If you are a "Grandmother" we have something special for you Sunday at the 10 a.m. Worship Service on March 21st. In recognition of Pastor Janofski's mother who is just having her 90th birthday and is still an active missionary in Bolivia, South America, we have designated this as "Grandmother Day".

Guest Speaker will be Larry Harris of the New Tribes Bible Institute, Jackson. There will also be music by some former students of the Mission School in Bolivia where Mrs. Janofski has labored for the past 26 years. Every Grandma will receive a momento of the day. The monthly Singspiration will be at 8:30 p.m. All are invited to come and enjoy a time of song and praise. Our Sunday School bus service has a regular route on Herman Roaden compassing Lawrence Road, Hardcastle, Wamplers Lake, US 12, Sharon Hollow, Ely and English Road. League at Greenbriar will meet April 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the American Legion.

ENDS ON RECORD BREAKING NOTE The Manchester Track Club experienced its finest indoor campaign in it's 4 year history this past winter, as eight individual records were broken. The indoor meets were conducted at the Univer-

> College indoor track facilities. Peter Tassie led the record assault s he broke 3 indoor bests with a 5'8" high jump, a 36.5 300 yard dash clocking and a 7 second 50 yard high hurdle

sity of Michigan or Jackson Community

The track club's massive shot putter Dan Clark continually imporved his best of a year ago until 2 weeks ago when unleashed a 52'6 1/2" put that shattered the Jackson Community College's meet and Fieldhouse records, earning him a 1st place and a handsome plaque for his effort.

Other record settingperformanceswere turned in by Mike Forner with a 11'6" pole vault, Tim Koceski with a long jump of 20° 3 1/4°, Dan Schaible with a fast 1:24.6 600 yard run, and Mark Daniels with a 2:51.2 1,000 yard best.

This past week at Jackson Commun MENS LATE GOLF LEAGUE College's 2nd Indoor Invitational beside the above mentioned records. Bob Smith turned in an 8th place mile run clocking of 5:08.1 in his first run of the indoor season and Dan Turvey in his first competitive race ever ran a quick 1:27.5 600 yard run to place a strong 5th.

MIDDLEMAN'S MARGIN CONTINUES RISE

The U.S. Department of Agriculture issued a report a few days ago indicating that the spread between farm and retail prices continues to widen. Over the past four months, the report notes that the farm to store margin has expanded by nine percent.

To farmers, this is a perplexing occurrence. Farm prices for several mode have been drifting lower in recent months, but consumer prices for the same foods have gone down little, if any.

Beef is one example. The assount paid a farmer to put one pound of most on the retail supermarket counter declined by ten cents between December ing margins for meat peckers, handlers, and supermarkets increased by a total increase less the ten cent decrease ends.

Roy and I would like to thank our family and friends for their hlep while I've been ill and in the hospital. Few people are as lucky as us when it came to inheriting a fantastic family and great friends.

We also owe a great deal to the Bob Adams family for making our daughter one of their own.

As always a very special thank you to Dr. Purfield for showing so much kindness for so many years and I haven't always made it easy for him.

Thanks Judy. Roy and Connie Pratt

Have you ever noticed how close laughter is to tragedy? If the slip on the banana peel is just a slip then it's funny, but if the lag is broken then it's the professional unit from Southeastern has gone from $12,250 in September,

Family memories some timesfall on the fine edge, being too painful to contemplate, but the passage of time dulis the pain and the perspective of distance slips it back from acute misery into the downright ludicrous.

It was a Christmas Holiday time and only a week before the day when the old house was decorated top to bottom and all excited expectancy. This is all small children getting tense and parents waiting for all married and college people to arrive home for the week. As with many things, the costs of operating our schools have risen considerably, Manchester Public Schools is no different. Manchester's costs have risen too. Schools are a labor intensive industry and because of this salaries form the largest single item in the school district's budget. It will cost an additional 100,000 dollars for the negotiated salary increases which our teachers will receive this coming year. Even though $100,000 seems quite large, the individual raises are modest Utilities will also cost much more for the coming year. Unlike in the past when
