Overall Millage Increase .78 Asked

The Manchester Board of Education meeting in special session Monday, May 6, 1974, set the 1974-75 extra voted operational millage at 12.78 mills. This is a renewal of the existing 11.5 mills plus an increase of 1.28 mills in the operational levy. However, with the debt retirement levies being reduced by one-half mill the overall millage increase is only .78 mills. This amounts to 78¢ per thousand dollars of assessed valuation. The Board is levying the millage necessary to fund the projected 1974-75 school budget which is up approximately $150,000 over last year. The increased budget provides a cost of living increase for school employees, three additional teachers to accommodate the growing enrollment, the increased costs of plant operation, materials and supplies. This is the first requested increase in the operational millage in three years. The School District has been able to hold the extra voted operational millage at 11.5 mills because of a rising tax base in the school district. But because the increase this year was significant enough to reduce sharply the amount of State Aid due the district, the Board was compelled to ask for the increase.

Last year the school district received $440,348.00 in state aid monies. This year with the increased state equalized valuation the school district will receive approximately $355,180.00 in state aid. This is a reduction of approximately $85,000 in state aid funds which must be offset by the local district.

March of Dimes Annual Walkathon

An hour-long rain shower failed to dampen the spirits of the 800 participants in the second annual Washtenaw County March of Dimes Walkathon on Sunday. According to Mrs. Edward Salowitz, chairman of the event, almost 95 percent of the walkers finished the 16-mile course and that sponsors of the individual walkers had pledged nearly $24,000.

Walkers will begin contacting their sponsors for the pledged contributions. To be eligible for the prize drawings on May 17th, each walker should turn in his pledges by May 15th. A prize will be awarded to the walker turning in the most money and another awarded to the walker having the largest number of sponsors. Many other prizes, all donated by local merchants and businessmen, will be awarded on a name-draw basis.

All proceeds from the Walkathon go to help the March of Dimes continue its fight to prevent birth defects through research and education.

Inquiries regarding items lost during the Walkathon may be made by phoning 761-6331.

Mayor Exchange Day May 20

Rev. Ralph Kuether To Be Guest Speaker

Rev. Ralph Kuether, pastor of Emmanuel United Church of Christ from 1959 - 1971, will be the guest speaker this Sunday at the 10:30 a.m. worship hour. Following the service there will be a coffee hour in the fellowship hall in honor of Rev. Kuether and his wife Christine.

During his pastorate at Emmanuel Church a number of significant contributions were made by the Kuethers. Perhaps one of the most significant was the construction of the educational building and the remodeling of the church chancel and nave.

While they are in the area, the Kuethers will visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Gustav Kuether who are presently home on furlough from their missionary work in Honduras and who are living in Tecumseh.

Emmanuel Church welcomes Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Kuether this Sunday and invites the community to attend our 10:30 worship hour and/or the coffee hour following the service.

The bride-elect is a senior at Manchester High School and attends Washtenaw Community College. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Detrling of Ann Arbor. He is a 1973 graduate of Manchester High School and is currently employed at A G L Parts, Inc. in Ann Arbor. A 1975 Spring wedding is being planned.

Thinclads Lose Pair

A frustrated Manchester High Track Coach Larry Steeb stated, "If someone told me before the season began that we would lose to both Sand Creek and Clinton this season I would have said, 'No Way', but we did and until we have the whole team together again we'll probably lose a few more."

Last week an undermanned Dutchmen track squad lost a pair of L. C. A. A. League meets by 72 1/2-48 1/2 and 76 1/2-46 1/2 margins to Sand Creek and Clinton. Although team depth was lacking fine performances by the Dutchmen was not. In Tuesday's meet against Sand Creek Bruce Cray scored 11 3/4 points on two firsts, 120 yd. High Hurdles (18, 1), and Long Jump (18'4") and a tie for third in the high jump and a strong anchor leg on the winning mile relay squad of Dave Guenther, Phil Krzyzaniak, John Roberts and Bruce Cray.

Other Manchester point scores against Sand Creek are Bill Mann: 1st shot put (39'2"), Dave Guenther: 3rd long jump (18-2), 3rd 100 yd. dash (11.2), John Savage: 1st high jump (5'6"), Mike Fomer: 2nd pole vault (8'6"), Phil Krzyzaniak: 2nd 880 (2:12.1) and 3rd 440 (58.4), Tom Guenther: 1st mile (4:55.6), John Roberts: 3rd mile (5:09.1), Kurt Kenler: 1st 440 (56.0), Dean Decker: 2nd 440 (57.2), Tom Opal: 3rd 2 mile (11:37.6), Brad Frey: 3rd 220 Yd. dash (26.2).

Against Clinton on Thursday the Dutchmen performed much better as Tom Opal set a sophomore class record in winning the 2 mile at 11:03.7, Tom Guenther set a senior class mile record at 4:52.5 in a winning performance with classmate 4:59.8 right behind in second place.

Bruce Cray continued his fine performance with a 1st in the high jump (5'6"), a second in the 440 (55.6) and thirds in the long jump and the high hurdles to account for 10 points.

Scott Gormley accounted for 11 points on two 1st places (11'6" pole vault and 18'1" long jump) and a 3rd in the low hurdles (24, 1).

Other Manchester point scores against Clinton are Dan Clark: 2nd shot put, Bill Mann: 3rd shot put, Pete Tassie: 3rd place high jump, Phil Krzyzaniak: 2nd 880, Randy Bennett: 3rd 100 yd. dash, Brad Frey: 3rd 220.

Energy-Saving Entree

Human ingenuity can defy many restrictions, especially when it comes to energy saving in the kitchen. Make two quiche entrees — enough for two meals in one operation. Save one for later to reheat quickly. This recipe's surprising texture comes from the back-to-nature cereal. Post Grape-Nuts Brand Cereal.

CHEESE AND BACON QUICHE

- 1/4 pound bacon slices
- 1 lightly baked 10-inch pie shell
- 1 cup thinly sliced onions
- 1/2 cup Post Grape-Nuts Brand Cereal
- 3 eggs, slightly beaten
- 1 cup (1/2 pt.) heavy cream
- 1 cup milk
- 1 cup grated Swiss cheese
- 3/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Fry bacon until crisp, drain on absorbent paper, and crumble into bottom of pie shell. Sauté onions in 2 tablespoons of the bacon drippings until tender and lightly browned. Combine cereal, eggs, cream, milk, cheese, salt, and pepper; stir in onions. Pour into pie shell, and bake at 425° for about 30 minutes or until top is browned and puffed. Garnish with curls of additional cooked bacon, and watercress, if desired. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

VIRUSES AND ASTHMA ATTACKS

Asthma attacks can be triggered by many different things. Pollen. Dust. Chemicals. . . . Biological factors. And, it now seems, respiratory infections.

During an asthma attack, the air passages of the lungs constrict suddenly. The person may wheeze and gasp for breath. An attack may last a few minutes or may continue for days.

Three years ago, Australian researchers followed 12,000 asthmatics and classified their attacks into two categories. In the first, the attacks were triggered by specific substances in the air to which the person was allergic. Mostly older children and younger adults were in this group. In the second, the attacks came at the same time as respiratory infections. Mostly younger children and elderly adults were in this group.

This year, researchers at the University of Wisconsin Medical School confirmed the fact that asthma attacks can be precipitated by respiratory infections. And when they are, the infections are commonly caused by a virus such as the one causing the Hong Kong flu or other colds and flu.

There are hundreds of different kinds of viruses that cause the common cold. There is now some evidence that one type, the rhinoviruses, are spread by hand rather than by coughing and sneezing.

The researchers suggest it is wise to try to keep asthmatic children away from brothers or sisters or people who have a cold or the flu. They also recommend trying to keep the infected child's hands as germ-free as possible so he or she won't pick up the infection.

Medical treatment can often relieve symptoms of asthma and forestall further attacks.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

April 15, 1974

Council met in regular session with the meeting called to order by President Little at 7:10 p.m. Present were Beal, Fitzgerald, Mahony, Scully, Walton and Zienyuk; absent Curley and Daniels. Minutes from the April 1, 1974 regular meeting were read and approved in a motion by Fitzgerald, supported by Walton.

Ed Kirk was present with some suggestions for eliminating several of the problems encountered in the sewer and water billing. The primary suggestion was to bill all property owners, as a matter of course, rather than some tenants as is done now at the request of the landlords. Further checking will be done on the matter.

Don Fielder objected to the proposed location of restroom facilities at Kirk Park. Fitzgerald explained that it would be necessary to contract the work out if the facility should be located on Adrian as Mr. Fielder suggested, since the construction of Adrian Street would pose engineering to locate the lines with the log construction of the road taken into consideration. Council adjourned at 7:50 and reconvened at 8:05 for the purpose of looking over the site. It was then suggested that if the building was to be constructed on Clinton Street as proposed, that it should be set back further and a buffer zone of shrubbery be used. Fitzgerald was asked to talk further with Mr. Fielder.

Art Williams voiced a request on behalf of Mrs. Stanley to continue the sewer down to her house. He said he would shoot some grades when Bruce Daniels returned from vacation.

Dave Little brought up the map developed by the committee for House and Urban Development regarding a flood plan for the Village area 200 ft. on either side of the Raisin River. We have six months to voice any objections to the map as it stands. With an approved flood plan residents can obtain flood insurance at a greatly reduced rate. However, the present map does not consider any of the topography in the area 200 ft. either side of the River Raisin. Any objections must be done through engineers. Little and Daniels will check with McNamee, Porter and Sealey.

Zienyuk reviewed police activities, reporting that approximately $16,000 in communications equipment has been requested through the Federal Grant Program. In regard to the Civil Defense program, Mr. Palmer of the Ann Arbor Civil Defense will assist in getting the necessary equipment. The Emanuel and Methodist Churches have been designated Civil Defense shelters, thus providing emergency facilities on both sides of the river should bridges go out. A Civil Defense auxiliary will have to be promoted.

Zienyuk also reported that the insurance company has discontinued the old form of False Arrest Policy. In reviewing the new one he suggested that the limits be increased to $20 - $30 - $100,000 at a premium of $839 a year. Moved by Walton, supported by Beal to increase the false arrest protection to $20 - $30 - $100,000 limits at an annual cost of $539. All yeas, carried.

The copying machine has been a constant source of repair of late, and consequently quotes were obtained with the thought of replacing the machine. One proposed new machine was of the same wet method as the current model; the other was a dry reproduction. The dry reproduction machine by 3 M reproduces copies at less than 2¢ a piece, which is better than the current machine and the other wet reproduction model. The 3 M is $1367, $5 w trade-in; the Gestetner is $1305, $5 w trade-in. Mahony suggested that Zienyuk try out the 3 M machine against the advertised warmup time period of 6 seconds, before purchasing it.

The old down uniforms used by the police officers will be sold, now that everyone is outfitted with blue.

Fitzgerald discussed Public Works activities. Bids were received for the resurfacing of Main Street from Clinton to Union. Cunningham-Gooding bid $5100 and Ann Arbor Construction Co. bid $11,756.76. Richardson Asphalt submitted no bid. Since Cunningham-Gooding did not spell out their proposal as definitively as Ann Arbor Construction, Fitzgerald planned to check with C-G further before accepting their low bid.

Paint for the facilities at Carr Park was purchased from Ace Hardware. A six inch water main was ordered for Kirk Park. The "T" at the corner of Torrey and Duncan was replaced with a manhole. Water services at West Main Street and Nacomb were repaired. The tree program has begun.

Possible changes at the transfer site were discussed. Further information was to be gathered for the joint Village-townships meeting tentatively scheduled for April 29, 1974 at 7:30 pm at Freedom Hall. The possibility of a joint building inspection program will also be discussed at that time.

Beal reported that a permit had been taken out by Merrill North at 410 Adrian for a 20' X 24' addition.

Mayor's Exchange Day plans are underway, and Beal requested further information regarding the allotment budgeted for this year.

Simon Steele reminded Council of the Boat Race scheduled for May 19 and asked if Chief Zienyuk would have two auxiliary officers available at noon that day.

Moved by Fitzgerald, supported by Mahony that McNamee, Porter and Sealey proceed on the required supplement for Federal Funding of the understanding of payment with the Village. All yeas, carried.

Moved by Scully, supported by Beal that the meeting be adjourned at 10:02 pm. All yeas, carried.

Hats Off To Spring

Award winning hats were (1 to r) Roberta Kemp-largest, Lorella Rouster-oldest, Phyllis Passow-most unusual, Sandy Fletcher-prettiest.

"Hats off to Spring" was the theme of the Mother-Daughter banquet enjoyed April 26 by 180 mothers and daughters of the North Sharon Bible Church. The ladies were encouraged to make and wear hats. Roberta Kemp wore the largest hat--a huge Mexican sombrero; Phyllis Passow wore the most unusual--a large exotic bird; Sandy Fletcher wore the prettiest--a wide brimmed bonnet covered with founy orange and green feathers; Lorella Rouster wore the oldest--a delapidated old felt hat decorated with egg carton flowers. Each of these ladies took home a first flower centerpiece for their efforts. Other unusual hats were a beehive, worn by Jean Rudd, a huge basket of fruit, a mock wedding cake worn by Carol Marr and a light bulb hat worn by Paula Payne.

The ladies were served by 32 men from the church, who also judged the hats. They enjoyed special music by the McAtee sisters trio and by Jane Lantis and Carol Marsh. Mrs. Gladys Johnson and her daughter Liz gave tributes to mothers and daughters. Mrs. Mary Michaels, wife of the late Uncle Chuck of Rural Bible Mission, addressed the ladies on the subject, "That your daughters may be like pillars of marble." Mrs. Ricky Lantis was Mistress of Ceremonies.

WASHTENAW READING COUNCIL

The Washtenaw Reading Council will hold the May meeting on Thursday evening, May 9, at 7:00 p.m. in the auditorium of Saline High School. There will be a display of books written by the children from various schools in Washtenaw County along with demonstrations of techniques for making books at 7:00 p.m. Washtenaw County teachers are invited to bring books that have been made by the children in their classrooms to display at this meeting.

Dr. H. Alan Robinson, professor of education at Hofstra University, New York, will address the council at 7:45 p.m. The focus of his address is: "Matching Reading Needs and Curriculum - A Challenge Indeed". Dr. Robinson's experience has acquainted him with many of the problems teachers face daily and is constantly in demand to offer solutions for these problems that are confronting the educators of today's child. Classroom teachers as well as administrators should find this meeting worthwhile.

There will be installation of new officers prior to the address. Council members are entitled to attend; a fee will be charged for non-members. For further information, call Reading Services, 769-6522, ext. 59.

AREA BETA SIGMA PHI CHAPTERS

This is the second article of a series depicting various aspects of the society for Beta Sigma Phi Week, which was held April 28-May 5.

The Adrian area has seven Beta Sigma Phi Chapters with four in Adrian, two in Tecumseh, one in Hudson and one will soon be formed in Manchester. The chapters range in numbers from 14 to 25 members and various age groups. Meetings contain cultural programs often with guest speakers and sometimes given by individual members sharing their special interests. The programs cover a variety of subjects such as drama, ballets, hobbies, home furnishing, sensitivity exercises, grooming, civic responsibilities, writing and others. Chapter exchanges are arranged by chapters entertaining each other for an opportunity for area members to meet. An Area City Council helps to advance the aims and purposes of Beta Sigma Phi by periodic discussion of interests and problems. The council sponsors combined social and educational activities to strengthen sisterhood by closer personal contact among members in the various chapters. Through observance of sorority themes and traditions the chapters initiate new and challenging activities for a year filled in enrichment and individual fulfillment.

some food supplies for consumers. With land use planning now assigned to the DNR, it becomes all the more vital to have agricultural leadership on the commission. The sacrifice of fertile farmland—hypocritically made in the name of progress—to factories, subdivisions and shopping centers, is a major concern to farmers. The one basic, irreplaceable commodity needed to produce food is land, and those responsible for feeding this nation should have an input into land use planning.

The appointee's background as an agricultural conservationist and his experience in land use planning will be important. But it will be that special relationship that exists between a farmer and his environment—a strong union, a "oneness" almost—that will enable him to make valuable and unique contributions to the commission.

Varsity Choir Concert May 10

The Varsity Choir Concert will be held May 10, 8 p.m. at the Manchester High School study auditorium. Adults $1.00 and 50¢ for students.

The recent appointment of a professional farmer to Michigan's Natural Resources Commission, for the first time in history, is heralded as good news by the rural community. Farmers, and other knowledgeable, concerned citizens, view agricultural representation on the commission as necessary and appropriate. Necessary because agriculture may be more deeply effected by the commission's actions than any other industry; appropriate because no other segment of society has written a greater record of conservation of our country's precious natural resources than farmers.

The American farmer, in fact, could well be called the original ecologist, even though he doesn't picket or carry signs proclaiming that fact. As custodian of irreplaceable portions of the earth, he has long been doing a good job of protecting that land.

There's no one more concerned about a quality environment than farmers; it's essential to their profession. Take pure, clean water, for example—a farmer needs 3,750 gallons for every pound of beef he raises, and 37 gallons just to produce enough grain for a single slice of bread.

Good stewardship of the land has been a way of life to most farm families, with each generation feeling a strong responsibility to pass the land to the next generation in as good or better condition than received. They traditionally have used good soil conservation practices, and actively supported the research and development of techniques to prevent pollution and insure whole-

You're looking at one of the best investments you can make.

The fact is that the longer you wait to buy that home you've wanted, the more that home is probably going to cost. The two things which determine the cost of housing—supply and demand—aren't improving. The supply is getting smaller and demand is growing.

And... mortgage interest rates are still one of the best bargains around. To prove it to yourself, just take a look at interest rates for other types of loans. Just compare the cost of auto loans, personal loans, vacation loans, and the interest charged on "credit purchases" to our current mortgage interest rates. You'll realize the bargain your home loan really is.

So don't put off buying that home you want... let one of our mortgage experts work out the details or ask your Realtor or Builder about AAFS Gold Key Mortgages.

Ask Senator GRIFFIN

By cutting through red tape, members of Congress can often lend a hand to those with problems involving the federal government. Through the columns of this newspaper, Senator Griffin answers questions of general interest. He will respond personally to all communications addressed to: Senator Robert P. Griffin, Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510.

I want to buy a new car, and I'd like to be able to compare the gas mileage of various makes and models. Is there any scientific information available so I won't have to rely on the dealers' claims?

-H. L., Livonia

The Environmental Protection Agency has run scientifically-controlled gas mileage tests on all the 1974 models, including the foreign-made autos. EPA is anxious for you to realize that its findings and ratings should not be interpreted as a recommendation for or against any car.

To obtain a free copy of EPA's "Miles Per Gallon for 1974 Cars," write to Consumer Information, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

I'm absolutely infuriated, but I don't know what to do about it. I received one of those silly chain letters outlining a get-rich-quick scheme which ends up (I'm sure) with everyone getting ripped-off but the guy at the top. There are even vague threats made in this letter if I don't pass it on. Isn't this fraud or something? What can I do?

-T. B., Ludington

As you describe it, it appears that there has been violation of law, and I urge you to call it to the attention of the proper authorities. Along with your own letter describing the circumstances, send the letter you received (and the envelope in which it came, if you have it) to: Mr. J. D. Nicholas, Regional Postal Inspector, Room 400, General Post Office Building, 1401 West Fort Street, Detroit, Michigan 48232. If you hesitate to part with the evidence at this point, then call 313-226-6732 and talk with him.

Q. My biology teacher told our class about 109 animals in the United States that are on the endangered species list. At least two on the list are native to Michigan—the Eastern timber wolf and something called the Kirtland's warbler. I know quite a bit about the wolf but nothing about the Kirtland's warbler. Can you enlighten me?
 —B. J., Bay City

A. According to the National Wildlife Federation, the Kirtland's warbler is a songbird. Unfortunately, there are fewer than 300 couples still in existence. These beautiful birds breed in a relatively small region in Michigan's lower peninsula—an area bounded by Lake Huron on the east to Kalkaska County on the west, and from Ogemaw County north to Presque County. The birds are bluish gray on the upper body with conspicuous black stripes on their back. The lower body is pale lemon yellow with bold dark streaks on the side and breast. One unusual characteristic of the bird is that it wags its tail up and down. It is only 5 1/4 inches from bill to tail, and its song is carried in a loud and low pitch. Like a lot of people, this bird doesn't care for Michigan winters. It spends summers in Michigan and winters in the Bahamas.
