not seen a player like Phil Nickerson who can play both ways and do the job that he does. He gives his all at all times. Coach Korican said he doesn't know how Phil can be overlooked for the All-State Team.

The Dutchmen play here Friday night against the School for the Deaf and don't forget it's Mom's Day and Dad's Night.

TEENS TO "TRICK OR TREAT" FOR UNICEF SATURDAY

This Saturday afternoon, Oct. 31, members of the Emanuel Youth Fellowship and kids from the Manchester Middle School will be "Trick or Treating" for UNICEF. They will be scurrying around town from 2:00 to 4:00 asking your support in gathering a collection to be sent to the United Nations' Children's Emergency Fund.

This fund supplies medical assistance, food, tools, and teachers to children in need throughout the globe and constitutes one of the most promising examples and one of the most successful functions of the United Nations.

Anton Schlosser is serving as chairman of the day and will be assisted by Mark Difenderfer, Jim Baker, Paula Johnson, Ann Kensler, Scott Eisele, Jim and Jeff Buestle, Kim Kensler, Eileen Macke, Susan Jacob and Linda Walter from Emanuel Church. Also, a number of kids from Middle School will join them with Tracy Ahrens, Linda Simmons, Cindy Sanders, Karan Kennedy and Brian Calloway serving as captains.

We encourage everyone to respond graciously as these people come to your doors. It is Manchester's way of saying

"Yes, we're willing to share with others and give them hope."

ESCH CHILDREN TO CAMPAIGN IN MANCHESTER MONDAY

Congressman Marv Esch will get a last-minute boost in his drive for reelection to Congress from three of his strongest supporters, his three children.

Emily, 17, Leo, 15 and Tom, 13, will hit the campaign trail for their dad on Monday, November 2, the day before election. The Esch-Teen-Age-Team will visit Milan, Saline, Clinton, Manchester, Chelsea and Dexter in their one-day campaign blitz.

Esch, a resident of Southeastern Michigan for 25 years, is seeking his third term as Congressman from Michigan's Second Congressional District. A Republican, he is a member of the vital House Committee on Education and Labor in Washington, D.C.

The Esch family trio will hand out campaign literature on their six-city tour.

Emily, Leo and Tom will be in Manchester from 2 to 2:30 p.m. on Monday.

Mrs. Olga Esch, the congressman's wife, was scheduled to campaign for her husband last week but was forced to cancel out at the last minute because of a family illness.

What Mask Do You Wear?

Forgive us for using Halloween as a means of making a point. But while we are busy rating our favorite football teams, political candidates and this stock and that stock . . . how does your family rate you? Are you the "fair haired boy" 365 days a year or the "ogre" around the house. Do you have peace of mind because you have established a good savings program at the bank? Are you going to be all set at tax time this spring because you have checkbook stubs for positive receipts? Are your debts of a sensible nature because you took your banker's advice?

Speaking of Halloween, this weekend could spell tragedy as well as fun. Please drive with care as our youngsters will be caught in the excitement of trick or treating and their vision could well be impaired by costumes and masks. Drive carefully, won't you?

103rd Year No. 3

November 5, 1970

WHAT MANCHESTER MEANS

by Carolyn Ahrens

Nancy Hanewald is a high school senior who likes to walk in her spare time and "just think about everything in perspective." Apparently she thinks a great deal about Manchester and because she cares, finds the time to participate in many school and community affairs. High school projects have included FHA, Pep Club, FNA and a Red Cross volunteer at the fair, girl's basketball, GAA, Visage, the school newspaper, Varsity Club and the Science Club. Nancy also worked at the Dairy Queen for two years.

As a member of Emanuel Church, she is in the choir, teaches Bible School, is active in Youth Fellowship and gave the church sermon recently. Nancy has no definite college major in mind but does plan to attend Northwestern next year.

One particular involvement that proves her interest in Manchester is her attendance at the Village Council meetings, "so I know what's happening in Manchester and why," although she, as well as many others, would like to see more citizens interested in the council and the "kind of people they filled the office with," she added.

To Nancy Hanewald, the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Art Hanewald of Schleweis Rd., Manchester means . . .

Manchester to me is a place where you can learn the true value of people. It's a town that is small enough that you can call each person by name. You may not get to know them as closely as you wish, yet you know them. In the big city such relationships are usually impossible. Most of the people have grown up with each other in a town like Manchester. Also many people don't want anything changed but in today's changing world, the support of a peace-giving faith that combines the substance of the old with the light of the new is what we need. We have to change some of the old things in spite of those who don't believe in it.

The people are real here and the majority of them will reach out by all means to help which is shown by all the projects through churches, chicken broils, the Jaycee river-front cleaning project, the new Helping Hands Project, which by the way I feel is a great asset to our town even though we may not use it that much now but with the future coming along so fast you may not realize how much we do need it, and many more projects. And for those people who aren't involved in the community, get involved. The priceless gift is the joy of work and the greatest value in life is loving people and serving them.

The Village Council members of our town should be proud to represent it. But how many people even know who is on the Council? How many people take the time to read the minutes in the Enterprise? But what do the minutes tell you about the men in office anyway -- that they're working to their full capacity? Or if there is something that they didn't do. You can also learn what type of individual each council member is. The Manchester Council works hard on achieving goals that will make everyone satisfied. I think everyone who cares should get more involved with the people who are running our town and attend at least one council meeting to know what they represent.

Many people who come into our town will fall in love with it in a few short hours. They will come right up to you with plenty of enthusiasm, asking all sorts of questions such as, "Do you know everyone who lives here?" and the number one question, "Do you know of a house for sale?" Manchester is in great need of a better housing development.

Kids from surrounding towns come here for a big night and by 10:00 they're saying "What do you do in this town for excitement?" What can you say. There is a great need for a place for the kids to go. I'm sure everyone is aware of this. I've heard talk about it for sometime but still no action. Having the K of C Hall open helped a lot. But it was only open on Wednesday night anyhow -- what about the other six nights? We need some place to go, say about 1:00 at night to get something to eat or just talk. Where can the youth gather? Everywhere we get together on the bridge or streets the police are always there to remove us. You can't shut us up in our houses at 1:00 and expect us to be happy. We can only grow mentally by doing our thing. You learn life by living it, not reading about it.

The schools in Manchester are pretty good. The majority of the people are really proud of them. The biggest thing at our school is sports. The parents don't realize how much it helps to have them there supporting our teams. But where can they be found at the less talked about sports such as cross-country, track and girl's basketball? Our athletic director is one of the greatest people alive. Mr. Korican will jump down anyone who shows bad sportsmanship. Manchester should be proud of their sportsmanship as shown in the players and the spectators. There are many schools who envy us!

There are many changes that Manchester could use. For instance, a better ambulance service. It takes so long for an ambulance to get here then when it gets to town, it gets lost half of the time. But to talk about one of the most needed changes -- and that is getting the minority of the people with the majority of the people. Also getting the adults and the adolescents together. People for the first time must face the changes in society, all those big changes you hear about in the cities are coming to our town. They're developing more and more. I've heard people talk about drugs as if it's no problem in our town, but it is. For a town that used to have a brewery, beer drinking has been known of since before my time. But now beer isn't the thing and drugs are creeping in on the kids of our town. It's not just the lower class people who are taking them. Kids in school are on them but what can you do, you can't rap on a person you grew up with and think the highest about. But that's why now more than ever, everyone in our town must pull together to bring a society that is worth living. Think about it.

In my thoughts of Manchester, I've hit lightly on a few topics of concern. I hope my thoughts bring more thinking than anything else. Manchester means a great deal to me. I've lived here all my life. I want to get away from here next year so I may find the right thing for me, which I feel everyone should do sometime in their life. But after awhile I want to come back to my town to bring my children up in a community that can work together. Manchester is what you make it, it can be a pretty cool place but we must take care of it.

YOUTH APPRECIATION WEEK NOVEMBER 9 thru 15

Youth Appreciation Week, November 9 thru 15, sponsored annually by the Optimist Clubs throughout the United States and Canada, will have full support and active participation locally by the Optimist Club of Manchester, it was announced today by Chairman Clarence Fielder.

Now in its 13th year, Youth Appreciation Week has become the most popular of all the programs conducted by Optimists, with hundreds of clubs across the nation spearheading observance of young people's noteworthy accomplishments in their communities.

"Our purpose," said Chairman Fielder, "is to bring to light the many accomplishments of our fine young people, too often unheeded and unheralded." As you know, the local club honors a teenager each month for his or her accomplishments in the school and community.

"While Youth Appreciation Week is an Optimist sponsored project," he continued, "we invite and encourage the support of the entire community."

TWO CAR COLLISION KILLS ONE, INJURES OTHER DRIVER

Last Friday evening shortly after 6 p.m. two vehicles collided head-on on Austin Road in Manchester. Killed in the crash was Thomas M. Boehret, 65, of Dearborn.

The other driver, Alonzo P. Warren, 36 of Manchester was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for treatment of injuries. Mr. Warren told authorities that he wasn't exactly sure what had happened just prior to the collision but that all of a sudden a car was in front of his pick-up truck.

Drawings of the mishap made by the Sheriff's men indicate that Boehret's vehicle had crossed over the middle line into the path of Warren.

Mr. Boehret purchased the former Fred Grossman farm on Grossman Road here in Manchester from Don Limpert in 1968.

UNITED FUND HITS 85%

Follow-ups on the Manchester United Community Fund and Red Cross Drive are coming in on schedule. 85% by the first week in November is customary -- each year there is a new "hang-up," and reports are still coming in.

Although Mrs. Lynn Voegeding reports that Rural House-to-House is over the top as far as their quota is concerned, there are still a few people in the area that solicitors "did not find at home." Mrs. Voegeding is anxious to hear from anyone who was missed in the rural area and will contact those who are known in the near future.

Mrs. Herbert Mahony's Village House-to-House teams have not quite finished their reports at the Enterprise deadline, nor have they reached their goal. A similar request is made for those not contacted to get in touch with Mrs. Mahony.

The Oscar Contest at three of the four schools were won by the sophomores in high school, Mrs. Ethel Brown's fourth grade in the Klager School and Mrs. Vernon Dresselhouse's second grade in Pleasant Lake School. The Middle School Student Council is conducting its own drive for the fund and will be announced later.
