Optimist Outstanding Citizen

Curt Dettling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dettling of 9755 Ellsworth Rd., Ann Arbor, and a senior at Manchester High School is the Manchester Optimist Club Outstanding Citizen for the month

In his junior year Curt was vice president of the band and tried out for the National Future Farmers of America Band, playing a coronet. He did not make it, but the honor was great since he was one of five from the whole state to be selected. As a result of Curt's greater activity in his senior year he has gained much recognition. He is president of the high school band, treasurer of the Future Farmers of America and was King of the Holly Hop Christmas Dance. He was selected by his classmates as the best dressed boy in the senior class. Curt received the John Philip Sousa Award as the outstanding member of the band, an award given for the first time this year.

For 4 years Curt has been an outstanding member of the band, and this year is a member of the Jazz Band, Varsity Choir and Mixed Chorus. He also plays the guitar.

Curt likes music best. He is planning on joining the National Guard. Congratulations!!

Report On Townships Sanitary Landfill Problems

On behalf of the townships of Bridgewater, Freedom, Manchester and Sharon and the Village of Manchester I would like to bring our residents up to date on the problems and the present progress of our jointly run sanitary landfill.

Our past sight was leased five years ago from Bob and James Hansen and used to accommodate basically anything that anyone wanted to dispose of. The lease on the property, after some difficulty, could not be renewed as a landfill site, and we (five units of government) were forced to seek other means of disposing of our refuse. We leased approximately one acre of the old site to accommodate a transfer operation for up to one year and thus provide a refuse service while locating property for a new landfill.

It seems, however, that new legislation was adopted in 1971 that makes the orderly operation of a landfill much more difficult and expensive to operate. A site must be State licensed and inspected so that the State is satisfied that no pollutants enter the ground water.

We now find that we must have a site that is clay-bottomed to insure that no leaching takes place. If the site has no clay, it must be brought in and compacted to the depth of two feet bottom and sides before refuse can be placed.

This in our opinion would make the cost of operation so expensive as to be prohibitive for our residents. We, therefore, must locate property that is ideal for these standards or develop a much more sophisticated program for a transfer station to serve our residents! needs.

Our units of government are continuing to meet with state and county officials so that we might reach a solution to this problem as quickly as possible. None of us are satisfied with the present transfer station as it exists today; however, we ask that all of you continue to cooperate until such time as this problem is solved. One thing is certain -- we do intend to operate some type of quality refuse disposal for our residents.

Thursday, May 25, 1972 SPECIAL HOLIDAY TRAFFIC PATROLS

Special holiday traffic patrols for the three-day Memorial Day weekend will begin for the Michigan State Police at noon, Friday, May 26, Col. John R. Plants, department director, Plants noted that traffic accidents in the five major holiday periods last year claimed 122 lives, with 20 of them charged to the Memorial period.

He also pointed out that Michigan traffic deaths through mid-May this year are running about five per cent more than in the corresponding period

Memorial holdiay period deaths veraged 32 in the five years, 1967-71, with the highest toll in that time peing 43 in 1967.

Plants urged motorists to be extra ttentive to driving rules and extra aert for hazards in traffic during the holiday period.

"Given good weather, there will be undreds of thousands of cars on Michigan roads. Despite this volume, courtesy and caution by motorists can effec. tively minimize the possibilities for accidents," the director emphasized.

State Police aircraft, weather pernitting, will supplement the davtime patrols. Vehicle inspection will be suspended during the holiday period and its personnel may join the regular patrol activity.

Maximum enforcement will be in effect from 3 to at least 9 p.m. each day for the special patrols which will continue through to midnight, Monday, May 29.

The plans as presented seeming to be compatible with long range goals of our planning, it was moved by Kirk that the Village Council be included in further consideration prior to final recommendation. The motion was supported by Walton, and the rollcall vote indicated all in favor.

It was decided that Mr. Olmsted and the Planning Commission should meet with the Village Council at their regular meeting on May 1.

Mr. Dick Way gave a report of actions taken by the Parking Lot Authority. Most of the merchants are in accord with the general idea and plan for the north parking lot, but at this stage more information is needed for them, as well as the Council, to make final commitments to implement an actual start on the job. Mr. Way feels that development on various levels,

Mr. Stautz and Mr. Scully reported on a request to the Village Council from the Union Savings Bank to erect sign. It is a matter of concern to the Council that the display proposed may not conform to the overall "turn-ofthe-century" motif which is being promoted, and that some other type or design of sign than the one proposed might be more appropriate. Following discussion it was decided that Mr. Stautz and perhaps some others will meet with the Bank people to gain more understanding of the situation, and perhaps negotiate a solution. Final recomnendation is postponed pending a report from this group.

Mr. Nam displayed the revised version of the "1990 General Land Use Development Plan" (ready for final consideration), and the proposed "Official Zoning Map of Manchester Village", the "Community Facilities

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAL

Farmers, basically, have been the type of businessmen that like to do things by themselves, for themselves. They have been able to take the three basic inputs for agricultural productionland, labor and capital-and produce an abundant crop sufficient to feed our nation and others.

Until now, most farmers have generally taken the price that was offered them for commodities they sold. Now, just as any good businessman will, they are looking for better ways to market

Some of the new vi ues they have ought for marketing have been blocked by the established practices of the past. So farmers, through their own efforts. ere seeking "marketing rights."

Self-help legislation known as the Agricultural Marketing and Bargaining Act is in the Michigan Legislature. The proposed legislation will enable farmers to have a voice in the pricing and marketing of their commodities through their own organizations. It also defines farmers' rights to organize, commodity by commodity, into associations for the purpose of bargaining and requires processors, buyers, etc., to bargain in good faith.

The act is based on the concept of majority rule and provides a legal system of rules and procedures for marketing and bargaining and for accrediting associations of producers wishing to use its provisions. An accredited association with a membership of over 50 percent of all producers of the commodity and 50 percent of the quantity grown would represent, for marketing purposes, all the producers of the commodity, members and non-members, in the production area covered.

Referendum upon petition, organization disaccreditation, mediation and arbitration that is fair to all are also parts of the act. This type of marketing tool in the hands of modern farmers could assist them in keeping us the best fed people of the world.

Officers of the society are Stanton G. Roesch, president; Atwood R. Mc-Andrew, Jr., vice-president; Dean Bolgos, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert W. Johe, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Helen M. Shipman, Mrs. Thomas Schriber, and Mrs. Roger Stevens of Washington, D.C.

Goals set for the upcoming year are an accelerated effort to: (1) Build the membership, (2) expand the services to include the picking up of stray cats, and (3) put into operation a spay program to cope with the ever-expanding overbreeding of pet animals - thereby cutting down the excessive suffering which results and the need for euthanas-

Mr. Amory expressed concern that memberships number only slightly over 500 in a county with a population in excess of 234,000. The private society depends upon memberships and dona-

GRIFFIN

To cut through red tape members of Congress can often lend a hand to those with problems involving the federal government. Through the columns of this newspaper, Senator Griffin answers questions of general interest. He will respond personally to all communications addressed to: Senator Robert P. Griffin, Senate Office Building, Washington D.C. 20510.

My wife and I have been waiting for more than a year to adopt a child. We've been told that we may have to wait a lot longer before we get one. I've read that there are orphaned children in other areas of the country who are waiting for adoption. Can't something be done about the red tape so prospective parents in one state can be united with children in other states who are available for

-J. D., Shiawasse County

Yes, something can be done. I'm sponsoring an amendment to H.R. I, the omnibus Social Security-Welfare bill, which seek to accomplish this. The amendment would establish a computerized National Adoption Information Exchange Program to bring together prospective parents and children who are waiting to be adopted. The amendment is now under consideration by the Senate Finance Committee, of which I am a member; and, I believe, the chances for enactment look good.

I thought Congress voted a tax cut last year. I got a pay raise recently—at least that is what my boss tells me.

But my take-home pay is almost unchanged. What gives?

—N. M., Ecorse

Congress did vote a tax cut last year-a $3.6 billion reduction benefitting about 60 million taxpayers. Unfortunately, when new withholding tables were established for 1972 a colossal error was made by over-withholding from two categories: single persons earning less than $25,000 and married persons where the only wage-earner has an income under $31,000. Now the IRS has launched an informational campaign urging each taxpayer in these groups to check in with his personnel or payroll office to see if he is entitled to file a new withholding form. If you qualify, you may claim additional special exemptions which will reduce your withholding tax and increase your take-home pay.

Summer Dessert Perfection

The French word parfait means perfect, and that's just what you'll call these Vanilla Cream Parfaits - a perfect summertime dessert. Vanilla pudding combined with whipped cream is layered with butterscotch-flavored oats crunch. The nut-like flavor of quick or old fashioned oats in the rich, golden crunchy layer complements the creamy pudding perfectly. Treat your family to this bit of cool, creamy dessert perfection soon.

VANILLA CREAM PARFAITS

One 3.1/4-oz. pkg. vanilla pudding and pie filling mix 1-1/2 cups milk

1/2 pint whipping cream whipped

1.1/4 cups quick or old 1/3 cup firmly packed

brown sugar 1/3 cup melted butter or For pudding, combine pudding mix and milk in saucepan

Cook and stir over medium heat until pudding comes to a full rolling boil. Remove from heat; stir in vanilla. Pour into bowl, cover with waxed paper and refrigerate 1 hour or until cold Fold in whipped cream. Refrigerate until ready to assemble. While pudding is chilling, prepare oats crunch. Combine oats, brown sugar and butter, mixing until crumbly. Place in a shallow baking pan. Heat in preheated moderate oven (350°F.) about 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool 15 minutes, then toss lightly with fork to form crumbs. Just before serving, layer pudding and crunch in parfait glasses. Serve immediately.
