G. William Lamming of 220 Washington Street, Manchester is 95 years old this year.

Born in Burnham, England and coming to America before he was 10, William later married Esther Feldkamp and of this marriage was born Jean, now Mrs. Vernon Rowland of Chagrin Falls, Ohio.

Living alone, Will does his own work and each day during good weather spends time in his garden. The raspberries are in and not a weed in sight.

One of the oldest residents of the Village, Mr. Lamming is alert and well and we wish him a very good year.

School Board Reorganizes Adopts Millage Proposal

With a large crowd of interested citizens in attendance, the Manchester Board of Education met in its yearly organizational meeting on Monday evening, July 12th at 8:00 p.m.

Newly elected Board members Mr. George Macomber, and Mr. Harold J. Walkow were sworn in by outgoing President Louis Vogel.

Special presentations of appreciation were awarded by the Board of Education for distinctive service to educational life in the Manchester Public Schools to Mr. Don Walter, Mr. Eugene Bentschneider, and Mr. Andrew Luckhardt.

Mr. William Bunney was elected President of the Board of Education for the 1976-77 school year. In addition, Mr. Harold J. Walkow was elected Vice-President, Helen J. Kensler was elected Secretary, and Mr. Reno Feldkamp was re-elected Treasurer of the Board. Expressions of appreciation were extended to all the outgoing officers of the last year's Board.

Superintendent Bill Green announced to the Board that it was necessary in lieu of question of whether or not the voters would approve the millage package on August 23rd that all teachers in the district were notified of discontinuation of their position until program could be established on the basis of the monies given the system by the voter. This is in compliance with the Michigan Tenure Act that all employees being reduced be notified at least 30 days prior to beginning of employment. If the millage vote is successful, rehiring will be done in accordance with the Master Agreement between the Manchester Board of Education and the Manchester Education Association. Green expressed his sincere desire that we could return as many of our teachers to the district and retain as much of the program as the voter would allow in order that children not be hurt by an inadequate educational program.

After lengthy discussions regarding possible millage packages that might be presented to the Manchester voters, it was decided that the following millage package would be presented on August 23rd:

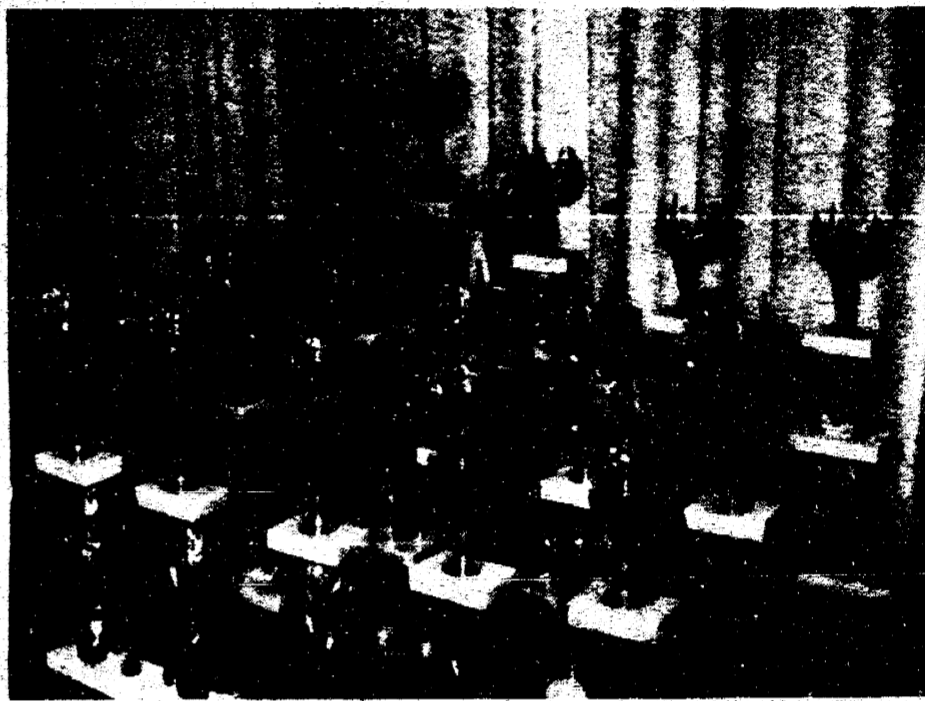

Ballot 1 - 12.78 continued operational millage renewal for 1 year

Ballot 2 - 2 additional mills for operational millage of trimmed program for 1 year

Ballot 3 - 2 additional mills for re-

THE INTER-COM

Bill Green, Superintendent
Manchester Public Schools

As you know, your Board of Education has been working a great number of hours over the past weeks to determine how best to return to you, the voter, to present you with a millage package that will present all the facts, needs, and reductions in the school program so that you can decide what type of educational program you wish for your children. In concert with the Board of Education, I, too, have been taking a very close look at areas of the school program and budget that we can trim and still provide a high quality program for children. I have as of July 7, 1976 removed, abolished or reduced the budget in the following areas in order to tighten up our belts in helping to reduce the approximately $83,000 deficit from the current school year. Once the final print-outs and initial audits are complete, I will want to present to you the causes for the deficit and outline for you the steps we need to take in correcting and eliminating the possibility of such a deficit for another year. I'm sure you understand that in order to make up the $83,000 deficit from this year and maintain the same program it will be necessary to re-build a budget that will reflect not only a retrieval of those lost funds, but, a like reduction in next years budget. In essence, then we must cut $166,000 from the next year's operational budget in order to come out in the black. In addition to the deficit, we have had an increase in medical insurance premiums in the amount of $27,000 that also must be build into the budget for the next school year.

First, let me make it clear that Manchester ought not to feel guilty about the fiscal problems we are experiencing. School districts all over the state and nation are feeling the pinch of the increase in taxes and the loss of control by the taxpayer of how his money is being spent on the state and national level. What we do need to do, however, is attempt in every way possible to keep our local house in order and just maybe we can regain some say in how our state and nation can bring it's house back in shape returning sound fiscal responsibility.

As the Chief Administrative Officer of your Board of Education, I have made the following reductions in the current program and will continue to search for ways to save more money without removing the "trusses from under the bridge." Substitute Teacher Salaries-$5,000, Guidance Personnel-$30,000, Business Manager-$12,500, Teaching Supplies-$4,000, Teacher Aides-$16,500, Telephone-$2,000, Teachers Salaries $87,000. Total Reductions to 7-6-76-$157,000.00. The above cuts in some areas will be able to be restored upon approval of state and national grants which we have applied for this coming year such as Title I, which is tentatively set at around $29,000 which will be used for math and reading instructional improvement in grades K-6. However, I am aware that these federal and state programs may also be in jeopardy and these funds have a funny way of melting away like an ice cube and floating toward Wayne County so until I have "the bird in hand", we won't count on anything until its in the Union Savings Bank.

For a moment, I would like to point out that the teacher-pupil ratio in the Manchester School District is 1 teacher to every 19.5 students. The state average is 1 teacher to every 26 students. Personally, I feel that it is great when we can have this kind of ratio to insure more individual attention for every student, but, in the face of financial difficulties, we may have to raise that ratio to at least 1 teacher for every 24 children keeping the lowest ratios at the elementary level where the key basic skills are taught.

In terms of the status of the gymnasium, the engineer tells me that the exterior structural steel is stable and not in danger. He feels that the trusses which cross over the ceiling of the gym may be in some danger, but, he cannot tell until he conducts further studies to determine if there has been a deterioration of the tensile strength of that metal portion of the building. His report will be forthcoming and once I receive it I will call in a State Department Inspector to insure and verify his report in order that we can make necessary repairs and get the facility open and available to the public again. In any case, I am reticent to re-open the facility if the least possibility of danger exists that one of those trusses may fall and injure someone. I am also reticent to spend any funds on general repair of the facility until we find that spending that money will not be wasteful contingent upon the final safety report. I will keep you posted on how we move along in this area.

I want to compliment the members of our custodial and maintenance staffs for the fine job they are doing in attempting to get the buildings back into the shape we want them to be in. They are putting forth yeoman efforts to give the students and community attractive and clean buildings.

In closing for the week, let me assure you of my personal appreciation for the many fine invitations to dinners and socials that I am enjoying so much. We are much heartened by the spirit and interest being shown by all of you and that in itself keeps us from becoming discouraged. For that and all the other things you do for the children of the district, we thank you.

Notes from Michigan's attic

From the June 9, 1976 issue of the Daily Times-News, Mt. Pleasant, Mich.

This is a topless story, but don't run away. It's not X-rated.

Dr. R.A. Parnell came to Michigan in the 1840's and soon rose to a position of prominence on the subject of phrenology, a pseudoscience which supposedly revealed the mental abilities of an individual by studying the shape of the skull. Dr. Parnell lectured on this subject in most of the cities and towns throughout the state.

In 1847 Dr. Parnell was living in Manchester, Michigan, when he became ill and for nine months suffered from a jaundiced condition. In spite of his condition he continued to lecture every week-day evening.

In a letter written by a Mr. Townsend of Manchester to John Ball of Grand Rapids, Townsend said that the lecture hall was crowded night after night. "He," Townsend wrote, "was faithfully warned and entreated to lecture with less frequency, by those who were earnestly solicitous for his welfare. But all was fruitless and unavailing. He was resolute and determined."

Dr. Parnell died, and Townsend wrote:

"His sudden death created a mournful sensation throughout the entire community. He was almost idolized by a large proportion of the citizens of this vicinity, and the affliction being so sudden, we all indulged in feelings of irreconciliation at the painful occurrence.

"Even the clergy of our village were profoundly interested in his lectures, although many of his views did not square with theirs. Still they admired the man. How could they do otherwise? His noble and many qualities, his generous and affectionate disposition, together with his enviable abilities, render him an interesting acquaintance and an agreeable associate."

Townsend was with his friend until the very end. Before his death, Dr. Parnell made a bizarre request of Townsend. He asked that his head be severed from his body and bequeathed it to his friend Townsend.

"You may have heard," Townsend wrote, "that I have his head in my care. He requested me to have it severed from his body and kept in a state of perpetual safe preservation and not to permit it to become food for worms. He so often and so earnestly insisted upon it, even up to the last connected chain of conversation he ever had with me or anyone else, that I did not feel at liberty to refuse."

"It is in the same state in which it was at the time it was taken off, and looks as natural as life. I have not yet concluded what I shall do with it. It was a gift to me, with the liberty of doing what I pleased with it, so that it might not be permitted to decay. It is in a stone jar filled with high wine."

This letter is in the John Ball Papers in the Grand Rapids Public Library. Subsequent newspaper notices reported that Parnell had directed that he be buried standing up and facing east. Somehow "facing" does not seem to be the right word.

Dr. Parnell's head was exhibited at phrenological lectures from time to time. In 1851 a Dr. Stuart of Kalamazoo began to have spiritual visitations from Dr. Parnell, who in the afterworld had become a believer in the Supreme Being and had formed a link between phrenology and religion.

Dr. Stuart did not reveal whether the ghost of Parnell was headless. In some dank, dark cellar in Manchester, Michigan, there may be a stone crock containing the marvelous head of Dr. R.A. Parnell.

The best savings plan is an automatic transfer checking plan.

It is difficult to remember to place a specific amount in your regular savings account each month. The INTERESTED bankers at Union Savings Bank have a plan that insures you of maintaining a monthly savings deposit program.

It is called automatic transfer. All you need do is state the amount of money you wish transferred from your checking to your savings each month. It's really as easy as that.

yes... you can

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

In recent meetings with people of the community, I have apparently mispronounced the intent of the Executive Board of the Manchester Education Association in permitting the retention of athletics and music activities in the program and still permitting reductions in other areas of the instructional program. In our most recent meeting held on July 8, 1976, the Executive Board of the Manchester Education Association indicated its intent to hold to the Master Agreement which states that "in the event layoff is necessitated because of a loss of revenue, extra-curricular activities will be eliminated." This agreement entered into between the Board of Education and the Manchester Education Association on September 1, 1975 and ratified by both memberships is binding upon the Manchester Public Schools.

Therefore accompanying other reductions in the program of the Manchester Schools, all extra-curricular activities will be removed from the program in order to meet the legalities of the binding Master Agreement.

I apologize wholeheartedly for any possible misunderstanding or misleading on my part of the community in permitting them to assume that extra-curricular activities could remain in the school program and still make the cuts that I outline for you in this issue of the Inter-Com. The cuts I have outlined will remain, but I wish to inform you that in addition to those all extra-curricular activities will also have to be cut from the program.

Please call me if you have any questions.
Thank you.

Manchester Fair

Summer is in full swing with most of us wishing that time was not flying by so fast. Before we know it August will be here and that brings to mind the Manchester Community Fair which begins August 17th. The Fair Board have been working continuously since last fall making plans for many programs and displays for this year's fair.

Home Economics department. The Manchester area has many talented people of all ages. Check the division in the Fair Book for Hand Crafts. The new books will be available soon and you can see that many new classes have been added in knitting, crocheting, embroidery, weaving and many other hand crafts.

When fair time comes along many boys and girls start thinking about what they can enter in the fair that might win them a little money which can be spent on rides and concessions. Why not start thinking and begin to prepare those articles now? Maybe you have a recent collection that needs some arranging and labeling. Or maybe you could start a nature collection. What about models? Do you create your own or make it from a kit? Many of you like to paint and do paint by numbers. Check the book and see where that can be entered this year. Don't forget all those clever things you do in school, Boy or Girl Scouts and 4-H projects. Some of the m might not be around any more but why not make new ones. Don't forget that whatever your age or talent there is a spot for you to exhibit in the Community Fair.

How many people of the community remember the days when all exhibits were in the Middle School gym and classrooms? For some Departments that will be true again. All exhibits in the Antique Division and all exhibits in the Department of Fine Arts will be in the school facility. Also all school displays, scout displays, 4-H Displays and many craft exhibits will be available for you to enjoy.

Articles in future Enterprises will deal more specifically with Middle School exhibit information. If there are people of the Manchester area that would like to have a craft exhibit and or demonstration, or have some time to give during Fair week, or have questions about the Exhibit Tent please call Diane Schwab 428-8976. Let's make the 1976 Manchester Community Fair the best one yet.

Reconstruction and repair work has been done on East Main Street, Ilbbard and Sunset Streets have been paved. Roadside have been mowed and the drying beds at the Sewage Treatment Plant have been cleaned. Little contacted Fitzgerald with a request from Clarence Fielder regarding the closing of a road adjacent to his property. The Village has maintained the area which is an extension of Union Street for a number of years. The area is reportedly private property however. Moved by Scully, supported by Padley that the Public Works Committee meet with Fielder and the abutting property owners to consider paving the extension of Union Street, the possibility of closing the area storage of extra-curricular activities for 1 year

 Ballot 4 - 1 operational mill for maintenance of buildings, grounds, and repair of equipment
 In reply to questioning, Superintendent Bill Green stated that even with all the millage listed above considerable cuts would still have to be made and that he had already trimmed the budget by $157,000 for the coming year (see reductions in this week's Inter-Com).
 In addition, once the budget can be prepared in the next several weeks, the entire package and what each mill will mean in terms of program and what it will eliminate will be prepared for the Board of Education and the community.
 Green also requested of the community and townships to answer any questions that the voters and parents may have regarding the program that can be offered to children based on the proposed millage package and what eliminations will be necessary should any of the millage proposed be turned down by the voter.
 The Manchester Enterprise will carry a complete lay-out and explanation of the proposed millage, school budget and program in a later issue and extra copies of the explanations will be printed by the Enterprise for distribution to the voters.
 President William Bannay stated his appreciation for the large turn-out of interested citizens for the meeting and pledged the efforts of the Board and the Administration and faculty to return to the district the highest possible quality educational program for children.
 The Superintendent also announced that Mr. Earl Misner has been named the Business Manager of the Shephard School District and expressed his appreciation to Mr. Misner for the assistance he has rendered Green since coming to the system on June 14th and wished him well in his new position. Board members expressed their appreciation to Mrs. Maxine Frey and Mrs. Joan Berry for the splendid manner in which they handle their responsibilities to the district.
 The meeting adjourned at 10:45 p.m.

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU EDITORIAL

FLYING FRYERS AND LANDING LAYERS

For those of you weary of reading and hearing about presidential primaries, inflation, property taxes, strikes, disasters and the like, you might want to reflect awhile on a piece of lighter news.

The recent Fifth International Chicken Flying Meet in Ohio was one such event. Little national note was made of it but a 30-ounce hen named Linda, wearing the colors of a poultry farm near West Bend, Wisconsin, flew 92 feet to capture the competition. She edged out some 101 other flying fryers.

A poultry specialist from Ohio State was at the starting gate to encourage the competitors to embark from a two-foot high launch pad.

As with most outdoor competition, weather affected the outcome. The rain kept Linda's distance short of a record 163 feet set in 1973 by an Old English game hen named Lois.

It is an annual contest flown for the fun of it and from memories of a lot of grown-up farm youngsters about how it used to be with their pet flying chickens back home.

Many can identify with flying chickens in years past especially at market time. In the evening hours roosting chickens were snatched from apple trees and hog house rooftops. If there were not enough chicken catchers to go around (made of wire with a hook on one end), farm family members would have to feel by hand through branches for chicken legs while at the same time trying not to excite too many birds into flight. Regardless of how long and hard you worked at night, daylight always exposed a couple of chickens that had managed to escape the captors. Then the big chase began to corner the birds so they would not miss the trip to town. Of course, chickens aren't supposed to be great flyers which is why a five billion dollar poultry industry got off the ground years ago. But a chicken flying contest ranks a couple of steps above a cow-chip throwing contest and the watermelon seed spitting event. A little more sophisticated perhaps, but no more valuable as a promotional stunt.

Hemlines In History

Hemlines In History, a Bicentennial fashion show, was held on Sunday, July 11, at the high school auditorium. The show was performed twice, at 2 and 4:30 p.m. and played to fair sized audiences both times.

In any project - after it is all over - it seems there are always those names which were omitted or should have been added to our list of "thank you's" for helping with the style show. By no means were these acknowledgements meant to be forgotten - just an oversight. Therefore, we do sincerely wish to thank again all those names mentioned in our Hemlines In History program but to add to that list: Mrs. Nancy Althouse, Mrs. Elvira Vogel, Mrs. Dorothy Purfield, Mrs. Joanne Walkow, Mrs. Sharon Jarve, and the whole Manchester Bicentennial Commission.

Next week there will be another article on the show to be accompanied by a photo.

Mad Hatters Tea Tuesday, July 20

When local models display historic hats from the Eldon Lord collection at "The Mad Hatter's Tea" on July 20, there will also be local history involved. The late Mrs. Clayton Parr (nee Willo Mattern) made and trimmed hats for Manchester ladies from 1911 to 1915 at Alice Cash's Millinery Shop, 194 Exchange Place (now Alma's Beauty Salon).

There were two ladies hat shops in Manchester then - Miss Cash's and Marie Swift's at 215 Exchange Place (now River-view Barber Shop and Beauty Salon). It was the custom for the owner of the Millinery Shop to go to Cleveland for a week or ten days before the Spring and Fall seasons to buy supplies, brush up on the latest styles and engage a trimmer. Miss Mattern was hired by Miss Cash in 1911.

The Spring Season began well before Easter and lasted through Commencement time. The Fall Season started with Labor Day and lasted through Thanksgiving.

Miss Mattern learned her trade in Moroni, Michigan at the beginning of the 20th Century, then moved to Detroit. Dressmaking was done between Seasons and Willo Mattern Parr was well known by old timers in the area for her experience in both occupations. Some of her hats will be shown at "The Mad Hatter's Tea". Ica Schaffer, Mrs. George Merriman, Mrs. Aaron Nathan and others will also have chapeaus from their collections in the show.

The tea which follows the revue will take you back to the 19th Century - come in costume if you like to really "get into the act". The cost of all this extravaganza is $2.00. Since the High School Auditorium holds a limited number of people be sure and get your seat early.

OLD-FASHION HARVESTING EXHIBITION SET

An old-fashioned harvesting exhibition is slated for Saturday, July 17. The first demonstration will be held at the farm of Lloyd Hughes on Austin Road at 10:30 a.m. Old time harvesting techniques will be re-enacted as was done more than 50 years ago. This will be an opportunity for you to see work as was done by our fore-fathers.

The second demonstration will be offered by Don Erwin of Sharon Township and Mr. Fox from Napoleon at 5:00 and 8:00. This work will be done in the field to the rear of Manchester Medical Clinic. (next to Carr Park).

Manchester Fair August 17-21

Each and every year the Fair Board tries to bring to you the exhibitor and the visitors of the fair new and better ideas.

Manchester Community Fair, 1976, will feature a look into the past. Area farmers are planning to exhibit some of their horse drawn tools and several teams of horses will be on the fair grounds. If you have something to exhibit contact Wendell Reinhardt - 428-8540.

Through the Antique exhibit Department we hope to see more history displayed. How about checking your attics for family heirlooms? There will be plenty of space for you in the Middle School gym equipped with tables that have fences around them.

When you receive or pick up your books (see related article) check the division for antiques. You will find that there are many new categories compared to previous years. When you find that heirloom you want to exhibit, why not take a minute to make a label for it and write any interesting history that pertains to the exhibit. If you have any questions the committee for this division is: Edna Knauss, 428-7471, Jacqueline Armentrout, 428-7615, Meg Boatwright, 428-8217 and Frances Nathan 428-7166.

The Fair Board has a musical treat for you on Friday, August 20th, the 5th Michigan Regiment Band will be the evening entertainment. Mark this date on your calendar and invite your friends to a program that recreates for you the musical heritage of Michigan. Watch for future articles about the band.

For further information about the fair or to volunteer your help, please contact anyone of the Fair Board members listed in your 1976 Manchester Community Fair Book.

"A Night of Song"

A Bicentennial Special, A Night of Song, comes to Manchester on Saturday, July 24th at 8 p.m. at the High School.

The Optimist Club is sponsoring this program, which is the final event of our special Manchester Bicentennial week, and bring to us, two outstanding Barbershop groups, The Four Tune Tellers and the Pitchblenders. Also featured will be the Jacksonaires, a men's chorus from Jackson, Michigan that has recently celebrated their 35th year as a group. They have been featured in many programs around the state.

Red Shaw, Tom and Sam Cushman, and Bud Knorpp organized their Tune Tellers quartet 25 years ago and Manchester is proud to claim them as their own. The Pitchblenders is an established, but relatively new group, and tenor Del Shanks of Manchester harmonizes with Art Sweeney, Bob Sullivan and Bob Dimmy, all of Jackson.

Mrs. Elvira Vogel, chairperson of the Show Division, says "This will be a night to remember, and you won't want to miss it." Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 50c for students. They are available at the Pleasant Lake Branch of Union Savings, the Bicentennial Store and will be available at the door.
