Japanese Posters On Display

Early this year Dr. Glenn Lehr and Dr. Toshiyuki Kawamura of Osaka, Japan began a correspondence which resulted in a poster exchange between school children in Japan and the school children of Manchester, Michigan. A poster contest in connection with Children's Dental Health Week has already been held in the Manchester schools and a list of the winners was previously published in the Enterprise.

One hundred posters have been sent to the Osaka Dental Association from our school children and Dr. Kawamura tells us they will be used to further the cause of good dental health among the people of Japan during their Dental Health Week in June.

We have recently received many fine posters from the Japanese children. Some of them are presently on display at Krauss Pharmacy and Dr. Lehr thinks he may have enough so that each child who sent a poster to Japan may have a Japanese Poster.

Dr. Kawamura has expressed the Association's pleasure with the posters our children have sent and they are anxious to exchange them again next year.

Dr. Lehr hopes that more people will become aware of the concepts of preventive and modern dentistry by means of the poster exchange.

Following is the correspondence between the two dentists.

How To Recycle Your Bedsprings

By C. Chapin

Mountains may fall and floods may rise, the future of governments sway in the balance, but the single largest piece of good news to come my way this spring season is in the announcement that we are to have a dump! At any rate a twentieth century version of one. After more than a year without full facilities, we very likely will be in operation during this summer.

When we acquired a new bed and decided to dismantle the old carved Walnut monster we had no trouble giving the lovely frame away, for antiquers are forever looking for such goodies. The spring, an old affair of large coil springs connected with small tight springs, was another matter. In our Village, the ordinary course would be to have it hauled to the town landfill, or as we say - the dump.

Where it stood leaning on the bedroom wall was out of the family traffic and even lent itself to some interesting lights and shadows when only the small bedroom lamp was lit. Bumping it in the dark soon got it moved to the hallway where everyone bumped it day and night, and the wifely grumbling increased in tempo.

Now the second floor landing has a fair amount of space and of course it next came to rest there, not without some low-toned complaints, attended by frustration, for when the large men children were approached, they simply said "But there isn't any dump".

Well, with a complaining woman, and no place to put it - we moved that ugly square of springs around the house for three weeks. The grumbling getting more audible and irritable each day, till finally the Head of the House put his mind to the problem and stated "Not another word, I will remove the problem". (You must realize that statement has been carefully edited).

Now - arriving home one evening I was pleased to note - no monster greeting me at the head of the stairway. Just a large plastic trash bag, bulging with knobs. The problem was solved - he has simply cut the silly thing up in pieces and bagged them. Now for the next step.

Enroute to business the next day the bag rests securely on the back seat of the car, for everyone knows that in the city, there are large trash bins behind every building. The moral principles involved get a little sticky at this point. But after all there must be someplace they can dump in the city and craftiness is born of necessity.

What Is A Cop?

If a policeman asks for a raise in pay he is told we don't the money and he has to settle for that, but a person working in a shop asks for a raise gets it or threatens to strike. And when the public hears about a policeman asking for a raise its said if he doesn't like his job why don't he quit. Imagine what this world would be with out our policemen and back them up for he is our friend and we sure need them. A policeman is pictured as a monster by some parents to a child, for they will say to the child if they don't mind them see that policeman who might be standing by or had just rode by, he will put you in jail if you don't mind me, instead of the parents saying, he is your friend.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

by Carl P. Kuntz
MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

The enduring love affair between Mrs. Consumer and Mr. Farmer is being threatened, and even the most tear-jerking soap opera cannot compete for the concern caused by this emotional rift. The culprit of this sad tale--the third party in the triangle--is a treacherous, illusive character known as Mr. Inflation.

The relationship between our two main characters started long ago and through the years, Mr. Farmer provided Mrs. Consumer with high-quality, nutritious products for her dinner table. In return, Mrs. Consumer was responsible for his growth in prosperity and dignity. Mrs. Consumer was loyal, demanding, understanding and sometimes unpredictable. Mr. Farmer was hard-working, productive, a strong individualist, and a gambler. They had their ups and downs, but maintained a rapport that should have withstood the strongest dissenting factors.

Then along came Mr. Inflation. He cut a provocative figure, outfitted in alluring expensive color. His "sky is the limit" philosophy with "buy now pay later" bouquets was too blindingly tempting to resist. Mrs. Consumer soon discovered, however, that the price of courtship with Mr. Inflation was more than she bargained for. Frustrated, she lashed out with protests and boycotts.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, Mr. Farmer pondered his situation. He was concerned about his strained relationship with Mrs. Consumer and worried about the effect the weather would have on this year's production. Shortage of crops would mean higher prices and that wouldn't help his efforts to win back the empathy of Mrs. Consumer. He realized that the wily Mr. Inflation had powerful allies in public officials who could force him out of business with mandatory price and wage controls. His fears were not for himself alone, but the entire economy of his country. He could envision the costs of attempting to administer these controls--the inefficiencies, inequities, the black marketeering. But his heritage had made him a fighter and no "sob-sister." He'll tell his story factually, proudly, effectively. He challenges Congress to stop passing the political buck and come to grips with the root cause of inflation--continued excessive federal spending. He is confident that soon he'll have fighting by his side in the vital battle against the culprit, Inflation, the dedicated and determined Mrs. Consumer.

Draft Registration Done By Mail

Selective Service is testing a more convenient draft registration mail procedure in April in 56 Michigan counties where there is no local board office; it was announced today by W.J. Myers, deputy state director.

During April men of draft age will be able to pick up an application form in their local community and mail it to the draft board. The draft board will send a registration form and instructions to the applicant. The completed registration card would then be returned by mail to the draft board for normal processing. Men over 18 who have forgotten to register should do so immediately.

The Selective Service Act still requires young men to register at age 18 or within 30 days before or after that date. The law also requires Selective Service to maintain an active standby organization with a complete registration and classification structure capable of immediate operation in event of a national emergency.

During April applications for registration by mail may be picked up at most high schools, colleges and other community offices.

Normally young men can visit any draft board office or volunteer registrar to register in person. This will be about the only obligation under the stand-by draft system other than to report changes of address. The Michigan test is one of a series being conducted to promote increased voluntary registration under peacetime conditions.

Approximately 7,500 men are registered each month. During 1972 draft boards reported 88,211 new registrants.

NORTH SHARON MISSIONARY

The topic "Serving Began With Adam", given by Mrs. Blanch Par of Grass Lake, to members of the North Sharon Missionary group at the home of Mrs. Floyd Proctor, April 16th.
Mrs. Par displayed beautifully handmade quilts. The needs for different types of needlework through the ages was discussed and explained, to the delight of all those present.

Mrs. Nancy Patrick played her guitar and sang "Had It Not Been". The meeting ended with refreshments being served by the hostess.

May 21st the group will meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Haab. There will be a gathering at 1:30 pm. and another at 7:30 pm. in the evening.

It is our wish you will join us at these monthly meetings. For time and place call either 522-8258 or 313-475-8290.

In reference to Good Friday observances, I think it is the goal of those who attend and participate to recapture for themselves, once each year, the full realization of the meaning of the Crucifixion of our Lord. And many years we come away disappointed, in that somehow the church service has failed, or we have failed, to achieve that realization. This Good Friday, as observed in the service held at the Methodist Church, was an exception for me.

Forty people, having given up their Sunday evenings for a month in struggling to learn two difficult Passion anthems, sang those anthems from their hearts, providing me with the most memorable musical experience of my life, an experience that truly brought home the meaning of Good Friday. There could have been but very few people in that congregation who did not feel the disappointment and frustration Jesus must have felt when he cried, "Could ye not watch with me one hour?" or feel the horror of the cross when that great cry of "It is finished" rang and echoed in that sanctuary.

It is to that choir that I say "Thank you" for a truly inspired performance. And from the comments I heard from that congregation, I'm sure they would join me.

The looks of expectation and emotion on your faces, the sense of ensemble you all lent to the anthems, and the feeling of communion we all felt, lead me to believe that the experience was a rich one for you too; a real happening in Manchester! If we had rehearsed for two more months, I don't think we could have achieved that togetherness. I only hope the inspiration you provided for me and the congregation served you as well. Thank you for allowing me to assist you in putting together a truly meaningful contribution to a Good Friday service that will long be remembered and cherished.

CASE HISTORIES OF CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES OF MICHIGAN

Older Child

Barney was six. His blonde cowlick stood almost straight up, his front teeth were missing, and his hand firmly gripped his mother's she brought him to the agency.

Barney's father had deserted the family and Barney's mother had a chronic, possibly terminal, illness and could no longer cope with parental responsibilities. Barney was eventually released for adoption, after it was determined that his natural family could no longer care for him.

The caseworker then became the tie for Barney between his old world and what was to become his new one, and in this role she, with the help of a warm, accepting agency foster family, attempted first to help Barney with his very real feelings of abandonment and despair and then to begin to prepare him for a new family.

Through the registration process at CFSM, Barney's new family was found for him in another part of the state. The family came complete with a sister, a father who had always longed for a son, a mother filled with understanding, love and good sense of humor, two dogs, and a cat.

After placement, the caseworker stayed close to help with "growing pains"—and there were some, but by the end of the year Barney and his family clamored for finalization of all legal papers.

They were a family and they all knew it!

Travelers' Aid

Judy, 15, dressed in jeans and worn jacket, had run away from her home in Florida, and arrived, weary and without funds, at the Lansing office.

With the aid of skilled counseling, Judy was able to bring out her frightened and concerned feelings and to ask for assistance in getting in touch with her parents.

The call was placed immediately and the parents were assured that the agency would see that Judy had food and lodging until transportation arrangements could be made for her return home.

Until Judy was put on the bus for home, the caseworker stayed in close touch with her and offered friendly counseling to the troubled youngster. This was followed up with a referral to the family agency in Judy's home town.

When last heard from, Judy was fine.

Group Work

Jim was 18, a high school dropout, depressed about his present and his future. He came to the agency for help in establishing goals and directions.

After discussion with the caseworker, it was determined that Jim might benefit from group counseling with some other young adults faced with similar problems. Within the supportive environment of the group, Jim learned to understand some of his own anxieties and to assess his own weaknesses and strengths as a person.

He was then able to move toward getting training as a machinist and eventually getting a secure job in a field of interest to him.

With the group's support, Jim also began to develop his social skills and to find friends who liked him for what he was. Jim is still in touch and doing well both in his work and social life.

Annual Tree Day Saturday, April 28

Lloyd Braun of the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District Board of Directors has announced that the Soil Conservation District will hold its annual "Tree and Shrub Distribution Day" on Saturday, April 28. The event will take place from 8:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m. at the Farm Council Grounds on the Ann Arbor-Saline Road.

All persons who have placed an order for tree and shrub seedlings will receive their planting stock at that time. According to Braun, about 750 persons have ordered seedlings this spring.

The April 28 date set for "Tree Day" by the Washtenaw County Soil Conservation District this year also marks the conclusion of Arbor Week and Keep America Beautiful Day, both of which are recognized as National events.

hygiene posters between your children and ours.

Our contest involved approximately 350 children and the 100 best posters were selected and are enclosed.

This has been a very exciting project for our children and for us. We hope your posters will be effective for your Dental Health Week in June.

We would like to have approximately 100 of your posters. They will be put on display in the local schools and business places. After a period of time the posters will be sent to colleagues of mine throughout the area to get as broad a coverage as possible.

You and your colleagues in Osaka are to be commended for a fine dental hygiene project as a means of promoting good dental health among the people of Japan.

Thank you very much for your posters and I hope you like ours.

Yours for better dental health,

Glenn C. Lehr, D.D.S.

Glenn C. Lehr, D.D.S., 500 Galloway Drive Manchester, Michigan 48158 U.S.A.

Dear Dr. Lehr

Thank you very much for sending us many wonderful posters. They have reached us safely.

From coming June 4 here in Japan as Dental Health Week is to be held, we will send them each school in Osaka so that they can be displayed at their school going the rounds, after putting them on display in Dental Hall.

We hope that we could promote international friendly relations of children mutually through the exchange of posters. At the same time we'll be very happy that we could exchange posters yearly.

We have sent you 100 posters by sea mail and 30 posters by air mail. Please accept them and thank you for your arrangement and any further cooperation towards us.

Sincerely

Toshiyuki Kawamura, D.D.S., President of Osaka School Dental Association

P.S. Please forgive us for not sending you posters soon.

My wife and I are retired but we don't want to live in one of those government subsidized housing projects in the city. We have our eye on a small house in the country. I understand there is a government housing program to help senior citizens who prefer rural area living. Can you help us? —D. A., St. Clair County

The Farmers Home Administration is in charge of several loan programs for older citizens who desire to buy or build homes in rural areas. Interest rates depend upon your income, and, in cases of persons living on a modest fixed income, may be as low as one per cent. For more information, look up the local Farmers Home Administration representative in the county where you plan to live, or write the Farmers Home Administration, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.

We have 7 kids to feed, and I'm thinking about investing in a freezer so I can buy meat in bulk and freeze it. Does the government have any advice or help for the likes of me? —S. F., Ypsilanti Government advice is available. You will be interested in a Department of Agriculture publication entitled, "How to Buy Meat for Your Freezer." Among other subjects it discusses factors to consider when buying meat in bulk, including USDA grade, yield grade, and hanging weight. The modern day farmer is exposed to more causes of serious illnesses than ever before. Through every part of the farmer's day he is constantly exposed to causes for aches, pains, stresses, strains, headaches, and many other symptoms. Most of the causes of these serious, disabling ailments can be corrected by your family chiropractor. AN UNHEALTHY FARMER IS A POOR FARMER, since illness and disease prevent him from his every-day productivity. Have you ever stopped to think of the hundreds of ways each day that a farmer subjects himself to the possibility of serious disorders. How many times each day does he scoop feed, stoop to milk cows, fall or slip from machinery, carry heavy sacks, stoop to pick up heavy equipment, stretch to reach tools in the barn, twist his neck while driving the tractor, strain his back from heavy lifting, or by being pushed and jolted by livestock and bumping up and down on tractor seats all day long?

High speed and long working hours, taut nerves and incidents like those described above, result in weakening muscles to such an extent that the whole skeletal framework sags, causing nerve pressures and the usual train of symptoms - headaches, insomnia, stiffness of the neck, numbness and pain in the arms and hands, pain between the shoulders, pain in the lower back, swollen joints, and numbness and pain in the legs. Heavy lifting often produces nerve interference, cutting off the VITAL supply line from the brain to tissue cells.

CONSULT YOUR FAMILY CHIROPRACTOR... Your family chiropractor is the man to have confidence in for results. Chiropractic adjustment through expert spinal analysis can mean the difference between good health and disease. Your family chiropractor should be consulted now! Gentle spinal adjustments can correct these conditions quickly and effectively. REGARDLESS OF THE HEALTH PROBLEM... you or any member of your family may have, it is entirely possible that your family chiropractor can replace despair and sorrow with glowing health and happiness.

car and lifting the bag for fast disposal, he turns and is greeted by the friend who says "What's in the bag?"

"Oh, hello, nice day isn't it? Yes - well - it's - well it's a Bag of Bedsprings."

"No kidding - just what I've been looking for, my kid's bunk beds are sagging and I have looked everywhere for small tight springs to repair them, and can't get hold of them - would you give them to me?"

"Oh - yes, sure, be glad to" Well, recycling, I always say is a very modern word for the old fashioned idea of saving and reusing everything possible.

Baseball Team Has Slow Start

This year the Manchester Dutchmen baseball team is 1-3. Their first game was against the defending class "D" state champs, Ann Arbor St. Thomas.

The Dutch went extra innings with them but lost it 5-3. Rich Kennedy started on the mound for Manchester and was relieved by Tom Popkey. Brad Roberts had two hits for the Dutch.

Then on the 18th of April, Manchester traveled to Hudson. Rich Kennedy pitched again for the Dutch and gave up only one earned run but we had 4 errors and lost the game 5-0. Only 2 hits could be produced, a double by Mark Amett and a pinch hit double by Scott Gormley.

The next day the dutch went to Whitmore Lake for a non-league game. Brad Roberts went all of the way on the mound for the Dutch, striding out 10 and giving up only 3 hits. Manchester collected 12 hits and won the game 9-1. Don Steele, Brad Roberts, and Mark Amett each had 2 hits.

Then Tuesday, April 23, Manchester played another non-league game, this time with Chelsea. Rich Kennedy pitched for the Dutch and was relieved by Roberts. Chelsea jumped to an early lead of 3-0. Manchester came back in the third inning and tied up the score, 3-3. But then Chelsea got 2 runs in the third and 3 runs in the fourth and won the game 8-5. Rich Kennedy went 3 for 3 for Manchester and Rick Snyder and Scott Gormley both had 2 hits.

Manchester plays a doubleheader in Manchester with Sand Creek this Wednesday the 25th. Come on down and see us!

Notice of Hearing on Special Contract for Sale of natural Gas

On April 19, 1973, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company applied to the Michigan Public Service Commission under 11 of 1909 PA 300 (MCLA 462.11) and Commission Order No. D-3096 and D-3096-50.2, for approval of a special contract for sale of natural gas to Consumers Power Company (Case No. U-4333). The contract provides, subject to approval of the Commission, that during the summer of 1973 Michigan Consolidated will sell 10 billion cubic feet of natural gas to Consumers Power at a price of 87 cents per thousand cubic feet, which Michigan Consolidated states is approximately its average retail rate.

The application states that Michigan Consolidated has the gas available for sale because weather during the recent heating season was substantially warmer than normal, and as a result its sales to heating customers were approximately 10 billion cubic feet less than they would have been had normal weather prevailed. The sale under the special contract will have no effect on Michigan Consolidated's ability to supply its customers and continue to connect new users under its Controlled Service Program.

The special contract provides that Consumers Power will use the gas for replenishment of its storage and further provides that this purchase of gas will enable it to resume approval of new residential customer applications.

A public hearing will be held at 9:30 A.M., on May 7, 1973, and continue on May 8, 1973, if necessary, in the offices of the Commission, Law Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, for the purpose of determining whether the approval sought should be granted. Any interested parties may attend the hearing and participate subject to the provisions of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. Copies of the application may be obtained from the Secretary of the Commission, Law Building, Lansing, Michigan 48913, the Secretary of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, One Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan 48226, or the Secretary of Consumers Power Company, 212 West Michigan Avenue, Jackson, Michigan 49221.

This notice is published by direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission.

BEDFORD, IND., TIMES-MAIL: "An indignant citizen of our national capital mailed 75 letters from Philadelphia to Washington addresses. Then he carried a second set of letters between the two cities by his own 'pony express' service of six horses and eight riders. There may be a greater future for it than realized, unless the Postal Service gets its mess untangled soon."

The possibility of having to earn the money seldom enters into the scene. The idea is that every person is entitled to much money, and that our government is supposed to provide it. The idea of working for a living seems to have little to do with the 'get rich' schemes. Yes, the day may not be too far away, when each of us will be a millionaire. But what good will all that money accomplish--for when that day comes, bread will probably be costing $1,000 a loaf!"

TREE AND SHRUBS INVITE BIRDS

Michigan has among its wildlife resources an abundant and colorful population of feathered friends, the songbirds.

Their songs, bright flashing colors, and lively antics add much to the pleasures of rural or suburban living and the opportunity we have to observe their interesting habits is well worth the time and effort spent to encourage them.

Perhaps you have had experiences with artificial or manmade structures such as birdhouses, feeders, birdbaths, perches and the like. There is also a natural way of attracting some feathered residents and some of these attractions consist of some bright-hued and decorative flowers, vines, shrubs and trees which can be grown in the yard. If we give some thought to the landscape planning and planting of our home grounds, we can greatly increase the chance that birds will find our yard an attractive place to set up housekeeping.

Landscape plantings function in several ways to make home grounds attractive to birds. They furnish year-round shelter and protection from predators.

They furnish safe nesting sites and rearing places for the young. And they furnish food in the form of fruit, seeds, and nectar. Birds also find these plantings convenient and attractive places to hunt for insects.

A new publication of the United States Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service, "Invite Birds to your Home--Conservation Plantings For The Midwest," is available to the public for their use in attracting birds to their homes.

This colorful brochure, especially adapted for the use of homeowners in this area, describes and illustrates various trees, shrubs and other plants useful in attracting many species of songbirds. It also suggests how to create a landscape design and in addition, lists the plant foods preferred by the common birds of our area.

Single copies of this publication are available free of charge from the Soil Conservation Service office at 6101 Jackson Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103. Phone: 761-6721.

By designing attractive, liveable areas for songbirds concerns and nest building, you will also provide a welcome shade and ornamentation for the human homeowner.

TRY GULFTANE, THE LOW COST GASOLINE FOR NEW CARS.

Each year since 1971 more new, American-made cars have been designed to operate on lower octane gasoline. This year most new car manuals recommend a low octane fuel. Like Gulftane. Gulftane not only meets most manufacturers' recommendations, but it has the kind of performance additive package you'd expect from Gulf. All this may sound like Gulftane costs more. Wrong. It costs less than our regular. So try a tankful of Gulftane. The low cost gasoline for new cars.

*Because the condition of an engine as well as atmospheric factors affect the way an engine performs, there is no way to guarantee that any single car will give knock-free performance on a particular gasoline. To find out if your car will perform satisfactorily on Gulftane, try a tankful and see.

Kurt Kensler, Top threat in sprints.

Dean Decker, 1st yearman looks strong in quartermile.

DUTCH THINCLADS LACKING SPRINT DEPTH

The loss of last years two top point scorers and their strong point gaining abilities in the sprints will hurt the Dutchmen greatly this season.

"You've got to have at least four real strong sprinters if you're going to gain points in these events", stated Manchester High Coach Larry Steeb, "and we just don't have that depth this year".

The Dutchmen had that depth last year as the foursome of Mark Tassie, Scott Lippert, Mark Spencer and Kurt Kensler broke the school records in the 440 and 880 yd. relays. Last years, mile relay also broke the existing school record, but of the eight boys involved in these three relays only four returned this year.

The top holdover from last season is senior co-captain Mark Spencer. Spencer will be moving around as Coach Steeb plans on working Spencer in the 100 and 220 yd. dashes as well as the 440, an event Steeb believes Spencer will set a new school record in. Spencer is also slated to run the anchor leg in both the 440 and 880 relays.

Sophomore Kurt Kensler also returns from those two record setting sprint relay teams and Kurt has looked much stronger this spring than last. Kensler will run the 220 yd. dash mainly this season and Coach Steeb feels he's definitely one of the areas best. Kurt is also slated for relay work.

The top newcomer on this years squad is freshman Dave Guenther. Guenther has looked exceptionally fast this spring and is now being counted on to fill one of the holes in the 2 sprint relays caused by graduation, as well as run in either the 100 or 220. "This kid is going to be one of the big guns in the league, if not this year then certainly next," said Steeb. On the shelf right now with injuries are two powerful newcomers; junior Eric Bentschneider and freshman Dave Reineck. According to Steeb both boys will greatly aid the team when they are 100%.

Two holdovers from last season, junior Brad Frey and sophomore Kurt Kocesk, are being counted on to improve markedly this spring and hopefully take some of the pressure off caused by graduation. Both Frey and Kocesk will run the 100 and 220 dashes as well as possibly running relay legs.

Dean Decker, sophomore first yearman has looked well suited for the 440 yd. dash, an event the Dutchmen weren't particularly strong in last year. According to Coach Steeb what Decker needs most now is competitive experience.

Junior Dennis Keizer, while on the baseball team will also try to add depth to the squad once or twice a week. Keizer looks to be a possible point gainer in both the 220 and the 180 yd. low hurdles.

The Dutchmen don't have a bona-fide hurdler this season, a fact that concerns Coach Steeb greatly. Steeb is hoping that field event performers Scott Gormley, Dan Beach or Randy Seegert along with Keizer will be able to hold their own in this problem event.

So all-in-all newcomers hold the key for the Dutch Thinclads this spring and Coach Steeb is hoping that they can fill the holes left by graduation.

MICHIGAN TUBERCULOSIS AND RESPIRATORY DISEASE ASSOCIATION

"Clean air is a concern of all of us," stresses James A. McLean, MD, Ann Arbor, president of the Huron Valley Region of the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, in urging residents of Washtenaw County to use the association's Clean Air Seals.

For the third year, coinciding with Earth Day activities, the association has prepared a Clean Air Campaign to keep the important message of citizen participation for clean air before the public and to raise supplemental funds to aid in the organization's fight against air pollution and the personal pollution of smoking.

Dr. McLean reminds residents that they can do something about pollution. Have your car tuned and make sure your emission control equipment is functioning properly. Walk instead of driving. Use a bike. Don't burn rubbish and other debris but have it hauled away to a sanitary landfill. Recycle your paper, bottles and cans. Make sure your furnace is working properly. And, if you smoke, kick the habit. It affects not only you, the smoker, but those around you who are nonsmokers and have a right to unpolluted air.

The association, in its fight for clean air, supported passage of House Bill 4260 in 1972 for more stringent air pollution controls, and is promoting the rights of nonsmokers and encouraging Michigan citizens to take action through community action programs and education programs to clean up the air where they live.

There are over 60,000 houses in Washtenaw County. About 600 of them are for sale.

Close-to-campus-and-downtown bungalows. Subdivision split-levels. Country-gentleman estates. It's a pretty big and diversified market to compete in.

If you're planning to enter your home in the competition, see your Realtor.

Realtors know the marketplace. Your Realtor knows what properties comparable to yours are selling for, and he can help you establish a selling price which will return the maximum value for your home and yet be attractive to prospective purchasers.

Also, he knows which of his clients are looking for a home like yours, and which can meet your selling terms. When he brings prospective purchasers to see your home (at your convenience, of course), they really are potential purchasers.

Finally, your Realtor participates in a multiple listing service, which means that you'll have 300 salesmen working for you. They're all pros at the business...and their record is impressive.

THE MANCHESTER ENTERPRISE

106TH YEAR NO. 27 10 CENTS PER COPY THURSDAY, MAY 3, 1973

7th Annual Boat Races Sunday, May 20th

The Seventh Annual Boat Race, held by the Manchester Chamber of Commerce will be held Sunday, May 20, 1973.

For an entry fee of $1.50 per person, couples may have a taste of old-time river racing. Seven different classes of entry encompass ladies, gentlemen, fathers and sons, as well as a choice of boats or canoes.

Began during the Manchester Centennial in 1967 with approximately twenty entries, the yearly competition has increased to more than sixty entries each year. Beginning at Fellow's Bridge in Sharon Township the four mile course runs through fallen trees and narrowly twisting turns to end at the Bridge on Main Street in Manchester Village.

One Vacancy On School Board

One person will be elected to the Board of Education at the annual School election to be held on June 11, 1973. The term of Louis Vogel, Board Treasurer, is expiring this year. Mr. Vogel has indicated he will be a candidate to succeed himself.

Persons interested in running for this office may pick up nominating petitions in the Superintendent's Office at 710 East Main Street. Deadline for filing nominating petitions is 4:00 p.m. May 14, 1973.

Elected State JC Vice-President

At the district meeting of the Michigan Jaycees in Manchester, Michigan, Manchesters local Jaycee President, James Francis Curley, was elected the first Michigan State Vice-President from his local chapter in their nineteen year existence.

Mr. Curley resides at 503 E. Main Street, Manchester, with his wife Vicki and their four children. Vice-President Elect Curley was born in Cranston, Rhode Island, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Curley.

Mr. Curley attended Cleary College and Southern Illinois University. He is also an active member of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church and the local Manchester, Knights of Columbus.

Jim Curley joined the Jaycee organization in 1964. He has serviced most offices from director to local president. He was selected out-standing Jaycee of the year, 1971-72; Spark Plug Award for the year 1972-73; and placed 3rd in District 28 Michigan Jaycee speak-up contest 1972.

Mr. Curley is presently superintendent of Ford Motor Company's Ypsilanti plant, having risen from foreman to general foreman to his present position this year.

As a member of the Ford Team, Mr. Curley received the safety award citation for 1968-69, and the Ford Motor Company Community Service Award citation in 1972.

As Michigan State District Vice-President, James Curley will service the needs of Clinton, Tecumseh, Saline, Ypsilanti, Monroe, Milan, Bedford, Carlton, Federal Correctional Institute and Manchester.

The Manchester Jaycees have risen to levels unparalleled in their 19 year history under President Curley. They are the smallest metropolitan chapter in the United States Jaycee movement, and Vice-President elect Curley has promised to work and strive to make District 28 of the Michigan Jaycees, excel in all areas of achievement.

Engagement Announced

On display will be everything from handicrafts to rustic structures (towers, a "Paul Bunyan" fire-making device, "monkey-bridges", etc.) Or, you might want to take in a display on drug-abuse and what Scouting is doing to combat it. For those who appreciate authentic "Americana", there will be Indian dancing as practiced by the original woodland inhabitants of this area. These are just a few of the many displays and events that will be part of the all-day program.

It is probably one of the most inexpensive activities that a family can take part in; cost for a ticket to admit a whole household is only $1. With this new and lower price it is hoped that thousands will turn out to see for themselves that "Scouting today's a lot more than you think!"

Kindergarten Round-up May 9

The Kindergarten Round-Up this year will be held at the Klager Elementary School on Wednesday, May 9, at 9:30 A.M. If you have a kindergarten age youngster please stop in at the Klager Elementary School office and pick up registration and physical forms or call 428-8010 so the forms can be sent to you. If would be ideal if these forms could be filled out before the round-up and turned in at that time. If you have a birth certificate for your child please bring it as this must be seen before your child enters school in the fall.

The school will provide supervision on the playground for your youngsters. See you at the round-up!
