Mark Feldkamp, a senior, son of Renc and Nancy Feldkamp, plays the part of Will Parker. Will is a rough and rowdy cowboy with a lot of spirit but not as much education. He's a very fun loving character and Mark is doing a fine job with the part. Mark has had a good deal of experience in drama. He had the lead in both the seventh and eighth grade operettas. Also he has had parts in past high school productions.

In addition to stage activities Mark has been very involved in sports and clubs at the high school. Basketball and baseball are his main contributions to the field of athletics. He played baseball all four years and received the Coaches Award this year. Some of the clubs Mark is involved in are Woods and Waters, Varsity Club, Ecology Club, German Club, Visage and class activities.

Best of luck Mark in this your final contribution to the arts at Manchester High School!

Last week this column was devoted to the very important subject of Bible inspiration. We want to give more space

Your Bible is under attack today from many quaters. We can expect this because the sinful nature of the heart is in open rebellion against the authority of God and against His infallible, holy word, We read, 'The carnal mind is enmity (hostile) against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be" (Ro-

We sincerely thank God that there are still some Bible Colleges and seminaries around that have remained true to God and His word. But unfortunately most of the religious and Christians schools and colleges of our day have forsaken the historic evangelical Bible doctrines for liberal and modernistic interpretations that water down the Bible. voted in favor of the motion, Motion

Lyle Moore the Manchester Township

Zoning Inspector reported complaints from the Washtenaw County Health Department about several places in the township where litter and rubbish had been dumped along the roadside. This is against the law and there is no excuse for it because we have a transfer site in our township where citizens can dispose of their litter without charge. All they need is a free permit card obtainable at the township office.

There being no further business the

OVERLOOKING THE OBVIOUS

"Food Day" groups throughout the country are planning activities this month to promote hunger-awareness. Concerned about the world's hungry and frustrated in their search for ways to solve the problem, they "get involved" by fasting and encouraging meatless meals.

Some good may come from their activities, especially those aimed at nutrition education. But it's unlikely that many hungry people will realize any lasting benefits from their efforts.

Their slogan, "Food for People--Not for Profit," indicates their lack of proper perspective in the world food problem. Somehow, they've overlooked the obvious solution-more food production-and the only way to attain that goal is through incentives. That's an economic fact of lie here in this nation, as well as all others,

Genevieve Lemon

Genevieve Lemon receives the plaque from Mary Sue Moore. The plaque was presented to her from the Pleasant Lake PTO for her volunteer service to the Pleasant Lake School Library. The library is in the background.

At the Pleasant Lake PTO 4-H and Scout Recognition night, Tuesday, April 8. Mrs. Genevieve Lemon was honored for her volunteer service to the Pleasant Lake School Library. A plaque was presented to her which read, "In appreciation to Genevieve Lemon for her service to the Pleasant Lake School Library," The plaque will be placed in the library.

Pleasant Lake School has had a separate library for about 6 years. Before that books were located in the classrooms and were borrowed from the school system

For the past 4 years, with the help and advice of Mrs. Ingram, Mrs. Lemon has been at work in the library, cataloging and shelving books as they were received, setting up the card file, and generally keeping the library in order. She has done this strictly as a volunteer, spending countless hours at the task. Since last week was National Library work, hirs, Lemon opened the library for a few extra hours during the week. This wentieth Century and other ways of showing special care PTO has chosen to honor her.

> Mrs. Lemon resides on Hieber Road with her husband Paul. They have a daughter, Cheryl, who attended Manchester Public Schools and new in California
