THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE

47th YEAR NO. 47 10 CENTS PER COPY September 23, 1971 30, 1971

St. Mary's Church To Celebrate 100th Anniversary Sunday, Sept. 26

By C. Chapin

On Sunday, September 26, 1971, St. Mary's of Manchester will celebrate their One Hundredth anniversary with a Mass at 4 o'clock p.m., and an outdoor program and dinner in the church hall. Visiting on that day and concelebrating the Mass with fourteen Priests will be the Most Reverend Alexander M. Saleski, Bishop of Lansing.

It was in 1870 that St. Mary's of Manchester was established as a Mission with the first Pastor, Fr. Edward Van Lauwe coming from Clinton to serve the residents of this area. Later that year the first Catholic Church was built in Manchester. Located on the corner of Macomb and Wagner Streets, the white frame building is now gone but the Rectory remains, and is today the Baptist Chapel.

It was in 1839 that the first Catholic Church in Washtenaw County is recorded in Freedom Township. A log cabin on Schneider Road was the Sunday scene of a gathering of horse and buggy as well as those who walked.

In 1858, on Bethel Church Road, was built a small brick church named St. Francis with a white plaster facing, and sometime later the brick rectory was built nearby. The church was torn down in the 1930's but the rectory still stands and is a private home. From St. Francis the traveling priest's came to Manchester and were welcomed into the homes in the village, often celebrating Mass in the living room with the neighbors invited.

Fr. Peter Termes was the first Resident Pastor when St. Mary's was named a Parish in 1890, accepting Clinton as a Mission. The two parishes were to serve each other for many years.

The years went by and in 1909 Fr. Edwin Fisher, from Clinton, was assigned to St. Mary's. Having been instrumental in having the Village of Clinton set aside a memorial park on U.S. 12, Fr. Fisher now began his building program. Field stone churches were built in Tecumseh, Brooklyn, and Manchester, with the stone gathered on the farms and surrounding hills carried by stone boat, pulled by working farm horses. Each parishioner, farmer and villager alike, young men and their fathers, contributed to the building of these churches.

Hard work, however, is only part of the story of the early days of St. Mary's for there was a good deal of enjoyment in earlier years. It was Fr. John Eppenbrock who, in the 1920's, organized a theater group called the St. Mary's Players. In a spirit of Early Ecumenism, the rehearsals took place in the Emanuel Church Hall and performances were given at the "Old Opera House" in the top floor of the present American Legion Building. The performances were apparently fraught with the possibility of immediate disaster, as well as containing the components of overflowing joy. This group is recent enough in memory to be available for interviews, and we talked to a few of them. Zita and Duke Bersuder of Bridgewater, Ed Kirk, Margaret Fielder, Marie Schneider, Ed Galloway, Agnes Kent, to name just a partial list for there are no records and memories do not always prove reliable. One item we can report from our own observation, being the reaction of our citizens when questioned about the years they participated in the "acting profession". The invariable reply was either a chuckle or a hoot of laughter before a response, which leads one to wish to have been a mouse backstage in those happy young days.

In 1954 Father William R. Schneider became Pastor. Under his leadership the rectory was improved and the church hall made into an inviting and useful gathering place. It was in his third year that the Knights of Columbus were organized for this area. In 1957 Lehman Wahl, then District Deputy, saw the charter formed. Mr. William Kramer became the first Grand Knight of the Father Fisher Council. The Knights have always loyally backed parish and civic endeavors.

The present pastor of St. Mary's is Father Raymond R. Schlinkert. Coming to this parish after serving in the city, suburban and rural parishes, Fr.

Schlinkert says "I consider it a distinct privilege to be the pastor of this parish. To be in such a place with such parishioners is to be rewarded in a special manner. May God bless us, Priest and people!"

Everyone in the community is invited to participate in the celebration, however, those wishing to have dinner in the Church hall must make reservations.

United Fund Chairmen Named

Mrs. Irvin Gill, General Campaign Chairman has selected Division heads for the coming Manchester Area Community Fund and Red Cross Drive as follows:

Industrial Chairman - Clarence Fielder; Business Area - Jack Futrell; Village House-to-House - Mrs. Herbert Mahony; Rural Area - Mrs. Leslie Chavey; Organizations - Mrs. Ica Schaffer; Schools - Mrs. Robert Kirk; Outside Business - Luther Klager and Special Gifts Division - Robert Ross.

The Chest board members will meet with Mrs. Gill and her area chairmen on Thursday, Sept. 23 at 8 P.M. at the F. M. Reck Memorial Library at the High School. All campaign plans will be finalized at that time and team captains and solicitors will be named.

Solicitations will begin on Sept. 29 in the Business and Industrial areas. The general campaign will Kick-Off on Thursday, October 7 with a dinner workshop at St. Mary's Church dining room at 6:30 sharp. Mr. Luther Klager is planning the program and Mrs. Robert Little and Mrs. Del Ludwig are handling reservations and other arrangements for the workshop.

Mrs. William Schaffer is taking charge of all drive supplies and kits for this years campaign.

Stevens-Krzyzanick

Saint Dominic's Catholic Church in Clinton was the scene Friday, September 10, for the candlelight double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. Fr. Leon Kennedy, uniting Miss Jo Anne Louise Krzyzanick, daughter of Mrs. Eugene Krzyzanick of Manchester to Mr. Jeffrey Lynn Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Johnson of Manchester.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother David, wore an A line floor length gown of imported organza with long bishop sleeves and an empire bodice featuring a high Juliet neckline. The detachable train fell from a satin bow and streamers at the back of the waist. The gown was trimmed with Venice lace and satin ribbon interwoven on bodice, skirt and repeated on sleeves, neckline and also down the back of the chapel train.

The shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a petal headpiece of organza and pearls accented with matching Venice lace.

For her bouquet, the bride carried a cascade of white roses miniature carnations and gypsophelia.

Miss Suzon Krzyzanick, sister of the bride, served as Maid of Honor, dressed in a floor length gown of pale blue chiffon over taffeta with Venice lace forming a V neckline down front and back of gown to waist. The shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a pale blue double bow edged in velvet. She carried a colonial bouquet of white rosettes, Mint blue carnations and gypsophelia.

The Misses Marcia Steele, Sue Blanchard and Mrs. Rodney Hoeft all of Manchester, and Miss Rhonda Kern of Chelsea, friends of the bride and groom, were bridesmaids. Their gowns, headpieces and bouquets were identical to the Maid of Honor.

Lynda Krzyzanick, sister of the bride, dressed in a floor length gown styled same as attendants, acted as flower girl. She carried a miniature colonial bouquet, while Nicky Krzyzanick, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Serving as Best Man was Mr. Michael Krzyzanick, brother of the bride, Mr. Michael Johnson, brother of the groom, Mr. Larry Goodell, brother-in-law of the groom, and the Mr. Daniel Smith and Mr. Robert Pratt of Manchester served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a floor length gown of pale blue jersey with beaded trim, while the groom's mother wore a blue silk linen dress with matching accessories. They both wore a corsage of roses and miniature carnations edged in blue.

The reception, held at the Tecumseh Products Union Hall in Tecumseh, featured a Polish-American Smorgasbord.

Serving cake was Mrs. Larry Goodell, sister of the groom and Miss Gloria Grossman, while the Misses Nancy Davis and Cindy Schiller poured coffee. In charge of the guest book was the Misses Elizabeth Hosmer and Barbara Steele.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Canada, the newly weds will make their home at 403 East Main Street, Manchester.

FIGURES CAN'T LIE

"The student was trying to display his knowledge of math: 'figures can't lie', he declared. 'For instance, if one man can build a house in twelve days, twelve men can build it in one day.' The teacher interrupted: 'Then 288 men can build it in one hour, 17, 280 in one minute, and 1,036,809 in one second.' While the student was still gasping, the teacher went on: 'And if one ship can cross the Atlantic in five days, five ships can cross it in one day. "Figures can't lie," can they?"

Jaycee River Clean-up Oct. 3

The only reward is a beautiful asst. to Manchester.

The Jaycees, under the direction of Dave Bunn, are planning their annual River Clean-up. The tentative date is Sunday, Oct. 3 starting at 11:00 a.m.

The work force this year will be divided into several groups with designated areas to clean up. The Scouts are going to help and it is hoped a large turnout will come from the community itself. Dave said he also hopes the Ecology Club and all high school students will come help in this community project.

The Jaycees will be out in force with saws, trucks, axes and just muscle to clean up both ways of main street.

Chairman Dave Bunn points out that the river should be a source of pride to Manchester. It takes yearly effort to keep it looking good. Now more than ever with the Chamber Boat Race the river should be kept in top shape.

The pay is poor, the work hard, but the reward is great. Won't you reserve Oct. 3 for the Jaycee River Clean-up. If you have tools, bring them, if you don't, just bring yourself. Meet at the main street bridge at 11 a.m.

Thanks

Chief of Police Larry Bectel would like to thank the Boy Scouts of Troop 426 and 436 for distributing the Auxiliary Police Forms door to door last week. This service to the community was greatly appreciated.

EQUAL?

If today's farmer manages to stay in business in the face of his low net income, it is due to his spectacular efficiency and increased productivity.

Farmers are proud of their accomplishments in feeding the nation as well as meeting some of the food needs of our foreign neighbors, but at the same time are concerned about the future of agriculture which is caught in a continuing cost-price squeeze.

In the past decade, output per man hour in agriculture has increased twice as fast as in industry. However, increased efficiency and high farm output have meant higher expenses for farmers.

The number one agricultural problem in America today is net farm income--how the farmer can make increased productivity pay off in terms of solid net income. Contributing to this problem is inflation. The exemption of raw agricultural prices from President Nixon's wage-price freeze is a recognition that farm prices have not contributed to inflation.

Compare if you will the price at which the consumer buys the food, which has gone up only 7.8 percent in the last twenty years, with a recent labor contract that called for a 42 percent increase over the next forty-two months.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture predicts better income prospects for agriculture for the second half of 1971, but there are many factors which may have adverse effects. Agriculture's ability to maintain or increase farm exports could have an important influence on net farm income.

President Nixon's recent imposition of a 10 percent surcharge on imports could cause foreign nations to take retaliatory action by raising tariffs or imposing import quotas which would certainly include U.S. farm products.

If inflation is checked, so the cost of farm production does not continually increase, as it has by more than 50 percent over the last twenty years, farm net income has good prospects of increasing--solving agriculture's number one problem.

TERRITORIAL WATERS

"The disagreements over territorial waters can be settled only in the top echelons of national governments. Most participants in the struggle involving fishing rights are agreed that the United States has the leverage necessary to demand a halt to the harassment and stiff fines... The United States and international law recognize a 12-mile limit... A permanent, workable understanding must be reached."

DEADLINE NEARS FOR SUBMITTING HAPPINESS AWARDS NOMINATIONS

The flow of nominations for Happiness Day Awards is mounting as the September 25 deadline for entries approaches, reports the business group committee coordinating and sponsoring the program.

"If the volume of nominations reflects how many people believe in giving of themselves to be helpful to others, tremendous numbers of nice people are around," said Sonny Eliot, chairman of Happiness Awards Judges and WWJ-TV personality.

Most of the nominations to date are coming from organized groups such as the United Fund agencies and churches. However, the general public is encouraged to also submit Happiness Awards nominations to the Sweetest Day Committee, 55 W. Maple, Birmingham.

The newest member of the Happiness Awards judging panel is Joseph E. Jackson of Mayor Gribbs' Committee on Drug Abuse. The others, in addition to Eliot, are: John Kelly, WJBK-TV; Jackie Gordon, WKBD-TV; Mark Beltaire, Free Press; Dr. Robert Kincheloe, Council of Churches of Metropolitan Detroit; and Mother Waddles, operator of Perpetual Mission and WCHB-FM broadcaster.

Final judging will be Oct. 4 and presentation of the Happiness Awards will be at the Kiwanis Club Luncheon to be held at the Detroit Hilton Hotel on October 12. On hand to honor the winners will be city and government officials, staff members of United Fund agencies and leaders of the business community.

4-H WEEK

At agricultural exhibitions all over the country, demonstrations of youthful skills in agricultural pursuits are prominently featured. A leader in the encouragement of these skills is the 4-H Club. National 4-H Week is to be observed this year from October 3-9. The purpose of the week is, "To expand 4-H, gain greater public support, get more volunteer 4-H leaders, express appreciation to 4-H friends locally and nationally."

Those who have been fortunate enough to attend county or state fairs this year have seen the results of 4-H club work in animal husbandry, home economics and other fields. Any boy or girl between the ages of nine and 19 may become a 4-H member. Under the guidance of a 4-H club leader, he can begin acquiring qualities of responsible citizenship, as well as an understanding of the science of producing the food and fiber upon which life depends.

The emblem of the 4-H speaks for itself: My Head to clearer thinking, My Heart to greater loyalty, My Hands to larger service, My Health to better living, for my club, my community and my country. More than two million youthful members of 4-H clubs stand behind the High goals and principles of 4-H. 4-H Week is the one time of the year when parents and the nation can respond to the young who must carry our civilization and our country forward to a brighter future.

Spieß-Bowers

The Sharon United Methodist Church was the setting for the candlelight double ring ceremony uniting Joyce Ann Bowers and Michael Alan Spieß in marriage. Rev. Michael Peterlin officiated.

The bride wore a gown of sheer floral dacron over taffeta, with high neck, long full sleeves trimmed in Venice lace. Her floor length veil, fashioned by her mother, was also edged with lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Donna Faulhaber of Manchester was the maid of honor, and Mr. Daniel Spieß of Manchester, brother of the groom, attended as best man.

Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Daniel Spieß, Miss Carol Hone and Miss Virginia Bowers, sister of the bride, all of Manchester.

Seating the guests were Mr. Timothy Spieß and Mr. Laurence Bowers II, brothers of the bride and groom, and Mr. Richard Buckingham of Brighton, cousin of the groom. Amy Bowers and Ronald Kothe, the brides sister and cousin, were flower girl and ring bearer. Miss Margaret Kemner sang "We've Only Just Begun" accompanied by Mrs. Marie Pratt at the organ.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Laurence E. Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Spieß all of Manchester.

A reception was held at the Freedom town hall. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Carolyn Rogers and Miss Susan Bowers, sisters of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Kothe, cousin of the bride, all of Manchester, Mrs. Leuis Spieß of Pleasant Lake and Mrs. Paul Buckingham of Brighton.
