They were married December 4, 1919, at St. Thomas Lutheran Church in Freedom Township by Pastor J. M. Kempff.

Mr. and Mrs. Zahn (she is the former Miss Meta Fiegal) reside at 11545 Pleasant Shore Drive in Manchester. They enjoy hobbies of gardening, fishing, and playing cards at the senior citizens card parties at Pleasant Lake in Freedom Township Hall. Their children include Mr. and Mrs.

Attention!

There will be a Wrestling Demonstration and Rules Clinic on Tuesday, December 4, 8:00 p.m. at the Manchester High School Gym. Everyone in the community is invited to attend.

The first wrestling meet will be December 6 against Blissfield at Manchester. Show the team your support by showing up.

Manchester Assoc. For Talented Students

The fifth general meeting of the Manchester Association for Talented Students is scheduled for Thursday, December 4, 1979, at 8:00 P.M. in the High School Library. The public is invited to attend. In addition to the presentation of the very qualified speaker, a proposed program to be presented to the Board of Education will be reviewed and critiqued at this meeting.

Bringing her wealth of knowledge and of experience in gifted and talented education, Mrs. Barbara Lavery will address the group on the topic of "Presenting a Program to the Board of Education." Drawing on her experience as the coordinator of the Lincoln Consolidated School's program for the gifted and talented, a member of the Parent Advisory Committee of Saline, and Vice-President of the Ann Arbor Area Association for the Gifted, Mrs. Lavery has some very definite ideas on the critical components of a program for the talented and the structure of a presentation to the Board of Education. For two years, Mrs. Lavery read and reviewed every proposal for gifted education in the State of Michigan. This meeting should be very interesting and informative.

Teachers Back In School Board To Consider Contract

by Sandra Volentine

Manchester school children were back in school Wednesday, November 28, after Manchester teachers ended a nearly three week long strike. The teachers returned to school on Tuesday, November 27, for a workday, following their ratification of a contract on Monday night, by a vote of 38-16.

The teachers had been on strike since Wednesday, November 7, following a failure of the Manchester Board of Education and the Manchester Education Association (MEA) to reach an agreement on salary, health benefits and class size.

Details of the agreement were not officially available pending formal ratification by the school board at its next regular meeting, Monday, December 17.

The ratification by the teachers came following a long day of negotiations ordered by Judge Patrick Conlin, Washtenaw County Circuit Court. Judge Conlin issued the order for both sides to go into bargaining, and to make clear the issues and respective positions to him, at a hearing to determine whether or not he should issue an injunction forcing the teachers back to school, requested by the school board.

After the day of bargaining between the teachers and the board, also with State Mediator Ed Phillips, the Judge met in the late afternoon with the chief negotiators for both sides, Fred Schwarze representing the school board and Dick Gray the MEA, spoke with the teachers' negotiating team, and requested that all the teachers and all the school board members meet at 8 p.m. at the court in Ann Arbor, to consider a contract offer worked out during the day.

According to Karen Chase, Uniserv Director with Michigan Education Association, the negotiating team presented an offer to the teachers, and the Judge spoke with both sides, outlining what courses of action he could take if the agreement were not ratified, with the primary alternative being an injunction if the teachers failed to approve the contract. He said a decision by either party not to ratify the contract would be taken into consideration and not looked on favorably if there had to be a further hearing in the case.

The full school board, present at the 8 p.m. meeting, reviewed the contract, according to Eugene Thompson, Superintendent of Schools, and indicated their feelings to the judge. According to Ms. Chase, the board indicated they would support the contract. The board did not officially agree to the contract, however, because the law requires them to do so only at a public meeting.

The school board voted at its last regular meeting, Monday, November 19, to seek an injunction, rejecting an offer by the teachers to return to school the next day, November 20, if the board would agree to binding fact finding to settle the contract.

Birth Announcement

Joe and Mary Ann Dettling of Manchester announce the birth of a son, Keith Andrew, born November 15, 1979. He weighed 6 pounds, 1 ounce.

Maternal Grandparents are Mr. Lester McCalla of Manchester and Mrs. Joyce McCalla of Ypsilanti. Paternal Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dettling of Manchester.

dispute. At the next negotiation meeting, Wednesday, November 21, in Ann Arbor, little was accomplished besides serving summonses for the hearing on Monday, November 26, on the negotiators for the teachers.

Although official details were not available, unofficially the contract is for three years, and the teachers gave up an optional insurance clause that was in their old contract, allowing them to apply the dollar difference between full family health insurance ($121/month) and lesser coverage (single coverage, for instance, $44/month) to disability, vision and dental insurance, salary protection and annuities. Also unofficially, students will go to school until June 18 and teachers until June 20, to make

Banks To Consider Consolidation

Officials of The Citizens Bank of Saline and Union Savings Bank of Manchester announced today that the two banks have agreed in principle to consolidate under the name "Citizens Union Bank." The consolidated bank, which initially will have assets of nearly $6,000,000, will be headquartered in Saline and will be managed by the combined officer staff of the two banks headed by Richard L. Boyd as president. Boyd is presently president of The Citizens Bank. The main and branch offices of the Manchester bank will continue as branches of the consolidated bank. The Board of Directors of the combined bank will be comprised of the present ten Directors of the Saline bank and six Directors of the Manchester bank.

Under the tentative agreement each shareholder of Manchester bank will receive 1.15 shares of common stock of the Saline bank for each outstanding share of stock of the Manchester bank.

Before the consolidation can become effective, it must be approved by the stockholders of both banks and by State and Federal regulatory agencies.

They're Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. James Pratt announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to the Reverend Michael Mazer of Adrian. The bride elect is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Nursing and is employed by the Lenawee Health Department. Her fiancé is a graduate of The University of Alabama and received his Master of Divinity Degree from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is Associate Pastor of First Baptist Church of Adrian. A June wedding is planned.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

This is an open letter addressed to the concerned parents and citizens of Manchester. Our schools have been closed since November 7. During this time the Board of Education has agreed to only two state mediated bargaining sessions, the last on November 21 in Ann Arbor. No progress was made at either of these two contract talks. The session in Ann Arbor lasted barely three hours with the board's attorney, Mr. Fred Schwarz, making the statement prior to the opening of that session to Mr. Richard Gray, Chief Negotiator for the Manchester Teachers' Union, that he saw no intention on the part of the board to bargain at this time. In fact, the sole purpose of bringing the teachers' negotiating team together at one place appears to have been for the convenience of serving a summons on these persons to appear Monday, November 26 in Judge Conlin's courtroom to show cause as to why the teachers should not return to work.

In point of fact, the teachers, through their spokesperson Mr. Richard Gray, have consistently made the offer to return to work since the board meeting of Monday, November 19. The sole condition imposed by the teachers' union is that all future contract talks be subject to "binding fact finding", which obliges both parties to agree to the decisions of a third party, the fact-finder. The board's attorney maintains that such a procedure is not legal. Congressman Dillingham of the 51st Congressional District has offered his opinion that "binding-fact-finding" is a legal means to settlement.

The board has now chosen to proceed with their attempt to gain a court order forcing the teachers back to work. Mr. Schwarz has publicly stated that such an injunctive process would cost the community of Manchester anywhere from $3,000 to $10,000. Since Mr. Schwarz's fee as attorney to the board could also run as high as $10,000, the board has chosen to spend upwards of $20,000 in legal fees rather than accept an honest offer of settlement made by the teachers.

Why is the Board of Education proceeding in this manner? Do the board members regard this unnecessary court involvement as a "game"? The sad truth is that the board or their lawyer may think that keeping our schools closed is a game. This Thanksgiving Day the board released a statement on WAAM radio which in part stated, "The Manchester teachers have lost their trump card," this in response to an honest offer by the teachers to submit their claims to "binding-fact-finding". On Monday, November 19 I engaged in a conversation along with a dozen Manchester teachers and the newly appointed Supt. of Schools, Dr. Eugene Thompson, recently of the Ann Arbor Schools, in which Dr. Thompson declared the whole affair was a "game".

Manchester teachers have never viewed their decision to strike as a game, and do not regard any of their proposals for a fair and just settlement as a game.

I would ask of the Board of Education, and I hope that you citizens of Manchester would do so too: What is this game you refer to, and if it is a game of chess are our children the pawns? Or if it is a game of rough-and-tumble are our children the ball to be kicked and fought over?

Leonard "Buzz" Hastings
Chairperson, English Dept.
Manchester High School

Dear Editor,

We strongly disagree with the Manchester School Board's latest decision, in the on-going teacher contract negotiations, to seek a court injunction against the teachers. By choosing to take this action, our board has chosen to squander the taxpayer's money in yet another exercise in futility.

We support the use of binding arbitration to settle this strike. By choosing to file for an injunction, the board has chosen to perpetuate its control of the situation by exercising a series of power plays rather than seeking the most equitable or expedient method for solving this conflict. We strongly object to that! The children AND community have become pawns in this power struggle. Is education or power the issue? It is obvious that in previous years negotiations the board has held exclusive power by virtue of the use of professional negotiators and strong negative community sentiment regarding strikes. Because the teachers have chosen to challenge that exclusive power, they are being criticized and maligned as money hungry ingrates. We appreciate the fact that the board sees itself acting out of concern for the already burdened taxpayer, but for us the quality education of our children IS THE priority for money spent—we choose that above expensive clothing, food, cars or entertainment. We are willing to pay to attract and keep a quality teaching staff.

Sincerely,
Susan A. Cole
Claude R. Cole

During the last three weeks many many opinions have been heard in regard to the Manchester teacher's strike and school conditions in general in Manchester. Because of this, because our children attend school here, and because I am also a teacher, (in another district), I am responding with yet another opinion.

Having taught in Manchester some 18 years ago, and having had children in schools here for the last 13 years, it is obvious to me that many of the problems and attitudes breeding this current situation have developed over a long period of time.

In my opinion specific identification of these problems and specific administrative programs developed and implemented to solve them would avoid such situations in the future.

Further, it is NOT NECESSARY, as some have suggested, to settle for less than quality education in any school district! To some extent programs and priorities are limited by the size of district and its resources, but if the district is properly administered and organized a good working atmosphere will prevail and teachers will give their better efforts in this direction resulting in high quality in what we are able to offer. With a person of Dr. Thompson's reputation at the helm we may expect this to happen in the future.

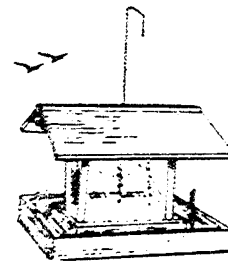

More important even than this is the support of the citizens of the community, not of the school board alone or our teachers

MICHIGAN BELL CONSUMER TIPS

Here's how to get that Long Distance number (and a free Personal Directory to keep it in) so you can dial it yourself and save.

Michigan Bell... people who enjoy serving people.

If you've ever forgotten how to get a needed phone number for a distant city - outside your own area code - you may want to clip this ad and keep it near your phone as a reminder. Here's all you do: First, dial "0" and ask the operator for the area code, if you don't already know. Then, for Long Distance directory assistance, dial "1" plus the area code for that city, then 555-1212. You will reach a Long Distance directory assistance operator who will give you the number. Once you have the number, write it down so the next time you need it, you can dial it direct and save. If you don't have a good place to write it down, we have a place for you... your Personal Telephone Directory - a handy book for keeping your personal list of local and out-of-town phone numbers. It's free. Just call your Michigan Bell business office and ask for a copy.

Comments

by J.A.W.

The Time has come, the Walrus said, to speak of many things, of sealing wax and sailing vessels, of cabbages and kings. What we seem to be saddled with at the present time is a couple of cabbages which warrant some comments.

One of them is the recent rejuvenation of the Union Savings Bank facade. We have always felt that if a new building is erected or changes are made around a home, the end result should somehow blend with other surroundings. For no matter how beautiful an item is it sticks out like a sore thumb in the wrong surroundings. Like a secretary wearing a beautiful cocktail dress to work. The two don't mix.

In my opinion such a beast is the new look of the Union Savings Bank. Not only does it not blend with the rest of the buildings on Main Street it does not even blend with the exposed faces of the rest of the building. No where in Manchester is there a building which has the same or similar color of bricks. No where in Manchester is there a building with such recessed windows. No where in Manchester is there a building with windows containing a black sheen so one can't look in. If a robbery was staged in that bank no one would call the police for no one on the outside can see what is going on. And they do rob banks in Michigan.

Whatever happened to the old campaign to keep downtown Manchester in the "turn of the century look?" That sure went out the window and we are going to have to stare at the present monstrosity for a long time. No wonder other banks are coming to town. Their outside may have a friendlier look. Happy banking.

The other cabbage we seem to have inherited, and which incidentally is rapidly turning into Sauerkraut, is the teacher strike at the school. We have carefully read all the propaganda sent out by both sides and find very little meat in any of them. Looking at the statistics of other schools it seems to us that the 7.5% increase in salary offered by the school board would put our teachers at the same level as anybody else. However, the teachers are still standing in the rain, carrying signs that no one can read and gathered around the fire trying to keep warm. Why don't they sign and get out of the rain.

One thing teachers seem to overlook that for them to get more money property owners have to cough up more taxes. And frankly property owners are tired of that racket. To be sure much is made of so-called "State Aid" but let us not forget for the State to pay out money it first has to collect such money in the form of taxes from its inhabitants. And we all feel that such taxes are high enough. There may be those that claim the millage has not risen recently but let us not forget that every year the assessed value of the property has been raised and every year taxes are higher than the previous. The taxpayer just can't win.

A second point revolves about class size. This is a questionable point. A good teacher can handle most any size class. A poor teacher has trouble with even only five or six students. But teachers don't care if they are good or bad. All they care about is tenure or years of service. Laborers with high wages can't get by with years of service. They have to produce, meet standards or get out.

There are some other points such as insurance but it seems to us that if teachers are as intelligent as they claim to be they should have little trouble sitting down to the bargaining table and with some honest trading resolve their difficulties. Perhaps with such efforts they might be able to turn out students over which we can proudly proclaim: "Johnny CAN read."

Construction Of Bridge To Begin

Michigan Department of Transportation awarded a construction contract to the Argersinger-Morse Construction Company, Ann Arbor, for construction of a new bridge over the Raisin River at Sharon Hollow Road. The company was the lowest of five bidders, with a bid of $202,574.

Wilbur Argersinger, Vice-president of Argersinger-Morse, said that construction would begin in late February 1980, and the road would be closed for four months starting March 1. Pending no problems the road would be re-opened by July 4, and construction completed by October 1980.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Charles Dickens' classic holiday tale of Ebenezer Scrooge and the true meaning of Christmas-A CHRISTMAS CAROL-will be presented November 30 through December 30 in turn-of-the-century surroundings at the Black Sheep Repertory Theatre in Manchester, Michigan.

The Black Sheep's 1867 original opera house stage will create the atmosphere as its company members bring to life Dickens' characters: Tiny Tim, Bob Cratchit, Scrooge, and the ghosts of Christmas past, present, and future. The play, adapted from the Dickens' novel by Robert Beaupre and directed by Joseph Zubrick, will be filled with the mystery, humor, and moral lessons that made A CHRISTMAS CAROL into a classic.

The children who appear throughout the play were all selected from the Manchester area. Angela, Steve, and Andrea Karapas from Clinton, Holden and Tami Harris from Chelsea, Howar Austin from Ann Arbor, and Matt Sporzynski, Leslie Duncan and Mandy and Eric Alstrom from Manchester will appear as street urchins and Cratchit family members.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL will play Friday and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. and Sunday at 4:00, November 30 through December 23, December 26 through December 30 there will be seven additional performances: Wednesday at 2:00 and 8:15, Thursday and Friday at 8:15, Saturday at 2:00 and 8:15 and Sunday at 4:00. Ticket price varies. For further information phone (313) 428-9287.

After hearing what the candidates are already saying about each other I'm scared that one of 'em is going to be elected.

And then there's the chap that said that he and his wife disagree often but he never tells her.

Chelsea Child Study Club

The world famous Culinary First Lady Julia Child once said, "...good cooking is taking ordinary everyday ingredients and with a little bit of love and imagination turning them into something appealing, even exciting..." With that premise in mind, the Chelsea Child Study Club will present a cooking demonstration series entitled "A Culinary Collection" featuring three area master teachers of great talent and expertise demonstrating their know-how ranging from Chinese to Chocolate.

Our series will take place at St. Paul United Church of Christ, 14600 Old U.S. 12 in Chelsea, and will feature Christine Liu of Ann Arbor on January 14 with COOKING CHINESE, Christine is the author of the popular cookbook entitled: "Nutrition and Diet with Chinese Cooking" and for many years has been teaching "Nutrition and Diet," "Chinese Cooking" and also coordinated an "International Gourmet Class" with the Department of Continuing Education of the Ann Arbor Public Schools. Christine has been seen locally demonstrating her talents at Complete Cuisine, Lord and Taylor and other fine stores.

Lenore Matloff of Chelsea will present three demonstrations for our series: January 28 will be ITALIAN PASTAS-AND SAUCES, February 18 with PARTY FARE, and March 3 with CHOCOLATE, CHOCOLATE. Lenore has taught classes in her home for the Chelsea Community Education and is currently coordinator for demonstrations at Kitchen Port in Kerrytown in Ann Arbor.

Sherry Sundling of Chelsea presents her excellent cooking talent with FRENCH CUISINE on February 4. Sherry studied for 9 years under the renown Cordon bleu graduate Baroness Charity de Vicq Sucezek of Grosse Pointe. During that time she served as Madame Sucezek's assistant in her Birmingham gourmet classes. Sherry has worked with Yvonne Gill Davis of "Tweeny's" restaurant in Birmingham and Duglass at the "Great Dane" restaurant in Birmingham. Currently she is working at "Elizabeth's" in Northville. Sherry has done demonstrations at Kitchen Port in Ann Arbor and is currently giving lessons in her home.

All demonstrations will begin at 8:00 p.m. on the five Monday evenings, and all recipes shown and taste treats will be given to each series ticket holder. Tickets will be for the series of 5 demonstrations and the donation of $20.00 to cover the ticket will benefit our selected charity this year which is Spaulding for Children in Chelsea. (Spaulding is an adoption agency which places older children and hard to place youngsters.) Tickets will go on sale December 1 at two Chelsea locations: The Village Bakery and Chelsea Hardware. They may also be purchased from any club member. For more information on the series or tickets, you may call Marti Neumeyer at 475-1703. Tickets are limited so we urge an early purchase. They also will make a terrific Christmas gift.

Genealogical Society

The Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County will meet Sunday, December 2, at 1 p.m. for a work session and 2:30 p.m. for Tombstone Rubbings with Mary Jane Trout. The meeting will be at the Liberal Arts and Science Building, North Entrance, Lecture Hall 1, Washtenaw Community College.

Visitors are Welcome.

Receives Pre-Medical Scholarship

Lisa Cresswell, a senior from Ann Arbor, is among the 17 Alma College students awarded Roberts B. Swanson Pre-Medical Scholarships for 1979-80. Nine of this year's recipients, including Lisa, also received the pre-med scholarships in 1978-79.

The scholarships are awarded to students who are seriously considering attending medical school. Among the things considered by the Pre-Medical Student Advisory Committee which helps select the recipients are the applicants' resumes of college career (including courses taken and grade point average), a personal statement, and letters of recommendation.

An endowment fund providing the annual scholarships was established in 1976 in memory of Mrs. Roberta B. Swanson, who died in October of 1975. Mrs. Swanson, the first wife of Alma President Robert D. Swanson, had as a college student prepared for a possible career in medicine and at the time of her death was a trustee of Gratiot Community Hospital in Alma.

All of the six students who have graduated since receiving Roberta B. Swanson Scholarships are now attending medical school, according to Dr. Larry Wittle, a member of Alma's Pre-Medical Student Advisory Committee.

Lisa is a 1976 graduate of Manchester High School and is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Cresswell, 1054 Bandera Drive, Ann Arbor.

Jolly Farmerettes 4-H Club

A Jolly Farmerette 4-H meeting was held November 13 from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. Some of the members received their 1st and 5th year pins. Mrs. Lowery showed a filmstrip of models who have modeled a couple of years before. Members found out who would be their leaders for sewing, knitting and crocheting.

The new business was who is planning to attend Exploration Night. It was announced that Spring Achievement would be held March 15th and that we would be helping in the decorating of the stage and writing the theme. If you do have a suggestion for the theme, write it down, and bring it to the next meeting. The next meeting will be held December 4th, from 7-8:30 p.m.

In Cross Country, Coach Jim Brink announced these recipients: John Miller-Most Valuable, Ed Achtenberg-Gold Brick, Greg Bondy and John Miller-Most Improved with the Coaches Award going to Paul Stancato.

Ann Iott, the coach of both Varsity and J.V. Girls Basketball squad will hopefully let me know the trophy winners soon, now that their season is over.

J.V. Football Coaches, Bart Bartels and John Korican presented the victors: Larry Jacobs-Most Valuable, Jim Krzyzaniak-Coaches Award, Brian Mahan-Most Improved and Coach Bart Bartel was voted the most humorous.

The big event was seeing and hearing the honors awarded to our Varsity Football group. Pictured are 4 special award winners along with 6 members of the L.C.A.A. first team while 5 made honorable mention. The caption under the 4 trophy receivers is explained by the L.C.A.A. winners aren't -the first team: Jeff Geiger-Offense, Defense and Special Kicking; John Reed-Offensive Tackle; John Alexander-Offensive Guard; Nick Krzyzaniak-Offensive End and Defensive Tackle; Doug Drouare-Defensive Lineman and Gary Daniels was Offensive Back and Defensive Linebacker. In honorable mention we have: Brian Broucek-Defensive Secondary; both Todd Quayle and Jeff Proctor went Defense and Offense; Dan Burch-Defensive Secondary while Troy Walden was Offensive Lineman. I do plan on having a special article with photos next week on Gary Daniels being Washtenaw area 2nd top rusher, areas top tackler and voted All Jackson County. Jeff Geiger got the big one-AP All State with honorable mention going to Gary Daniel and Nick Krzyzaniak.

In Retrospect

that silence does not force them into thinking about themselves or experiencing the real world of perception and sensation. "Basically they want to shut out the reality of their existence. This urge-a compulsion to keep reality at arm's length, it seems to me, accounts for the incessant, frenetic, loud music but also for most of the drugs, the booze, the sports mania, the television addiction and the intense occupation with trivia-all of which act as an opiate, dulling all sense of reality.

"Nowhere can this be seen more clearly than in the kind of music coming forth from portable and automobile radios and from many hi-fi sets.

"Music began as a celebration and as an exploration of the human spirit but now this gift has been turned against its own self, blasting forth a cacophony to dull and dehumanise the human soul."

This same gentleman also insists that he likes all kinds of music from the classical to the basic jazz and Dixieland of the 20's, 30's and 40's; that he likes light opera and musical comedy and all the rest, so perhaps his longing for more "music" will be granted, that we are on our way back to music that we can "enjoy", which soothes and inspires us. Let us join the gentleman who voices the above tirade in hoping so. There's a real need in our lives for music, be it Brahms, Beethoven, Gershwin or Cole Porter or all those in between.

Friends...the universal bond.

In this mobile, transient world of travel, job relocations and far flung vacations, one universal bond breaks ice among strangers, makes instant friends and brightens the bleakness of being far from home...finding someone else from your hometown.

"Hey, I'm from the same area too...Do you know _____?" can warm many an otherwise cool encounter far afield.

Chances are when the conversation turns to mutual acquaintances, the name of someone from Union Savings Bank will arise. Why? Because for decades, we've been caring participants in helping our neighbors build a better hometown area...our hometown, your hometown, they're the same.

We've made and kept friends by staying a hometown bank so all of our customers stay individuals instead of becoming revenue producing units for some impersonal headquarters far away.

That's what hometown banking is all about.

alone, but rather of ALL who are involved in trying to build our educational system. No real purpose is served by pointing fingers at any one or any group and trying to place blame. That is the real problem at this time.

All things considered it seems that we as citizens have a right to DEMAND a true spirit of cooperation and open communication from all parties involved, and we have an OBLIGATION to support efforts of all parties to this end.

To see this happen several suggestions might be followed:

(1) A public meeting to answer questions, where board and teacher representatives would do this, should be held. In this situation citizens might expect to hear straight answers thus putting an end to misinformation and misinterpretation.

(2) An honest, effort of both groups is necessary to develop a FAIR AND EQUITABLE contract. It must be understood that this requires "give and take" especially in the more crucial issues.

(3) The contract must take changing conditions in all areas into consideration, including some provision to compensate for the seriousness of inflation.

(4) If the parties CANNOT and WILL NOT fulfill their obligations then they should both agree to binding arbitration, with a neutral third party considering the facts and making the decision.

Finally, let the people of this community continue their moral and financial support of the schools by doing these things now! Put our children and teachers back in the classroom where they belong and do it without anymore conflict.

Sincerely,
Judy Reed

On the first day of the teacher strike, I said to everyone, "the teachers have a right to higher pay, better benefits and smaller classes".

My husband is an auto worker and is working under a very good contract. The teachers deserve a good contract also. I talked with some of the teachers and sympathized with the high cost of living, sharing my own problems of keeping up with inflation, while raising five children.

On the second day of the teacher strike I thought how nice to be able to sleep in and not have to get everyone up at 6:30 a.m. By 10:00 a.m. our breakfast table had seen cereal, milk, sugar, toast, and butter put on and taken off six different times. The last time was just in time for the first lunch to be served. By 3 p.m. the kitchen sink still had dishes in it and I was hearing recurring sounds from the recently ended summer vacation: "what can I do?" Not one kid can see that not a bed had been made, a dish washed, the dirty clothes sorted on the laundry room floor waiting to be put in the washer, or the vacuum sitting in the middle of the family room (that they have to walk over everytime they get up to change a channel on the T.V.).

On the third day of the teacher strike I said, "the teachers are right in their strike but I do wish the school board would meet more often." I had everyone up by 8 a.m., and had it down to three breakfasts done by 9:30. No one said, I'm hungry again until 9:45. Breakfast dishes were done as we started lunch. By now though, the phone rang every twenty minutes and its never for me. My oldest wanted to go "up town"; and when I asked her for what she said "mother!" "weren't you ever young?" (I am an old 33) I said, "all you will do is get into trouble". I promptly put them all to work stacking two cords of wood. They grumbled the whole time, and were hungry again when they had finished. They came in and ate three dozen homemade cookies. School had better start or my husband will need a raise. School lunches are a real bargain compared to what is consumed around here in a day just in snacks.

On the fourth day of the teacher strike, no one wanted to get up around here except the three year-old who has a built in hunger alarm. The girls had all stayed up the night before watching T.V. After the last breakfast, somewhere around 10:30, I decided my kids needed to do some school work. "Now hear this" I said while standing in front of the T.V. Every afternoon from 1:00 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. we will be doing school work. I heard groans from the oldest and goody-goody from the youngest. The oldest thinks I can't teach her anything she doesn't already know because I graduated from high school at the end of the war, (the Civil War). Thus starts my career as a one room school teacher. My God, the teachers sure do deserve a raise and smaller classes. I wouldn't do this full time for any amount of money. I do think my children are learning something tough, and so am I. I do wish I had learned before age thirty that the "pill" was not an aspirin.

On the fifth day of the teacher strike I still support them and think they should also have free Excedrin in the lounge with every break. I made it until noon today fairly well. I did watch a Donahue show on T.V. about sugar in kids diets causing excess energy. Lunch was carrot sticks and water today. Need I say more. My 3 year-old goes to bed for his nap and our classes start. So far I know for sure I am doing the first grade work right; with the rest all I can do is pray. Speaking of praying, I find myself doing more and more of that.

On the sixth day of the teacher strike I am still behind the teachers. My house is probably going to be condemned by the county health department. I feel that I need a room at Mercy Wood (come to think of it I could still support the teachers while enjoying peace and quiet and maybe hot coffee instead of my usual cold). The kids think I must have flunked out of grade school, and I am being unreasonable when I want the right to use the bathroom for five minutes twice a day or wanting them in bed before the National Anthem comes across our T.V. screen.

On the seventh day of the teacher strike, I do support the teachers in body but my mind is giving out. Sorry teachers I do still believe your demands should be met but please hurry! My kids think I am a hopeless case because I still insist they study, but by this time I really don't know what they should study. What I wouldn't give to have my problems of thirteen years-ago; such as whether to use cloth diapers or Pampers. On second thought I would give up fifteen current nuclear building programs, they can move offensive nuclear weapons and troops into Cuba; they can cut off all our imported oil; they can issue us an ultimatum to surrender our strategic weapons; and they can pursue aggression anywhere in the world. There will not be a thing we can do to resist."

I would like to urge all who want to keep America strong to write to Senators Don Riegle and Carl Levin and tell them to vote against SALT II. Address them at the Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. Do it today.

Jaycettes Auxiliary

The Manchester Jaycee Auxiliary met at the home of Sandy King November 14. Plans were discussed for our Christmas Candy Sale on December 8 at the Union Savings Bank and Lunch with Santa on December 15 at the Emanuel Church. Tickets for the lunch are now on sale at the Bakery and the Union Savings Bank. Anyone wishing to purchase tickets did so at that time. Plans were made to contribute craft items and baked goods to the District Bazaar, proceeds to the Michigan Association for the Emotionally Disturbed. It will be held in Clinton, November 27. Our next meeting will be held at the home of Cheryl Bunn for our annual potluck and revealing of Secret Pals. The meeting was adjourned and we went to the Bauernstube Restaurant for a very enjoyable dinner and social time.

Survey

To those of you who took the trouble to return the survey on the teachers' strike in last week's paper, thank you. We appreciate your efforts and opinions. We received only 16 surveys, however, and that is too small a number to tally as a fair sampling of community sentiment.

years of my life to have my kids raised. On the eighth day of the teacher strike I do still support the teachers. But if God had meant for me to be a teacher he would have given me a sign like, nerves of steel and the mind of a pop singer so I could relate.

Today while being teacher my three year-old was taking a bath. I always leave the bathroom door open and keep talking to him and as long as he answers I know he hasn't drowned. Well, being busy with the other four in the pursuit of an education, he kept yelling for me to come there and I kept yelling just a minute. When I did go in, my tennis shoes met me at the door as they floated into the family room. You know I don't have a contract either and I think I will quit.

On the ninth day of the teacher strike I am still behind all of our teachers, but I was wrong, I DO have a contract with my kids. It began the day that each one was born; to raise and love, and teach them to the best of my ability. Because of that love for my kids, I will support the teachers. I wrote this to give some humor to a mother's side of the situation during the strike.

The teachers of Manchester deserve a new contract, as they will play a big and important part in the shaping of my kids and your kids future.

Sue Leach

Dear Sir:

I am concerned that ratification of SALT II by the U.S. Senate will advertise to the world that the U.S. accepts strategic inferiority to the U.S.S.R. and is willing to place the future independence and national sovereignty of this nation at the mercy of Communist Russia. Any 'peace' bought at that price will be as dangerous as the 'peace' in our time' bought by British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain at Munich in 1938 which triggered World War II.

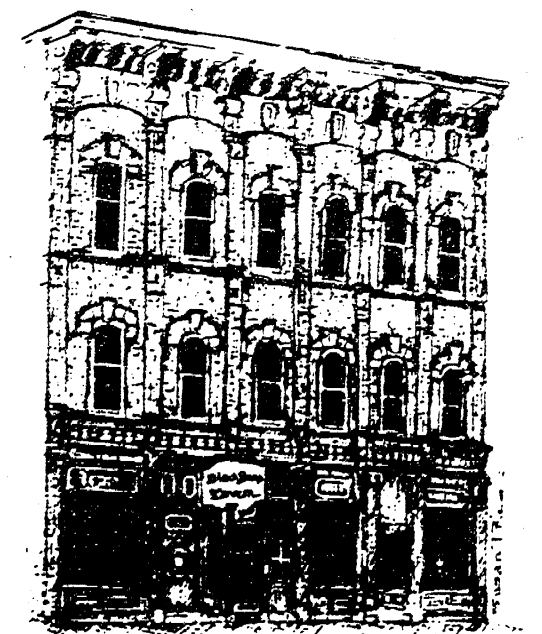

An editorial in THE NEWS of Lynchburg, Va., on May 15, 1979 stated: "As Mr. Carter pumps for an unverifiable treaty with a government that has broken 50 of 52 major pacts it has signed, the Soviets are continuing to build Cuba into a massive air and submarine base under our noses..."

"If we sign this pact and live up to its provisions, and the Soviets do not—as they have done in SALT I—there will be no need for a SALT III. The Varter Administration will have sold out American sovereignty on paper, without a fight. And James Earl Carter, Jr., will go down in history as the man responsible."

Phyllis Schlafly in her REPORT of August 1979 warned: "The SALT II treaty allows the Soviet Union to build everything they need to achieve a first-strike capability, decisive nuclear superiority, and control of the world. As soon as the Soviets finish their

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

November 5, 1979

Council met in regular session with the meeting called to order by President Schaffer at 7:00 P.M. Present were: DuRussel, Hinkley, Koebbe, Petsch, Minick, Reed, Daniels and Zsenyuk. Minutes of the October 15, 1979 meeting were approved as corrected in a motion by Hinkley, supported by Reed. All yeas, carried.

Mr. Dennis A. Carlson of Clear Cablevision was present to make a presentation proposing a Community Antenna Television System for the Village of Manchester. Following a question and answer period it was moved by Reed, supported by Minick to turn the Ordinance over to Village Attorney Gisting for review. "An Ordinance to establish a Community Antenna Television System and to award a Franchise for the establishment and operation thereof." All yeas, carried.

Chief Zsenyuk presented the Police Report for the month of October:

Bids received on Police Car: Widmayer Ford - $7,399.00, Chrysler Proving Grounds - $5,432.00. Moved by Minick, supported by Reed to authorize the Police Dept. to purchase the Chrysler vehicle. All yeas, carried.

The Manchester High School Band requested permission to hold a parade and concert on Main St. on November 9, 1979 at 5:30 P.M. No objections were voiced.

Chief Zsenyuk and Clerk to reevaluate Fleet Policy Insurance.

A survey was completed on parking on East Main St. It was recommended that no parking be allowed on the South side of the street. Zsenyuk to contact Attorney Gisting for an Ordinance.

The meeting was adjourned as Council and convened as Zoning Board of Appeals at 8:00 P.M. Additional members present were Bond and Daniels, Robert and Karen Paul's request for a variance from Section 57.04 of the zoning Ordinance, to construct a suitable 30 foot by 16 foot addition to the Back Door Party Store, to replace the present metal shed was considered. Moved by DuRussel, supported by Petsch the variance be granted with the stipulation that a center line be painted on existing driveway; arrows be painted on driveways showing flow of vehicle traffic entering or exiting; sidewalk be constructed on South side of building; Addition be used solely for storage of beverage containers other than liquor empty of full. Roll call vote: Yeas - Bond, Minick, Reed, Hinkley, DuRussel, Petsch, Koebbe, No - Daniels. Motion carried. Adjourned as Zoning Board of Appeals and reconvened as Village Council.

Public Works activities as reported by Koebbe included: Raked both parks and picked up leaves that were raked into streets; The trash and leaf pickup was held Oct. 25th; Councilman, Dave Petsch will set up a meeting this week with Mr. Davis, Mark Gisting and Bruce Daniels about

Mr. Davis's water bill; Catch basins are being cleaned; Work was done at the cemetery as needed; Fill dirt was taken to the Donald DuRussel home on Ann Arbor Hill to help repay them for all the fill dirt they gave to Kirk Park; Tuesday morning, Nov. 6 the department is going to open up the water service at Michael Brigg's on Adrian Street to check and see if the problem of water freezing is in the street.

Mr. Bill Alber will be there to check the depth of service. If it's less than four feet the public works will pay the cost. If it's four feet or better we will invoice Mr. Alber; Snow signs are up at the Village Limits; The bids for the land fill should be reread and action taken on them; Mr. Chart has requested the department redig the ditch on S. Macomb. This will be one of our projects within the next two weeks, but not until someone opens up the water way across the swamp will it work; CETA funds for Doug Manwaring runs out next March; Kirk park will be graded when weather permits; The salter is being worked on to get it ready to install on the trucks; Repairs were made on the street sweeper and a water pump was replaced; The Ford dumptruck was in the Ford garage for carburetor repairs.

Moved by Koebbe, supported by Reed to accept the bid of Emmons Service, Inc. of $110.00 per pull for waste removal for the Village of Manchester. All yeas, carried. Daniels to notify the townships of rate increase.

Moved by Hinkley, supported by Minick to grant permission to the Optimist Club to erect "Home of Manchester Chicken Broil" signs on the Village Limit signs. Optimist Club to absorb all costs. All yeas, carried.

It was requested a representative of the Engineering Firm of Finkbeiner, Pettis & Strout, Limited be present at the December 3, 1979 meeting for a consultation. Petsch to research where it is feasible to construct Tennis Courts in the Village.

President Schaffer presented to Petsch a Distinguished Service Award in appreciation of Public Service in promoting the nationwide observance of United Nations Day.

Petsch reported he has been contacting residents who are in arrears in their water bills. It was voiced the unpaid water bills be added to the tax roll.

Moved by Reed supported by Minick to pay Village Payables as listed. All yeas, carried.

Clerk to notify North Cranbrook Associates, Land Developers of Southfield, Michigan that at this time Village Council is not interested in having a representative attend the meeting on December 3, 1979.

It was reported that Allen Schaffer of Union Construction Co. had a base coat put on the gravel part of Schaffer Court at no cost to the Village.

Moved by Koebbe, supported by Petsch to adjourn at 10:00 P.M.

Dealoris E. Richardson, Clerk

why some senior citizens get more out of their money than others...

They know how money works. They've taken a close look at their capital and investments. If they find their money earning only 3%, 4% or 5%, they switch. Switch their money to Great Lakes Federal Savings higher earning certificates. As an example, at Great Lakes Federal Savings you can earn 8%, 9%* per year and more. Add hundreds of dollars to your annual income. For details and answers, stop at any office of Great Lakes Federal Savings, and ask for free folder, "Why Some Senior Citizens Get More Out Of Their Money".

*The 8% per annum 8 year passbook certificate with monthly compounding yields an effective annual rate of 8.30%. Minimum deposit is $100. Our 26 week Money Market Certificate pays a higher fixed rate. Rates are announced weekly. Minimum deposit $10,000. Federal regulations prohibit the compounding of interest on Money Market Certificates. They are automatically renewed at maturity at the then current rate.

Federal regulations require an interest penalty for early withdrawal from certificate accounts.

History Of The Optimist Steer Club

Having just completed the 80th year of the Optimist Steer Club, we would like to report on the first 30 years.

The first club was organized in 1949 by a committee of Carl Schaible, Toss Knorpp and Willard Mann. That year we had just 3 members that sold their steers at the fair in August 1950. Lloyd Hughes had the grand champion and was sold to the Detroit Packing Co. for .45 per lb.

Since that time we have had 706 boys and girls participate and sell at our fair. The actual cost including hauling and insurance was $125,948.00. The 706 steers sold for a total of $362,065.00 for a gross profit of $226,122.00 less feed costs. All members signed notes at the Union Savings Bank for their steers and were indorsed by Optimist members. The first several years Linaham Bros. of Adrian sold our steers followed by Price Bros. of Stockbridge for several years, since that time Dale Haselschwerdt of Napoleon has sold for us. There has never been any charge for our auctioneers. Dr. Eames has been a strong supporter and taken care of any problems since the beginning. We are proud of the past that better than 90% of the 706 steers sold were sold to Manchester Businesses or individuals.

Buyers of our grand champions are as follows: I.G.A. bought 9, Manchester Locker 6, Country Markets 3, Manchester Ready Mix 2, Detroit Packing 1, Dexter Livestock 1, Union Savings Bank 1, River Acres 1, Hoover 1, Double A Products 1, Schumm's Restaurant 1, Wolverine Bar 1, and Baurenstube's Restaurant 1.

There's nothing easy about it.

Being a good soldier has never been easy. And today's Army asks only the best of you. After some very rugged training, you'll find out how tough you really are. You may have to run miles in full battle dress. You may find yourself helping to crew a 750-HP, 57-ton tank. It's hot and it's hard. Or you may find yourself jumping out of airplanes. Scared at first. Then loving it. Whatever the challenge, it won't be easy. You'll find out fast whether you can handle it. You may even learn nothing's impossible.

Card Of Thanks

I would like to thank all of the people who had kind thoughts and prayers for me during my recent illness.
Bob Chapin

I would like to thank everyone who sent me cards and a special thank you to all of the nice people who sent food in. Also thank you to the Knights of Columbus for the plant.
Mae Panches

It is with the deepest and most grateful appreciation that I want to express my "thank you" to each and every one of you who remembered me on my 90th birthday. Many of you perhaps will not know an old song which brings back golden memories, the lyrics of which are - "dear friends and gentle people, who live in my home town". However, not only in my HOME town, but in every home town in which I lived during my teaching years, also to my many friends in the surrounding area - Chelsea, Jackson, Ann Arbor, and especially the half-page coverage in the Rochester Clarion. "Thanks, Chuck!" I would like to extend a special thank you and grateful appreciation to Professor Carol Harding and Mary Leeman, both of the faculty of Michigan State University, and Carl Loeffler, of Ann Arbor, who planned the open house. God bless them and everyone for making my special day such a delightful and memorable day.

New Superintendent Talks About Manchester Schools

by Sandra Volentine

Eugene Thompson, the new superintendent of schools with one month on the job, has survived a crisis. Faced with a strike and deadlocked contract negotiations his third day at work, Dr. Thompson had to learn a lot in a hurry.

Now things are better. "The kids are back in school. We're back working at education. That's fun. That's what I'm trained to do," said Thompson. Relaxed now, with the weeks of strife behind him, Thompson talked in an interview last Friday about his background, his role in Manchester, and his visions for the future. Gene Thompson brings a variety of training, experience, and influences to his position. "Everything I've done through my career has prepared me to be superintendent. I intentionally went through varying types of roles in my jobs, instead of the usual route of principal, assistant superintendent, superintendent. All have widened my experience. I don't think I would have anywhere near the breadth I've been able to gain if I had followed the traditional pattern."

Appointed Manager Of Manchester Banking Center

Edward L. Barnard, a Manchester resident for five years will be the manager of Ann Arbor Bank and Trust's Manchester Banking Center. Bruce Benner, president of the bank noted that Barnard joined Ann Arbor Bank and Trust with over twenty years of banking experience, ten of these in branch management. A life long Ann Arbor area resident Barnard is past President of the Ann Arbor Jaycees, a former Jaycee International Senator, and currently is active in the Manchester Optimist Club. As manager of a full service office, Barnard will provide loan services for installment, commercial, mortgage and agricultural loans. Thomas Kalleward, Assistant Trust Officer for the bank will be available locally to provide trust services. Nancy Keizer will serve as head teller, with Jeanne Martin and Nancy Peters as tellers. A grand opening celebration is under way thru December 14 in the bank's temporary location at 10903 Manchester-Chelsea Road (M-52) on the north edge of town. Construction is currently under way to remodel an existing structure into a permanent location at the site, with completion expected next spring.

His educational background includes a B.A. from Western Michigan in elementary education, with minors in English, history, and geography; an M.A. from the University of Michigan in school administration, with a minor in elementary school curriculum; and a Ph.D. from Western Michigan in educational leadership, with a minor in counseling and guidance.

Previous positions have been Director of Research and Evaluation in the Ann Arbor Schools, Assistant Dean in the School of Education at the University of Alabama, Director of Curriculum for Gull Lake Community Schools; and elementary school Principal and Teacher.

Asked why he became a teacher in the first place, Thompson said, "I'm not sure. My older sister was an important influence, and I suspect the strongest. She was a teacher and I looked up to her."

Though Thompson's basic career goal is to be in administration, to be in a leadership role, he misses teaching. "When I look back the one job I enjoyed most was being elementary school principal, where I still had close contact with kids. Not that I haven't enjoyed what I have done since, but I am still an educator at heart and have been removed from immediate contact with students for ten years. I'm used to that now but have never stopped missing that contact."

Thompson grew up in northeast Detroit. "My dad was a policeman. I attended Detroit Denby High on the East side. We lived in the same house all through my childhood. "Even though it was a big city, in those days there were neighborhoods which were like small towns. I knew everyone within three, four, five blocks. The neighborhood was largely ethnic, Italian, Polish. We were one of the few Protestant families. I learned that way to live with people of different backgrounds."

"After college I lived in the suburbs of Detroit, then in a small town, Richland. Then I lived in Birmingham, Alabama, which was another educational process. That's a whole another cultural system. "My preference is for a small town, for open countryside and space. My dad has said that I am a lot like his father. My grandfather was an Appalachian coal miner. He drifted around the coal mines and farms. He liked the country, and didn't like the city. I am most at home in the country."

Back to the present, Thompson talked about being superintendent. "I see my job as the chief executive of a 2.3 million dollar business. I work for the Board of Education, a policy making body. My job is to see that policy carried out."

Thompson influences that policy by making recommendations on every issue. "My role is to advise, to provide data so they can make intelligent decisions."

He further sees that his job is "to deliver education to the community, to respond to educational groups, to work with teachers

Deadline For Filing Nominating Petitions

The deadline for filing nominating petitions for the office of the Manchester Council is Tuesday, December 18, 1979 at 4 P.M.

The following offices will be open in the March 1980 election: Mayor-2 year term; Clerk-2 year term; Treasurer-2 year term; Assessor-2 year term; three Trustees for 2 year terms and two trustees for 1 year terms.

Petitions can be obtained from the Village Clerk, Dealoris Richardson.

United Way Tops Goal For 20th Year

For the twentieth straight year the people of Manchester, its business industries and organizations have met their United Way goal. This year's goal of $24,748 has been exceeded by 9.6% for a total of $27,129.59. I am sure that these funds will go a long way toward brightening the day for many people and organizations dependent upon the United Way for support.

I would like to thank the United Way Board, the Division Chairmen, Captains, Solicitors, and especially the contributors. Also thanks to the Manchester Enterprise for their coverage of the campaign; and the Gamble Store for displaying our thermometer, as well as anyone else who helped with this years drive.

It is my pleasure to have had the opportunity to be campaign chairman for a community like Manchester that has such a commitment to doing its fair share for the United Way agencies.

James W. England
Campaign Chairman

Final reports of the Manchester Area United Way Campaign were reviewed by James W. England, General Campaign Chairman, at a meeting held at the Lou Vogel home on November 28th. Attending were Board Members and Division Chairmen.

Total campaign receipts in cash and pledges amounted to $27,129.59. This figure represents 109.6% of the campaign goal. This marks the 20th consecutive year that the Manchester United Way has reached its goal!

Mr. England expressed his thanks to all divisions and submitted the following:

- Industry - $16,514.94 contributed, 60.9% of total, 113% of goal.
- Rural - $3,762.75, 13.9% of total, 109% of goal.
- Business - $3,264.00, 12.0% of total, 99% of goal.
- Village - $1,723.00, 6.4% of total, 116% of goal.

Suggestions and comments concerning the campaign were discussed and filed for future reference.

Other items of business included payment of the remaining 1978 payroll designated pledges to outlying communities plus any current out-of-town payroll designations that were cash donations.

An emergency appeal from the American Red Cross requesting funds for their depleted Disaster Revolving Fund was read, and the Board approved payment of

In Retrospect

"Tis the season now to be jolly-to think of Santa and gifts and all that sort of stuff. And the other day we were thinking of these things when we came across an article discussing various items in our national budget and listing from that document, quite a number of government grants to various organizations for various purposes and as we read them it seemed to us that they should- quite a few of them at least, be classified as gifts from Santa, and don't forget that you the taxpayer, are paying for these grants.

They are, as we said, many and varied and among them are the following: (These are not all from the current year's budget but all are from recent year's grants).

One of those that caught my eye was a $20,000 a year study of German cockroaches by the National Institute of Health.

And then there was the $70,000 project to conduct research on the small of perspiration from Australian aborigines. This the fine print says is one of sixteen subprojects concerned with the "zoophysiology" in Alaska.

There was also a $8,700 grant awarded by the National Foundation of the Arts to study the history of the comic books of the nineteenth century.

Three or four years ago Sen. Barry Goldwater collected a list of some of these Christmas gifts and the one that seemed to amuse him the most was the $500 given to Aram Saroyan, son of the author Wm. Saroyan for a poem to be included in the American Literary Anthology. The poem (all of it) was just eight letters as follows: "light". You figure it out, we're tired.

At that time the Senator noted that July 1 is the start of a new fiscal year and at that time every government agency must use up all of their grant from the previous year, (whether or not they have any need for it) or their budget will be cut for the next year and so you must be aware that there is never any left. It gets used up somehow. It was noted that a few years ago one agency discovered to its horror that come June 30 there was going to be a considerable sum left and so they ordered, paid for and had installed before the June 30 deadline a batch of very, very expensive oak doors for the offices of its bigwigs. They had nice doors not chintzy oak ones...and there these doors remain to this day the envy of the other departments.

And while we are on this subject the government maintains two plush resorts for the use solely of federal officials, members of Congress and civilian VIP's. One is Shenandoah National Park and the other is in Grand Teton National Park in Wyoming.

Then too there are on the list many more intriguing grants, the results of which might make interesting reading. Among these was $132,500 given the University of Minnesota to find out why people fall in love and $342,000 given Michigan State College to study the use of birth control devices by unmarried college students. The study questioned 1,200 students as to the when, where and with whom they had premarital sex.

And down towards the bottom of the list was the grant to determine how to integrate hitchhiking "into the transportation system."

So may you all enjoy all these gifts from the Great White Father down in Washington; all paid for by you the taxpayer as a part of our annual Federal budget, all O.K.'d and passed by your Congressman and your Senator, and a merry merry Christmas to you all. Maybe these gifts are for the person who has every thing but who hasn't paid for it yet.
