Waldo Marx Retires 38 Years as Township Clerk

Now that Waldo Marx is retiring from public office after 38 years of service, we've asked him, and his wife, Ruth, to look back over those years and recall some of the changes which have occurred.

He came up with some very interesting items about which Waldo spoke very enthusiastically, for instance, did you know that rivalry was very bitter in the sports area, between local teams? On May 27, 1919 there was an act another Casey at the Bat when Manchester with one previous loss to Brooklyn met defeated Blissfield on the baseball field and WHIPPED them 6-5! Waldo Marx, batting pitcher. There was also a Town team which played baseball at the corner of Grossman Road and Austin Road, every Sunday afternoon with over a thousand on office! It became the "thing to do" on Sundays, an outing for families and friends-that was back in the 20's.

Waldo graduated from Manchester High and enrolled at U of M receiving his BA in Business Administration. He graduated in the Class of '23 which had another illustrious member-Thomas E. Dewey of Wisconsin who ran for President back in the 40's.

After graduation, Waldo took the job of Assistant Manager of Kresge's Ann Arbor Store, which position he held until the company wanted to send him to California, but Ruth Lindbert was here, and they wanted to be married, so he quit Kresge, married Ruth and went to Ashtabli where they opened their own Dry Goods Store. About 1929 they wanted to get back to the old home town, settle down and enjoy life, so Waldo and Ruth, with so many young couples have done before, and since, came back to the home town.

He joined as partner with his father and mother, LeRoy, in the local dry goods and clothing store of Marx and Marx, later to be known as Marx and Marx. Essentially, as co-owners, they each had drawing account of $12 per week. They employed 13 clerks in the two store buildings now occupied by the "Calico lot" and were the originators of the "archways" between buildings!

Waldo Marx first was elected clerk of Manchester Township in 1938, the position he has held continuously until May, November 20, 1976. Township meetings were then held, whenever the necessity to make local decisions arose.

Interested persons should call Chief Zsengy at 428-8505. Call early, classes to be limited to only 100 people.

New Manchester Township Clerk and Trustee

Wilma Alber Lentz, wife of Ambrose Lentz and mother of six children, who lives on a 70 acre farm, has two dogs, livestock, a swimming pool, and a very balanced sense of humor, is the newly-elected Clerk of Manchester Township. She is a very busy lady, and is very capable of taking the clerk's duties in stride.

As part of her training for the office of clerk she attended courses in Ann Arbor, in Governmental Accounting for which she was awarded her Certificate of Achievement on November 18, 1975. She has also attended election schools and assisted Mr. Marx, former clerk, for the past year.

Congratulations Wilma and best of luck in your new office.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

This is the year of the WHOLESALE DOE SLAUGHTER. Almost everyone I've seen has license to kill a doe or fawn, some will not punch their tag and will be able to take two or three. Some people who don't hunt will say "so what, they won't be hit by cars," but as a deer hunter, I look at the situation with foreboding.
Several years ago, a group of us went to the Upper Peninsula to hunt and enjoy the out-of-doors. Then came the doe slaughter which left us only the out-of-doors, too much of it. Imagine sitting out in the cold—morning till night with only trees to look at. One year, there was a two day snow of the ground the first day. I walked over a mile and saw only one deer track. All the while, the deer management people gave glowing reports of the deer kill. The deer that were killed were the only ones seen. People roamed the U.P. like gypsies looking for the good territory that was not there. Finally the local people got fed up, forced a policy change of "no doe hunting." The hunters are back and so are the deer, probably too many, but it seems the deer management people don't know the meaning of moderation, because of their past excesses some deer will probably starve. We will have the slaughter here—does, fawns, and a few hunters will be killed by sound shots from a doe hunter too eager for meat.

You will hear doe hunters talk about small deer—"fawns." No one will say they shot a fawn. These small deer are either doe or button buck. A button buck is a fawn with 1/2" knobs on his head, covered with hair. You will sometime hear a hunter brag that he shot a "button buck." Implying that he has super-human vision, or he was crafty enough to follow that deer till it relieved itself. Most likely he shot the first deer he saw.
In two days of hunting this year with the over-populated deer herd, I saw three deer, a buck the first day and a doe and fawn the second.
The second day I heard a shot. A doe and fawn came over the hill, turned and looked back. They wanted to run, but something held them there. Finally, to my amazement, the doe started walking toward the hunter. Only by my waving my hands kept that deer from trying to retrieve her lost fawn.
The hunter told me he thought it was a buck. A deer the size of a dog. I told him not to return to our land. Later I happened to think of his doe permit. I returned to where he was dragging the deer, found he had not punched it. Insuring that he had, I left him with his prize.

Bill Walkow

Shakespeare Club Meeting

Thirteen members of the Shakespeare Club met on November 16 at the home of Mrs. Marvin Kirk.
Rollcall was a personal memory of Michigan and everyone had an interesting experience to tell of their trips and lives in our state.
Mrs. Kirk had the topic, "The Warp and Woof of Michigan." She gave the history of the State from the early 1600's. She told how the French came from Montreal, down the lakes, looking for a way to the Orient and found a valuable fur trade instead. She related many short stories and incidents showing how changes and discoveries came about, often quite by accident.
The next meeting will be December 1 at the home of Mrs. Leroy Marx.

LUNG DISEASE ONLY FOR THE RICH? MEDICAL CARE COSTS SAY SO

"It's more common knowledge that severe obstructive lung diseases are disabling, but it's less commonly known that they are extremely expensive," said Samuel M. McMahon, M.D., chairman of the Chronic Obstructive Lung Disease Committee of the Michigan Lung Association. He announced that the Association is seeking "third party" coverage for outpatient services for those who have emphysema, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, or asthma.

Currently in Michigan the lung patient who is hospitalized receives financial help from third party carriers such as Blue Cross, Blue Shield, and Medicaid. However, once he is discharged coverage stops or is sharply curtailed, and the patient often requires continuing support by the community in the form of welfare or disability payments.

According to Dr. McMahon, the failure of third party carriers to pay for comprehensive programs of respiratory care have discouraged many hospitals from developing meaningful programs for lung disease patients and have probably led to a greater number of hospital admissions than necessary.

"The ultimate goal of the home care program posed by the Lung Association is to keep chronic lung patients on an optimal home program and preclude the necessity for repeated hospitalization because of mechanical or cognitive breaks in home health care delivery," Dr. McMahon said. The Committee suggests two primary components of its continuing care program: the initial hospital instruction and subsequent outpatient treatment.

In researching the lung patient's dilemma the Committee found data supporting its contention that a comprehensive program, including an adequate diagnostic data prescription of appropriate medical therapy, an educational program, continuing medical care, consideration of diet and general nutritional status of the patient and physical reconditioning and exercise therapy diminishes the rate of hospital admissions.

"It is our opinion that third party support of comprehensive ambulatory care would be a money-saving advantage both to Michigan communities and to individual lung patients' families," Dr. McMahon added.

Another component of the continuum of carefully planned and individualized respiratory care for the chronic lung patient for which the Committee calls for third party support is hospital instruction. Dr. McMahon said that the patient must receive thorough instructions about his disease process in general and about the practical aspects of the special types of equipment they require.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

A THANKSGIVING MESSAGE FROM FARMER TO CONSUMER

By Elton H. Smith, President, Michigan Farm Bureau. While you are preparing your Thanksgiving feast seems a good time for a producer of the food you will be enjoying to tap you on the shoulder and say, let's chat for awhile. I'd like to take you beyond the supermarket shelves from which you stocked your cupboards for this special occasion...back to the farm where that turkey, those mashed potatoes, cranberries, pumpkin pie and whipped cream originated.

Those of you who remember visits to grandmother's house in the country would find a marked contrast between the farm of your memories and the farm of today. An ever-increasing world population and demand for food and fiber has transformed agriculture into a highly-efficient industry with farmers using complicated, expensive equipment and scientific techniques in fact, we have become so efficient that only four percent of our population produces the food and fiber for the other 96 percent. That means you are freed from having to produce your own food so you can pursue the vocation of your choice. All of us have benefited from that productivity.

But, let's face it, with that modern efficiency, we have "lost touch" with each other and that concerns me. We're a minority and we need your understanding... because if we don't have it, farmers and consumers often end up on opposite sides of an issue.

Take embargoes and boycotts, for example. If we are to continue to produce food and fiber at full production, we must maintain strong markets abroad for U.S. farm commodities. This is necessary to offset our higher production costs and to improve our farm income so our family farmers can stay in business. Any action that stifles our productivity hurts us both.

The use of agricultural chemicals is another area where there is often misunderstanding. We, like you, are interested in a clean environment. This is possible with reasonable use of the chemicals we must have for the good health of our crops. We need more people working in government regulatory agencies who have an agricultural background as well as a strong desire for a clean environment. Often, that has not been the case in recent years.

We need your understanding about farm prices--that while they do go up, they can and do come down just as rapidly. However, our production costs, which have doubled in recent years, seldom go down. Farmers are big consumers, too, and when we buy a tractor or combine, we ask how much is it? However, when we sell our crops, we must ask the buyer: how much will you give me for my product? That's a big difference, one of which you may not have been aware.

With your understanding and support on issues, the American family farmer can stay down on the farm growing the food and fiber for you. That's where he wants to be and that's where you need him.

HOME ENERGY

AN ENERGY CHRISTMAS GIFT

Ranges, refrigerator-freezers, washing machines and other major appliances do not fit in the Christmas stocking very well but Santa does get quite a few calls for those items. And Santa always delivers. This year he can deliver appliances with many energy-saving features. Those features offer an excellent opportunity to practice energy conservation and reduce energy costs.

Suppose it's a new range that Santa's going to bring down the chimney with him. If it's a gas range, consider one with electric spark ignition system. The total amount of gas used for the range can be reduced by 30 percent through elimination of the pilot light. Also, select one with burners that have temperature controls. They not only save energy, but also you don't have to worry about burning what you cook.

Another new energy-saving feature to look for is a range equipped with a forced-convection oven. With this type of oven, cooking time is cut by 25 percent, lower cooking temperatures are used, and no oven preheating is necessary.

Microwave ovens offer energy savings of up to 75 percent when compared with conventional oven cooking. They're quicker, they thaw frozen foods in minutes, and cooking can be done on serving dishes or even paper plates.

If it's a refrigerator-freezer that tops the Christmas list, make sure that Santa pulls the right one out of his sleigh. Tell him it has to be the right size. The bigger the unit, the more energy it uses. Eight cubic feet is about adequate for a family of two. Add a cubic foot for each additional member of the family and a couple more cubic feet if you do a lot of entertaining. Generally, the more automatic the defrost system, the more energy used. Consequently, a no-frost refrigerator will use more energy than one that is defrosted manually. The various models can be compared on energy consumption by asking your appliance dealer for a copy of the Directory of Certified Refrigerators and Freezers published by the Association of Home Appliance Manufacturers (AHAM). Another energy-saving feature to look for is a power-saver switch that turns off the heater contained in the refrigerator to prevent it from sweating during humid weather.

If you and your spouse are going to give each other a dishwasher for Christmas, you'd be wise to select a model with a switch to turn off the heating element during the dry cycle. The biggest energy consumer when using a dishwasher is not the washer itself but the water heater. Check the total amount of hot water a dishwasher uses and compare it with other models. A dishwasher with a "short cycle" or "light wash" selection can save energy. These cycles use less hot water.

If it's laundry equipment that Rudolph and his friends are going to haul your way, manufacturers have incorporated features in washers and dryers making them more efficient and less energy-consuming. Hot water is again the biggest energy user when washing. So look for those features that help reduce hot water requirements: a washer with a suds-return feature lets you reuse hot water; a water-level selector lets you match the amount of water with the size and type of load; cold water rinses can be used for all loads, and the number of gallons of water, particularly hot water, used by each washer should be compared.

Overdrying of clothes not only wastes energy but also gives a harsh feel and shrinks some items. Consequently, look for a dryer with electronic sensors that sense moisture in clothes and automatically end the drying cycle when clothes are ready. Or you may choose a less expensive system that uses a thermostat to measure temperature rather than moisture and turns the dryer off at a preset temperature. If you select a gas dryer, you will save energy by picking one with an electric spark ignition system.

Don't let the energy situation change your plans to purchase a small electric appliance as a gift. These appliances account for only a small amount of your total home energy requirements. In some cases, they can even save energy. For example, cooking a one-dish meal in an electric frypan takes less energy than heating up the oven.

And, as you prepare for the holidays, remember that our energy resources are a precious gift for everyone. So use energy wisely.

35TH NATIONAL 4-H CONGRESS SET FOR NOV. 28-DEC 2 IN CHICAGO

1,600 of the nation's top 4-H members will arrive in Chicago the weekend after Thanksgiving for the 55th National 4-H Congress Nov. 28-Dec. 2.

The 4-H delegates are select representatives of the nearly 5.5 million young people enrolled in 4-H, and for some of them the trip to Congress is the fulfillment of their dreams.

Most of the young people are state, sectional and national winners in 4-H projects and activities supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service.

A total of $215,400 in scholarships will be awarded during the five-day meeting at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, 276 delegates will take home national and regional scholarships ranging in value from $500 to $1,000 each.

The 1976 Congress theme, "4-H—Room to Grow," will emphasize how 4-H provides opportunities for young people to grow as they set goals and respond to new challenges.

During Congress, prominent leaders in government, education and business will meet with delegates to share their knowledge and experience. Special emphasis will be given in discussion groups and assemblies to developing a better understanding of the American economic system.

Taking advantage of the cultural offerings of Chicago, delegates will spend an evening at the Art Institute and tour the Museum of Science and Industry, Field Museum of Natural History and other points of interest.

Throughout the week, delegates will be honored at special recognition events hosted by 4-H donors and other friends of 4-H.

National 4-H Congress is conducted annually by the Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee. It is made possible by the generous support of some 60 businesses and foundations.

Delegates to Congress will come from all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

The 55th National 4-H Congress will officially open at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 28, with an assembly in the International Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel. Keynote speaker will be Dr. Russell G. Mawby, president of the W.K. Kellogg Foundation, who is a former 4-H member, volunteer leader and state 4-H leader.

THANKSGIVING 1976

A BOUNTIFUL HARVEST

The tradition of giving thanks for the season's harvest is one we can all readily participate in this year. It has been a bountiful year for Americans. A sickly economy is recovering. Our heritage of free elections has once more shown its strength.

Thanksgiving 1976, therefore, is an appropriate time for us to give special thought to our democratic system of government, which has brought us so far and enabled us to improve the quality of our lives over the centuries.

Of course problems remain. But the most crucial fact for all of us to remember is that it will be the way in which we deal with those existing economic problems that will either strengthen, or destroy, the precious system that has created America's bountiful harvest.

Among other prayers we offer for the coming year, we might also include one for our elected officials, that they will focus on policies which will make it possible for American industry to grow to its full potential and create more and better jobs for all Americans.

We must see to it that bountiful harvests will continue to be the rule for many Thanksgivings to come.

donation of cake for same dinner. Pat Fitzgerald and JoAnn Clark will be chairmen of the dinner.

Bruce Daniels asked why the deletion of 9th grade basketball after having it for so many years. Helen Kenner replied that it was because of Title IX which states that same program has to be offered to girls. After discussion of it, Glen Lehr said we should have a committee go to Bill Green about the cut. Committee will consist of Joe Fitzgerald, Bruce Daniels, Glen Lehr, Ted Stautz and Dick Rogers. They will report back at a later meeting.

Glen Lehr asked about the possibility of selling caramel apples, buttons or decals promoting Manchester Sports in some way. He will check further into cost and report back later.

Pete Hughes reported the video tape machine was broken again and could the boosters get it fixed. It was stated that the boosters had just gotten it fixed last year and it didn't look like it was being taken care of very well so let the school get it fixed this time.

Pete Hughes also asked if enough film could be bought to film the last football game. A motion was made by Bruce Daniels to buy enough film for last game seconded by Dick Rogers, motion carried.

Joe Fitzgerald again brought up the concession stand as to who was to get free drinks. Don Tassie made an amendment to the motion of the last meeting to include free drinks for the particular coach of the particular sport of the evening seconded by Pete Hughes, motion carried.

Clarence Fielder expressed concern about scheduling system of basketball and football games. After discussion it was decided the committee, formed earlier in the evening, would express the unhappy feelings with Bill Green when they meet with him.

Bruce Daniels asked if a new Wrestling Coach had been hired yet? Joe Fitzgerald reported that it had been narrowed to one man but no contract yet. Helen Kenner stated that he has been hired. Joe Fitzgerald asked Helen to see if she could get us a copy of athletic budget.

Dick Rogers asked which project would be undertaken, the track field at Klager or present athletic field. After much discussion a motion was made by Glen Lehr to pursue track project with committee of 1 booster member, 1 Jaycee member, 1 board member, and the track coach with Don Tassie representing the booster club, seconded by Dick Rogers, motion carried. Don Tassie will go to school board to get an okay to go ahead as it is school property and he will also approach the Jaycees for representation.

Joe Fitzgerald reported that Webb Seeger could get us lined Duckster jacket with lettering included for $13 or $14 a piece if we ordered them in lots of at least 20. A show of hands showed that there were enough interested to follow up on it. Joe will have more complete information and price next meeting.

Being no further business a motion was made by Clarence Fielder to adjourn meeting, seconded by JoAnn Clark. There were 18 members present and the next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, December 1, 1976 at 8 P.M. at the high school.

Respectfully submitted

This achievement was made possible by the combination of hard working volunteers, mainly the door to door and business solicitors, plus the citizens who reside or work in the Manchester area, who so generously contributed.

Optimist Club Outstanding Student March of Dimes Drive Underway

Mothers March Township and Village Campaign Directors, Sheryl Hall and Martha Wenk, announce the names of their chairpeople for this year's march. In the township they are as follows: Bridge-water is chaired by Mura Rigg, Sharon by Mavis Murphy and Sharon Jarve, Manchester by Kay Norgard and Doris Bersuder, and Freedom by Mary Sue Moore and Mildred Huehl. The captains for the village are Joanne Scott, Cathy Groves, Pat Fitzgerald, Lois Kuntz, and Mary Kallaward. These ladies are busy calling people in their areas, looking for marchers. If you would like to volunteer, a phone call to the chairwoman or captain in your area is most welcome.

The March will take place December 5th to 11th. The only exception to this date will be East Manchester Township. This area will be marched in January, at the time of the National March. The object of having the march early, is to get it completed before the snow makes traveling dangerous for the marchers. It is definitely not fun to be getting stuck in every other driveway, or to have a flat tire in the snow, with the nearest house half-a-mile down the drifted road. To their credit, marchers in the past have put up with these conditions, and still done a marvelous job. We'd like to show our appreciation by giving them better working conditions.

Did you know that 30% of the entire Washtenaw County budget is collected by the county's marching mothers? Something to be very proud of ladies. That should tell you how special you are.

What is this money used for? There are so many good projects going that we could fill this newspaper with them, but since there is other news important to the community, here are only a few. First, 60% of the money collected in the county, goes to the National Foundation, to be distributed to research facilities

(25%) such as the Salk Institute, for public education nationally, and for the myriad of other projects that are better handled nationally. In our own county much is being done, not only to repair damage already done, but to prevent it from happening to start with. The March of Dimes supports a nutritionist through a grant to the U of M School of Public Health. Proper diet during pregnancy and during the child's first months are extremely important. Through the nutritionist and public education materials MOD is educating mothers-to-be in the great good that can be accomplished through proper diet. MOD sponsors a Student-Parent Center for infants, providing day care for infants, while the parents attend school. MOD sponsors genetic counseling to those parents who are suspected of having a problem. Also genetic screening to discover carriers of harmful genetic traits before they are passed on to the next generation. MOD money had a big roll in the development of the rubella vaccine and the RH serum. Bingham Grants have enabled teams of doctors and nurses to go from the Motts Hospital to outlying community hospitals, to teach their staffs to detect early signs of birth defects, and how to treat or even prevent them. MOD money is helping to train young people in the health fields through scholarships. There are films and speakers available to any organization that would like to have a program on birth defects. The list goes on and on; there is so much to do yet. Progress has been made, but more must be accomplished.

Please welcome that marcher this coming week, and when you spot a canister

Optimist Install New Members

Lorenzo W. Steele and James T. Scully were installed as new members of the Manchester Optimist Club on November 22 by the club's President, Irvin Gill, Manchester Optimist Club's active membership now numbers 57. Since it's organization in 1958 the club and it's members have been actively sponsoring many youth activities and community projects. This year's program includes sponsorship of the Steer Club; oratorical contest; bicycle safety program; outstanding citizen awards; basketball contest; annual boat race, and the famous Manchester Chicken Broil.

The club will also host and honor Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts as well as the farmers in our area.

Saturday, December 11, is the big day for the children of Manchester. Optimists are again sponsoring our community Children's Christmas Party. Ed Galloway and his committee are busy making final preparations for this gala event when Santa Claus will make his first visit to our village.

A potluck Christmas party will be held Wednesday, December 8th at 6:30 p.m. at the Ann Arbor Federal Bank in Manchester. Meat, rolls and coffee will be furnished. Please bring a dish to pass and tableservice. Instead of a gift exchange we are asked to bring non-perishable food items to put in the boxes for needy families in our area at Christmastime.

Our guests at our meeting following the potluck will be our district president and her secretary.

CHRISTMAS SCAVENGER HUNT

Spirit of Christmas! That is what the Scavenger Hunt next Tuesday, December 7th is all about.

Each year the Manchester Family Service pack many boxes for people in the Manchester School District. The generosity and concern of the people in the community are what makes this project a success.

The actual collection of the canned and packaged foods, soaps and paper products is done by our young people. This year the Cadette and Senior Girl Scout Troops will knock on your doors somewhere between 6:00 and 8:00 Tuesday, December 7th. If the weather committee does not come up with a successful plan the Scavenger Hunt will be held Tuesday, December 14th.

If you are not contacted and would like to donate articles for the drive please call Mrs. Schwab, 428-8976 or Mrs. Reck, 428-8852. It is very difficult to go into the country areas, especially during the winter months.

If you are aware of someone who would enjoy a Greeting from the Manchester Family Service please let it be known. Some of our boxes are intended for those who are in need other than financially, such as no close family ties, or have burdened someone other stress during the year.

Don't forget to turn your porch light on for the scavenger hunters Tuesday, December 7th. The kids will feel more welcome! Merry Christmas!

MANCHESTER FAMILY SERVICE

Thanksgiving marks the advent of seasonal thoughtfulness which will supply Christmas gifts of necessities to homes which would otherwise be bare. Every year Manchester Family Service is instrumental in directing the community's desire to help the less fortunate.

Lists of families and children who will be receiving Christmas boxes are being compiled by the Department of Social Services and the County Health Department for every area in the county. Manchester's names will be sent to Mrs. Franklin Reck, chairman of Manchester Family Service, for processing and distribution of gifts, foods and other donations received by the agency through the community's generosity.

The Scavenger Hunt on December 7 (see separate news story in this Enterprise) will help bring in the supplies for the gift boxes. Many churches, groups and individuals have already sent gifts of money to the agency, Mr. LeRoy Marx, treasurer, reports. A few dolls which were received have been dressed and are waiting for new homes.

December 17 will be the distribution day this year. Letters will be mailed, giving the details, to the families who will be involved. There is a possibility that there are neighbors who are in great need who would not come to the agency's attention from the usual sources. Names of such families or individuals may be referred to Mrs. Reck, 428-8852, by concerned individuals, groups or the persons themselves. If unable to contact the above number, call the vice-chairman Mrs. William Schwab, 428-8976. Be sure to call as early as possible, at least by the 15th so that your needy family may have a happy Christmas.
