How About Baled Hay? Winners of Boosters Tournament

By C. Chapin

The rain is right on time! The steady drizzle this summer has made us wonder if we were going to get enough rain but it seems to be getting what we need this week. How quickly the days go by -- already there is talk of getting the children ready for school.

Last week we attended a picnic at Carr Park and fell to thinking on the state of the world, the village, and suchlike profound ponderings. Riots in the city, labor leader vanishes, the economy bumps along, and behold here on the green and rolling parkway, four separate parties are taking place, the children on the swings, sack races, badminton games, softball on the diamond, potato salad and paper plates. Suddenly a lovely picture formed of thousands of small towns, with small parks and all of the people across the country eating picnic lunches and laughing together. I think perhaps I'm going to stop reading the front page of the paper and remember at least once a day how lucky we are to live here.

Some little pressure has been exercised to coax me to reveal the source of the special recipes and ideas for food that I've mentioned from time to time. Having obtained permission to expose the truth which shall be no surprise to anyone in the Village, Russ and Lucille Widmayer, the finest neighbors it has ever been my privilege to live near, and to eat with. Nearly everyone is fond of sauerkraut.

Manchester Fair August 19-23

Added attractions at this year's fair are Bingo, which will be playing on Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Also there will be a Mule Pull on Wednesday and an Antique Tractor Pull on Friday.

Now is the time to finish your exhibits and look up your exhibitors number which you received last year.

As an extra convenience the exhibitors tent will be open on Monday night, August 18 from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Merchants and all industry, get your vehicles ready for the Big Manchester Community Fair Parade on Tuesday, August 19. Also all clubs, organizations and classes, start making plans for your floats!

Any people who own horses in the area are welcome to ride in the parade. The parade will form on E. Dundan Street at 6:00 p.m. The parade will start at 6:30 p.m. For any further information call Clarence Fielder 428-8506 or 428-7477 or Gene Bentschneider 428-8567 or 428-8171.

Manchester Fair dates are coming up August 19-23.

The Legion Auxiliary members are requested to have their "Flea Market" items donated for our booth at the fair, delivered to Edna Knass, 315 Riverside Drive by the week of August 11 - or if you wish call 428-7471 for a pick-up - anytime. We need your white elephants or most anything saleable.

but here is a way of using cabbage which makes a good and unique relish. You need a crock--probably two or three gallon size. Baled Hay we call it.

1 quart green tomatoes sliced and put in salt water over night, just a sprinkle of salt.
5 onions sliced
3 quarts cabbage sliced
2 red peppers sliced
2 green peppers sliced
Not quite one quart of vinegar
2 cups sugar
1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon mustard seed
1 teaspoon celery seed
3/4 teaspoon turmeric

Mix together -- do not cook -- put in crock or pack in jars and seal. After a couple of weeks, it's a slightly sour salad which is great with pork.

The weekend before last was a hot, humid, dry three days that paired off ten Manchester slowpitch squads. The 10 teams involved in this double elimination tournament sponsored by the boosters were Merchants, Legion, Black Sheep, and Double A representing the upper league with Pioneers, Foxy's, Village Tap, Spuds, Union Savings Bank and Dairy Queen from the lower league. Double elimination means you have to lose 2 games before you are out.

The first game scheduled was Friday at 6 p.m. between Pioneers and Foxy's (the first and second place teams in the lower league). Pioneers wasted no time putting points on the board as they collected 7 runs before Foxy's got to bat. The Pioneers garnered 7 singles in this first inning and a home run by Don Walters. It's said that when your offense is working so is your defense. Well, I guess it's true for the pioneer Corns held Foxy's to only one run until they rallied for 3 in the seventh, but it was too late. Finally Corns scored 5 runs in the second inning to 10 Foxy's 4.

The following contest was really no contest as the Merchants sailed to a win over the Union Savings Bank 8 - 2.

Again the Pioneers, as this time they met the Spuds. The Corns defense shut off the Spuds offense as they blanked them for six innings with the Spuds getting 2 in the 7th but the Pioneers had 7.

At 9:45 p.m. was a very interesting contest pitting Double A against the red hot Village Tap. Double A jumped to an early lead as they crossed home plate 5 times in the top of the first inning. The Tap got their bats booming in the fifth to take the lead 10-8 thru a home run by Phil Nickerson. Double A recaptured the lead 11-10 as the seventh inning started. Phil lead off for the Tap and tied the score with a towering blast over the left field fence. Following this tap scored 4 more to total 15 as Double A went down 1-2-3 to finish with 11.

Saturday opened up with an upset as Dairy Queen gathered runs in their fifth and sixth inning to help shut the door on the Black Sheep Tavern 11 to 4.

The Legion played good defense and scored 5 runs in the second inning to

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
I was extremely disappointed that I was unable to be at the Manchester Chicken Broil this year. Instead of just visiting the Chicken Broil, I volunteered to work in it. I even called that Thursday morning to say I was coming after the legislative session for that day was over in Lansing, somewhere between 5 and 6 p.m. Because of the number of important items on the calendar, the session that day went until 12 o'clock midnight and I was unable to leave. The House was operating under a "Call of the House" which means that they lock the doors and don't allow any of the Members to leave. If any Members have already left, they send the State Police to find them and bring them back. I hope the Legislature in its wisdom will be able to arrange its schedule next year with a little more forethought, so that next year I will be able to volunteer my services at the 1976 Manchester Chicken Broil.
Sincerely,
Michael H. Conlin
State Representative

Dear Editor:
I should be dreaming about things that happened in the past instead of worrying about the future. I'm not worrying about someone taking my savings with the help of a gun or those getting more than their share of it with the help of inflation. Our leaders started doing things to cause higher prices years ago and they are still doing it. To increase the price of wheat, farmers were paid for not planting as much of it. To increase the price of pork, farmers were paid for killing their little pigs. To increase the price of other things farmers produce they were also paid for not raising anything on part of their land. These government programs and many others make about as much sense as giving the queen of England $65,000 last year for not raising cotton on land she has in one of our southern states. I'm sure their simplest method was to allow the price of (steel) our most important products to increase enough each year so it didn't really cost them anything for the use of my savings. I should know, I bought and sold steel for nearly 40 years. I also bought and held United States Savings Bonds for nearly 30 years. Things have changed so much in the last few years that I miss those good old days when I didn't really get anything for the use of my savings. A bank is using my savings now and I'm getting the "old one, two" treatment. Last year its value decreased nearly twice as much as it earned in interest and I still had to pay a tax on what it earned. I think organized labor is responsible for most of this. I don't blame them for wanting more. I blame the ones that were so greedy for fame, fortune and their votes that they let them have it. Candidates that only care about who wins, not how they play the game don't deserve faith or respect. Its the results of having this kind of people helping shape the future of this country, that's been bothering me. Others are also worrying now because of it. When I heard someone say "Don't worry, we will survive because of what we can do with our hands", I knew he was right. The sad part is, that was 45 years ago when the people of this country were also in real trouble. At that time we didn't have millions trying to do it by only using theirs to stuff their mouth and pockets, or the slightest idea that there would come a day when those that work would have a way of getting more pay for using theirs less. I didn't buy bonds during the last world war for profit. I did it because it was my duty. If every one had been willing to do a little extra for the privilege of living in a free country we wouldn't be in trouble now. I try we wouldn't be in trouble now. I think we will be in more trouble soon and that it will continue for the rest of our lives because our leaders will keep on bickering and doing things to get votes instead of working together to restore enough faith in our government for it to survive.

Earl Koebbe

During the Boosters Tournament there was a special home run derby. How it went was each team had 11 pitches to take 6 swings. Pictured is Phil Nichols, who was the only one to hit a home run off the booth presser. He was awarded the winners trophy as he edged Jim McNeil.

Keep your eye on the ball. Fory's sent the Black Sheep Tavern home as they played consistent defense and scored just enough runs to win, 9-7. The closest battle of the tournament was the last one on Saturday. The Bank came from behind to score 4 to tie the tally 9-9, but Jackie Smith's hit with the bases loaded gave the Double A the necessary edge 10-9. Starting Sunday off with a bang the Pioneers won their third straight as they massacred Dairy Queen 29-7. The game was up 15-3 when they rattled the bats for 14 more in the sixth inning. Following the Pioneers were the only other undefeated teams, Legion and Village Tap. Legion followed in the Cornfields as they crushed the Tap 22-4. Dairy Queen was eliminated but in a closely fought game as Fory's squeaked by 11-9. Double A got knocked out by the Village Tap as they refused to follow the thrashing the Legion gave them. The Tap hit Double A for 4 in the first and Double A couldn't catch up as the Tap won 18-6. The big show down, Pioneers and Legion, the only remaining undefeated squads.

ATTEND NATIONAL MEETING

Dale and Mary Weidmayer of Ann Arbor, attended a national meeting of agricultural and cooperative leaders at Michigan State University, July 28-31.

They were among the 200 Young Farmer Couples from across the nation who participated in the American Institute of Cooperator's 50th anniversary National Institute on Cooperative Education.

About 2,500 were at the meeting devoted to discussing the theme Cooperation -- Catalyst for Action. Michigan State University, area cooperatives, and the American Institute of Cooperation (AIC) sponsored the Institute. Its purpose was to help farmers and their cooperatives improve the income of rural America and to increase the understanding of the cooperative method of doing business.

Local and regional cooperatives in the home areas of young farmer couples sponsor them to the Institute on the basis of the qualities of leadership that they have shown. Dale and Mary were sponsored by Michigan Association of Farmer Cooperatives.

Among the special activities for young farmer couples were: A session on "Who's Minding the Cooperative," special luncheons, rap sessions, and mixers. They attended the general and sectional meetings during the three-day Institute where they heard about 100 nationally known speakers discuss major issues involving agriculture and cooperatives.

Tournament

Well, the Corns played brilliant defense and came up with 5 runs in the third to continue undefeated 5-2.

Village Tap had their work cut out as they met Foxy's. Foxy's zoomed to an 8-5 but the Tap added 8 while their defense held Foxy's scoreless. Final read Tap 13 Foxy's 8.

Immediately following was the Tap-Legion game. Tap was determined to prove the Legion was lucky the first time. The Tap pounced on the Legion for 3 runs in the first then settled back and played solid defense. Tap earned the right to meet the Pioneers by nipping Legion 7-4.

The Tap now entered their third game in a row and the heat and the Pioneers were just too much. The Corns defense was super as the offense banged in 13 runs. Pioneers won 5 out of 5 to win the championship and Village Tap won second. Brian Eisenhower was the winning pitcher for the corns 5-0. Special thanks to Clarence Fielder and sons, also guys from Stamping and Tool & Die that helped umpire.

the one
sure way to build a fortune

One of the most important, but overlooked, features of savings is the magic effect of compound interest. If money is deposited and the interest it earns never withdrawn, the money grows at an amazing rate. Money in most Ann Arbor Federal Savings certificates doubles every 10 years.

Thus, if a person 40 years old with $25,000 (in savings, coins, cash value insurance, etc.) puts it into a certificate account at Ann Arbor Federal Savings it will grow to $50,000 by age 50. By age 60 it will have grown to $100,000 without adding a penny of his paycheck.

For the person in his mid-fifties, with retirement coming up in ten years, compounding has even greater significance. If he has actual assets of $100,000, if he converts these into cash he can have $200,000 in ten years and realize an interest income for life of $10,000 to $15,000 thereafter.

But what about the person starting out, the twenty five year old. By putting $50 a month in a 5 1/2% passbook savings account each month and leaving the interest to accumulate and compound, he will have $21,190 by age 45. Then if he transfers the money to a certificate account (and never adds another penny) the money will grow to $87,380 by age 65.

On the other hand if one continues to add to his savings account regularly, it is well within the realm of possibility to accumulate $300,000 or $400,000 or more.

At Ann Arbor Federal Savings your dollars are not subject to market fluctuations, so you are sure when you reach the age at which you want to start using some of your money or earnings it will be there.

the magic of compounding

Deposit	... in 10 years you'll have	... in 20 years you'll have	... in 30 years you'll have
$ 5,000	$ 10,511.74	$ 22,099.34	$ 46,460.51
$ 10,000	$ 21,023.48	$ 44,198.68	$ 92,921.02
$ 25,000	$ 52,558.70	$ 110,496.70	$ 232,302.55
$ 50,000	$ 105,117.40	$ 220,993.40	$ 464,605.10
$100,000	$ 210,234.80	$ 441,986.80	$ 929,210.20

Above figures based on an annual interest rate of 7 1/2% compounded quarterly, available in amounts of $1000 or more, 48 month term. Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawals.

Agriculture in Action

Michigan Farm Bureau

THE "PROTECTED" PUBLIC WILL LOSE

The negative reaction to the Russian grain sale illustrates the widespread economic illiteracy of our public opinion-makers. They stimulate concern about rising food prices or grain shortages here at home, as a result of the sale. And they cheered when the longshoremen's union announced it would not load ships bound for the Soviet Union.

Before they cheer too loudly, they should consider some basic economic facts of life. In our economy, the highbrow is connected to the hipbone, etc., etc. If one segment of society is ailing, the rest of the body doesn't feel so good, either. This is especially true of the farming community. The old saying, "As agriculture goes—so goes the nation," is a proven fact. It's because a fantastically productive agricultural industry has freed 95% of our citizens from having to till the soil for their own food and fiber that we enjoy the highest standard of living in the world.

A healthy agriculture is necessary for a healthy U.S. economy, and foreign markets are necessary for a healthy agriculture. The American farmer is programmed for full production—so long as there is incentive. He produces much more than his domestic customers can use; he produces enough to cover Food for Peace commitments, plenty for foreign buyers, with still some left over to add to the nation's grain carryover.

Why, then, should he be denied—by too powerful organized labor—access to vital export markets? Should farmers have to sacrifice their incomes to maintain a cheap food policy for highly-paid union workers? Isn't it ironic for a union to talk about protecting consumer interests when it is soaring labor costs which account for a major portion of money spent on food?

And isn't it hypocritical for a union—the working man's protector—to throw a monkey wrench in our economy with the result of lower incomes for—not just farmers—but many other American workers? Farm exports mean jobs in assembling, processing and distribution as well as production.

There's two other economic factors involved. First, our agricultural products give us bargaining power in the world market, allowing U.S. consumers to buy, at a lower cost, products which can be produced cheaper in other countries. Secondly, farm exports are beneficial to taxpayers because they reduce government farm program costs (from $4 billion in 1972 to an estimated $800 million this year).

In the long run, the very people the union professes to protect will be the losers if organized labor is allowed to dictate our nation's economic and foreign policies.

WHAT'S COOKING IN MICHIGAN

Consumers seeking services of pest exterminators should make sure they are licensed by the State of Michigan. Plant Industry officials of the Michigan Department of Agriculture say certain pesticides, insecticides and fungicides can cause immediate danger to the user and concentrated chemical residues can act adversely on some birds, other wildlife species, plants and shrubs if not properly handled.

A licensed pest control operator is aware of approved chemicals, laws governing their uses, and proper methods of application. As an additional safeguard, he must be bonded and insured.

Over 34,000 products made from more than 900 chemical compounds are currently registered by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency for use on farms, lawns, gardens, commercial establishments and homes, according to MDA Plant Industry staff.

INTERNATIONAL FLYING FARMER CONVENTION

By Alice Rossette

Sunday, July 27th, was the day Mike and I hopped into our little Maule, and took off for Purdue University, at West Lafayette, Indiana, to join flying farmers from Canada, the U.S., and Mexico, for the yearly convention. The purposes of this convention are to elect new IFF officers, select a new queen and dutchess, take care of any old or new business, meet new and old friends, and in general have a good time.

I joined in the contest for International queen and dutchess, which kept me busy much of the time. The queens are really treated like queens, with luncheons, tea and gift exchanges, flowers, and the very big coronation and ball climaxing the whole week. Wednesday was judging day. Right from breakfast on until about 4:30 p.m., the queens are interviewed, questioned, and watched, by a panel of 6 judges. Of course, the judges are watching the queens all week long, but no one knows who they are until judging day. And no one knows who has been selected queen and dutchess until the very last minute, when her name is called to be crowned. (Not me -- whew!)

The queens part was all very exciting and fun, but we did other things, too. Sunday evening Beech Aircraft Corporation sponsored a box supper and Teen Talent Show. I must say we have some very talented young people in the Flying Farmers, and I'm most grateful that I was not a judge. Monday afternoon there was a pilot clinic, where pilots are kept up to date on any new regulations, and learn how to fly more safely, learn more about the weather, and anything else that has to do with flying. This particular clinic dealt with radio equipment and maintaining ones aircraft. In the evening, John Deere Company sponsored some very special entertainment and a get acquainted party. Tuesday was a very thrilling day. We were bused to the Indianapolis Speedway, where a race was staged especially for us. Our IFF Queen was the beauty who got to kiss the winner, then we were all allowed out on the track to examine the cars and visit with the drivers. The cars are much smaller than they look on TV. We were very fortunate and got Tom Sneva's autograph. Then we were bused to Clinton (Ind.) Central High School for a delicious pork chop barbecue, courtesy of Allis Chalmers. Guess what, the name of their team is the Bull dogs.

As I said, Wednesday was judging day. That night was awards night and Michigan people were right in there. Mark La Rue, of Brooklyn, received a flight award for getting his private pilots license, and Harold Holz, of Linden, received an award for getting his instrument license. Now he can fly in the clouds with the jets. Nancy Schmidt, of Standish, had entered and won on the state level, the Al Ward Jr. Essay Contest, and she took 2nd, Internationally. We're very proud of her, as we are of David Briggs, Arcata, who took 2nd place on a Capsul Course test, with a score of 93. This is a one afternoon course on things every pilot must know, from Federal Aviation Regulations to the point of getting into the plane. Thursday was the day of the crowning of the Farmerette, (Teen Queen), and preparation, and finally crowning the IFF Queen and Dutches. Weather was threatening to move in, so early Friday morning, after much grumbling about all the queenly baggage, we loaded up and came home. Did you ever see a husband that didn't grumble about all his wife's luggage on a trip, gals?

Purdue is a very beautiful, very clean campus. If you should get a chance, do stop and see it. The people there are extremely friendly and helpful, and made our stay very enjoyable.

1975 Manchester Fair Queen Candidates

New Friends Are Silver Old Friends Are Gold

By C. Chapin

The old Adage has particular meaning for the friends of Miss Linda Knorpp, of 407 E. Main, who last week on August 6, entertained for lunch several of her friends who were also her former pupils.

The graduating class of Brighton High School in 1917 was composed of ten students, and this past week seven of those pupils met at the home of their teacher, Linda Knorpp here in the village, to renew once again their friendship and to remember the good times.

Linda, who was born in Manchester and attended High School here, then studied at Ypsil. State Normal, now Eastern Michigan University and became a teacher was in Brighton teaching English and Music when this class graduated. The program for the graduation reads like a page of the history of our country. President of the class gave a speech entitled "America, the Melting Pot of Nations" and Anna Conrad spoke of "No excellence without Labor." Meredith Pidd presented "The Electrical Age" and Lillian Taylor declaimed on "Child Labor Law".

After twenty nine years as principal of the Jr. High School in Rochester, Michigan, Linda retired and came home to Manchester to live. The staunchest supporter of alumni gatherings, Linda has always been happy to visit and reminisce with her good friends.

Mrs. Bernice Beasley, Mrs. Lillian Kraus, Mrs. Carmen Wilson, Miss Ina Shannon, Mrs. Anna Weston, Mrs. Hazel Phillips, all visited the Village and under the friendly eye of teacher had a good lunch and a happy visit.
