Union Savings Bank Expansion Underway

Pictured is the new 85 x 20-foot two story addition to the Downtown Manchester office of Union Savings Bank currently under construction. Upon completion, scheduled for mid-September of this year, the new addition will house Union Savings' computer center and bookkeeping department on the second floor. The present lobby will be extended to the main floor of the new addition and the director's conference and meeting room will also be housed on the main floor of the new building.

Public restrooms will be provided on both levels. During the building program, the loan department will be enlarged. The expansion program will also permit enlarging the area to be occupied by the loan department. Plans are to move the loan department from its present location, in the lobby of the existing building, to more spacious quarters in the rear of the existing building.

In Retrospect

In many ways life nowadays is considerably more complicated than it use to be some thirty years ago. For instance life on the garbage front was more simple than it is today.

You went to the store and you bought groceries which were packed in paper sacks. After you got them home you unpacked them and after they became garbage you returned it to the same bags that held the groceries. And this was recycling at its simplest, groceries to bags, groceries into garbage then garbage to bags--and these paper bags were free with the groceries.

"Waste not less ye be wasted" was the philosophy, and it applied to other stuff too. Soft drinks came in bottles which the boys and girls redeemed for two cents with which they bought small toy pistols made of paraffin and filled with sweet syrup of a hideous purple color. Milk bottles were put out on the front porch at night and there they, as if by magic, were picked up by a fellow called the "milk man" who returned them to the cow for refilling.

And then progress came to our land. We arrive home with, from the market, our groceries and boxes of plastic garbage bags which are not at all free, and there are other things about those bags that are all bad.

The paper bags we get at the market are, as we stated, filled with groceries which we unpack and then throw the workhorse paper bags away by placing them in the plastic bags to be thrown away. This is specialization. Groceries go into paper bags which are free but on no account does garbage go into paper bags, it goes into plastic bags. The paper bags have become garbage.

And nowadays there are other things about garbage which are bad. At our house somebody--not me--always fills the bag so full that I--who have to tie the bag--can never close the top. So I have to unload the top layer, which is always sticky, fluid and smelly. This, of course must be done by hand. Then I put this layer into a new bag so I can close the old one.

And another thing, I always have a devil of a time opening a fresh bag. I can never tell which is the top of the bag from the bottom of the bag which, is of course, sealed. I have spent many hours picking nervously at a bag trying to open it.

And then there is the little plastic covered wire which you wrap around the top of the bag to close it. They use to have little wires which you wrapped around the bags and twisted them until they broke and they you juggled the top until you could get another wire and start over again but more gentler that time.

Then came the little plastic strips with the notches which you put on and pulled until the notches caught, like buckling a belt. They worked very well. I could hold the bag with one hand and buckle the strip in with the other hand. This proved too easy for next thing I knew the makers of the bags had some pretty colored strips with different configurations which it was impossible to fasten with one hand, it took both hands and some juggling to fasten it, but I made it.

When I returned to put it out I found that it had become unfastened and I blamed the dog for it and refastened it, but as I stood watching it, I saw it slowly uncoil and slip off onto the floor. I mumbled for a moment and then refastened it and quickly dragged it out front.

It would be much nicer for me to cope with the plastic bag problem if the design engineers would all go on a strike but I suppose that is too much to hope for so I shall continue to struggle on and on.

Helpful Household Hints

- Make your own brass polish. Put 2 tablespoons salt into a cup of vinegar. Add just enough flour to form a smooth paste. Dip a damp cloth into the paste. Rub the brass until stains disappear, and rinse with cold water when dry.
- When adding new ceramic tile to your kitchen, be sure to tell your dealer the nature of the surface you'll be covering, so he can recommend the proper primer, adhesive and grout.
- Badly soiled chrome appliances, like toasters and toaster ovens, can be cleaned without surface damage with a mild abrasive liquid cleanser.
- Never chop or slice food directly on a ceramic tile or Formica® countertop. The glaze over the tile is thin and will be permanently damaged. Always clean the tile with a mild abrasive liquid cleanser to prevent scratching.
- The space around light switches is frequently smudged. After the space is cleaned, a thin coat or two of fresh clear shellac will make the area easier to clean.
- Continuous-cleaning ovens cannot remove sugar or starch spills. A sheet of aluminum foil on the shelf below the baking food will prevent spills and surface damage.
- Keep household sponges fresh by soaking them in cold salt water from time to time.
- Acids corrode enamel. If vinegar, lemon or tomato spills in the refrigerator, wipe up immediately.

PICKY... PICKY... PICKY...

Do you banish your child from the table if the pile of beans on his plate does not shatter? Do you threaten him with loss of TV privileges if he won't try new foods? Do you hold out dessert as a reward for a finished dinner?

Please don't, says Lea Bramnick, a Philadelphia author and children's eating expert. She is currently serving as a consultant to Ore-Ida Foods, Inc., the company that produces frozen potatoes that people prefer over fresh.

"Some parents worry that if they spare the rod, they will spoil the child," she says. "So they may wield psychological 'rods' at meal times that spoil appetites instead."

One is the Stick-and-Carrot Philosophy. Believers use a combination of threats to force feeding and block feedback.

A popular (and powerful) example she cites is the Clean Plate Club. "If children clean their plates, we heap them with rewards, usually second helpings or dessert," she says. If children don't, we may heap on criticism instead, like saying, "You eat like a bird!" Or comparisons: "Why don't you eat as well as your sister?" Or guilt: "Children in Africa (or India, or China) are starving!"

Not surprisingly, the picked-on child can become a permanently picky eater. And that only leads to more blackmail, bickering and bargaining.

Why stick (or club) a child with negative food associations? Meal-times should be enjoyable. Food should be nourishing... and comforting. Try slipping new items in with familiar foods. Serving old favorites in new ways. Letting the child aid in preparation—even if it's only folding the napkins, or washing the vegetables. Plan menus that everyone will enjoy... like this one from a free booklet Ms. Bramnick has authored for Ore-Ida Foods, called The Generation Gap Gourmet. To receive it, send your name and address to: Ore-Ida's Generation Gap Gourmet, P.O. Box 80, Boise, ID 83707.

TRANSPORTATION POLICY OF MANCHESTER COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES MANAGEMENT

The Transportation Program, under the general supervision of the Director of Auxiliary Services, shall be organized to provide school transportation services for eligible students based on safety, efficiency, adequacy, economy, and prevailing laws and regulations.

The following shall be taken into consideration in developing the school transportation system:

1. Every school bus ride in itself is a learning experience; noisy, chaotic bus rides will not be tolerated.
2. Certain rules and regulations pertaining to transportation of public school pupils in the State of Michigan have been established by the Michigan Department of Education and are compiled in bulletin No. 431. The following items are covered by policies of the Michigan Department of Education, which shall be strictly enforced:
 - a. qualifications for all transportation personnel.
 - b. specifications governing new school bus equipment.
 - c. maintenance of school buses.
 - d. vehicle operation.
 - e. responsibility of students and their parents.
3. Certain other driving regulations governing school buses are set forth in the General Motor Vehicle Laws of the State of Michigan, and shall be strictly adhered to.
4. The Board shall establish its school bus system to closely conform to or to exceed the minimum standards set forth by State and Federal Governments.

STUDENT TRANSPORTATION MANAGEMENT

The Manchester Board of Education shall provide students of the School District with daily transportation to and from school, subject to the terms of the law and to the regulations of the State Department of Education (bulletin No. 431).

The Director of Auxiliary Services, working with the cooperation of the Principals and Bus Drivers, shall be responsible for scheduling all student bus transportation, including the determination of routes, bus stops, safety regulations, and other matters relating to the districts student transportation services.

In the preparation of bus routes and schedules, consideration shall be given to the following:

1. The most efficient use of buses in order to provide safe and economical transportation for pupils.
2. The length of time a student must ride on the bus.
3. The designation of bus stops to meet safety requirements of the State Board of Education.

Bus routes and schedules shall be regularly reviewed during the school year, and may be revised if the safety of pupils is in question.

STUDENT CONDUCT ON SCHOOL BUSES

While the law permits the school district to furnish transportation; parents are responsible for the behavior and safety of children while walking to and from school, at an authorized bus stop and when riding vehicles other than school buses to and from school.

Because a bus is an extension of the classroom, the Board shall require children to conduct themselves in the bus in a

WALKERS AND RIDERS

Since the Board of Education of the Manchester Community School District wishes to do everything within its power to serve the children of the district, it shall provide transportation under regulations of the State Department of Education, and shall seek to operate in such a way as to qualify for the maximum state reimbursement as follows:

Only students who: live more than ONE-HALF MILE from the school they attend shall be eligible for bus transportation. Transportation may be furnished for shorter distances if, in the opinion of the Director of Auxiliary Services the road is unreasonably hazardous relative to the age of the child concerned.

Students may be required to walk some distance to a bus stop, as required by state regulations; transportation will not be a door-to-door "taxi" of convenience.

Secondary students (Grades 5-12) can be expected to walk up to ONE-HALF MILE to the main line of travel of the established bus route. Elementary students (grades K-4) can be expected to walk up to ONE-QUARTER MILE to the main line of travel of the established bus route. If the Director of Auxiliary Services determines that this policy presents unusual hardship or safety hazards for a student, exceptions may be considered, subject to the approval of the Superintendent and the Board of Education Transportation Committee.

There will be a maximum of four stops per mile and the distance between stops shall be a minimum of 500 feet.

SCHOOL BUS SAFETY PROGRAM

The safe transportation of district students to and from school shall be of primary concern to school officials in the administration of the school bus program. All state laws and regulations pertaining to the safe use of school buses shall be observed by drivers, students, and district personnel. The Director of Auxiliary Services, in cooperation with the principals, shall have the responsibility of developing and publishing safety rules to be followed by drivers and passengers, including rules of student conduct during transportation.

All buses and other vehicles owned and operated by the Manchester Community School District shall be inspected for safety by the assigned driver daily. The school buses shall have a periodic vehicle inspection and shall be serviced regularly by the mechanic. The Head Mechanic shall maintain a comprehensive record of all maintenance performed on each vehicle.

Every bus driver is required to report promptly any school bus accident involving death, injury, or property damage. All accidents regardless of damage involved, must be reported at once to the Director of Auxiliary Services.

BUS DRIVER EXAMINATION AND TRAINING

The laws of the State of Michigan set certain standards for the physical fitness, competence, experience, training, and proper licensing of school bus drivers. The Manchester Community Schools Board of Education directs the Superintendent and the Director of Auxiliary Services to ensure that these legal requirements, and the regulations set by the Michigan Department of Education, are strictly complied with.

Legal Reference: Michigan Vehicle Code [P.A. 300, 1949], Secs. 305 through 320 [b]; 811 through 812. Michigan Department of Education, Pupil Transportation Handbook, [Bulletin No. 431].

STUDENT CONDUCT ON SCHOOL BUSES

While the law permits the school district to furnish transportation; parents are responsible for the behavior and safety of children while walking to and from school, at an authorized bus stop and when riding vehicles other than school buses to and from school.

Because a bus is an extension of the classroom, the Board shall require children to conduct themselves in the bus in a manner consistent with established standards for classroom behavior. The Bus Driver shall be responsible for behavior and the safety of children authorized to ride to and from school, and shall report misconduct to the Director of Auxiliary Services.

The Superintendent will develop administrative regulations designed to assist bus drivers in control of pupils and will cause these regulations to be available to all who operate the buses. It shall be the responsibility of the bus drivers to follow these directions in the control and discipline of pupils.

Legal Reference: Michigan Department of Education, Pupil Transportation Handbook, [bulletin, 431].

SPECIAL USE OF SCHOOL BUSES

The Board recognizes the educational value of well-planned, carefully conducted educational trips, and realizes that such trips may require the transportation of large numbers of students. The Board therefore stipulates that school buses may be used as transportation for students instructional trips and extracurricular activities, in accordance with amounts budgeted for such purposes and subject to rules and regulations established by the Superintendent.

All arrangements for bus services for special trips, shall be made through the office of the Director of Auxiliary Services and the following general conditions shall be observed:

1. The Board delegates authority to the administration on requests for extracurricular use in which the bus would return the same day. All students participating in field trips must ride to and from the destination on the bus.
2. Faculty sponsors must complete a "Request for School Bus" for all trips.
3. Only students enrolled in the Manchester Community School District grades 5-12 may ride spectator buses to extracurricular events. Buses will be provided, at the discretion of school administrators, for varsity football and basketball games. Students riding spectator buses to an extracurricular event must return to the point of origin on the same bus, unless otherwise authorized by the bus driver in charge upon presentation of parent's request.
4. All requests for transportation not listed above will be referred to the Board for a decision. This includes requests for overnight trips.

Legal Reference: General School Laws, 380-1331-1332.

SUPPORT SERVICES

The Superintendent or his designee is authorized to approve the use of private vehicles for special activities when the vehicle is covered under the non-ownership liability protection afforded by the Board. The Board may contract for transportation by private cars* for transportation of school children of the district whenever the Board determines that the cost is excessive for transportation by bus of children living in locations isolated from their school.

Board allowances for private car transportation shall be actual cost but no more than allowances specified by the state rules. Michigan Public Transportation Handbook, Page 49, Paragraph 4. *Private car is a privately owned vehicle with a passenger capacity of 11 pupils or less.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Use of Private Vehicles for Academic Field Trips

The safety and welfare of students shall be the first consideration in scheduling private transportation for school events. To safeguard the students, the following policy shall be observed:

1. To use a private vehicle for school purposes, the driver must have the written permission of the building principal. This permit shall state the purpose of the field trip and the number of students involved.
2. For all trips, a signed permission form from the parent must be obtained for each student in advance of the trip.
3. Prior to granting approval the principal must take into consideration the health and driving ability of the driver and the condition of the automobile.
4. The Board specifically forbids any parent to transport students for school purposes

STUDENT TRANSPORTATION INSURANCE

The Board of Education shall purchase liability insurance coverage for the vehicles owned and operated by the school system, as well as for non-ownership vehicles used for school transportation. The administration shall develop the specifications, and seek bids from insurance agents to provide the desired insurance coverage.

No bus or other vehicle shall be used to transport students or other members of the community to and from school, or to any extra-curricular or other function, without proof that the vehicle is covered by liability insurance.

Legal Reference: General School Laws, 380-1321; 390-1332.

SCHOOL OWNED VEHICLES

The Board of Education recognizes the necessity for district owned vehicles to provide for the special transportation for students and staff, driver-training, and the transportation of supplies and equipment. The Superintendent shall authorize the extent to which district owned cars may be used for official school business. Such cars shall not be used for personal purposes unless expressly approved by the Board.

Some of the elephants in the three herds of ponderous performing pachyderms which are coming with Circus Genoa, the nation's second-largest three-ring tent circus. Both Indian and African elephants are included in the Circus Genoa herds.

at 4 and 8 p.m. one day only Thursday, June 21 at Manchester High School (the grounds behind the High School).

Purchasers of advance tickets receive a 25 per cent discount from showday prices and also make a substantial contribution to the sponsor's worthy projects, which receive up to 25 per cent of proceeds. The sponsor receives a smaller percentage of ticket sales on the day of the circus.

Hailed as the entertainment world's "bright new gem," Circus Genoa features more trained wild and domestic animals than any other tent circus on tour in the United States - including three herds of performing elephants. Also offered to all patrons of the big show without additional charge is a huge wild animal zoo.

In addition to animals, the circus performance includes a vast array of top human performers from the four corners of the world - wire walkers, jugglers, acrobats, trapeze stars, equestriennes, contortionists, balancers, aerialists, high-wire thrillers, and, of course, funny clowns - all backed by a live brass band, one of few circus bands still in existence.

Animal performers include ferocious lions and tigers in the steel arena, horses, ponies, dogs, three herds of elephants, white wolves, mules, camels, and llamas.

It is an old-fashioned American tent circus - a type of family entertainment which is rapidly disappearing - and it will be here for one day only.

Birth Announcement

A boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dresch of Midland, Michigan (formerly of Manchester) on June 8, 1979. Scott Edward weighed 9 pounds 8 ounces.

There are two children at home, Aaron 8 1/2 and Rachael 5 1/2.

Ticket sales for the appearance here of the great new Circus Genoa have been opened by the sponsoring Manchester Jaycees.

Jolly Farmerettes

The June 5, 1979 meeting of the Jolly Farmerettes 4-H Club was called to order by Sr. President Laura Pierce. Flag pledges were led by Jenny Feldkamp. There were 14 members, 4 leaders, and 2 visitors present. There was no secretary's report. The treasurer's report was given by Beth Verrelli. There was no old business or new business. Under Bills and Communications, Mrs. Schwab was paid a bill from the club treasury. Under Leader's Report, Elaine discussed the different booklets she had for the girl's summer projects. She also told us to start our projects for the County 4-H Youth Show (July 31 - August 3) soon.

Demonstrations were given by Becky Blumenauer and Kristina Hunt.

After the songs, the club gave a party for Nancy Feldkamp, who is retiring after 20 years as a leader for the club. The meeting was then adjourned.

Where do you bank? Do you bank in a cookie jar, a sugar bowl or have you stuffed your mattress with your life's savings?

There was a time when these hiding places were quite the vogue. People had a mistrust of banks and bankers.

I am the first one to admit the history of banking hasn't been all that perfect. In years past banks and bankers didn't always look out for their depositors.

We all scream about government interference...but the government has made banking at a bank as safe and sound a practice as possible.

Everything from Federal Deposit Insurance that guarantees your checking and savings to a total of $40,000 to regulations that make certain our bank practices are proper.

So, if you are still the old fashioned "stick it in a jar" or "stuff it in a mattress" saver, you are really out of date.

Let's hope you don't have a fire or a theft...or let's hope you can't forget where you hid your money.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear "JAW":

I'm glad you have been enjoying my column, but I'm afraid you have misjudged my motives. I don't want to retreat to "the old" as you say. I merely wanted to recall some enjoyable incidents of the past generation. I still think, for instance, that a porch swing was a great cure for tension and in its day filled a need. I also think that dancing "cheek to cheek" with a firm grip on your partner was a lot better than bobbing up and down half way across the room from your partner.

I surely didn't attack Memorial Day—I don't care how many bands you have to observe it. I simply ask humbly that we all take time to remember what that day was set aside for, and that we take time to show our appreciation to those who gave their "last full measure of devotion" for their country to make it the place in which we now live.

I rather challenge you to pinpoint any misunderstandings placed in the wrong time period and the mention of the "wrong people". My memory is still quite clear—not perfect, just good—the period that wrote about and the events that happened at that time really happened as I told them. I didn't want to write a cut and dried history of Manchester, just to chronicle some humorous or worthwhile events.

For instance I remember standing in a field where Double A is now located with a late spring snowstorm swirling about us, while the first spade of dirt was turned for the new factory which was to move here from Ann Arbor soon. I can't recall all of the notables present but they included Charles Waltz, Jim Hendley, Ben Root, Herbert Upton, Findley Riggs and others and not long afterward we were "invaded" by a considerable number of others who were Double A employees and who came here with the plant to make their homes. Among them my memory recalls Roy Craner, "Stubby" Strang, Bill Johnson, George Dufenderfer, Mrs. Koopman, Fritz Schiller, Marvin Meyer, Hollie Ayers, and others. Some of them are with us yet.

If one is to be technical about details, the land where the IGA store now stands was where a livestock shipping area was located, and the depot stood on the east side of the tracks near Main Street. The building where Mann's now store things was the freight house. Where the water tower now is located was where the coal sheds owned by Burtless & Henzie once were. The former water tower located atop the hill north of the present one was dismantled.

JAW also notes that there were passenger cars on both railroads here—the Jackson branch in the early 1930's had two passenger trains a day each way which also carried the mail. But soon afterwards traffic dwindled and these trains disappeared.

At one time several years later, Short Way Lines tried to inaugurate a bus line through here but sufficient patronage could not be secured and it too soon vanished.

I also recall that "getting rid" of the old hotel was the next best thing to letting it sit and deteriorate into a mere skeleton of its former self and collapse in a heap.

I have recalled many of the pleasant things about Manchester where we spent many happy years, made a great many friends and had time to enjoy the town and its people.

The Manchester Jaycees are in their 25th year as a community oriented, non-profit organization. These 25 years would not have been possible without the support of the community as a whole and the many fine people and organizations, as well as businesses, in the community.

All of the monies received in our projects are returned into the Manchester community in one way or another. We donate money to the Boy and Girl Scouts, two scholarships at the High School for graduating seniors, special olympics, explorer programs and many other programs.

Many people are not aware of the service project we as Jaycees do. We sponsor Operation Sand Box for the children, Hit-Pitch-Throw, Punt-Pass & Kick, Halloween Party, Children's Shopping Spree, Pictures with Santa, Visits from Santa, Christmas Decorations (up and down), Easter Egg Hunt and Fair Projects, such as Kid's Fun Day and Lamb Club sponsorship, to mention a few.

As I stated earlier, the Jaycees could not continue without the support of the community and we have another project which is a good example of this. The project is the 3rd annual Jaycee 4th of July Fireworks. We have $1,650 worth of fireworks purchased and now we need the support of everyone in the community to make the 1979 project a success. I think everyone present at Carr Park last 4th of July enjoyed the display. If we could get everyone present at the park to donate just $1.00 per family, just imagine the display we could have. Think about it, when have you seen as many people out for a social event together with family and friends in Manchester? This alone shows that this project is a great one to continue.

The Jaycee Club has declined in size greatly in the last couple years but we feel we are getting stronger and have the potential for a great year for ourselves and for the Manchester Community. We would like to ask for the support of the community again and especially for our upcoming July 4th. We would appreciate donations, if only $1.00, and these can be sent to Manchester Jaycees, P.O. Box 171.

I personally would like to thank the Jaycees for electing me for 1979-1980 and allowing me to serve them as President. Thanks again for your 25 years of support. Jim Hartmann Manchester Jaycees President 79/80

Last night we attended the Spring Concert given by the Manchester Middle School Band and Orchestra. It was a pleasure to hear such an outstanding performance. It is obvious that Mr. Rodenbeck, Mrs. Meade and the band and orchestra students have put in a year of very hard work. Ray and Jeanette Mazurek

RECOMPENSE

Do you fellows who take pride in remembering the thirties remember the Johnson Smith wish book? I don't know about you, but I very seldom had any money to order such necessities as whoopee cushions, hand buzzers, large plastic noses attached to eyeglass rims and of course, ventriloquist lessons—"boys learn to throw your voice, guitar lessons—play a guitar like the cowboys do, and those telescopes which left a sooty ring around your eyes when held close to it, magic kits, rubber daggers, fingerprint sets—just like the one Melvin Purvis uses, and crude items like the rubber mess which looked like the dog had sinned on the living room floor—hear your mother shriek.

I inquired just a few months ago and was told that Johnson Smith was still in business but I'm not on their list anymore, darn it.

There is however, the only catalog that I don't get. Lately our mail box has been jammed with every conceivable catalog from every mail order house in the country. My wife once ordered a gadget from one of them and that's where she made her mistake. And now she's hooked on ordering this and that from them.

I'll swear that every time she orders from one of the catalogs we get six in return. Some are really nice, offering expensive clothes, engraved guns, jewelry, stationary, gold plated harpoons, handmade wrought iron coat hangers and many other useful gadgets.

Other useful items listed in recent catalogs include sponge back scrubbers, a plastic egg that says "a good egg award", a starfish lamp, a chunk of the original London Bridge made into a paperweight, a black widow spider or a rose entombed in a lump of plastic and aprons with many clever or corny slogans complimentary and otherwise.

In another masterpiece is a radio shaped like a cheeseburger, one shaped like a cookie with a bite gone out of it. Then there are the old standards; whiskey flavored toothpaste, pencils with erasers on both ends, earrings that light up, and a million others.

The kids who drooled over Johnson & Smith's catalog have evidently been replaced by millions who many have grown up physically but who are mentally children at heart, and I think that is good. With that attitude we can't go far wrong. As long as we maintain a childish sense of humor we are safe, I believe.

If you want to go further with a list of contents of other of these mind bogging catalogs we note there is a handkerchief with a plastic finger attached says our researcher, and also a talking toilet device which says when a guest sits down "Hey, we're working down here" accompanied by a raucous laugh, an ice bucket shaped like a toilet seat, and edible underwear among others. There is also an ash tray shaped like a toilet which really flushes—I think some of these manufacturers spent their formative years in a bathroom—then we have a roll of toilet paper with a crossword puzzle on each sheet and harem slippers shaped like sponge rubber falsies and many others.

And don't forget the dress that gives the illusion that the wearer is somewhat naked and, of course the joke book which contains many treasures like—"What's that fly doing in my soup." "I think it's doing the back stroke." So, even if the old kids catalog is gone the spirit lives on; perhaps more sophisticated and perhaps still about twelve years old, but all in all imperishable, thank the Lord.

Library Board Appoints New Librarian

The Library Board of Trustees is pleased to introduce the new head librarian, Mrs. Georgia Wilson. Georgia is a graduate, cum laude, of Bedford High and Wayne State University School of Business Administration. She has taught school at Timothy Lutheran School, Detroit, and in the Manchester Schools. This, plus experience as library assistant at Wayne University General Library and at Chase Branch Library in Detroit, gives her excellent credentials for position of head librarian. Next month she will participate in a two weeks internship program at Michigan State University as required by the library system. Georgia and her two children live on a horse ranch on Bus Rd.

Patrons of the library have probably noticed the new emphasis placed on the care of books and other materials and new procedures for overdue books and accompanying fines.
