March of Dimes Danceathon Raises $1493.26

Break time.

34 dancers started.

Hey Manchester, do you know you have some mighty fine young people amongst you? We hear so much about the bad element, how about some good news for a change?
Thirty-four energetic, smiling, enthusiastic, young souls turned out to take the eleven hour musical challenge, at the March of Dimes Danceathon last Saturday. Twenty-nine still smiling, enthusiastic, but only slightly less energetic souls, met the challenge. There was no stopping them. At break time they would stretch out on the floor and groan, but as soon as those few minutes were over, they would hop right up and call for the faster songs; even towards the end of the event.
They were really a fantastic group of people. No complaints, no cross words, co-operative with each other and the chaperones, inventive, and always the smiles; really a pleasure to work with. In fact, we are so proud of them, we want you to know who each and everyone of them were. Those names starred, are the ones who danced the whole eleven hours. Rita Marshall*, Marion Marshall*, Stephanie Nickels, Teresa Ames*, Stephanie Daubner*, Joyce Schwab*, Lisa Aber, Colleen Scully*, Kelly Helfrich*, Julie England*, Lori England*, Maureen Zsenyuk*, Karen Evans*, Debbie Miller, Rich Chapin*, Kevin Krzyzaniak*, La Jefferies*, Doug Padley*, Linda Simmons*, Margo Winnick, Michelle Kidd*, Brian Waltz*, Kathy Kenster*, Betsy Reeves*, Cathy Tobias, Dee Dee Murrillo*, Lori Waltz*, Malissa Darby*, Carla Tauranen, Brenda Eggleson*, and Teresa Seegert*. Thanks so very much to them, for making this first March of Dimes Danceathon, in all of Washtenaw County so successful, and such a pleasure for the workers.
As we went along, we could see ways to make the Danceathon even more enjoyable. We will try to incorporate some of these things next year.
When all the pledges were totaled for the number of hours danced, these 34 young people have earned a grand total of $1,493.26. How is that for doing their bit for other young people who need help?
The Sophomores were the class with the greatest percentage participating. Brian Waltz is the prize winner for young man with the most sponsors. When Doug Padley turns in his money, he will be the fellow with the most money, earning that prize. When Lori England turns in her money, she will be a double prize winner, having the most money and sponsors. Congratulations and many thanks.
We have many other people to thank, too. First the Webb Seegert family did a fantastic job organizing the dance, and seeing that all went well. We simply don't have space to list all the jobs they did, but Evie and Teresa were real cornerstones. Great job folks. Of course, it takes a lot of people to put on an event such as this. Thanks also go out to the Manchester Police Department, Dr. Purfield, Stephanie Daubner, LeeAnna Wright, Stephen King, David and Doug Clark, Roger Morrison, Steve Chapman, Alger and JoAnn Clark, Mr. and Mrs. James Brink, Sandy Miller, Barb Korth, Kathy Rose, and Teresa Seegert.

Whats Happening in Our Schools

Submitted by the Manchester Education Association

Mr. Fielder's Mechanical Drawing Class We, in Mr. Fielder's second hour mechanical drawing class, are progressing well. To this date we have completed sections in lettering, dimensioning, orthographic projection, sectioning isometrics, auxiliary views, and most recently, sheet metal developments.

We were tested last Friday on our skills in sheet metal development and we each developed and assembled a three-dimensional funnel by applying our knowledge of cone frustums.

Presently we are beginning a chapter on threads and fasteners and we are all eagerly awaiting our upcoming section in assemblies.

a woman's arm tends to create the motion leading to a back-up.

In most cases a straight ball is more effective than a back-up and a hook is more effective than a straight ball. Concentrate on keeping the wrist straight all the way to the follow through. If a wrist band of some sort will help, use one. It will help keep the hand position steady and also acts as an aid to concentration.

A straight ball bowler must be accurate, almost perfect to score a strike, because the angle is slight and the deflection great.

Every ball deflects, according to the angle you use and the type of ball. I like to be accurate with a small angle to the pocket and I find that my Brunswick signature ball has less deflection than any ball I've used in the past. When the ball keeps moving and creates pin action you have the chance to get strikes even when you're not perfect, and few of us are.

So in summing up, keep the wrist firm and straight, use as much angle to the pocket as you can without sacrificing accuracy, and work on a slight hook ball that will give you some extra pin action.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY PUBLISHES GUIDEBOOK

A guidebook listing century-old businesses throughout the state has just been published by the Historical Society of Michigan. Entitled "Century of Achievement: A Guide to Michigan's Centennial Businesses," the publication is an outgrowth of the Michigan Centennial Business Program. It lists 239 firms, 25 in the Upper Peninsula and 214 in the Lower Peninsula. The program was launched as a Bi-centennial project in 1976 with a contest to find the oldest business in Michigan. The response from local historians and the business community was so overwhelming that the program became a permanent, on-going feature of the Society. Centennial businesses receive engraved certificates officially designating them as Michigan centennial businesses.

According to Society executive director Frank C. Wilhelm, there are two purposes of the centennial business program. "First, we want to encourage Michigan's citizens to become more aware of the state's rich business and industrial heritage," Mr. Wilhelm said. "Second, we hope to stimulate interest in preserving important commercial buildings throughout the state. "A surprising number of businesses have operated out of the same buildings for over 100 years," Mr. Wilhelm continued. "These structures can serve as important visual links with our past."

George Jerome & Company, a Detroit surveying firm founded in 1828, received a special award as the oldest business in the state. The firm has been in the same family since it was chartered nine years before Michigan became a state. The Old Tavern Inn near Niles (formerly Summerville Tavern) was given an award as the oldest business in Michigan still operating in its original building. The inn, originally a stage coach stop between Niles and Kalamazoo, opened in 1835.

A third award was presented to Mann's Feed Mill in Manchester, which has operated on its original site since 1832. The diversity of Michigan's rich business heritage is evident through many other businesses listed in the guide.

According to a national photographic association, the Zemper Studio in Howell, dating back to 1858, is probably the oldest photographic studio in continuous operation in the United States. D. L. Zemper, the current owner, still has many of the glass plate negatives and pictures taken by photographers in earlier years. In the small town of Freeport, the Cheesebrough Manufacturing Company makes wooden curd, hay and leaf rakes using the same equipment that was used a hundred years ago. Founded in 1870, it is the only company in the United States that manufactures all-wood rakes.

The A.M. Todd Company of Kalamazoo was founded in 1869 as the "Steam Refined Essential Oil Works." The company provides spearmint and peppermint flavorings for chewing gum, candy, toothpaste, and other products.

The 239 centennial businesses which appear in the guide come from every section of the state. Detroit and Grand Rapids are the two cities with the greatest number of businesses listed, each represented by 21 firms. They are followed by Bay City with 12, Saginaw with 10, and Kalamazoo with 8 listings. In the Upper Peninsula, 7 firms are listed from Marquette. Traverse City, in the northern Lower Peninsula, is home for 6 listed businesses.

By category, newspapers topped the centennial business listings with 33, followed by banks with 26. Other categories with multiple listings include: hotels, 13; clothing and department stores, 11; hardware stores, 10; insurance agencies, 8; pharmaceutical companies, 7; funeral homes, 7; and milling companies, 6. Each of the following categories was represented by five businesses--jewelry stores, lumber companies, general stores and markets; and furniture companies, both retail and manufacturing.

Businesses that are 100 years old or older and have not yet been recognized with a centennial business certificate should contact the Society for an official application form. The guide will be updated periodically to include additional

You know, sometimes we fail to use the very things that are right in front of us and are readily available for our convenience...and profit.

Your bank is a good example. A bank offers service after service to its customers, yet survey after survey proves an individual doesn't make full use of all the services that are available to him at his bank.

Take loans for example. Only a bank will make loans for such a wide variety of funding needs. Do you always check with your bank first before borrowing money?

Money orders and travelers checks are usually less expensive to purchase at a bank. That's right. Compare the charges next time you need either one.

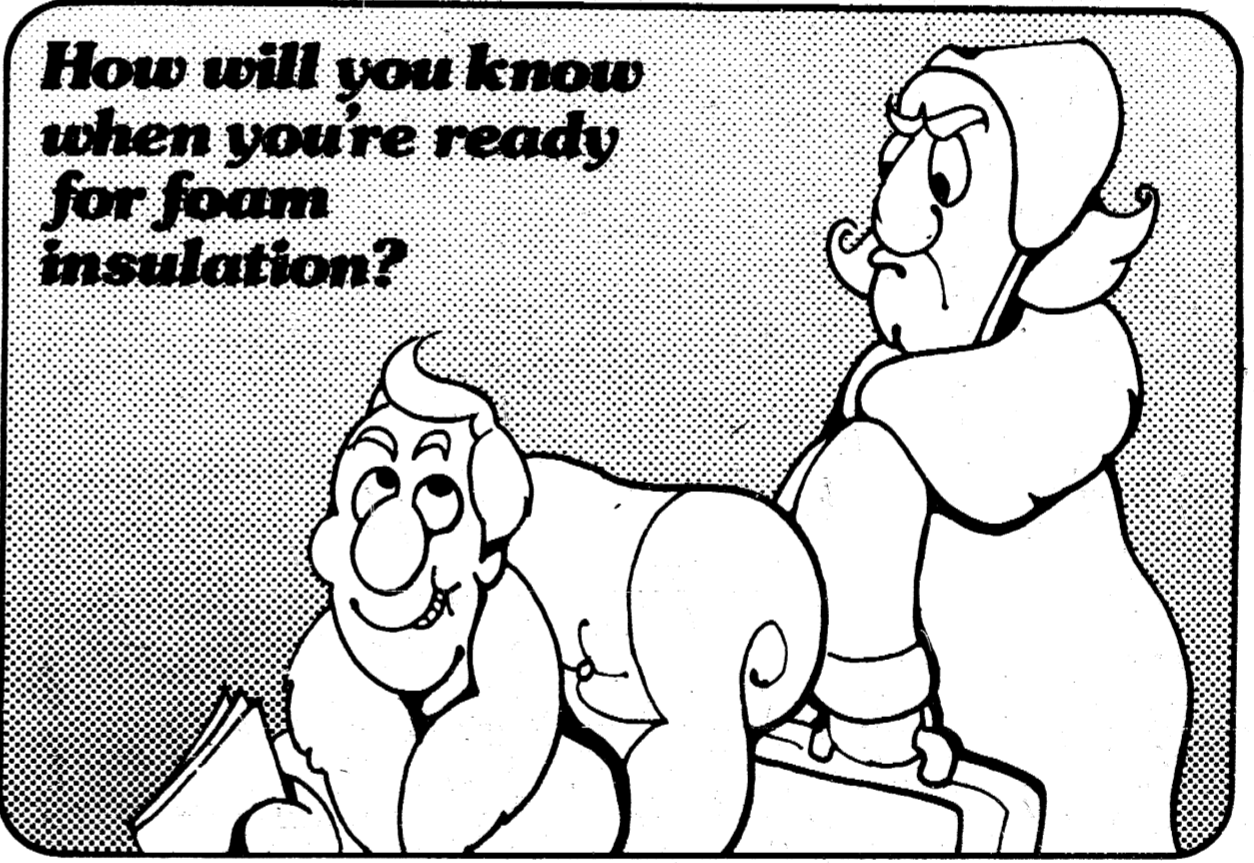

Who will argue over the merits of a safe deposit box? Do you have one?

Do you have both a bank savings account and a checking account for maximum convenience?

Have you availed yourself of the financial counseling offered by your bank? Counseling that comes from individuals who know the community, who can chart its future and who are interested in assisting you to better enjoy life and the fruits of your labor.

It's all there. It's all waiting for you to come through our door.

If you don't have it all, you're missing something.

How will you know when you're ready for foam insulation?

You'll know when it's so cold your mother-in-law leaves early!

Homes are more comfortable with foam. Foam is better than old-fashioned cellulose or fiber glass insulation, and the Homefoamers® foam flows into all the little nooks and crannies where heat escapes.

Turkey For Spring
 by Martha Logan

Carry the tradition of turkey into spring with a tender and moist roast Butterball Swift's Premium Turkey. For a fresh start for a new season let a new stuffing bridge the way from the usual stuffing to an easier version. It has the traditional beginnings of bread cubes, onion, celery and sage. Nutmeg and white raisins give the stuffing an original touch. It is simplified, because it is cooked in a skillet on the range.

- Skillet Stuffing
 Yield: 5 cups
- | | |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1 cup chopped onion | 1/4 teaspoon salt |
| 1 1/4 cups chopped celery | 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg |
| 1 stick (1/2 cup) butter or margarine | 1 cup white raisins |
| 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning | 1 cup water |
| 1/4 teaspoon sage | 8 cups day old bread cubes |
- Saute onion and celery in butter until soft. Add poultry seasoning, sage, salt, nutmeg, raisins and water. Stir to blend well. Stir in bread cubes. Cover and cook over low heat about 45 minutes.

Federal Savings of Battle Creek Ann Arbor Federal Savings Unite

In a joint statement Roy E. Weber, President of Ann Arbor Federal Savings and Richard J. Porter, President of First Federal Savings, Battle Creek, announced the joining of the two Associations to unite was submitted to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board last August with the approval being received this week. The combined Association will bear the new corporate name of Great Lakes Federal Savings and Loan Association, with Ann Arbor Federal Savings operating as the Ann Arbor division and First Federal Savings as the Battle Creek division.

The combined assets of $590,000,000 makes the Association one of the largest Savings and Loans serving Michigan.

"We feel the combining of these two strong Associations affords us the resources to better serve the citizens of central Michigan," states Mr. Weber. "Uniting the two institutions will provide twenty-one offices for the Association serving Washtenaw, Livingston, Jackson, Calhoun, Kalamazoo, Barry, Eaton and Branch counties."

"There is no doubt that we can collectively take pride in the increased strength and visibility this new Association gives us," Porter remarked. "Our two Savings and Loans have long histories of being productively involved in the communities we serve and we intend to do an even better job in the future of providing home financing and high interest savings facilities for our customers."

Mr. Porter is Chairman of the Board of Great Lakes Federal Savings and Mr. Weber the President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Porter will also serve as President of the First Federal of Battle Creek division. All former board members of the two institutions are directors of Great Lakes Federal Savings and Loan. First Federal Savings currently has eight offices in Battle Creek, Albion, Hastings, Marshall, Bellevue and Richland. Two additional offices are scheduled to open this year in Coldwater and Battle Creek. Ann Arbor Federal Savings has eleven offices in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Brighton, Chelsea, Saline, Manchester and Dexter.

strip natural moisture from the skin, leaving it dull and flaky. Add all over the body, cleansing with a harsh soap and the result is excessively dry skin.

Instead, set up a skin cleansing regimen incorporating the following four rules and help bathe away dry skin problems.

(1) Daily cleansing should consist of no more than a quick shower or sponge bath with lukewarm water. It's even better to bathe less frequently.

(2) Use a mild soap or gel cleanser formulated for your skin type and combine soap usage to dirty or odorous areas such as face, hands, underarms, genital areas and feet.

(3) Lubricate immediately after bathing with a lotion or oil. Many people prefer lotions after bath or shower because oils are heavy and greasy. However, a light, non-greasy oil, such as Neutrogena's Sesame Seed Body Oil, can be beneficial to the skin.

(4) Limit tub baths to once a week and make sure the water is lukewarm, not hot. Hot water pulls natural moisture from the skin. A bath or body oil may be added to the tub, but better results will be obtained by using oils after bath or shower.

Bathe your way to radiant, glowing skin - not by long, leisurely soaks in a steaming tub of perfumed water but by cleansing your skin with care. Most of us bathe too frequently and with water that is too hot. Both these factors

189 Donate To Bloodmobile

Thanks to 189 blood donors and 17 others who offered, but were deferred this time, for making an outstanding record for the Bloodmobile, Monday, March 27. The Manchester Blood Club which supplies the entire school district and many others by contract is ready to serve the community for another six months. (The next Bloodmobile is in October.) Mrs. David Dentling and Mrs. Ica Schaffer were co-chairmen.

Thanks also to the Knights of Columbus for the use of their facility and especially for the many man-hours put into setting-up, taking-down and helping pack the Bloodmobile van with its precious load, under the direction of Mr. Lehman Wahl. St. Mary's Altar Society canteen chairman, Mrs. Robert Panches, brightened the day for the donors by serving freshly made sandwiches and cookies. The orange juice they served was furnished by the American Legion Auxiliary, Mrs. Panches was assisted by Mrs. Duffield Ball, Mrs. Robert Kirk, Mrs. James Stengel, Mrs. Lehman Wahl, Miss Jean Ann Wahl and Mrs. Paul Wild.

Local registered nurses worked with the professional staff of 15 that came with the Unit from the Southeastern Red Cross Blood Center in Detroit. Mrs. Willard Mann and Mrs. Stanton Roesch took medical histories and Mrs. Alvin Kappeler and Mrs. Aaron Nathan were observers.

Others assisting the nursing staff were Miss Agnes Kent, Mrs. Ralph England, Mrs. James Pratt and Miss Amanda Schaible. The escorts were Mrs. Oscar Esteves, Mrs. Robert Little and Mrs. Ray Uphaus.

Registrars for the day were Mrs. Ronald Jenter, Mrs. LeRoy Knickerbocker, Mrs. Norman MacLeod and Mr. Aaron Nathan. Mrs. Samuel Beal was prescriber.

The doctors on call were Dr. Chiu-Seng Hwang and Dr. William P. Purfield.

The nursery for children of donors was at St. Mary's Church Hall and operated by the Jaycees Auxiliary—Mrs. David Burn, Mrs. Lawrence Berke, Mrs. Janet McCully, Mrs. Ronald Panches and Mrs. Gary Stautz served about 25 children.

The volunteer drivers for Double A donors were Mr. Ed Galloway, Mr. Ed Kirk and Mr. Leo Scully.

Added to the Honor Roll of Gallon Donors for the Manchester Blood Club were four 2-gallon donors, that is people who have given 16 pints of blood over the years to a Red Cross Blood program. They are Robert Rutherford, David Walton, William Panches and Theodore Guenther. There were eight 1-gallon donors—Mrs. Kathleen Routly, Mr. Gerald Proctor, Mr. Nathan Alber, Mrs. Linda Briggs, Mr. Edward Steele, Mr. Joe E. Tobias, Mr. Clare Dentling and Mr. Sidney Bedrosian. The community is beginning its 27th year as a member of the Red Cross Blood Program.

A TRAGIC SITUATION

Years of political maneuvering and foreign market neglect have caused America's great food and fiber abundance to backlog into a price-depressing national liability instead of the greatest of all trade assets it could be. That's the assertion of American farmers as they watch an oversupply of U.S. farm products move into costly storage instead of into overseas markets.

These farmers suggest that Administration leaders have deliberately neglected overseas markets to woo consumers with the prospects of cheap food here at home—at the farmers' expense.

Bitter over depressed incomes, the farmers contend that if our high-quality, consistently-available U.S. farm products benefitted from truly aggressive salesmanship, rural America would not now be endangered by depression-level incomes.

"It is nothing less than tragic that farmers and ranchers of this country, with our clear-cut competitive advantage, have not been allowed to move more freely into international farm markets," said Richard Owens, chief administrator and secretary of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Owens points out that this country spent the tiny sum of one-tenth of one percent of our farm export sales dollars in sales promotions, while much smaller countries like New Zealand and Israel spend times as much to sell their products.

What the public must understand is that high-level farm exports do not contribute substantially to higher domestic food prices, since almost all the increase in food costs take place after the commodity has been sold by the farmer.

The Ann Arbor Saturday Night Singles Club Dance for single adults 25 years and over will be held at the Ann Arbor "Y", 350 S. Fifth Avenue, on Saturday evening, April 1, from 9:00 p.m. to 12:00 midnight.

CHESTER VILLAGE PLANNING COMMISSION

1, 1978

The regular meeting of the Manchester Planning Commission was held at the Village Hall, with members present: Laurin F. Leeson, Duncan, Daniels, and

The regular February meeting was cancelled due to the weather.

The meeting was called to order at 7:30 p.m., by Vice-Chairman Whittington. Minutes of the regular January meeting were reviewed, and on the motion by Daniels, approved.

Whittington showed plans for a home designed by Mr. Paul Alber, for himself. There are no problems as to compliance with the Zoning Ordinance, but Building Inspector Claran Knauas has expressed a wish for official approval of the planned 7 1/2 foot room height. It was moved by Whittington, seconded by Duncan, that if the 7 1/2 foot room height is a deviation from the building code, it shall be approved in this instance. The voice vote was 4 "aye", one abstention. Motion declared passed.

George Parker Seeks District Court Post

Much of the problem existing with the Courts concerns the lack of communication between those administering the system and those it is designed to serve. People haven't been made adequately aware of the vast demands that are made of the Court system, particularly at the District Court level.

Much of the Court's time is required to deal with young repeat offenders. Greater use of the existing community and county work programs and the expansion and development of new programs can be utilized to dispel the "hand slap" automatic probation type of justice too many young offenders have come to expect. This more rigid system of penalties can be employed to secure a greater degree of respect for the system, reduce pressures on our jails and secure benefits to the community at the same time.

Through effective use of existing programs, young offenders are given an opportunity, not a right, to a probationary sentence, while paying for their mistakes with productive service to the community and affording them an opportunity to reimburse the community for fees incurred for appointed attorneys.

In this manner, more time can be allotted for the trial of civil cases which are matters of great concern to those who are required to use the Courts for a just resolution of civil disputes. These cases should not be relegated to a secondary position on our judicial scale and should be heard and resolved without inordinate periods of delay.

With this statement, George W. Parker, Chelsea Attorney, has announced his candidacy for Judge in the 14th District Court to fill the seat presently held by retiring Judge Henry D. Artison who will not seek re-election because of an age limitation imposed by the Michigan Constitution.

Parker, 39, received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1964 and a Doctor of Law degree (J.D.) from Wayne State University in 1967. Parker, who has spent 10 years as a trial attorney, first with the Washtenaw County Prosecutor's Office, then with the Ypsilanti Firm of Froehman & Barry, most recently been associated with the Firm of Parker, Clark & Long.

Parker, the youngest of seven children of Sam and Belle Parker, was raised in the Village of Chelsea in Superior Township. After graduation from high school he served two years with the United States Army, attached to an armor unit.

Parker is a member of the Washtenaw County Bar Association, the State of Michigan, the American Association of America and the Michigan Trial Lawyers Association. He is also a member of two service clubs, the Kiwanis Club of Chelsea and Moose Lodge 2

COLLEGE TO OFFER NEW PHYSICAL EDUCATION MAJOR

Beginning in the 1978-79 school year, Adrian College's physical education department will offer a new major in the field of health, physical education and recreation.

According to Mrs. Nancy Walsh, chairman of the college physical education department, the new major will provide students more options when selecting the field of physical education careers they want to pursue.

"With a major in health, physical education and recreation," Mrs. Walsh explained, "Adrian students can prepare for a variety of jobs in the field of recreation. They will receive the training needed to work in YMCAs, city recreation departments or institutions that provide recreation programs for clients, such as nursing homes or prisons," she said.

"A major in health, physical education and recreation also will be beneficial to students interested in teaching careers," Mrs. Walsh continued. "With special emphasis on health studies," she said, "teaching candidates will be qualified to meet the competency levels required to teach six education in Michigan and many other states."

The new program also provides physical education majors an opportunity to broaden their education and career possibilities outside the field of physical education. Mrs. Walsh explained that students enrolled in the traditional physical education major at Adrian usually choose minor studies in the area of health. With health incorporated into the new major, she said students can select a minor in another field, such as business administration, history or biology to mention a few.

Students who enroll in the health, physical education and recreation major are required to take 34 credit hours of physical education courses, including Red Cross first aid care, sports techniques, kinesiology and administration of physical education. Also needed are eight hours of biology and a three-hour course on human sexuality.

To complete major requirements one new course, Trends in Recreation, will be added to the physical education class offerings next fall. This course will explore the extent and significance of recreation in a community, facility involvement, leadership, programs and economics. Emphasis will focus on the dynamics of recreation rather than traditional programs.

Physical education is a demanding discipline at Adrian College. To earn a degree, majors must exhibit academic ability and a talent for communicating with others in addition to athletic skills.

IT'S A FACT

Civil aviation is benefiting from Air Force research and technology: Eight out of ten commercial jet airliners operating in the free world today were designed and built in the United States. Of these, one out of four can be directly traced to an Air Force bomber program.
