FUSSING ABOUT FOOD PRICES

This may surprise you, but in terms of our take home pay, food is cheaper in this country than it ever has been, and cheaper than any other place in the world. This is because we work less time to earn our food than do workers in any other country.

Recently, the Wall Street Journal came out with a report that confirms those facts. It points out that since 1960, after-tax income has risen at a rate of eight percent a year, while the amount spent on food has climbed about seven percent annually. This means that wages are up one percent more than food costs over the past 19 years, and therefore it takes less of our take-home pay than it did then.

It turns out that food increases have been less than many other things we buy. Since 1960, according to the Journal, transportation costs have risen at a rate of nine percent a year; housing costs by 8.5 percent; and health costs by 11 percent annually.

Meals For Senior Citizens

Manchester area men and women, 60 years old and over, are reminded that Senior Citizen Meals will begin September 11. Meals will be served at the Emanuel United Church of Christ again this year at noon on Tuesdays and Thursdays unless otherwise notified.

Reservations for meals should be made by the day before by calling Mrs. Ray Kerr 428-7420 or Linda Hartman at the church office 428-8359. This is important as it enables the Council to keep the price suggested for meals at $1.50 or according to ones ability to pay. The local United Way's backing of the project assures the continuation of the meals as a successful community funded endeavor.

Mrs. Richard Weir (Ethel) will prepare the meals again this year. Mrs. Kerr, chairman of the Council is in charge of scheduling the volunteers who assist in the kitchen and dining room. Anyone able to help with this civic project is urged to contact Mrs. Kerr.

Last fall the meals were greatly enhanced by fruits and garden produce that friends and neighbors offered and delivered to the kitchen. Anyone able to assist in the same manner this year should call Mrs. Weir or Mrs. Kerr. Please do not bring things without checking with the committee as to time, place and quantity as the church kitchen is not able to store them.

The Menu for Tuesday, September 11 is: Ham and Potato Salad, Fruit, Dessert, Coffee, Tea and Milk.

Thursday, September 13, the Menu is: Baked Chicken, Potatoes, Vegetable, Dessert, Coffee, Tea and Milk.

We'd have to disagree with that state-

Really, what is a bank?

Well, Union Savings Bank isn't a building any more than Manchester is a group of buildings.

Union Savings Bank has nothing to do with steel and glass and stone. Union Savings Bank is an idea about how to treat people and how to offer them service. We've found, over the past eighty-five years, that people respond to kind, thoughtful treatment and a sincere effort to look after their interests.

We extend ourselves to make friends of everyone who enters our doors.

Of course, a modern building with modern equipment helps our people do this job well; but at Union Savings Bank, your hometown independent bank, you're served not by machines, but by people-informed, concerned, sympathetic people. Perhaps we could best say that a bank is people...we, and you.

VANITIES

AUG. 31-SEPT 16

VANITIES is a portrait of three women which spans eleven years from high school cheerleaders, through college sorority sisters, to young women.

The Black Sheep Repertory Theatre is presenting VANITIES August 31 through September 16, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, in historic Manchester, Michigan.

In this tragic/comedy, Jack Heifner reveals each woman's understanding of their relationships with each other and of their inevitably conflicting life styles. From 1963 to 1974, these best friends grow up and grow apart.

Kathy, played by Patty Liedel, is the organizer who finds her life escapes her control. Bethany Carpenter, as Mary, longs for freedom which finally goes far beyond high school petting and college cigarette smoking. Joanne, Barbara Thorne, wants only to be a wife and realizes her dream by marrying her high school sweetheart, but finds this fairytale a bit frayed around the edges.

VANITIES, directed by Jim Martin, is the last show of summer season at the Black Sheep Repertory Theatre. For reservations and information phone 428-9280 or 428-9287.

What Is The Special Olympics?

Special Olympics, created and sponsored by the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation, is an international sports and recreation program for the mentally retarded - the first and largest of its kind in the world.

With competitive divisions based on age and actual performance, Special Olympics reaches out to all retarded youth regardless of the level of their disability with year round programs of sports training and athletic competition in every state of the union and in many other countries. Special Olympics provides activity in track and field, swimming, diving, gymnastics, basketball, volleyball, floor hockey, ice skating, bowling, wheelchair events and games specially adapted for the blind-retarded.

Although there are now more than 400,000 Special Olympians in the United States alone, the program is reaching only 15 percent of those who need it most. For this reason the Joseph P. Kennedy, Jr. Foundation has embarked on extending the right to play and the right to physical development to all special children.

The important thing, however, is not the number of Special Olympians but what is happening to mentally retarded youngsters as a result of this program. To express it in simplest terms - they are becoming healthy. We all know that regular exercise will produce better coordination, muscle tone, strength and speed. But, these young athletes are experiencing health in other significant dimensions. Because of new skills and successful accomplishments, they have a healthier regard for themselves. Because their parents, brothers and sisters see them achieving results, they are developing healthier family relationships. Because friends and neighbors are able to share in their sports activities, there is a healthier acceptance on the part of the community. And this is perhaps the most important result of all.

Today there are two and one-half million children in this country and millions more elsewhere in the world who have no caring friend like Special Olympians. Let us have the strength to be a friend to them, to help them realize their dreams of success and self-fulfillment. With this strength we can make our whole society more humane - a society where, as President John F. Kennedy said, "The strong are just and the weak secure."

Apples And Dates Bake In Homey Dessert

Brisk days ahead call for a homey and wholesome treat like Golden Apple Date Crisp. Washington Golden Delicious apples are sliced and accented with cinnamon and lemon juice. Chopped dates add a dash of originality.

The fruit is placed in a shallow baking dish and sprinkled with a buttery topping. Enjoy Golden Apple Date Crisp warm from the oven, or prepare it ahead of time and serve cold.

All-purpose Golden Delicious apples from sunspelt orchards of Washington State have a firm, juicy texture and full sweet flavor. They resist darkening longer than other varieties when cut, making them the perfect choice in salads or fresh fruit appetizers and desserts. In cooking and baking, Golden Delicious apples hold their shape well, and because they are sweeter than other cooking apples, less additional sugar is required in preparation of recipes. Washington Golden Delicious apples will be in excellent supply throughout the winter and spring months for all your apple needs.

Golden Apple-Date Crisp

- | | |
|--------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 4 or 5 Golden Delicious apples | 2 tablespoons lemon juice |
| 1 cup chopped dates | 3/4 cup flour |
| 1 teaspoon cinnamon | 3/4 cup sugar |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1/3 cup butter |
| 1/4 cup water | |

Core and slice apples to equal 4 cups. Place apples and dates in 10x6-inch baking dish. Sprinkle with cinnamon, salt, water and lemon juice. Combine flour and sugar. Cut in butter until mixture is crumbly. Sprinkle over apples. Bake at 350°F. for 60 minutes, or until apples are tender. Serve warm or cold. Makes 8 servings.

Italian Style Entree Combines Beans, Sausage, Pasta

The exciting texture and taste of brilliant Western-grown dark red kidney beans, nut-like garbanzos and spicy Italian sausage combine in this lively and luscious pasta dish.

To prepare, simply brown the sausage and saute green pepper, onion and garlic. Add cooked pasta. Canned tomatoes make a light sauce flavored with full-bodied seasonings.

Beans, when combined with protein from meat, eggs, milk or other foods of animal origin, provide a balanced protein source. They contain iron, calcium, phosphorus, potassium and some of the B vitamins, as well as fiber, so necessary for maintaining a healthy digestive tract.

In soups and salads, casseroles and chilis, beans fuse deliciously with other flavors and adapt to a variety of cooking methods. There are twelve major varieties of Western dry beans from which to choose: dark and light red kidney, pink, pinto, small white, navy, baby and large lima, blackeye, garbanzo, red and great northern beans.

Italian Beans And Sausage

- | | |
|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 can (15-1/2 oz.) dark red kidney beans | 1 can (16 oz.) tomatoes |
| 1 can (15-1/2 oz.) garbanzo beans | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1 pound Italian sausage | 1/2 teaspoon basil |
| 1/2 cup chopped green pepper | 1/2 teaspoon oregano |
| 1/4 cup chopped onion | 2 teaspoons sugar |
| 1 clove garlic, minced | 4 oz. fettuccine or wide egg noodles, cooked and drained |

Drain beans. Brown sausage; remove and drain all but 1 tablespoon fat from skillet. Saute green pepper, onion and garlic in fat until tender. Drain and chop tomatoes, reserving liquid. Combine beans, sausage, vegetables, tomatoes and liquid, seasonings and noodles in skillet. Mix well and heat through. Makes 5 to 6 servings.
