Hit or Miss by farley

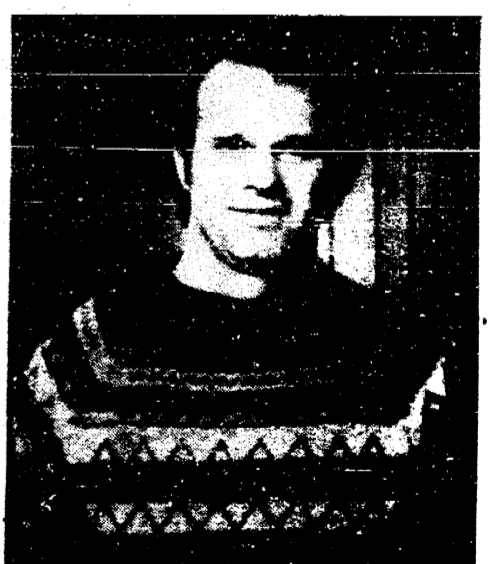

We said last week that we would make a couple of prophesies about 1980, that we felt obligated to do so because all columnists of any note, and otherwise, did so and we proceeded to delineate on the fact that people would find out where congressmen came from and several readers have sworn that they will devote their energies to finding a source from which can be recruited a better grade of candidate - preferably men who, as John Holland, the poet pleaded for some seventy-five years ago were "Men with a conscience who will not lie, men whom the lust of office will not buy." But we are sorry to say that these fellows are as scarce today as they were then - or more so.

We do, however, cling to a faint hope that between now and election time the voter will ponder and act accordingly. In the meantime may we make another prediction. That parents will discover that adolescents are always have been and always will be, just plain stupid, and that the parents will become resigned to their fate and I am sure that this decision will be greeted with skepticism by the youngsters but the smouldering war over cleaning up bedrooms will end with the surrender of the parents. It has taken a terrible toll over past many many years.

I think that now is the time for parents to give in because when they last slept and see the mess and discover the mess in our world that - cleaning a bedroom will seem as very insignificant. There are several other facts that I am sure that people will be forced to find true such as the fact that one-individual or nation - does not buy friends; that with the privileges accorded a free and equal people come responsibilities; and perhaps that as Mark Twain said "Loyalty to a petrified opinion never broke a chain nor

OBSERVATIONS

by JAW

We wholeheartedly agree with the writer of "retrospect" that the time has come for all Americans to take a close look at the life we are being forced to live, and to determine whether we want to live it or not. Frankly I don't like it because the freedom which I once enjoyed is being constantly jeopardized by our American government. Where Lincoln once proudly proclaimed that this government was one "by the people, of the people, and for the people", we can now state that it is a government "by the lobbyist, of the business, and for the profits." I recently asked a representative of our government why my assessment was raised by 15% although nothing had been done to enhance its value. To be sure we have inflation but that was only 12.5% and the increase in property assessment increased taxes by 16%. So why was I being penalized to pay the extra higher taxes? His only answer was "Let of people have said that. HA HA HA." In short just pay higher taxes, you dumb bloke and wait until we really sock it to you.

It has also come to my attention that the value which we receive from our government is getting less and less weekly. God has blessed us with an astronomical price per ounce meaning our dollars are rapidly becoming worthless. There has been very little progress on the Energy crisis. Our International Policy is practically non-existent with a small third power nation holding fifty American citizens hostage for over ten weeks and unemployment is on a steady upswing. What was once considered to be a great and wealthy nation is rapidly turning into a vast group of aimless people floundering in a mass of confusion.

Take their latest effort for example. Congress passed a law to help the elderly and low income group to pay their utility bills. So they mailed out $3,000,000 to people that lived in nursing homes, hospitals, and establishments for the elderly who never paid any utility bills. On the other hand there were just as many that paid bills but never received any money to help them. Just a typical example of the operations of our government.

Much of the dilemma which exists in our country today has been propagated through the magical expression of the term Federal Aid. Practically every day one reads about projects, proposed or in action and when discussed as to total cost is cited by the statement that a large part of this cost is coming from this Federal Aid. Most of us are haled into a feeling of security without even questioning whether or not it really is Aid. And we are certain that most of us would be greatly disturbed to learn that actually it is anything but Aid. In order for the government to offer Aid it must first collect taxes to obtain the money. Out of this money it must pay administrator and workers salary, as well as heat, light, telephone and all other sundry expenses for the offices in which such taxes are collected and processed. After all these expenses have been paid there are further expenses involved in hearing cases and projects for which money is to be allocated. After all those expenses the money left may be used for so-called Federal Aid.

What is actually left over is about ten cents for every dollar collected in taxes. In short the taxpayer loses about ninety cents for every dollar paid in taxes. So the simple thing to do would be not to pay taxes, which would eliminate payment for supporting offices, administrators and so forth and we would have ten times as much money for our own projects without Federal Aid. What we have done is to allow the Federal government to outgrow its own importance at the taxpayers cost.

What we can do to overcome this dilemma will be discussed over the next few months. After all, this is an election year and elections can bring about good results.

Hit or Miss

freed a human soul," but we'll report on the progress of these trivials (?) at a later date.

Somebody dug up and showed us the other day a description by W.C. Fields about what he thought should be the duties of an ideal wife. They include the following schedule:

10 - 12 a.m. - Mow lawn, wash and iron and press clothes, weed garden, wash flies; 12 - 2 p.m. - clean cellar, wash windows, beat rugs; 2 - 2:15 p.m. - eat simple lunch; 2:15 - 5:00 p.m. - spade garden, wash socks and darn them, wash dog, polish car, clean white sidewalls on tires; 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. - cook and serve dinner, wash dishes; 7:00 p.m. until midnight - keep busy and keep smiling for as every man knows, a husband is tired.

After hearing what the candidates are saying about each other aren't you afraid that one of 'em will get elected?

Most of us are too fond of people who agree with us and of food which doesn't.

Shirley Dehn, R.N. Retiring From Methodist Home

Shirley M. Dehn, R.N., director of nursing for twenty years, at the Chelsea United Methodist Retirement Home, retired as of December 31, 1979.

Mrs. Dehn will be honored at a Retirement Open House, to be held in the main lounge of the Chelsea Home, on Sunday afternoon, January twentieth from two to four o'clock.

Mrs. Dehn began her work, at the Methodist Home, as a part time staff nurse in 1967. However, within a few months she was appointed "head nurse" later to be known as Director of Nursing. At that time there were 40 nursing beds with one other licensed nurse and two aides on each shift. Residents of the Home helped to care for each other, also helped prepare food and wash dishes as well as assist with some household tasks.

Mrs. Dehn will always be remembered by patients and residents of the Home as a trusted friend, as well as a compassionate nurse, for she gave hope and joy along with care and medications - and always a smile to lift their spirits.

Mrs. Dehn has a daughter, two sons and two little granddaughters with whom she plans to spend many happy hours.

The trustees and the residents of the Home extend a very cordial invitation to all friends of Shirley Dehn, R.N., medical associates, co-workers throughout the years, family members of past and present residents and patients of the Home, to attend the Open House on January 20th at the Home, 806 W. Middle Street, Chelsea.

Roundball Squads Remain Undefeated In 1980

By Jon

This past Friday saw our little Dutch hand a loss to Vandercook Lake and about 2 hours later our Varsity sent the Jayhawks home on the low end of the score. These wins did keep us unbeaten for this year.

In the first game this evening I arrived in the closing seconds of the opening period. A little Jayhawk popped an 8 footer at the buzzer to give his squad the edge, 11-9. The second period proved to be a very low offensive 8 minutes as at the 3:27 mark we hit a bucket to knot the tally 13-13. After several missed shots by both teams, the Jayhawks finally sank a free throw at 2:05 to go up 14-13 and this is how it stayed. Halftime was here showing Vandercook Lake with a 14-13 lead. Pete Johnson found the hoop from 15 feet and this tied it 19-19 at 5:43 of this the 3rd stanza. Pete hit and Kelly Boyd stole the in-bound pass and scored to put us up 24-21 at 4:49. We continued to tally being up 5 at 1:12 when Mike Ball toed the line to put the first in and rim the second. This was ok as Paul Shroufe leaped into the lane, grabbed the leather to put it in giving us an 8 point advantage. But look out -- the Jayhawks came down quickly to hit then stole on their press and scored. We stopped over the bounds line too soon so they threw it in and tallied, 34-32. Paul was called for a foul so they shot no good but again Paul got whistled. The Jayhawk sank this to tie it 34-34 with :23 still in the 3rd period. It was Jim DuRussel canning at :12 second to give us an edge that held so entering the final period we stood up 36-34. The Jayhawk didn't crack this narrow 2 point lead and at 4:36 we stole the sphere feeding Larry Jacob who layed it in for our 46 to 40 score. It was all Little Dutch from here as at :59 it stood 59-51 and the Jayhawks went down 59-55. Paul lead dumping for 17 as Pete and Larry hit 9 each. Kelly followed with 8.

In the Varsity game we dressed only eight men which could cause some problems (remember last season when we had 8 and some fouled out so we finished with 4 on the floor) but it didnt tonight. This also was a low starting contest as they drew first blood but Denny Helfrich tied it

Twentieth Century Club Meets

This year's Christmas Party for the Twentieth Century Club began with a dinner at Die Bauernstube. The group then proceeded to the Emanuel United Church of Christ where the hostess for the evening, Mrs. Robert Macfarlane, and the program committee, Mrs. John Sauter, Mrs. Roland Grossman and Mrs. Willard Mann, had arranged with Mr. Anthony Gaines, the church organist from Ann Arbor, for an organ recital of Bach and Handel Christmas music. Following group singing of Christmas carols, Mr. Gaines closed the program beautifully with the solo "O Holy Night".

The next part of the evening was spent at the parsonage to enjoy the "cookie exchange" that had been set up by the committee from the twenty-six different kinds of cookies the members had brought. A cook book of a variety of recipes collected at a previous club meeting and assembled by Mrs. Norman Fielder and Mrs. Maynard Blossom was presented to each member as a token of the season.

The January meeting of the Club was held at the home of Mrs. Alvin Kappler, Tuesday, January 9 with seventeen members present. There was the annual Round Table discussion and the plans for the coming year's program were begun. Mrs. Dan Boutell and Mrs. Robert Nickels delighted the group with humorous readings from Virginia Cary Hudson's book "O Ye Jigs and Juleps". The club voted to do the binding for the Manchester Township Library of a collection of Manchester Historical writings by Jane Palmer, as a memorial to the former librarian who served the area almost three decades - 1909 to 1918 and again 1938 to 1967.

Refreshments were served by the hostess who was assisted by Mrs. James Pratt.

The next meeting will be February 12 at the home of Mrs. James Scully.

Manchester Jaycettes Meet

December 12, 1979, the Manchester Jaycettes met at the home of Cheryl Dunn for a Christmas potluck dinner. Visiting the meeting were Barb Myers, District Vice President and Margie Ball, Tecumseh Jaycettes President. New member Jean Riley was installed. Plans were finalized for the Lunch with Santa. Plans for Christmas for the Senior Citizens were discussed. Secret Pals were revealed and gifts were exchanged, following the meeting. A good time was enjoyed by all.

January 9, 1980, the Jaycettes met at Sandy King's home. Eleven members were present. It was announced that Jaycee Appreciation Week will be January 20-26. Committees were set up for the Valentine Baby Contest and Easter Candy Sale. Proceeds from the Easter Candy Sale will go to the Kidney Foundation. Refreshments were served following the meeting.

Brownie Troop 274

Brownie Troop 274 is spending time thinking and learning about the animals around us and how they get along during the winter months. We concentrated on birds at our meeting on Monday, January

Shakespeare Reading Club

The Shakespeare Reading Club met at the home of Mrs. Lowell Parr on Tuesday, January 8 with 18 members and 1 guest present.

The meeting was opened at 2 p.m. by President Mrs. Aaron Nathan and members answered to roll call of "A Book I Have Enjoyed". Current events were read by each member.

Mrs. Mabel Bellings gave a very interesting review of the book "Out of Africa". Mrs. Mildred Gillies reviewed the book "Only in America" by Harry Golden, and Mrs. Hazel Walker reviewed the book "War and Remembrance".

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, January 22 at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Martin Kessel. The topic of the day will be "Englands Cathedrals".

Brian Broucek totaled 8 points Friday. Photo by Jan

and aided in a turn-over in which Nick Krzyzaniak scored. Nick also was fouled so with completion of this 3 point play we lead 5-2 at 5:39. At 4:46 they had hit twice to make it 6-5 and the tally sawed some 6 times before they went up 3 with 1 minute to go. Pat Walkow hit and Troy popped soon after giving us the 13-12 cushion. Troy blocked their shot and threw down to Nick who scored as the horn sounded, 15-12. Vandercrook Lake couldn't buy a bucket as we tallied and tallied so with 5:55 Troy binged to make it 23-12. They finally hit at 4:48 but we maintained our lead to 29-18 at 2:40. At the :55 mark Jeff Gieger gunned to make it 36-19 and that's what it was at halftime. There was no real excitement most of the third until we scored late to enter the final period way on top, 54-37. Vandercrook did get hot and at 4:40 it stood 58-49. Believe it they kept shooting and at 2:22 they stood 7 short and pulled within 5 at 1:37. What saved us was patience resulting in easy buckets as the final read 73-59. Jeff led the way scorching the nets for 20 points as Nick banged in 18.

To Meet With Rep. Carl Pursell

Mr. Bart Bartels, fourth-grade teacher at Klager Elementary, Mrs. Pat Sahakian, Vice President of the Manchester Association for Talented and Gifted, along with Dr. Thompson, Superintendent of the Manchester Schools, were invited to meet Tuesday, January 8, 1980 with United States Representative Carl Pursell to discuss the need for counselors in the elementary schools.

Freshmen Testing Tuesday, January 15

Beginning on Tuesday, January 15 and continuing all week the freshman class at Manchester High School will be administered the Differential Aptitude Test (DAT) along with the career planning questionnaire. It will be given in the social studies classrooms.

The DAT is based on the research finding that intelligence is not a single ability but rather a number of abilities possessed in varying amounts by each individual. The battery yields nine reliable scores including an index of scholastic ability. The students also will record their educational and vocational plans and preferences. Together, these form a basis for helping students plan their futures soundly and for early identification of those with superior intellectual promise.

A special computer program considers the student information given with the test scores and creates for each student a Career Planning Report. The Report either confirms the appropriateness of the student's occupational choices in light of his or her abilities and expressed interests, or suggests alternative occupational areas to explore if the choices seem inappropriate.

Mr. Pursell, who is seeking the views of educators and parents regarding federal legislation proposed by Rep. Carl Perkins of Kentucky, invited selected representatives of the Manchester and Ann Arbor Schools to meet with him.

The exchange of thoughts between the invited representatives and Mr. Pursell was open and direct. Mr. Bartels stressed the need to provide services to the vast majority of students who are in the middle range. Mrs. Sahakian spoke of the problems talented and gifted students may face if they feel they are different in some way from their classmates.

In response to a question from Mr. Pursell regarding why local districts did not provide elementary school counselors if the need existed, Dr. Thompson pointed out the problems of attempting to budget for such a program in the face of increasing numbers of mandated, but not fully funded, programs. He further pointed out that accreditation of high schools requires the presence of counselors at that level but that no similar pressure exists at the elementary level. Too often, he noted, the problems of small children are viewed as unimportant until a major crisis develops.

115TH YEAR VOLUME NO. 13 USPS 327-460 THURSDAY, JANUARY 24, 1980

HIT OR MISS by farley

Comes the news that nearly 20 per cent of the automobiles sold in this country or more than the Ford Motor Company sold last year were made in a foreign country, which fact seemed to shock a great many folks. The government has even noted this fact as our union leaders have verbally resented that fact and said that if the foreign cars were to be sold in this country they should be made here, and they are going to appoint a committee to "investigate" the predicament in which we find ourselves. I have no idea of how much of the problem that will solve but maybe it will at least enlighten us.

Another news release notes that the Uniroyal tire plant in Detroit which has been there for many years, is to be abandoned and the operation moved elsewhere. Together these stories are sad ones but not surprising when you think about it a bit.

The workers in these United States have been the most energetic and innovative in the world. Assembly line production was developed here for economical assembly, and set the pace for the whole world for ingenuity, productivity and inventiveness. Our workers made quality products quickly and cheaply and by so doing our workers attained a standard of living that was superior to any in the world. How one could succeed in business was limited only by an individual's desire and effort.

Our economic system is rather simple. It is based on the profit motive. If you make a quality product that fills a need and can sell it cheaply to those who need and want it but for more than it cost to manufacture, you have a profit which gives one the capital with which to operate and also returns one's investment. It's that simple.

Now we have suddenly discovered that we are no longer able to be competitive as to price and quality, and we have, at least as far as the automobile is concerned, to considerable degree, lost our position, at least in the small car field.

Some of this at least is because a great many of our workers have been taught to want more and more for doing less and less and our productivity per worker has decreased. We have been discouraged from reaching top production on the job. We're admonished to "take it easy" on our jobs and so now here we are, in the automotive industry at least, in the position of having lost 20 percent of our market - because we haven't been very bright. It doesn't seem logical that our once shrewd leaders in that industry all dozed off and woke up only to find that they had guessed dead wrong and that our energy, problems had developed all at

by Sandra Volentine

Manchester Community Schools face a budget deficit of approximately $30,000, Superintendent Eugene Thompson told the school board at its meeting Monday night, January 21. The Superintendent said that slashes in equipment and supplies would not balance the budget and the board must consider eliminating some school programs.

Heat controls in the middle school and roof insulation for the high school gymnasium will not be installed because of the budget shortfall. Thompson recommended, and the board approved, a special meeting, Monday, January 28, at 8 p.m., to look at budget cuts.

Thompson reported that the State Municipal Finance Commission approved Manchester schools' request to borrow $200,000 against tax dollars to be collected. He hoped, however, the loan would not be necessary, and expects to know by February 6 how much money will be available to the schools.

The board voted to seek bids for two new buses, a 66-passenger replacement bus for regular service, and a 36-passenger bus for the special education program. The latter is necessary, said John McGuire, Assistant to the Superintendent, primarily for the additional students brought in by the Kinship Homes. Kinship Homes are group residences for the handicapped that do not require institutionalization.

The 66-passenger bus will cost approximately $20,000, and the 36-passenger one, $14,000. The school district is reimbursed for 66% of the cost of transportation for the special education program.

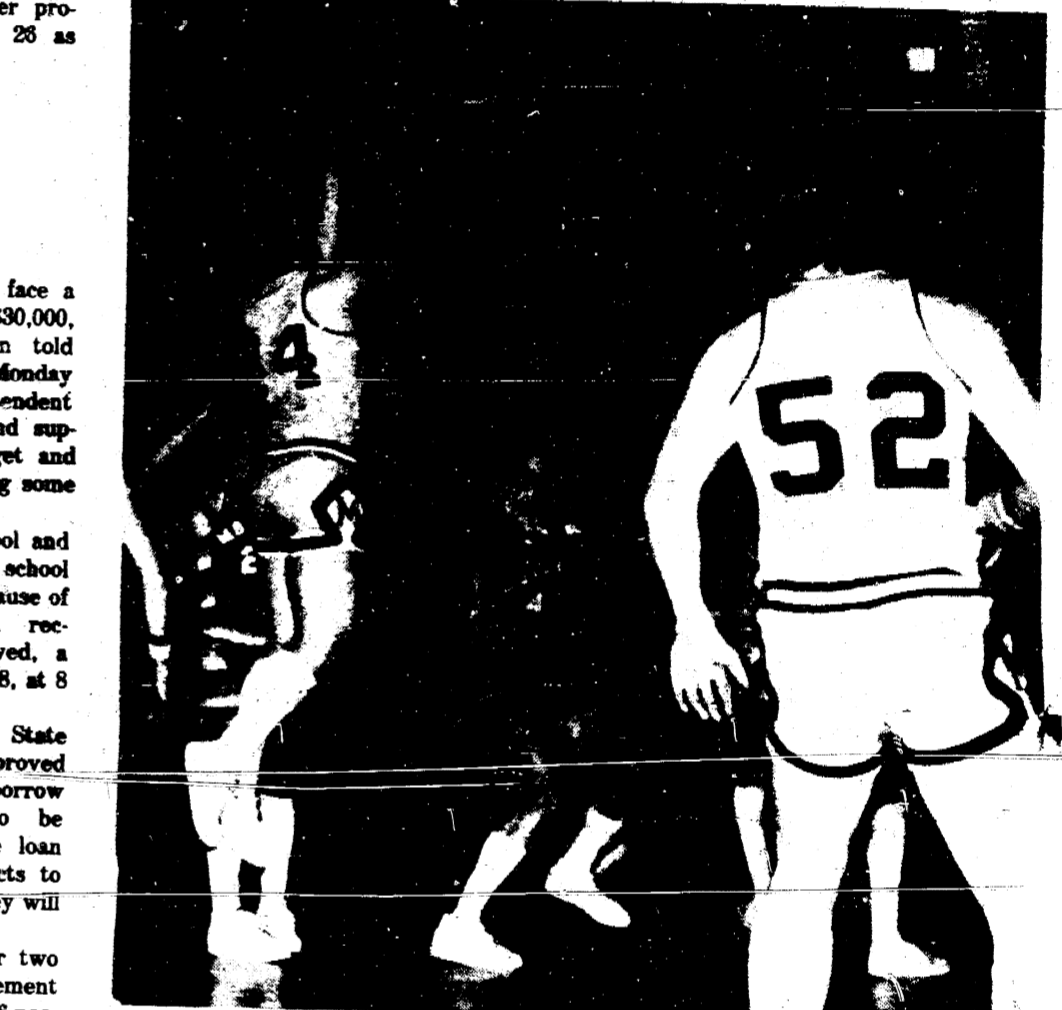

Paul DuFresne was concerned that the placement of the Kinship Homes was not coordinated with bus routes to lessen the impact on the school district. Corliss Mick said the lack of consultation with school districts by the project was a county-wide problem.

Thompson asked for board approval to allow Senior Citizens the use of a school bus, and the Washtenaw Intermediate School District the use of the specially modified bus for special education field trips. Jim Walkover thought allowing the use of the buses would be too costly to the district. Thompson said that fuel, driver salary, depreciation costs, and administrative overhead would all be included in the contracts for the use of the buses, so that there would be no cost to the school district. James Curley and George Macomber were still concerned that the additional use would contribute to the buses being worn out prematurely. William Bunney questioned the increased use of the special bus in light of the request to purchase a new bus for the special education program.

The board also approved early graduation for four students. Ms. Mick said that she was concerned that the curriculum was not sufficient to provide

Dutch Roundballers Have A Bad, Sad Week

Jon Hardenbergh

On Tuesday, we trekked to Pantherland where Addison came away winning both contests. Wednesday evening word spread that Varsity member Troy Waldon was critical, following an auto accident. In the games Friday, the Little Dutch got dumped by Morenci as the Varsity Bulldogs nipped us by one.

Unfortunately I didn't get to Addison, so don't know what happened. In the first match of the night our J.V.'s fell by 16, 69-53. In the Varsity battle we did hold the lead after 8 minutes of play 17-10 and despite the Panthers out-scoring us in the second period we still controlled 28-24 at halftime. It was this, the third period, when Addison got their act together enough to take a point edge into the final stanza. We did fight back to tie the score at 1:23 but the coach told me the lack of concentration enabled the Panthers to forge ahead and win 60-56.

On Friday, our J.V. squad fell behind by 11 at intermission 37-26 and just couldn't hit in the third period to go down by 16, 50-34 with 8 minutes left. Well, we did get hot but it proved to be too late - at 4:06 we pulled to 13, 61-48 and at 2:36 we stood ten short 64-54. The rejuvenated Little Dutch finally sensed we could over-take so clamped on a press to steal and forced Morenci to throw wild, turning the sphere over again so at 1:17 it was 64-57. Unfortunately we turned it over and they fired to go up 9 but back we came. A free throw sank at :27 to inch us closer, 66-60 but several missed shots ended it 68-60.

Emotion ran deep as we dedicated this contest to our teammate and friend Troy. We out-scored them in the opening 8 minutes 14-11 but the bulldogs started dumping leather to take the lead 18-16 at 6:09. We came back to recapture the edge and Jeff Geiger canned to make it 20-17 at the 5 minute mark. Morenci grabbed it back 23-22 at 3:00 but Nick Krzyzaniak hit 2 freebies to change it to 24-23 our favor. The Bulldogs just dribbled down and hit at 2:38 to lead and we turned it over to them twice to enable them to go ahead 5. After swapping buckets the half arrived with us down 5, 31-26. We played them bucket for bucket for quite some time so they held their 5 point cushion but at 2:40
