Memoriam

Ralph H. Miller who died Sept. 8, 1972.

God say that he needed you, he did when he thought best. He placed his spirit around you, his whispered words to say, "Sally, smile at Mother and Sister."

Card of Thanks

I want to thank my friends and relatives for all their kindness during my stay in the U.S. Hospital. Special thanks to the "Nurses", American Legion and Ladies Auxiliary.

Harry Sauer

I want to thank everyone for their thoughtfulness and kindness during my recent illness. A special thank to the people at Double A Products, the Mission, Rev. Mennel, relatives, neighbors and friends who helped make my days brighter.

Bob Dittmer

"A Very Special Thank You" to all who helped us with the Senior Food Tent on the first year.

Without the help and donations from our local businessmen and organizations, guidance from our school personnel, the fair board, and the time of parents and helpful citizens it would be impossible to have a Senior Food Tent at the fair each year. So on behalf of the Class of '72" and ourselves, we thank you.

Delightful English Quartet

By C. Chapin

Leaving this week, after a 3 1/2 week visit, are Polly and Thomas Price, mother and father of Maria Lehr, Maria's brother Robert and his wife Curly formed the most delightful quartet of visitors to visit Manchester in a long time.

Not even a fire which destroyed four bedrooms and all of their possessions, including their clothes, jewelry and luggage, could dim the pleasure of the family reunion.

Thomas, who works in the office on the docks at the fishing port of Morcamb and lives in the town of Fleetwood, in Lancashire County, and Maria's mother Polly, who works at a hospital, were both so happy to have a good long visit with daughter and son-in-law Glenn Lehr and to become re-acquainted with the grandchildren.

The house at Sanborn road was the happiest in town till the fire struck. Fortunately papers and passports came through damp but legible.

Maria's brother Robert is truly a "bobby" for he is a policeman in the town of Bury, near Manchester, England. His present duty is that of executing Warrants, or plainly speaking, to arrest people, so he spends most of his working hours driving the "paddy wagon" which is a useful tool of his profession. One tool not considered useful is a gun, which is not used, or even carried, at least almost never. Perhaps, he says, if a lunatic or murderer were loose in the town one might consider carrying a weapon but this is extremely rare.

In Bury, a mill town of 70,000 people they will have perhaps one murder a year. The crime most in evidence seems to be a break-in - or running a close second, assaults, that being a polite term for those disagreements which arise after too much drinking. He becomes serious when queried about the drug problem and says they are not free of it and it seems to be spreading, but also says it's a world wide problem, that all countries seem to be reporting the rise. Curly, Robert's young wife is a bouncy, bright young thing, who sparkles and implicitly says she never really thought a visit to the U.S. was a good idea, but that after one gets here and sees the country and meets the really great people, then she could stay forever. Really it's surprising, she says, to find the wonderful sense of humor in the American people, not stuffy but fun and friendly. This naturally led to a discussion of the similarities and differences of our habits, customs, and ways of looking at things.

Father Thomas, states that one outstanding trait he notices is the en-

"Ike" Walton Retires

It has been a long time between his boyhood on a northwestern Wisconsin farm and this 25th Anniversary year as General Manager of the Michigan Livestock Exchange and you would think that R. H. "Ike" Walton would be looking forward to enjoying the relaxation that comes with retirement. Such is not the case.

Even though "Ike" officially turns over the reins of the $80,000,000 per year Livestock cooperative operation to Harold Lein of St. Louis, Michigan, on September 1, 1972, he will continue on as a consultant to the firm he has served so notably during the past quarter of a century.

When "Ike" took over at Michigan Livestock Exchange 25 years ago, the cooperative was doing an annual business of $7,500,000. He realized early in the going that marketing trends were changing, however, and decentralization was in the offing. The Detroit market could not remain the sole operation of the Exchange.

Changes were made in the ensuing years with the decentralization taking the form of locations comprising about 100 miles in diameter and through "Hot" season branches were established at Battle Creek, St. Louis, Cassopolis, Cass City, and Manchester, Michigan's most modern marketing facility. The Exchange's business increased ten-fold through the years with the end certainly not yet in sight.

The still-energetic Mr. Walton was raised on that northwestern Wisconsin farm mentioned above and went to River Falls Teachers College in the Badger State, graduating in 1927. His post college career took him through the principalships of grade and high schools at Cochran, Wisconsin and then on into the Vocational Agriculture field in Wisconsin education.

Leaving the teaching field in 1936 and through 1947, "Ike" was the manager of the Green Bay branch of Equity Livestock Cooperative Sales, from which position he came to Detroit and the Michigan Livestock Exchange post.

In his lifetime, Mr. Walton has assisted either directly or through leadership many young men in livestock careers. One of those men, Harold Lein, manager of the St. Louis Branch for the past several years, now takes over as the chief of operations with the Michigan Livestock Exchange, now home based in the new facilities just finished this spring at Manchester.

Mr. Lein epitomizes the strength, dedication and desire instilled in those with whom "Ike" Walton has come in contact through the years. The ship is certain to sail a straight course.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

August 21, 1972

Council met in regular session with the meeting called to order by Pres. Little at 7:07 p.m. Present were Benedict, Fitzgerald, Mahony, Scully, Stautz, and Walton. The minutes from the Aug. 7, regular meeting were read and approved with a motion from Scully and a second from Mahony.

Becktel reported on recent destruction of property and advised Council that restitution would be made as well as time put in on a work program by the subjects. The revision of a proposal to add a third full-time police officer was discussed.

Moved by Mahony, supported by Walton to recess as the Village Council and convene as the Zoning Board of Appeals. The request for a variance to allow Samuel Beal to construct apartments above his store was considered. No objections were voiced. Moved by Stautz, supported by Walton that the variance be granted. All yeas, carried. Moved by Mahony, supported by Fitzgerald that the Zoning Board of Appeals be adjourned and the Village Council reconvene.

Bids for paving and curb and gutter work on Duncan St. between Adrian and Riverside Drive were opened and read by John Holland of McNamee, Porter and Seeley. Three bids were received, from Ayling-Cunningham, Washtenaw Asphalt, and Ypsilanti-Asphalt Paving. Moved by Mahony, supported by Benedict to authorize the Public Works Committee to enter into a contract after receiving the recommendations of our engineers. All yeas, carried.

Moved by Mahony, supported by Walton to change our next regular meeting from Sept. 4 to Sept. 5. All yeas, carried.

Bob Lawson requested information concerning the zoning of the former Methodist Church Hall which he would like to use as office space. It is presently zoned R-1 and would necessitate a conditional use permit to be used as offices. Mr. Lawson was advised to apply for a conditional use permit, channeling his request through the Village Planning Commission.

Stautz listed permits as: electrical permit—Mike Scully; electrical permit—John Korican; electrical—Paul Schwab. New building permits are to be made up.

Fitzgerald reported that half of Duncan Street is done with 124 tons of asphalt place thus far. Elton is done; Adrian has a base course on; and the school has contacted the Village regarding their parking area next to the school on Wolverine. Final arrangements are yet to be made on that.

Moved by Mahony, supported by Fitzgerald to pay the invoices as listed.

All yeas, carried.

Keasal-Streeter Wedding

Brenda Streeter of Flint, Michigan became the bride of Mr. Douglas A. Keasal of Grand Ledge, Michigan formerly of Manchester, at a double-ring candlelight ceremony, Saturday, August 26, 1972 in the Berean Baptist Church, Flint, Michigan with Rev. James Orider officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Streeter of Flint, Michigan. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keasal of Manchester, Michigan. He is a graduate of Grand Rapids School of Bible & Music where the bride also attended. The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a formal wedding gown of chantilly lace over bridal taffeta fashioned in traditional style with Sabrina neckline and fitted tapered sleeves. Seed pearls accent the bodice. From the fitted natural waistline the skirt falls into gathered tiers to a bouffant floor length, multiple added tiers forming the wide sweep of the full Cathedral length train. Chantilly petals framed with pearls form the cluster headpiece holding the bouffant veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a cascade style of yellow roses surrounded by white poms, white roses, babies breath and step.

Mrs. Kay McMillon of Grand Blanc, Michigan, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was dressed in a floor length yellow chiffon dress, trimmed in white, empire waist with long full sleeves. She carried a basket of assorted miniature flowers and babies breath centered with yellow roses with aqua streamers.

Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Keasal, sister of groom from Manchester; Mrs. Cheryl Jaworski of Pontiac, Michigan; Miss Carlena Stanton of Fulton, Michigan; Miss Teresa Douglas, cousin of the bride from Dayton, Ohio and Miss Kathy Foust, cousin of the bride from Flint, Michigan. Keri Fike served as flower girl. Their dresses were like the matron of honor except in aqua.

Mr. David Peterson of Flint, performed the best man's duties. Acting as groomsmen were Mr. Tom Robertson of Racine, Wisconsin; Rev. Thomas Hicke of Manchester, Michigan; Mr. Clifford McMillon of Grand Blanc, brother-in-law of the bride; and Mr. Doyle Keasal and Mr. Ken Keasal from Manchester, brothers of the groom. David McMillon, nephew of the bride was the ring bearer.

Special music was given by "The Evangelines" from the Grand Rapids School of Bible & Music at the reception which followed in the church parlors.

Prior to the marriage of Mr. & Mrs. Keasal he had been the Director of Music at the Grand Ledge Baptist Church. After the New York honeymoon trip the newlyweds will make their new home in Lansing. Mr. Keasal will then start at the Miller Road Bible Church as Director of Music.

Ask
Senator

GRIFFIN

By cutting through red tape, members of Congress can often lead a hand to those with problems involving the federal government. Through the columns of this newspaper, Senator Griffin answers questions of general interest. He will respond personally to all communications addressed to Senator Robert P. Griffin, Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510.

My cousin has a farm in Pennsylvania that was severely damaged in the recent floods. His entire crop was completely destroyed. Is there anything that can be done to help people like him? I'm a farmer too, and I'm scared that someday I'll lose my entire farm without being protected.
—S. J., Ithaca

For many years the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, an agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, has offered crop insurance to eligible farmers. This insurance, available upon payment of a premium, covers unavoidable loss of production due to drought, floods, wind, frost, fire and other causes of loss due to adverse weather conditions. For more information concerning this program, write to the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, South Building, Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250.

Again this summer some of the members of my family were hospitalized with food poisoning. Why does this happen and what can I do to prevent such contamination?
—T. D., Bloomfield Hills

As you probably know, food contamination occurs more frequently in warm weather because bacteria grows more rapidly when the temperature goes up. You'll be interested in a booklet published by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, entitled "Keeping Food Safe to Eat." It discusses various ways to avoid food contamination and poisoning. To obtain a copy send 10 cents to Consumer Product Information, Washington, D.C. 20407, and ask for publication No. 0100-1571.

Bread Winner

Bake "Nectarine Nut Loaf" one day and start enjoying it the next day. It's one of those very delicately flavored breads that actually tastes better the second day.

Made with mashed fresh nectarines and chopped pecans, the loaf is highly recommended for breakfast or weekend brunch or as a snack at any time. Simply slice and spread with butter for a real "bread-winner."

NECTARINE NUT LOAF

- 2 or 3 fresh nectarines
- 1/2 cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans or roasted diced almonds

Blanch nectarines, remove peel. Mash enough fruit to measure 1 cup. Cream shortening with sugar; mix in eggs and vanilla. Sift flour with baking powder and salt; add to creamed mixture alternately with mashed nectarines, mixing well after each addition. Mix in nuts. Turn into greased and floured 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan; bake in 350 degree (moderate) oven about 1 hour. Cool in pan 10 minutes; remove and finish cooling on rack. Wrap and store overnight for best slicing. Makes 1 loaf.
