THE INTER-COM

Bill Green, Superintendent
Manchester Public Schools

I have waited today until late in the evening having pondered all day how I might best present to you the current status of the budgetary crisis facing the Manchester Schools and how to most honestly and accurately bring you up to date. As you may already know, the Board of Education is going to return to the community with another effort to maintain the schools on Monday, August 23, 1976 and a goal toward excellence in its program. With a minimal renewal of just the 12.78 mills, we will still need to cut over $300,000 in program. If 4 additional mills were to be granted by the people of the community to a total of 26 mills, we still will have to cut at least $100,000 from next year's budget. The apparent differential in these cuts is brought about by various contingencies in the cutting of various programs and their cost. It is impossible to assess cutting of program based only on the basis of a mill meaning the same to each out.

We are working as diligently as possible to prepare a number of various approaches to the millage proposals and how we might best explain just what each one means, what will be spent, and what will be cut. It is not our intention to mislead the community in any way so I will continue to want to meet with as many of you as possible. We will be preparing quite a number of alternatives for the consideration of the Board for the July 12th meeting, which will be preceded by a public hearing which I have already scheduled in last week's "Inter-Com" (July 6, 12 and 26). I will attempt as best I can to interpret the deficits to you on those dates. Getting into the "blaming syndrome" over what has occurred in the past will not solve our problem of today and tomorrow. What we need to do is work closely together to insure our children of this never happening again if there is any way humanly possible to prevent it.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO LOCAL BUSINESS MEN AND VENDORS: We would like to keep as much of our business done locally since you are the people paying the taxes for the schools. If you are in possession of a bill for the Manchester Schools at the present time for which you have not been paid, contact me immediately. IN THE FUTURE, WE WOULD REQUEST THAT YOU CHARGE NOTHING TO THE MANCHESTER PUBLIC SCHOOLS UNLESS THE PURCHASE REQUEST IS ACCOMPANIED BY A PURCHASE ORDER AND SIGNED BY THE SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS. WE WILL HONOR NO BILLS FOR PAYMENT BY THE BOARD OF EDUCATION NOT PROPERLY AUTHORIZED BY A MANCHESTER PUBLIC SCHOOLS

The internal accounting system has been moved into the central office to give us better use of funds. I will have more to speak to you about regarding this matter at a later date.

Since you will hopefully be reading this just prior to settling in for a weekend of celebration of the 4th of July and the 200th Birthday of this great country of ours, we ought to pause for a few days at least to put aside our concerns and problems that confront us. We have much to be proud of, the traditional commitment of our fellow citizens, whose uniqueness, pride of service and dedication to this land so greatly blessed by our Heavenly Father, who have given us a legacy beyond the comprehension of any other society in the history of the world. As a thought for the weekend, we here at your schools would offer you our sentiments of peace and happiness by asking that you remember the following: "Do not look forward to what might happen tomorrow; the same everlasting Father, who cares for you today, will take care of you tomorrow and every day. Either He will shield you from suffering or He will give you unfailing strength to bear it. Be at peace then, and put aside all anxious thoughts and imaginations."

M.C.A. SEMINAR

The Michigan Constables Association Summer Seminar was held at the Sheraton Motor Inn, Flint, on June 25, 26 and 27th.

This past weekend. The speakers included U.S. Congressman Donald Riegle, Jr., Michigan Senator Dale E. Kildee and Patrick H. McCollough, Lt. Adcock M.S.P., Chief Dunley, Morris Township P.D., Law Labbe, Dir. of the A.T.F., and Judge Storia Southgate. The Annual .38 cal. pistol shoot was held and Constables Lyle Moore and Luther Nagal from this area brought shooting trophies back to Washtenaw County. The active Constables in this state have been trying to upgrade the Office of Constable through the M.C.A. for the past 16 years, but many of the Constables "name only" have not even bothered to find out just what their job - or responsibility to their communities -- really was, nor have they joined the M.C.A. or attended any of the training sessions to find out.

200 YEARS OF FREEDOM

On this 200th anniversary of the founding of the United States of America, let us rejoice as we recall the events which brought about the turbulent beginning of our history — the story of the greatest system of freedom that mankind has ever known. The very emblem of the eagle stands for freedom, as well as the strength, courage and will to defend it whenever necessary; for freedom is a fragile thing and the price of it can come high. Nevertheless, despite the many problems which have beset us, we have managed to preserve it for two hundred years. Let us now look ahead, and resolve to keep America free through all the centuries yet to come.

Liberty Bell

The famous Liberty Bell was originally cast in England, in 1751. It contains the following inscription:

"By order of the Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania, 1752." Also: "Proclaim Liberty throughout all the land, and unto all the inhabitants thereof."

Before the bell was properly hung, it was cracked by a stroke of the chapper, and was recast in this country. It was finished and hung in June, 1752. In 1777, at the time the American forces were compelled to evacuate Philadelphia, this bell, together with Christ church chimes, was removed to Allentown, to prevent them being melted into cannon by the English; at the close of the war it was returned to Philadelphia and continued in constant use until 1838, when it was replaced by the present bell. The old bell now hangs in the old State House in Philadelphia.

THE CENTENNIAL

Opening Day—Decorat ions—Large Attendance—Celebrities Present—Inaugural Ceremonies— Illuminations and Banquets.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

The opening day was preceded and ushered in by a severe rainstorm, but before eight o'clock, sunlight broke through the clouds, and, till four p. m., a more auspicious day could not have been desired. The dust was laid, and the trees and shrub and lawn were clad in the liveliest green. And not till hours after speech and song and the chimes of bells were ended, and a large portion of the visitors had retired from the grounds, did the windows of heaven again open and give us a Noachic shower. But it cleared off again before sunset, to enable Philadelphia to exhibit herself in a street promenade.

THE DECORATIONS

throughout the city were profuse beyond all precedent. The streets were ablaze with the flags of all nations. Public buildings, stores and private residences were covered with them. The Ledger Building alone had one hundred and eighty. The State House, on Independence Square, was literally enfolded by them and with paintings of the coats of arms of the thirteen original States. (to where you would, houses, cars, carriages, carts, horses—everything that could hold a flagstaff, big or little—streamed with them. Nothing like it ever has been seen, and probably never will be again, except the Fourth of next July.

THE NUMBER OF PEOPLE

present in the Grounds and Buildings, on opening day, was variously estimated at from 250,000 to 300,000, but cannot be accurately known, as no record was kept, except of those who paid their entrance fee. But it was very large and could only be reckoned by the acre and the square mile. They overflowed the buildings, the streets, the sidewalks, the hotels, the cars, and every available space. There must have been hundreds of thousands present within the grounds, besides a great multitude of outsiders too impetuous or too parsimonious to pay an admission fee. And when after five o'clock the down, and when after five o'clock the exhibition buildings, they thronged the streets, filled all the hotels, restaurants and shanties adjacent, levied upon all cars, beer and grocery wagons, and every other available vehicle to shelter them from the storm, or carry them into the city; and yet not more than one fourth of them could be accommodated, and the rest had to trudge homeward and inter through the most adhesive and interminable mud. The occasion demonstrated the utter inadequacy of street and rail cars, and public and private conveyances to transport visitors to and from the Exposition, on a gala day like this. On all ordinary occasions they would be amply sufficient.

THE CELEBRITIES PRESENT

at the opening were numerous and distinguished. The most conspicuous were President Grant and his cabinet, Dom Pedro, Emperor of Brazil, and the Emperor, the Judges of the United States Supreme Court, General Sherman and Sheridan, and representatives of the army and navy. The central figure—the one regarded with most interest, and the one most enthusiastically cheered, was Dom Pedro, in plain citizen's dress without decoration of any kind, a manly-looking personage of large physique and brain, who wastes no time on ceremony, and is resolved to learn what is worth knowing

The former proceedings were all prearranged and circumscribed by fixed limits, and the concourse of people, Whitney's solo, and perhaps Hawley's speech, there was nothing spontaneous or inspirational about them. So far as the display of the world's in-
