CANDIDATE FOR FREEDOM TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR

Thomas S. Roberts of 1445 Pleasant Drive Dr. has announced that he is a Republican candidate for Freedom Township supervisor to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of incumbent Tom Miller.

In discussing his qualifications, Mr. Roberts pointed out that his background in management, accounting, finance and business law will be invaluable in helping to effectively and efficiently accomplish the ever-increasing and complex tasks a supervisor is called upon to do.

He also noted that he has been both a Republican delegate and member of the Washtenaw County Republican Committee. This has enabled him to form both working and personal relationships with the majority of elected County, State, and National officials who represent the county as well as many appointed officials.

As the primary township officer, the supervisor is responsible for its overall management. This management role means more than simply telling people to do things. Rather, the manager's primary role is to assist the other officials in doing their jobs. This can be as simple as writing or speaking to help a better way of collecting information for the consideration of our local problems or helping determine the impact of a new law or ruling.

I expect my extensive contacts will help to achieve this goal. They will also ensure that the desires of Freedom residents are better heard and more fully taken into account as we continue to grow.

Mr. Roberts is self employed. He and his wife, Catherine, have a daughter and have lived at their present address since their marriage. He has lived in Freedom Township since September, 1965.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor (7), who last Thursday, June 15th, at around 6:00 p.m. struck and killed the small white poodle on Crossman Road. You were not even close enough to stop and offer to take the young girl and her pet to Dr. Hamer, instead you left her running down the road with her beloved pet in her arms, either dead or dying. Thankfully a kind neighbor, Mr. Wayne Truby, heard her cries and came to give her a ride the rest of the way.

You did not even have second thoughts to come to the evening and say you were sorry. Or could it be you really were not sorry at all? What you had not tried to miss the small animal, but did in fact, swear intentionally to hit her, as you played your game of destruction, preying on animals, as you drove your powerful motor vehicle down the road.

So you can be even more proud of yourself, I am writing to you, letting you know how empty our hearts is without this small bit of white canine affection. I want you to be proud of your deed, because I really don't think God, your parents or anyone else can be.

YOUR CHURCH The Answer

"If you have a problem or a question, we believe that an answer can be found in the Word of God? Address your questions to: 'THE ANSWER,' Manchester, Michigan 48158.

Question:

I know that I am a Christian, but I always seem to be faced with terrible temptation. What can I do about this temptation?

Answer:

So many people think that when they become Christians they will never have to face temptation again. I don't know of any place where God promised to remove us from temptation. If you will remember correctly, even the Son of God had to face temptation and overcome it. Jesus was tested in the same things we are, yet He was without sin. Sometimes this "testing" can have good results. If we can overcome our temptation, there will be a sense of accomplishment and assurance. Without victory over temptation you can never really have this assurance.

The temptation which you face shows what kind of a person you really are; what kind of "stuff" you are made of. Temptation doesn't make you un-Christian. On the contrary, it can make you a stronger Christian and show you sources of power which were previously hidden from you. As you face your temptation remember that at times such as this Christ can become more real than ever to you, if you will just ask for His help. Your ultimate source of strength is to be found in Jesus Christ, and only in Him.

Ask Senator GRIFFIN

My husband and I have been trying to adopt a Vietnamese orphan since last August. At first we were helped by an Army chaplain, but now the case is bogged down in the Vietnamese bureaucracy. We have received little help from the government agencies we turned to. Can you help us?

—D. H., Detroit

In April, I introduced a bill in the Senate entitled the "Vietnamese Orphan Act" which would make it easier for American citizens to adopt Vietnamese children who have been orphaned as a result of the war in Southeast Asia. If passed by Congress, the bill would cut through a lot of the red tape and bureaucratic obstacles you have encountered. The bill is now pending before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and you could help get action by writing to the Chairman, Senator J. William Fulbright, Washington, D.C.

My wife and I are camping enthusiasts. Can you provide us with information about some out-of-the-way, off-the-beaten-path areas that might be of interest?

—M. L., Manistee

A pamphlet entitled "Back Country Travel in the National Park System," published by the National Park Service, describes 41 remote, primitive areas of our National Parks (including Michigan's Isle Royale) as well as camping and other facilities available. You can get a copy by sending 35c (check or money order) to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. Be sure to give the title of the pamphlet and the catalog number (2405-02-67).

When I brought my family to Washington a few years ago we enjoyed visiting the landmarks but we were disappointed that we had to pay a fee when we toured the U.S. Capitol building. My sister and her family plan to visit Washington next month. I just want you to know that I don't think Americans should have to pay to see their government. It's our government too!

—D. B., Sault Ste. Marie

It took an act of Congress in 1971 to do it—but you will be pleased to know that guided tours of the U.S. Capitol are available now without charge. The tours form in the Capitol Rotunda every 3-5 minutes from 9 a.m. until 3:45 p.m. I hope your sister and her family enjoy their trip to Washington. Please suggest that they visit my office in the Senate Office Building once they arrive.

Fancy Picnic Crepes

During active summer months, here's a fancy dish that you can prepare ahead of time for that special buffet party in the back yard! The "crepes" are made of bologna, stuffed with a mild chunky cheese filling, then placed on top of a generous portion of spaghetti and smothered in a tangy Italian sauce.

You can prepare the crepes and sauce ahead of time, then cook the spaghetti and arrange the dish right before the party. It's so simple, yet will really surprise your family and guests!

Using bologna will help you keep within the family budget, because there are no bones or waste. You can purchase pre-sliced bologna in a convenient package or pick up bologna in bulk form and slice it in your own kitchen. Buy plenty and use the rest for hors d'oeuvres or just sandwiches for the rest of the week. Choose a top-quality bologna, because after all, better ingredients make it better!

FANCY PICNIC CREPES

- 18 slices Eckrich bologna
- 2 - 1 lb. pkgs. spaghetti (choose your own variety)
- SAUCE:
 - 3 tbsps. bacon fat
 - 1/2 cup onions, coarsely chopped
 - 1/2 cup green pepper, cut in 1/2-in. squares
 - 2 cloves garlic, minced
 - 1 can (4 oz.) mushrooms
 - 1 can (16 oz.) whole tomatoes
 - 2 cans (8 oz. each) tomato sauce
 - 1 can (6 oz.) tomato paste
 - 1 bay leaf
 - 1 tsp. dried oregano leaves
 - 1/2 tsp. basil
 - 1/2 tsp. ground thyme
 - 1 tbsps. parsley
 - 1/2 tsp. salt
 - 1/4 tsp. pepper
- FILLING:
 - 1/2 lbs. ricotta or cottage cheese
 - 3 eggs, beaten
 - 2 tbsps. parsley
 - 2 tbsps. grated Parmesan cheese
 - 3/4 tsp. salt
 - 2 tbsps. flour

In a large, heavy saucepan, saute onions, green pepper and garlic until soft. Add remaining ingredients and simmer sauce for 1-1/2 to 2 hours.

Thoroughly combine all filling ingredients in a heavy saucepan. Cook mixture over medium high heat until thick, stirring constantly. Take a large tablespoonful of cheese mixture and spread in a straight line across one end of slice of bologna. Roll the meat around the cheese to form a crepe. Put in warm oven until ready to serve.

Cook and drain spaghetti and arrange on a large platter. Place bologna crepes on top and pour Italian sauce over all. Reserve some sauce to serve in a side dish. Serves six.

To win the honor, students must have taken at least 14 hours of class work and maintained a grade point average of 3.5 out of a possible 4.0 (all A's).

Kirk-Hazle Wedding Rites

St. Joseph's Catholic Church, St. Johns, Michigan, was the setting for the May 27 wedding ceremony which united in marriage Dana Sue Hazle and Kevin M. Kirk. Rev. William Hankard officiated at the double ring nuptial mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hazle of St. Johns and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kirk. Both the bride and groom were accompanied to the altar by their parents.

The bride chose a gown of luteson, trimmed at the neckline, cuffs and panels with lace banding. A train extended from the empire waistline. Her crown headdress of rhinestones and pearls secured her illusion veil. The veil had been worn by her Aunt, Mrs. Dana C. Parker. She carried a cascade bouquet of daisies, yellow and pink sweetheart roses attached to a Bible.

Kathy Hazle of St. Johns, the bride's sister, served as maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Anita Kirk, sister of the groom, and Susan Striz, Whitmore Lake, cousin of the bride. The attendants wore gowns fashioned of nylon dotted swiss with a floral pattern. The maid of honor was in yellow and the bridesmaids in pink and green. They wore picture hats banded in material matching their gowns, and carried bouquets of white, pink and yellow daisies.

Best man was Larry Kirk, brother of the groom, and serving as groomsmen were Douglas Witt of St. Johns and Michael Kirk, brother of the groom. The ushers were Thomas Moffitt, of Jackson, brother-in-law of the groom and Kim Sheldon of Hillman.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Marten of De Witt, friends of the bridal couple and Mr. and Mrs. Alan K. Parker of Whitmore Lake, Aunt and Uncle of the bride.

Following a honeymoon to Mackinaw Island and Northern Michigan, the couple will reside on Knoll Road, Portland where the groom is employed as manager of the Portland Farm of De-Bryn Produce Company of Zealand. The bride is a junior at Michigan State University majoring in dairy science. The groom attended Jackson Junior College and received his bachelor of science degree in dairy science from Michigan State University.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

SACRIFICE

One of the quickest ways to stifle farm income would be to reduce agricultural exports.

Exports represent a significant part of the total market for our nation's agricultural production. Today, almost one out of every four acres of cropland is producing something that is exported. The United States has doubled its agricultural exports in the past 15 years. Presently, the U.S. accounts for a fifth of world agricultural trade.

Yes, the loss of exports markets would have a major effect on our farmers' pocketbooks. Yet, Congress now has a bill before it that could cause just that.

The bill was not designed to destroy or reduce our agricultural exports, but rather, was introduced for the purpose of curbing the flow of industrial products into this country.

Some of our American industries are having trouble meeting world competition. Increased labor rates and general inflationary forces are to blame. So, in order to help the situation, the proposal before Congress would reduce the level of imports coming into our country by billions of dollars. Foreign countries confronted by major cutbacks in their exports would have only one choice; they would have to reduce their imports from the United States. Otherwise, they could face a balance of payment crisis.

The result could well be that they would stop buying our agricultural products. We could be sacrificing agriculture for more favorable manufacturing industries.

Our nation cannot afford a trend toward protectionism at home and abroad. Neither can we sacrifice one segment of our economy for another.

SERGEANT RETIRES

Sgt. Wesley Joachim, 50, of the State Police post at Clinton, is retiring after more than 25 years of service with the department, Col. John R. Plants, director, has reported.

Joachim, who has been stationed at Clinton for the past five years, will become a field representative for a mid-west trucking firm.

He joined the State Police in 1946 and was a member of the department's first recruit school after World War II. He was assigned first to Ypsilanti before transferring in 1947 to East Lansing, in 1953 to Houghton Lake and in 1966 to Clinton.

Joachim earned a citation for meritorious service in 1948 and one for honorable mention in 1951. The cases involved armed robbery and burglaries in the St. Johns and Lansing areas.

The Clinton sergeant was born at Sterling and graduated from high school in Birch Run. During World War II he was in the Navy for 42 months, 24 of them overseas.

He and his wife, Blanche, have two daughters.

SUMMER TIME

Summer time, when the livin' is easy, is the best time to swing the family diet to fresh fruits and vegetables--at least it is the cheapest time. Lots of salads and little saturated fat and cholesterol is the answer to a diet that will help keep the hearts of adults and children healthy, says the Michigan Heart Association, a Michigan United Fund agency.

90 Year Old Family Hardware Business Sold

Ninety years in business in the same family. A goodly share of our town's history is encompassed in that statement. Many memories and much hard work have gone into the forming of a local tradition such as the Widmayer family has offered us.

In 1852, Dr. Kapp lived on Clinton Street and was a partner in building what was known as the Rehffuss and Kapp block. These are the buildings on the South side of Main Street which now house business offices and Rymack Printing. It was in this same year that Norton and then Kingsley rented one half of this building and operated a Hardware store. Fred Widmayer, at first working here, then buying. It was then known as Widmayers Hardware. On the East it was neighbored by the Rehffuss Butcher Shop and on the West by the old Fred Dietle Saloon. This building (the saloon) later became a candy store and then later a Bear Parlor again. During all these years the Hardware was operated by Fred with the help of his family.

Having married Emma Fausel whose father, Adolph, had come from the old country as a watchmaker and who had owned and operated a jewelry store on the exact corner where the Mobil Station now stands. They had three children, Roland E., Herbert A., and Russell Widmayer. The eldest son, Roland worked in the store until 1918 when he left for World War I. This was the time when Herbert was brought into the store to help after school and on weekends. In 1930 the store moved across the street to the building where the Furniture Store now stands. Ten years later, in 1940, back across the street again to the old Saloon Building. During the following year from 1940 to 1941 plans were made for expansion, and the old building was torn down and the present building erected. Moving in during the month of February of 1941 they have remained there ever since.

The year of 1940 was a busy one, the old building being razed and Main Street entirely blocked off for a carnival. Everyone was in town either to "superintend" the demolition project or to attend the carnival (this was the year of the big crowds-do any of you old-timers remember Stella??). The death of the elder Mr. Widmayer in 1950 and then of Roland in 1963, left Herbert working by himself, for Russell was also a business man in Manchester, having first operated the old Saloon on the corner, then later the tavern where the Black Sheep is now.

In 1935 Herb branched out into another Main Street business. Or, as he says, "during the depression it was hard to make a nickel." He opened the Manchester theatre in the building where the Laundromat now stands. Art Jenter had moved his furniture store out and had also moved the undertaking business from the basement so the 216 seats were installed, two projectors, and the first picture, starring Jean Arthur and the cartoon feature "The Ant and the Grasshopper" showed to a delighted town.

Reminiscing about his very early years, growing up in the Village and working in the store, Herbert recalls the hilarious Halloween's when 40 rolls of wire fencing were rolled all over Main Street and a hay baler was put
