

IT'S WONDERFUL... If you've been searching for a share in the Christmas spirit and have not found it, find Santa. Where Santa is, the children come. They bring hopes and dreams, smiles and laughter, and one can read their emotions like the pages of an open book. It's all there — the joy and happiness, the anticipation that comes so strongly once each year and, above it all, the evident atmosphere of peace and good will. Wonderful it must be, for all these same emotions are well known to those of any age who accept and share the true meaning of the Christmas celebration. Yes, there is a Santa; there is a spirit of Christmas. And, those who seek shall find.

112TH YEAR VOLUME NO. 9

In Retrospect

Somebody asked me the other day why, in this series, we didn't enumerate and at least casually mention some of the "characters" of the period about which we have been writing. Well, perhaps we should. There were quite a number who perhaps should be listed in this classification. Here are a few of them.

Carl "Sketchy" Wuerthner comes to mind as one. He was one of the Wuerthner Brothers of the clothing store which was later owned by Walt Schaible. Carl loved his home town and for many years took an active part in its affairs. He was Village President for several terms and worked diligently to make Manchester a better place in which to live.

Carl was always in a hurry with everything he did and sometimes this propensity caused him some problems. He had, over a period of years, developed a healthy wholesale business in various clothing accessories such as gloves, socks, belts and other sundries. He traveled most of the time but was in the clothing store weekends. His brother Gus and Walt Schaible tended the store the rest of the time and all were very well liked and did an excellent business and had an excellent stock.

Gus, however, was quite the opposite in temperament than Carl and this difference sometimes made for very amusing situations. We well remember one morning when Carl had made up a half dozen orders for his wholesale customers in his headquarters in the building next to the store where Lannom's now is located, staggered up to the door of the clothing store with his arms stacked high with packages and fumbled several times to open the store door and enter, but failed to unlatch the door. He gave one last effort and the door popped open and the packages scattered across the floor of the store. "Sketchy", of course became very upset by this and shouted to his brother Gus, who was sitting at a desk in the back of the store, very calmly reading the morning paper "Why'n'ell can't you get off your duff and help a fellow who is trying to do something useful."

Whereupon Gus looked over the top of his reading glasses and very calmly replied "If you weren't so damned lazy and would make two trips as any sane person would, you wouldn't be in trouble."

Whereupon they quit speaking to each other for a couple of hours after which all was forgotten.

But Carl always preached the gospel that there was no place like Manchester and he spent a lot of time and effort to do his bit to make it a better town. Sometimes he was laughed at for his impatience when he wanted to get things done but through his persistency while he was Village President, for example, he accomplished many beneficial things. We could use quite a few more "Sketchies".

I never could find out where this nickname originated, but I guess, in a way, it fitted him.

Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare Club held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Aaron Nathan on Tuesday, December 19. A delicious luncheon was served at 1 P.M. by the hostess and her committee, Mrs. Jesse Walker and Mrs. Lowell Parr.

Games were played and gifts were exchanged during the afternoon.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held on Tuesday, January 9 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Martin Kessel.

We open a new page in the book of life and may write our destiny day-to-day. We wish for all good health, good friends, only the best of times.

FOOD STAMP CHANGE

The new major Food Stamp program change (as a result of the Food Stamp Act of 1977) will no longer require Food Stamp recipients in the State to pay cash in order to get their Food Stamps beginning January 1, 1979.

Households who do not pay for their Food Stamps now, will NOT be affected by this change. Beginning January 1 when you turn in your Authorization to Participate (ATP) card at the food stamp Sales office, you will get the amount of stamps shown in the "You Get" box only. This amount will be the value of bonus stamps for which you are eligible, based on household size and the net income after allowable expenses are deducted from the gross income. For example, Household A has been paying $83 a month to get $170 in Food Stamps. Their "Bonus" or free stamps total $107. Under the new program Household A will pay nothing and will receive $107 in Food Stamp benefits. Should the households circumstances change, the number of bonus stamps will either decrease or increase.

Remember, the amount of Food Stamps you will receive may not be enough to cover your monthly food costs and you will need to set aside money to buy what extra food you may need. Also, beginning Jan. 1 you will receive only 1 A.T.P. each month.

The elimination of the purchase requirement is expected to make it easier for people who have not participated in the Food Stamp Program because they did not have enough money to purchase their monthly allotment of stamps.

If you wish to take advantage of this change or have questions, contact the Food Stamp Outreach Program at 994-1863 Washtenaw County Department of Social Services, to find out if you may be eligible.

Workers covered under the state's minimum wage law will receive a 25-cent hourly raise starting Jan. 1.

The increase from $2.65 to $2.90 an hour coincides with an identical change in the federal minimum wage which also goes into effect that day.

The minimum wage law also calls for increases to $3.10 an hour on Jan. 1, 1980 and $3.85 on Jan. 1, 1981.

State Labor Director Pat Babcock said employers who have four or more employees between the ages of 18 and 65 at any one time during the calendar year are covered by the state minimum wage law.

In April, 1979, minimum wage coverage will be reduced to cover employers with two or more employees 18 years or older.

Minors 16 and 17 years old employed in restaurants and stores where alcohol is sold or consumed on the premises also will receive the increase, he said. However, 50 percent of the gross receipts of these establishments must come from the sale of food or other goods.

Michigan farm workers also will receive the new hourly rate. A scale of piece-work rates for harvesting certain crops - equivalent to scheduled increases in the hourly rate - is expected to be established in time for the spring harvest.

Overtime pay requirements are unchanged. After 40 hours, overtime compensation at one and one-half times the regular rate is required.

A person working at minimum wage, 40 hours a week for 50 weeks, will get a $500 raise for a yearly income of $5,900 before taxes.

More information on minimum wage may be obtained from the Michigan Department of Labor, Wage Hour Division, 7150 Harris Dr., Box 30015, Lansing, Michigan 48909 telephone (517) 322-1712.

WHO'S MAINTAINING THE DOLLAR?

This time of year—and especially this year, lots of folks are approaching the Christmas season with mixed emotions. A dollar will not buy much anymore, so Christmas shopping has put a strain on many a pocketbook.

And, as one looks about in the stores, it seems that a great deal of what is offered is imported. All of those imported products mean that American dollars wound up in the hands of foreigners and not in the pockets of Americans. This huge flow of dollars out of the country has caused the Yankee dollar to be worth less and less in relation to other currencies and that makes imported products even more expensive to Americans. It's a gloomy picture.

But—whos doing something about it? Well, the President says he's got the plan—but time will prove whether or not it will be effective.

Meanwhile, one of the few bright spots is agriculture. Exports of U.S. farm commodities, mainly wheat, feed grains and soybeans, increased dramatically last year—both in dollar value and in volume.

The bounty of the American farm provided exports worth 27.3 billion dollars—up nearly 14 percent from the previous year. The volume of those exports is up 20 million tons or about 20 percent.

Those export sales of wheat, corn, maize and soybeans to China, Japan and the Soviet Union, to name just a few buyers, go a long way in balancing the trade deficit, thus helping to maintain the value of the dollar.

The credit goes to those farmers who, besides growing the least expensive food in the world, have pressed hard for the government to seek outlets for their products overseas and, in many cases, have negotiated directly with foreign nations to get them to buy more American farm produce.

And therein lies the answer to the question of "Whos maintaining the dollar?"

Symbolic Wishes At New Year

In Scotland, when friends come to call on New Year's Eve — it is known as Hogmanay or "first-footing." Wishes are symbolized in their offerings, such as a piece of coal wishing "a warm house." A loaf of bread expresses the wish for "a full larder" and an evergreen bough wishes "may you have a long life."

Swedish Glogg Mix Seasonal

In a bowl combine 1/2 cup golden raisins, 1/3 cup sugar, 1/4 cup blanched almonds, 12 cloves, 6 cardamom pods, and 2 sticks of cinnamon. Transfer the mixture to a glass canister or wrap it in clear plastic with festive ribboning. To make Swedish glogg: In a large heavy enamel saucepan combine Swedish glogg mix with 1-1/3 cups water and 2 long strips of orange peel. Bring the water to a boil over moderate heat, washing down any sugar crystals clinging to the sides of the pan with a brush dipped in cold water, and simmer the mixture for 5 minutes. Add 3 cups each of dry red wine and Tawny Port and bring the mixture to a boil over high heat. Remove the pan from the heat and let the mixture steep, covered, for at least 2 hours. Bring the mixture to a simmer, add 1 1/2 cups Cognac, and heat the glogg for 1 minute. Transfer the glogg to a warmed silver punch bowl, igniting the spirits, and ladle the flaming glogg into heated mugs. Makes about 12 servings.

New England INJUN PUDDING

An early favorite of old New England which has been handed down from generation to generation since colonial days is old Injun Pudding.

| 5 cups milk | 1 teaspoon cinnamon |
| 1/2 cup dark molasses | 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg |
| 1/4 cup granulated sugar | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1/4 cup yellow cornmeal | 4 tablespoons butter |

Heat 4 cups of milk and add molasses, sugar, cornmeal, salt, spice, and butter to it. Cook 20 minutes or until mixture thickens. Pour into baking dish, add remaining cold milk. Do not stir. Put into slow oven (325°F.) and bake for 1 1/2 hours without stirring. Serve warm with Hard Sauce. (This recipe good for a serving of 8.)

Would Knowing What Future Holds Be Very Helpful?

We think of the future as New Year's and resolve to do better than we have done in the past. However, maybe we are fortunate not to be able to perceive what the future holds for us. Nearly 2000 years ago Cicero expressed this thought — "For my part, I think that a knowledge of the future would be a disadvantage. Undoubtedly, ignorance of future life is more useful than knowledge of them." This does not mean we shouldn't plan for the future, but foreknowledge could become a burden if we anticipated the sorrows as well as the happiness that lie ahead for us each year. There is no reason, of course, why we should not reflect on the year that is ending and make plans for the future.

Warm greetings and our hope that you find much joy and great peace.

Next Leap Year Comes In 1993

Leap years come every four years except for the years which number a century, as 2000 will be. Leap years are necessary to keep the Gregorian calendar in time with the solar year. The solar year consists of 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes and 46 seconds. Leap years use up those extra hours and keep the Gregorian calendar accurate. The Gregorian calendar will remain accurate until 588 A.D.

Year's Pay Made Great Holiday

For a long time New Year's was of little significance in Norway, but eventually became a festive occasion and for a rather curious reason. Persons employed by the year, such as hired hands, received their year's pay on the last day of December. The first day with a year's pay in their pockets became a day of festivity — regardless of the day of the week on which it might fall.

Greetings

We hope each day of the New Year brings you happiness and success.

Make Resolutions? Be Reasonable

If you plan to make one or more resolutions for the New Year, be reasonable. A resolution you know you will not, or cannot, keep does little for self-confidence.

Make a resolution aimed at self-improvement, one which will not require a drastic change in habits or activities.

Here are four rules you might follow:

1. Don't resolve to do anything under the pressure of a calendar date or a friend's nudge to do "something to improve yourself."
2. Do take serious stock of your problems. Try to define the source of the trouble, not merely the symptom. If you are overweight and it is due to boredom or feeling sorry for yourself, solve the problem and weight loss will be easier. If necessary, get professional advice.
3. Once you have located the source of your difficulty, find out how important a change is to you. Is it a problem you can really put yourself into? If you are not convinced you really want to overcome a situation as a personal goal, your resolution probably will be worthless. Other people's prudence is a poor substitute for a personal commitment.
4. Finally, keep your goals reasonable. Many personal problems and just resolutions are results of unreasonable, unrealistic goals.

LOOKING BACK
Well, at least it is all over... And the New Year under way... The Christmas rush is memory now... Of a fond and happy day... Wouldn't it be wonderful... If we could keep the Holiday cheer... Around us in our lives... Throughout each day this year... If we could only keep in mind... The reason for those days... And thank God every night... For the love He sent our way... Why should it be just once a year... We feel the Holiday glow... Why should it be just once a year... We let the spirit show... I do not know the reason... These things could not come to be... Except perhaps two reasons... And those are you and me!

May you and your loved ones have a safe and joyous Holiday Season, a healthy and prosperous New Year. Like a good neighbor, State Farm is there.

A TOAST TO YOU: Chilling And Serving Wine

If wine is on your menu for holiday entertaining remember that:

White wines should be chilled three to four hours before serving; champagne needs four to five hours. Still or sparkling wines can be chilled in an ice bucket filled with ice and water; allow 45 minutes per bottle and rotate the bottles several times to chill evenly.

Figure on six 4-ounce servings per 4-5 quart bottle of dry table wines; slightly more servings from dessert and appetizer wines, for which a single serving is 2 1/2 to 3 ounces.

A 9-ounce capacity all purpose wine glass is appropriate for all kinds of still or sparkling wines. It should have a thin stem and a tulip-shaped bowl. Fill just over the halfway mark with table and sparkling wines; just under half with appetizer and dessert wines. Leftover wines should be stored in the refrigerator and used within a few days, either for drinking or cooking.

Keep a wine rack out of direct sunlight, away from heat and sharp temperature changes. Store corked bottles on their sides to keep the corks moist. Capped bottles can stand upright.

The good life that we have shared... the good friends who often come our way... These are the best of yesterday and the beautiful promise of tomorrow.

Festive Day In Scotland

The most elaborate festivities in Scotland are saved for HOGMANAY, or NEW YEAR'S. In some parts of Angus the old year is burned out with enormous bonfires around which the people dance. And at Stovehaven processions are held in which balls of flaming rope are swung about the ends of long cords. In Edinburgh, outside the Tron church crowds gather to wait for midnight. When the hour strikes, those in Highland dresses toss their bonnets into the air and dance reels to the wild music of bagpipes.

Iceland Celebrates

Gala balls, bonfires and fireworks... all a part of a cold country's warm welcome to the New Year. New Year's Eve is a time for family togetherness and the accent is on food rather than drink, although there is some toasting to the New Year. Lamb is plentiful in Iceland, and is the main feature of the dinner. Smoked leg of lamb is very special for the holidays. The usual accompaniments to the meat are sweet-sour red cabbage, boiled potatoes with cream sauce, peas and carrots, hard rolls or plain bread and butter. Not exotic foods but hearty.

Eight Sides To Everything
It's about 900 miles from the south of Scotland to the south of England, and when people make the trek on foot they usually start at the northernmost tip, in the village of John o' Groats.

John o' Groats was not always just the name of a place. It started off as the name of a person. His real name was John de Groat, and he was a Dutchman who settled in the north of Scotland. He had seven sons who quarreled over precedence.

So John de Groat had a house built in octagonal shape. On each of the eight sides he had a door put in so that he and his seven sons could each have a personal entrance. There was also an eight-sided dining room—and an eight-sided table.

It is not recorded whether this scheme of things worked, but the house remained an object of curiosity for many years. Today the John o' Groats Hotel stands at the site of the octagonal house. Teacher's South Information Centre can tell you there's nothing eight-sided about the hotel. But the small village of John o' Groats is a tourist attraction during the summer season and there is a big sale of post cards showing what this unusual house looked like.

END OF ANOTHER

Another year is ended, and it is time to discard any unpleasant memories and to save only the happy ones to take out and enjoy at quiet moments. And then to hope we may help bring more happiness to others during the years to come.

Happy Holiday

May the New Year bring you a world of joy and happiness.

Japan's Biggest Holiday Is First

The biggest celebration of the year in Japan is not Christmas, but New Year's. New Year's is the time when all debts are paid and business books are cleared. No Japanese wants to begin the New Year owing anything to anyone.

Toward the end of December, all Japanese houses are given a thorough cleaning to get ready for the New Year's celebration. Pine branches are fastened to the house gates and placed inside the homes on the family altars.

Special rice cakes, called mochi, are made for serving on New Year's Day. At midnight on the "Great Last Day", the temple bells sound out 108 strokes. This announces the passing of the old year and the beginning of a Happy New Year.

The Japanese dress in their best clothes and go calling on their friends on New Year's Day. Also, they make the rounds of their ancestral shrines to pay homage to the dead.

To Dream, To Plan, To Achieve

We come again to the New Year. Father Time hands to us a fresh, new slate, a period of days, weeks and months that are ours to do with as we choose.

We may resolve, we may carefully plan what we will do with this allotted time. How successful we will be shall depend upon how we pursue chosen objectives.

It is the nature of man to plan and to hope. We are seldom content with things the way they are. We want a better job, a better life, more leisure time. We even dream about the day when our "ship" will come in, or when Dame Fortune will smile upon us in some special way.

But, one thing we should know from the experience that has come our way in years past: success is never a matter of luck, or fate, or just "being in the right place at the right time". Success always is earned through initiative, through effort and, yes, through planning.

With these thoughts in mind, we can fashion a happy year in the months ahead. A good start is to be reasonable in expectations and firm in the resolve to strive, to earn, to achieve.

We hope the days ahead are kind to you in every way.

VILLAGE OF MANCHESTER

EPIPHANY AFTER THE NEW YEAR

Christmas really ends after the New Year has arrived. Twelfth Night or Epiphany—January 6—is the traditional end of the Christmas season.

Long before Christmas was observed on December 25, Epiphany was widely recognized as the time to observe the memory of the baptism of Jesus. Epiphany was mentioned as early as A.D. 194, was widely observed by the 4th century.

England's King Alfred decreed in the 9th century that the Christmas season would include Christmas and the 12 days thereafter. Charles II promoted the customs of the Twelfth Night cake and the burning of Christmas greenery.

In Syria some legends, like one from Syria, hold that wild animals remain in their caves on Epiphany Eve, that trees kneel in adoration at midnight.

Latin peoples consider Epiphany a solemn religious festival and the beginning of the pre-Lenten carnival season. In Mexico, Epiphany marks a pilgrimage of the devout to the shrine of the miraculous Lord of Chalma near Mexico City.

For many Christians, Epiphany has a threefold meaning: the visit of the Three Wise Men to Jesus; his baptism; and Jesus's changing of water to wine, the first miracle at Cana. Supposedly, the events occurred on the same date, though in different years. The Greek meaning of Epiphany is "appearance."

EGGNOG is a must

The eggnog party is especially traditional for New Year's Day, and a welcome treat all through the winter season. One thing about an eggnog party — you don't have to worry about what to have to drink. Your guests are coming for the eggnog and you can expend all your efforts to making it as good as your taste dictates. A good eggnog tastes even better when accompanied by sandwiches with a zingy taste.

Eggnog, it has been said, was probably originated by some inspired English physician or housewife as a builder-upper for frail anemic children. It is delicious as well as filling and strengthening, and it is no wonder that it emerged from the nursery into the social scene with the addition of bourbon and other liquors as an English holiday drink.

RESOLVE: Blood for Life

Volunteer blood donations always plunge to a very low level during the holidays. The downtrend is acute because we're so busy with activities outside our normal routine and simply do not schedule ourselves to donate blood.

The Red Cross blood program suffers a below demand shortage which results in postponement of all but the most urgent surgery needs, and at a time when the accident rate is skyrocketing. To combat the shortage the American Red Cross intensifies their program of collections in communities, and hopefully prevent dangerous emergencies.

Meanwhile, it is time for us to check ourselves on what we can do.

Resolve to make a gift of your blood and get a friend (between ages 18 and 66) to go with you to contribute, too. Check the last time you donated, and, if you're eligible, donate now.

While you're at it, join a blood "bank account" for your own—or dear one's use whenever needed. You could save a life — You could also save thousands of dollars in a future emergency.

A New Year 1979

The beginning of a New Year is a season of optimism. It is the nature of mankind to hope and plan and the calendar change gives most of us a reason to believe that things will be "better" during the days ahead.

Many economists tell us that 1979 will be something of an "up-turn" year. Let us hope so — yet we must remember that good luck and good fortune do not smile upon individuals at random. It is necessary to have more than a dream. Success during the year ahead will come to those who have a plan; who put forth an effort to achieve, to do things in a better, more effective way than during the period that is now ending.

We can fashion a better year, beginning now with an honest appraisal of who and what we are, where we shall put our useful efforts.

With effort, and reasonable expectations, it could be a very good year.

May you have a happy holiday, with the best of days yet to come.

Food Traditions At New Year

Traditionally, the New Year observance is associated with certain foods. The American Indians served acorns and salmon; the Romans honey. In Quebec, the traditional cake, Le Cateau des Rois, is served on Epiphany. The cake contains a pea and a bean and the king and queen of Twelfth Night are elected by those receiving them.

Scottish celebrators carry cakes and spiced ale to wish their host a good year. Rice cakes are served in Ceylon.

And, of course, in many sections of this country, serving black-eyed peas on January 1st is believed to assure good fortune to family and friends.

IT'S TRADITION!

Ringing in the new year with friends is as traditional as the times square crowd counting down the minutes to midnight.

A TOAST
The word "wassail" is Anglo-Saxon and means "be well". Our modern practice of "drinking a toast" was derived from the custom of drinking wassail. Contrary to what many may think, the wassail was not a real blazer with brandy or whiskey base. Actually, it was nothing more than good old English ale, to which were added beaten eggs, and a custardy mixture flavored with nutmeg and sugar. Atop the wassail bowl, as a final touch, were floated pieces of toast, and these ale-soaked and soggy morsels were considered prized taste treats.

GOOD LUCK IN '79

Loads of good wishes for a very happy year.

Turn of the Year Can Be Important

In spite of our heritage, we make very little of the turn of the year. The vague feeling remains that it is an occasion to be recognized, the sense that it is a time when people should get together, as families do to celebrate a birthday. Just because it is a holiday that once focused men's deep emotions about the past and the future and the continuity of time, the New Year may again become important with meaning. A world society that must take into account the lingering traditions of all people may come to observe it as a day in which humanity can celebrate a common birthday in time.

Happy New Year

May every hour be your happiest one.

Black-Eyed Peas And Superstition

Though the reason is obscure, it is a tradition in the South to eat black-eyed peas and rice on New Year's Day — for good luck. One source says the Romans associated the spots, or eyes, with death and used the beans as a sacrifice. The origin of the superstition hardly explains the name given to the dish in the South — Hopping John.

You may not believe in Hopping John's ability to bring luck but it's ability to satisfy hungry families or guests make it worth a try at any time of the year. A recipe for HOPPING JOHN follows:

1 cup dried black-eyed peas
¼ pound smoked bacon or salt pork, diced
1 red pepper pod, crumbled
3 cups cooked rice
1 onion, chopped
Salt and pepper to taste
Cover peas with water; soak overnight. Next day, add more water along with the onion, salt pork or bacon and red pepper and simmer until tender, about 1½ hours. Stir in rice, heat thoroughly and serve.

Resolve Now For Next Year

Thinking ahead throughout the year can earn time for you to enjoy the holidays as well as save money.

Carry a little Christmas notebook and jot down the wishes you hear family or friends speak of wanting. Usually these wishes are forgotten by Christmas time, yet those gifts are the ones that say you remembered.

Start a box marked "Christmas 1979" — and once you get one item in it you'll feel the satisfaction of a gift in hand and be reminded to add to it.

With your budget in mind, watch the sales throughout the year and don't overlook the sales on Christmas cards and wrappings that start the day after Christmas. They are often half price or less — this will save you time as well as money. Cards can be addressed and packages wrapped early. You spend much more if you do all of your buying at the last minute so avoid pre-holiday rush and panic.

In ancient China New Year's was a 15 day holiday. Celebrations began on the first day of the first moon and ended on "Teng Chieh", The Feast of the Lanterns.

Your Daily Working 5 1/4% Account

Here's what it can do for you...

With all the recent emphasis on high interest rates for investment certificates, you may be overlooking a very important family financial tool...the 5 1/4% per annum passbook savings account.

This is your "daily working" savings account. It earns daily interest - from day of deposit to day of withdrawal. The money is always available, so you use this account to accumulate dollars, take them out when you need to pay a medical bill, a repair bill, taxes, a trip. It's about as convenient as a wallet, but your money is earning a good return every day it is on deposit and it is safely insured with an agency of the federal government.

A bonus feature is that by maintaining a balance of $1000 or more in savings you are entitled to all of the travelers checks and money orders you can use. No charge.

So invest all the money you can in our top interest paying certificate accounts for long term requirements, but for day to day needs and emergencies keep a healthy balance in a 5 1/4% daily working account where it will be immediately available and earn a good return

December 21 and 28

We're ringing the curtain down on 1978.

I guess this time of year is the perfect time to reflect on what accomplishments one can chalk up on the right side and what disappointments one must put on the other side of the ledger.

The right side of the ledger is the winner this year.

We greeted more new customers than we had old customers move away. We paid more interest on savings than ever before and made more loans than ever before.

We helped more families over financial hurdles and more businesses to make a profit than ever before.

1978 was a good year. Inflation cut into us just as it did you.

By offering more service, by being as helpful in every possible manner, we managed to offset the worst inflation problems.

We'll keep right on giving the utmost in service, making this bank as attractive as possible to the new customers as well as to our old customers.

We'll keep on just being us, but a bit more so.

Bob Dierson

PUBLIC MEETING

The Michigan Department of Transportation will have representatives present at a public meeting from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m., Thursday, February 1, 1979 in the Sharon Township Hall, corner of Sylvan and Pleasant Lake Road, Manchester, Michigan.

The purpose of this meeting is to provide the opportunity for the public to drop in and discuss future improvements to M-52 from I-94 south to Pleasant Lake Road, in Sylvan and Sharon Townships.

It is the intent of the department not only to invite, but also to encourage citizen involvement and participation in the M-52 Study. It must be stressed that this is not a public hearing of the recommended highway improvements, as there have been none selected. The purpose of the meeting is to gain input, at the earliest stage of the study, from local residents and to stimulate communication and cooperation.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting: Jack E. Morgan, Manager, Public Involvement Section, Michigan Department of Transportation, P.O. Box 30050, Lansing, Michigan 48909.

In addition, information on this project, or any Michigan Department of Transportation Planning Project may be obtained by calling toll-free 1-800-292-9576.
