Valley Ambulance "Maintains a constant awareness of area needs and realities."
"We have established an Ambulance Service Advisory Committee that will consist of two representatives from each of the five hospitals with emergency services in Washtenaw County," he explained. They are Beyer Memorial Hospital, Catherine McAuley Health Center (St. Joseph Mercy Hospital), Chelsea Community Hospital, Saline Community Hospital, and the University of Michigan Medical Center.
Also advising the new ambulance firm will be the Emergency Medical Services

Medical Committee appointed by the Washtenaw County Board of Commissioners. The committee sets standards and assures the delivery of high quality professional emergency medical care and includes representatives from Washtenaw County Medical Society, all hospitals in Washtenaw and Livingston Counties, and the Washtenaw County Health Department.

Another Board-appointed advisory group, the Emergency Medical Services Commission, oversees issues related to emergency care and includes representatives from law enforcement, fire control, public safety, consumer protection, and public health.

Fileti said Huron Valley Ambulance is a crucial component of the new Advanced Life Support (ALS) program the hospitals in Washtenaw and Livingston counties have developed and are preparing for implementation.

"ALS is an improved communications system that will extend the critical care capability of hospitals in Washtenaw and Livingston counties. It allows physicians in emergency rooms to communicate directly with ambulance personnel in the field, and also to monitor the patients in transit," said John McCabe, MD, vice chairman of the Emergency Medical Services Committee and director of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Emergency Services.

McCabe said the creation of Huron Valley Ambulance now permits ALS to move forward.
"Serious questions about local ambulance service have delayed this first-rate development in emergency care, but now we anticipate that it will soon be implemented," McCabe said.

The collaborative ALS project involves the emergency rooms at Beyer Hospital, Chelsea Hospital, McPherson Hospital in Howell, Saline Hospital, University of Michigan Hospital and St. Joseph's.
Huron Valley Ambulance will retain the emergency phone number previously in use: 994-4111. Business phone and address: 994-5969; 2200 South Industrial Hwy., Ann Arbor, 48103.

NBJ IRA

A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE

Discover the options that set this IRA a world apart.

NBJ IRA Options:

1. Savings Account.
2. 18-Month Variable Rate Time Deposit.
3. 30-Month Fixed Rate Time Deposit.
4. 6-Month Fixed Rate Money Market Time Deposit.
5. Common Stocks.
6. Bonds.
7. Money Market Funds.

NBJ introduces an IRA that gives you more ways to make your money a star performer. Besides tax savings, you get the flexibility of choosing from a wide range of IRA options—all paying a high return on your investment, and all providing detailed statements.

IRA Savings Account. Yield for this option is over 50% higher than a regular savings account. You'll earn the maximum of 8% interest compounded continuously. When your investment grows to a set amount ($1,000, $10,000, $25,000, etc.) it can be transferred to another IRA option that pays higher interest. Deposits to your IRA Savings Account can be as low as $10, and can be made conveniently through a payroll deduction program.

IRA Time Deposits. Includes the following:
—18-Month Variable Rate Time Deposit*
—$1,000 minimum deposit.
—30-Month Fixed Rate Time Deposit
—$1,000 minimum deposit.
—6-Month Fixed Rate Money Market Time Deposit
—$10,000 minimum deposit.

Other financial institutions may appear to be paying a higher rate. But, in fact, they may not be. NBJ, on the other hand, will pay 1/4% above the rate of 91-day Treasury Bills.* Other time deposits will be at the prevailing interest rates.

IRA Trust Funds. An important NBJ difference—savings and loans can't offer these. We have an experienced trust department, so we can offer three more IRA options:
—Common Stocks.
—Bonds.
—Money Market Funds.

Tax savings that make a world of difference.

You can deduct your IRA contribution from your taxable income—up to $2,000 a year if you're single, up to $2,250 a year if you're married with one income, and up to $4,000 a year if you're married, have two incomes and two IRAs. And the earnings on your IRA are tax-deferred, too.

The chart below shows you how much money you can save in taxes in 1982 by investing in an NBJ IRA plan now. The information is based on a $2,000 single IRA contribution, and a $4,000 contribution to two IRAs by a working couple filing a joint return.

HIT or MISS by Farley

I made a horrible error the other day. I weighed myself on the bathroom scales which I hadn't done since Thanksgiving and I discovered just how many pounds I had added since then.

The holidays are undoubtedly the hardest time of the year not to become fat, but I suppose they are not entirely to blame. My lack of willpower also plays a part therein.

By the popular standards of today I suppose I am fat but I still think there are various standards for defining what is and what is not fat or stout. I don't like that word "fat". Stout or portly, (a word popular in the gay nineties) do sound much better to me.

I check out at an even six feet and for many years I balanced the scales at 215. By the standards of the insurance companies I am obese (another word I don't like the sound of). "I wonder sometimes if the Lord didn't want me to weigh this much" is columnist Charley McCabe's answer to those who criticize his weight.

I feel okay most of the time, if I don't exert myself a great deal and that is about all I can expect at my age.

I do however remember a long time ago when I played basketball in school that I weighed 165 but that is another story.

I do despise the prejudice most people seem to have against fat or heavy or obese or portly or stout people. Back in the nineties I would have been called a fine figure of a man—back in the days of such statesmen as Gladstone, or Teddy Roosevelt or Grover Cleveland.

Charlie McCabe noted the other day that there is an organization called The National Association To Aid Fat Americans. Their secretary says:

"Our culture's attitude towards obesity is so degrading and humiliating that fat people are allowing their bodies to be cut open by a surgeon's scalpel, having their jaws wired shut and spending millions of dollars a year on pills and books, literally losing their lives on fad diets—anything to lose weight and satisfy society's demands. Fat people are the butt of many cruel jokes, social prejudices, employment discrimination, medical and life insurance bias, attacks by the media and by advertising; by excruciatingly uncomfortable seating, and until recently, ignored by the fashion industry".

Fat folks seem to be just as much a victim of bigotry as black people, homosexuals and wheelchair bound folks.

It has also been found that there are foodaholics, who go to their graves by mouth and weigh the same at 60 as when they were in high school. Hormonal and chemical differences and where one lives and age can be responsible for extra weight.

Even if it does not please the insurance companies, it has been proven to be better for one than constantly gaining and losing weight which is true of 98 percent of all dieters.

The NAAFA is said to be fighting for a Federal law that will ban discrimination against fat people in every facet of society. The public obsession with it must be brought within reason.

It was getting so we had government of by and for the government.

Action Committee Seeks Recall

Bridgewater Action Committee, a citizens group, is circulating petitions asking for an election to recall four of the five member board of Bridgewater Township. The petitions will be filed with the Washtenaw County Clerk possibly this week.

Board members to be recalled are: Douglas Parr, Supervisor; Harold Bersuder, Treasurer; E. Louis Blaisdell, Clerk; and Andrew Poet, Trustee.

Trustee Marvin Breitenwischer and the other four were all elected to four-year terms in 1980.

BAC, which was organized in February 1981, wants to keep the township a rural community and taxes at a minimum.

After the board's adoption of a new zoning ordinance the recall drive was initiated.

The new ordinance will speed development, stated a BAC member. For example, the law calls for two-acre minimum lots in agricultural land. BAC wants a 10-acre minimum on all zoning districts in the township.

Other sections of the ordinance describing land use will also promote development.

BAC also objected to the board's reappointment of Roger Hardenbergh to the township Planning Commission. Hardenbergh "refuses to follow the Open Meetings Act," according to the recall petitions.

The petitions add that the four board members "refused to listen to the requests of the public made at township meetings and through correspondence."
Supervisor Parr said the majority of the board believes Hardenbergh has done a fair job on the planning commission.

"I interviewed all the candidates for the job and we felt he was the best man suited for the job," said Parr.

"I've never denied them a chance to be Continued on page 7

Mothers March On Birth Defects January 16 - 23

Birth Defects strike one of every 12 infants born each year in the U.S. This is a statistic which never reaches the headlines of newspapers or is announced on the evening news.

Each year more than 250,000 infants are born in this country with mental or physical defects. Far too few people are aware that birth defects are the nation's most serious child health problem. But there are some bright spots too.

Modern research has taken the mystery out of some forms of birth defects. Progress in treatment of birth defects before as well as after birth, is also being reported.

Many factors associated with the most common birth defect of all—low birthweight—are known, and can be understood by anyone.

We know that poor maternal nutrition, lack of prenatal care, and abuse of tobacco and alcohol and drugs are among factors that increase the risk of low birthweight. The dramatic increase of heroin use in recent years in this country has resulted in a rise in the number of heroin addicts and babies that are born "hooked."

Without the aid of the public, the March of Dimes cannot effectively fight birth defects. You can play an important part in the campaign to prevent birth defects. Won't you please help by giving generously to the Mother who rings your door bell.

Theatre Has Successful Year

The Black Sheep Repertory Theatre of Manchester's Board of Directors would like to heartily thank the Friends of the Theatre and the community of Manchester for its fine support during 1981. With the help of many volunteers, the Theatre was able to produce 16 shows across the year. Attendance was up in 1981, and we at the Theatre feel optimistic about the coming Season. The Friends of the Theatre organization contributes much to the Theatre operation, from ushers, House Managers, set builders, costume makers, performers, office help, painters, and Box Office personnel to all those who contribute funds or materials to the Theatre. There would be no theatre but for its Friends.

One special gift from a major theatre supporter in Manchester last year deserves recognition. Joseph and Mary Sue Moore (Mary Sue directs the Black Sheep Orchestra) of Pleasant Lake contributed above and beyond the normal call of duty by offering a summer home to one of the Company members, a professional actress from Lansing, during last summer Season. Patricia MacGriff, by staying with the Moore family, was able to devote her time to the Theatre, which greatly enhanced the Theatre, as well as nicely launching the talented woman's career. This is the kind of support, reminiscent of small town theatres like Statford von Avon, that separates the Manchester theatre from other theatres in the area. Community support. We profoundly thank the Moore family for believing and supporting the Theatre

Come Ski At Waterloo

About 5000 years ago, primitive man looked out across the vast snowy landscape of what is now Norway. Faced with a dilemma, he strapped a bone from a large animal to his feet and glided off in search of food. In such a way, cross-country skiing was invented. The first skis were simply for transportation, but through the years they have been important in hunting, warfare, and in modern times as an event in the Olympics.

Cross-country skiing is a sport for all ages and all skill levels. Many prefer a leisurely stroll through the snow woods, while others enjoy the challenge of a race in sub-zero weather. The rolling terrain of the Waterloo Recreation area offers miles of wilderness beauty for the novice and expert alike. A four mile long ski trail begins and ends at the Waterloo Nature Center. When volunteers are available, the building is open weekends from 1 to 4 p.m.

For those of you who want to learn about the basics of cross-country skiing, the Waterloo Nature Center will be sponsoring a ski clinic on Saturday, January 16th at 2:00 p.m. The class is being offered by Pedal and Tour of Jackson, and will include a discussion of the available equipment, how to choose the right equipment, the advantages and disadvantages of wax versus waxless skies, and the proper clothing to be worn. Those partaking in the program will be taught how to wax their skis and proper skiing techniques. Some equipment will be available for examination and possible use. A short movie will also be shown. The clinic will cost $2 per person. To register for the class call the nature center at 475-8069 or Carol Strahler at 475-9444.

"Telescopes And How They Work"

"Telescopes and How They Work" is the subject of The University of Michigan AstroFest series' 106th free public program at 7:30 p.m. January 15 in Auditorium 3, Modern Languages Building. Jim Loudon, AstroFest director and staff astronomer for the U-M Exhibit Museum, will discuss telescopes and basic astronomy for both new and seasoned amateur astronomers.

He also will show a film, "The Universe from Palomar," in which the people who actually built the Western Hemisphere's largest telescope tell how they did it.

The program will end with the University Lowbrow Astronomers, U-M's amateur astronomy club, conducting an exhibit of each major kind of telescope.

"Amateur astronomy is one of the fastest-growing hobbies in our country," says Loudon. "This lecture is an opportunity to learn more about it and how to go about building your own telescope."

The AstroFest series is sponsored by the U-M Exhibit Museum and department of aerospace engineering.

Concert Program

The Ann Arbor Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Carl Daehler, will present the music of Mozart, Mouret, and Enesco in concert on Saturday, January 23, at 8:30 p.m. in the Michigan Theatre.

Highlighting the concert program will be guest pianist Tibor Szasz, who will be featured in a unique reading of Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 9 in Eb (the "Jeunehomme" Concerto). This performance, believed to be one of the few of its kind, will include the piano part as originally conceived by Mozart, who treated the piano as both a solo and a continuo instrument in all his piano concerti. In this particular concerto Mozart took unusual care to indicate the use of the piano in this fashion. Pianist Szasz will also be featured in the midwestern premiere of Georges Enesco's Symphonie de Chambre, Op. 83. This piece, written in 1954 and scored for twelve solo instruments, is the last composition written by Enesco, who, due to his failing health, was unable to complete the piano pedal parts in the fourth movement of the piece. Though rarely performed, the work has been hailed by music scholars as an important monument in 20th century music.

Other works on the concert program include Mouret's Orchestra Suite No. 1 in D (familiar to many as it contains the theme from "Masterpiece Theatre"), and Mozart's Symphony No. 40 in G Minor. Tickets for this concert are available at the Michigan Theatre Box Office or by apparel. Fifty-two local donors attended and the necessary fifty pints were secured with two donors deferred.

Mrs. Aaron Nathan was Chairman-of-the-Day for the volunteer crew of nine. Emanuel United Church of Christ was the host to the clinic which was held from 8:45 a.m. until 12:00 noon, on the day before Christmas. The Red Cross provided the clinic supplies and canteen with the help of the church canteen committee.

Lynn Gonyer received a 2-gallon pin for having donated her 18th pint of blood to the Red Cross. Three 1-gallon pins were earned by Marjorie Scully, Claudia Day and Leo Clear.

Those assisting the professional staff from Southeastern Michigan Red Cross Blood Center with Mrs. Nathan were Miss Annetta Breitenwischer, Mrs. Ronald Jenter, Miss Jean Ann Wahl Miss Ella Duck, Miss Carolyn Schwab, Mrs. Del Ludwick, Mrs. Herman Boelter and Mrs. Alvin Kappler.

The first Bloodmobile for 1982 for Manchester Red Cross volunteers was on January 6 at Chrysler Corporation Proving Grounds. Mrs. Ica Schaffer, Chairman-of-the-Day, was aided by Mrs. Charles Spensley, Mrs. Ronald Jenter, Mrs. Norman MacLeod, Miss Amanda Schaible, Mrs. Willard Mann, Edward Galloway, Norman Mollenkopf, Mrs. Franklin Reck, Mrs. Duane Braun and Mrs. Aaron Nathan. One hundred forty five pints of blood were donated by Chrysler employees.

The spring Bloodmobile for Manchester is scheduled for Monday, March 29. Mark your calendar for this event.

Manchester Area Historical Society

The Manchester Area Historical Society will meet on Monday, January 18, 1982 at Emanuel United Church of Christ at 8:00 P.M.

The program, entitled "The Southwest Corner" will deal with the history of that hilly, lake-studded portion of the township that was settled largely by restless, land-hungry York-staters and Irish and English immigrants. Because of the area's natural egress southward into the old Detroit-Chicago Pike (now US-12) the early settler's orientation was more likely to be to Clinton for milling and marketing than to Manchester, and their social life centered around the Iron Creek Church, the district schools and Reynolds Corners.

An opening presentation will be made by Mrs. Lewis Kellum, a newcomer in the area, to be followed by comments from a panel composed of representatives of families who have been long term residents. The panel will include: Loren Troitz, Eunice Scully, Raymond Loucks, Maynard Blossom, Julie Foreman (representing the English family). It is hoped that any others who have memories or family stories relating to the Iron Creek, Matteson, or Nichols School Districts will come and share their lore with the group. All are welcome.

There will be a progress report on the purchase of the John Schneider Blacksmith Shop. Support from the community is needed.

Board Of Education Scheduled Meetings

Regular meetings of the Board of Education of the Manchester Community Schools are generally held on the third Monday of each month at 8:00 p.m. in the high school library. These meetings are devoted to the regular business of the Board. Provision is made at these meetings for visitors to address the Board on any topic.

Special work sessions of the Board are often scheduled. During the current school year the Board has often devoted the first Monday of each month to developing written policies for the school district. Notice of such special meetings is posted in public places throughout the community in advance of the meeting.

The following is a schedule of the regular Board of Education meetings for the remainder of the current school year: January 25, February 15, March 15, April 19, May 17, and June 21.

Legislative Update

Mary Keith Ballantine
23rd District

Fiscal Rights For Women - Gov. William G. Milliken has signed into law legislation giving married women the same rights as men when entering into financial contracts and other fiscal agreements. Until now, married women were often refused personal credit and other advantages, due to common law language in Michigan statutes. The new law changes that out-dated language, giving married women the same financial opportunities as men and single women.

Bourbon Street North - Super Bowl XVI fans will experience a little New Orleans in downtown Pontiac during Super Bowl Week, January 17-25, since Gov. Milliken signed into law a plan that will make available to restaurants and taverns, special tavern licenses for a designated area of downtown Pontiac. The licenses will expire after the Super Bowl Week.

Cheese Spread - Private agencies and state government programs that provide nutritional services to the needy, senior citizens, children and others, will receive, at no charge, surplus cheese from refrigerated federal warehouses for distribution. The U.S. government purchases quantities of cheese, butter, eggs and powdered milk, as a means to stabilize farm prices. However, President Reagan has decided it would be better to distribute the cheese now, rather than pay for the storage. The Michigan Department of Education has been instructed by the Governor to manage the distribution, because the DOE already stores and distributes food to the school lunch program.

Social Services Cutbacks - The director of Michigan's Department of Social Services is requesting that all his Civil Service employees participate in one of two voluntary pay reduction programs approved by the state Civil Service Commission. Director John Dempsey believes that if they do not, layoffs of nearly 2,500 employees will be essential, since the DSS budget was cut by over $17.8 million at the beginning of the current fiscal year.

Prisoner Release Pondered - Michigan's prisons are filling up again and many prisoners might be released early, under a 1981 law that requires accelerated parole of eligible inmates if prisons reach capacity. By the end of last month, there were 13,519 convicts incarcerated. Capacity of Michigan's prison system is 13,211. The prison population grows by about 40 inmates weekly, but the law does not go into effect until the prison population has been over capacity for at least 30 days. The Department of Corrections anticipates that early releases will not begin until sometime next month.

January Highlights - Super Bowl XVI festivities begin next week in Detroit, but other events statewide are shaping up too, like the annual Tip-Up-Town Festival at Houghton Lake, January 16-17 and 23-24. It is the second largest winter festival in the country and includes concerts, snowmobile and dog sled races, fishing contests and more. The Silver Stick Pee Wee Finals at the McMorran Center in Port Huron are Jan. 14-17, and the Furrin Car Races at Lake Missaukee in Lake City are Jan. 16-17. All ski areas report plenty of Michigan snow!

February 11, 1982. The fee for the class is $25. Registration is now underway and will continue through January 16 at the Community Education office 429-4931.

Fishermen, Farmers To Pay Estimated Tax Soon

Individuals engaged in the farming or fishing industries who earned at least two-thirds of their 1980 or 1981 gross income from farming or fishing must make a declaration of estimated tax for 1981 and pay all taxes due by January 18, 1982, the Internal Revenue Service says.

However, farmers or fishermen who plan to file their income tax returns for 1981 and pay the total tax by March 1, 1982, are not required to make an estimated tax declaration.

The IRS has three publications which explain filing requirements: Publication 225, Farmer's Tax Guide, Publication 595, Tax Guide for Commercial Fishermen, and Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

The free publications may be obtained by contacting IRS.

Stress Classes At Saline Hospital

Saline Community Hospital will be offering a four-week Stress Management class to the community as part of the winter term classes for the Community Education program of Saline Area Schools.

The class, which can provide valuable insight into the common stress producing situations in daily life and healthy ways in which to cope with unavoidable stress, will be offered on Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. at the high school for four weeks beginning January 21 through

Physicians and nurses respond to a simulated patient crisis in the new Emergency Service Center at the University of Michigan Hospitals. Key feature of this "trauma bay" treatment area is the floor-to-ceiling power column which centralizes much of the needed equipment for critical care and allows the team 360 degree access to the patient.

New Emergency Services At U Of M

University of Michigan Hospitals Thursday (Jan. 7) unveiled a new Emergency Services unit that will also serve as a regional trauma facility for Southeastern Michigan.

The new Emergency Services unit, which occupies a renovated wing of the U-M Hospitals Ambulatory Care Building, "has been redesigned, rebuilt and re-equipped to handle, effectively and efficiently, every medical or surgical need from a painful sore throat to a major highway disaster," according to James R. Mackenzie, M.D., chief of the U-M Emergency Services.

The emergency facility, the result of a $300,000 project, is the newest in Michigan. "Although technically advanced, it also puts great emphasis on the human needs of patients," Dr. Mackenzie said.

"Along with broken bones, major burns, heart attacks and wounds," Dr. Mackenzie noted, "we see many persons with less severe problems who come to us for medical or psychiatric treatment. For everyone, we have tried to provide an aura of welcome along with the ability to very quickly evaluate our patients so that there is zero waiting for persons with serious problems."

Patients reach the fourth-level emergency unit by means of a designated elevator and enter an attractively decorated, comfortable reception area. Computerized registration is rapid and a "triage" nurse, who determines the priorities and scheduling of treatment, is on duty in the reception area at all times so that every patient who enters can be immediately consulted for medical needs.

Access to U-M Emergency Services also has been improved with a new entrance road, rapid drop-off point for cars and ambulances and close-by patient parking. A new helicopter pad for air ambulances is only a few paces away.

The unit has been carefully designed to maintain closeness between patients, nurses and U-M faculty doctors who provide and supervise care 24 hours a day.

Most walls separating the formerly isolated treatment rooms have been removed. The rooms have been replaced by specially equipped and designed trauma bays grouped around a physician-nurse staff center so that patients are under constant observation. The treatment area has been nearly doubled; its layout improves patient flow and permits the staff to deal with greater numbers of serious cases simultaneously.

Hospital officials said the single technological improvement that will most enhance the efficiency of care is the $8,000 "power column" in each of the three trauma bays. These columns consolidate most emergency treatment equipment for restoring vital functions, such as oxygen, other gases, defibrillator, electrocardiogram, suction, infusion pump, heart monitor, plus space for other surgical supplies and equipment. The free-standing column, powered from the ceiling, allows the staff full 360 degree access to the patient. There are also two powerful operating room lights in each bay.

Inessential walls have been eliminated to maximize the use of space, yet a concern for patient privacy has been maintained and all trauma bays are curtained off.

Each trauma bay can handle two patients or, in a disaster situation, as many as four when the bay is enlarged with adjacent space. Additionally, there are five treatment rooms for less critical emergency cases, a room for isolation/observation, and a special room for family consultation.

Two more rooms in the Emergency Services unit can be used for emotional crisis intervention. The psychiatric function has been carefully integrated into the new emergency facility, hospital officials said.

The staff center situated like an island in the trauma bay area is also the radio and telemetry station from which the medical staff can maintain contact with the transporting vehicles-ambulances and helicopters. This contact also allows them to direct patient care in the field through the paramedic teams that accompany the patient.

There is a single phone number, 764-5102, for all incoming calls for any physician who wishes to transfer a patient. This assures that any referring physician can talk directly with the staff physician who has assumed initial responsibility for the patient's care.

"It's all so efficient, now that it's here, I can't remember what it was like before," said Richard E. Burney, M.D., associate chief of Emergency Service. "It really works."

ANN ARBOR BANK
$250,000 IRA SWEEPSTAKES
It's a sure thing.

When you look into the payoff of an Individual Retirement Account at Ann Arbor Bank and Trust, you'll think you were looking at some sort of sweepstakes, like the ones that add the odds of winning are nearly a million to one.

Consider the payoff of an IRA. You can deduct as much as $2,000 for a single return, up to $2,250 for a joint account with one wage earner, and up to $4,000 with a working spouse from your taxable income each year. If you're forty years old when you open your IRA account and deposit $167 a month, assuming an average interest rate of 11%, your payoff at retirement would be about a quarter of a million dollars. Your IRA deposits are TAX DEDUCTIBLE, plus there's no tax on your interest earnings until you retire and begin to make withdrawals.

No matter your age, Ann Arbor Bank and Trust provides an IRA plan for you.

The 18 Month Variable Certificate earns interest rates adjusted quarterly to the current money market conditions. There's a $500 minimum balance, and interest will be added to your account annually and at maturity. You may add deposit additional $500 or more without extending the term of the certificate.

The 30 Month Certificate assures you the interest rate for the entire 30 month term. There's a $500 minimum balance and interest will be compounded annually and at maturity.

Now a payoff like this is a pretty fat match for any lottery or sweepstakes going. And it has one thing going for it no sweepstakes ever will. It happens to be a sure thing.

Call your nearest branch for current interest rates on any IRA plan.

Family Service Christmas Project Successful

Manchester Family Service, Inc. ended
 1981 with a record Christmas Bureau Project because of the cooperation of the whole community. Forty-eight family groups and individual households were assisted in various ways. This number included 120 individuals, 57 of whom were children. The local agency operated the project for the Department of Social Services, The Salvation Army, Washtenaw County Health Department and area churches and organizations. St. Mary's church was the host for the distribution activities.

The canned and packaged food and grocery items collection was spearheaded by the Middle School Student Council
 under the direction of Mr. Brian Schick.
 Approximately 1500 items were provided through this drive which included Middle and Klager schools. They also donated $200.00 from the proceeds of their Christmas Dance. Mrs. William Schwab coordinated the project for the agency with the help of volunteers.

Grocery boxes were made up for each individual household on the list along with a food order or clothing order based on the Ann Arbor Salvation Army criteria for assistance. A dozen turkeys and four hams were donated by Double A Products employees and other individuals to be used in the food distribution.

A "Free Shop" which was held on the 17th of December, when the families came to the church to pick up their groceries and orders, was set up by Beta Sigma Phi sorority and other volunteers. The supplies for this were furnished by dozens of families throughout the area. The "Shop" included used clothing, household items,

 toys, and many new handmade slippers, mittens, caps, scarves and dolls. Mrs. Carl Schwab did her usual production of recycled dolls and new stuffed dolls and animals so dear to the small fry.

Dolls from the Great Lakes Federal Doll Contest were shared with Spaulding for Children again this year. The 8 to 12 year old on the Family Service list were the lucky recipients of Manchester's share.

This project was made possible with the help of all those mentioned and many, many more. Thanks also go to the Manchester United Way, Bethel United Church of Christ Women's Fellowship and Adult Fellowship, Emanuel United Church of Christ Women's Fellowship, Manchester

 individuals who donated to the financial needs of the project.

Manchester Family Service, Inc. is a local volunteer agency that helps people find the proper professional agency which can be of help to them, will transport people to doctors, clinics and legal aid when they have no means of transportation, has a furniture exchange whereby a person who has furniture to give away can find a home for it and can be of general help. The chairman of the board is Mrs. Franklin Reek, 428-8852 and the vice-chairman is Mrs. William Schwab, 428-8976.

News Of Good Things Growing

You've heard of wine and cheese tasting, fondue parties, and salad luncheons. This winter, try a new temptation to the taste buds - a 'pickle potpourri.'

Good things are growing in Michigan and more than 100 varieties of pickles are available to choose from. Our state leads the nation in growing cucumbers for pickle production with about 210 million pounds harvested in 1980, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

This may help explain why the largest pickle packer in the U.S. is located in Michigan.

For a pickle potpourri, as with other tasting parties, look for new pickle products at your favorite deli or grocery.
 Choose some varieties unfamiliar to many of your guests to add to the intrigue.

Arrange two to three relish trays with sweet midget, sliced bread-and-butter, kosher, dill and fresh-pack pickles. Pickled cauliflower, onions and peppers, chutney and corn relish will give your pickle display color and variety.

Serve broiled hamburgers cut in quarters, small wedges of Michigan submarine sandwiches (made with quality Michigan luncheon meats and cheeses), or crackers and bread slices to accompany

School Lunch Menu

Dutch Roundballers Fall

Yes we're still seeking our first victory of the season and if our playing is any indication, it won't be long until we win.
 We've been meeting some tough teams and getting blasted.

Friday, we squared off against the 4 and 1 Tigers from Hudson. Although the outcome was rather obvious by halftime, the Dutch kept scratching to be down only 20 at the finish with the scoreboard reading 72-52. Pete Johnson led all scorers by hitting for 17 points.

Novelist Charles Dickens believed that magnetic forces helped him to create and he always aimed his bed toward the North Pole.

ARTHRITIS AND RHEUMATISM

There are a lot of grin and bear it heroes in our midst. They're the victims of arthritis and rheumatism, who have no hope of being cured, because there is no cure.

It's not surprising that almost everyone knows someone with these conditions because the diseases affect about one in seven persons. Overall, more females than males are affected and the chance of occurrence increases in each decade of life. Over age 65, about 45 percent of women and 20 percent of men suffer from arthritis and rheumatism, compared with 22.5 percent of all persons in the 45-to-65 age group.

There's a difference between arthritis and rheumatism. Rheumatism is the broad term, that includes those diseases that affect muscles, tendons, ligaments and bursae, as well as the joints.

Arthritis, on the other hand, affects only the joints and is characterized by inflammation of the joints and their eventual degenerative changes.

There are more than 100 kinds of rheumatic diseases. So serious are these conditions that in this country the diseases are second only to heart disease as the leading cause of limited physical activity and time lost from work.

There are only rough figures for the number of people suffering from these diseases, because many have not yet been diagnosed. Our Michigan data show that about 286,000 people suffer from rheumatoid arthritis. For some of these people, treatment often can relieve pain and prevent unnecessary crippling.

About 704,000 suffer from osteoarthritis, the "wear and tear" type of arthritis. This kind is related to age, and is quite common. Almost everyone over the age of 60 years shows some X-ray evidence of osteoarthritis; and although the cause is unknown, it appears to be related to repeated injury or the persistence of other pre-existing rheumatic diseases. Sometimes treatment and physical therapy - and even surgery - can relieve the symptoms of this disease.

Although definitive cures are not available at this time, mobility can be maintained through corrective exercises under professional supervision, thereby reducing deformities, crippling, and disability that might otherwise occur. The treatment of arthritis and rheumatism requires teamwork among patient, physician, and physical therapists.

There are a number of certified rheumatologists and arthritis specialists in Michigan, and referral centers at three of the state's teaching hospitals.

Arthritis and rheumatism victims must be aware of quack medicine, promising cures that don't exist. You can minimize permanent damage by being prepared to deal with flare-ups of these diseases and the ways to protect the joints from injury, but still the pain cannot always be avoided. There will be days when you can only bear it.

Township Cancels Special Election

A special election that was to be held on March 2, 1982 for an advisory vote by Bridgewater Township electorate on the three propositions concerning part of the newly adopted Township Ordinance will not be held, due to the Attorney General's ruling.

Robert Harrison, Washtenaw County Clerk reminded the Township Board of the State Attorney General Ruling: "that a County Board of Commissioners may not validly expend public funds for the purpose of conducting a special election on an advisory question alone."

Supervisor Parr states "that the board will seek legal ways to obtain necessary information regarding this matter."

Graphic Arts Open House

Pictured is Graphic Arts Instructor James Roth with Graphic Arts student Walt Whittaker at Saline High School.

In celebration of National Printers Week, the Manchester Students of the Vocational Graphic Arts Class in Saline would like to invite you to our first annual Open House. The Open House is being held this Thursday, the twenty-first, at 7:00 p.m. at Saline High School (room 57).

Bridgewater Action Committee Board Member Recall Sought

Petitions asking for an election to recall four of the five Bridgewater Township Board members were filed Friday, January 15, 1982 with the Washtenaw County Clerk.

Manchester Christian Unity Worship

Remember when the small boys of one Christian denomination threw derisive words across the street at the boys of the "other faith"? Those sad days when the objects thrown were sometimes more substantial are approaching their end. Today Christians join in worshipping God and praying that all find their home in him. Sunday, January 24, 1982, the Manchester Christian Unity Service will be held for the 12th successive year. The Sharon United Methodist Church will host the 2:30 service (guaranteed to be compatible with the Super Bowl). The Reverend Mr. Robert MacFarlane, pastor of the Emanuel United Church of Christ will be flying in from Washington D.C. to bring the afternoon message titled "Many Homes, one Home."

There will be a conversation and refreshment time following the service of worship. You are invited to be present at the corner of Pleasant Lake Road and M-52 and give evidence to Christian Unity in our day.

HIT or MISS by Farley

It's too late to talk about making New Year resolutions but perhaps not too late to find out what the other fellow has done about his. We were gonna ask our friends and the man on the street what they had resolved but we never got to it but several reporters in various dailies did just that and so I hope they won't be mad if I copy some of the answers they received.

Below are some of the resolutions as stated to the inquiring reporter:

- Plant a flower.
- Visit an old person.
- Call up an old friend.
- Take some ordinary object and find some beauty in it.
- Show a child how to whistle.
- Think of several good things that happened to you yesterday.
- Forgive a mistake.
- Do what someone else wants to gracefully.
- Be patient.
- Say "Thank you" with meaning.
- Look for the truth.
- Erase worry and fear of the unknown.
- Lower your voice.
- Have some fun.
- Talk up your home town.
- Quit talking about losing weight and just do it.

Throw out all your socks and replace them with all black ones. In the dim light of morning it's too easy to mess up and so you go around all day with one brown and one black and who can then keep from feeling like a fool.

Fall in love.

Don't ask people how they are unless you really care, then stay around long enough to listen to the answer.

Be unpredictable but not inconsistent. Treasure secrets but not unpredictable. Get smart—stop smoking.

Agree to be chairman of something. You probably have as much ability as the last person who did it.

Let your boss know you are ready to be promoted.

Tell shorter stories.

Stop introducing women as "so-and-so's wife."

Don't tell people they look tired. If they are they don't want to be reminded of it.

Make some new friends. If you've forgotten how, practice.

Vow to be less critical of your friends, mate, children, relatives, etc.

Look at the stars, listen to the wind.

Learn how to say no by saying "no" nicely.

Listen to somebody's joke with attention even if you've heard it before.

Stop complaining about little things.

Smile widely at someone you don't like.

Say yes cheerfully, when the next time you are asked to volunteer for a good cause.

Register to vote.

Listen, really listen, to what people have to say.

There were more on these lists but if you haven't made any worthwhile resolutions, you surely can pick a few from this list. Maybe President Reagan was the shrewd one when he was asked if he had made any resolutions and he replied "just one", and when asked what that one was he smiled and said "not to make any."

The petitions also charge the four board members "refused to listen to the requests of the public made at township meetings and through correspondence."

A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE

Discover the options that set this IRA a world apart.

NBI IRA Options:

1. Savings Account.
2. 18-Month Variable Rate Time Deposit.
3. 30-Month Fixed Rate Time Deposit.
4. 6-Month Fixed Rate Money Market Time Deposit.
5. Common Stocks.
6. Bonds.
7. Money Market Funds.

NBI introduces an IRA that gives you more ways to make your money a star performer. Besides tax savings, you get the flexibility of choosing from a wide range of IRA options—all paying a high return on your investment, and all providing detailed statements.

• IRA Savings Account. Yield for this option is over 5 1/2% higher than a regular savings account. You'll earn the maximum of 8% interest compounded continuously. When your investment grows to a set amount ($1,000, $10,000, $25,000, etc.) it can be transferred to another IRA option that pays higher interest. Deposits to your IRA Savings Account can be as low as $10, and can be made conveniently through a payroll deduction program.

• IRA Time Deposits. Includes the following:

- 18-Month Variable Rate Time Deposit* - $1,000 minimum deposit.
- 30-Month Fixed Rate Time Deposit - $1,000 minimum deposit.
- 6-Month Fixed Rate Money Market Time Deposit - $10,000 minimum deposit.

Other financial institutions may appear to be paying a higher rate. But, in fact, they may not be. NBI, on the other hand, will pay 1/4% above the rate of 91-day Treasury Bills.* Other time deposits will be at the prevailing interest rates.

• IRA Trust Funds. An important NBI difference—savings and loans can't offer these. We have an experienced trust department, so we can offer three more IRA options:

- Common Stocks.
- Bonds.
- Money Market Funds.

Tax savings that make a world of difference.

You can deduct your IRA contribution from your taxable income—up to $2,000 a year if you're single, up to $2,250 a year if you're married with one income, and up to $4,000 a year if you're married, have two incomes and two IRAs. And the earnings on your IRA are tax-deferred, too.

The chart below shows you how much money you can save in taxes in 1982 by investing in an NBI IRA plan now. The information is based on a $2,000 single IRA contribution, and a $4,000 contribution to two IRAs by a working couple filing a joint return.

POTENTIAL 1982 TAX SAVINGS

Single ($2,000)
If your taxable income is:	Tax Bracket	Potential Savings
