Card of Thanks

I wish to thank my relatives, friends, and neighbors for remembering me in so many kind and thoughtful ways for my birthday and for Christmas and a special thanks to the Carol Singers and Girl Scouts and Brownies.

We wish to thank our many friends, neighbors, and relatives for their messages of sympathy, memorial donations, and floral offerings during the loss of our husband and father, Marvin Cates.

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation for the kindness and messages of sympathy, floral offerings, and memorials received from friends, neighbors, and relatives during the recent bereavement in the loss of our loved one. Thanks to Rev. Janowski and the Jester Funeral Home. Also thank you for the food sent in.

Thank you to everyone who inquired or sent cards during my wife's stay in Chelsea Community Hospital during the Thanksgiving period in 1971 at which time she also lost an only sister leaving her the last survivor of seventeen brothers and sisters.

Things just don't happen all at once because during the New Year period I was laid low with the flu spending a whole week under doctors care over watchful eyes of the nurses and their aides in the Chelsea Hospital.

Wonderful just does not describe the cure and service that I received during my illness. Thank the Lord for a place like Chelsea Community Hospital in our territory and to the people who conceived the idea. Thanks again to everyone of you.

March of Dimes Reports Activities

Mrs. Ronald Gonyer, Chairman of Manchester's March of Dimes reports that the results of the annual Balloon Sale conducted by the Jolly Farmerettes 4-H Club were very satisfying. The tremendous organization and energy for which the Jolly Farmerettes are well known, paid off in spite of dismal weather conditions in the amount of $140.

Mrs. Gonyer said, "The March of Dimes is proud of its association with this exceptional group of young people and is especially grateful to Miss Elizabeth McAteer for her leadership of this special event."

The annual Coffee Day held at the Kopper Kettle on January 28th realized the sum of $14.09 for the March of Dimes.

According to the management of the restaurant no one took the time to register a guess as to the amount of money collected and therefore there is no coffee winner to announce.

Mrs. Gonyer indicated more information on the 1972 March of Dimes campaign will be available for subsequent issues.

Gallon Club Has 76 Members

Seventy six men and women recorded from this area have given a gallon (8 units) of blood or more to the Manchester Red Cross Blood Club in the past twenty years. Ten of this number have given two, and four have given three gallons!

The community owes these people, as well as all who have given their blood that their neighbors may be safe in time of need, a debt of gratitude. But better yet, if you are capable of being a blood donor, isn't it time that you did your share? One never expects to need blood, but over 150 pints were used by our area in 1971 without any exceptionally outstanding cases.

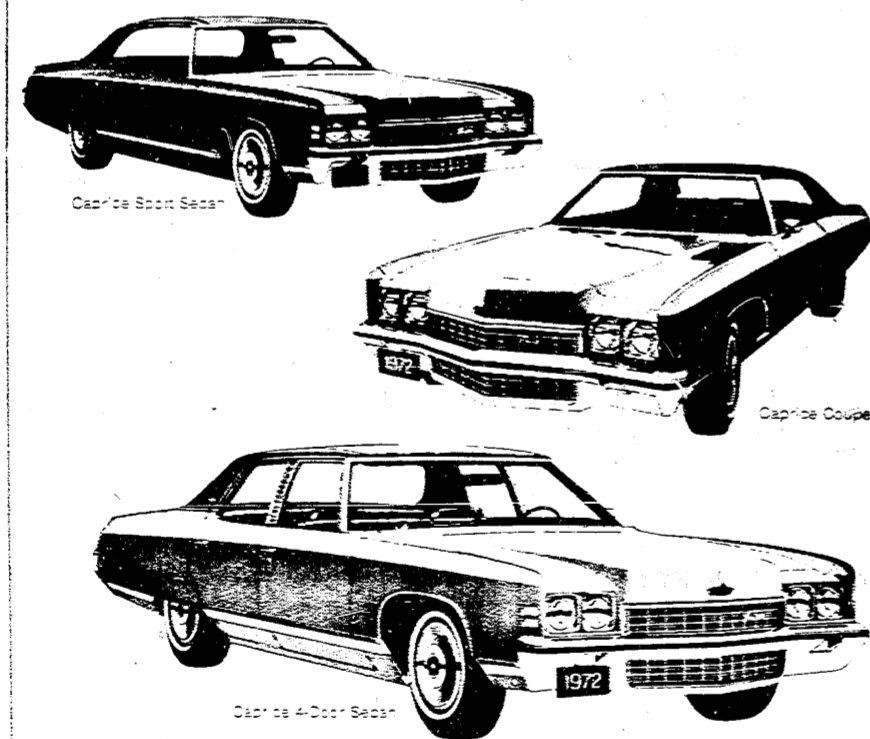

True, not everyone can give blood and the Red Cross is especially careful about the donor as well as the recipient. If one is deferred at a clinic, the Red Cross will tell him why and his prospects of giving at another time. This care is reflected in the esteem with which hospitals and the American Medical Society view volunteer blood.

If you are not connected with one of the four industries in the village or one of the thirteen churches in the area, you can sign a pledge card at the Union Savings Bank Red Cross poster or call Mrs. Rolland Grossman at 428-2311 and make an appointment for the Bloodmobile at St. Mary's Church on February 14 between the hours of 12 and 6 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Panches is chairman of the canteen which will accompany the blood clinic. Twenty eight local volunteer workers will assist the professional staff from Southeastern Michigan Red Cross Headquarters. Dr. Wm. Purfield and Dr. D. M. Petersen will be the volunteer doctors on call.

READING SHOULD CHALLENGE GRADE-SCHOOL CHILDREN

When your child is tired of playing, encourage him to read a book geared to his interest level. Your children's librarian should be able to suggest many.

Sharing a book can be an exciting experience for both of you, says Helen Fairman, home economist from Washtenaw County.

Some of the classics capture a child's imagination, bringing new interests and experiences into his world. What boy or girl could pass up the suspense in Robinson Crusoe or a trip to Gussie's Island? Fascinate them with the adventures of the Swiss Family Robinson, or let them relive the Oklahoma land rush in Cimarron.

Magazines, periodicals and newspapers can also make interesting reading for a youngster, Mrs. Fairman says.

But providing your child with good literature isn't the complete answer, according to Helen Fairman. Let him sit alone in a comfortable, quiet, well-lighted spot with few distractions. Ask him about the book as he finishes, or read it yourself. If you find yourself reliving your own childhood, by all means show your excitement. As your child catches your enthusiasm, his reading appetite can only increase.

Helen Fairman suggests a test to determine what books your child might understand. Pick out a number of words on any page and ask him to read them aloud. If he misses more than five, the book is too hard. Two or three words missed indicates the book is in his range.

DR. DAVENPORT TO SPEAK

Doctor Charles Davenport, M.D., an instructor in pediatrics at the University of Michigan School of Medicine, will speak in 'Discipline' and other child rearing problems at the Emanuel Church on Monday, February 7, at 8:30 p.m. Doctor Davenport's lecture is sponsored by the Manchester Co.-On Nursery School. Any interested person is invited to attend.

1972 SET-ASIDE PROGRAM

In spite of zero temperatures and frigid winds, farmers are already making plans for the 1972 crop year. Nick Smith, Chairman of the Michigan State ASC Committee, says that the government's goal is to divert 35 million acres of cropland from production. This will be known to the farmer as set-aside acreage, for which he will receive a payment of 80c a bushel for grain sorghum and 64c a bushel for barley on the farm yield multiplied by the qualified acreage set-aside. Smith points out that the set-aside acreage must be cropland that would normally grow the crop for which payment is made. These acreages must be either whole fields or subdivisions of not less than four acres unless a smaller acreage is needed to meet the balance of set-aside or to meet the total set-aside requirement. Some areas at road intersections that promote safety will also be accepted. The set-aside acreage may not be cropped during 1972 except that that grazing is permitted after September 1 or a fall crop may be planted for harvest in a subsequent year.

The minimum acreage requirement to be eligible for the 1972 feed grain program is 25% of the feed grain base. Additional acreages up to 10% of the base may be set aside at a higher payment rate. Smith points out that the rate for additional set-aside will not be announced until after January 27, 1972.

The enrollment period for the 1972 feed grain and wheat program is February 3 thru March 10. The final certification date for crops and designation of set-aside acreage is June 30, 1972.

HURON VALLEY GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL

With the snow and near-zero temperatures, it may seem the wrong time of year to be talking about camping and outdoor activities, but local Girl Scout volunteers will be doing just that at the Western Washtenaw Area Association Meeting on February 7. The meeting, which will be held at the Chelsea Methodist Church at 8 p.m., will feature a presentation by Bill Schlieff, year-round Director of Camp Linden, the Girl Scout campsite in Livingston County.

According to Mrs. Herbert Hinz, Chelsea, Chairman of the Area Association, the program was planned to better acquaint Girl Scout adults with the camp and to show them the variety of program possibilities at the site. "There is so much to see and do at Camp Linden that a lot of troop leaders are just not aware of."

Mrs. Max Wilkinson, Saline, will report on the encampment at Linden that was held in 1970 for Scouts from Chelsea, Dexter, Saline, and Manchester and the association members will decide whether or not to plan a similar encampment in 1972, and if so, how to work with the girls in the troops now to determine the encampment activities.

Five delegates from the Western Washtenaw Area Association will be elected to represent local volunteers at the Huron Valley Council meeting to be held in Ypsilanti in March.

The Western Washtenaw Area Association is composed of the entire adult membership of Girl Scouting in Chelsea, Dexter, Saline, and Manchester, including troop leaders, committee members and administrative volunteers.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

Once again attempts are being made to pack the United States into international commodity agreements in spite of the complete failure of these schemes.

An official of the European Common Market, Pierre Malve, the Common Market's economic counselor in Washington D.C., says that such agreements are the only way that the Common Market and the U.S. could settle their many agricultural trade differences.

Malve proposes a series of international farm commodity pacts in a number of products ranging from grains to dairy products. He suggests price floors, limits on national price supports, indirect production controls and export subsidies.

For many U.S. farmers remember the disastrous effects of the 1967 International Wheat Agreement which contributed to a drop in exports and saw wheat market prices plunge to a 35-year low of $1.25 per bushel in June, 1969, on the Chicago Board of Trade.

It also will be remembered that many of the European signers of the Wheat Agreement failed to abide by the minimum price schedule and in July, 1969, the agreement for all practical purposes was in a state of total collapse.

When the 1967 agreement expired on June 30, 1971, a new International Wheat Agreement was signed by the U.S. and other participating governments, but it did not contain maximum and minimum prices, nor other price provisions.

It did, however, provide a framework for subsequent price negotiations when these may be desirable and in the interest of the U.S.

The proposal of the Common Market official that the U.S. enter into a price-fixing scheme for farm commodities is interesting in view of a companion statement by the same official that the Common Market "cannot renounce" import levies.

The trial balloon sent up by the Common Market comes as current trade negotiations begin in Brussels between the U.S., the Common Market, Japan and Canada.

All About Shaving Things You Always Wanted To Know

You're all lathered up and ready to begin what has been described as man's greatest burden in life — shaving. Don't wince and stop here. There's a happy ending to this story.

Even though shaving your beard is still a trying experience, take heart in these facts: Peruvian Indians relied on crude stone razors back in 3,000 B. C. The Egyptians later developed and used rough bronze and copper blades. The Romans insisted on punishing themselves by plucking their whiskers out one by one with tweezers.

Let's look at the here and now techniques of shaving to insure a comfortable, long-lasting, close shave. First, wash your face with soap and plenty of hot water. This will remove surface grime, while conditioning your beard for the shave. Then saturate your beard with hot water.

Now you're ready to lather up, but don't apply too much or it will clog the razor. Wet your razor with hot water and start shaving. And don't try to beat any speed records if you can help it.

Don't push down on the razor. Let it glide. Shave with your beard's "grain" down the face and along the neck. If you desire a closer shave, do it again and go gently against the grain with your razor.

Now wash with cold water. One important item should be noted at this point in the shaving procedure. When you shave with a blade you remove a thin layer of skin along with the beard. This can cause irritation to sensitive faces.

To reduce shaving irritation choose your shave lotion with care. The makers of Sea Breeze skin antiseptic have recently introduced a medicated shave lotion to help heal and tone up skin irritated by shaving. The medicated lotion soothes away soreness, eliminates the "tight feeling" often accompanying a shave, and leaves the skin smooth.

The lotion can also be applied before lathering to prepare the beard and provide extra comfort during shaving.

So you use an electric shaver and not a razor? No problem. Medicated shave lotion if allowed to dry thoroughly makes an excellent pre-shave for electric shaving.

An electric shaver is easier on the skin. New models will give you a close shave in a matter of minutes. Electric shaver rollers stretch the skin to allow the cutter to clip hair near the base.

For those of you who sport a beard or mustache, here are a few non-shaving tips. A full chin beard will broaden a long face; a pointed beard will make the face look longer; a mustache and beard help diminish the appearance of a large nose.

It's true — the shaving story is almost as old as man. And your personal shaving story — whether you use a razor or electric shaver — can be a success story if you follow a few simple pointers on proper beard preparation and shaving techniques.

TAX ASSISTANCE?

Taxpayers in the Ann Arbor area can obtain assistance with their 1971 Federal Income Tax returns Monday through Friday each week at the office here. This announcement was made today by Mr. LeRoy Willis, District Director's Representative of the Internal Revenue.

In announcing the 1972 tax assistance days, Mr. Willis pointed out that Internal Revenue does not actually prepare returns for taxpayers, but rather provides whatever answers, instructions and information individuals need to prepare their own returns.

Mr. Willis also discussed under what circumstances the IRS will compute the tax for individuals in accordance with a change in procedures introduced last year.

Taxpayers must fill in specified portions of their return if they wish to have IRS compute the tax. The information required is explained in the form-40 instruction booklet. These returns would then be sent to the Internal Revenue Service Center, Cincinnati, Ohio 45208 where the tax will be computed.

Mr. Willis suggested that area residents make note of this information for future reference. He also said that taxpayers will be able to obtain answers to their Federal tax questions by phone on the designated assistance days. The assistance phone in Ann Arbor is 971-0370.

MICHIGAN SNOWMOBILERS RECEIVE WARM QUEBEC WELCOME

A caravan of twenty Michigan snowmobilers led by Commander Wm. Gallagher of Fenton, received the "Key to Kipewa" last week, presented by Mayor Paul Benoit of Temiskaming, Quebec.

On hand were Provincial Member of Parliament Dr. Theberge, President of the Chamber of Commerce P. R. Bucher, and Chief of Game Wardens for the area Mr. Gerry Barbe, and other civic leaders, to greet the first winter group of tourists into this normally quiet resort area.

Gallagher, who planned the series of expeditions on snowmobile into the Quebec wilderness earlier, drew much criticism from the Ontario Wolf League and abandoned Wolf Hunting as the main objective.

Temperatures reached 52 below zero at the destination camp, approximately 50 miles in the interior, however, Gallagher states, modern snowmobile clothing, along with face masks and helmets, provided very adequate protection. Oil was difficult to mix with gasoline at these temperatures and required warming. Mitts kept hands comfortable, as fingered gloves were abandoned. The problem of cold feet was solved with the application of foot powder, which prevented foot moisture.

In spite of the extreme cold, the group encountered several areas of 8" slush under the snow on various lakes which stopped the machings. This became a problem of hard pushing and pulling with tow ropes until a simple solution was found—the lifting of the front of the skis by a person on each side while the driver could then walk his machine out with normal throttle.

A few hunters, who, with the advice of Quebec Land and Forest Department, attempted to stalk wolves on snow shoes, discovered the wolf to be the very clever and crafty target, and not easily seen, although his tracks were predominate in the forests and surrounding lakes. There were no deer tracks and very few moose, states Gallagher.

Out post camp owner, Bob De-nault broke trail through the 3 ft. powder snow and by map let the Safari on a 100 mile exploration ride. Gasoline was flown into the area by ski equipped aircraft and special "fuel drops" along the trek made carrying of fuel unnecessary. The average snowmobile, according to Gallagher, with six gallon tanks, has a range of approximately 50 miles. Emergency fuel can be carried in quart plastic containers under the hood. The group found snowshoe rabbit hunting and trapping very productive and a fare-well meal of rabbit stew was a cold weather gourmet's delight.

The expedition returned after four days in the bush with only minor breakdowns. Two machines lost a front ski each, but Mike Burnash of Flint, and Jeff Tobian of Toledo, Ohio, drove their snowmobiles 50 miles back with no problems on one good ski.

The still quiet beauty of the Frozen Northern forests and lakes is rarely never seen by the out doorsman, only the snowmobile makes it possible to reach the wonders of the winter, wilderness in all its frozen beauty of snow, ice and cold—but states Gallagher, only snowmobilers who have been there can understand.

Dutchmen To Wrestle Clinton

The Manchester Wrestling team will travel to Clinton Thursday for what may well be the L.C.A.A. Championship match. Both schools are undefeated in League competition and finished one, two in the league last year. The match will start at 8:00 p.m. The J.V. match will start about 7:15 p.m.

Last Thursday night saw the Dutch go down before a fired up Adrian Madison team 38 to 21. Bright spots in a rather dim night were pins by Mike Tindall, Mike Johnson and Hugh Haeussler. Randy Seegert won his match by decision.

Saturday the ninth and tenth grade wrestlers had a chance for a tournament of their own and came away quite happy, Joel Tobias took a second at 98 pounds and Steve Gross was third at the same weight. John Roberts was the 105 pound champ and Mike Tindall took third at that weight. Jose Arana won his first medal by placing fourth at 125 pounds and George Merriman and Ross Haeussler battled for 3rd and 4th place at 155 pounds with George coming up the victor at the Tecumseh Invitational.

Field Marshall Woody Blows Up

By Melvin Durslag
The year 1971 had begun on a dark note for Field Marshal Woody Hayes. With a stroke of military genius that would have brought spontaneous applause from the canniest of Bismarck's generals, he drew up a battle plan guaranteed to blitz Stanford in the Rose Bowl within minutes.

With an eagerness that propels the great, he had sealed off his troops, placing armed guards around the grounds where they trained.

He announced he couldn't fraternize with the Stanford coach. For security reason, he forbade his legions from talking to reporters. Every detail was planned to perfection.

What hit the field marshal still isn't clear, but when he got deked, 27-17, you began to suspect that the war was turning.

And, of course, coming into the Michigan game of the season that followed, Hayes had blown three more. Now standing on the ledge of still another defeat, he lost his composure completely. An official had failed to call interference on Michigan on an Ohio pass, which, of course, is a yawn in football.

Interference judgments are so inconsistent that none except the rankest amateurs make a federal case. The traveled coaches curse their luck and forget it.

But the field marshal blew up like a fuel dump. Roaring out on the field, he screamed at officials.

"Dumkops! Schweinhund! Heraus!"

"Guten tag, mein Field Marshal," the ref responded.

Hayes threw a temper tantrum, breaking up things on the sidelines, and later repaired to the dressing room where he locked himself in and refused to talk to journalists.

"Herr Field Marshal," they called sweetly, "come out. We know you're in there."

"Come out, Liebchen. We'll give you some Gatorade."

"I don't want Gatorade. And I won't eat my dinner, either." Inside the locker room crashes were heard that sounded like the breaking of furniture and fixtures. "How do you handle a tantrum?" a reporter in the group inquired.

Another replied, "Our pediatrician says it sometimes helps to throw cold water in their face. The shock has a sobering effect and it brings them out of it."

"If we can get hold of a ramrod," one suggested, "we can rush the door. And as soon as we get in, someone can nail him with a bucket of cold water."

"A good job for Denny McLain," a gentleman remarked. An author in the group now demurred.

"Dr. Spock recommends letting them alone when they start to bust up rooms," he said. "His theory is: Do you want pretty furniture, or do you want a well-adjusted child?"

"Then why don't we throw him an axe through the transom," another answered. "Let him tear down the whole damn building."

Looking nervously at his watch, someone said, "We've got to get him out of there. We've got deadlines. Let me try again."

"The man moved next to the door."

"Herr Field Marshal," he called, "The officials who failed to call interference apologized."

"Cowards!" he screamed. "They're all cowards!"

"Not any more, Herr Field Marshal. They killed themselves. Now won't you please come out and talk to us? Tell us the turning point. How do you compare this Michigan team with the one in 1962?"

"Cowards!" he repeated. "My beautiful divisions have been destroyed by cowards!"

"If you will come out," a resourceful author said cunningly, "the school president has promised to let you go back to a nine-game schedule next year. You can play Luxembourg eight times and finish up with Albania."

"Cowards, cowards, cowards!" he kept screaming.

Actually, the explanation is simple. Having played but nine games for so long, he wasn't conditioned for more, and, in the 10th game, the poor man flipped.

Auxiliary News

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held January 12th. Initiation of 6 new members was held as the first order of business. Members initiated were Jo Ann Schiel, Della Widmayer, Roxanne Steele, Sara Rigg, Rhonda Strudavant, and Beverly Ludwig. Each new member received an auxiliary pin, a small American flag, a poppy, and a flag code. Framed Granddaughter certificates were awarded to Sara Rigg, Heidi Huber, Rhonda Strudavant, and Beverly Ludwig, whose grandfathers are veterans, and thereby made them eligible to join the Jr. Auxiliary.

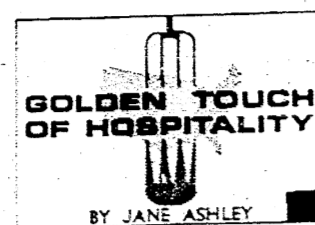

February is Americanism month and Edna Knasus plans on showing pictures of the Centennial at the February 9th regular Auxiliary meeting. All Auxiliary members are invited to attend and relive the Centennial.

Clare Reck informed the Auxiliary members that 35 families had been aided in having a Merry Christmas.

Phyllis Beber reported that Unit now has 79 paid members. As of January 10, 1972, Auxiliary dues went up to $3.00 for Senior members. Jr. Auxiliary dues remain at $1.00.

The Auxiliary voted to send $5.00 to Care. Alice Alexander's name was drawn for the door prize. She was not present. There will be $6.00 in the February drawing.

The next regular meeting of the Auxiliary will be held February 9 at 8:00 p.m. Refreshment Committee for the evening is Lucinda Wampler, chairman, Edna Knasus, and Dorothy Burch. There is an interesting evening planned and $5.00 waiting for some lucky member. So, members, do come!

Clam Bisque — Good Any Time
Bisques are hearty soups — good any time, but made to order for wintry days. They can be the mainstay of a luncheon, the first course of a dinner or a satisfying treat after vigorous work or play.

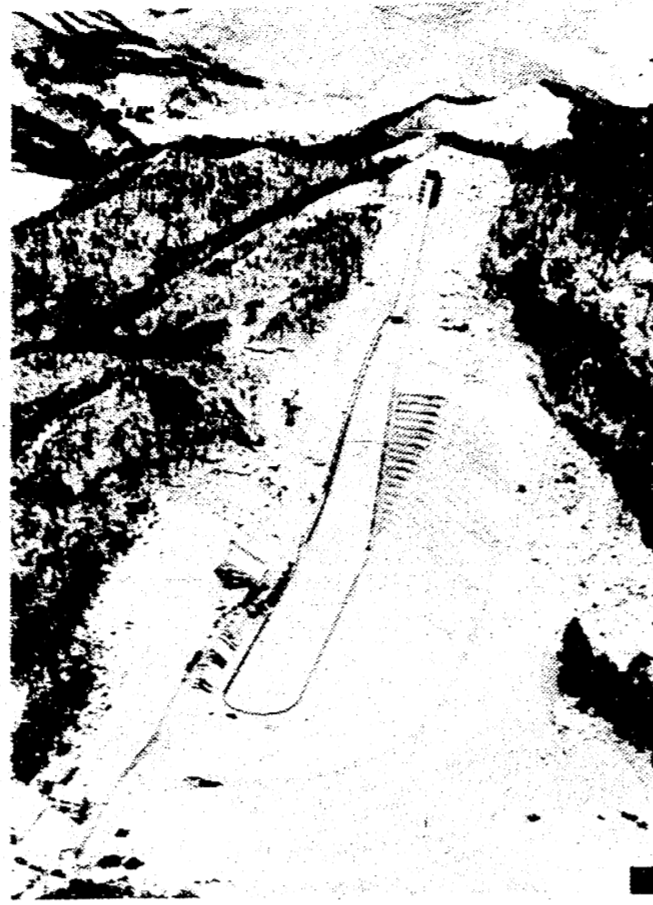

Most often these soups are made from shellfish, but they can also have a pureed vegetable base. Made with milk and light cream, bisques are given extra body by the addition of a small amount of corn starch.

Clam Bisque
1/2 cup margarine
2 tablespoons corn starch
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Liquor from canned clams
Milk to bring volume of liquor to 1 1/2 cups
1 cup light cream
1 (8-ounce) can minced clams

Melt margarine in 2-quart saucepan. Remove from heat. Add corn starch and pepper and stir until smooth. Drain clams, reserving liquor. Add enough milk to make 1 1/2 cups liquid. Gradually stir into corn starch mixture. Stir in cream. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil and boils 1 minute. Add minced clams and boil 4 minutes. Makes 2 cups or about 4 1/2 cup servings.

Note: For Lobster Bisque use 1 pound can lobster. Drain off and discard liquid. Use 1 1/2 cups milk and add 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Jump Hill For Winter Olympics

Okurayama jump hill, freshly covered by a recent snowfall, is one of two competition ski jump sites to be used in the 11th Olympic Winter Games slated in Sapporo, Hokkaido, Japan, February 3-13, 1972. Within a beautiful, protected forest, the towering jump, which embodies the latest in competition design, will feature 90-meter jump events. Okurayama is situated about four miles west of the center of Sapporo, the largest city in Hokkaido, which has a population of about 791,000.

Apple Cobbler Rates A's

"A is for apple" is one of the basics of nursery school learning. . . And one of the basics of home baking is fruit cobbler — apple in particular. Here's one of the easiest, tastiest apple-cobbler recipes ever.

Apple Raisin Cobbler starts with canned apple pie filling. Raisins contribute natural sweetness, while grated lemon peel heightens the overall flavor. The topping couldn't be simpler. A mixture of complete pancake mix and sugar is sprinkled over the fruit, then melted butter is drizzled over the top.

Serve the warm cobbler topped with vanilla ice cream and you'll rate A's for approval!

APPLE-RAISIN COBBLER
Makes 6 servings

One 1 lb. 3-oz. can apple pie filling
1/2 cup dark seedless raisins
1-1/2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
3/4 cup complete pancake mix
1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted

Heat oven to moderate (375°F.). Combine pie filling, raisins and lemon peel in 8-inch square pan; blend well. Place complete pancake mix and sugar in small bowl; blend well. Sprinkle evenly over apple base. Drizzle with melted butter. Bake in preheated oven (375°F.) 35 to 40 minutes. Serve warm with vanilla ice cream.

JOHN'S SORGHUM COOKIES

1 cup shortening (lard is good)
2 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
1 cup sorghum
1 cup warm water
5 cups flour
2 teaspoons soda
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 cup raisins
about 1/2 cup nuts

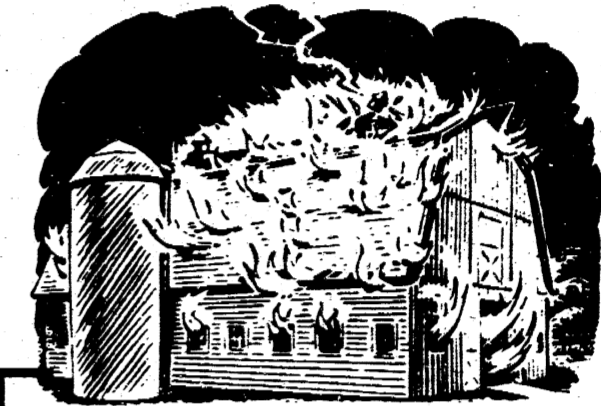

Drop by spoonful on greased cookie sheet. Bake at 400 degrees about 10 minutes.

Tip-up Chairman Jerry Pierce and co-chairman Bob Burkhardt would like to thank all the merchants who contributed to advertising on W.A.B.J. radio so a mobil unit would broadcast from the festival. Although the list is not yet complete the names of these generous people will be posted at the festival.

A special thanks goes to Bob Baumgartner owner of Wampplers Lake Resort for donating the Dairy King for the concession stand and many other things too numerous to mention here.

Finally thanks to the guys and gals of the Elbow-Benders Snowmobile Club for all their help in advertising, ticket sales etc. They're a great bunch.

If anyone has been left out it was totally unintentional. This promise to be a huge success and it is due only to the efforts of all the many people who helped.

Couples To Celebrate Golden Anniversaries

Congratulations!

Mrs. Kenneth C. Clark, 20330 Pleasant Lake Road, Manchester is the winner of the Easter Ensemble offered by the March of Dimes Special Fashion Event.

Mrs. Clark, a petite brunette mother of three, was very surprised when told of her good fortune because she, "had never considered myself to be a particularly lucky person." She recalled however, that she has held two winning tickets on other drawings in the past but, "never anything this exciting!"

The charming winner does admit that she thinks some numbers are luckier than others, and specifically chose number 555 over number 551 when purchasing her ticket from Mrs. Jim Walkow.

For Jane Clark, the March of Dimes Special Event in Fashion will be the first experience with haute couture, although she has made clothing for members of her family and others for years and delights in fine fabrics. The excitement is still running high for Mrs. Clark as she anticipates her first visit to the Salon of Evel Dean this week and a meeting with designer Evel Garrido.

An open house celebration in honor of the fiftieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spiess will be held at the Freedom Township Hall on Pleasant Lake Road, on Sunday, February 13, 1972 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Hosting the affair will be the families of Fred and Beverly Spiess and Louis and Norma Spiess. Nine grandchildren and one great grandchild will join the celebration. Mr. and Mrs. Spiess were married at the Zion Lutheran parsonage with the Reverend Stelhorn officiating.

They have spent most of their married life farming at 8951 Spiess Road. Mr. Spiess is semi-retired and gardening is his main hobby. In addition to her homemaking duties, Mrs. Spiess spends her time crocheting rugs and embroidering.

A cordial invitation to the celebration is extended to all friends and neighbors of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Haeussler of 445 Linden Court, Saline, will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary at an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Bethel United Church of Christ on Sunday, February 13, 1972.

Mr. and Mrs. Haeussler were married February 16, 1922 in Saline, Michigan.

The Open House will be hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Vic Haeussler, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Haeussler, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Haeussler, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Blumenauer, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Steiner, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coggins.

Mr. Haeussler was a farmer in Freedom Township for 35 years and worked at Saline Hospital for 10 years. He is now retired and enjoys fishing and gardening. Mrs. Haeussler enjoys her home and raising African Violets and garden flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Haeussler have lived in the Saline-Manchester area all their lives. They are both active members of Bethel Church and Rogers Corners Farm Bureau.

The couple have five living children, seventeen grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Three young men from the Manchester area are on the honor list at Michigan State University. They are: David C. Bucholtz, John E. Kress, and Mark J. Lentz. All are freshmen at the University this year and are 1971 graduates of Manchester High School.
