

Are You Trying To Cut Energy Cost?

Plants can be tremendous allies in the war against high energy bills. In Landscaping Your Home: A Functional Approach, a series of four garden-by-mail lessons you can learn how to put your plants to work for you. Each issue will teach you how to alter or control one facet of the environment. Lessons cover Wind, Noise, Sun, and Erosion. Issues will come out every two weeks starting in late February. All four lessons are available to you for only $2.50. Send your checks or money orders made out to Washtenaw County Cooperative Extension Service (no cash please). Our address is: Landscape, Cooperative Extension Service, P.O. Box 8645, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48107.

DIAL A GARDEN

Dial-a-Garden, the system of pre-recorded daily gardening tips is sponsored by the Washtenaw County Cooperative

In days gone by, the "Wish Book" was the mail order company catalog. Today, the world is a "Wish Book" in itself.

Our neighbor drives home a new car, we wish we had one, too. A friend flies to Florida to escape the cold, we wish we could also soak up a little warm weather. A young couple has the down payment for a new home, we wish we had the money.

Yes, wish... wish... wish. That's what makes progress in this world of ours.

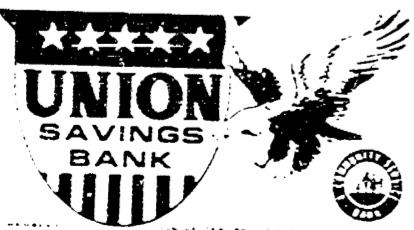

What makes progress speed up a bit is having the funds to do those things we now only wish we could do.

Attaining the necessary funds usually calls for a bit of effort on our part...like maintaining a savings program.

A modest beginning, say $10 and the addition of at least $5 every payday, soon begins building an impressive figure, particularly when the interest we pay on savings is added.

So, move a bit closer to realizing those wishes, drop a ten spot in a savings account. You can even call the savings passbook your wish book.

Extension Service. The system is in operation 24 hours per day, 7 days per week. Interested persons are invited to call 971-1122 at their convenience and receive timely, up to date gardening information.

Next weeks Dial-a-Garden topics are: Friday, February 2-Growing Celery. Monday, February 5-Book Review - "Guides to Trees" Tuesday, February 6-Houseplant Pest Series - Spider Mites and Thrips. Wednesday, February 7-Scales and Mealybugs. Thursday, February 8-Whiteflies and Springtails.

I look for trouble- and sometimes the trouble is no insulation.

I'm a Consumers Power gas serviceman, and it's my job to troubleshoot. If people smell gas in their homes, they call me and I get there fast.

But sometimes while I'm working in a customer's home, I find more trouble—like no insulation.

Customers really can't afford to pay for all the natural gas it's costing them by not insulating. Over the long winter, insulation doesn't cost money—it saves money and scarce energy. Believe me, I know. I get a gas bill at my home every month just like you.

We trekked to the home of the Hudson Tiger's and on their parents night they came away victorious, 71-58. It's only a matter of time for the Dutchmen to bust out of their losing streak (now 8) because what they lack they make up elsewhere—once it's together, look out. The only problem is the season is nearing a close. In this contest we had 8 players dress and all saw floor time with everyone scoring. On the other hand Hudson had 14 members and all saw action with 12 tallying. Unfortunately the first battle of the night went easily to the Little Tigers.

IN RETROSPECT

While listening to almost daily discussions about taxes, we were reminded about the "head tax" of the 1830's in Michigan. How many of you remember it?

I don't remember its exact provisions but if I remember correctly everyone was to be required to pay a $2.00 tax when they registered to vote. In those days $2.00 would buy something and the amount thus collected would provide quite a sum for some worthy (?) purpose. This manner of tax had been in vogue in quite a few southern states for some time. I think it was casically supposed to keep the negroes and the "poor white trash" from voting as they had a great many other uses for their $2.00 than to be able to vote for a handpicked slate of candidates for public office.

A group of our supposedly intelligent legislators decided that this would be a painless way to provide some money for them, but the average individual thought that the privilege of voting was everyone's and that one shouldn't pay for the privilege. However the law as passed provided that this tax be paid on or before a certain date or the ones that hadn't would be tossed in jail.

Despite this threat the average individual just ignored the law and proceeded to do nothing. I don't remember that there was any highly organized protest, folks just didn't pay.

As the final date for payment approached just nothing happened although the threat was restated that those who didn't pay were going to jail. We remember that several of us sat talking about this one day and we added up about how many Manchesterites hadn't paid up and we projected this percentage to cover the entire county and state and quickly decided that in order to care for this multitude after that had been incarcerated, they would have to assemble a great many of the inhabitants of the neighboring states to guard, feed and otherwise care for their many prisoners.

So eventually the last day came quietly and peacefully, and I can't remember that much of anything was said or done about it then or later. I don't remember whether or Hudson was seeking revenge as the only league game to fall in our win column was at the expense of the Tigers. Oddly enough we controlled the opening tip and for the first 4 minutes the score see-sawed. They finally broke up 4 but we came roaring back to enter the second stanza knotted at 13.

In the past games this season, we have had a tendency to falter pointwise in some periods, several times it has been the second. Well, it turned out to be our crutch again as we just couldn't get that leather to drop through the hoop. Tom Malcolm teed the line at 3:38 to hit for one point, scoreboard read 27-14. Again we witnessed Tom sinking a free throw at 1:42 to total us at 15. With under forty seconds till half Bob

WCC Children's Theater

Children in the community as well as their parents and friends are invited to attend the special evening performance of Washtenaw Community College's Children Theater group on Friday, February 16 at 7:00 p.m. at the College.

This season's play, "The Magic Ribbon," is an original drama written by WCC drama instructor Dr. William Devereaux. The whimsy is a portrayal of toys coming alive in a store one night as they get ready for the inspector general's check the next day. He is to announce the best toy store in the land following his inspection.

Following the performance for which tickets are 50 cents, refreshments will be served. The play will be given in the Second Floor Reception area of the College's Student Center Building at 4800 East Huron River Drive. Tickets may be purchased at the door or may be reserved by phoning 973-3625.

Dr. Devereaux's theater group is also available for performances away from the College. Last year more than 5,000 children from area elementary schools and in local hospitals were entertained by the WCC group.

SHOPPING IN SEED CATALOGS

If you have not already done so, it is time to order this year's stock of seed catalogs. Whether you are a veteran or a newcomer to "armchair shopping" for plant materials, you will probably benefit if you remember these few points while shopping. First, don't be taken in by beautiful pictures and fancy illustrations. Order only what you need and can take care of. When selecting your plants, be sure that they will grow successfully in your climate. Most catalogs will contain some hardiness maps which can be very helpful.

Compare prices between several catalogs. What may seem like a bargain price may not be if you are charged higher postage and handling charges or other fees. The distance from the company to you will be an important factor in determining the postage and handling charges so take this into consideration when ordering. In some cases the company may not charge for the service but this may be recovered by charging higher prices for their product.

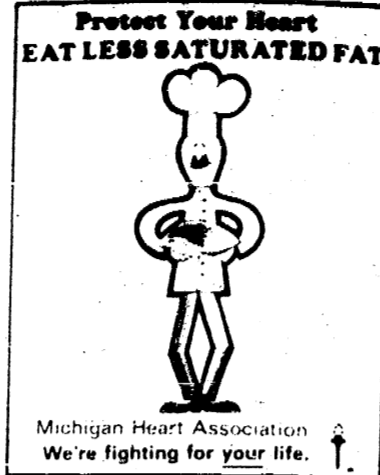

When purchasing seeds, look for varieties that exhibit resistance to common diseases found in your area. Many older varieties exhibit little if any resistance to diseases but, people continue to plant many of them religiously. This year plant a few old favorites and try a few new disease resistant varieties.

In most catalogs a few plants will be designated "All America Selection." This is an honor awarded to new varieties that have undergone extensive testing in test gardens around the country to determine their suitability to various climates and their overall qualities. During the testing procedure, percentage of seed germination under various conditions is noted along with plant hardiness, rate of growth, flower size, color, and a host of other factors are considered. Generally speaking, an All American Selection is considered to be of the highest quality but, again these varieties are developed for a particular climate and may not grow as well if planted in other than the suggested areas.

Many companies will guarantee their plant materials up to a year after purchase. Be sure and compare the terms and by all means, save the sales receipt. Some companies put some limitations on their warranties. It would be wise to study them, although in some catalogs it takes a lawyer to understand them.

Order your materials early. Seeds can and should be ordered as soon as possible especially if you're going to order popular varieties. If you're going to purchase transplants, take note of the company's policy. Some companies will want orders in so many weeks ahead of time in order to guarantee delivery at a certain date. When a particular plant is out of stock some companies will automatically send a substitute that is similar. Be sure to check the company's policy on this. If you have any further questions concerning the subject feel free to call the Cooperative Extension Service at 973-9510.

SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village and had not recorded such removal with the local Clerk shall execute a transfer of registration request, listing the new residence address thereon over his signature, with the election board in the precinct in which he is registered at the next ensuing primary or election. The inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and, if the signatures correspond, then the inspector shall certify such fact by affixing his initials upon said request. The applicant for transfer, after having signed an application to vote as provided in Section 323 of this act, shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that primary or election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

It really doesn't take a genius to keep a checking account balanced.

All that is necessary is the little bit of effort it takes to check your figures against ours immediately on receipt of your checking account statement.

Now, if you are in the habit of writing checks for a dollar or two, balancing your checkbook becomes a bit more difficult. But not impossible.

When a person is in deep trouble attempting to strike a balance that compares to the bank's figure, it usually means the job has been long neglected.

If you are one of those who are afraid to own a checking account because of the figuring, you probably need a checking account more than anyone else. You need a better record of what you are doing with your money.

Stop in, myself or one of our other people will be happy to show you how really easy it is to maintain a checking account.

You're not a dummy and you shouldn't think of yourself as one.

BEYOND THE CROSS

The Christians of Communist lands are sending a message to the Church in the West... a message of suffering and pain. However it is also a message of triumph and victorious Christian growth as the Church under Communist oppression risks life to worship, to fellowship, and to receive the Word of God.

This message is graphically portrayed in BEYOND THE CROSS—a newly released film produced by Underground Evangelism, a missionary outreach based in Los Angeles, California.

BEYOND THE CROSS was filmed over the past several years. Many of the scenes were actually filmed by the persecuted Church inside the Soviet Union.

BEYOND THE CROSS is a stirring documentary of the heart-rending story of Ivan Moseyev, a young Russian who was cruelly murdered for his faith. Scenes of Christian leaders being reunited with their families only moments after being released from prison; interviews with exiled believers confined to the barren, frigid wastelands of Siberia—you will witness it all in BEYOND THE CROSS.

You are invited to attend a showing of this factual film at Victory Baptist Church on February 11, 1979, at 6 p.m.

Plan now to see and hear this revealing message that the Church in Soviet Russia filmed at great risk.

Council Proceedings

January 15, 1979

Council met in regular session with the meeting called to order at 7:25 P.M. by President Schaffer. Present were Althouse, DuRussel, Fitzgerald, Koebbe, Hinkley, Daniels, Zsenyuk. Minutes from the January 8, 1979 regular meeting were read and approved as corrected in a motion by DuRussel, seconded by Koebbe. All yeas, motion carried.

Public Works Activities as reported by Daniels included: Plowing and picking up snow; Pond had been iced; Water meters had been read, with the exception of 45 and there would be call backs; Meter had been installed in Bauerstube Restaurant; Christmas trees had been picked up and burned; Loader is down, pressure part on grader broken. Some residents have been plowing driveways and pushing snow into the streets which is a hazard and illegal according to State Law.

Zsenyuk reported the area which now has a 2 hour parking limit on Clinton Street has been cleaned up, cars which were in violation have been towed away. Chief Zsenyuk will place a notice in the Manchester Enterprise informing residents of State Law concerning plowing snow onto Streets. New issuing tickets have been ordered.

Enter Althouse at 7:50 P.M.
 Hinkley reported he had measured the ground floor level of the Village Hall and that there was 1400 square feet of space which was usable, 600 square feet used for Clerk's Office and President, remainder for Police Dept. He also requested legal descriptions of Parks and he will be studying the parcel of land given to the Village at Carr Park.

DuRussel reported the locks on the doors at the Black Sheep Tavern had been checked. They are ordering new locks and panic bars are to be installed. A period of two weeks time was given to correct situation. A resident has been notified of a drain which is dumping water on a hillside in Village.

IN RETROSPECT

not the law was repealed but I suppose it was.

Maybe our present tax problems could be settled in this same quiet, peaceful economical way. Perhaps there is a lesson here for us of today. This action or inaction demonstrated a force that it was impossible to overcome and so it didn't happen. There was no pain nor strain and no one was hurt in the process except the pride of a few misguided legislators.

IT'S NOT FUNNY!

If it wasn't so absurd and wasteful, there could be humor in the inefficiencies, discrepancies and duplications of big government.

A relatively new publication called Conservative Digest contains a section on "Bureaucratic Blunders." In one recent issue, the Digest reported that Government Services Administration employees aren't the only ones scoffing at the law. For example, they report that two former senators and 10 representatives have left office with unpaid phone bills, and one of them totals over $8,000!

And in California, where they have post card voter registration, one candidate registered his cat—successfully—and is now charging fraud in the system. Our full-blown bureaucracy also funds studies—like $2500 to find out if fat people prefer all-you-can-eat smorgasbords or ordering from a menu. And they spent more than $2300 to fund a study on the sex life of the Costa Rican crickets. But, that's just peanuts! It cost $100,000 dollars to find out why hermit crabs pick one shell over another. Yes, if it wasn't hard-earned dollars paying for it, big government could be very funny.

But, when we look at our paycheck stubs and see government's share of the dollars we worked for...we don't laugh; it isn't funny at all....

Ralph E. Maten and Arnold W. Loyd co-chairmen of this year's sale, are confident that this year's sale will be the "best ever" and the selections of merchandise feature everything from furniture, appliances, antiques and television sets in the basement to draperies, handbags, and white goods on the top floor. All three floors of the building will be used for the sale and the entire event will be dedicated to the memory of Dean Bolgos, a prominent Kiwanian who passed away recently and who had worked many hours on previous sales.

More than 170 Kiwanians and their families staff the sale. All proceeds are used for the more than 100 projects, expenses, spent by the club, for the ensuing year. Chief recipient is the Hospital School at the C.S. Mott's Children's Hospital, with additional funds going to 4-H sponsorship, camperships, kid baseball and hockey, Boy Scout and Girl Scout work, underprivileged and crippled children's work, drug abuse education, hearing aids for the deaf, learn-to-swim program at the YMCA and many other projects for children and senior citizens.

Large donations have also been given in the past to Spaulding-For-Children, the YM-YWCA Building fund, the AA Public Library Bookmobile, currently a pledge of $15,000 to the new Salvation Army building and outfitting the Ashley Clague room at the Mott Hospital.

The co-chairmen hope that $40,000 can be raised from the 3-day event. Hours will be 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Thursday, noon to 8 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday. A snack bar will be open on the second floor all during the sale with light lunches being served. No pick-ups of merchandise will be made after Wednesday of sale week and pick-ups for next year's sale will resume again about March 7th.

Transact Social Security Business by Phone

The social security office can be a crowded place at times. People who require the services of the social security office often find they are waiting in the office longer than is convenient.

To avoid waiting in line at the Ann Arbor social security office, try calling first. If you simply have a question, by phoning you can have an answer in minutes and save yourself a trip. If you wish to file a claim for benefits, you can also do this by phone. When you call, state what type of benefit you wish to apply for. You will be asked your name, phone number, and a few other basic questions. A representative will call you back within a few days and complete your application by phone. The application then will be mailed to you for your signature with instructions for you to return it with any necessary proofs.

The teleservice phone number to call is 994-3310. Many people find that conducting their business by phone is most convenient. The next time you are thinking of visiting the social security office, consider phoning first. It may well save you the time and expense of driving and parking, and eliminate a possible wait in the office.

The equipment will be furnished by the ski clinic at no cost to participants. Activities at the clinic will include an explanation of proper sizing and fitting of equipment, demonstration of techniques, games and free skiing.

The clinic is sponsored by the Washtenaw County Parks and Recreation Commission and will be held at West Middle School, 105 N. Mansfield, Ypsilanti, on Thursday, February 22, from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. and 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. No pre-registration is necessary. Multiple Sclerosis Read-A-Thon Comes To Town

Rick Leach

Ed Smith

The kickoff of the MS READ-a-thon, a program designed to help young people read while helping others, started Monday, February 5th in Washtenaw County. Schools in the Manchester district will be among nearly 700 schools in 32 counties statewide participating in this unique reading motivational program.

Entire communities benefit from the MS READ-a-thon program. Children benefit through improved skills, a broader vocabulary and greater enjoyment of reading, as parents can watch their children's world grow through books. The school is enhanced by a program which motivates students to read at no cost to the district, while teachers and librarians have a proven educational tool at their disposal. Finally, the more than 11,000 Michigan MS patients are helped by the proceeds used for research and patient services.

Because of the program's educational value, the MS READ-a-thon has gained the enthusiastic support of the International Reading Association and the U.S. Office of Education, as well as thousands of school superintendents, principals, teachers, librarians and children who have participated in the past.

The program operates like a bike-a-thon or walk-a-thon. Registration for the program is conducted following school assemblies in which the program is explained to students. Students secure pledges for each book they read throughout February and March. Money contributed to the READ-a-thon is used for research into the mysterious cause of MS and local patient services in the state.

MS cripples young adults by scarring the spinal cord, thereby blocking signals from the brain to the body. Its victims are usually between the ages of 20 and 40, and live in cold, damp climates. Michigan has the largest number of reported MS victims in the United States.

The children are motivated to read for two reasons. First is the idea of helping others through their efforts. They truly enjoy reading for the need of others in the READ-a-thon program.

Another motivating factor is that prizes can be earned by participating in the program. Readers will be awarded a MS READ-a-thon certificate and a coupon inviting them to "Be Our Guest" at McDonald's. Other enthusiastic contestants will be eligible for a drawing for over 1500 prizes including ten-speed bicycles, footballs, cameras, books, T-shirts and more.

Rick Leach, of the Michigan Wolverines, and Ed Smith, of the Michigan State Spartans, will coach thousands of children, ages 8-14, in a big play against multiple sclerosis this spring who are Co-Chairmen for the Michigan MS Chapter and will appear on T.V. & radio stations to promote the MS READ-a-thon program.

Smith, an advertising major who plans to graduate from MSU in June, has joined the program to help in the battle against MS. He was voted Most Valuable Player on the 1978 Spartan team, 1976 All-Big Ten Q.B. by the Chicago Tribune and Sports Illustrated Player of the Week. Smith also holds every MSU passing record and the Big Ten record for most touchdown passes, among his many accomplishments.

Leach, the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player for 1978, is a physical education major at U of M. He holds the all-time Big Ten record for total offense, the NCAA record for career touchdowns and has been voted second team All-American by both the UPI & AP. In addition, Chevrolet voted Leach 1978 Offensive Player of the Year.

Besides appearing in television and radio public service announcements promoting the program, they will also be featured at the MS READ-a-thon "Dinner of Champions" with selected READ-a-thon participants from every district across the state. Our two champions, Rick Leach and Ed Smith are a key to the 1979 MS READ-a-thon's success through their dedicated involvement.

Weirich hit to give us 17 for the period. As the third period came, the Tigers rolled to a 20 plus point lead when the Dutch started to cut it down some.

We again got off on the right foot as we captured the tip. As we called time after 3 minutes we'd trimmed it to 13-1 I thought "a few steals leading to buckets". I guess Hudson read my mind as they stole twice and scored to be up 18. It seemed to go from 18 to 13 several times before the horn sounded with the Tigers atop, 71-58.

We all popped for points but Nick Krzyzaniak led with 12 as Steve Melcher trailed with 10.

In the Hudson game Manchester defeated the Tigers in 2 games to 1. The scores were 15-11, 8-15, 15-2.

The Junior Varsity also defeated the Hudson Tigers.

When Dundee came to town Manchester came away the victors once again. The Dutch defeated the Vikings in only 2 games, 15-11, 15-7.

The J.V. girls also came away once again with a victory over Dundee.

Manchester traveled to Blissfield Monday night coming home with a victory. Blissfield had not yet been beaten, but the Dutch put an end to the Royals streak defeating them in only 2 games, 15-7 and 15-11.

Household Humidity in Houseplants

During the winter months the relative humidity or amount of moisture present in the air is usually quite low. (Five to twenty percent.) This can make life quite difficult for many plants. Most plants will do well with the relative humidity between 30 and 60% but, when it drops below 20% plants will exhibit browning of the leaf tips and margins. In extreme cases, lower leaves may turn yellow and drop off. Low humidity coupled with warm temperatures is the perfect invitation for spider mites which is one of the most difficult houseplant pests to get rid of. If unchecked, spidermites can severely stunt the growth of your plants. If untreated, many may die.

There are a number of ways to raise the humidity in the home. The best way is to add a humidifier to your heating system but this can be quite expensive. By lowering room temperature, the moisture in the air will increase but, below 60 degree F, many plants may suffer from chilling injury. Grouping plants close together or placing them in trays filled with pebbles with some water added will raise the humidity at least around the plants.

Misting once or twice daily may help the situation temporarily, but certain fungus diseases such as powdery mildew and damping off can spread rapidly through plants grouped closely together.

Placing plants in high humidity areas such as bathrooms and kitchens will help but be sure that there is an adequate light source. For more information concerning this article or any other houseplant topic, please call the Washtenaw County Co-operative Extension at 973-9510.

Plan Now To Make Landscape Changes

The middle of winter is not the best time to make changes in the landscape—but it's an excellent time to plan them.

Gary Heilig, Washtenaw County Horticultural Agent at large, suggests that now is a good time to observe where snowdrifts form. If drifts consistently block driveways, walks and doors, you might want to consider adding or removing landscape plants or structures to deflect winter winds so they drop their snow burden elsewhere.

"Winds drop snow when something slows them down," he explains. "Adding or removing hedges, fences and other objects can make a difference in the amount of snow you have to move to get out of your driveway."

Knowing where snowdrifts form and where snow slides off roofs can help you plan the addition of plants to the landscape. Heilig notes, Boxwood, yew and other evergreens that can be damaged by a heavy load of snow should be planted where drifts and avalanches are not a threat. Forsythia, on the other hand, which benefits from being tucked into a snowdrift—the snow keeps its flower buds from freezing—might do very well in a snow picket with adequate protection against snow-load breakage.

Winter offers a unique opportunity to study the seasonal circulation patterns in your home grounds, Heilig suggests. Footprints in the snow will reveal the paths family members usually take. Studying these paths may reveal changes that need to be made to make the movement of people and vehicles more efficient.

Observing other people's home grounds may give you some ideas on how to add interest to your own winter landscape. Heilig says. Keep an eye out for shrubs with fruits that attract birds, he suggests. Watch for plants with attractive silhouettes, fruits, year-round foliage, unusual bark or other features that would make them a point of interest in your winter landscape.

Plan landscape changes, Heilig advises on paper, so you don't forget what you want to do in spring or summer. Decide, too, what plants you want to add. Then you'll know what you need and where you want to put it when planting time comes.

HOME ENERGY CONSULTANT

DIALING DOWN!
Keeping warm takes energy...lots of it. Heating is by far the largest single energy user in Michigan homes. Fortunately, there are many ways to save on heating energy - simple practices that don't cost money. For example, you can save by moving your index finger an inch or so. Use that finger to turn down the thermostat. Try turning the thermostat down two degrees every other day until you find the lowest temperature at which you can be comfortable. Then consistently maintain that lower temperature. If you permanently dial down one degree, you can save about three percent of your annual heating energy usage; dial down five degrees and save approximately 15 percent. At night reduce the thermostat setting a few more degrees or down to the lowest setting that provides a reasonable degree of comfort.

"I am a lawyer, self employed. My KEOGH retirement plan at Great Lakes Federal will provide $225,899 when I retire in 15 years."

Ms. Ethelyn Carver is a self-employed lawyer who has earned income that puts her into the 50% tax bracket.

Because Ms. Carver wanted to keep as much of her income as possible, while planning for her retirement years, she opened a KEOGH tax deferred retirement account. She found that she could contribute 15% of her income, up to a maximum of $7,500 each year and deduct this amount from her taxable income.

She will have accumulated $225,899 in her KEOGH account when she retires in 15 years. Because she qualifies for the maximum contribution, she will have reduced her taxable income each year by $7,500. In an account of investment that was being reduced by taxes, she would only have $78,804.

If you are self-employed you too can deposit up to 15% of your income, maximum $7,500, in a tax deferred KEOGH retirement account. This amount can be deducted from your current taxable income and you do not pay taxes on it until you start making withdrawals after age 59 1/2 at which time you will probably be in a lower tax bracket.

Your KEOGH account can earn the high interest rate of 8% per annum. Interest is compounded monthly and paid quarterly for an effective annual rate of 8.30%. At this rate your money doubles in approximately 8 years and 8 months. Minimum term 36 months.

With your account you receive a Retirement Account card which you can use when making deposits to your account and which entitles you to Travelers Checks and Money Orders free of charge. At the end of March, June, September, and December you receive a detailed statement which describes each deposit to your account.

YOU STILL HAVE TIME TO CUT YOUR 1978 INCOME TAX
If you now have a KEOGH account and have not deposited up to your maximum you have up to April 15, 1979 to make your full 1978 contribution.

Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawals.

The name and profession of the person in this ad is fictitious and solely an example of the benefits of a retirement account at Great Lakes Federal Savings.

Savings will be more than one percent for every degree dialed down for an eight-hour period each night. For example, a five-degree additional night setback will reduce fuel consumption by approximately seven percent annually.

For additional savings, when on winter vacation or away from home for a long weekend, dial down to 55 degrees. In fact, anytime you're away from home for five hours or more, dial down and save. The beauty of dialing down is that it is as simple as tickling. If you have a forgetful finger, you may want to install an automatic setback thermostat to help you realize these savings.

Other simple, expense-free measures include closing doors and closing off unoccupied rooms. Pull shades and close drapes in the evening. On sunny days, let the sunshine in, for even that midwinter sun gives warmth, and remember the coldest days are usually the sunniest. Check to make sure that your furniture or drapes do not obstruct the movement of air from heat registers and cold air returns. Be sure all dampers close properly on your clothes dryer vent, range hood and bathroom ventilating fans. When the fireplace isn't in use, make sure the damper is closed and fits tightly.

Other things to do require some expense but they will more than pay for themselves in fuel savings. Storm windows and storm doors should cover all single-pane glass windows and doors in the house. Or less expensive do-it-yourself kits are available that cover windows with rigid clear plastic. Even less expensive is making your own kits by purchasing the clear plastic in rolls. Check for drafts around doors. Doors leading outside or doors to unheated areas need to be properly weatherstripped. A 1/8-inch crack around a standard door frame can be responsible for the loss of as much heat as a hole having the diameter the size of a grapefruit. A humidifier can save energy because proper humidity in the air makes you feel more comfortable with less heat.

"CHICKEN SOUP FOR COLDS"

Mothers have known it for decades, maybe centuries. Now researchers are finding that chicken soup really can help cure a cold. Hot fluids loosen up clogged nasal passages and increase the movement of mucus. But chicken soup does something special. Whether that something is in the aroma or taste isn't clear yet.

In a study with 15 volunteers, Marvin A. Sackner, M.D., director of medical services at Mount Sinai Medical Center in Miami Beach-tested the effects of hot chicken soup as well as hot and cold water. Sipping hot water increased the speed of mucus moving through the nose. But chicken soup caused the mucus to move even faster than did the hot water. Drinking cold water reduced the movement; even after half an hour the rate of mucus movement was not back to normal levels.

The same fluids were also sipped through straws from covered containers. Hot water had little effect; but the hot chicken soup still made the mucus move faster.

According to Dr. Sackner, who is president-elect of the American Thoracic Society, the medical section of the American Lung Association, movement of mucus is one of the body's lines of defense against dirt and infection. A sheet of mucus moves continuously along the linings of the nose as well as in the air passages of the lungs. The mucus deposits dirt and germs in the throat, where they can be spit out or swallowed into the digestive system and rendered less harmful. Coughing helps clear out the passages below the throat; and sneezing clears those above.

Little Dutch Split--

JV Basketball--T.J. Thomas's style, he hit for 15 pts. Tuesday. Photo by Jon Hardenbergh

BY Jon Hardenbergh
Last Tuesday, something different occurred—a win. Not downgrading anyone, but victories have been few and far between for our roundballers this season. Our JV's did down Napoleon ending a 4 game losing streak while the Varsity fought from plus 10 behind to fall by just 3. On Friday, our JV's win streak was halted by Onsted as the Varsity brawled the Wildcats with Onsted counting us out in the end.

As I arrived courtside Tuesday the second half had just started and my glance at the scoreboard showed the Little Dutch atop 34-14. It was a pleasant surprise. Benches emptied as the final read 51-33 as T.J. Thomas and Pat Walkowke burned the nets for 30 combined points, 15 each. Pat also hit the boards the hardest totaling 9 rebounds as Brad Bailey and Doug Van-Deven snatched 6 apiece.

In the varsity game Napoleon brought their 10-4 record and almost fell to our 2-11. They out-scored us in each of the first 3 periods (12-10, 17-12 & 14-11) to enter the final 8 minutes with a 43-33 advantage. We came up with a super effort by scoring 25 to their 18 but this left us 3 short, 61-58. Both squads posted the same amount in buckets (22) but the free throws told the story as we sank 14 of 21 while Napoleon canned 17 of 27. Two Dutchmen popped for double figures as Nick Krzyzaniak and Steve Meicher had 12 each.

On Friday, Onsted came to town and in the first contest the score was 8-6 after 4 minutes of action when the Wildcats tallied 6 unanswered points to go up 12-6. They held this 6 point edge over our Little Dutch's heads to enter the second period atop, 16-10. Onsted played tough defense and we lost the hoop as it wasn't until 4:40 when Brad hit for our first two, 10-12. For the following 4 minutes they out-scored us 8-3 to lead at the half way mark 27-15. In the third stanza we just kept digging in deeper as they added 16 to our 7 to start the last period down 43-26. It was the little 'Cats turn to lose the basket as they went to 4:09 to connect. By then we'd dumped for 12 so we were closer, 45-38. They hit for 3 making it 48-38 at 2:35 but Brian Broucek got the next 4 so at :37 it was 49-42. We could fight no more and the final showed it, 53-44.

From the opening tip Onsted scored but we came back to hold a 3-2 advantage but that was it. It was weird night as I witnessed many strange happenings—the power drop caused poor lighting, also the scoreboard, so stopwatches and a black-board was needed. The Zebras lost control from the beginning so we shot 40 foul tosses as they also threw 40, and last but not least for the second time this season we concluded with 4 players. For 16 minutes we had the light but they did better in the dim as the tally was 42-26 at the intermission. We did have the darker side for the third period and we seemed to see a

There used to be in Manchester, two gals, in the 50-60 year bracket, two women who were inseparable companions. One of them, as we remember, was a widow and lived alone on a meager income while the other had no children, while the other's husband was away at work all day. I don't believe that either one of them had a car but they provided each other with companionship.

Over a period of time it became evident that these two were present at every funeral conducted in Manchester. The ladies knew many of those for whom the services were held but they went all out, they attended them all.

When the service at the funeral home was over they could be seen filing out, looking for transportation to the cemetery for the commitment service, and following that they, of course, rode back down town and wended their way home.

Someone mustered enough courage one day to ask one of them why they attended these events and she soberly replied, "I guess it's because we get a chance to go for a ride."

Now one of these women use to spend considerable time sitting in Mary's Tavern. Mary had a small fountain and made delicious sodas and sundaes and the gal in question had a passion for chocolate sundaes and indulged in them frequently.

She also had been observed by some of Mary's customers, eating her sundae and sipping a brew as a chaser. This combination intrigued some of the observers and so one of them one day sent to her table a sundae and a beer for which she thanked him profusely and proceeded to enjoy both treats while the donors watched.

This combination of refreshments so intrigued the watchers that it became quite a sport for a group of watchers to have sent to her a sundae and a beer and then sit and watch her enjoy consuming them. Sometimes she was the recipient of more than one donation and I don't remember that she ever refused any offered.

Maybe we are missing something and should try this combination. Perhaps two or three of them would do something for us.
