will convey some, but hope to have more begin a new dialing system on November next week along with some pictures.

First up was Coach Blossom to say little - well - and little more about this years golf squad. The golfers placed nications, who will dispatch Police and second in the L.C.A.A., second in the Ambulance Vehicles directly to the local regionals, and 9th in the state.

The 'irls J.V. and Varsity Girls were next but their season is not concluded to be made at the local office 428-8505. so no awards were given except a present to Coach Vogel. -Betty Ahrens was next up to tell us about the J.V. and Varsity Cheerleading. The cheerleaders are finally being given the chance of competition. They are battling other squads at a special cheering event and I wish them luck.

Bart Bartels spoke some of his team, the J.V. Football. They lost their first 4 but didn't die and came back to win their next 4 of 5.

Jim Fielder said some words about the Varsity Football squad. Among his thoughts were the team might not have done as well as expected but we bombed Blissfield and no one else beat them in our league. Jim Brink closed the team part with his Cross-Country. They won 1st in the L.C.A.A., 2nd in the regionals and 16th in the state. Many thanks go to JoAnn Clark and Jean Little for co-chairing a superb potluck supper. A great job was done by Don Tassie, Master of Ceremonies and Rev. Sharai for the moving invocation and benediction. We now pull the basketballs and wrestling equipment out of the closets.

REMAINING SHOWS AT BLACK SHEEP REPERTORY THEATRE

Traveling Smiles/Touring Childrens Theatre of Manchester, Michigan would like to announce the remaining shows for its fall Childrens Theatre series. The following classic fairy tales will be presented at the historic Black Sheep Repertory Theatre, 138 E. Main St., Manchester.

November 19-"The Emperor's New Clothes". In a mythical kingdom lives a vain emperor who spends his days trying on new clothes. When the Emperor asks how the clothes look, no one would dare tell an emperor they do not like them, he was the Emperor! One day, he grew tired of his wardrobe and offered great wealth to any who could make a unique new outfit. The two tailors who answered the call not only gave the Emperor an outfit, the likes of which he had never seen, but also cured his vanity.

December 3-"The Frog Prince". As the story goes, the evil witch has put a curse on a handsome young prince for not doing evil deeds for her. The prince, turned into an ugly frog, can only break the curse by being kissed by a princess. By chance the frog befriends a princess by retrieving her golden ball that has fallen into a well. It all sounds easy the Band was told there would be some extra entertainment (if it could be called that) at halftime. The Band had worked all week on a show and now they were told to cut their show a little. How's that for justice? To top it off they were told this extra activity would last two and a half minutes when, in fact, it lasted five.

This caused the Bands' show to run over. It must have been very frustrating for the Band to be kicked off the field, especially for the 6 seniors who were being featured

This summer many people, including myself, wondered why the Band wasn't included in the BIG 4th of July Parade. The reason was, the people in charge of the parade called Mr. Marrison only Manchester Enterprise a week before the parade and wanted a band. Harry Kenworthy, Community Relations Manager, Ann Arbor, reminds you:

There are things you can do to control the cost of your phone bill.

We are constantly searching for ways to help you economize on your phone service, but here are just a few ideas on how you can help yourself: Call when it's least expensive. For example, when you're calling long distance, dial direct and plan your calls for times when the rates are lowest.

Budget Service that's really low budget! Look into the availability of Budget Service if you don't make a lot of phone calls every month. It's the least expensive one-or-two party phone service we offer.

Plan to have all your service installed in one visit. For instance, if you move, plan carefully so the installer doesn't have to make extra trips, for which you may have to pay additional charges. And while you're planning for new service, make sure it's going to be the kind most suited to your needs.

Sometimes, little tips can save you a surprising amount over the long haul. We'll keep trying to help you save.

THE NEWEST "CONSUMER AGENCY"

By proclamation of its leader, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has become a consumer agency. Secretary Bob Bergland announced at the beginning of his administration that the USDA would no longer pit farmers against consumers. The unanswered question is whether the department ever did place farmers and consumers on opposite poles.

If you can overlook the fact that farmers are consumers, just like anybody else, you might ask why the Secretary intends to bring the two closer together. Of course, it's politically popular to protect consumers from all evils. A lot of people have come way up in politics by starting out big in the so-called consumer movement.

I'll bet you don't.

If you are the average car buyer, you bok a little here and a little there. You talk trade-in. You work for the best deal on the car you really want. You're average in this respect, I'll bet.

Then, remaining an average car buyer, you can throw away the advantage you gained by not looking here and there for the auto financing. You take one look and buy it as is, on the spot.

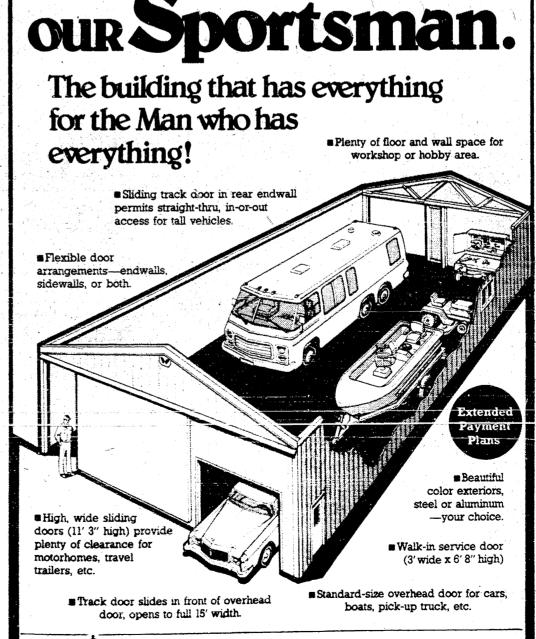

We have people coming in and requesting we assist them in meeting monthly bills and monthly payments. Their car payment is out of line. The interest is higher than it should be or the lender didn't adjust the payment amount to the individual's ability to pay.

New, think about it. Are you one of those who get so excited when you find that just right car that you automatically buy any old financing program?

That's terrible.

You'll agree, I am certain, that it would only take a few minutes to talk to us about your auto financing
