ABRAHAM LINCOLN WALKS AT MIDNIGHT

Vachel Lindsay

It is portentous, and a thing of state There here at midnight, in our little town A mourning figure walks, and will not rest, Near the old courthouse pacing up and down.

Or by his homestead, or in shadowed yards He lingers where his children used to play. Or through the market, on the well-worn stones He stalks until the dawn-stars burn away.

A bronzed, lank man! His suit of ancient black A famous high top hat and plain worn shaw! Make him the quaint great figure that men love, The prairie-lawyer, master of us all,

He cannot sleep upon his hillside now He is among us, as in times before! And we who toss and lie awake for long Breathe deep, and start, to see him pass the door

His head is bowed. He thinks on men and kings. Yea, when the sick world cries, how can he sleep? Too many peasants fight, they know not why, Too many homesteads in black terror weep.

The sins of all the warlords burn his heart. He sees the dreadnaughts scouring every main. He carries on his shawl-wrapped shoulders now The bitterness, the folly and the pain.

He cannot rest until a spirit-dawn Shall come; the shining hope of Europe free; The league of sober folk, the workers' earth, Bring long peace to cornland, Alp and sea.

It breaks his heart that kings must murder still, That all his hours of travail here for men Seem yet in vain. And who will bring white peace That he may sleep upon his hill again?

MY VALENTINE WISH Marian L. Moore

A year has rolled by, and it's Valentine's Day So I'm sending this wish for you, In hopes that the day will bring joy of the best With enough to last your life through.

May the days as they pass, a sequence of song, Bring love, that is true to your heart. Which will weave all your dreams in a pattern of hope And a fullness to life impart.

So with Valentine's Day, and all that it means, I shall offer my love and my best; May fortune's bright smile shine forever on you And God grant your slightest request.

GIRL SCOUT COOKIE SALE CHAIRMAN CHOSEN

Mrs. James Kensler, 309 Territorial Rd. has been appointed Girl Scout Cookie Sale Chairman for Manchester, according to Mrs. Jack Hagopian, Plymouth, Cookie Sale Chairman for the entire Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

According to Mrs. Kensler, the council covers such a large area that many volunteers are needed to make the sale run smoothly. Girl Scouts in Washtenaw, Livingston, western Wayne and northern Monroe counties comprise the council. They will take orders for cookies from Feb. 20 thru March 7 and deliver the cookies to the customers from April 13 thru 25.

This year the sale is especially important to the Girl Scouts, according to Mrs. Kensler. They've set their council goal at 300,000 boxes of cookies, an increase of 3,000 boxes over what they sold last year. The Council profit, 21 cents per box, will be used partly to further develop Camp Linden, their year-round camp in northern Livingston County. The Scouts are conducting a public fund campaign now to help raise $600,000 to develop the camp, but they need the profit from this year's sale to take care of some camp development costs that are not included in the $600,000 fund goal. In addition council profits provide camperships for needy Scouts, help pay expenses of older Scouts selected for national and international opportunities, and cover some operating expenses connected with camp operation.

"Camp Linden is really important to our local Scouts," says Mrs. Kensier,"some of them will attend resident camp there in the summer and go week-end camping there with their troops.
