BOARD OF EDUCATION

June 1, 1977

The Special Board of Education meeting was held in the Study Auditorium on Wednesday, June 1, 1977. President Bunney called the meeting to order at 7:45 p.m. Helen Kensler took roll call with all members being present with the exception of Lou Vogel.

William Bunney said the agenda had not been printed, so he asked the Board members to write down the following agenda items:

1. Discussion on Student Activities.
2. Summer maintenance program.
3. Changes in line items.
4. Commencement.
5. Mr. Green's vacation.
6. Others.
7. Questions from the audience.

Mr. Green recommended that the Board leave the money policy for the 1977-78 Senior Trip the same as it has been in previous years.

Supt. Green further recommended that in 1978-79, there would no longer be a Senior Trip, but there would be an educational trip for the 8th Grade. Money earned by the present 9th Grade and 10th Grade classes would be returned to them. A discussion followed on the present 8th Grade Chicago Trip.

John Korican said the senior class would like all the money they earned returned to them, because the German Club had all their money returned to them. Diane Schwab said the German Club members never earned close to the $100.00 that is allowed the seniors for spending money.

Moved by Jim Walkowe and supported by Helen Kensler, to approve just the present Senior Trip money policy for 1977-78 senior trip. All yeas, Motion carried. Jim Walkowe moved that the 1978-79 Senior Trip be investigated and returned to the Board for action. Supported by Macomber, all yeas. Motion carried.

Mr. Kemeter presented his summer maintenance program. He said he would need 13 additional workers, which would be one more than was working last summer.

Mr. Kemeter said he had received one bid on repairing the Pleasant Lake School and High School roofs. Bids would be opened at the June meeting. Moved by Westfall supported by Walkowe to approve the summer maintenance program. A roll call vote was taken as follows: Westfall yes, Kensler yes, Feldkamp yes, Walkowe yes, Macomber no, Bunney yes, Vogel absent. Motion carried.

Mr. Green asked permission to adjust line items. (copy in supplemental file). Moved by Walkowe supported by Westfall to approve line item changes. All yeas, Motion carried.

John Korican stated that commencement would be at 3:00 P.M., June 5th. Board members should be there at 2:30 P.M. John Korican asked Wm. Bunney to make a few remarks to the Senior Class.

Mr. Green's vacation was discussed. Moved by Westfall supported by Feldkamp to carry 2 weeks of Mr. Green's 1976-77 vacation over to 1977-78. All yeas, motion carried.

Helen Kensler asked permission to represent the Board on a League Athletic Committee. Permission granted.

Jim Walkowe stated the school needed a new station wagon. The Board asked Mr. Green to get bids on a station wagon. A woman in the audience requested that teachers not bring up the millage issue to their students.

Mr. Green said he had already discussed that matter with the Principals and had asked them to talk with the teachers in their buildings.

Macomber moved to adjourn the meeting. Supported by Feldkamp. All yeas, Motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,
Helen J. Kensler, Secretary

June 8, 1977

A special Board of Education meeting was called to order at 7:35 P.M. on June 8th, 1977.

Helen Kensler took roll call with all members being present.

President Bunney introduced Tony Duerr, an attorney affiliated with the law firm of Jackson, Lamb and Duerr. Mr. Duerr is in the field of Educational Law and has represented Washtenaw Community College, Eastern Michigan University and Ypsilanti Public Schools. He has been selected as legal counsel for the Manchester Community Schools.

Mr. Duerr said the issue that the Board of Education faces is a legal mine field and they must be very careful not to tread on the rights of Superintendent Green.

There were several questions from concerned citizens and members of the Board of Education directed to Mr. Duerr about what steps could be taken at this time regarding the situation which involves Supt. Green.

After a lengthy discussion, Jim Walkowe moved to suspend Supt. William J. Green indefinitely, with pay. Supported by Susan Westfall.

Mr. Macomber stated that indefinitely was a long time.

Reno Feldkamp said with the word indefinitely, the Board would want to meet at a rather early date. President Bunney said they would have to wait until they had something further to go on before they would meet again.

Lou Vogel said he didn't like the word indefinitely in Mr. Walkowe's motion. Mr. Duerr said the word indefinite could just be omitted.

Mr. Walkowe made a motion to make an amendment to his motion. He moved that William J. Green, Superintendent of Schools be suspended with pay, pending further information. All yeas. Motion carried.

The Board then voted on the motion on the floor suspending William J. Green, Superintendent of Schools, with pay, pending further information. All yeas. Motion carried.

President Bunney stated that in order to conduct regular business in the Central Office, it would be absolutely necessary to appoint an acting Superintendent in a temporary capacity.

President Bunney made a recommendation to appoint John McGuire acting superintendent because of his involvement and knowledge of Central Office actions and because of his position and the time he has with least effect on duties presently being performed.

Moved by Susan Westfall, supported by George Macomber that John McGuire be appointed acting superintendent. All yeas. Motion carried.

Moved by Westfall, supported by Macomber to give John McGuire authorization to sign Internal and Payroll checks

Library News

The summer story hour is being held on Thursdays as follows: pre-school 1:30 to 2:00 p.m.; grades Kindergarten to second, 2:15 to 2:45 p.m.

Among the many new exciting books at the library are: Voyage: a Novel of 1896 by Sterling Hayden. The maiden voyage of the five-masted, iron-hulled around the Horn, to San Francisco provides the setting for a novel which portrays the diversity and color of American society at the turn of the century.

A new novel by Dorothy Eden is "The Salamanca Drum". Matilda Duncastle's single sorrow was that she had not been born a son, for the blood of heroes beat in her veins. Sweeping from 1890 through World War I to England's confrontation with Adolph Hitler in a panoramic captivating story.

If mystery is your thing read "Sargasso" by Edwin Corley. When a space capsule carrying three Americans touches down in the heart of the Bermuda Triangle its occupants disappear from sight!

For our younger readers are: "Summer Storm" by Shore; "Bargain Bride" by Lampman, a story of frontier and pioneer life in Oregon. A book about railroads "All Aboard" by Ault; "The Pilgrimage" by Lingard, and a science fiction thriller "Until the Celebration" by Snyder.

New junior books are: "Me and the Man on the Moon-eyed Horse" by Fleischman, a story of robbers and outlaws, "Hanging On; How Animals Carry Their Young" by Freedman; "T.A. for Kids" by Freed; "Spiders and Their Kin" by LeVl.

Peach Ice Takes The Sizzle Out Of Summer

Catch the flavor of summer in frosty fruit desserts. Since corn syrup helps prevent sugar crystals from forming during freezer storage, desserts like this Peach Ice can be made ahead, stored in the freezer and enjoyed at the end of a light summer supper.

PEACH ICE

1/2 cup water
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
4 cups peeled, pitted, ripe peaches (about 2 lbs)
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 1/2 cups Karo light corn syrup

In small saucepan sprinkle gelatin over water. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until gelatin dissolves. Place half of peaches and lemon juice in blender container. Cover. Blend at high speed 1 minute or until liquefied. Add remaining peaches 1 at a time continuously blending until all are liquefied. With blender at low speed gradually add gelatin mixture and corn syrup until blended. Pour into 9 x 5 x 3-inch loaf pan. Freeze 1 to 2 hours or until almost firm. Beat until smooth but still frozen. Cover and freeze 3 hours, or until firm. Makes 1 1/2 quarts.

AGRICULTURE IN ACTION

MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU EDITORIAL

FOOD FADDISTS "MUDDY" THE WATER

One of the biggest farces to come along in recent years is the campaign by a bunch of poorly-informed vegetarians intended to scare the uninformed into joining them in a meatless existence. President Carter was even sucked into the so-called Food Day effort and was served a meatless dinner in "honor" of the Third National Food Day in April.

While there is nothing wrong with a meatless diet, either nutritionally or tastewise, there is plenty wrong with maligning meat, dairy and poultry products and implying that they are not tasty, nutritious and healthful.

Food Day enthusiasts promote the idea that farm products fed to livestock, poultry and dairy animals are extravagances, and that the grain and feed supplements would go further if fed to people. This is a typical misrepresentation of the economic facts of food production.

Those who know anything about farming know that about one-third of the land in agriculture is devoted to pasture and hay production. For the most part, this land is unfit for grain production, and the best way to have it contribute to the nation's food supply is to pasture it with some form of livestock. In certain types of farming operations, a relatively small amount of grain is then fed to the animals to "finish" them into the kind of meat Americans enjoy eating. To detract from this sensible, economic and conserving program is idiosyncrasy.

For several years, eggs, pork and milk have suffered the slander of those who, without conclusive proof, blame them for the cholesterol problems of the world. This propaganda has led to larger markets for margarine, egg substitutes, and phony bacon. Now livestock products—like the delicious T-bone steak, pork chops, and standing rib roast—come under the same kind of misguided slander.

People in most countries of the world envy our U.S. food production record. Why should a small group of our well-fed citizens meddle in this issue when the American people have the freedom to "order up" whatever kind of diet they want? If they choose meat, meat production will prosper; if they reject meat, its production will drop. Demand, or lack of it, tells the farmer what to produce. Farmers don't need poorly-informed cultists muddying the water.

Are You An Excellent, Average Or Poor Driver?

DETROIT—American drivers are the safest in the world, with the lowest traffic fatality rate of any nation. But as long as there are any automobile accidents, that's "not good enough," according to Chris Kennedy, a Chrysler Corporation safety expert.

A quickly-done check of driving habits can help the average American driver rethink some driving practices, become aware of driving skills which need to be sharpened, and lower the accident rate in this country, says Kennedy.

Statistics show seventy percent of the United States drivers involved in accidents resulting in fatalities have no serious driving violations on their records. Eighty percent of those drivers have no previous accident record and were driving within the law at the time of the accident.

"We can curb serious accidents if drivers improve their skills," says Kennedy.

Kennedy suggests that drivers give themselves a test, rating their ability on each item below as excellent, average, or poor.

Do you:

1. Perform a weekly pre-drive check of brakes, brake lights, tires, lights, horn, windows and mirrors.
2. Always fasten seat belt and lock doors before driving.
3. Avoid acceleration to beat a changing light.
4. Keep maneuvering room ahead and behind.
5. Change lanes shortly after you see a "lane closed ahead" sign.
6. Make sure your turn signal is noticed before changing lanes.
7. Tap your horn to get the attention of other drivers when necessary.
8. Glance at rear view mirror frequently.
9. Stop smoothly and gradually whenever possible.
10. Look for alternatives before sudden stops.
11. Never skid or swerve.
12. Favor the right lane on open highways.
13. Drive the curb lane with greater caution because of slower, less predictable traffic and pedestrians.
14. Never cut short a left turn.
15. Make right turns into curb lanes.

Very few drivers can candidly rate themselves "excellent" on all items, says Kennedy. But by improving the skills rated average or poor, a driver can raise his "score" and decrease his chances of being involved in an accident.

We look great together.
