December 30, 1971

NEW YEAR GREETINGS

It is a special occasion, the hour of midnight. The moment is here to ring out the old and welcome the new. The old year is gone, consigned to memory. Coming up now is a fresh, new supply of time. We have plans and dreams.

There is time, at the moment of change, for reflection. We must briefly look over the shoulder to estimate progress and achievement. We must recognize where we are, and where we are going. If we fail to do this, then January 1 is important only because we change the date on our calendar. We can look to the future - but we must build on the past.

Ring now the bells loud and clear. Gather together with family and loved ones. Share the warmth of this moment, this time, with one another, in the spirit of togetherness.

Winner of Ford's Service Program

Erwin Weidmayer, 10044 Pleasant Lake Road had an unexpected present under the family Christmas tree this year.
Mr. Weidmayer won a color television set from Tom Marshall, Inc. as part of the dealership's winter service program for customers. Lyle Weidmayer, Gen. Mgr. and Jim Kensler, service manager, presented the award at the dealership on Christmas Eve.

Awarded Scholarship

Washtenaw County Voiture 40-5 held their Christmas Party at the American Legion Hall in Manchester Thursday, December 16.
Mrs. Ovid (Susan) Rojotte was awarded a Nursing Scholarship. This is a four year scholarship, renewable from year to year.
A donation was made to the Probate Judge's Christmas Fund. Monies from this fund are used for the children under the care of the court.

HURON VALLEY GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL

Christmas came right on time for the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council when they received a gift this week of $10,000.

The gift boosts the Girl Scout Camp Development Fund to nearly $450,000 which the council is using to develop Camp Linden, year-round outdoor facility in northern Livingston County.

"This contribution certainly supports the belief of the Ford Motor Company in the fundamental values of Girl Scouting," said Mrs. Patrick Heck, Ypsilanti, in accepting the contribution. Mrs. Heck is the Eastern Washtenaw Area Association Chairman for the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

According to Mrs. Heck, funds are being used for the development of the 400 acre campsite as soon as they become available. In the past year the Girl Scouts have built a caretaker's residence and workshop-garage, boat house, health center, troop camp cabin, tent platform unit, and day camp shelter. A dining hall and cook's cabin are both under construction and will be ready for use next summer.

More than 12,000 girls are served through the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, with 3,000 volunteer adults. The Huron Valley Girl Scout Council is partially funded for its regular operations by twelve United Funds and Community Chests in Washtenaw and Livingston Counties and the western part of Wayne County. Capital expenditures are funded through gifts from individuals and corporations and the annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale.

Receives Degree

Larry N. Fielder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fielder, was awarded a Bachelor of Science degree in education from Eastern Michigan University, on Sunday, December 12th.

Larry is a graduate of the Manchester High School, class of 1967. An open house was held in his honor on Saturday, December 18th. Guests included people from Onsted, Brooklyn, Bloomfield Hills, Grass Lake, Clinton, and Manchester.

1972 Campaign Launched

January 1st, 1972, signals the official opening of the 34th annual March of Dimes. Throughout the month of January, campaign chairman, Mrs. Ronald Gonyer, and a task force of dedicated volunteers will attempt to raise as much money as possible to help support the programs of the National Foundation.

Since its inception in 1938, this national health agency has devoted its resources entirely to the alleviation of human suffering with an amazing record of success. The same determination, the same dedication, the same professional know how, which brought victory over the once dreaded Infantile Paralysis is still practiced by the National Foundation - March of Dimes in its struggle against birth defects.

The problem of birth defects is enormous, reaching into every community in the nation. An estimated 15 million Americans of all ages have one or more birth defects which affect their daily lives and approximately 62,000 children and adults die each year as a direct result of a defect present at birth.

Mrs. Gonyer has released the following list of subchairmen who will assist her in Manchester's 1972 March of Dimes: Mother's March... Mrs. Wm. Bunney Central Business District... Mrs. Morgan Kern Middle School Activities... Mrs. Marian Kime 4H-Activities... Miss Elizabeth McAtteer Clubs & Organizations... Mrs. Richard Way Publicity & Outlying Business..... Mrs. Hugh Sutton

Mrs. Gonyer asks every resident of Manchester to remember that the symbol of the New Year is a happy, healthy baby, and that the March of Dimes is dedicated to seeing that every baby has an equal opportunity to a happy, healthy existence.
Happy New Year! Join the March of Dimes!

Auxiliary News

The American Legion Auxiliary and Junior Auxiliary members met December 8 at the American Legion Hall for their annual Christmas Pot-Luck Supper. Guests for the evening were 2nd District Pres., Norma Short, and Sec. May Uphaus.

Following the supper the Junior Auxiliary members entertained the group with Christmas verses, songs, and acting out the Christmas story. The Junior Aux. members and the adult members then enjoyed a gift exchanged. The Junior members were also surprised by a visit unexpected from Santa Claus.

The regular meeting of the Legion Aux. followed the Christmas Program.

The Unit at Wurster Park will be decorated for the Christmas Season. Jr. Activities Chairman, Jo Ann Schiel announced that the Juniors will go caroling and deliver Christmas boxes to the sick and shut-in's. Sharon Gonyer will accompany the group and help deliver the boxes. Aux. members were also invited to go along and carol with the Juniors. Hot chocolate and cookies will be served after the caroling.

Legion Aux. Pres. T. V. Ludwick and Arlene Walter spent Tuesday, December 7th at the V. A. Hospital in Ann Arbor working in the Gift Shop. It was very rewarding to assist the Veterans in selecting gifts for their families and wrapping the gifts. The Veterans appreciated the Gift Shop and couldn't get over the wide selection and quality of gifts made available to them.

The 2nd Dist. Pres. and Sec. had some very interesting remarks to make on the drug problem, the youth and the Children's Home at Otter Lake.

The next regular meeting will be held Jan. 12th at 8:00 p. m., with the Initiation of new members.

Judy Hoelt volunteered to serve as Good Cheer Chairman.

Dorothy Burch's name was drawn for the door prize. She was absent. There will be $5.00 in the January drawing.

There's a vast and fundamental difference between promise and performance.

Mandarin Sauce for Pork

Corn starch is an important ingredient in Chinese cooking. With it, the Chinese achieve the slightly thickened transparent sauces that give delicacy to their dishes and make them lovely to look at as well as delicious to eat.

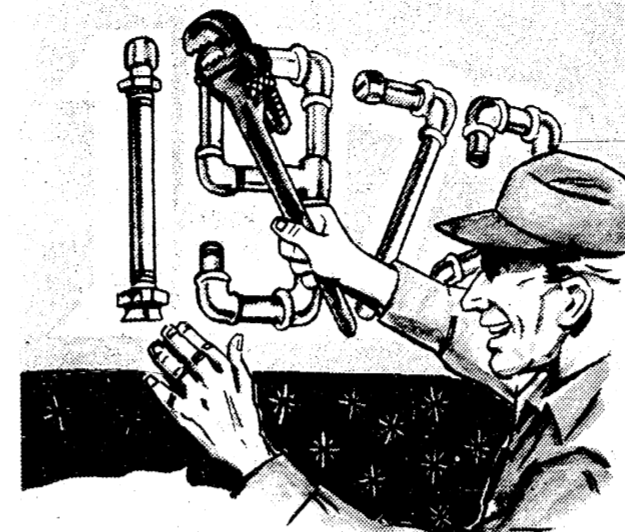

Mandarin Orange Sauce is such a sauce. The blending of several flavors belonging typically to the Chinese cuisine, go into the making of this gourmet sauce. Allspice, ginger, sesame seed and mandarin orange segments all contribute to the subtle flavor. The sesame seed add interesting texture contrast, too, and orange segments provide the just right color flip.

This sauce is especially good with pork or chicken dishes.

Mandarin Orange Sauce
1 (11-ounce) can mandarin orange segments
1 tablespoon corn starch
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/2 teaspoon ground allspice
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
1 tablespoon toasted sesame seed
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Drain syrup from orange segments into a small saucepan. Stir in corn starch until smooth. Add corn syrup, allspice, ginger and orange segments. Bring to boil, stirring constantly. Reduce heat and simmer 2 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir in sesame seed and lemon juice. Serve with chicken or pork. Makes about 1 1/2 cups.

JANUARY...

January is a month for beginning anew, as typified by our many New Year's resolutions. It's also a time to follow through on new social contacts made over the recent holiday season.

This is also a month which is likely to include the birthdays of friends to be remembered, perhaps, with a special "Forget-Me-Not" floral bouquet to perk up a grey winter day and let them know that you didn't forget. To make it easy, this lovely mixed bouquet can be sent anywhere in the U.S. or Canada via local FTD florists. Those same friends who have birthdays in January might also be interested to know of some of the other people born during their month. For example: Paul Revere, J. Edgar Hoover, Richard M. Nixon, Albert Schweitzer, Martin Luther King, Ethel Merman, Cary Grant, Danny Kaye, U Thant, Eartha Kitt, Paul Newman, Noel Harrison, Vanessa Redgrave, Carol Channing, Jackie Robinson and Franz Schubert, to mention a few. And for all the January people who are devotees of Flambeed desserts are good holiday fun, easy to do and ever so good. Try a version of bananas flambe with a touch of orange liqueur with rum.

Holiday Spotlight

6 bananas 3 to 4 tablespoons butter sugar to taste 1/2 cup Jamaica rum

Saute bananas in butter in a heavy skillet until they are slightly brown. Do not allow to overcook or get mushy. Sprinkle with sugar and allow to caramelize a bit. Pour the rum over the bananas and as soon as it has warmed a bit, ignite with a match. Taste for sweetness. If needed, add more sugar and rum. There should be some sauce.

For variation use 4 tablespoons of brandy and 1 tablespoon of orange liqueur, add to the bananas before adding the rum. This is a delicious combination of flavors. Bananas may be browned in the kitchen and flamed in a chafing dish at the table or in the living room.

GETTING READY... The annual Tournament of Roses Parade at Pasadena, California, is one of the most famous in the world, lasting for hours as a series of long and beautiful floats pass along the streets and boulevards. Behind the glitter lies many months of preparation in the designing and building of the elegant floats. Construction of the Eastman Kodak Company entry in the 1971 parade, shown above, took more than half a year.

THE RED RIVER VALLEY

Near Byblos, the oldest town in the world, in picturesque Lebanon, a river empties into the Mediterranean regularly coloring the normally blue-green waters blood-red for several miles into the sea.

Legend has it that it is the blood of Adonis, the handsome Phoenician god who was slain by a wild boar at the river's source.

Actually, it is the iron content of the soil that is discolored by the increased current of the river as it winds its way through the valley. In early spring, too, the hills on each side of the Nahr Ibrahim are dotted with scarlet anemones — drops of the same divine blood that flowed from Adonis' wounds. They are gathered by tourists and picnickers, who come from all over Lebanon to gather them, giving them a semi-mystical power.

According to the Greeks and Romans, Adonis was born of the incestuous union of King Cinyras of Cyprus and his daughter Myrrha, mother earth who transformed herself into a tree before giving birth to him.

On reaching manhood, Adonis was of such extraordinary beauty that the Gods became jealous of him. When he and Venus were hunting, the war god, Mars, sent a wild boar to kill him in the cedar forests of Mount Lebanon, (the Cedars are the national symbol of Lebanon) where Adonis often hunted. From there his blood fell on the ground (giving rise to the anemones).

Adonis made his way to the river and when Venus bathed his wounds there, the water was stained red with his blood.

For centuries after, occupants of the valley have kept up ritual dances and stage rites in Africa every February, singing dirges and throwing an effigy of Adonis into the water in memory of his death. It is said in the villages of the valley that after these often licentious rites the Adonis worshippers march up over Mount Hermon to throw themselves into Venus' sacred lake of Yammone for purification.

Today, bits of the belief and ceremonies still persist and an Adonis Festival is now celebrated each spring, with folk dancing, plays, processions and picnics. There, the sick still hang bits of clothing in the hope of being cured.

The old Roman route up from the sea past the river's main spring and on over the mountain, intertwining with the modern road, and passing near such sites as Mashnake, the Adonis Temple, where a huge stone gate and stone carved figures depict him and other gods. Higher up are the ruins of St. George the Blue, an Adonis sanctuary converted to a church in early Christian days.

(Baalbeck is a famous religious center in Lebanon and the seat of the largest body of Roman ruins left to the world), it also contains a Byzantine apse and Crusader walls.

Recent explorations have brought to light additional and up to now, unknown caves, burial vaults and chapels, full of ancient inscriptions and paintings going back to the pre-Christian days.

The modern traveller discovering Lebanon is in for a trip of pleasure and interest when he visits the Red River Valley where a fascinating part of the mythological world has been brought back to life.

But does a sip from the iron-rich Lebanese River really have the revitalizing effects that some tourists believe? No one can say for sure.

The Answer
"If you have a problem, we believe that in the Word of God can be found the answer." Write "THE ANSWER," Manchester, Michigan. 48158
Question: I am getting older and I find that my fear of death is growing with each passing day. I have tried to rid myself of this fear, but I cannot. Is there anything I can do to overcome it?
Answer: This fear of death you mention is perfectly normal for someone who is not a Christian. Death is an experience which can make the strongest man shrink away in terror. However, for a Christian, the fear is not there. He has the assurance that his sins have been blotted from the mind of God. He will not be judged for them at the time of death. The non-Christian does not have this assurance.
There are many non-Christians who claim that they don't believe in an afterlife. As hard as they try they cannot remove the basis for fear. God is a just God and this alone indicates that there must be a judgment day. Until you settle the question of sinfulness in your own mind, and settle it satisfactorily, you will never be free from this fear.

You can have peace in your heart and the assurance of salvation if you will only acknowledge yourself to be a sinner in God's sight, and ask for His forgiveness. Place your trust in Jesus Christ. Read Romans 3:23 and 10:13 in your Bible. These passages tell us about our need and how that need is met in Jesus Christ. If you will accept Christ you will have the assurance which you so desperately seek.

Booting Up

FIRST AN EXAMINATION of those great new cowboy boots by Dr. Neil Buist. Then, for Robert Cecil, 3, a physical and intensive biochemical testing. Robert was born with defective kidneys that were only five per cent efficient. Two years ago the boy was near death. Since then he has been on a special diet and watched closely for biochemical disturbances at the March of Dimes Metabolic Clinic, University of Oregon Medical School, Portland. Someday, Dr. Buist hopes, Robert will be a promising candidate for a kidney transplant. Birth defects strike some 250,000 babies yearly.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank everyone for their gifts, cards, and concern during my stay in the hospital. A special thanks to Fr. Schlinkert for his visits and prayers, also to the Knights of Columbus for their gift of flowers.

Rita Townsend

Many thanks for all the gifts, cards, and visits from all the family, neighbors, and friends during my stays in the hospital and while resting at home. It was all deeply appreciated.

Robert Eisenhauer

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our many friends, neighbors, and relatives for the messages of sympathy, donations, and floral offerings during the illness and loss of our beloved husband and father. A special thanks to our minister Lionel S. Burger, members of the Chelsea Church of Christ, the pall bearers, the Jenter Funeral Home, and the Chelsea Community Hospital.

Mrs. Lonnie Adkins and family

Since it seems impossible to thank each and everyone for all the nice things so many have done for our Mother and Grandmother, Mrs. Yetta Maurer, we are taking this method of thanking each and everyone for all the cards, flowers, memorials and to all who donated blood to the Blood Bank.
Thank you and may you have a Blessed Holiday Season.
